a Sunday, not Saturday, for the sabbath "was past." See note, Mt. 28:1. Twelve hours or one night had passed since the end of the sabbath at sunset the day before. Some time after sunset Christ arose from the dead. The time was after 3 days (8:31; Mt. 12:40) b Question 121. Last question in Mark. This was their only difficulty, proving that they had not heard of the watch or the sealing of the stone which would have been unlawful to break.
c One of three angels. Cp. Jn. 20:12 d Gr. stole, a long outer robe of distinction (Rev. 1:13)
e Same word for "sore amazed" in Mk. 14:33. They did not expect this. They were merely seeking a dead body f One of the most important gospel facts without which no man can be saved (1 Cor. 15; Rom. 4:25) g Peter, it is most likely, would not consider himself worthy of the name disciple, seeing he had done what none of the rest (not even Judas) had done - denied positively (Mt. 26:70), then denied contemptuously (Mt. 26:72), and then denied blasphemously his Master (Mt. 26:74). He was, therefore, specially mentioned by Jesus, to assure Him of the Lord's compassion, forgiveness, and restoration to the apostolic office he had rashly forfeited by his instability. All this was predicted, so now his re-conversion must also be fulfilled so that he could "strengthen the brethren" in the trying days ahead (Lk. 22:31-32)
h Fulfilling Mk. 14:28
i Note the five reactions of the women at seeing an angel - went out quickly - fled - trembled - were amazed, or were fearful - and were speechless j The first part of the day after sunset ending the weekly sabbath. It could not be that God would permit Him to remain dead one minute after He had finished His work in hell (Ps. 16:10; Eph. 4:8-10; 1 Pet. 3:19) and after prophecy of three full days and three full nights was ended (Mt. 12:40)
k Mary had gone back to the tomb after taking the angel's message, and had lingered after the disciples had left (Jn. 20:1-18)
l This is the second trip from the sepulchre, reporting now that she had seen Jesus. They did not believe her stories, for they seemed "as idle tales" (Lk. 24:11). It did not seem to come to them what Christ had said on numerous occasions - that He would rise after the third day and would see them in Galilee (Mt. 16:21, refs.). What unbelief!
m They could mourn and weep for the dead, but would not believe in the resurrection (v 11, 13) n After these things: He manifested Himself to two on the road to Emmaus (Lk. 23:13-35. See note k, Jn. 21:14)
o Different form from what the disciples had ever seen of Him. Gr. morphe, the form by which a person or thing strikes the vision. Here it refers to His resurrected body and the same word in Phil. 2:6 refers to the divine or God form. Cp. His form in Rev. 1:12-18; Mt. 17:2
p See appearances (note k, Jn. 21:14) q This very fact alone proves the truth of these things. Never were people so difficult to convince of facts as were the disciples. People of such skeptical minds would never credit anything as truth without the fullest evidence of it
r A command for all believers
s Gr. kosmos, social system (2 Pet. 3:6)
t 2 point N. T. program for the church: See p. 159 u 2 general results of preaching:
1 Saves the soul through faith (v 16; Rom. 10:9-10; Eph. 2:8-9; 1 Jn. 1:7-9; 2 Cor. 2:15-16; Rom. 1:16; 1 Cor. 1:18-21; Jn. 3:16-20)
2 Damns the soul through unbelief (v 16; 2 Cor. 2:15-16; 4:4; Jn. 3:18-20; 8:24; 16:9; Rev. 21:8)

x The source of the believer's power. "In my name" expresses the full power of attorney. If one fully uses this power he will do the works of Christ (Jn. 14:12-15; 15:16; Acts 1:8). See notes on Jn. 16:23-26 a Gr. apo, used 102 times to:

1 Take up, remove (Mt. 14:12; Jn. 1:29; 11:39, 41, 48; 15:2)
2 Take away (Mt. 13:12; 22:13), to destroy (Mt. 24:39; 1 Jn. 3:5)
3 Put away (Eph. 4:31; 1 Cor. 5:2)
4 Do away with or kill (Lk. 23:18; Jn. 19:15; Acts 21:36; 22:22)
5 Remove (Mt. 21:21; Mk. 11:23)
Not one time is the word used of making a side show out of serpents or anything else that it is used with. The whole idea is immunity from snake bites, as in Acts 28:1-5, and power over them in conflict, as in Lk. 10:19; Ps. 91:13. Handling snakes in public is no more proof that one has faith or that he is a Christian than the snake charmers of India or Burma, who are better at this than Christians, and who do not even believe in Christ. If one has power with God let it be used as Jesus and the apostles used it (Acts 5:16; 10:38; 19:11-12; etc.). If one could handle all the snakes in the world and could not heal the sick and cast out devils what good would it do him or anybody else?

b The "and if" of this verse applies to snakes as well as to poison. If one having sufficient faith, is bit by a snake, as in Acts 28:1-5, it will not hurt him. If he is poisoned accidentally or by enemies it will not hurt him (2 Ki. 4:41). This promises protection to the believer from wild animals and failure in attempts by enemies to do away with him

c Laying hands on the sick to heal and to bless men is a practice of both Testaments (Gen. 48:14; Num. 8:10; 27:23; Dt. 34:9; Mt. 19:15; Mk. 5:23; 6:2, 5; Lk. 4:40; 13:13; Acts 5:12; 13:3; 14:3; 19:11; 28:8; 1 Tim. 4:14; 2 Tim. 1:6; Heb. 6:2)

The time is fulfilled for (1:15)

1 The coming of the Messiah (Gen. 3:15; Dan. 9:24-26; Isa. 9:6-7)
2 The fulness of time (Gal. 4:4-6)
3 The last dispensation or probationary period before God takes over the kingdoms of this world (Mt. 13:24-26; Rev. 11:15; 19:11-21; 20:1-10)
4 The final opportunity for Israel to prove herself worthy of God's trust (Mt. 21:43; Rom. 9-11)
5 The fulness of grace and truth (Jn. 1:16-17; 1 Pet. 1:10-12)
6 The times of ignorance of God to cease (Acts 17:30)
7 The kingdom of heaven to be offered (Mt. 3:2; 4:17)
8 The full demonstration of the kingdom of God among men (Mt. 12:28; Acts 10:38; Jn. 10:10; 1 Cor. 4:20)
9 The acceptable year of God (Isa. 61:1-2; Lk. 4:16-21; Jn. 10:10)
10 The building of a church of both Jews and Gentiles (1 Cor. 12:13; Eph. 2:14-15; 3:1-6)
11 Evangelization of the world (Mt. 28:19-20; Mk. 16:15-20; Lk. 24:47; Acts 1:4-8; 10:43)
12 Blotting out of the old covenant (Col. 2:14-17). For other points see note m, Jn. 19:30

18 facts about Judas (14:21):

1 An apostle (Mt. 10; Mk. 3:13-19)
2 Filled with the Spirit (Mt. 10:20)
3 A found sheep (Mt. 10:16)
4 Ordained to preach (Mk. 3:13)
5 Ordained to heal (Mk. 3:13-14)
6 Endued with power (Mt. 10:1-8)
7 A successful preacher and healer (Mk. 6:7-13; Lk. 9:6, 10)
8 A baptizer in water (Jn. 4:1-2)
9 A possessor of eternal life (Jn. 17:2 with 17:12)
10 A saved man and had his name in the book of life (Acts 1:20 with Ps. 69:25-28. Cp. Lk. 10:20 with Mk. 6:13)
11 Promised an eternal kingship (Mt. 19:28)
12 First treasurer of the church (Jn. 12:4-6; 13:29)
13 A familiar friend of Christ (Ps. 41:9). The Heb. for "familiar" is shawlome, safe, favoured, perfect, friend. See notes on Ps. 41:9; 69:25-28; 109:3-20; Jn. 7:70; 17:12 tongues;

5 The ascension (Lk. 24:50; Acts 1:9-11; Eph. 1:20-23; 4:7-11) of these - the Vatican, a blank space is left for these verses, indicating that the chapter is incomplete. It was not until the 4th century that they were questioned.

9 The doctrines taught in these verses can be proved by many other Scriptures
(1) The appearances of Christ of v 9-14 are stated elsewhere. See note g, Jn. 21:14
(2) The commission of v 15 to preach and baptize is stated in Mt. 28:19-20; Lk. 24:47-53; Acts 1:1-8
(3) The result of preaching of v 16 is stated in Jn. 3:16-20; 1 Cor. 1:18-21; etc.
(4) The signs to follow believers of v 17-18 are promised also in Mt. 10:1-8; 17:20; Mk. 9:23; 11:22-24; Lk. 10:19; Jn. 14:12; etc.
(5) The ascension of v 19 is stated in Lk. 24:49-53; Acts 1:9-11
(6) The confirmation of the Word of v 20 by the signs of v 17-18 is recorded in Heb. 2:3-4; Acts 2:43; 5:16; etc.

10 If we leave these verses out just because they are not in a few MSS., then to be consistent we must leave out great portions of the Bible. For example, the Codex Vaticanus that leaves out Mk. 16:9-20 also leaves out Gen. 1-46; Ps. 105-137; Heb. 9:

14-13:25; and all of 1 and 2 Timothy, Titus, Philemon, and Revelation. Why not leave out all of these portions also if we are going to leave out Mk. 16:9-20? There is not one early MS. but what leaves out some portion, so if we are going to leave out all these parts we shall have a smaller Bible than some of our modern short ones. Suppose we found a Bible today having parts missing and we would conclude that the missing parts were not in the original copy. Would this be sensible? Neither is it sensible to take this attitude toward the parts that are not in the old MSS.

The way Mark ends his gospel and the fact that a few MSS. do not contain these verses are no grounds for leaving them out of the Bible. Since these verses are in perfect harmony with the other gospels and a necessary part of Mark, why question them further?

b Lk. 24:49-53; Jn. 3:13; 6:62; Acts 1:9-11; Eph. 4:8-10 c Acts 2:33; 7:56-57; Rom. 8:34; Eph. 1:20; Col. 3:1; Heb. 1:3; 8:1; 10:12; 12:2; 1 Pet. 3:22 d Another clear reference to the N. T. program for the church (see p. 159)

a Proofs v 9-20 are part of Mark:
1 Greek Manuscripts. There are over 4,200 Gr. MSS. of the N.T. At least 618 contain the gospels and only two do not have these verses
2 Syriac versions. Syriac is the first language into which the N. T. was translated. The "Peshito" MSS., 150 A. D., and "Curetonian," 3rd century, contain these verses
3 Latin versions. 8,000 of them now exist, copied from Jerome's Vulgate, 382 A.D. (He had access to the Gr. testaments of his day). It contains these verses. His version was a revision of the Vetus Itala (2nd cent.), which also contains these verses
4 The Gothic version (350 A.D.), contains these verses
5 The Egyptian versions: the Memphitic (Coptic), 4th cent., and the Thebaic (Sahidic), 3rd cent., contain these verses
6 The Armenian (5th cent.), the Ethiopic (4th cent.), and the Georgian (6th cent.), all have v 9-20
7 The Fathers. Whether they are always right in doctrine or not, the fact remains that their testimony as to whether a verse or verses existed or not in their day, is even more valuable than MSS. and versions. There are about 100 writers older than the oldest Gr. MSS. and about 200 more of them between 300 to 600 A. D. and they all refer to these verses as being written by Mark as part of his gospel. See "Ante-Nicene Fathers" which refers to these verses 16 times confirming Mark as their author
8 It is admitted by all that the overwhelming mass of witnesses - MSS., versions, and Fathers are in favor of them, and that the two oldest Gr. MSS. - the Sinaitic and the Vatican are the only two that do not have them. It is also admitted that in one he expected to judge him by would be an unjust person. A deity who had to be interpreted every time he spoke would not be worthy of our consideration. The fault in Bible complications is not with God or the Bible, but with men who refuse to believe what God says and think we have to interpret what He says in order to get the meaning

5 Because it was given by God to be understood by the most simple and trusting people (Dt. 29:29; Mt. 11:25; 13:19-23; 2 Cor. 4:1-6; 2 Tim. 3:16-17)
6 Because simply reading and believing is all that is required to understand it (Ps. 1:2-3; 2 Tim. 2:15; Mt. 11:15, note; Mk. 4:22-23, notes)
7 Because 80% of it is plain history, promises, and simple instructions on how to live. The other 20% is simple prophecy, or history written beforehand. See note o, 8:17

Summary of Saint Mark

Date and place: between 57-63 A. D. Place, unknown

Author: John Mark. See note j, Acts 12:12; 1 Pet. 5:13

Theme: Jesus Christ as Jehovah's Servant (Isa. 42:1-21; 50:4-11; 52:13-53:12; Zech. 3:8; Mk. 10:45; Phil. 2:5-8). The servant character is seen throughout the book. The word straightway is used by Mark as many times as in all the other gospels combined (note b, 3:6). There is no genealogy of Christ, for who gives a genealogy of a servant? It is a gospel of deeds and works rather than words. It was given by divine inspiration, such as Luke and Paul received from God (Lk. 1:3; Gal. 1:12-16; 2:2), and not from human sources, as alleged by some. Details of Christ's fatigue (4:38; 11:12; 14:36); sympathies (6:34; 8:2); love (10:21); composure (4:38-40; 15:5); solitude (1:35; 6:30-32); wonder (6:6); grief (3:5); sighing (7:34; 8:12); anger (3:5; 10:14); and other facts (1:35; 3:7; 4:1, 38; 6:7, 40; 12:41; 13:3; 15:39; etc.) emphasize the Servant idea of the book

Statistics: 41st book of the Bible; 16 chapters; 678 verses; 15,171 words; 121 questions; 11 O. T. prophecies fulfilled in Mark; 30 new prophecies given; 582 verses of history; 43 verses fulfilled and 53 verses of unfulfilled prophecy

Would Christ have trusted an enemy? Would God have chosen and ordained an unsaved man to preach and heal?
14 Trusted by Christ (Ps. 41:9) and since Christ knew what was in men (Jn. 2:25) He knew Judas could be trusted like any saved man until he falls
15 Not an enemy of Christ, not one that hated Him, but an equal in grace, a guide, and an acquaintance who counseled and fellowshipped with Him in God's house (Ps. 55:12-14). That this refers to the betrayal is clear from Jn. 13:18-19; Acts 1:16-17; Ps. 41:9
16 A divine officer of the gospel (Ps. 109:8; Acts 1:20; Mt. 10:1-8)
17 Part of the apostolic ministry (Acts 1:16-17, 25; Mt. 10:1-20)
18 A thief, that is, he became a thief (Jn. 12:4-6), an adversary (Jn. 6:70), and unclean (Jn. 13:10-11), and "by transgression fell" like all backsliders (Acts 1:25; Mk. 14:21)

10 classes who think the Bible hard to understand (4:20):

1 Those ignorant of its contents
2 Those too lazy to read it
3 Those biased contrary to its true doctrines (Mt. 15:7-14; Jn. 8:43)
4 Rebels against what it says because they have listened to religious teachers who explain it away
5 Those uninterested in trying to understand it due to the satanic theory that it is hard to understand
6 Those too worldly and sinful to believe it because it condemns them
7 Unstable souls who wrest at it to their own destruction (2 Pet. 3:16)
8 Deceivers who use it to further their own interests (2 Cor. 4:1-4)
9 Those who permit Satan to blind and rob them of truth (Mt. 13:19-23; 2 Cor. 4:1-4)
10 Those who refuse to humble themselves and be converted (Mt. 18:3; Isa. 6:9-10)

7 reasons why the Bible is simple:

1 Because it is a revelation (2 Tim. 3:16-17; 2 Pet. 1:21; Heb. 1:1)
2 Because of its repeated truths (2 Cor. 13:1). All one needs to do with the Bible is find out what God says, where He says it and then believe it
3 Because it is written in the most simple human terms possible. If it is understood as it is written then it is a simple book (Lk. 24:25, 45)
4 Because God is the author (2 Tim. 3:16-17; 2 Pet. 1:21). A deity that could not express himself as clearly as man does would not be the living, all-knowing God. One who could, yet would not make himself clear and sought to hide from man the very truth

Superscription on the cross (15:26)

Much controversy has raged over the differences of what was written on the cross, as all four gospels have different wording. Mark and Matthew mention "the accusation" which might be different from the "title" of Jn. 19:19. The accusation in Matthew and Mark is identical except Mark omits "This is Jesus." He only gives part of it while Matthew gives the whole. They do not say the writing was in Heb., Gr., and Latin, as in Lk. 23:38; Jn. 19:20. Different wording could be in these three languages and this could explain the difference

"Shall be saved" (16:16)

This refers to final salvation, as "shall be damned" refers to final damnation. One is not damned until the end of a life of sowing to the flesh and until the end of the broad road (Mt. 7:13-14; Gal. 6:7-8; Rom. 6:23; 8:12-13). One can get right with God any time between now and final damnation (1 Jn. 1:7; Jn. 3:16; Rom. 10:9-10). Our reaping life eternal is also at the end of a life of sowing to the spirit (Gal. 6:7-8), at the end of the narrow road (Mt. 7:13-14), and at the end of our faith (Jn. 6:27, note; Mt. 19:29)

I Pre-natal events: birth of John the Baptist (Lk.1:1-80)

1 Introduction to Luke

FORASMUCH as [a]many have taken in hand to set forth in order a [b]declaration of [c]those things which are most surely believed among us,

2 Even as they delivered them unto us, which from the [d]beginning were [e]eyewitnesses, and [f]ministers of the word;

3 It seemed good to me [g]also, having had perfect understanding of all things [h]from the very first, to write unto thee in order, [i]most excellent [j]Thĕ-ŏph'ĭ-lŭs,

4 That thou mightest know the certainty of those things, wherein thou hast been instructed.

2 History of John's parents

5 ¶ THERE was in the days of Hĕr'od, [k]the king of Jū-dæ'ā, a certain priest named [l]Zăch-a-rī'as, of [m]the course of Ă-bī'ā: and his wife was of the [n]daughters of Aär'on, and her name was [o]Ē-lĭs'a-bĕth.

6 And they were both righteous before God, walking in all the commandments and ordinances of the Lord [p]blameless.

7 And they had [q]no child, because that Ē-lĭs'a-bĕth was barren, and they both were now well [r]stricken in years.

3 The annunciation of John

8 And it came to pass, that while he executed the priest's office before God in the order of his course,

9 According to the custom of the priest's office, his lot was to [s]burn incense when he went into the [t]temple of the Lord.

10 And the whole multitude of the people were praying without at the time of incense.

11 And there appeared unto him [u]an angel of the Lord standing on the right side of [v]the altar of incense.

12 And when Zăch-a-rī'as saw him, [w]he was troubled, and fear fell upon him.

*13 But the angel said unto him, [x]Fear not, Zăch-a-rī'as: for thy prayer [y]is heard; and thy wife Ē-lĭs'a-bĕth shall bear thee a son, and thou shalt call his name [z]John.

14 And thou shalt have joy and gladness; and many shall rejoice at his birth.

15 For he shall be [a]great in the sight of the Lord, and shall drink [b]neither wine nor strong drink; and he shall be [c]filled with the Hō'lĭ Ghōst, even from his mother's womb.

16 And many of the [d]children of Ĭs'ra-el shall he turn to the Lord their God.

17 And he shall go before him in [e]the spirit and power of Ē-lī'as, to turn the hearts of the fathers to the children, and the disobedient to the wisdom of the just; [f]to make ready a people prepared for the Lord.

4 The sign to Zechariah

18 And Zăch-a-rī'as said unto the angel, [g]Whereby shall I know this? for I am an old man, and my wife well stricken in years.

19 And the angel answering said unto him, [h]I am Gā'brĭ-el, that stand in the presence of God; and am sent to speak unto thee, and to shew thee these [i]glad tidings.

*20 [j]And, behold, thou shalt be dumb, and not able to speak, until the day that these things shall be performed, [k]because thou believest not my words, which shall be fulfilled in their season.

5 The conception of John

21 And the people [l]waited for Zăch-a-rī'as, and marvelled that he tarried so long in the temple.

22 And when he came out, he could not speak unto them: and they perceived that he had seen a vision in the temple: for he beckoned unto them, and remained speechless.

23 And it came to pass, that, as soon as the days of his ministration were [m]accomplished, he departed to his own house.

24 And after those days [n]his wife Ē-lĭs'a-bĕth conceived, and hid herself five months, saying,

25 Thus hath the Lord dealt with me in the days wherein he looked on me, to take away my reproach among men.

6 The annunciation of Jesus

26 And in the [o]sixth month the angel Gā'brĭ-el was sent from God unto a [p]city of Găl'ĭ-lee, named Năz'a-rĕth, 27 To a [q]virgin [r]espoused to a man whose name was [s]Jō'seph, of the house of Dā'vid; and the virgin's name was Mā'rў.

*28 And the angel came in unto her, and said, [t]Hail, thou that art [u]highly favoured, the Lord is with thee: blessed art thou among women.

29 And when she saw him, she was [v]troubled at his saying, and cast in her mind what manner of salutation this should be.

*30 And the angel said unto her, [w]Fear not, Mā'rў: for thou hast found favour with God.

31 [x]And, behold, [y]thou shalt conceive in thy womb, and bring forth a son, and shalt call his name [z]Jē'sus.

32 [a]He shall be great, and shall be called the Son of the [b]Highest: and the Lord God [c]shall give unto him the throne of his father Dā'vid:

33 And he shall reign over the house of [d]Jā'cob for ever; and of his kingdom there shall be q This settles the meaning of the Heb. almah in Isa. 7:14. There is no question about the meaning of the Gr. parthenos. It refers to a pure virgin who has never known a man, that is, never experienced marriage relationship (Mt. 1:23; 25:1, 7, 11; Lk. 1:27; 2:36; Acts 21:9; 1 Cor. 7:25, 28, 34, 36, 37; 2 Cor. 11:2; Rev. 14:4). In Mary's case it is plainly stated that she had not known a man (v 34); and so, no one has a right to question the virgin birth y Note the four great truths here corresponding with the purposes of the four gospels:

1 Thou shalt . . . bring forth a son: "Behold the Man," as portrayed in Lk.
2 Thou shalt call His name Jesus: "Behold My servant," as portrayed in Mark
3 He shall be great . . . the Son of the Highest: "Behold your God," as portrayed in John 4 He shall reign: "Behold thy King," as portrayed in Matthew z See note j, Mt. 1:21
a Both John and Jesus were to be "great" (v 15, 32), but Jesus was to be the greater (Jn. 3:27-30; Mt. 11:11) b Gr. hupsistos, the Most High. Used 7 times in Lk. 1:32, 35, 76; 2:14; 6:35; 8:28; 19:38, and only 4 times elsewhere (Mt. 21:9; Mk. 5:7; 11:10; Heb. 7:1) c 2 Sam. 7:16; Isa. 9:6-7; 16:5; Ps. 132:11; Lk. 22:29-30
d Jacob includes all the 12 tribes (Ezek. 48; Lk. 22:29-30; Acts 26:7; Rev. 7:1-8; 21:12)

a Nothing is clearer in Scripture than the eternal (not only the millennial) reign of Jesus Christ and all resurrected saints over all coming eternal generations of natural peoples (Gen. 8:22; 9:12, 16; 17:7-19; 2 Sam. 7; Ps. 72: 5; 79:13; 89:4; Isa. 9:6-7; 51:6; 59:21; Dan. 2:44-45; 7:13-14, 27; Ezek. 37: 24-28; Lk. 1:33, 55; Rev. 11:15; 22:4-5)

b Question 2. Next, v 43. A question of information, not of unbelief as in the case of Zacharias (v 18-20) c 5th N. T. prophecy in Lk. (1:35-37, fulfilled). Next, v 42

d Sonship with Christ always refers to humanity, not to deity. As God, He had no beginning (Mic. 5:2; Jn. 1:1-2); was not begotten or He would have had a beginning as God; and was not God's Son. But as man, He had a beginning, was begotten, and was God's Son (Ps. 2:7, 12; Mt. 1:18-25; Lk. 1: 35; Heb. 1:5-6). In these passages it is clear that there was a certain day when God was to have a Son and the Son have a Father. It was to be in the future from the time the prophets spoke. If sonship refers to deity, then this deity had a beginning on a certain day and He was not eternal. But if it refers to humanity, then all scriptures are clear and we have no man-made mystery of the so-called eternal sonship of Jesus Christ. If it refers to both deity and humanity, then when did He become God, when was He begotten, how could He have been eternal? If He had a beginning and was begotten then He was not, nor is He an eternal God. If He was a son of God by creation, then He is no greater than angels and other beings who had beginnings. Multiplied problems increase and become unanswerable with Scripture if we hold to the theory of eternal sonship, but all questions are clear when we accept the plain statements of Scripture that sonship refers to humanity and not to deity

e Gr. suggenes, countryman, not cousin in the sense we use it. Used only here and in v 58. That she was from the tribe of Levi is clear in v 5, while both Joseph and Mary were from the tribe of Judah through David (note n, v 27)

l This disproves the theory of the "immaculate conception" or the total absence of original sin in Mary. If God was her Saviour, then she must have been a sinner in order to be saved. Not one scripture ever hints of such an idea - that Mary was sinless ★35 And the angel answered and said unto her, [c]The Hō'lў Ghōst shall come upon thee, and the power of the Highest shall overshadow thee: therefore also that holy thing which shall be born of thee shall be called the [d]Son of God.

36 And, behold, thy [e]cousin Ĕ-lĭs'a-bĕth, she hath also conceived a son in her old age: and this is the sixth month with her, who was called barren.

37 For with God nothing shall be impossible.

38 And Mā'rў said, Behold the handmaid of the Lord; be it unto me according to thy word. And the angel departed from her.

39 And Mā'rў arose in those days, and went into the hill country with haste, into a [f]city of Jū'dā;

40 And entered into the house of Zăch-a-rī'as, and saluted Ĕ-lĭs'a-bĕth.

41 And it came to pass, that, when Ĕ-lĭs'a-bĕth heard the salutation of Mā'rў, the babe [g]leaped in her womb; and Ĕ-lĭs'a-bĕth was [h]filled with the Hō'lў Ghōst:

43 [j]And whence is this to me, that the mother of my Lord should come to me?

44 For, lo, as soon as the voice of thy salutation sounded in mine ears, the babe leaped in my womb for joy.

45 And blessed is she that believed: for there shall be a performance of those things which were told her from the Lord.

8 The magnificat (Cp. 1 Sam. 2:1)

★46 And Mā'rў said, [k]My soul doth magnify the Lord, 47 And my spirit hath rejoiced in God [l]my Saviour.

48 For he hath regarded the low estate of his handmaiden: for, behold, from henceforth all generations shall call me blessed.

49 For he that is mighty hath done to me great things; and holy is his name.

▸50 And his mercy is on them that [m]fear him from generation to generation.

51 He hath shewed strength with his arm; he hath scattered the proud in the imagination of their hearts.

58 And her neighbours and her [d]cousins heard how the Lord had shewed great mercy upon her; and they rejoiced with her.

59 And it came to pass, that on the [e]eighth day they came to circumcise the child; [f]and they called him Zăch-a-rī'as, after the name of his father.

60 And his mother answered and said, Not so; but he shall be called Jŏhn.

61 And they said unto her, There is none of thy kindred that is called by this name.

62 And they [g]made signs to his father, how he would have him called.

63 And he asked for a [h]writing table, and wrote, saying, His name is [i]Jŏhn. And they marvelled all.

10 Sign of dumbness fulfilled (1:20)

64 And his mouth was opened immediately, and his [j]tongue loosed, and he spake, and praised God.

65 And fear came on all that dwelt round about them: and all these sayings were [k]noised abroad throughout all the hill country of Jū-dæ'ā.

66 And all they that heard them laid them up in their hearts, saying, What manner of child shall this be! And the hand of the Lord was with him.

11 Prophecy of Zacharias

★67 And his father Zăch-a-rī'as was [l]filled with the Hō'lў Ghōst, and prophesied, saying,

68 [m]Blessed be the Lord God of Ĭs'ra-el; for he hath visited and redeemed his people,

69 And hath raised up an [n]horn of salvation for us in the [o]house of his servant Dā'vid;

70 As he spake by the mouth of his holy prophets, which have been since the [p]world began:

▸71 [q]That we should be saved from our enemies, and from the hand of all that hate us;

72 To perform the mercy promised to our fathers, and to remember his holy [r]covenant;

73 The [s]oath which he sware to our father Ă'brā-hăm,

▸74 That he would grant unto us, that we being delivered out of the hand of our enemies might serve him [t]without fear, 75 [u]In holiness and righteousness before [v]him, all the days of our life.

f The neighbors called him after the name of his father, but the parents had already been instructed by the angel to call him John (v 13). It was customary to name children when they were circumcised. The rabbins said that this was because the names of Abram and Sarai were changed when God instituted circumcision (Gen. 17). It was very rarely that sons received the name of the father. There was some special reason why the neighbors wanted it done in this case. Other nations named their children on certain days: Romans on the 9th day; Greeks on the 10th; and some nations on the 7th day after birth

g Zacharias had been dumb for nine months (v 20)

h Writing tablets were in use in many ancient nations (Isa. 30:8; Hab. 2:2; Pr. 3:3; Jer. 17:1; 2 Cor. 3:3). They were of ivory or wood and coated with wax, in which the letters were formed by a stylus made of gold, silver, brass, iron, ivory, or bone. One end was pointed for writing, while the other end was smooth and round for erasing, or smoothing out the wax so it could be used again. Edges and backs of tablets were not waxed so that when two or more were put together they would not be marred. Several tablets were sometimes put together at the backs by means of wire which served as hinges. Letters, wills, and many documents of great length were written upon them. They could be bound by the outer edges with cords and fastened with a seal n Horns were symbols of power (1 Ki. 22: 11; Dan. 8:3); and kingship (Dan. 7: 23-24; 8:20-23; Rev. 17:12). To "exalt the horn" is to confer power and authority upon (1 Sam. 2:10; Ps. 75:4; 89:24). Thus an "horn of salvation" would mean a mighty salvation or a strong Saviour (2 Sam. 22:3; Ps. 18:2). The "horn of Israel" or "of David," etc. would mean the strength or power of Israel and David (Ps. 132:17)

II Pre-ministerial events (Mt. 1:1; Jn. 1:1). 1 Birth of Jesus (Mt. 1:18, refs.)

AND it came to pass in those days, that there went out a decree from[m] Çæ'şar Au-güs'tus, that [c]all the world should be taxed.

2 (And this taxing was first made when [l]Çỹ-rē'nī-ŭs was governor of Sỹr'I-a.)

3 And all went to be taxed, every one into his own city.

4 And Jō'seph also went [n]up from Gāl'I-lee, out of the city of Năz'a-rĕth, into Jŭ-dæ'a, unto the [h]city of Dā'vid, which is called [i]Bĕth'lĕ-hĕm; [j](because he was of the house and lineage of Dā'vid:)

5 To be taxed with Mā'rỹ[k] his espoused wife, being great with child.

6 And so it was, that, while they were there, the days were accomplished that she should be delivered.

7 And she [l]brought forth her firstborn son, and wrapped him in[m] swaddling clothes, and laid him in a [n]manger; because there was no room for them in the[o] inn.

2 Angelic announcement to shepherds (Cp. Mt. 2:1-12)

8 And there were in the same country [p]shepherds abiding in the field, keeping watch over their flock by night.

9 And, lo, the angel of the Lord came upon them, and[q] the glory of the Lord shone round about them: and they [r]were sore afraid.

★10 And the angel said unto them, [s]Fear not: for, behold, I bring you good tidings [t]of great joy, which shall be to all people.◀ ▶11 For unto you is born "this day in the [v]city of Dā'vid [w]a Saviour, which is [x]Christ [y]the Lord.

12 And this shall be a [z]sign unto you; Ye shall find [a]the babe wrapped in [b]swaddling clothes, lying in a manger.

3 Angelic hosts worship God and Jesus (Heb. 1:6; Rev. 5:13)

13 And suddenly there was with the angel a [c]multitude of the heavenly host praising God, and saying,

14 Glory to God in the highest, and on earth [d]peace, [e]good will toward men.

4 Shepherds confirm the birth of Jesus

15 And it came to pass, as the angels were gone away from them [e]into heaven, the shepherds said one to another, Let us now go even unto Bĕth'- lĕ-hĕm, and see this thing which is come to pass, which the Lord hath made known unto us.

16 And they came with haste, and[b] found Mā'rỹ, and Jō'seph, and the babe lying in a manger.

17 And when they had seen it, they made known abroad the saying which was told them concerning this child.

18 And all they that heard it wondered at those things which were told them by the shepherds.

19 But Mā'rỹ kept all these things, and pondered them in her heart.

20 And the shepherds returned, glorifying and praising God for all the things that they had heard and seen, as it was told unto them.

5 Circumcision and naming of Jesus

21 And when [c]eight days were accomplished for the circumcising of the child, his name was called [d]Jē'şus, which was [e]so named of the angel before he was conceived in the womb.

6 Mary purified

22 And when the [f]days of her purification according to [g]the law of Mō'şeş were accomplished, they brought him to Jē-rụ'să-lĕm, to [h]present him of the Lord, [f]Every male that openeth the womb shall be called holy to the Lord;)

24 And to offer a sacrifice in the law of the Lord, [f]A pair

7 The prophecy of Simeon

25 And, behold, there was a man in Jē-rụ'să-lĕm, whose name was [k]Sim'e-on; and the same man was just and devout, waiting for the [l]consolation of Iş'ra-el: and [m]the Hō'lỹ Ghōst was upon him.

★26 And it was [n]revealed unto him by the Hō'lỹ Ghōst, [o]that he should not see death, before he had seen the Lord's Christ.

27 And he came [p]by the Spirit into the [q]temple: and when the parents brought in the child Jē'şus, to do for him [r]after the custom of the law,

★28 Then took he him up [s]in his arms, and blessed God, and [s]said,

29 Lord, now lettest thou thy servant depart in peace, according to thy word:

30 For mine eyes have [m]seen thy salvation,

31 Which thou hast prepared before the [r]face of all people;

f Or Quirinus. Controversy has raged over this verse, as many claim that he was not made governor of Syria until 10 or 12 years after the birth of Christ. He was Roman consul in 12 B.C. and thus qualified to be a governor. From 12 B.C. to 4 B.C. the names of governors are recorded. From 4 B. C. to 4 A. D. the names are not given. It was during this time that the census took place, and who can disprove the inspired statement here that Quirinus, called by Luke Cyrenius, was governor during this time? The word protos, meaning first or before could be translated "before" (as in Jn. 1:15, 30; 15:18) so that the v would read: "This census was before Cyrenius was governor of Syria," or "before the one made by Cyrenius"

p A clear proof that Christ was not born in December. Shepherds never kept flocks in the open in the winter from Oct. or Nov. to the next spring (Cp. Mt. 24:20). It was the custom to send flocks out after the passover to stay until the first rain in Oct. or Nov. There are no less than 136 different opinions as to the year and month He was born. Christian sects have listed every month of the year, but it cannot be proved exactly when He was born

n Gr. pais, a servant. He was now a "son of the Law" and old enough to start being the servant of Jehovah

q An ordinary day's journey was 18 to 30 miles, but it was the custom with all caravans to travel only 3 to 8 miles the first day, so if anything was forgotten or left behind by mistake, one could return quickly to get it in time to rejoin the company the next day. The first stopping place of most travelers going north was at Beeroth, now Bireh, about 6 miles north of Jerusalem r This was too late to rejoin the caravan, but they did find Him. There were several places in the temple where doctors of the law met with their disciples. After services the doctors remained to converse with anyone who wanted to ask questions about the law.
s It was the custom to sit while teaching (Mt. 5:1; 13:1-2; 15:29; 24:3; Lk. 4:20; 5:3)
t This was unheard of, but it was only normal for Him with the divine insight into truth that He had after 12 years of instruction by God (Isa. 50:4). CHAPTER 3 47

III Ministry of John the Baptist (Mt. 3:1, refs.)

1 Time and call of John

NOW in the fifteenth year of the reign of [c]Tī-bē'rĭ-ŭs Cæ'sar, Pŏn'tĭ-ŭs [d]Pi'late being governor of Jū-dæ'ā, [e]and Hĕr'od being tetrarch of Gă'l'i-lee, and his brother Phĭl'ĭp [f]tetrarch of I-tu-ræ'ā and of the region of Trăch-o-nī'tis, and Lў-sā'nĭ-as the tetrarch of Ăb-ĭ-lē'nē, 2 [g]An'nas and Că'ia-phās being the high priests, [h]the word of God came unto Jŏhn the son of Zăch-a-rī'as in the wilderness.

2 Purpose of John's ministry

3 And he came into all the country about Jôr'dan, [i]preaching the [j]baptism of repentance for the remission of sins;
*4 As it is written in the book of the words of Ē-şā'ias the prophet, saying, [k]The voice of one crying in the wilderness, Prepare ye the way of the Lord, make his paths straight.
5 Every valley shall be filled, and every mountain and hill shall be brought low; and the crooked shall be made straight, and the rough ways shall be made smooth;
▸6 And all flesh shall see the salvation of God.

3 John's sevenfold message to the people

7 Then said he to the multitude that came forth to be baptized of him, O [l]generation of vipers, who hath warned you to flee from the wrath to come?
●8 [m]Bring forth therefore fruits worthy of repentance, and begin not to say within yourselves, We have Ă'brā-hăm to our father: for I say unto you, That God is able of these stones to raise up children unto Ă'brā-hăm.
●9 [n]And now also the axe is laid unto the root of the trees: every tree therefore which bringeth not forth good fruit is hewn down, and cast into the fire.
10 And the people asked him, saying, [o]What shall we do then?
●11 He answereth and saith unto them, He that hath two coats, let him impart to him that hath none; and he that hath meat, let him do likewise.

4 John's fourfold message to publicans and soldiers

12 Then came also publicans to be baptized, and said unto him, [p]Master, what shall we do?
●13 And he said unto them, Exact no more than that which is appointed you.
●14 And the soldiers likewise demanded of him, saying, [q]And what shall we do? And he said

c See notes on v 33 and 48
d This is no longer a mystery when we understand the true "kenosis," or self-emptying of Christ. He retained His divine nature, but limited Himself to human attributes and powers during the days of His flesh, so that He could be a true example of a sinless human being overcoming sin and being anointed with the Spirit to defeat Satan (v 40, 52; Phil. 2:5-11; Heb. 2:10-18; 4:14-16; 1 Pet. 2:21; 4:1). That His power came by the Spirit baptism and not by natural attributes and powers is one of the clearest doctrines of Scripture (Acts 10:38; Mt. 3:16-17; 12:28; Isa. 11:1-2; 42:1-5; 61:1-2; Lk. 4:16-21). He proved to men that by the same Spirit anointing they could do His works, as He promised (Jn. 14:12; Mk. 16:15-20; Mt. 18:18, refs.). Jesus repeatedly said He could do nothing of Himself (note r, Jn. 8:28). What do all these scriptures mean if they do not mean what they say? Could not the Holy Spirit gifts accomplish through Christ, all that He did? As God, with divine powers and attributes, would He need an anointing of the Spirit to do these works? If He did them because He was God, then how does He expect believers to do them? If He did them by the Spirit that He has also promised to all believers, then He has a right to expect His followers to carry on His work the way He did (Mt. 17:20-21; 21:22; Mk. 9:23; 11:22-24; 16:17-20; Jn. 7:37-39; 14:12; 17:18; Lk. 24:49; Acts 1:1-8)

r The answer of John is that justice and mercy must be practiced among all people. Communism is not the idea at all. Let him that has honestly acquired more than he needs, impart to him that is without, who, with equal honesty and industry has tried to supply his own needs, but without success. There is no demand here upon every honest and industrious man to give all his surplus to every man who has need, however dishonest or idle. If any man provide not for his own he is worse than an infidel (1 Tim. 5:8)

4 The temptation of Jesus (Mt. 4:1, refs.)

AND Jē'sus being [f]full of the Hō'lȳ Ghōst returned from Jôr'dan, and was led by the Spirit into the wilderness,

2 [g]Being forty days tempted of the devil, And in those days he did eat nothing: and when they were ended, he afterward hungered.

3 And the devil said unto him, If thou be the Son of God, command this [i]stone that it be made bread.

g Grain was threshed in the open air by being trampled under the feet of oxen (Dt. 25:4), or by means of instruments (Isa. 28:27, note). To separate the grain from the hulls and straw a fan or wooden pitchfork was used. As straw was thrown toward the wind, the chaff blew away and the grain fell to the ground. The grain was sometimes sifted after the winnowing (Lk. 22:31). The chaff then was burned and the grain stored. This is used to picture judgment several times (Job 21:17-20; Ps. 1:4; Isa. 29:5; 41:16; Dan. 2) m Josephus says that John was put in the fortress of Macherus on the border of Arabia north of the Dead Sea n See note e, Lk. 2:1

o The word also proves that baptism in water for men is not to remit sins but that it is for the same purpose that Christ was baptized - to testify of the death, burial, and resurrection of Christ. If it was to remit sins then Christ "also" had His sins remitted, but if it was not to remit His sins, then the sins of men are not remitted by it. Christ had no sins to remit (I Pet. 2:21-23). He experienced it as a figure of His death, burial, and resurrection (Jn. 1:31). For this same reason believers are baptised in water (1 Pet. 3:21).

p First of 7 times Luke records the praying of Jesus (3:21; 5:16; 6:12; 9:18, 28; 11:1; 22:41-44)

q A clear reference to a trinity of separate and distinct persons:
1 The Father spoke from heaven
2 The Son was on earth praying to the Father in heaven
3 The Holy Spirit descended from the Father out of heaven to anoint and endue with power the Son upon earth (Isa. 11:1; 42:1-5; 48:16; 61:1; Lk. 4:16-18; Acts 10:38; 1 Jn. 5:7)

r Worded differently in Mt. 3:17. Both could have been spoken, or both could be the substance of what was said. Inspiration does not guarantee sameness of words, but unity of thought and freedom from contradiction. Writers were at times, free to state the substance in their own words

s Had nearly completed His 30th year, the time at which priests under the law, who were typical of Christ, entered their work (Num. 4:23; 1 Chr. 23:3)

t As reckoned by law the son of Joseph, but in reality He was the Son of God and Mary (Lk. 1:35; Mt. 1:18-25). Joseph was begotten by Jacob, and was his natural son (Mt. 1:16). He was the legal son or son-in-law of Heli, having married Mary the daughter of Heli. It does not say Joseph was begotten by Heli, as it does in the case of Jacob (Mt. 1:16)

u As women are never reckoned in genealogies, Joseph, the legal son of Heli naturally took the place of Mary in this genealogy of the natural line of Jesus Christ back to Adam. As is the rule of genealogies, the natural line always begins with the man himself and goes backward as far as can be, but in a royal line, as in Mt. 1, it begins at the source of the dynasty and ends with himself. The names of persons from Joseph back to Zorobabel (v 23-27) are not in the O. T. because they lived between its close and the birth of Christ a The real son of Salathiel (Ezra 3:8; 5:2; Neh. 12:1; Hag. 1:1, 12-14; 2:2, 23). In 1 Chr. 3:19 Pedaiah is listed as the father of Zerubbabel. This or any other seeming contradiction in genealogies may be cleared up in several ways:

1 Salathiel and Pedaiah could be the same person, for many Bible characters had several names
2 If they were brothers, Zerubbabel could be the real son of Salathiel, as stated in Mt. 1:12 and the scriptures above, and be the legal son of Pedaiah when the real father died (Dt. 25:5-6)
3 Zerubbabel could have been the son-in-law of Pedaiah, as Joseph was of Heli (see notes t and u, v 23), and as Salathiel was the son-in-law of Neri (v 27). He was the real son of Jechonias (Mt. 1:12; 1 Chr. 3:17)
4 Sometimes the O. T. names are spelled differently in the N. T. Cp. v 32-38 with the names in Ruth 4:18-22; Gen. 5; 11; 38
5 Sometimes a family name was kept alive by the girl who would retain her own name instead of changing to the name of the husband (Ezra 2:61)
One thing is certain, if there had been the least flaw in the claim and genealogy of Christ through Joseph and Mary, the Jews and the heathen would have found it and brought it to everybody's attention. This is proof enough that the genealogy was indisputable then as it is now

b Both the Davidic lines - that of Solomon and Nathan - unite in Zerubbabel by the marriage of Salathiel to the daughter of Neri of Nathan's line. Neri no doubt died without male issue, the two branches of David were thus united in Zerubbabel and Christ became the heir to the blood rights and privileges of the whole house of David.

c The line of Nathan, the elder brother of Solomon (1 Chr. 3:5), is not mentioned in O. T. scriptures as much as the line of Solomon, so we shall pass over all these names, which are listed in the Index.

d For these names of v 32-38 see Ruth 4:18-22; Gen. 5; 11; 25; 29; 30; 38. Some of the names will be spelled differently here, but they will be recognized easily by comparison.

e Here is another example of a man being the son-in-law of, or of a man having a different name. The Cainan here may be the Salah of Gen. 11:12-16. If not, then son-in-law is meant.

f Adam, which was of God by creation and who was the only man that could be of God in this sense. All others are born of men. God gave man and all animals power to reproduce themselves and He is no more the father of any man, than He is the father of the animals when they are reproduced (Gen. 1:20-28). It is true that God speaks of forming Jeremiah (1:5), Israel (Isa. 43:1; 44:2), and others in the womb, but this must be understood in the sense of making the law of reproduction causing all reproductions since the original ones were formed and given this power. God made the eternal law of natural and spiritual reproductions, but each reproduction is an off-spring of the immediate parents and not directly a creation of God in each act. God made the laws, but He is not responsible for their execution g This is a word used to describe the anointing of the Holy Spirit upon men in various measures. In Christ's case He received the Spirit without measure or in all fulness (Jn. 3:34; Acts 10:38). In the case of others in O. T. times they received the Spirit by measure and were thus full or filled with that particular gift, measure, or ability (Ex. 28:3; 31:3; 35:31; Dt. 34:9; Mic. 3:8; Lk. 1:15-17, 41, 67). Men were filled after Pentecost (Acts 2:4; 4:8, 31; 6:3-8; 7:55; 9:17; 11:24; 13:9, 52), but "filled with all the fulness of God" (Eph. 3:19; Rom. 15:29). Various measures of the Spirit are spoken of (Num. 11:16-25; 2 Kl. 2:9; Lk. 1:17; Jn. 3:34, note) o It was the custom that all readers of Scripture stand while reading and praying. This was a mark of respect to God and His Word (1 Ki. 8:14, 22, 55; Neh. 8:4-7; 9:2-4; Lk. 4:16; 18:11; Mk. 11:25) p Gr. form of Isaiah. Some modern critics argue that Isaiah wrote only chs. 1-39 and another man wrote chs. 40-66 of Isaiah after the exile. s The Spirit upon one indicates His moving one to do some supernatural work (Num. 11:17-29; 24:2; Judg. 3:10; 6:34; 11:29; 14:6, 19; 15:14; 1 Sam. 10:6, 10; 11:6; 16:13; 19:20-23; 2 Chr. 15:1; 24:20). Not an example is given of the Spirit coming upon one who remained powerless to do what he was called to do t 2fold ministry of the Messiah:

1 Anointed to preach:
(1) The gospel (good news) to the poor (the destitute, needy)
(2) Deliverance to captives in sin, sickness, and death (Acts 10:38; Eph. 4:8-10; Heb. 2:14-15)
(3) The acceptable year or period typified by the year of Jubile when liberty was proclaimed to all people on the day of atonement (Lev. 25:8-13). When the atonement of Christ is fully embraced, the sick, sinful, helpless, and needy are restored health, holiness, power, and prosperity, and full dominion over Satan and membership and communion in God's family
2 Anointed to heal:
(1) The broken in heart, mind, soul, and body (Acts 10:38)
(2) The blind in body, soul, and spirit - those in darkness (Mt. 4:16; Lk. 1:79; 2:32; Jn. 1:4-9; 3:16-21; 8:32; Acts 26:18; Col. 1:13)
(3) The bruised, the completely crushed and shattered in life, the oppressed and broken (Isa. 58:6-14; Mk. 5:1-20; Lk. 13:16)

7 If thou therefore wilt worship me, all shall be thine.

●8 And Jē'şus answered and said unto him, "Get thee behind me, Sā'tan: for it is written, "Thou shalt worship the Lord thy God, and him only shalt thou serve.

9 And he brought him to Jē'rụ'sā-lĕm, and set him on [a]a pinnacle of the temple, and said unto him, If thou be the Son of God, cast thyself down from hence:

V Ministry and teaching of Jesus (Mt. 4:12; Mk. 1:14; Jn. 1:35)

1 Begins ministry in Galilee (Mt. 4:12; Mk. 1:14)

14 ¶ And Jē'şus [j]returned in the power of the Spirit [k]into Gā'lī-lee: and there went out a [l]fame of him through all the region round about.

2 First sermon in His home town. (See His second visit, Mk. 6:1-6)

15 And he taught in [m]their synagogues, being glorified of all.

16 ¶ And he came to Năz'a-rĕth, where he had been brought up: and, [n]as his custom was, he went into the synagogue on the sabbath day, and [o]stood up for to read.

17 And there was delivered unto him the book of the prophet [p]Ē-şā'ĭas. And when he had opened [q]the book, he found the place where it was written,

★18 "The Spirit of the Lord [r]is upon me, because he [s]hath anointed me to preach the gospel to the poor; he hath sent me to heal the broken-hearted, to preach deliverance to the captives, and recovering of sight to the blind, to set at liberty them that are bruised, ▸19 To preach the acceptable year of the Lord.

20 And he [u]closed the book, and he gave it again to [v]the minister, and [w]sat down. And the eyes of all them that were in the synagogue were fastened on him.

21 And he began to say unto them, "This day is this scripture fulfilled in your ears.

22 And all bare him witness, and wondered at the gracious words which proceeded out of his mouth. And they said, "Is not this Jō'şeph's son?

23 And he said unto them, Ye will surely say unto me this proverb, "Physician, heal thyself: whatsoever we have heard done in Că-pĕr'na-ŭm, do also here in thy country.

24 And he said, Verily I say unto you, "No prophet is accepted in his own country.

25 But I tell you of a truth, many widows were in Ĭş'ra-el in the days of Ē-lī'as, when the heaven was shut up three years and six months, when great famine was throughout all the land;

26 But unto none of them was [a]E-lī'as sent, save unto Sā-rĕp'tą, a city of Sī'dŏn, unto a woman that was a widow.

27 And many lepers were in Ĭş'ra-el in the time of [b]Ĕl-ĭ-sē'us the prophet; and none of them was cleansed, saving Nā'a-man the Sўr'ĭ-an.

3 Effect of His sermon: 2nd attempt to destroy Jesus (Cp. Mt. 2:16; 26:3, refs.)

28 And all they in the synagogue, when they heard these things, were [c]filled with wrath, 29 And rose up, and thrust him out of the city, and led him unto the [d]brow of the hill whereon their city was built, that they might cast him down headlong.

30 [e]But he passing through the midst of them went his way,

4 Makes Capernaum His headquarters (Mt. 4:13; Mk. 1:21)

31 And came down to [f]Că-pĕr'na-ŭm, a city of Gă'lĭ-lee, and taught them on the sabbath days.

32 And they were astonished at his doctrine: for [g]his word was with power.

5 Jesus casts out an unclean spirit (Mk. 1:23)

33 ¶ And in the synagogue there was a man, which had a spirit of an [h]unclean devil, and cried out with a loud voice, 34 [i]"Saying, Let us alone; what have we to do with thee, thou Jē'şus of Năz'a-rĕth? art thou come to destroy us? I know thee who thou art; the Holy One of God.

35 And Jē'şus rebuked him, saying, "Hold thy peace, and come out of him. And when the devil had [k]thrown him in the midst, he came out of him, and [l]hurt him not.

36 And they were all amazed, and spake among themselves, saying, What a word is this! for with authority and power he commandeth the unclean spirits, and they come out.

37 And the [m]fame of him went out into every place of the country round about.

a This claim was startling and His words amazing. They had never heard such words from Him in the 30 years He lived among them

m Questions 12-13. Next, 5:21. Demons know Jesus to be the Holy One of God as well as they know their fate to be one of torment for their sins. They also know the time of their torment implying knowledge of God's eternal plan (v 34; 8:28; Mt. 8:29; 25:41)

g Demons acknowledged that He was the Messiah or Christ, but Jesus refused their testimony, lest He should be accused of being in league with them and of accepting testimony from Satan who sought to discredit His work and doctrine h Christ had healed multitudes since the sunset, perhaps working all the night before He was through with the last case (v 40–42). He now sought seclusion in a desert place to rest, but there was no rest for such a miracle worker as long as His fame went out and sick were brought to Him. What a contrast between Him and some of His modern followers who shun desert places and go to any length seeking crowds by flashy advertising, false claims, and fanastic theories and sensationalism i Gr. katecho, to hold fast, restrain, hinder (v 42; 8:15; 14:9; Mt. 21:38; Jn. 5:4; Acts 27:40; Rom. 1:18; 7:6; 1 Cor. 7:30; 11:2; 15:2; 2 Cor. 6:10; 1 Th. 5:21; 2 Th. 2:6; Ph'm 13; Heb. 3:6, 14; 10:23). They sought to monopolize His time and localize His works, but His mission was to go about His Father's business reaching as many as possible (Lk. 2:49; Acts 10:38)
j The preaching of the kingdom of God is always with power worthy of a divine mission if it is divinely backed (Jn. 5:36; 9:4; 10:38; 14:11). Christ was not the only one to confirm His mission by divine powers. Paul declared that "the kingdom of God is not in word, but in power" (1 Cor. 4:20; Rom. 15:18–19, 29; Heb. 2:3–4)

6 Peter's mother-in-law healed (Mt. 8:14; Mk. 1:29; 1 Cor. 9:5)

38 ¶ And he arose out of the synagogue, and entered into Si'mon's house. And Si'mon's wife's mother was [c]taken with a great fever; and they besought him for her.

39 And he [k]stood over her, and rebuked the fever; and it left her: and immediately she arose and ministered unto them.

7 Demons cast out: many healed (Mt. 8:16; Mk. 1:32)

40 ¶ Now [c]when the sun was setting, all they that had any sick with divers diseases brought them unto him; [d]and he laid his hands on [e]every one of them, and healed them.

44 And he preached in [k]the synagogues of Gal'i-lee.

49 CHAPTER 5

9 Jesus preaches from a borrowed ship

AND it came to pass, that, as the people pressed upon him [l]to hear the word of God, he stood by the [m]lake of Gĕn-nĕs'a-rĕt,

2 And saw [n]two ships standing by the lake: but the fishermen were gone out of them, and were washing their nets.

3 And he entered into one of the ships, which was Si'mon's, and [o]prayed him that he would thrust out a little from the land. And he [p]sat down, and taught the people out of the ship.

10 Jesus pays for the use of the ship with a miracle

4 Now when he had left speaking, he said unto Si'mon, Launch out into the deep, and let down your nets for [q]a draught.

5 And Si'mon answering said unto him, [r]Master, we have toiled all the night, and have taken nothing: nevertheless at thy word I will let down the net.

6 And when they had this done, they inclosed a great multitude of fishes: and their net brake.

7 And they beckoned unto their [s]partners, which were in the other ship, that they should come and help them. And they came, and filled both the ships, so that they began to sink.

11 Call of Peter, Andrew, James and John (Mt. 4:18; Mk. 1:16)

8 When Si'mon Pē'tēr saw it, he fell down at Jĕ'sus' knees, saying, [e]Depart from me; for [b]I am a sinful man, O [c]Lord.

9 For he was [d]astonished, and all that were with him, [e]at the draught of the fishes which they had taken:

10 And so was also [f]James, and [g]John, the sons of Zĕb'e-dee, which were partners with Si'mon. And Jĕ'sus said unto Si'mon, [h]Fear not; from henceforth thou shalt [i]catch men.

11 And when they had brought their ships to land, they [j]forsook all, and followed him.

12 Jesus heals a leper (Mt. 8:1; Mk. 1:20)

12 ¶ And it came to pass, when he was in a certain city, behold a man [k]full of leprosy: who seeing Jĕ'sus fell on his face, and [l]besought him, saying, Lord, [m]if thou wilt, thou canst make me clean.

13 And he put forth his hand, and touched him, saying, [n]I will: be thou clean. And immediately the leprosy departed from him.

14 And he [o]charged him to tell no man: but go, and shew thyself to the priest, and [p]offer for thy cleansing, according [q]as Mō'sĕs commanded, for a testimony unto them.

13 Jesus heals many: His fame spread abroad (Mk. 1:45)

15 But so much the more went there a [r]fame abroad of him: and great multitudes [s]came together to hear, and to be healed by him of their [t]infirmities.

16 ¶ And he [u]withdrew himself into the wilderness, [v]and prayed.

14 Returns to Capernaum: heals a palsied man (Mt. 9:1; Mk. 2:1. Cp. Jn. 2:12)

17 And it came to pass on a certain day, as he was teaching, that there were Phăr'i-sees and [w]doctors of the law sitting by, which were come out of every town of Gal'i-lee, and Jū-dæ'a, and Jĕ-ru'sa-lĕm: and the power of the Lord was present to heal them.

18 ¶ And, behold, men brought in a bed a man which was taken with a [x]palsy: and they sought means to bring him in, and to lay him before him.

19 And when they could not find by what way they might bring him in because of the multitude, they went upon the housetop, and let him down through the tiling with his couch into the midst before Jĕ'sus.

20 And when he [y]saw their faith, he said unto him, Man, i Gr. zogreo, to take alive, or capture. Used of Satan taking captive people who live in error (2 Tim. 2:26). Preachers are to take captive for God the souls of men who obey truth. Here soul winning is compared to capturing fish alive

j This is a requirement of the gospel (Mt. 19:27–30). It means a willingness to follow God regardless of the price. It never means to forsake responsibility. Even these men still retained their own homes, families, and responsibilities (1 Tim. 5:8). The main idea is to put God first (Mt. 22:37; Lk. 14:16–27)
k Leprous all over his body l Gr. deomai, to supplicate, plead
m This man believed that Christ could heal, but doubted His willingness to do so. This need never be doubted again for that is what Christ came to do (Jn. 10:10; Acts 10:38; Mt. 8:17; 1 Pet. 2:24) n This is what God says every time any child of His comes for the fulfillment of the promises (Mt. 7:7–11; 17:20; 21:22; Mk. 9:23; 11:22–24; Jn. 15:7, 16; Heb. 11:6; Jas. 1:5–8). God's will is already made known. Now it is up to man to make his will in the matter of answered prayer known. God tells him to "ask what ye will . . what things soever ye desire," etc., and if man wants to stumble blindly over what God says, he should quit complaining of unanswered prayer
o See note k, Mt. 8:4
p He wanted the priest to declare him whole and thus give testimony to God's power (Lev. 13 and 14; Mt. 8:4) thy sins are forgiven thee.

21 And the scribes and the Phăr'ĭ-sees [c]began to reason, saying, [b]Who is this which speaketh blasphemies? Who can forgive sins, but God alone?

22 But when [c]Jē'şus perceived their thoughts, he answering said unto them, [d]What reason ye in your hearts?

23 Whether is easier, to say, Thy sins be forgiven thee; or to say, Rise up and walk?

▸24 But that ye may know that the Son of man hath power upon earth to forgive sins, (he said unto the sick of the palsy,) I say unto thee, Arise, and take up thy couch, and go into thine house.

25 And [e]immediately he rose up before them, and [f]took up that whereon he lay, and departed to his own house, glorifying God.

26 [g]And they were all amazed, and they glorified God, and were [e]filled with fear, saying, We have seen [f]strange things to day.

15 Call of Levi or Matthew (Mt. 9:9; Mk. 2:13-14)

27 ¶ And after these things he went forth, and saw a[j]publican, named [k]Lē'vī, [l]sitting at the receipt of custom: and he said unto him, Follow me.

28 And he left all, rose up, and followed him.

29 And Lē'vī [m]made him a great feast in his own house: and there was a great company of publicans and of others that sat down with them.

16 Jesus answers the Pharisees (Mt. 9:10; Mk. 2:15)

30 [n]But their scribes and Phăr'ĭ-sees [c]murmured against his disciples, saying, [p]Why do ye eat and drink with publicans and sinners?

31 And Jē'şus answering said unto them, They that are [q]whole need not a physician; but they that are [r]sick.

▸32 I [s]came not to call the righteous, but sinners to repentance.

17 Answers John's disciples (Mt. 9:14; Mk. 2:18)

33 ¶ And they said unto him, [b]Why do the disciples of Jŏhn fast often, and [t]make prayers, and likewise the disciples of the Phăr'ĭ-sees; but thine eat and drink?

34 And he said unto them, [u]Can ye make the children of the bridechamber [t]fast, while the bridegroom is with them?

★35 [v]But the days will come, when the bridegroom shall be taken away from them, and then shall they fast in those days.

18 Parable of garment and bottles (Mt. 9:16; Mk. 2:21)

36 ¶ And he spake also a parable unto them; [w]No man putteth a piece of a new garment upon an old; if otherwise, then both the new maketh a rent, and the piece that was taken out of the new agreeth not with the old.

37 And no man putteth new wine into old bottles; else the new wine will burst the bottles, and be spilled, and the bottles shall perish.

38 But new wine must be put into new bottles; and both are preserved.

39 No man also having drunk old wine straightway desireth new: for he saith, The old is better.

CHAPTER 6 50

19 Jesus is Lord of sabbaths (Mt. 12:1; Mk. 2:23)

AND it came to pass on [a]the second sabbath after the first, that he went through the corn fields; and his disciples plucked the ears of [b]corn, and did eat, rubbing them in their hands.

2 And certain of the Phăr'ĭ-sees said unto them, [c]Why do ye that which is not lawful to do on the sabbath days?

3 And Jē'şus answering them said, [d]Have ye not read so much as this, what Dă'vid did, when himself was an hungred, and they which were with him;

4 How he went into the house of God, and did take and eat the shewbread, and gave also to them that were with him; which it is not lawful to eat but for the priests alone?

5 And he said unto them, That the Son of man is [e]Lord also of the [f]sabbath.

20 Withered hand healed on the sabbath (Mt. 12:9; Mk. 3:1)

6 And it came to pass [g]also on another sabbath, that he entered into the synagogue and taught: and there was a man whose right hand was withered.

7 And the scribes and Phăr'ĭ-sees [h]watched him, whether he would heal on the sabbath day; that they might find an accusation against him.

8 [i]But he knew their thoughts, and said to the man which had the withered hand, Rise up, and stand forth in the midst. And he arose and stood forth.

9 Then said Jē'şus unto them, I will ask you one thing; [j]Is it lawful on the sabbath days to do good, or to do evil? to save life, or to destroy it?

10 And [k]looking round about upon them all, he said unto the man, Stretch forth thy hand. And he did so: and his hand was restored whole as the other.

11 And they were [l]filled with madness; and communed one with another what they might do to Jē'şus.

21 Twelve ordained (Mt. 10:1; Mk. 3:13; Lk. 9:1. Cp. Mk. 6:7)

12 And it came to pass in those days, that he went out into a mountain to [m]pray, and a These 6 words are from only one Gr. word deuteroprotos, the second-first sabbath, the ordinary weekly sabbath following the special sabbath that began the feast regardless of what day of the week it fell on. That is, the feast of unleavened bread of 7 days always started on the 15th day of Nisan or April, regardless of what day of the week it was (Lev. 23:6–8). If it happened to be on Wednesday the regular weekly sabbath or the second sabbath of the feast would be 3 days later. The last day of the feast, being also a sabbath, or the third sabbath of the feast, would be on Tuesday or three days after the weekly sabbath. The 1st and 7th days of the seven day feast were special sabbaths and the regular weekly sabbath was between the two, being the second sabbath of the feast. That this was the weekly sabbath is clear from Mt. 12:1–8 b Wheat, not Indian corn

c Question 21. Next, v 3. Jews themselves would do certain things on the sabbath such as circumcise a child, get an ox or an ass out of the ditch, etc. (Mt. 12:5, 11), but when it came to preserving human life that was forbidden (Lk. 6:6–11; 13:10–17)
d Question 22. Next, v 9. Christ rebuked their inconsistency concerning the sabbath by citing the act of David in breaking the law to preserve life (Ex. 25:30; 29:23–33; Lev. 8:12; 24:5–9 with 1 Sam. 21:3–6)
e Gr. kurios, owner, Lord, and Master of the sabbath, for He was the one that gave it to Israel to commemorate their deliverance from slavery in Egypt (Dt. 5:15)
f See Sabbath notes, p. 159, 191
g Also on another sabbath He had another controversy with the Jews about the sabbath (Mk. 3:1–7)
h Kept watching, so as to find some occasion to destroy Him i He had the spiritual gifts of knowledge and discernment (5:22; 1 Cor. 12:4–11)
j Questions 23 and 24. Next, 6:32. This confirms the true will of God on any sabbath or holy day. To hold to a rigid letter of the law when good can be done is not the true intent of law on the sabbath. Law is always for the best good of all, if it is just and holy. No days should lord it over man or put him under bondage. Man should be lord of the sabbath and be free to do good on this day k Mark adds that He looked around with anger, being grieved with the hardness of their hearts. Having received no answer, He deliberately acted contrary to His best good, but for the best good of the helpless man. This kind of anger is godly and lawful, proving that the faculty itself is not sinful, nor is the use of it, if kept in the bounds of the law of God and sin is not committed (Eph. 4:26)
l This good deed, just because of the time element, filled the religious crowd with senseless rage. How often is this true in modern religion when some minor and traditional church law is broken
m This is the proper thing to do after success to avoid being puffed up and to assure continued blessing, but all too often preachers fail to realize that they need God's help to stay humble and godly in success more than in failure

▸21 [p]Blessed are ye that hunger now: for ye shall be filled. Blessed are ye that weep now: for ye shall laugh.
▸22 Blessed are ye, when men shall hate you, and when they shall separate you from their company, and shall reproach you, and cast out your name as evil, for the Son of man's sake.
▸23 Rejoice ye in that day, [q]and leap for joy: for, behold, [r]your reward is great in heaven: for in the [s]like manner did their fathers unto the prophets.

(2) Four woes (Mt. 23:23)

24 [t]But woe unto you that are rich! for ye have received your consolation.
25 Woe unto you that are full! for ye shall hunger. Woe unto you that laugh now! for ye shall mourn and weep.
26 Woe unto you, when all men shall speak well of you! for so did their fathers to the false prophets.

(3) Four laws of love (Mt. 5:38)

●27 [u]But I say unto you which hear, Love your enemies, do good to them which hate you, ●28 Bless them that curse you, and pray for them which despitefully use you.

(4) Four laws of retaliation (Mt. 5:38)

●29 And unto him that smiteth thee on the one cheek offer also the other; and him that taketh away thy [v]cloke forbid not to take thy [w]coat also.
●30 [x]Give to every man that asketh of thee; and of him that taketh away thy goods ask them not again.

(5) The golden rule (Mt.7:12)

●31 [y]And as ye would that men should do to you, do ye also to them likewise.
32 [z]For if ye love them which love you, what thank have ye? for sinners also love those that love them.
33 And if ye do good to them which do good to you, what thank have ye? for sinners also do even the same.
34 And if ye lend to them of whom ye hope to receive, what thank have ye? for sinners also lend to sinners, to receive as much again.

(6) Four laws of mercy

●35 [a]But love ye your enemies, and do good, and [b]lend, hoping for nothing again; and [c]your reward shall be great, and ye shall be the children of the Highest: for he is [d]kind unto the unthankful and to the evil.◂
●36 Be ye therefore [e]merciful, as your Father also is merciful.

(7) Four laws of justice (Mt. 7:1)

●37 [f]Judge not, and ye shall not be judged: condemn not, and ye shall not be condemned: forgive, and ye shall be [g]forgiven:
▸38 Give, and it shall be given unto you; good measure, pressed down, and shaken together, and running over, shall men give into your [h]bosom. For with the same measure that ye [i]mete withal it shall be measured to you again.

(8) Warning against following blind leaders (Mt. 15:1)

39 And he spake a parable unto them, [j]Can the blind lead the blind? shall they not both fall into the ditch?

(9) Goal of every believer (Mt. 5:48; 10:24; 1 Jn. 3:7; 4:17)

40 The disciple is not [k]above his master: but every one that is perfect shall be as his master.

(10) Warning to mote hunters (Mt. 7:1; Rom. 2:1; Jas. 5:16)

41 And [l]why beholdest thou [m]the mote that is in thy brother's eye, but perceivest not [n]the beam that is in thine own eye?
●42 Either how canst thou say to thy brother, Brother, let me pull out the mote that is in thine eye, when thou thyself beholdest not the beam that is in thine own eye? Thou hypocrite, cast out first the beam out of thine own eye, and then shalt Tradition says that he was killed by crucifixion in Syria. He is supposed to have been a brother of James, Matthew, and Judas m The same as Lebbaeus and Thaddaeus (note z, Mt. 10:3) n Supplied by the translators, but necessary to make sense. Note the sets of brothers among the apostles:

1 Peter and Andrew (Mt. 4:18)
2 James and John (Mt. 4:21)
3 Philip and Bartholomew or Nathanael (Jn. 1:43-51)
4 James and Judas (not Iscariot) and perhaps Matthew (Mk. 2:14; Lk. 6:16; Acts 1:13). This Judas is called Lebbaeus and Thaddaeus (Mt. 10:3; Mk. 3:18). Simon Zelotes was also a brother of James and Judas according to tradition
o Judas Iscariot is mentioned last in all 3 lists of apostles before he fell (Mt. 10:4; Mk. 3:19; Lk. 6:16) p This is always emphasized in connection with Judas Iscariot. He has been and will always be referred to as the chief traitor of all ages among men

This is not Luke's version of the sermon on the mount of Mt. 5-7, but a repetition of some things in a different form and at a different time and place. This was spoken while He stood in the plain (v 17), while Mt. 5-7 was spoken while He sat on a mountain. Christ taught for 3 to 4 years so it was natural to repeat some things or restate them w 4 classes to be made happy in the future (v 20-23):
1 The poor (v 20; Mt. 5:3)
2 The hungering (v 21; Mt. 5:6)

4 The hated (v 22; Mt. 5:10-12)

b A vestcoat worn under the cloak c This refers to the tax-gatherers and soldiers who commonly spoiled the people by making demands for their goods. Suffer that which is forcefully taken away, lest you provoke them to spoil you more. Of these were merciless creditors who would even sell the clothes, beds, and tools of a poor man to get what they could (Mt. 18:25, 28-30, 34). It was a custom for king's messengers and soldiers to take what was necessary in the performance of their task. They could demand goods, animals, and even the owners to accompany them if they desired (Mt. 5:41). To refuse was an insult to the king

e Questions 25-27. Next, v 39. Here we have Christ's threefold interpretation of the golden rule
1 Love because of a different principle from that of sinners
2 Do good on a different basis from that of sinners
3 Lend with a different motive from that of sinners
In fact, the 4 laws of love (v 27-28), the 4 laws of retaliation (v 29-30), the 4 laws of mercy (v 35-36), and the 4 laws of justice (v 37-38) are all interpretations of the golden rule. These sum up the righteousness of the law, the prophets, and the gospel

g A medical term meaning to rupture

h Compare this with whosoever in v 47. It means literally every one who does not obey the sayings of Christ i That is, His sayings of this one sermon uttered in the plain (6:17). It could not mean that He ended all He said on earth, for the biggest portion of His teaching was not yet given. It could not refer to His sayings before this particular sermon. So it is with the statement in Mt. 13:34, "without a parable spake He not unto them." This is quoted in many religious circles as meaning that everything which Christ spoke was in parables or illustrations, but it applies solely to the one sermon of Mt. 13 and not to any other sermon before or after this. Thus, the two expressions "ended all His sayings" (Lk. 7:1) and "without a parable spake He not unto them" (Mt. 13:34) simply refer to these two sermons j This had been His headquarters ever since His rejection in His own home town (Mt. 4:13). Think of the wonderful things His home town people did not get to see and hear because of their stubbornness and unbelief!

k Whether this was the same case as that of Mt. 8:5-13 or not we do not know. Some think it was. Others think it was the same centurion, but on another occasion. It could have been another case entirely

l If this case is the same as in Mt. 8, the sickness was paralysis

m The elders of the Jews sought to impress upon Jesus the worthiness of the centurion. The centurion himself pleaded no merit, taking the position of utter unworthiness of even having Jesus come to his home (v 6-8). Jesus did not regard either plea, but saw the great faith of the centurion in recognizing that He had power to speak merely a word where He was and his servant would be healed (v 7-9). Faith is always the answer to our prayer problems (Mt. 17:20; 21:22; Mk. 9:23; 11:22-24; Heb. 11:6; Jas. 1:5-8)

n If he was the same as the centurion of Mt. 8:5-13, where it seems the man himself came to Jesus, the seeming contradiction could be explained thus: It is a usual form of speech in all nations to attribute the act to a person even if it is done merely by his authority

Lending (6:35)

Lending with the hope to receive again has no reward from God (6:34-35). This is only helping a man temporarily and the only reward may be a return of such favor. Under the law interest was not to be charged to a brother (Ex. 22:25-27; Lev. 25:35-37; Dt. 23:19-20; Neh. 5:1-13; Ps. 15:5; Pr. 28:8; Ezek. 18:8-17; 22:12), nor was a pledge of a payment to be taken that caused any oppression (Dt. 24:6-17). It is a mark of goodness to lend to help men (Ps. 37:25-26; 112:5). One who gives outright to help the poor lends to God (Pr. 19:17). Borrowing brings into bondage to the lender (Pr. 22:7). Christians are to lend to help the needy and are not to expect anything back (Mt. 5:42; Lk. 6:34-35). If nothing is returned they are not to hold it against the borrower or they lose their reward. If they are offered it back again they should take it in order to help others again. The borrower is under obligation to repay when able (Ex. 22:14-15; Ps. 37:21), for all debts are to be paid when possible (Ex. 22:10-15; Lev. 25:14-25; Mt. 5:25-26, 40; 2 Ki. 4:1-7; Lk. 6:31). See note g, 7:41 thou see clearly to pull out the mote that is in thy brother's eye.

(11) Secret of discerning mere professors (Mt. 7:15)

43 For a [a]good tree bringeth not forth corrupt fruit; neither doth a corrupt tree bring forth good fruit.

44 For every tree is known by his own fruit. For of thorns men do not gather figs, nor of a bramble [b]bush gather they grapes.

45 A good man out of [c]the good treasure of his heart bringeth forth that which is good; and an evil man out of the [d]evil treasure of his heart bringeth forth that which is evil: for of the abundance of the heart his mouth speaketh.

46 ¶ And [e]why call ye me, Lord, Lord, and do not the things which I say?

(12) Parable of two foundations (Mt. 7:24)

47 Whosoever cometh to me, and heareth my sayings, and doeth them, I will shew you to whom he is like:

48 He is [f]like a man which built an house, and digged deep, and laid the foundation on a rock: and when the flood arose, the stream beat [g]vehemently upon that house, and could not shake it: for it was founded upon a rock.

49 But [h]he that heareth, and doeth not, is like a man that without a foundation built an house upon the earth; against which the stream did beat vehemently, and immediately it fell; and the ruin of that house was great.

CHAPTER 7 51

24 Jesus heals the centurion's servant (Mt. 9:18)

NOW when he had ended all [i]his sayings in the audience of the people, he entered into [i]Cā-pēr'na-ŭm.

2 And a [k]certain centurion's servant, who was dear unto him, was [l]sick, and ready to die.

3 And when he heard of Jē'sus, he sent unto him the elders of the Jews, beseeching him that he would come and heal his servant.

4 And when they came to Jē'sus, they besought him instantly, saying, [m]That he was worthy for whom he should do this:

5 For he loveth our nation, and he hath built us a synagogue.

6 Then Jē'sus went with them. And when he was now not far from the house, [n]the centurion sent friends to him, saying unto him, Lord, trouble not thyself: for I am not worthy that thou shouldest enter under my roof:

7 Wherefore neither thought I myself worthy to come unto thee: but say in a word, and my servant shall be healed.

8 For I also am a man set under authority, having under me soldiers, and I say unto one, Go, and he goeth; and to another, Come, and he cometh; and to my servant, Do this, and he doeth it.

9 When Jē'sus heard these things, he [o]marvelled at him, and turned him about, and said unto the people that followed him, I say unto you, I have not found so great faith, no, not in Is'ra-el.

10 And [b]they that were sent, returning to the house, found the servant whole that had been sick.

25 Jesus resurrects a widow's son (Cp. Mt. 9:18)

11 ¶ And it came to pass the day [c]after, that he went into a city called [d]Nā'in; [e]and many of his disciples went with him, and much people.

12 Now when he came nigh to the [f]gate of the city, behold, there was a [g]dead man carried out, the only son of his mother, and she was a widow: and much people of the city was with her.

13 And when the Lord saw her, he had [h]compassion on her, and said unto her, Weep not.

14 And he came and touched the [i]bier: and they that bare him stood still. And he said, Young man, [j]I say unto thee, Arise.

15 And he that was dead [k]sat up, and began to speak. And he delivered him to his mother.

16 And there came a fear on all: and they glorified God, saying, That a [l]great prophet is risen up among us; and, That God hath visited his people.

17 And this rumour of him went forth throughout all Jū-dæ'ā, and throughout all the region round about.

18 And the disciples of [m]John shewed him of all these things.

26 John the Baptist questions Jesus (Mt. 11:2)

19 And John [n]calling unto him two of his disciples sent them to Jē'sus, saying, [o]Art thou he that should come? or look we for another?

20 When the men were come unto him, they said, John Băp'tist hath sent us unto thee, saying, Art thou he that should come? or look we for another?

27 Jesus answers John by deeds, not words (Mt. 11:4)

21 And in that same hour he cured many of their [p]infirmities and plagues, and of evil spirits; and unto many that were blind he gave sight.

22 Then Jē'sus answering said unto them, Go your way, and tell John what things ye have seen and heard; [q]how that the blind see, the lame walk, the lepers are cleansed, the deaf hear, the dead are raised, to the poor the gospel is preached.

d A village about 21 miles from Capernaum, indicating a journey this far since healing the centurion's servant the day before (v 11)

f No walls of Nain have yet been found, but this does not prove there were none in Christ's day. It could even be that the present Nein is the ancient Nain

g Why so many want to question whether this man was really dead or not cannot be explained apart from unbelief in the miracles of Christ. The dead were always carried out of the cities and buried. No burying places were allowed in cities, much less in or about synagogues. Rare exceptions were made of royal persons (1 Ki. 2:10). The large crowd that followed Jesus and the one that followed the coffin met at the city gate (v 11-12)

h Never is there one case recorded where Jesus failed to have compassion. See note j, Mt. 9:36

j He had power over death by the Holy Spirit anointing which He had without measure (Jn. 3:34). He raised one who had just died (Lk. 8:42-56), one being carried to burial (Lk. 7:12), and one dead four days (Jn. 11)

o Questions 33-36. Next, v 24. Why should John ask questions like this unless he was in a great test of his faith? He had seen and had borne witness of the very person he was now seeking information about (Mt. 3:11; Jn. 1:29-33). The answer to John was not a direct one, as is many times the case of God answering unbelieving man, but it made it clear this was the Messiah. Jesus did before John's disciples what the prophets had predicted He would do. He then sent the messengers back to refer John to the written Word and its fulfillment (v 21-23). This is all the proof men need today p The threefold classification of illness into infirmities, plagues, and evil spirits, and that by Luke a physician, clearly establishes the difference between ordinary maladies and demon possession. See Demons, p. 632 of O.T.

q 6 signs proving His Messiahship:

2 Lame walk (v 22; Isa. 35:6; 61:1)
3 Lepers cleansed (v 22; Isa. 61:1)
4 Deaf hear (v 22; Isa. 29:18; 35:5)
5 Dead raised (v 22; Isa. 11:2)
6 Gospel preached to poor (v 22; Isa. 11:2; 42:1-5; 60:1-3; 61:1-2)

The golden rule (6:31)

The golden rule was also a teaching of the law (Lev. 19:18). This commandment is here expressed in another form. This does not mean that we are to give all that we have to another, for we would not expect him to do this for us. If we so expected it we would be condemned of gross covetousness of what belongs to another and this itself is contrary to the law and the gospel. We are not to covet one thing that belongs to another (Ex. 20:17; Dt. 5:21; Rom. 13:9; 1 Cor. 5:11; 6:9-11; Eph. 5:5). Therefore, that which belongs to the other cannot be expected from him. The main idea is that of rendering justice, mercy, and love to all men as prescribed by the law b To look at. Used 3 times(v 24, 25, 26).

Did you sight-seers expect to see a man that would prefer camel's hair to king's raiment; asceticism to comforts and pleasures; and rustic food to the delicacies of king's courts? Did you go out to hear a prophet, to get back to God or to see something spectacular, external, and new in religion? Did you expect to see a stern, uncompromising, God-honoring prophet? Did you go out to see if this was the Messiah to deliver you from the Romans? What did you find? A prophet? Yea, more than a prophet e The comparison of greatness is not absolute, but relative to certain aspects of the parties involved. Such a statement could not make a full and accurate measure of even John's life much less of all who lived before him. Christ wanted the people to comprehend the religious reformation with which both He and John were identified. It could not be that Jesus sought to convey the idea that John was greater in moral character, holy living, obedience to, or intimacy with God, or that he had more natural and spiritual gifts and abilities than all those O. T. prophets whose great ministries excelled that of John in many respects. In view of the inferiority of the law with the gospel, and of man's position and privileges in the new order being so much better and greater than under the law of Moses, there was no similarity (2 Cor. 3:6-15; Heb. 8:6). It was John's position and privilege of representing the Messiah who was to bring these changes that made him greater than other prophets f Greater in position and privileges in the fulness of the gospel than was John's position under law in introducing the Messiah who was to bring the fulness of blessing and grace to men (Jn. 1:16-17). John could only have a measure of the Spirit (Jn. 1:15-17; Mt. 3:14), but now the least believer can have the fulness (Jn. 7:37-39; 14:12-15; Lk. 24:49; Acts 1:4-8; 2:38-39; 5:32; Eph. 3:19). Men could only have certain gifts of the Spirit in O. T. days. Now the least believer may have them all (Mk. 16:15-20; Jn. 14:12-15; 1 Cor. 12). Many other blessings the gospel promises now which could not have been given anyone before Christ (2 Cor. 3:6-15; Heb. 8:6; 1 Pet. 1:10-12). No believer in this period can be greater than John in the points under note e, above

28 Jesus' testimony of John the Baptist (Mt. 11:7)

24 ¶ And when the messengers of John were departed, he began to speak unto the people concerning John, [a]What went ye out into the wilderness for [b]to see? A reed shaken with the wind?

25 But what went ye out for to see? A man clothed in soft raiment? Behold, they which are gorgeously apparelled, and live delicately, are in kings' courts.

26 But what went ye out for to see? A prophet? Yea, I say unto you, and much more than a prophet.

*27 This is he, of whom it is written, [c]Behold, I send my messenger before thy face, which shall prepare thy way before thee.

28 For I say unto you, Among those that are [d]born of women there is not a [e]greater prophet than John the Bap'tist: but he that is [f]least in the kingdom of God is greater than he.

29 And all the people that heard him, and the publicans, [g]justified God, being baptized with the baptism of John.

29 Jesus denounces unbelief (Mt. 11:16)

30 But the Phar'i-sees and lawyers rejected the counsel of God [h]against themselves, being not baptized of him.

31 ¶ And the Lord said, [i]Whereunto then shall I liken the men of this generation? and to what are they like?

32 [j]They are like unto children sitting in the marketplace, and calling one to another, and saying, We have piped unto you, and ye have not danced; we have mourned to you, and ye have not wept.

33 For John the Bap'tist came neither eating bread nor drinking wine; and ye say, [k]He hath a devil.

34 The Son of man is come eating and drinking; and ye say, Behold a gluttonous man, and a winebibber, a friend of publicans and sinners!

35 [l]But wisdom is justified of all her children.

30 First anointing of Jesus: Simon the Pharisee (Cp. Mt. 26:6)

36 ¶ And [m]one of the Phar'i-sees desired him that he would eat with him. And he went into the Phar'i-see's house, and sat down to meat.

37 And, behold, a [n]woman in the city, which was a sinner, when she knew that Je'sus sat at meat in the Phar'i-see's house, brought an [o]alabaster box of [p]ointment, 38 And stood at his [q]feet behind him weeping, and began to wash his feet with tears, and did wipe them with the hairs of her head, and [r]kissed his feet, and [s]anointed them with the ointment.

39 Now when the Phar'i-see which had bidden him saw it, he spake [t]within himself, saying, This man, if he were a prophet, would have known who and what manner of woman this is that toucheth him: for she is a sinner.

40 And Je'sus [u]answering said unto him, [v]Si'mon, I have somewhat to say unto thee. And he saith, Master, say on.

31 Parable of a creditor and two debtors: Simon questioned

41 [w]There was a certain [x]creditor which had two debtors: the one owed [y]five hundred pence, and the other [z]fifty.

42 And when they had nothing to pay, he frankly forgave them both. [w]Tell me, therefore, which of them will love him most?

43 Si'mon answered and said, I suppose that he, to whom he forgave most. And he said unto him, Thou hast rightly judged.

44 And he turned to the woman, and said unto Si'mon, [v]Seest thou this woman? I entered into thine house, [a]thou gavest me no water for my feet: [b]but she hath washed my feet with tears, and wiped them with the hairs of her head.

45 Thou gavest me no [c]kiss: but this woman since the time I came in hath not ceased to kiss my feet.

46 My head with oil thou didst not [d]anoint: but this woman hath anointed my feet with ointment.

47 Wherefore I say unto thee, Her sins, which are many, are forgiven; for she loved much: but to whom little is forgiven, the same loveth little.

32 A sinner woman forgiven

48 And he said unto her, [e]Thy sins are forgiven.

49 And they that sat at meat with him began to say within themselves, [f]Who is this that forgiveth sins also?

50 And he said to the woman, Thy [g]faith hath saved thee; go in peace.

33 Fourth tour of Galilee (Mt. 11:1. Cp. Mt. 4:23, refs.)

AND it came to pass afterward, that he went throughout every city and village, preaching and shewing the glad tidings of the kingdom of God, and the twelve were with him.

k Question 46. Next, v 49. Christ now applied the story to Simon and the woman, calling Simon's attention to the works of the woman, but the woman's to His own love and grace (47-50)
l Simon, you did not show Me the common courtesy that is always customary with guests by washing My feet, but this woman has tried to make up for what you have failed to do. You did not greet Me with a kiss of welcome, but this woman has not ceased to kiss My feet (note a, above). You did not anoint My head to refresh Me after My long journey of over 21 miles and after My sermon and much work in healing the multitudes of all manner of diseases, but this woman has freely anointed Me with her expensive ointment
m Where the soil is dry and dusty, and sandals are worn, frequent washing of feet is necessary. It was as much a part of hospitality for a host to see that his guests had their feet washed, as to provide food and lodging (Gen. 18:4; 24:32; 43:24). Basins were always kept ready for this purpose. Servants did this work (1 Sam. 25:41; 1 Tim. 5:10) n It was a custom that men greet each other with a kiss, not only relatives, but also others (Gen. 27:27; 29:13; 33:4; 45:15; 48:10; Ex. 4:27; 18:7; 1 Sam. 20:41; Lk. 15:20; Acts 20:37). Kissing was an act of homage (Ps. 2:12; 1 Sam. 10:1; 1 Ki. 19:18; Job 31:27; Hos. 13:2). It was customary among Christians (Rom. 16:16; 1 Cor. 16:20; 2 Cor. 13:12)
o Anointing with olive oil mixed with fragrant and costly spices, was customary in the coronation of kings (2 Ki. 11:12), installing high priests (Ps. 133:2), and an act of courtesy and hospitality toward guests (Lk. 7:46). See Ps. 23:5; 92:10; 105:15; Dt. 28:40; Ruth 3:3; Eccl. 9:8; Mic. 6:15; Mt. 6:17. Neglect of anointing self was an act of mourning (2 Sam. 14:2; Dan. 10:3; Mt. 6:17-18). To anoint the face was a sign of joy (Ps. 45:7; Heb. 1:9) p Christ forgave many people without and before water baptism (Mt. 9:1-7, 22; Mk. 5:34; 10:52; Lk. 7:48; 17:19; 18:9-14, 42; 19:1-9; 23:43; Jn. 4:49-53; 7:31; 8:30-31; etc.)

34 Parable of the sower (Mt. 13:3, 18; Mk. 4:1)

4 ¶ And when much people were gathered together, and were come to him out of every city, he spake by a parable:

5 [b]A sower went out to sow his seed: and as he sowed, some fell by the way side; and it was trodden down, and the fowls of the air devoured it.

6 And some fell upon a rock; and as soon as it was sprung up, it withered away, because it lacked moisture.

7 And some fell among thorns; and the thorns sprang up with it, and choked it.

8 And other fell on good ground, and sprang up, and bare fruit an hundredfold. And when he had said these things, he cried, [c]He that hath ears to hear, let him hear.

35 Reason for speaking parables (Mt. 13:10, 34; Mk. 4:10)

9 And his disciples asked him, saying, [d]What might this [c]parable be?

*10 And he said, Unto you it is given to know the [f]mysteries of the [g]kingdom of God: [h]but to others in parables; [i]that seeing they might not see, and hearing they might not understand.

36 Parable of the sower explained (Mt. 13:18; Mk. 4:13)

11 Now the parable is this: [j]The seed is the word of God.

12 Those by the [k]way side are they that hear; then cometh the devil, and taketh away the word out of their hearts, lest they should believe and be saved.

13 They on the [l]rock are they, which, when they hear, receive the word with joy; and these have no root, which for a while believe, and in time of temptation fall away.

14 [m]And that which fell among thorns are they, which, when they have heard, go forth, and are choked with cares and riches and [n]pleasures of this life, and bring no fruit to perfection.

15 But that on the good ground are they, which in an honest and good heart, having heard the word, keep it, and [o]bring forth fruit with patience.

37 Parable of the lighted candle (Mt. 5:13; Mk. 4:21; Lk. 11:33)

*16 ¶ [p]No man, [q]when he hath lighted a [r]candle, covereth it with a vessel, or putteth it under a bed; but setteth it on a candlestick, that they which enter in may see the light.

17 For nothing is secret, that shall not be made [s]manifest; neither any thing hid, that shall not be known and come abroad.

●18 [t]Take heed therefore how ye hear: for whosoever hath, to [u]him shall be given; and whosoever [v]hath not, from him shall be taken even that which he [c]seemeth to have.◂

38 New standard of relationship (Mt. 12:46; Mk. 3:31)

19 ¶ Then came to him his mother and [w]his brethren, and could not come at him for the press.

20 And it was told him by certain which said, Thy mother and thy brethren stand without, desiring to see thee.

21 And he answered and said unto them, My mother and my brethren are these which [c]hear the word of God, and do it.

39 Jesus stills the storm (Mk. 4:35. Cp. Mt. 8:23)

22 ¶ Now it came to pass on a certain day, that he went into a ship with his disciples: and he said unto them, Let us go over unto the other side of the lake. And they launched forth.

23 But as they sailed he fell asleep: and there came down a [x]storm of wind on the lake; and they were [y]filled with water, and were in jeopardy.

24 And they came to, and awoke him, saying, Master, master, we perish. Then he arose, and rebuked the wind and the raging of the water: and they ceased, and there was a calm.

25 And he said unto them, [z]Where is your faith? And they being afraid wondered, saying one to another, What manner of man is this! for he commandeth even the winds and water, and they obey him.

40 Maniac of Gadara (Mk. 5:1. Cp. Mt. 8:28)

26 ¶ And they arrived at the country of the [1]Găd-a-rēnes', which is over against Găl'i-lee.

27 And when he went forth to land, there met him out of the city a certain man, which had devils long time, and [a]ware no clothes, neither abode in any house, but in the tombs.

28 When he saw Jē'sus, he cried out, and fell down before him, and with a loud voice said, [b]What have I to do with thee, Jē'sus, thou Son of God most high? I beseech thee, torment me not.

29 (For he had commanded the unclean spirit to come out of the man. For oftentimes it had caught him: and he was kept bound with chains and in fetters; and he brake the bands, and was driven of the devil into the wilderness.)

30 And Jē'sus asked him, saying, What is thy name? And he said, [c]Legion: because many devils were entered into him.

31 And they besought him that he would not command them to go out into the [d]deep.

32 And there was there an herd of many [e]swine feeding on the mountain: and they besought him that he would suffer them to enter into them. And a The first reference as to how Christ and His many workers received their support. Then, too, hospitality in each town no doubt was sufficient to lodge and feed them as they went from city to city. On other occasions bread was multiplied, taxes were taken from a fish's mouth, miraculous draughts of fish were caught, and miraculous means were used otherwise (Mt. 10:11; 12:1; 14:19; 17:27; 21:19; Lk. 5:5-10; 7:36; 19:5; etc.). n Swine were forbidden as food (Lev. 11:7; Dt. 14:8), but Israel went into apostasy and broke the law (Isa. 65:4; 66:17) and even used them in sacrifice (Isa. 66:3). They are pictured as unclean, vicious, and senseless (Pr. 11:22; Mt. 7:6; Lk. 15:15-16; 2 Pet. 2:22)

a It is a divine law that whoever accepts truth and is honestly wanting the whole truth and nothing but the truth, he will be given truth

b It is also a divine law that whoever is dishonest and evasive of truth and who seeks for excuses not to accept and obey it, he will revert to darkness and fallacy in the extreme c Gr. dokeo, to suppose, be of the opinion, reputed. It is used of doubtful things. It is also used of things certain (Heb. 4:1; Mt. 3:9; Lk. 22:24; Jn. 5:39; 1 Cor. 7:40; 10:12; 11:16; Gal. 2:9; Phil. 3:4). In this sense it is used here (v 17), as proved in parallel places (Mk. 4:25; Mt. 13:12; 25:29; Lk. 19:26). What is it that will be taken away from men? It is the Word of God that produces fruit (v 11, 15, 18). If the seed is permitted to become choked out, as in v 14, it will be taken away. One must have it before it can be taken away (Heb. 6:4-9; 10:26-29)

d Mary had other children:
1 It is plainly stated that Jesus had 4 brothers (i. e. half brothers), James, Joses, Simon, and Judas. He had at least 3 half sisters also—"are not his sisters here with us?" These are referred to as "his own kin" and "his own house." Also, the phrases, "his mother. . . . his brethren. . . . and his sisters" are used in the plain literal sense of them (Mt. 13:55-56; Mk. 6:3)
2 The Lord is called Mary's "firstborn" (Mt. 1:25; Lk. 2:7), and the natural inference is that she had other children. The Gr. prototokos is used only in Rom. 8:29; Col. 1:15-18; Heb. 1:6; 11:28; 12:23; Rev. 1:5 of the first of many others. Had He been her only son, the word would have been monogenes, which occurs in Lk. 7:12; 8:42; 9:38; of human parentage of the "only son," "only daughter" and "only child"; and of the Lord Jesus as "the only begotten of the Father" (Jn. 1:14, 18; 3:16, 18; 1 Jn. 4:9)
3 It was predicted by God that Mary would have other children and the Messiah would have brothers. "I am become a stranger unto my brethren, and an alien unto my mother's children" (Ps. 69:8-9)
4 "His mother, and his brethren" are mentioned as following Him to Capernaum and seeking to hinder His work (Mt. 12:46-50; Mk. 3:31-35; Lk. 8:19-21; Jn. 2:12). The children of some other woman would not be following Mary as "his brethren."
5 "His brethren" are mentioned as not believing on Him until after the resurrection (Jn. 7:3-10; Acts 1:14)
6 James is called "the Lord's brother" (Gal. 1:19). See note r, Mk. 6:3
7 The natural meaning of "his brethren" would never have been questioned but for the fact of pagan corruption in the church-in seeking to raise Mary from a mere "handmaid of the Lord" (Lk. 1:38) to that of mother of God and to invest her with divine powers as a goddess. Thus the way was prepared for identifying her with the goddess of paganism, who is supposed to be the mother of a divine son, and who is yet a virgin, a deity known in Egypt as Isis, the mother of Horus; in India, Isi; in Asia, Cybele; in Rome, Fortuna; in Greece, Ceres; in China, Shing Moo; and in other lands by different names, but always with a son in arms. So it is said that Mary had no other children and that His brethren were cousins by another Mary and Cleophas, that Joseph was too old to have children of Mary, or that he had children by a former marriage. All this is false, as nothing is mentioned in Scripture or history about these claims. If Joseph did have children before Jesus was born, then Jesus could not be the legal heir to David's throne, which by law went to the firstborn. See note k, Mt. 1:6

d Was perfectly sound in mind. Thus God can do in one moment what it takes man months and years to do. Insanity often consists of one erroneous idea or train of ideas. Sometimes, not always, the whole mind is astray. Injury on the head, lack of nutrition, malfunction of the glands, narcotics and various stimulant drugs, fever, worry, demon possession, and other things cause mental derangement. Demons are responsible for the most of these. The reality of demons to drive men out of their right minds is witnessed daily on earth. Demons are not to be feared, for bodily control, clean living, and faith in God can drive out all demon powers from any and all persons who will take God's way of life through Christ
e People present can always see when a man is healed and they also know when he is not f They asked Jesus to leave their country and He did, never to return. God, Christ, and the Holy Spirit are persons who will not impose on anyone or stay where They are not wanted. These very people in eternity whether they turned to God later or were lost will regret this action many times. Think of it! The very Saviour of the world being turned down by the very people He came to save!
g Contrast this beseeching of the insane man now in his right mind with the sane men in v 37
h Note the replies to the three prayers. He answered the prayers of the devils (v 32-33) and of the unsaved men (v 37), but it was not best to answer the prayer of the healed and saved man, for he was needed at home to tell others the good news of Jesus Christ (v 38-39). This is what men are saved for, and any man who claims to be born again and to love God to the point of obedience and does not obey is not really in God's will. When prayers are selfish and out of God's will they cannot be answered as requested. The very reason why they cannot be granted reveals the best will of God in the matter. This is no damper on those who ask in the will of God, according to the promises. In that case they must not accept anything but the complete answer (Heb. 11:6)
i The city of v 34 that rejected Jesus (v 37). It often happens this way. When men will not listen to one minister of God they will to another and ministers must not be jealous or hurt in such cases. When they will not listen to any message of God they are beyond hope.
j Returned to the other side of the lake from whence He came (v 22, 26) k If one man or crowd does not receive truth another will, so the duty of God's people is to continue witnessing until the whole world is evangelized (Mt. 28:19-20; Mk. 16:15-20; Acts 1:8). Jesus was rejected in one country only to be joyfully received in another. What a lesson to those who argue against sending the gospel to the heathen until all at home are saved
l The heathen wait for the message that never comes, while here at home men have so much light they will receive greater damnation than the heathen if they are lost (Rom. 2:12-16) he[e] suffered them.

33 Then went the devils out of the man, and[b] entered into the swine: and the herd ran violently down a steep place into the lake, and were choked.

34 When they that[c] fed them saw what was done, they fled, and went and told it in the city and in the country.

35 Then they went out to see what was done; and came to Jē'şus, and found the man, out of whom the devils were departed, sitting at the feet of Jē'şus, clothed, and[d] in his right mind: and they were afraid.

36 [e]They also which saw it told them by what means he that was possessed of the devils was healed.

37 ¶ Then the whole multitude of the country of the Găd-a-rēnes' round about[f] besought him to depart from them; for they were taken with great fear: and he went up into the ship, and returned back again.

38 Now the man out of whom the devils were departed[g] besought him that he might be with him: [h]but Jē'şus sent him away, saying,

39 Return to thine own house, and shew how great things God hath done unto thee. And he went his way, and published throughout the whole[i] city how great things Jē'şus had done unto him.

41 Woman healed: girl resurrected (Mk. 5:21; Mt. 9:18)

40 And it came to pass, that, when Jē'şus was[j] returned, [k]the people gladly received him: [l]for they were all waiting for him.

41 ¶ And, behold, there came a man named[m] Jā-ī'rus, and he was a[n] ruler of the synagogue: and he fell down at Jē'şus' feet, and besought him that he would come into his house:

42 For he had one only daughter, about twelve years of age, and she lay a dying. But as he went the people thronged him.

43 ¶ And a[o] woman having[p] an issue of blood twelve years, which had spent all her living upon physicians, neither could be healed of any,

44 Came behind him, and touched the border of his garment: and immediately her issue of blood[q] stanched.

45 And Jē'şus said, [r]Who touched me? When all denied, Pē'tēr and they that were with him said, Master, the multitude throng thee and press thee, and sayest thou, Who touched me?

46 And Jē'şus said, Somebody hath touched me: for I perceive that[s] virtue is gone out of me.

47 And when the woman saw that she was not hid, she[t] came trembling, and falling down before him, she declared unto him before all the people for what cause she had touched him, and how she was healed immediately.

48 And he said unto her, Daughter, [u]be of good comfort: [v]thy faith hath made thee whole; go in peace.

49 ¶ While he yet spake, there cometh one from the ruler of the synagogue's house, saying to him, [w]Thy daughter is dead; trouble not the Master.

50 But when Jē'şus heard it, he answered him, saying, Fear not: [x]believe only, and she shall be made whole.

51 And when he came into the house, he suffered no man to go in, [y]save Pē'tēr, and Jāmes, and Jŏhn, and the father and the mother of the maiden.

52 [z]And all wept, and bewailed her: but he said, Weep not; she is not dead, but sleepeth.

53 And they laughed him to scorn, [a]knowing that she was dead.

54 And [b]he put them all out, and took her by the hand, and called, saying, Maid, arise.

55 [c]And her spirit came again, and she arose straightway: [d]and he commanded to give her meat.

56 And her parents were astonished: but he charged them that they should tell no man what was done.

53 CHAPTER 9

42 The twelve ordained (6:12; Mt. 10:1; Mk. 3:13; 6:7-13)

THEN he [e]called his twelve disciples together, [f]and gave them [g]power and authority over all devils, and to cure diseases.

2 And he sent them to preach the kingdom of God, and to heal the sick.

●3 And he [h]said unto them, Take nothing for your journey, neither staves, nor scrip, neither bread, neither money; neither have two coats apiece.

●4 And whatsoever house ye enter into, there abide, and thence depart.

●5 And whosoever will not receive you, when ye go out of that city, shake off the very dust from your feet for a testimony against them.

6 And they departed, and went through the towns, [i]preaching the gospel, and healing every where.

8 And of some, that [m]Ē-lī'as had appeared; and of others, that one of the[n] old prophets was risen again.

9 And Hĕr'od said, Jŏhn have I beheaded: [o]but who is this, of whom I hear such things? And he desired to see him.

a What a shock to this father and to his faith! Ordinarily, men would say that since she is dead it is too late to have faith, but not with Jesus who was always able and ready to meet any emergency and defy unbelief and impossibilities. Note His answer (v 50)
b The only requirement of Jesus was to believe or have faith. This is all that is still required besides a proper relationship to God (Mt. 17:20; 21:22; Mk. 9:23; Jn. 15:7). Note the definite commands to have faith (Mk. 11:22-25; Heb. 11:6; Jas. 1:5-6)

v Thy faith. He knew He had not been exercising any particular faith in this case, so He recognized that she had faith enough to get her healing. Too many people are looking to the faith of the preacher or the one who prays instead of getting and exercising personal faith. And this is why few people are getting such healings today. One wonderful thing about the gospel is that it is personal. When others fail or do not even try to exercise faith to help one in time of need the individual needing help can still get what he needs and waits if it is at all covered by the promises of God. One must learn to make it a personal matter and see to it that he, himself is meeting the conditions of the gospel and answered prayer. The conditions are not great and the benefits will not fail when they are met (Mt. 7:7-11; 17:20; 21:22; Mk. 11:22-25; Jn. 15:5; Heb. 11:6; Jas. 1:5-8). Personal faith comes by hearing the Word of God (Rom. 10:17) and by the Holy Spirit (1 Cor. 12:4-11). Nothing is impossible for faith today as in that day (Mt. 17:20; Mk. 9:23)

h Referring to His claim as Messiah (v 20; Mt. 16:20)
i 20th N. T. prophecy in Lk. (9:22, fulfilled). Next, v 24. Note the 8 details of this prophecy.
j First mention of His sufferings, which are never mentioned apart from the glory that follows the sufferings k This phrase is used 11 times in connection with His resurrection (Mt. 16:21; 17:23; 20:19; Mk. 9:31; 10:34; Lk. 9:22; 18:33; 24:7, 46; Acts 10:40; 1 Cor. 15:4). In Mk. 8:31 it is "after three days" and in Mt. 12:40 (see notes there) the time was to be three full days and three full nights. The phrase "third day" means three full days and three full nights because:

1 When days and nights are both mentioned, then it cannot be parts of three days, but full days and nights (Esther 4:16 with 5:1; 1 Sam. 30:12 with 13; Jonah 1:17 with Mt. 12:40). See also Rev. 11:9-11
2 The Jews understood Christ to mean "after three days" or three full days and three full nights (Mt. 27:63), hence the soldiers had orders to guard the tomb at least that long
3 It was the custom to mourn for the dead three full days and nights, called "days of weeping," which were followed by four "days of lamentation," thus making seven days (Gen. 27:41; 50:10; 1 Sam. 31:13; Job 2:13). According to rabbinical notion the spirit wandered about the sepulchre for three days hoping to re-enter the body, but when corruption set in the spirit left. This was believed to be on the fourth day when the loud lamentations began. Hence, on the fourth day Lazarus was supposed to stink (Jn. 11:39)
4 Herodotus testifies that embalmment did not take place until after three days when the spirit was supposed to be gone (Herod. ii. 86-89). This is why the women were taking sweet spices to anoint Jesus (Mk. 16:1; Lk. 24:1)
5 The Jews did not accept evidence as to the identification of a dead body after three days, for corruption took place quickly in the East. Hence, this period of three full days and three full nights was wanted by God, so as to preclude all doubt that death had actually taken place, and shut out all suggestion that Christ might have been in a trance

13 But he said unto them, Give ye them to eat. And they said, We have no more but five loaves and two fishes; except we should go and buy meat for all this people.
14 For they were about five thousand men. And he said to his disciples, Make them sit down by fifties in a company.
15 And they did so, and made them all sit down.
16 Then he took the five loaves and the two fishes, and looking up to heaven, he blessed them, and brake, and gave to the disciples to set before the multitude.

50 Transfiguration: preview, the coming kingdom (Mt. 16:28-17:1; Mk. 9:1; 2 Pet. 1:16)

27 But I tell you of a truth, there be some standing here, which shall not taste of death, till they see the kingdom of God.
28 ¶ And it came to pass about an eight days after these sayings, he took Pē'tĕr and John and James, and went up into a mountain to pray.
29 And as he prayed, the fashion of his countenance was altered, and his raiment was white and glistering.
30 And, behold, there talked with him two men, which were Mō'sĕs and Ē-lī'as:
31 Who appeared in glory, and spake of his decease which he should accomplish at Jĕ-ru'să-lĕm.
32 But Pē'tĕr and they that were with him were heavy with sleep: and when they were awake, they saw his glory, and the two men that stood with him.
33 And it came to pass, as they departed from him, Pē'tĕr said unto Jē'sus, Master, it is good for us to be here: and let us make three tabernacles; one for thee, and one for Mō'sĕs, and one for Ē-lī'as: not knowing what he said.
34 While he thus spake, there came a cloud, and overshadowed them: and they feared as they entered into the cloud.
■35 And there came a voice out of the cloud, saying, This is my beloved Son: hear him.

b These are generally poor ones to look to for help in times of need like this, because the average one today does not believe that he can have power over demons, as stated in Mk. 16:15-20; Lk. 10:19; Jn. 14:12. In the case of these disciples, however, they had received power and had used it to cast out many demons, so they attempted it in this case (Mt. 10:1-8; Mk. 6:7-13; Lk. 9:1-5; 10:1-20) c Question 58. Next, v 54. Jesus did not rebuke the disciples for attempting to cast out the devil, nor did He state anything to the child's father, indicating he should not expect disciples to cast out devils. He did reprove His disciples for having unbelief and called them a "faithless and perverse generation" (v 41; Mt. 17:17-20). How long must I tolerate your unbelief?
d Christ spoke with authority as any disciple will do if he will seek God until he is endued with power from on high (Lk. 24:49; Acts 1:4-8; 3:6; 5:15-16; 6:8; 8:7, 13; 14:10; 16:18; etc.)

f How easy it was for Jesus to do work like this! The secret was the anointing of the Spirit. This miracle is more detailed in Mk. 9:14-29. Matthew also gives some important additions (17:16-20)
g 22nd N. T. prophecy in Lk. (9:44, fulfilled). Next, 10:12. Jesus kept it uppermost in His mind what He came into the world to do. This is His second announcement in Luke of His coming sufferings, but it again fell on deaf ears. The disciples never did seem to grasp the true mission of Christ until after it was all over (Mk. 16:14; Lk. 24:45)
h The disciples could not understand the simple fact of the coming sufferings of Christ, but they were perfect in understanding that there would have to be leadership in the new religion and each wanted to be the leader (Mt. 18:1, refs.)

m Completing a certain stage of the Lord's ministry - that of evangelizing, going around healing all that were oppressed of the devil (Acts 10:38). The time for Him to close this phase of His ministry and start for Jerusalem to accomplish His real mission on earth - taste death for every man so that all men might be saved (Heb. 2:14-15; Mt. 20:28; Mk. 10:45; 1 Tim. 2:4-6; Gal. 1:4; Tit. 2:14; 1 Pet. 2:24; 3:18; Rev. 1:5) n Gr. analepsis. Only here, but the kindred verb analambano is used of the ascension of Elijah in the Septuagint (2 Ki. 2:11), and of the Lord in Mk. 16:19; Acts 1:2, 11, 22; 1 Tim. 3:16
o Set His face "like a flint," fulfilling Isa. 50:7. See Lk. 9:31 p Gr. aggelos, angels or messengers. These were "human angels" - His disciples (Lk. 7:24, note) q These were the descendants of the pagans that settled in the land at the time of the captivities and the few Jews who remained in the land (2 Ki. 17:24-34). They formed their own religion, a mixture of Judaism and paganism. They adopted the Pentateuch as the sole sacred book and erected a temple on Mt. Gerizim near Shechem, 331 B. C. (Jos. Ant. XI, 7-2; 8-2). Returning exiles rejected their help in rebuilding Jerusalem and the temple (Ezra 4; Neh. 1, 4, 6); and the breach between them and the Jews became permanent and so acute that Jews would not pass through Samaria to go into Galilee, but had a circuitous route east of Jordan (Jn. 4:9; 8:48; Jos. Ant. XX, 6-1). They taught that Messiah was no greater than Moses and would appear 6,000 years after creation, would live 110 years, and would lead men to the true faith foameth again, and [a]bruising him hardly departeth from him.

40 And I besought [b]thy disciples to cast him out; and they could not.

41 And Jē'şus answering said, O faithless and perverse generation, [c]how long shall I be with you, and suffer you? [d]Bring thy son hither.

42 And as he was yet a coming, the devil threw him down, and tare him. And Jē'şus rebuked the [e]unclean spirit, [f]and healed the child, and delivered him again to his father.

43 ¶ And they were all amazed at the mighty power of God. But while they wondered every one at all things which Jē'şus did, he said unto his disciples,

52 Jesus again foretells His death (Mt. 16:21, refs.)

[*]44 Let these sayings sink down into your ears: [g]for the Son of man shall be delivered into the hands of men.

45 But they understood not this saying, and it was hid from them, that they perceived it not: and they feared to ask him of that saying.

53 Lesson on humility (Mt. 18:1, refs.; Mk. 9:33)

46 ¶ Then there arose a[h]reasoning among them, which of them should be greatest.

47 And Jē'şus, perceiving the thought of their heart, [i]took a child, and set him by him, ▶48 And said unto them, Whosoever shall receive this child in my name receiveth me: and whosoever shall receive me receiveth him that sent me: for he that is least among you all, the same shall be great.

54 Sectarianism rebuked (Mk. 9:49; Acts 10:15, 35; 20:30)

49 ¶ And Jŏhn answered and said, [j]Master, we saw one casting out devils in thy name; [k]and we forbad him, because he followeth not with us.

●50 And Jē'şus said unto him, Forbid him not: for he that is not against us is for us.

55 Jesus rejected by Samaritans (Cp. Jn. 4:4-45; Acts 8:5-25)

51 ¶ And it came to pass, when [l][m]the time was come that he should be [n]received up, he stedfastly [o]set his face to go to Jē-rụ'să-lĕm, 52 And sent [p]messengers before his face: and they went, and entered into a village of the [q]Să-măr'ĭ-tanş, to make ready for him.

53 And they did [r]not receive him, because his face was as though he would go to Jē-rụ'-să-lĕm.

56 Lessons on retaliation (2 Ki. 1:9. Cp. Mt. 5:43, refs.)

54 And when his disciples Jāmeş and Jŏhn saw this, they said, [a]Lord, [b]wilt thou that we command fire to come down from heaven, and consume them, even as [c]Ē-lī'as did?

55 But he turned, and rebuked them, and said, [d]Ye know not what [e]manner of spirit ye are of.

▶56 For the Son of man is not come to destroy men's lives, but [f]to save them. And they went to another village.

57 Discipleship tested (Cp. Mt. 8:18, refs.)

57 ¶ And it came to pass, that, as they went in the way, a [g]certain man said unto him, Lord, I will follow thee whithersoever thou goest.

58 And Jē'şus said unto him, Foxes have holes, and birds of the air have nests; but the Son of man hath [h]not where to lay his head.

59 And he said unto another, Follow me. But he said, Lord, suffer me first to go and [i]bury my father.

60 Jē'şus said unto him, [j]Let the dead bury their dead: but go thou and preach the kingdom of God.

61 And another also said, Lord, I will follow thee; but let me first go bid them farewell, which are at home at my house.

62 And Jē'şus said unto him, [k]No man, having put his [l]hand to the plow, and looking back, is fit for the kingdom of God.

54 CHAPTER 10

58 The seventy ordained: (1) Commissioned and sent

AFTER these things the Lord [m]appointed other [n]seventy also, and sent them [o]two and two before his face into every city and place, whither he himself would come.

●2 Therefore said he unto them, The [p]harvest truly is great, but the labourers are few: [q]pray ye therefore the Lord of the harvest, that he would [r]send forth labourers into his harvest.

3 Go your ways: behold, [s]I send you forth as lambs among wolves.

●4 Carry neither [t]purse, [u]nor scrip, [v]nor shoes: [w]and salute no man by the way.

●5 And into whatsoever house ye enter, first say, [x]Peace be to this house.

6 And if the [y]son of peace be there, your peace shall rest upon it: if not, it shall turn to you again.

●7 And [z]in the same house remain, eating and drinking such things as they give: for the labourer is worthy of his hire. Go not from house to house.

●8 And into whatsoever city ye enter, and they receive you, eat such things as are set before you:

c Elijah (2 Ki. 1:8-15)
d Self-ignorance is so often manifest in connection with religion. The only remedy is crucifixion and study (Gal. 2:20; 2 Tim. 2:15; 3:17). The zealous must always be self-controlled and act in knowledge or the work they seek to help will be destroyed (Rom. 10:1-4; Jn. 16:2). The disciples did not yet understand the true mission of Jesus (v 32). Christianity is not to be propagated by the sword e The Christian spirit is not one of retaliation. Even the law of Moses commanded not to avenge or hold grudges (Lev. 19:18; Cp. Pr. 24:29). The gospel commands the same thing (Mt. 5:38-44; 7:1-2; Lk. 9:52-55; Rom. 12:17; 1 Cor. 6:7-8; 1 Th. 5:15; 1 Pet. 3:9). But the law and the gospel allow the law to take its course when men have sinned (Ex. 21:23-25; Lev. 24:17-22; Dt. 19:19-21; Rom. 13:1-8)

3 To strengthen in weakness when burdened (Rom. 15:1-5; Gal. 6:2)
4 For unity in prayer (Mt. 18:19)

w This does not imply the renunciation of common courtesies of life, for Christians must be courteous (1 Pet. 3:8), but it does refer to those vain and tedious ceremonies by which Eastern manners consumed precious time and to no purpose. Greetings sometimes would be repeated 10 times with many bowings and asking of the health of everyone in the family. Elisha forbad this of his servant, for his mission was urgent (2 Ki. 4:29)
x This was the usual salutation on entering a home
y If the master of the house be a son of peace or a peaceful man, your blessing shall rest upon the home, but if you are rejected shake off the dust of your feet as a testimony against it (Mt. 10:14). The Jews called any man who had a good or bad quality the son of it. See note d, Jn. 17:12 z As alluded to in salutations above, Eastern customs required much visiting from house to house. This consumed much time, taking attention from business, so it was forbidden the preachers of the gospel (9:4) a They were commissioned to heal all the sick in every city they entered, as proof that the kingdom of God had come to them and that God's representatives were in their midst. b See note n, Mt. 10:14

c A medical term for uniting of wounds
d Besides a threat, the idea here is that of conveying a testimony of the preachers to the best good of the people; as if they said, "We came not for yours - no, not even to a particle of your dust, which we wipe off and leave with you - but we came for you, that by the grace of God we might minister to you and save your souls and heal your bodies as proof that we represent the true God and His kingdom. l This refers to the casting out of Satan when he invaded heaven from the earth long before Adam. See notes on Isa. 14:12-14; Jer. 4:23-26; Ezek. 28:11-17; Gen. 1:1-2; 2 Pet. 3:5-8. Satan since then has regained dominion of the earth by Adam's fall and he will again be cast out in the middle of Daniel's 70th week, or 3 1/2 years before the second advent (Rev. 12:7-12) m Are such promises for the first 82 preachers only? Certainly not, for Jesus said, "He that believeth" and "them that believe" would be able to do His works (Mt. 17:20; 21:22; Mk. 9:23; 11:22-24; 16:15-20; Jn. 14:12)
n Gr. exousia, delegated authority - the right to use power as received and when needed to destroy Satan's works
o To tread upon means to have absolute mastery over, as is clear in Ps. 91:13; 108:13; Isa. 10:6; 63:6; Dan. 7:23; Mic. 5:5; Rev. 11:2. Christians are to have power over all power of the devil, and nothing shall by any means hurt them. By a comparison with Mt. 10:16-22 and the actual history of the apostles and others, we know that this exemption from being hurt does not imply freedom from all physical or material injury, for many died for Christ. The "serpents and scorpions" and "all the power of the enemy" refer to demon powers primarily, although immunity from any harm of wild beasts and from poisons is also promised (Ps. 91; Mk. 16:17-18; Acts 28:5). The whole passage is speaking of "devils...Satan...serpents...scorpions...power of the enemy...spirits."
p Power over demons should not be the source of joy, but sonship evidenced by one's name being written in heaven (Ex. 32:32; Ps. 69:28; Dan. 12:1; Phil. 4:3; Heb. 12:23; Rev. 3:5; 13:8; 17:8; 20:12; 21:27; 22:19). It is a natural tendency for man to glory in the exercise of power whether it is inherent or conferred. All such arises from pride, and it often leads to ship-wreck of gifted men. Against such feelings and weakness Christ here solemnly warns q Rejoiced in the Holy Spirit, which is the true source of joy and will never result in spiritual pride that causes ship-wreck (Gal. 5:22)
r 176 times Jesus used this word in referring to and addressing God in prayer; 112 times in John alone, which is the gospel that says so much about the divine Father and Son. The rest are found 43 times in Matthew; 5 times in Mark; 14 times in Luke; and 2 times in Acts.

11 [b]Even the very dust of your city, which [c]cleaveth on us, [d]we do wipe off against you: notwithstanding be ye sure of this, that the kingdom of God is come nigh unto you.

(5) Judgment predicted on unbelieving cities (Mt. 11:20)

12 [e]But I say unto you, that it shall be more [f]tolerable in that day for Sŏd'om, than for that city.

13 [g]Woe unto thee, Chō-rā'zin! woe unto thee, Bĕth-sā'ī-dā! for if the mighty works had been done in Tȳre and Sī'dŏn, which have been done in you, they had a great while ago repented, [h]sitting in sackcloth and ashes.

14 But it shall be more tolerable for Tȳre and Sī'dŏn at the judgment, than for you.

15 And thou, Cā-pĕr'na-ŭm, which art exalted to heaven, shalt be thrust down to [i]hell.

16 He that heareth you heareth me; and he that despiseth you despiseth me; and he that despiseth me despiseth him that sent me.

(6) Seventy return: power over Satan promised (Mt. 18:18, refs.)

17 ¶ And the seventy returned again with [j]joy, saying, Lord, even the [k]devils are subject unto us through thy name.

18 And he said unto them, I beheld Sā'tan as lightning [l]fall from heaven.

19 Behold, [m]I give unto you [n]power to [o]tread on serpents and scorpions, and over all the power of the enemy: and nothing shall by any means hurt you.

20 Notwithstanding in this rejoice [p]not, that the spirits are subject unto you; but rather rejoice, because your names are written in heaven.

59 Jesus rejoices over simplicity of truth (Mt. 11:25)

21 ¶ In that hour Jē'sus rejoiced [q]in spirit, and said, I thank thee, O Father, Lord of heaven and earth, that thou hast hid these things from the wise and prudent, and hast revealed them unto babes: even so, Father; for so it seemed good in thy sight.

22 All things are delivered to me of my Father: and no man knoweth who the Son is, but the Father: and who the Father is, but the Son, and he to whom the Son will reveal him.

60 Rewards for gospel believers (Mt. 21:21; Jn. 14:12)

23 ¶ And he turned him unto his disciples, and said privately, Blessed are the eyes which see the things that ye see:

24 For I tell you, that many prophets and kings have desired to see those things which ye see, and have not seen them; and to hear those things which ye hear, and have not heard them.

61 A lawyer questions Jesus (Mt. 22:34; Mk. 12:28)

25 ¶ And, behold, a [a]certain lawyer stood up, and tempted him, saying, [b]Master, [c]what shall I do to inherit eternal life?

26 He said unto him, What is written in the law? how readest thou?

27 And he answering [d]said, Thou shalt love the Lord thy God with all thy heart, and with all thy soul, and with all thy strength, and with all thy mind; and thy neighbour as thyself.

28 And he said unto him, Thou hast answered right: [e]this do, and thou shalt live.

29 But he, willing to [f]justify himself, said unto Jē'sus, [g]And who is my neighbour?

62 Parable of the good Samaritan: the true neighbor

30 And Jē'sus answering said, A certain man went [h]down from Jē-rū'sā-lĕm to Jĕr'ī-chō, and fell among thieves, [k]which stripped him of his raiment, and wounded him, and departed, leaving him half dead.

31 And by chance there came down a certain [l]priest that way: and when he saw him, he passed by on the other side.

32 And likewise a Lē'vīte, when he was at the place, came and looked on him, and passed by on the other side.

33 But a certain [m]Sā-măr'ī-tan, as he journeyed, came where he was: [n]and when he saw him, he had compassion on him, 34 And went to him, and bound up his wounds, pouring in oil and wine, and set him on his own beast, and brought him to an [o]inn, and took care of him.

35 And on the morrow when he departed, he took out [p]two pence, and gave them to the host, and said unto him, Take care of him; and whatsoever thou spendest more, when I come again, I will repay thee.

36 [q]Which now of these three, thinkest thou, was neighbour unto him that fell among the thieves?

37 And he said, He that shewed mercy on him. Then said Jē'sus unto him, [r]Go, and do thou likewise.

j The road was a steep descent from Jerusalem to Jericho, which was about 18 miles east. It was called "the bloody way" and the most dangerous of Palestine because of robbers infesting the country k Note the 4 things done by thieves l Jericho was a priestly city. No less than 12,000 priests lived there who would frequently pass that way to minister in the temple. It was the city of palm trees (Dt. 34:3; Judg. 1:16). About 18 miles from Jerusalem and 6 miles from Jordan. Cp. Josh. 6:26 with 1 Ki. 16:34 m This is the extent of the help of religious people who are bound by forms and rituals, which cannot be broken even to save a life. These did two things: "looked on" and "passed by on the other side" under the pretense of avoiding legal pollution. A merciful, compassionate and godly man would have saved the life regardless of pollution, knowing that provision was made for him to become clean again. Jesus showed the superiority of the gospel over the law, teaching us to reject any religion or law that would neglect a deed of mercy. See Lev. 22; Num. 19 n The Samaritans were hated by the Jews (9:52, note). Often the despised come to the rescue, showing deeds of mercy and human compassion when the respected and religious class will not. Rejection by men naturally works kindness and compassion in the human soul o Note the ten acts of mercy showed to the man by his neighbor (v 33-35). This defines the word "neighbor" and illustrates how to be one q 34¢ in our money, the ransom money for a life (Ex. 30:12-13). This was equal to two days' wages for a common labourer (Mt. 20:1-16); so after all, the inn keeper was well paid r Question 64. Next, v 40. This is the point Christ conveyed by this illustration. His teachings were always so clear that the point was never lost if one wanted to accept the truth. In the case of Mt. 13:11-15 the people heard, but they would not open their minds to believe and receive the truth s Christ applied this to the lawyer to further answer his question of what to do to inherit eternal life. This will automatically be practiced by men who have eternal life (1 Jn. 3:15-18; 1 Cor. 13). Our neighbor is anyone who is in need and whom we have the opportunity to help

It is found only 26 times in the other gospels and only 9 times in all the epistles

b Martha is generally pictured as being too bothered about serving to hear Christ, but she had her good points such as:

1 Received Jesus (v 38)
2 Served Jesus (v 40; Jn. 12:2)
3 First to go to Him when in need (Jn. 11:20, 30)
4 Had faith in Him (Jn. 11:21-22)
5 Believed in bodily resurrection and eternal life (Jn. 11:23-27)
6 Confessed Jesus to be the Christ and God's Son (Jn. 11:27)
7 Carried Christ's message to Mary (Jn. 11:28)

i The disciples had been watching Jesus and had come to know that His prayers were always heard; and that the continued source of His power and utter freedom from pride came through secret prayer. This created a hunger in them to know how to pray, so they asked to be taught. Shall we not all enroll in the school of prayer and make Christ our teacher? Shall we not practice faithfully every day the lessons we learn in prayer?

l In the East much travelling was done at night on account of the intense heat, hence a normal event

m Jewish loaves were merely thin biscuit of a few ounces and resembled stones. Eastern hospitality required more than bare necessity n It was common for parents, children, and servants to sleep in the same room on different pallets or mats

o Gr, anaideia, shamelessness, impudence. Only here, and is used in the sense of assurance, boldness, forwardness. The idea is, if a friend will yield to importunity what he will not yield to mere human friendship, how much more will God yield to importunate prayer, what He has already prepared and promised to give through heavenly love

Examples of importunity in prayer:
1 Abraham (Gen. 18:23-32)
2 Jacob (Gen. 32:24-29)
3 Moses (Ex. 32:32; Dt. 9:25)
4 Gideon (Judg. 6:36-40)
5 Hannah (1 Sam. 1:10-18)
6 Solomon (1 Ki. 8:22-30)
7 Ezra (Ezra 9:5-6)
8 Nehemiah (Neh. 1:4-6)
9 David (Ps. 55:1, 16-17; 141:1-2)
10 Daniel (Dan. 9:3-19; 10:1-3)
11 A Gentile woman (Mt. 15:22-28)
12 A widow (Lk. 18:1-8)

trasted (Cp. Jn. 11:19-46)

38 ¶ Now it came to pass, as they went, that he entered into a[a]certain village: and a certain woman named [b]Mär'thä received him into her house.

39 And she had a sister called Mä'rÿ, which also sat at Jē'şus' feet, and heard his word.

40 But Mär'thä was[c]cumbered about much serving, and came to him, and said, Lord, [d]dost thou not care that my sister hath left me to serve alone? bid her therefore that she help me.

41 And Jē'şus answered and said unto her, Mär'thä, Mär'thä, thou art [c]careful and troubled about many things:

42 But [f]one thing is needful: and [g]Mä'rÿ hath chosen that good part, which shall not be taken away from her.

55 CHAPTER 11

64 On prayer: the only teacher (Cp. Mt. 6:5-15)

AND it came to pass, that, as he was [h]praying in a certain place, when he ceased, one of his disciples said unto him, Lord, [i]teach us to pray, as Jŏhn also taught his disciples.

65 Model prayer (Mt. 6:9)

2 And he *i*said unto them, When ye pray, say, Our Father which art in heaven, Hallowed be thy name. Thy kingdom come. Thy will be done, as in heaven, so in earth.

3 Give us day by day our daily bread.

4 And forgive us our sins; for we also forgive every one that is indebted to us. And lead us not into temptation; but deliver us from evil.

66 Parable of a desperate man: boldness of God's friends

5 And he said unto them, Which of you shall have a friend, and shall go unto him at[l]midnight, and say unto him, Friend, lend me three[m]loaves;

6 For a friend of mine in his journey is come to me, and I have nothing to set before him?

7 And he from within shall answer and say, Trouble me not: the door is now shut, and my children are with me [n]in bed; I cannot rise and give thee.

8 I say unto you, Though he will not rise and give him, because he is his friend, yet because of his[o]importunity he will rise and give him as many as he needeth.

67 Certainty of answered prayer (Mt. 7:7; 21:21; Mk. 9:23; 11:22; Jn. 14:12; 15:7, 16)

▶9 And I say unto you, [p]Ask, and it shall be given you; seek, and ye shall find; knock, and it shall be opened unto you.

▶10 For every one that asketh receiveth; and he that seeketh findeth; and to him that knocketh it shall be opened.

68 Infinite Fatherhood of God: the all-inclusive gift (Mt. 7:7; Acts 2:39; 5:32)

11 [q]If a son shall ask bread of any of you that is a father, will he give him a stone? or if he ask a fish, will he for a fish give him a serpent?

12 Or if he shall ask an egg, will he offer him a[r]scorpion?

▶13 If ye then, being evil, know how to give good gifts unto your children: [s]how much more shall your heavenly Father [d]give the Hō'lÿ Spĭr'ĭt to them that ask him?

69 Dumb devil cast out: Pharisees blaspheme the Holy Spirit (Mt. 12:24, refs.)

14 ¶ And he was casting out a devil, and it was dumb. And it came to pass, when the devil was gone out, the dumb spake; and the people wondered.

15 But some of them said, He casteth out devils through [t]Bē-ĕl'ze-bŭb the chief of the devils.

70 The divided kingdom (Mt. 12:14; Mk. 3:22)

16 And others, [t]tempting him, sought of him a sign from heaven.

17 But he, knowing [g]their thoughts, said unto them, Every kingdom[h]divided against itself is brought to desolation; and a house divided against a house falleth.

18 [t]If Sā'tan also be divided against himself, how shall his kingdom stand? because [i]ye say that I cast out devils through Bē-ĕl'ze-bŭb.

19 And if I by Bē-ĕl'ze-bŭb cast out devils, [k]by whom do your sons cast them out? therefore shall they be your judges.

20 But if I with the [l]finger of God cast out devils, no doubt the kingdom of God is come upon you.

21 [m]When a strong man armed keepeth his palace, his goods are in peace.

22 But when a stronger than he shall come upon him, and overcome him, he taketh from him all his armour wherein he trusted, and divideth his spoils.

23 [n]He that is not with me is against me: and he that gathereth not with me scattereth.

71 State of backsliders (Mt. 12:43; 2 Pet. 2:20-22)

24 When the[o]unclean spirit is gone out of a man, he walketh through dry places, seeking rest; and finding none, he saith, I will return unto my house whence I came out.

25 And when he cometh, he findeth it swept and garnished.

26 Then goeth he, and taketh to him seven other spirits more a Questions 67-70. Next, v 18. 14th parable in Lk. (11:11-13, illustrating the infinite Fatherhood of God). Next, v 21

b These vary in length from one to three inches, and resemble a dark-colored crab. They have a long tail with sharp fang at the end, and a vesicle full of liquid poison, which is forcibly ejected into the wound of the sting. They grasp their prey and bring the long tail over their backs to sting and kill. They are numerous in Palestine. Five kinds are found in the desert of Sinai. They feed on insects and hide in holes under stones and in banks on the roadside c Does this not plainly state that God is more loving and good to His children than earthly parents are to their children? At least half as good? If so, then it settles once and forever God's will concerning salvation, prosperity, healing, or any other good thing. One need never question what is the will of God again concerning any of these things if he will believe only this one scripture. Would any earthly parent will for his children to be sick? Suffer pain? Live in poverty? Be diseased? Be sinful and corrupt? Live in crime, sins, and filthy habits? Be in want? Be unhappy in work, marriage, or in any phase of life? The fact is that God has specifically promised all good things to all His children on condition of faith (Mt. 17:20; 21:22; Mk. 9:23; 11:22-24; Jn. 14:12-15; 15:7, 16; 16:23-26; Heb. 11:6; Jas. 1:5-8; 1 Jn. 3:21-22; 5:14-15; Ps. 91; 1 Pet. 2:24)

d Here the Holy Spirit is promised to all children of God who ask (v 13). That this refers to the Spirit baptism and full enduement of power for service is clear from Lk. 24:29; Jn. 7:37-39; Acts 2:33, 38-39; 5:32; Mt. 3:11; Gal. 3:13-14. All children of God are given the Spirit in a measure at the new birth (Jn. 3:3, 5; Rom. 8:9, 14-16; Gal. 4:6), so what is this extra asking for the Holy Spirit after men become the children of God, if it is not what the disciples received at Pentecost after they had been children of God for several years (Acts 1: 4-8; 2:1-16)? What was it that others received after their conversion (Acts 9:17; 8:1-22; 10:44-48; 11:14-16; 15:7-11; 19:1-7; etc.)?

i Questions 71-72. Next, v 40

j This is the unpardonable sin (Mt. 12: 24-32; Mk. 3:28-30; 1 Jn. 5:16)

k This was proof that He was not casting out devils by Beelzebub. Their children who were of the devil were not casting them out, so if He was casting them out, as they acknowledged, it was proof that He was of God and that He was doing this work by the Holy Spirit. Jewish leaders had already concluded that He was of God (Jn. 3:1-2). Therefore, their children will stand up in judgment to condemn them for blasphemy of the Holy Spirit (v 19)

l Figurative of the Holy Spirit (Mt. 12: 28) and proof that God's kingdom had come to them. The magicians of Egypt said, "This is the finger of God" (Ex. 8:19). Naturally, we know such statements are not literal, but this does not do away with the fact that God has fingers any more than the same figurative language proves that man does not have them (Pr. 7:3; Song. 5:5). 4 They seek comfort (v 24) a Jesus used this parable to show how Israel is worse than she was before He came to give her light (Mt. 12:45). The illustration itself is also true, showing the real state of a backslider to be worse after being saved and going back into sin than it was before he was saved (v 26; 2 Pet. 2:20-22; Heb. 6:4-9; 10:26-29)

b Note a, Lk. 10:38

c This blessing pronounced on Mary, the mother of Jesus, proves that only man places her above others. Jesus, the Son of God did not; and He spoke whatever God gave Him to speak. He said that they who hear the Word of God, and keep it, are the real blessed ones. Thus both God and Christ are not in harmony with modern Mariolatry and all exaltation of Mary as being better than other Christians

d 24th N. T. prophecy in Lk. (11:29-32, v 29-30 are fulfilled; v 31-32 will be fulfilled at the judgment of Rev. 20: 11-15). Next, v 49

e Evil, because instead of hearing the Word of God and keeping it, they "seek a sign," which they do not need; and though it were shown to their entire satisfaction, they would still disobey truth. These Jews plainly demonstrate that, he who from prejudice and love of sin rejects truth addressed to the understanding, would continue to reject evidence addressed to the senses. If he will not believe the Bible to be the Word of God, he will not believe a miracle to be the work of God. He would be like the Jews and attribute such works to Satan k A portable lamp fed by oil, not wax candle as we know today. Lamps were made for the tabernacle to burn eternally (Ex. 25:31-40; 27:20-21)

Lamps used figuratively of:
1 God (2 Sam. 22:29)
2 Holy Spirit (Rev. 4:5)
3 God's Word (Ps. 119:105; Pr. 6:23)
4 Salvation (Isa. 62:1)
5 Man's life (Job 18:6; 21:17; Ps. 18: 28; Pr. 20:20)
6 Man's spirit (Pr. 20:27)
7 A king (1 Kl. 15:4; Ps. 132:17)
8 Man's eye (Mt. 6:22, note)
The lamp that passed through Abraham's sacrifice was a flaming torch, not an ordinary lamp (Gen. 15:17). One must be careful not to make figurative every lamp mentioned in Scripture, such as the ten lamps of Mt. 25:1-13, which were literal lamps that ten virgins had to light the way of the bridegroom on that occasion

l Lamp, same word as for candle in v 33. The eye is the lamp that gives light to the body (note k, Mt. 6:22)

m Gr. haplous, simple, single, whole, good, and sound. Used only here and in Mt. 6:22 and only in the moral sense. If the eye is single and sound morally and free from any lusts the whole body will be free from sin and morally sound and perfect. Light and darkness are used to contrast spiritual knowledge and spiritual blindness, and righteousness and sin (Mt. 4:16; Lk. 1: 79; Jn. 1:5; 3:19; 8:12; 12:35, 46; 1 Jn. 1:5-7; 2:8-11). If the eyes are full of adultery and lusts the body will be dark and the life blind (2 Pet. 1:9; 2: 14; 1 Jn. 2:15-17; Rev. 3:17-18) n It is man's responsibility to make the body full of light by meeting the terms of the gospel (2 Pet. 1:4-10; 1 Jn. 2: 15-17; Gal. 5:16-26)

o If we make our eyes morally sound the whole body will be sinless and no part sinful. The body is to be sinless as well as the soul and spirit (Rom. 6:1-23; 8: 1-13; 12:1-2; 1 Cor. 3:13-17; 6:19-20; 9:27; 2 Cor. 4:10; 7:1; Col. 2:11-13; Eph. 1:4; 5:25-27; 1 Th. 4:3-7; Tit. 2:11-14)

p Gr. aristao, breakfast (14:12; Jn. 21: 12, 15), not deipneo, dinner (Lk. 17: 8; 22:20; 1 Cor. 11:25)

q Reclined on the couch to eat wicked than himself; and they enter in, and dwell there: and the [e]last state of that man is worse than the first.

72 Two different opinions of blessedness (Cp. Mt. 5: 3; Lk. 6:20)

27 ¶ And it came to pass, as he spake these things, a[b]certain woman of the company lifted up her voice, and said unto him, [c]Blessed is the womb that bare thee, and the paps which thou hast sucked.

▶28 But he said, Yea rather, blessed are they that hear the word of God, and keep it.

73 Sign of Jonah (Mt. 12:38)

★29 ¶ And when the people were gathered thick together, he began to say, [f]This is an [e]evil generation: they seek a sign; and there shall no sign be given it, but the sign of Jō'nas the prophet.

30 For as [f]Jō'nas was a sign unto the Nĭn'e-vītes, so shall also the Son of man be to [g]this generation.

74 Jesus denounces the Jews (Mt. 12:41. Cp. Mt. 11:20)

31 The [h]queen of the south shall rise up in the judgment with the men of this generation, and condemn them: for she came from the utmost parts of the earth to hear the wisdom of Sŏl'o-mon; and, behold, a greater than Sŏl'o-mon is here.

32 The men [i]of Nĭn'e-ve shall rise up in the judgment with this generation, and shall condemn it: for they repented at the preaching of Jō'nas; and, behold, a greater than Jō'nas is here.

75 Parable of the lighted candle (Mt. 5:13; Mk. 4:21; Lk. 8:16)

33 [j]No man, when he hath lighted a[k]candle, putteth it in a secret place, neither under a bushel, but on a candlestick, that they which come in may see the light.

34 The [l]light of the body is the eye: therefore when thine eye is [m]single, thy whole body also is full of light; but when thine eye is evil, thy body also is full of darkness.

●35 [n]Take heed therefore that the light which is in thee be not darkness.

36 [o]If thy whole body therefore be full of light, having no part dark, the whole shall be full of light, as when the bright shining of a candle doth give thee light.

76 Jesus denounces Pharisees for self-righteousness (Mt. 23)

37 ¶ And as he spake, a certain Phăr'ĭ-see besought him to [p]dine with him: and he went in, and [q]sat down to meat.

38 And when the Phăr'ĭ-see saw it, he [e]marvelled that he had not first [b]washed before dinner.

39 And the Lord said unto him, Now do ye Phăr'ĭ-sees make [c]clean the outside of the cup and the platter; but your inward part is full of [e]ravening and [e]wickedness.

40 Ye fools, [g]did not he that made that which is without make that which is within also?

41 But [h]rather give alms of such things as ye have; and, behold, [i]all things are clean unto you.

77 Six woes upon Pharisees and lawyers (Mt. 6:23; Cp. Isa. 64:6; Mt. 23

(1) WOE: self-righteousness

42 But [j]woe unto you, Phăr'ĭ-sees! [k]for ye tithe [l]mint and [m]rue and all manner of herbe, and pass over judgment and the love of God: these ought ye to have done, and not to leave the other undone.

(2) WOE: self-exaltation

43 Woe unto you, Phăr'ĭ-sees! for ye love the [n]uppermost seats in the synagogues, and greetings in the markets.

(3) WOE: hypocrisy - outward show

44 Woe unto you, scribes and Phăr'ĭ-sees, hypocrites! [o]for ye are as graves which appear not, and the men that walk over them are not aware of them.

(4) WOE: unbearable burdens

45 ¶ Then answered one of the [p]lawyers, and said unto him, Master, thus saying thou reproachest us also.

46 And he said, Woe unto you also, ye lawyers! for ye lade men with [q]burdens grievous to be borne, and ye yourselves [r]touch not the burdens with one of your fingers.

(5) WOE: blood of martyrs

47 Woe unto you! for ye build the sepulchres of the prophets, and your fathers killed them.

48 Truly ye bear witness that ye [s]allow the deeds of your fathers: for they indeed killed them, and ye build their sepulchres.

★49 Therefore also said [t]the wisdom of God, "I will send them [v]prophets and apostles, and [w]some of them they shall slay and persecute:

50 That the blood of all the prophets, which was shed from the [x]foundation of the world, may be [y]required of this generation;

51 From the blood of A'bĕl unto the blood of [z]Zăch-a-rī'as, which perished between the altar and the temple: verily I say unto you, It shall be required of this generation.

(6) WOE: damnation of souls

a What little things religious people marvel at! Straining out gnats!

b Gr. baptizo, from bapto, to dip. Only 2 times is this word translated wash (Mk. 7:4; Lk. 11:38). It has to do with ceremonial and religious dipping and washing of hands, not to ordinary cleaning of the hands, for we cannot conceive of Christ going about with filthy hands. It was the ceremony connected with eating that caused the Pharisee to marvel - Christ had not performed His ablution before eating.

c Ceremonially clean by religious rituals of washing hands, cups, and dishes (Mk. 7:4). Pharisees were so hypocritical and showy in religion that they brought it into all details of life which could and would be seen of men. That which was not seen of men did not matter (v 40; Mt. 23:1-33). Theirs was an "outside religion" that dealt with outward appearance - of styles, ornaments, rituals, forms, and what the eye could see d Full of wicked greed and plunder

e Gr. poneros, full of labours and pains in working evil (Mt. 12:39; Lk. 11:29)

f Gr. aphron, senseless ones; without reason; foolish, stupid, acting without intelligence (Lk. 11:40; 12:20; Rom. 2:20; 1 Cor. 15:36; 2 Cor. 11:16, 19; Eph. 5:17; 1 Pet. 2:15). This was severe, but truthful

g Question 73, Next, 12:6, God wants inside religion as well as outside religion. He wants the body, soul, and spirit clean

h Give alms of the contents of the cup or platter instead of being so superconscious about cleaning the outside

i Pharisees held that giving alms was meritorious and made amends for everything - made them religious regardless of unholy traits

n Mt. 23:6; Mk. 12:38-39; Lk. 20:46

o This is the opposite of Mt. 23:27-28. Here it is neglect of the custom rather than its observance. When the customary white washing of a flat tomb was neglected its presence was easily concealed from view and a passer-by might walk upon it and become defiled p Gr. nomikos, teacher of the law. These were a class of learned professors, teachers in the colleges, magistrates, and judges. Some and perhaps all were also scribes, but all scribes were not lawyers or doctors of the law (Mt. 22: 35 with Mk. 12:28). Here it is clear that they were not classed with the "scribes and Pharisees" (v 44-52). See also Lk. 7:30; 10:25; 14:3. At least one of them became a Christian (Tit. 3:13)

q This refers to innumerable precepts of the oral law embodied in the Talmud (Mt. 23:4). Early Christians recognized that all such precepts could not possibly be kept (Acts 15:10; Gal. 2:14)

r Gr. prospsauo, to touch gently, feeling the pulse or some sore place on the body. A medical term s In Mt. 23:29-32 the Pharisees are represented as disapproving of the deeds of their fathers, but here the lawyers are represented as allowing them, because they continued to teach and enforce the wicked traditionary principles of their fathers. The Pharisees were lying when they claimed that they disapproved of the deeds of their fathers, for they were plotting even then to do the same as their fathers in killing a prophet - the Messiah

79 Warning against hypocrisy (Mt. 10:26-27)

IN the mean time, when there were gathered together [d]an innumerable multitude of people, insomuch that they trode one upon another, he began to say unto [e]his disciples first of all, [f]Beware ye of the [g]leaven of the Phăr'ĭ-sees, which is hypocrisy.

3 Therefore [h]whatsoever ye have spoken in darkness shall be heard in the light; and that which ye have spoken in the ear in closets shall be proclaimed upon the housetops.

80 Warning against man fear (Mt. 10:28-33)

●4 And I say unto you [i]my friends, Be not afraid of them that [k]kill the body, and after that have no more that they can do.

14 And he said unto him, Man, [d]who made me a judge or a divider over you?

●15 And he said unto them, Take heed, and beware [e]of covetousness: for a man's life consisteth not in the abundance of the things which he possesseth.

84 Parable of the rich fool

16 And he spake [a]a parable unto them, saying, The ground of a [s]certain rich man brought forth plentifully:

17 And he thought within himself, saying, [h]What shall I do, because I have no room where to bestow my [f]fruits?

18 And he said, This will I do: I will pull down my barns, and build greater; and there will I bestow all my fruits and my goods.

19 And I will say to my soul, Soul, thou hast much goods laid up for many years; take thine ease, eat, drink, and be merry

20 But God said unto him, Thou [j]fool, [k]this night thy soul shall be required of thee: [t]then whose shall those things be, which thou hast provided?

21 [m]So is he that layeth up treasure for himself, and is not rich toward God.

85 Law against worry and anxiety (Mt. 6:25, refs.; Lk. 21:34)

●22 ¶ And he said unto his disciples, Therefore I say unto you, [u]Take no thought for your life, what ye shall eat; neither for the body, what ye shall put on.

23 The life is more than meat, and the body is more than raiment.

●24 Consider the [e]ravens: for they neither sow nor reap; which neither have storehouse nor barn; and God feedeth them: [f]how much more are ye better than the fowls? ◂

25 And which of you with taking thought can add to his stature one [e]cubit?

26 If ye then be not able to do that thing which is least, why take ye thought for the rest?

●27 [f]Consider the lilies how they grow: they toil not, they spin not; and yet I say unto you, that Sŏl'o-mon in all his glory was not arrayed like one of these.

▶28 If then God so clothe the grass, which is to day in the field, and to morrow is cast into the oven; [g]how much more a Have taken away the true knowledge of God from the people and have even nullified God's commandments by traditions of men (Mt. 15:1-9; 16:6-12)

b They would not accept truth and go into the kingdom of God and did all they could to keep others out (Mt. 23:13) c This was the main purpose in urging Him to speak of many things d Gr. the myriads, or tens of thousands of people until they trampled on one another e His disciples must have numbered many thousands from all parts of the country f This was spoken on another occasion (Mt. 16:6)
g Leaven means the false doctrines of the Pharisees, which were mere interpretations and traditions of men that they substituted for the Word of God (Mt. 15:1-9; 16:6-12; 23:1-33; Lk. 11:37-52). These false doctrines are called "hypocrisy" here, because the Pharisees knew better than to teach such things and pretend to believe God's Word when they did not k This is all man can do. He cannot kill the soul and spirit, which are immortal (1 Pet. 3:4, note)

l Men can put into the grave after killing the body, but God alone can cast into hell (Rev. 20:11-15; Ps. 9:17)
m Gr. gehenna, the place of future and eternal torment. Found 12 times and always rendered hell. It is the same as "the lake of fire" found 5 times (Rev. 19:20; 20:10-15; 21:8) Gehenna not the grave because:
1 Only certain people are in danger of gehenna (Mt. 5:22; 23:15, 33)
2 Victory over sin is the only thing that will enable one to escape gehenna (Mt. 5:29-30; 18:9; Rev. 21:8)
3 Both body and soul go to gehenna (Mt. 10:28; Lk. 12:5)
4 Gehenna is a place of damnation (Mt. 23:33; 25:41, 46; Rev. 14:9-11; 19:20; 20:11-15; 21:8; Isa. 66:22-24)
5 Bodies are not put into gehenna until the judgment (Rev. 20:11-15)
6 God only has power to put into gehenna (v 5; Mt. 10:28)
7 Gehenna can set on fire the course of nature (Jas. 3:6)
8 Only the wicked go to gehenna (Rev. 20:11-15; 21:8; Ps. 9:17)
9 Degrees of punishment in gehenna (Rev. 20:13; Mt. 23:14-15)
10 Men can repent and escape gehenna (Mt. 3:2-8; 23:33)
11 Fire in gehenna - never quenched and worm does not die (Mk. 9:43-49; Mt. 25:41, 46; Rev. 14:9-11; 20:10-15)
12 The "fire...damnation...punishment...judgment...contempt" of gehenna are "eternal" (Mt. 25:41, 46; Mk. 3:29; 9:43-49; Heb. 6:2; Jude 7; Rev. 14:9-11; Dan. 12:2)
13 There will be "weeping, wailing, and gnashing of teeth" in gehenna (Mt. 8:12; 13:42, 50; 24:51)
14 Men will be put "alive" into gehenna (Rev. 19:20; 20:11-15)
15 All the wicked in tartarus (2 Pet. 2:4; Jude 6-7), abyss (Lk. 8:31; Rev. 9:20), and sheol-hades will be put into gehenna (Rev. 20:10-15)
16 Gehenna is a place of eternal torment with "fire and brimstone" (Rev. 14:9-11; 20:10-15)
Not one of these things could be spoken of the grave. See notes on sheol-hades, Ps. 9:17; Lk. 16:23 a Let seeking of necessities be secondary. Spend first energies in seeking God and His righteousness and these things will be added (v 31; Mt. 6:33)

b Gr. meteorize, to raise in mid-air, suspend, fluctuate, be anxious, or be carried about as meteors moved about with the currents, tossed up and down between hope and fear. The rebuke concerns the heathen who superstitiously seek guidance by meteors, planets, signs of the zodiac and all the magic and witchcraft and traffic with demons in the name of astrology, etc., which are condemned by Scripture

12 forbidden heathen practices:
1 Enchantments - practice of magical arts (Ex. 7:11, 22; 8:7, 18; Lev. 19:26; Dt. 18:10; 2 Chr. 33:6; 2 Ki. 17:17; 21:6; Isa. 47:9, 12; Jer. 27:9; Dan. 1:20)
2 Witchcraft - practice of dealing with evil spirits (Ex. 22:18; Dt. 18:10; 1 Sam. 15:23; 2 Chr. 33:6; 2 Ki. 9:22; Mic. 5:12; Nah. 3:4; Gal. 5:19-21)
3 Sorcery - same as witchcraft (Ex. 7:11; Isa. 47:9, 12; 57:3; Jer. 27:9; Dan. 2:2; Mal. 3:5; Acts 8:9-11; 13:6-8; Rev. 9:21; 18:23; 21:8; 22:15)
4 Sooth-saying - same as witchcraft (Isa. 2:6; Dan. 2:27; 4:7; 5:7, 11; Mic. 5:12)
5 Divination - the art of mystic insight or fortune-telling (Num. 22:7; 23:23; Dt. 18:10-14; 2 Ki. 17:17; 1 Sam. 6:2; Jer. 14:14; 27:9; 29:8; Ezek. 12:24; 13:6-7, 23; 21:22-29; 22:28; Mic. 3:7; Zech. 10:2; Acts 16:16)
6 Wizardry - same as witchcraft. A wizard is a male and a witch is a female who practices witchcraft. Both were to be destroyed in Israel (Ex. 22:18; Lev. 19:31; 20:6, 27; Dt. 18:11; 1 Sam. 28:3, 9; 2 Ki. 21:6; 23:24; 2 Chr. 33:6; Isa. 19:3)
7 Necromancy - divination by means of pretended communication with the dead (Dt. 18:11; Isa. 8:19; 1 Sam. 28; 1 Chr. 10:13)
8 Magic - any pretended supernatural art or practice (Gen. 41:8, 24; Ex. 7:11, 22; 8:7, 18-19; 9:11; Dan. 1:20; 2:2, 10, 27; 4:7, 9; 5:11; Acts 19:19)
9 Charm - to put a spell upon. Same as enchantment (Dt. 18:11; Isa. 19:3)
10 Prognostication - to foretell by indications, omens, signs, etc. (Isa. 47:13)
11 Observing times. Same as prognostication (Lev. 19:26; Dt. 18:10; 2 Ki. 21:6; 2 Chr. 33:6)
12 Astrology and star gazing - divination by stars (Isa. 47:13; Jer. 10:2; Dan. 1:20; 2:2, 10; 4:7; 5:7-16)
All the above practices were and still are carried on in connection with demons, called familiar spirits. All who forsook God and sought help from these demons were to be destroyed (Lev. 19:31; 20:6; Dt. 18:11; 1 Sam. 28; 2 Ki. 21:6; 23:24; 1 Chr. 10:13; 2 Chr. 33:6; Isa. 8:19; 19:3; 29:4. See 1 Tim. 4:1-8; 2 Th. 2:8-12; Mt. 24:24; Rev. 13; 16:13-16; 19:20) c True born-again Christians still make a "little flock" (Mt. 7:14, 21; 1 Pet. 4:18)

d This refers to treasures which God forbids hoarding (Mt. 6:19; 19:21; Lk. 12:21, 33-34), not ordinary homes and necessities of life (v 34), for other passages make men responsible to provide for their own (1 Tim. 5:8). The idea is not to hoard and cover like the example of v 13-21

e Money was kept in royal treasuries in bags, the value marked on each one and then sealed. Private bankers also followed this plan. Money bags are mentioned in 2 Ki. 5:23; 12:10; Job 14:17; Jn. 12:6; 13:29

89 Parable of the unfaithful servant (Mt. 24:45)

★42 And the Lord [p]said, [q]Who then is that faithful and wise steward, whom his lord shall make ruler over his household, to give them their portion of meat in due season?
▶43 [r]Blessed is that servant, whom his lord when he cometh shall find so doing.

▶46 The [b]lord of that servant will come in a day when he looketh not for him, and at an hour when he is not aware, and will [c]cut him in sunder, and will appoint him his [d]portion with the unbelievers.
47 And that servant, [e]which knew his lord's will, and prepared not himself, neither did according to his will, shall be beaten with many stripes.
▶48 But [f]he that knew not, and did commit things worthy of stripes, shall be beaten with few stripes. [g]For unto whomsoever much is given, of him shall be much required: and to whom men have committed much, of him they will ask the more.

90 Opposition to the gospel again foretold (v 11)

49 ¶ I am [h]come to send [i]fire on the earth; [j]and what will I, if it be already kindled?
50 But I have a [k]baptism to be baptized with; and how am I straitened till it be accomplished!
51 [m]Suppose ye that I am come to give peace on earth? I tell you, Nay; but rather [n]division:
52 For from henceforth there shall be five in one house divided, three against two, and two against three.
53 [o]The father shall be divided against the son, and the son against the father; the mother against the daughter, and the daughter against the mother; the mother in law against her daughter in law, and the daughter in law against her mother in law.

91 Jesus again rebukes Pharisees (Mt. 16:1; Mk. 8:10)

54 ¶ And he said [p]also to the people, When ye see a cloud rise out of the [q]west, straightway ye say, There cometh a shower; and so it is.
55 And when ye see the [r]south wind blow, ye say, There will be heat; and it cometh to pass.
56 [s]Ye hypocrites, ye can discern the face of the sky and of the earth; [t]but how is it that ye do not discern this time?
57 Yea, and why even of yourselves judge ye not what is right?

92 Concerning restitution (Mt. 5:23-26)

58 ¶ When thou goest with thine adversary to the [u]magistrate, as thou art in the way, [v]give diligence that thou mayest be delivered from him; lest he hale thee to the judge, and the judge deliver thee to the officer, and the officer cast thee into prison.
59 I tell thee, thou shalt not depart thence, till thou hast paid the very last [w]mite.

CHAPTER 13 57

93 Men to repent, not judge

a 4 sins of the unfaithful servant:
1 Heart turned away from his master
2 Beating helpless people
3 Becoming a glutton
4 Becoming a drunkard (v 45; Gal. 5:19-20; 1 Cor. 6:9-11)

b Who this master was we do not know, but it is a fitting illustration of Christ coming to deal with His servants (Mt. 24:45-51)

c Cut him off and send him into outer darkness where there will be weeping and gnashing of teeth (Mt. 24:51; 25:30, 41, 46)

d What is the portion of the unbelievers (Rev. 21:8)?

e These verses (47-48) express punishment according to light received (Rom. 2:12-16). This servant who knew his master's will and did not do it was to be punished severely. Jews, according to the law could only give 40 stripes (Dt. 25:3), but later Jews began to give this many for each crime

f An ignorant man will receive less punishment, like a man who committed some petty crime would be beaten by Jews with as few as 4 to 6 stripes. This is not putting a premium on ignorance. The fault in this case was being ignorant at all, where there was opportunity of knowing his master's will. In Christian lands where truth abounds in gospel light, ignorance is not excusable (note w, Rom. 1:13; 1 Cor. 14:38)

*5 I tell you, Nay: but, except ye repent,[d]ye shall all likewise perish.

94 Parable of barren tree

6 ¶ He spake also this parable; [f]A certain man had a fig tree planted in his [g]vineyard; and he came and sought fruit thereon, and found none.

7 Then said he unto the dresser of his vineyard, Behold, these [h]three years I come seeking fruit on this fig tree, and find none: /cut it down; why cumbereth it the ground?

8 And he answering said unto him, Lord, let it alone this year also, till I shall dig about it, and dung it:

9 And if it bear fruit, well: and if not,[i]then after that thou shalt cut it down.

95 Woman loosed from Satan

10 And he was teaching in one of the synagogues on the sabbath.

11 ¶ And, behold, there was a woman which had a [j]spirit[k]of infirmity eighteen years, and was bowed together, and could in no wise lift up herself.

12 And when Jē'sus saw her, he called her to him, and said unto her, Woman, thou art loosed from thine infirmity.

13 And he laid his hands on her: and immediately she was made straight, and glorified God.

14 And the ruler of the synagogue [l]answered with indignation, because that Jēs'us had healed[m]on the sabbath day, and said unto the people, There are six days in which men ought to work: in them therefore come and be healed, and not on the sabbath day.

15 The Lord then answered him, and said, [n]Thou hypocrite, doth not each one of you on the sabbath loose his ox or his ass from the stall, and lead him away to watering?

16 And ought not this woman, being a daughter of Ă'brā-hăm, whom Să'tan hath bound, lo, these eighteen years, be loosed from this bond on the sabbath day?

17 And when he had said these things, all his adversaries were [o]ashamed: and all the people rejoiced for all the glorious things that were done by him.

96 Parable of mustard seed (Mt. 13:31; Mk. 4:30)

18 ¶ Then said he,[p]Unto what is the kingdom of God like? and whereunto shall I resemble it?

19 [q]It is like a grain of mustard seed, which a man took, and cast into his garden; and it grew, and waxed a great tree; and the fowls of the air lodged in the branches of it.

97 Parable of leaven (Mt. 12:1; 13:33; 16:6; Mk. 8:15)

20 And again he said, [r]Whereunto shall I liken the kingdom of God?

21 [s]It is like leaven, which a woman took and hid in three measures of meal, till the whole was leavened.

98 Warning against mere profession (Mt. 7:13-23)

22 And he went through the cities and villages, teaching, and [t]journeying toward Jē-rū'sā-lĕm.

23 Then said one unto him, Lord, /are there few that be saved? And he said unto them,

*24 [u]Strive to enter in at the strait gate: [v]for many, I say unto you, will seek to enter in, and/shall not be able.●

25 /When once the [w]master of the house is risen up, and hath shut to the door, and ye begin to stand without, and to knock at the door saying, /Lord, Lord, open unto us; and he shall answer and say unto you, I know you not whence ye are:

26 Then shall ye begin to say, We have eaten and drunk in thy presence, and thou hast taught in our streets.

27 But he shall say, I tell you, I know you not whence ye are; depart from me, all ye workers of iniquity.

99 Results of mere profession (Mt. 7:21; 8:11; 13:36)

28 [x]There shall be weeping and gnashing of teeth, when ye shall see Ă'brā-hăm, and Ī'saac, and Jā'cob, and all the prophets, in the kingdom of God, and you yourselves thrust out.

▸29 And they shall come from the east, and from the west, and from the north, and from the south, and shall sit down in the kingdom of God.

▸30 And, behold, [y]there are last which shall be first, and there are first which shall be last.

100 Jesus warned of Herod's antagonism

31 ¶ The same day there came certain of the Phăr'ĭ-sees, saying unto him, Get thee out, and depart hence: for Hĕr'od [z]will kill thee.

*32 And he said unto them, [aa]Go ye, and tell that [ab]fox, Behold, I cast out devils, and I do cures to day and to morrow, and the third day I shall be [ac]perfected.

a This perhaps refers to the slaying of Galileans mentioned by Josephus, Ant. book XVIII, chapter IV

b Questions 88-89, Next, v 7. Jesus here confirmed the fact that men are not great sinners because of what happens to them, but that all men are equally sinners and condemned before God (v 3, 5; Rom. 3:23)

c Gr. metanaeo, to change one's mind for the better. Not merely to forsake sin, but to change one's attitude toward It and his love for it. Hence, It is demanded by God as a condition of forgiveness and grace (v 3, 5; 15:7; 24:47; Acts 2:38; 3:19; 17:30; Mt. 4:17). See 8 words for "repent", p. 34

Examples of repentance
1 Joseph's brethren (Gen. 50:17)
2 Israel (Num. 21:7-9; Judg. 2:4; Ezra 9:4-14; Neh. 1:6-7)
3 David (2 Sam. 24:10-17; Ps. 51)
4 Ahab (1 Ki. 21:25-29)
5 Josiah (2 Ki. 22:11-20)
6 Manasseh (2 Chr. 33:1-13)
7 Ninevites (Jonah 3; Lk. 11:32)
8 Jews (Mt. 3:6; Lk. 3:7-15)
9 Prodigal son (Lk. 15:17-21)
10 The publican (Lk. 18:9-14)
11 Peter (Mt. 26:75; Lk. 22:62)
12 Corinthians (2 Cor. 7:9-11)

d 30th N. T. prophecy in Lk. (13:3, fulfilled), Next, v 5. This predicts that some people to whom Christ spoke would be destroyed in like manner as were the Galileans whom Pilate killed. It was fulfilled 70 A. D. by the Romans. At this time many were killed while offering sacrifices

e Nothing is known of this event, but it was a well known fact in that day f 31st N. T. prophecy in Lk. (13:5, fulfilled), Next, v 24. This predicts that the destruction of some to whom Christ spoke would be like those whom this tower fell upon. Many were destroyed in the falling walls and buildings of Jerusalem, 70 A. D.

g 24th parable in Lk. (13:6-9, Illustrating the fruitlessness of Israel and her doom if she did not produce fruit "this year". v 8-10, 25-35; Mt. 21:33-46; Isa. 5:1-7). Next, v 19

h Fruit trees were planted in vineyards in both Palestine and Egypt

i This illustrates the period of the Lord's ministry of 3 yrs. up to now, so "this year" would indicate the 4th year

j Question 90, Next, v 15. Why keep on dealing with Israel who has failed God for over 2,000 years and is now more rebellious than ever (Lk. 11:47-50; Acts 7:51)?

k Israel was given about 40 more years before actual judgment (21:12-24)

l She had a demon spirit, which had taken possession of her and had held her bound 18 years. This is spoken of as "Satan hath bound" (v 16). What could be clearer as to the cause of sicknesses and infirmities? They are definitely of satanic origin, not of God (Mt. 4:23-24; Jn. 10:10; Acts 10:38). Christ came to bear all sicknesses and infirmities and to heal all men (Mt. 8:16-17; Jn. 10:10; 1 Pet. 2:24; Isa. 53). Thus it is God's work to deliver men from sicknesses, not put them upon men

m See note f, Mt. 8:17

n Rulers of churches are many times out of divine order becoming angry if the least church rule is broken. The good that is done by such infraction of human rules matters not. Rules are made to be obeyed, they say o This was one of Christ's greatest crimes in the eyes of religionists (Mt. 12:1-12; Mk. 1:21-27; 2:23-28; 3:1-7; Lk. 6:1-9; 13:10-16; 14:1-6; Jn. 5:1-18; 7:22-23; 9:1-16)

q Hypocrisy will always cause eventual shame, as will sin (Ezra 9:6), backsliding (Jer. 17:13), man fear (Mt. 8:38), selfishness (Lk. 14:9), and all wrong doing (Rom. 6:21); but innocence (Gen. 2:25), trust in God (Ps. 25:2), hope (Rom. 5:5), the gospel (Rom. 1:16), faith (Rom. 9:33; 10:11), self-improvement (2 Tim. 2:15), and all righteousness (Ps. 119:6) will never make one ashamed. The gospel teaches that whosoever believes the truth with the whole heart will not be ashamed (Rom. 9:33). The secret of deliverance from hypocrisy and shame is to know the truth which sets free (Jn. 8:32-36; Rom. 1:16)

b 25th parable in Lk. (13:19), Illustrating abnormal growth of the kingdom of heaven. Next, v 21. (Note c, Mt. 13:31)

d 26th parable in Lk. (13:21), Illustrating corruption in the kingdom of heaven. Next, v 25. (Note d, Mt. 13:33)

e This was the Lord's last journey to Jerusalem. He was finishing His evangelistic career and heading toward His final conflict with Satan to redeem men (Col. 2:14-17; 1 Pet. 2:24)

f Question 96, Next, 14:3. Cp. Mt. 7:14

g Gr. agonizomai. Used 4 ways:
1 Enter a contest; contend in gymnastic games (1 Cor. 9:27)
2 Contend with adversaries, to fight (Jn. 18:36; 1 Tim. 6:12; 2 Tim. 4:7)
3 Struggle with difficulties and dangers antagonistic to the gospel (Col. 1:29)
4 Endeavor with strenuous zeal to obtain something; labor fervently (Lk. 13:24; Col. 4:12)
The word is kin to the "agony" of the garden (Lk. 22:44), and certainly teaches that one must put forth more personal effort than merely "take it by faith" or casually "accept" Christ

h 32nd N. T. prophecy in Lk. (13:24-30, unfulfilled), Next, v 32

i Many will not be saved because:
1 They seek the wrong way - not striving (v 24; Rom. 10:9-10)
2 They seek at the wrong time - when the door is shut (v 25; Mt. 7:21)
3 They seek in the wrong place - stand without (v 25; Rev. 3:20)
4 They seek upon the wrong plea - we entertained you (v 26; Mt. 7:21)
5 They seek with the mouth, but the heart is far from God (v 26; Isa. 29:13; Mt. 15:8)

j 27th parable in Lk. (13:25-27), illustrating impossibility to be saved after it is too late (Heb. 9:27). Next, 14:8

k Gr. oikodespotes, note l, Lk. 9:38

m This not only reveals the results of mere profession (v 24-27), but also the time of the fulfillment - at the judgment (Rev. 20:11-15; 21:8; Mt. 7:21-23). This description of torment in hell is mentioned 7 times and must be understood literally (Mt. 8:12; 13:42,50; 22:13; 24:51; 25:30; Lk. 13:28). If this is not literal, then the "gnashing of teeth" (Job 16:9; Ps. 35:16; 37:12; 112:10; Lam. 2:16; Mk. 9:18) and all the "weeping" and "wailing" found 118 times in Scripture are figurative, not literal. Not once, however, is any one of these terms used in a figurative sense n This verse could be paraphrased thus: "he that humbleth himself shall be exalted, and he that exalteth himself shall be abased." See notes, Mt. 19:27-30; 20:1-16

o Gr. thelo, wish or desire, and is the emotional element which leads to consequent action

p 33rd N. T. prophecy in Lk. (13:32-35; v 32-33 are fulfilled; v 34-35 are being fulfilled and will be completely fulfilled at the 2nd advent when Israel will welcome the Messiah and be born again in a day, Rom. 11:25-27; Zech. 12:10-13:1; Isa. 66:7-8; Acts 15:13-18). Next, 14:14

q Foxes live in dens (Mt. 8:20; Lk. 9:58); are destructive (Ps. 63:10; Cant. 2:15); and are held in contempt (Neh. 4:3). They were used by Samson (Judg. 15:4) and are used figuratively of false prophets (Ezek. 13:4) and of Herod (Lk. 13:32). Some of these references perhaps refer to jackals for both animals were many in Palestine. Christ probably had the destructive, selfish, cunning, and contemptible traits of Herod in mind

r Gr. teleioo, to complete, finish, bring to an end. The idea here is that He was going to work today, tomorrow, and on the third day He was going to bring His work to an end and then die in Jerusalem. The miracle of Jn. 11:40-44 completed His many works that confirmed His ministry (v 33). Not only His work would be ended in three days but He would be out of Herod's country and under Pilate's jurisdiction (Lk. 23:5-12)

e Quoted from Ps. 118:26. The Gr. for blessed here is eulageo, invoke a benediction upon; praise; and is trans. blessed 41 times and praised 1 time (Lk. 1:64). It is not makarios, trans. blessed 43 times and happy 6 times f This could have been any one of the Sanhedrin or the rulers of the Jews. Cp. Jn. 3:1; 19:38
g Were maliciously watching Him
h Gr. hudropikos, dropsical, a disease of the body causing swelling due to excess water
i Question 97. Next, v 5
j See note o, v 14
k This healing could be seen for the swelling would immediately go down. Immediate healings are all that Jesus did. There is no record of a gradual healing like the ones modern men talk about to excuse their powerlessness and unbelief. One or two minor references are always used such as Christ laying hands on the blind man two times (Mk. 8:23-25), and the boy who began "to amend" (Jn. 4:51-52). In both of these cases the healing was immediate, for it does not take long to lay hands on a man two times; and the fever left the boy at a certain hour. If men get healings this quick they need not call them gradual l Question 98. Next, v 28. They knew that He had the advantage with this kind of question. They could not answer Him without making it clear that they did more work on the sabbath than what He did in healing a man. Thus their hypocrisy would be exposed to all. This is always the case with "mote hunters" (Mt. 7:1-5; Rom. 2:1-3). The fact the Jews always honored the sabbath with better meals than any other day demonstrated their hypocrisy more than anything else. Was it the day they honored or their stomachs?
m 28th parable in Lk. (14:8-11), illustrating humility. Next, v 12 n "Room" is the old English word for "place" and is still used in that sense, as when we say, "Make room" (v 9-10). Orientals have always made much to do about positions of honor at formal feasts. The "chief rooms," "highest room" (v 7-8; 20:46; Mt. 23:6) were simply the first couches or best places on the couches where they reclined to eat o Gr. philos, to be fond of p Gr. doxa, glory, honour, respect q This is the point illustrated by the parable of v 7-10. See note n, 13:30. Self exaltation is forbidden and cursed (Ezek. 31:10-14; Obad. 3-4; 2 Cor. 10:5, 17-18; Gal. 6:3; 2 Th. 2:4, 8-12; Mt. 11:23)
Examples of self-exaltation:
1 Lucifer (Isa. 14:12-14; Ezek. 28: 11-17; 1 Tim. 3:6)
2 Adam and Eve (Gen. 3:8; Job 31: 33)
3 Pharaoh (Ex. 9:17)
4 Korah and company (Num. 16)
5 Sennacherib (2 Chr. 32:9-19)
6 Nebuchadnezzar (Dan. 4:30; 5:20)
7 Belshazzar (Dan. 5)
8 Haman (Esther 3:1-15; 5:8-10)
9 Simon the sorcerer (Acts 8:9) able in Lk. (14:28-30, 33), illustrating the absurdity of seeking to be a disciple of Christ without counting the cost. The world, the flesh and all satanic powers will concentrate upon his defeat, but if one will pay the price of complete surrender he will be kept by God who is greater than his enemies (Jn. 10:27-29; Rom. 8:33-39; 2 Cor. 10:4-7; Eph. 6:10-18; 1 Pet. 1:5-13; 1 Jn. 4:4; Jude 20-24). 33 Nevertheless I must walk to[a]day and to morrow, and the day following: for it cannot be that a prophet perish out of Jĕ-ru'sa-lĕm.

101 Jesus weeps over Jerusalem: predicts its overthrow (Mt. 23:37; Lk. 19:21; 21:12)

34 [b]O Jĕ-ru'sa-lĕm, Jĕ-ru'sa-lĕm, which killest the prophets, and stonest them that are sent unto thee; how often would I have gathered thy children together, as a hen doth gather her brood under her wings, and ye would not!

35 [c]Behold, your house is left unto you desolate: and verily I say unto you, [d]Ye shall not see me, until the time come when ye shall say, [e]Blessed is he that cometh in the name of the Lord.

CHAPTER 14 58

102 Heals on the sabbath

AND it came to pass, as he went into the house of[f]one of the chief Phăr'ĭ-seĕs to eat bread on the sabbath day, [g]that they watched him.

2 And, behold, there was a certain man before him which had the [h]dropsy.

3 And Je'sus answering spake unto the lawyers and Phăr'ĭ-seĕs, saying, [i]Is it lawful to heal on the sabbath day?

4 And they held their peace. And he took him, and [k]healed him, and let him go;

5 And answered them, saying, Which of you shall have an ass or an ox fallen into a pit, and will not straightway pull him out on the sabbath day?

6 And they could not answer him again to these things.

103 Lesson on humility (Lk. 9:46, refs.)

7 ¶ And he put forth a parable to those which were bidden, when he marked how they chose out the chief rooms; saying unto them,

●8 [m]When thou art bidden of any man to a wedding, sit not down in the highest [n]room; lest a more honourable man than thou be bidden of him;

9 And he that bade thee and him come and say to thee, Give this man place; and thou begin with shame to take the lowest room.

10 But when thou art bidden, go and sit down in the lowest room; that when he that bade thee cometh, he may say unto thee, [o]Friend, go up higher: then shalt thou have [p]worship in the presence of them that sit at meat with thee.

▶11 [q]For whosoever [r]exalteth himself shall be abased; and he that humbleth himself shall be exalted.

104 A true Christian feast (Cp. Isa. 58:1-14)

12 ¶ Then said he [s]also to him that bade him, [a]When thou makest a dinner or a supper, call not thy friends, nor thy brethren, neither thy kinsmen, nor thy rich neighbours; lest they also [b]bid thee again, and a recompence be made thee.

15 ¶ And when one of them that sat at meat with him heard these [d]things, he said unto him, Blessed is he that [d]shall eat bread in the kingdom of God.

105 Parable of the great supper (Cp. Mt. 22)

16 Then said he unto [e]him, A certain man made a great supper, and bade many:

17 And sent his servant at supper time to say to them that were bidden, Come; for all things are now ready.

18 And they all with[f]one consent began to make [g]excuse. The first said unto him, [h]I have bought a piece of ground, and I must needs go and see it: I pray thee have me excused.

19 And another said, [i]I have bought five yoke of oxen, and I go to prove them: I pray thee have me excused.

20 And another said, [j]I have married a wife, and therefore I cannot come.

21 So that servant came, and shewed his lord these things. Then the [k]master of the house being [l]angry said to his servant, Go out [m]quickly into the streets and lanes of the [n]city, and bring in hither the poor, and the maimed, and the halt, and the blind.

22 And the servant said, Lord, it is done as thou hast commanded, and yet there is room.

23 And the lord said unto the servant, Go out into the highways and hedges, and [o]compel them to come in, that my house may be filled.

24 For I say unto you, That none of those men which were bidden shall taste of my supper.

106 Discipleship again tested (Mt. 16:24, refs.)

25 ¶ And there [p]went great multitudes with him: and he turned, and said unto them, 26 If any man come to me, and [q]hate not his father, and mother, and wife, and children, and brethren, and sisters, yea, and his own life also, he cannot be my disciple.

●27 And [r]whosoever doth not bear his cross, and come after me, cannot be my disciple.

107 Parable of the tower

28 [s]For which of you, intending to build a tower, sitteth not down first, and counteth the cost, whether he have sufficient to finish it?

a 29th parable in Lk. (14:12-14), illustrating unselfishness. Next, v 16. This does not forbid hospitality among equals, but emphasizes that charity to the poor should take precedence over hospitality to the rich and those who have no need b Repaying each other will not be rewarded by God, but helping others who are needy will bring rich reward (v 14; Mt. 10:40-42) c 34th N. T. prophecy in Lk. (14:14, unfulfilled). Next, 17:22. This proves that the judgment seat of Christ and the reward of saints will be at the resurrection of the just or at the rapture (Mt. 16:27; Rom. 14:10; 1 Cor. 3:11-15; 2 Cor. 5:10; Rev. 22:12)
d Resurrected saints will eat food in all eternity (v 15; 22:16, 18, 30; Rev. 2: 7, 17; 19:7-10; 22:2, 14). God and angels eat (Gen. 18:8; 19:3; Ex. 24: 11; Ps. 78:25)

f All sinners are united on this one point - making excuses regarding why they do not renounce sin and serve God
g Examples of making excuses p. 92
h It is poor business for a man to buy property which he has not seen
i This demonstrates less prudence than to buy land without seeing it, for oxen could be old, worthless and incapable of being built up and renewed like land j This is the worst excuse of all, for he could have left his wife for a few hours as he did, no doubt, on many occasions. He was not asked to divorce his wife, but merely to attend a banquet
k Gr. oikodespotes, note l, Lk. 9:38
l He had a right to be angry, for he had been deliberately insulted by each one of these invited m The call was urgent for the supper was already prepared and it would be a waste if guests were not found. This applies to Israel who were first offered the gospel and who rejected it as a nation (Mt. 10:6; 15:24; 21:33-46; Jn. 1:11-12; Rom. 1:16; Acts 13:46). The Gentiles have taken their place at the present time (Acts 15:13-18; Rom. 11: 1-32)
n When this supper was made, by whom, or in what city is not stated, and all speculation is valueless o Gr. anagkazo, to necessitate, drive to, constrain by all means such as force, threats, persuasion, and entreaties. It is trans. compel 5 times (Lk. 14:23; Acts 26:11; 2 Cor. 12:11; Gal. 2:3, 14) and constrain 4 times (Mt. 14:22; Mk. 6:45; Acts 28:19; Gal. 6: 12). Compulsion was necessary to fill this man's house with guests. What means he used is not stated, but with God it is clear that He uses truth, exhortation, reproof, instruction, long-suffering, love, meekness, gentleness, perseverance, and sometimes drastic means to turn men from hell and the wrath to come; but He never forces one against his will. Compulsion is necessary because the fallen will is not as strong as the unfallen will of Adam and Eve. In the final analysis man has to make the choice (Jn. 3:16; 1 Tim. 2:4; 2 Pet. 3:9; Rev. 22:17) p Christ was still on His final trip to Jerusalem to complete His work after the three days of 13:32-33. He passed through Galilee and Samaria into Judea to die (17:11; 18:31) going through Jericho (18:35; 19:1) on the way to Jerusalem (19:11, 28-48). All of Lk. 13:31-19:27 happened on the way to Jerusalem q An idiom of preference (Mt. 6:24; 10: 37; Rom. 9:13; Mal. 1:2-3; Gen. 29: 30-31; Dt. 21:15-17). One must prefer God or love Him more than all else to be saved (Mt. 22:37). God first is the motto of the Bible r 4 things demanded of men here:
1 Prefer God and Christ to all others (v 26; Mt. 22:37)
2 Bear the cross (v 27; Mt. 10:38; 16:24; Mk. 8:34, note)
3 Follow Christ always (v 27; Jn. 10: 26-30, notes)
4 Do these things daily, not weekly or for a while (note l, Lk. 9:23)

a Question 100. Next, v 34. The 32nd parable in Lk. (14:31-33), illustrating the impossibility of being saved unless one forsakes all (v 31; Mt. 19:29). Next, v 34

b 33rd parable in Lk. (14:34-35), illustrating the fact that if Christians backslide and lose their savour they are not fit for God or man (Mt. 24:51; 25:30; Lk. 9:62; Rom. 6:16-23; 8:12-13; 1 Cor. 9:27; Gal. 5:19-21; 6:7-8; Heb. 6:4-9; 10:26-29; 2 Pet. 2:20-22). Next, 15:4

c Question 101. Next, 15:4. Salt loses its savour when exposed to the rain, sun, and air. What about believers who are the salt of the earth? Is there a possibility of their losing the life that makes them the salt of the earth? If there is no possibility, then there is no meaning to such statements as here and in Mt. 5:13; Mk. 9:49-50

e All that were in this place, not all in the world, as also in Rev. 13:8-18

f This is why Christ uttered the 3 parables of this chapter before addressing the disciples again in 16:1. How utterly ignorant these religious people were of the true purpose of religion and of the mission of Christ (note s, 5:32)

g The murmuring Pharisees of v 2

h Question 102. Next, v 8. The 34th parable in Lk. (15:4-7), illustrating seeking the lost. Next, v 8. A lost sheep is a symbol of a heedless and thoughtless sinner; one who obeys his sinful dictates without realizing the end. No creature strays more easily than a lost sheep; none is more heedless and helpless in finding its way home; and none is more defenseless and exposed to destruction by other animals and even by fowls of the air. The answer to this question was clear. Every Pharisee would even do this, hence the truth illustrated in v 7 was driven home to them. This parable had already been given on another occasion (Mt. 18:12)

i Who could be in heaven to rejoice but God, angels, and other heavenly beings (v 10; 12:8; Mt. 18:10)?

j See note c, 13:3

k The just are the righteous that need no repentance (Lk. 5:32), because they have already repented and have become justified by faith (Rom. 1:16-17; 5:1; 2 Cor. 7:9-10). The joy over one sinner repenting more than over 99 that have already repented might seem unfair, but not so, for each of the 99 has already had such rejoicing over him when he repented. This simply told these hypocrites that it was for sinners that He came and that only one sinner repenting brings joy to heaven, so why all their murmuring over His carrying out His mission on earth?

l Question 103. Next, 16:2. The 35th parable in Lk. (15:8-10), illustrating seeking the lost. Next, v 11. The drachme or coin is also symbolic of the lost sinner. The longer a sheep or a coin is lost the harder it is to find, so the sinner sinks deeper and deeper into sin and hardens himself until many are lost forever

The lost sheep and lost coin:
1 Seeker's loss....loses one (v 4, 8)
2 Seeker's activity....goes after and seeks diligently (v 4, 8)
3 Seeker's persistency....until found
4 Seeker's love....brings it back
5 Seeker's joy....rejoicing (v 6, 9)
6 Seeker's fellowship....calls his friends and neighbors to rejoice

m Gr. drachme, equal to a Roman denarius, 17¢. Ten drachme, $1.70. She lost 17¢ or a day's wage (Mt. 20:1-16)

9 Simon's of Scripture (7:40)

1 Simon Peter (Mt. 10:2)
2 Simon the Canaanite (Mt. 10:4; Mk. 3:18; Lk. 6:15; Acts 1:13)
3 Half brother of Jesus (Mt. 13:55; Mk. 6:3)
4 Simon of Nain (Lk. 7:36-50)
5 A leper of Bethany (Mt. 26:6)
6 Father of Judas Iscariot (Jn. 6:71; 12:4; 13:2, 26)
7 Simon of Cyrene (Mt. 27:32; Mk. 15:21; Lk. 23:26)
8 The sorcerer (Acts 8:9-24)
9 A tanner (Acts 9:43; 10:6-32)

29 Lest haply, after he hath laid the foundation, and is not able to finish it, all that behold it begin to mock him, 30 Saying, This man began to build, and was not able to finish.

108 Parable of a warring king

31 [a]Or what king, going to make war against another king, sitteth not down first, and consulteth whether he be able with ten thousand to meet him that cometh against him with twenty thousand?

32 Or else, while the other is yet a great way off, he sendeth an ambassage, and desireth conditions of peace.

●33 So likewise, whosoever he be of you that forsaketh not all that he hath, he cannot be my disciple.

109 Parable of savourless salt (Mk. 9:49. Cp. Mk. 5:13)

34 ¶Salt is good: [c]but if the salt have lost his savour, wherewith shall it be seasoned?

●35 It is neither fit for the land, nor yet for the dunghill; but men cast it out. [d]He that hath ears to hear, let him hear.

59 CHAPTER 15

110 The murmuring Pharisees (Mt. 9:10; Mk. 2:15; Lk. 5:30)

THEN drew near unto him [e]all the publicans and sinners for to hear him.

2 And the Phăr'ĭ-sees and scribes murmured, saying, This man /receiveth sinners, and eateth with them.

111 Parable of a lost sheep (Mt. 18:11. Cp. Lk. 19:10)

3 ¶ And he spake this parable unto [g]them, saying,

4 [h]What man of you, having an hundred sheep, if he lose one of them, doth not leave the ninety and nine in the wilderness, and go after that which is lost, until he find it?

5 And when he hath found it, he layeth it on his shoulders, rejoicing.

6 And when he cometh home, he calleth together his friends and neighbours, saying unto them, Rejoice with me; for I have found my sheep which was lost.

7 I say unto you, that likewise joy shall be [i]in heaven over one sinner that /repenteth, more than over ninety and nine [j]just persons, which need no repentance.

112 Parable of a lost coin

8 ¶ [l]Either what woman having ten [m]pieces of silver, if she lose one piece, doth not light a candle, and sweep the house, and seek diligently till she find it?

9 And when she hath found it, she calleth her friends and her neighbours together, saying, Rejoice with me; for I have found the piece which I had lost.

10 [o]Likewise, I say unto you, there is joy in the presence of the angels of God over one sinner that [p]repenteth.

113 Parable of a prodigal son

(1) Departure and sins

11 ¶ And he said, [c]A certain man had [d]two sons:

12 And the younger of them said to his father, Father, give me the [e]portion of goods that falleth to me. And he divided unto them his living.

13 And not many days after the younger son gathered all together, and took his journey into a far country, and there wasted his substance with [f]riotous living.

(2) Misery and chastisement

14 And when he had [g]spent all, there arose a mighty famine in that land; [h]and he began to be in want.

15 And he went and [i]joined himself to a /citizen of that country; and he sent him into his fields to [k]feed swine.

16 And he would [l]fain have filled his belly with the [m]husks that the swine did eat: [n]and no man gave unto him.

(3) Conviction and resolve

17 And when he [o]came to himself, he said, How many hired servants of my father's have bread enough and to spare, and I perish with hunger!

18 I will arise and go to my father, and will say unto him, Father, [p]I have sinned against heaven, and before thee, 19 And am no more worthy to be called thy son: make me as one of thy hired servants.

(4) Return and welcome

20 And he [q]arose, and [r]came to his father. But when he was yet a great way off, [s]his father saw him, and had compassion, and ran, and fell on his neck, and kissed him.

(5) Confession and repentance

21 And the son said unto him, Father, I have sinned against heaven, and in thy sight, and am no more worthy to be called thy son.

(6) Reconciliation-rejoicing

22 But the father said to his servants, Bring forth the best robe, and put it on him; and put a [t]ring on his hand, and shoes on his feet:

23 And bring hither the fatted calf, and kill it; and let us eat, and be merry:

24 For this my son was dead, and is alive again; he was lost, and is found. And they began to be merry.

b See note c, 13:3

c 36th parable in Lk. (15:11-32), illustrating the difference between the concern of God and the murmuring Pharisees over the salvation of a lost soul. Next, 16:1

d Note the 100 sheep (v 4), 10 coins (v 8), and now 2 sons - 100, 10, and 2 - one lost from each number. The sheep and coin were sought for diligently until they were found, for they were not capable of moral choices and action like the son who was not sought after. They were not responsible agents as was the son. Others had responsibility to find them, but the son was personally responsible for his coming back home. There was joy in each case when the lost was found (v 7, 9, 22-24)

e Neither Jewish nor Roman law permitted the father to make arbitrary disposal of all his estate. Sons only received the inheritance; daughters shared if there were no sons (Gen. 31:14; Num. 27:8). Job seems to be a special case (Job 42:15). The first son always received a double portion (Dt. 21:17)

f Gr. asotos, living ruinously. Only here, but the kindred noun, asotai, is trans. excess (Eph. 5:18), and riot (Tit. 1:6; 1 Pet. 4:4)

g Gr. dapanao, to spend, waste, squander. Elsewhere trans. spend (Mk. 5:26; 2 Cor. 12:15), consume (Jas. 4:3), and be at charges (Acts 21:24)

h This is only natural when all is spent on sinful pleasures (Gal. 6:7-8). Cp. "began to be merry" (v 24)

i There is no assurance of security when one joins with strangers

j One of the natives of that country. What country is not known. It was a distant land from home (v 13. Cp. Acts 2:39; Eph. 2:17)

k This was considered one of the most degrading employments, not only by the Jews, but by other nations. Among the Egyptians, for example, the swineherds were completely cut off from society. They could not worship the gods or marry even the lowest of the people. Jesus made use of the fact to show the depth of misery to which ruinous living brought the prodigal son. It illustrates the depravity and misery of sinners in their lusts and sins

l Inclined, desirous, and eager to eat the husks of the swine. This suggests he was forced to be a slave and was sent into the fields without food m Pods of the carob tree. The dried ones were more fit for swine than for men n Implying slavery and that he should be beaten if he stole the food of the swine, like sugar cane slaves were if they ate the sugar cane o His condition brought him to his senses and he realized his end if he continued in it. He compared his lot with the servants of his father, making his final decision to go back home and plead for the lowest place in the household (v 17-18)

p This is true repentance - confession of sin, genuine sorrow, and humility because of sin. See note c, 13:3

q Making a decision to repent is not enough. One must truly repent being genuine in acts, words, and deeds to be honored of God or man

r One must come to himself before he can properly come to his father in circumstances as these s 10 acts of the father (v 20-24):

1 Saw him a great way off
2 Had compassion on him
3 Ran to meet and welcome him home
4 Fell on his neck and kissed him
5 Heard his confession and forgave
6 Put the best robe on him
7 Put a ring on his hand
8 Put shoes on his feet
9 Made a great feast
10 Began to be merry

t The ring and sandals were marks of a free man and of honor and dignity (Gen. 41:42; 1 Ki. 21:8; Esther 8:2; Dan. 6:17; Jas. 2:2). Formerly, captives had their shoes removed (Isa. 20:2), and when they were liberated their shoes were restored a The two sons contrasted:

The younger son (v 12-24)
1 Lack of wisdom - results (v 12-16)
2 Penitence and humility (v 17-19)
3 Return home and welcome (v 20)
4 His father's compassion (v 20)
5 His confession to the father and proof of humility (v 21)
6 The father's gifts (v 22-23)
7 The reason (v 24)
The elder son (v 25-32)
1 Lack of wisdom - results (v 25-28)
2 Anger and sullenness (v 28)
3 The father's entreaty (v 28)
4 Bragging on himself (v 29)
5 Complaint against his father and brother (v 29-30)
6 The father's gifts (v 31-32)
7 The reason (v 32)

b The elder brother and the Pharisees had many points in common:
1 Both murmured (v 2, 29-30)
2 Both were jealous of sinners (v 2, 30)
3 Both lacked love for sinners (v 2, 27-32)
4 Both were sullen (v 2, 28)
5 Both saw sinners blessed (v 1-2, 25-27)
6 Both were ignorant of what was happening (v 1-2, 26)
7 Both were angry (v 2, 28)
8 Both were entreated (v 3-7, 28)
9 Both claimed to be justified in their actions (v 7, 29-30)
10 Both sought to keep sinners from being blessed (v 2, 28-32)
11 Both had no mercy on sinners (v 2, 28-32)
12 Both bragged on themselves (v 29; 18:9-14)
13 Both were self-righteous (v 29; Mt. 23:28)
14 Both claimed to keep the commandments (v 29; 18:9-14; Mt. 23:3)
15 Both found fault (v 2, 29)

c Contrast the answers of the father and son (v 29-32). This was the Lord's rebuke to the murmuring Pharisees of v 2 who despised sinners

p 800 bushels (Gr. koros, Heb. cor, about 8 bushels)

q The steward had charge of all leases for the tenants and all contracts with debtors. He let each one make a new agreement to benefit the debtor and himself so that everyone would be his friend after he was put out of office. In these two examples the debts were cut from one fifth to a half and others no doubt were cut on the same basis. His plan was to show his master the new contracts instead of the old ones, in the hope that his scheming would not be detected. Thus, the debtors would be obligated to him and support him for what he had done for them

r About 640 bushels

s The master of the steward, not God or Christ. He merely acknowledged that the steward had made quite a plan to provide for himself. There was nothing he could do about it, for the debtors would stand by the steward because it was to their benefit. The master could not prove that the new contracts were not the old ones

t The point of the parable is that worldly men in their sphere to scheme and provide for themselves are wiser than Christians in their sphere. It is the far seeing wisdom of the steward that is commended, not the right or wrong of the act; the object he had in view, not the means used to attain that end

(7) Jealousy and anger of the elder brother

25 Now his [c]elder son was in the field: and as he came and drew nigh to the house, he heard musick and dancing.

26 And he called one of the servants, and asked what these things meant.

27 And he said unto him, Thy brother is come; and thy father hath killed the fatted calf, because he hath received him safe and sound.

28 And he was [b]angry, and would not go in: therefore came his father out, and intreated him.

29 And he [c]answering said to his father, Lo, these many years do I serve thee, neither transgressed I at any time thy commandment: and yet thou never gavest me a kid, that I might make merry with my friends:

30 But as soon as this thy son was come, which hath devoured thy living with harlots, thou hast killed for him the fatted calf.

31 And he said unto him, Son, thou art ever with me, and all that I have is thine.

32 It was meet that we should make merry, and be glad: for this thy brother was dead, and is alive again; and was lost, and is found.

CHAPTER 16 60

114 Parable of an unjust steward (Cp. Lk. 12:4)

AND he said also unto his disciples, [d]There was a certain rich man, which had [e]a steward; and the same [f]was accused unto him that he had wasted his goods.

2 And he called him, and said unto him, [g]How is it that I hear this of thee? give an account of thy stewardship; [h]for thou mayest be no longer steward.

3 Then the steward said within himself, [i]What shall I do? for my lord taketh away from me the stewardship: I cannot dig; to beg I am [j]ashamed.

4 I am resolved what to do, that, when I am put out of the stewardship, [k]they may receive me into their houses.

5 So he called every one of his lord's debtors unto him, and said unto the first, [l]How much owest thou unto my lord?

6 And he said, An [m]hundred measures of oil. And he said unto him, Take thy bill, and sit down quickly, and write [n]fifty.

7 Then said he to another, And [o]how much owest thou? And he said, An [p]hundred measures of wheat. And he said unto him, Take [q]thy bill, and write [r]fourscore.

8 And the [s]lord commended the unjust steward, because he had done wisely: [t]for the children of this world are in their generation wiser than the children of light.

115 Double mindedness rebuked (Cp. Mt. 6:22, refs.)

9 [u]And I say unto you, Make to yourselves friends of the [v]mammon of unrighteousness; that, when [w]ye fail, [x]they may receive you into everlasting habitations.

10 [y]He that is faithful in that which is least is faithful also in much: and he that is unjust in the least is unjust also in much.

11 If therefore ye have not been faithful in the unrighteous mammon, [z]who will commit to your trust the true riches?

12 And if ye have not been faithful in that which is another man's, [a]who shall give you that which is your own?

13 ¶ [b]No servant can serve two masters: for either he will hate the one, and love the other; or else he will hold to the one, and despise the other. [c]Ye cannot serve God and mammon.

116 Two different standards of life (1 Sam. 16:7; 1 Cor. 1:27)

14 And the Phăr'ĭ-sees also, who were [d]covetous, heard all these things: [e]and they derided him.

15 And he said unto them, Ye are they which [f]justify yourselves before men; but God knoweth your hearts: for that which is highly esteemed among men is abomination in the sight of God.

117 Two different institutions (Jn. 1:17; Gal. 3:17-25; 4:21-31; 2 Cor. 3:6-15; Col. 2:14-17; Heb. 7-10)

16 The law and the prophets were [g]until John: since that time the kingdom of God is preached, and every man presseth into it.

17 And it is easier for heaven and earth to pass, than one tittle of the law to fail.

118 Law on divorce (Mt. 19:3, refs.)

18 Whosoever [h]putteth away his wife, and marrieth another, committeth adultery: and whosoever marrieth her that is put away from her husband committeth adultery.

119 The actual experience of two beggars. (1) Their contrasted lives on earth

19 ¶ There [i]was a certain rich man, which was clothed in purple and fine linen, and fared sumptuously every day:

20 And there was a certain beggar named Lăz'a-rŭs, which was laid at his gate, full of sores, 21 And desiring to be fed with the crumbs which fell from the rich man's table: moreover the dogs came and licked his sores.

(2) Their contrasted experience in death

22 And it came to pass, that a Some versions read, "And am I saying to you?" or "Do I say unto you?" No! I do not advise you to embezzle. To insinuate that riches gained by unjust means are sanctioned by Christ, or that they gain one a passport to heaven if they are sanctified to God, is a perversion of the words of Christ. This is contrary to v 10-13 and all other scriptures which teach that riches gained unjustly must be restored to the rightful owners. Restitution is taught in both testaments (Ex. 21:30-36; 22:1-4; Lev. 6:2-5; 24:18; Pr. 6:30-31; Ezek. 33:15; Lk. 3:10-14; 19:8; Mt. 7:12)

b Mammon is riches, as it is contrasted in v 11 with true riches. It is called here unrighteous riches (v 9, 11) because they deceive and lead to false security damning the soul if they are permitted to rob one of eternal life (1 Tim. 6:9-10, 17; Lk. 12:15-21)

c When you die, as stated in this sense in the Septuagint in Jer. 42:17, 22 d The ones who receive just men into the eternal abode. Jesus explains in this same chapter that angels carry the souls to paradise (v 22)

e In v 10-13 Christ explains the true meaning of v 9. One must be faithful and just in the least as well as in much if he wants to be received into everlasting life (v 10). If he has not been faithful in the riches that so tempt men to sin, then the true riches will not be trusted to him (v 11). If he has not been faithful in that which belongs to another, he will not be rewarded for faithfulness (v 12). He cannot serve two masters at the same time (v 13)

f Questions 108-109. Next, 17:7

g If one is unfaithful he cannot have the satisfaction and joy which come by being faithful

h Christ said this cannot be done (v 13; Mt. 6:24; 7:21, 24-29; 12:50; 13:20-22; 18:15-17; Jn. 6:27, note; 8:34-36; 15:1-8). Others say that it cannot be done (Rom. 6:16-23; 8:12-13; 1 Cor. 6:9-11; 9:27; Gal. 1:6-7; 5:4, 19-21; 6:7-8; 1 Th. 3:8; 1 Tim. 5:11-15; 6:19-21; 2 Tim. 2:12-18; Heb. 3:6, 12-14; 6:4-9; 10:26-29; Jas. 5:19-20; 1 Jn. 3:8, 15; 2 Pet. 1:3-10; 2:20-22; 2 Jn. 9-10; Jude 20-24)

i You cannot serve God and riches; God and Satan; or God and sin. If you serve sin and Satan you will end with them (Mt. 25:41, 46). If you serve God you will end with Him (1 Th. 4:16; Jn. 14:1-3)

j Gr. philarguros, money-lovers, referring to the mammon of v 9-13. Only here and in 2 Tim. 3:2

k Gr. ekmukterizo, to sneer at, turn up the nose at, deride. Only here and in Lk. 23:35, Same as the Heb. law-ag (Ps. 2:4; 22:7; 35:16; 59:8; Ezek. 23:32; 36:4; Hos. 7:16)

p There was or there was not - which? If there was not, then Christ told an untruth, for He said there was. Even if this story were a parable, it is still true for it actually happened. Christ never did use lies to illustrate truths. But this is no parable any more than v 18. In no parable of Christ is a person named, but certain points are always given which the parable illustrates. Here there is no point illustrated. The story is a literal one of two beggars: one begged in this life; the other begged in the next life. This shows plainly the conditions of departed souls between death and resurrection

It is satanic fallacy to make the story represent the Jews and Gentiles or portray any idea that is not stated in the text itself. The whole purpose of so doing on the part of false religionists is to do away with the reality of eternal hell and eternal punishment; or the reality of a temporary hell and torment

It can be seen from the actual experience of these two men that Jesus Christ was declaring in plain terms the reality of immortality of the soul, the consciousness of souls after leaving the body, the fact of different places for the righteous and the wicked between death and resurrection of the body, and the truth of torment for the wicked and bliss for the righteous. See 18 facts of the story, p. 92; Hell, p. 620 in O. T.

a Facts about Lazarus: See p. 92
b Angels do not carry people to graves, but to paradise (v 22; Heb. 12:23; Rev. 6:9-11; 2 Cor. 5:8; Phil. 1:21-24) c A phrase used among the Jews to signify paradise. It is called paradise in Lk. 23:43 and was located in the lower parts of the earth (Mt. 12:40; Eph. 4:8-10). There is another paradise in the third heaven (2 Cor. 12:1-4; Rev. 2:7). The Gr. for paradise is paradeisos, a park, pleasure-grounds, forrest, orchard, and is used in the Septuagint for the garden of Eden, The Heb. pardace is trans. orchard (Cant. 4:13; Eccl. 2:5) and forrest (Neh. 2:8)

Being in the bosom of another means the one next to him at that time (Jn. 13:23). It is also an idiom of close relationship (2 Sam. 12:3; Isa. 40:11; Jn. 1:18)

Before the resurrection of Christ all righteous souls went to paradise where they were held captive by the devil against their wills (Heb. 2:14-15). When Christ died His body went to the grave, but He went to paradise and liberated those righteous captives taking them to heaven with Him when He ascended on high (Mt. 12:40; Eph. 4:8-10). Now when a Christian dies he no longer is held captive by the devil in the lower parts of the earth, but he goes immediately to heaven waiting the resurrection of the body (2 Cor. 5:8; Phil. 1:21-24; Heb. 12:22-24; Rev. 6:9-11). Christ now has the keys of hades and of death (Rev. 1:18). Paradise under the earth is now empty, but the torment department of hades is being filled more every day. It will hold all the wicked dead until the end of the Millennium when hades will deliver up the souls in it, and the graves will give up all the bodies in them. Then the bodies, souls, and spirits of the wicked will be cast into the eternal hell (Rev. 20:11-15)

e Gr. hades, the unseen world of departed spirits and is equivalent of the Heb. sheol (Ps. 9:17, note). It is trans. hell 10 times (Mt. 11:23; 16:18; Lk. 10:15; 16:23; Acts 2:27, 31; Rev. 1:18; 6:8; 20:11-15) and grave 1 time (1 Cor. 15:55). Hell should be the rendering in all passages f Gr. basanos, going to the bottom, the lowest torture or torment (v 23, 28); basanizo, to torture, be in pain (Mt. 8:29; Mk. 5:7; Lk. 8:28; Rev. 14:10; 20:10); basanismos, torture (Rev. 14:11); hodunao, the state of grief, sorrow, and torment (Lk. 16:24-25) are all used of the present and eternal hells - sheol-hades and gehenna g 10 sources of torment to the lost:

1 Remorse and despair in seeing the righteous and godly whom they have despised now clothed in glory, immortality, eternal life, and all the bliss of God (v 23)

2 Abhorrence of the very evil that they know has damned their souls and put them in torment (v 25)

3 Eternal desire for the good that would have freed from torment (v 25)

4 Memory of lost opportunities in life that could have caused them to be with the redeemed (v 25)

5 Regret over deeds committed and which can never be recalled (v 25)

6 Absolute hopelessness of escape from eternal misery or alleviation from the least degree of suffering (v 26)

7 Eternal separation from loved ones or from the redeemed which they can see beyond an impassable gulf (v 23-26)

8 Regret over their bad example in life that has caused friends and loved ones to be damned (v 27-31)

9 Ever deepening remorse for not listening to the Word of God and for not spending their time, talents, and money to propagate it, so that many others could escape torment (v 29-31)

10 Last, fire and brimstone (v 23-31; Mt. 25:41, 46; Rev. 14:9-11; 20:11-15; 21:8; Isa. 66:22-24)

the [e]beggar died, and was carried [b]by the angels into [c]Ă'bră-hăm's bosom: the [d]rich man also died, and was buried:

(3) Their contrasted lives after death

23 And in [e]hell he lift up his eyes, being in [f]torments, and seeth Ă'bră-hăm afar off, and Lăz'a-rŭs in his bosom.

24 And he cried and said, Father Ă'bră-hăm, have mercy on me, and send Lăz'a-rŭs, that he may dip the tip of his finger in water and cool my tongue; for I am tormented in [g]this flame.

25 But Ă'bră-hăm said, Son, remember that thou in thy lifetime receivedst thy good things, and likewise Lăz'a-rŭs evil things: but now he is comforted, and thou art tormented.

(4) Impassable gulf between two abodes of departed souls

26 And beside all this, between us and you there is [h]a great gulf fixed: so that they which would pass from hence to you cannot; neither can they pass to us, that would come from thence.

(5) Disillusionment of wicked and deceived unbelievers

27 Then he said, [i]I pray thee therefore, father, that thou wouldest send him to my father's house:

28 For I have five brethren; that he may testify unto them, lest they also come into [j]this place of torment.

29 Ă'bră-hăm saith unto him, They have Mō'şes and the prophets; [k]let them hear them.

30 And he said, Nay, father Ă'bră-hăm: but if one went unto them from the dead, they will repent.

31 And he said unto him, [l]If they hear not Mō'şes and the prophets, [m]neither will they be persuaded, though one rose from the dead.

61 CHAPTER 17

120 Concerning offences to believers (Mt. 18:5, refs.)

THEN said he [n]unto the disciples, It is impossible but that [o]offences will come: [p]but woe unto him, through whom they come!

2 It were better for him that a millstone were hanged about his neck, and he cast into the sea, than that he should offend one of these little ones.

121 The law on forgiveness (Mt. 6:14; 18:21, refs.; Mk. 11:25-26; Eph. 4:32)

●3 ¶ [q]Take heed to yourselves: If thy brother trespass against thee, rebuke him; [b]and if he repent, forgive him.

●4 And if he trespass against thee seven times in a day, and seven times in a day turn again to thee, saying, I repent; thou shalt forgive him.

122 Unlimitations of faith (Mt. 17:20; 21:21; Mk. 9:23)

5 And the apostles said unto the Lord, [r]Increase our faith.

▶6 And the Lord said, [s]If ye had faith as a grain of mustard seed, ye might say unto [g]this sycamine tree, Be thou plucked up by the root, and be thou planted in the sea; and it should obey you.

123 Parable of faithful service (Cp. Lk. 12:41; Mt. 24:45)

7 But which of you, having a servant plowing or feeding cattle, will say unto him by and by, when he is come from the field, Go and sit down to meat?

8 And will not rather say unto him, Make ready wherewith I may sup, and gird thyself, and serve me, till I have eaten and drunken; and afterward thou shalt eat and drink?

9 Doth he thank that servant because he did the things that were commanded him? [t]I trow not.

●10 [u]So likewise ye, when ye shall have done all those things which are commanded you, say, We are unprofitable servants: we have done that which was our duty to do.

124 Ten lepers healed

11 ¶ And it came to pass, as he went to [v]Jē-ru'să-lĕm, that he passed through the midst of Să-mă'rĭ-a and Gă'lĭ-lee.

12 And as he entered into a certain village, there met him ten men that were [j]lepers, which stood afar off:

13 And they lifted up their voices, and said, Jē'şus, [k]Master, have mercy on us.

14 And when he saw them, he said unto them, [l]Go shew yourselves unto the priests. And it came to pass, that, [m]as they went, they were cleansed.

15 And one of them, when he saw that he was healed, turned back, and with a [n]loud voice glorified God, 16 And fell down on his face at his feet, giving him thanks: and he was [o]a Să-mär'ĭ-tan.

17 And Jē'şus answering said, [p]Were there not ten cleansed? but where are the nine?

18 There are not found that returned to give glory to God, save this [q]stranger.

19 And he said unto him, Arise, go thy way: thy faith hath made thee whole.

c This is a request that was granted to the disciples when they were anointed with the Holy Spirit in all fulness at Pentecost. There is a gift of faith all should pray for and covet (1 Cor. 12:8-11, 30). Otherwise, faith comes by hearing the Word of God (Rom. 10:17)
d Staring again the unlimitations of faith. Mountains and trees can be moved (Mt. 17:20; Lk. 17:6), all things can be done (Mt. 21:22), and all things are possible if one has faith (Mt. 17:20; Mk. 9:23; 11:22-24; Jn. 14:12-15; 15:7, 16)

f Questions 110-112, Next, v 17. The 38th parable in Lk. (17:7-10), illustrating all that we can do as servants of God is merely a common duty of man, we merit nothing and should not expect thanks, grace, mercy, or answered prayer because of what we do. Next, 18:1
g An archaic or old English word meaning to suppose or to think h This is the point illustrated by the parable of v 7-9. We are under obligation to serve God without earning merit or blessing. All God ever asked is our consecration to the best good of all which automatically betters our own selves. Shall we thank ourselves for bettering our own selves? Such service is returned to us in many ways. If we do things for self-praise we manifest extreme selfishness and we already have our reward (Mt. 6:1-6; Jn. 12:43) prayer did - nothing.

j Hell is a place of torment, not a state or a condition of life k This is God's final answer to man in all ages. Men are required to believe and obey the Bible or be damned (Mk. 16:16; Rom. 1:16; 2:12-16)
l This is sufficient proof of the inspiration of the Scriptures m Christ has been raised from the dead and still men are not persuaded about the reality of hell and of life in the intermediate state, all of which Christ confirmed after coming back from the dead (Rev. 1:18; 2:11; 6:8-11; 14:9-11; 20:4-15; 21:8). Men still rebel against the plain literal teachings of Lk. 16:19-32, and explain them away in unbelief n Christ again addresses disciples (see 16:1, 14-15)
o See note, Mt. 18:6-7; Mk. 9:42 p Of the 40 times the word woe is found in the N.T., Christ uses it 38 times, pronouncing judgment upon cities, scribes, Pharisees and men in general when the [a]kingdom of God should come, he answered them and said, The kingdom of God cometh not with [b]observation:

21 Neither shall they say, Lo here! or, lo there! for, behold, the kingdom of God is [c]within you.

126 Second advent predicted (Lk. 21; Mt. 24-25; Mk. 13). (1) Manner of His coming (Mt. 24:27, refs.)

★22 And he said unto the disciples, [d]The days will come, when ye shall desire to see one of the days of the Son of man, and ye shall not see it.

23 [e]And they shall say to you, See here; or, see there: go not after them, nor follow them.

24 For as the lightning, that lighteneth out of the one part under heaven, shineth unto the other part under heaven; so shall also the Son of man be in his day.

25 But [f]first must he suffer many things, and be rejected of this generation.

(2) His coming to bring sudden destruction (Mt. 24:37, 40)

26 And [g]as it was in the [h]days of Nō'e, so shall it be also in the days of the Son of man.

27 They did eat, they drank, they married wives, they were given in marriage, until the day that Nō'e entered into the ark, and the flood came, [i]and destroyed them all.

28 [j]Likewise also as it was in the days of Lŏt; they did eat, they drank, they bought, they sold, they planted, they builded;

29 But the same day that Lŏt went out of Sŏd'om it [k]rained fire and brimstone from heaven, and destroyed them all.

30 [l]Even thus shall it be in the day when the Son of man [m]is revealed.

(3) Warning in view of the second coming of Jesus

31 [n]In that day, he which shall be upon the housetop, and his stuff in the house, [o]let him not come down to take it away: and he that is in the field, let him likewise not return back.

32 [p]Remember Lŏt's wife.

33 [q]Whosoever shall seek to save his life shall lose it; and whosoever shall lose his life shall preserve it.

(4) Battle of Armageddon (Mt. 24:27; Rev. 19:11; Ezek. 38:17; 39:17; Zech. 14; Joel 3)

34 I tell you, [r]in that night there shall be two men in one bed; the [s]one shall be taken, and the other shall be [t]left.

35 Two women shall be grinding together; the one shall be taken, and the other left.

36 Two men shall be in the field; the one shall be taken, and the other left.

37 And they answered and said unto him, [a]Where, Lord? And he said unto them, Wheresoever the body is, thither will the [b]eagles be gathered together.

CHAPTER 18 62

127 Parable of an unjust judge: power of persevering prayer

AND he spake a parable unto them to this end, that men ought always to pray, and [c]not to faint;

2 Saying, [d]There was in a city a judge, which feared not God, neither regarded man:

3 And there was a [e]widow in that city; and she [f]came unto him, saying, [g]Avenge me of mine adversary.

4 And he would not [h]for a while: but [i]afterward he said within himself, Though I fear not God, nor regard man;

5 Yet because this widow [j]troubleth me, I will avenge her, lest by her [k]continual coming she [l]weary me.

6 And the Lord said, [m]Hear what the [n]unjust judge saith.

▶7 And shall not God avenge his own [o]elect, which cry day and night unto him, though [p]he bear long with them?

▶8 [q]I tell you that he will avenge them speedily. Nevertheless when the Son of man cometh, [r]shall he find faith on the earth?

128 Parable of the Pharisee and the publican (Cp. Mt. 23)

9 And he spake this parable unto certain which [s]trusted in themselves that they were righteous, and despised others:

10 [t]Two men went up into the temple to pray; the one a Phăr'ĭ-see, and the other a publican.

11 The Phăr'ĭ-see [u]stood and prayed thus with himself, God, I thank thee, that I am not as other men are, extortioners, unjust, adulterers, or even as this publican.

12 I fast [v]twice in the week, I give tithes of all that I possess.

13 And the publican, standing afar off, would not lift up so much as his eyes unto heaven, but [w]smote upon his breast, saying, [x]God [y]be merciful to me [z]a sinner.

▶14 I tell you, this man went down to his house [a]justified rather than the other: [b]for every one that exalteth himself shall be abased; and he that humbleth himself shall be exalted.

129 Jesus blesses little children (Mt. 19:13; Mk. 10:13)

15 And they brought unto him also [c]infants, that he would touch them; but when his disciples saw it, they rebuked them.

●16 But Jē'sus called them unto him, and said, Suffer little children to come unto me, b Gr. paratēreseis, hostile watching. It occurs only here, but the verb paratēreo, is used in an evil sense of watching with hostility in Mk. 3:2; Lk. 6:7; 14:1; 20:20; Acts 9:24

l Just like the flood of Noah and the fire and brimstone of Sodom destroyed the people leaving only a few (Gen. 6 and 19), so Christ at His second advent will destroy multitudes and leave some to go into the Millennium (Joel 3; Zech. 14; Rev. 19:11-21; 20:1-10; Mt. 25:31-46)
m His revelation, the literal, visible coming to the earth with the saints whom He has raptured before this (1 Th. 4:16) and who come back with Him at His second advent (Zech. 14:1-5; Jude 14; Rev. 19:11-12; Mt. 24:29-31; 2 Th. 1:7-10)
n In the day of the second advent, not the rapture (v 34-37; Mt. 24:27-31; 25:31-46; Rev. 19:11-21)
o At the rapture men will be translated in a moment, in the twinkling of an eye (1 Cor. 15:51-58); but this event will not be that sudden, for a man will have time to attempt getting his belongings, to return from a field to the house. He is advised not to do so. Therefore, this refers to the second advent and not to the rapture p Jesus recognized the historical fact of Lot's wife being turned to salt. The gospels and the Pentateuch therefore, must stand or fall together (Gen. 19:26)
q See notes, 9:24; Mt. 10:39; Mk. 8:35
r Of the second advent, not the rapture (Mt. 24:27-31, 37-42). The whole picture is the destruction of many at Armageddon when Christ comes to make the carcases for the birds of heaven to eat (Mt. 24:27-28; Rev. 19:17-21; Ezek. 39:17-21; 39:30). See notes on Mt. 24:27-42
s This is generally used of the rapture, but it is connected with the second advent in both Mt. 24:27-42 and here (v 23-37). It is true, at the rapture one from here and there will be caught up to meet the Lord in the air, but not to be destroyed as here. This should not be used as proof of the rapture. There are enough scriptures to prove the the rapture without these passages in Mt. 24 and Lk. 17. Just like the flood "took them all away" or destroyed people (Mt. 24:38; Lk. 17:27, 29), so shall also the second advent of Christ destroy many and make the dead bodies for the fowls of heaven to eat, fulfilling Mt. 24:27-28; Lk. 17:34-37; Rev. 19:17-21; Ezek. 39:17-21. The passage really pictures the mobilization of nations to Armageddon where they will be destroyed by Christ and the armies of heaven at the second advent (Zech. 14:1-5; Rev. 19:11-21)
t The left ones will be the ones not killed at Armageddon. Just like Noah and Lot and their families were left after the two destructions of their day (v 27, 29), so at the destruction of multitudes at the second advent when Christ comes with, not for His saints, some will be left to go into the Millennium to replenish the earth at that time (Zech. 14:16-21; Mt. 25:31-46; Rev. 19:11-20:10; Ezek. 39:2) a Question 115. Next, 18:6. Where are the dead bodies going to be that will be eaten by the eagles? The answer is, on the battle field of Armageddon (Mt. 24:27-28; Rev. 16:13-16; 19:17-21; Ezek. 39:17-21)

b The eagles here are not: See p. 201
c Not to lose heart. Do not give in to doubt, fear, unbelief, discouragement, or use excuses for unbelief when prayer is not answered immediately. Rebuke and resist all opposition to the answer and all suggestions of a failure. It is a divine blood-bought right to get an answer, so do not lose heart h But the pestering went on without a let up and changed the picture

i After he tolerated her pestering to the breaking point, he concluded that he would never have any more peace until he got rid of her and the only way to do this was by granting her request j Gr. kopos, a beating, toil, trouble, suffering, pain, weariness. Here it means to cause mental pressure to the point of fatigue, exhaustion (2 Cor. 6:5; 11:23, 27)
k By her perpetual coming she harass or pester me beyond endurance l Gr. hupopiaza, to hit under the eye (buffet or disable an antagonist as a pugilist); to black the eye; to beat black and blue. Figuratively, as here, to tease, annoy into compliance, subdue by repeated attacks, to bring or keep under, to wear one out, or wear down to helplessness (1 Cor. 9:27; Lk. 18:5). No wonder the big hard-hearted judge became willing to see that she got justice m Questions 116-117. Next, v 18. This is the point of the parable. If such methods as the widow used would get results from an infidel of utter selfishness and unconcern for the needs and rights of others, how much more can children of God get results in prayer by the same methods n Gr. adikia, unrighteousness, wrongdoing, injustice. A judge of injustice becomes a judge of justice through a little woman using the proper means o Gr. eklektos, picked out, chosen. See 4 elect's of God, p. 201

131 Warning to rich men (Mt. 6:19; 19:23; Mk. 10:23)

133 Jesus again foretells His death and resurrection (Mt.16:21, refs.)

31 ¶ Then he took unto him the twelve, and said unto them, Behold, [l]we go up to Jē-rū'sā-lĕm, and [m]all things that are written by the prophets concerning the Son of man shall be accomplished.

32 For he shall be delivered unto the Gĕn'tīles, and shall be mocked, and spitefully entreated, and spitted on:

33 And they shall scourge him, and put him to death: and the third day he shall rise again.

34 And they understood none of these things: and this saying was hid from them, neither knew they the [n]things which were spoken.

134 Blind man healed (Cp. Mt. 9:27; 20:29; Mk. 10:46)

35 ¶ And it came to pass, that as he was come nigh unto Jĕr'ĭ-chō, [b]a certain blind man sat by the way side begging:

36 And hearing the multitude pass by, he asked what it meant.

37 And they told him, that Jē'sus of Năz'a-rĕth passeth by.

38 And he cried, saying, Jē'sus, [c]thou son of Dā'vid, have mercy on me.

39 And they which [d]went before rebuked him, that he should hold his peace: but he cried so much the more, Thou son of Dā'vid, have mercy on me.

40 And Jē'sus stood, and commanded him to be brought unto him: and when he was come near, he asked him, 41 Saying, [e]What wilt thou that I shall do unto thee? And he said, Lord, that I may receive my sight.

42 And Jē'sus said unto him, [f]Receive thy sight: [g]thy faith hath saved thee.

43 And [h]immediately he received his sight, and followed him, [i]glorifying God: and all the people, when they saw it, gave praise unto God.

63 CHAPTER 19

135 Conversion of Zacchæus: (1) Won by curiosity

AND Jē'sus entered and passed through Jĕr'ĭ-chō.

2 And, behold, there was a man named [a]Zăc-chæ'us, which was the [b]chief among the publicans, and he was rich.

3 And he sought to see Jē'sus [c]who he was; and could not for the press, because he was little of stature.

4 And he ran before, and climbed up into a [d]sycomore tree to see him: for he was to pass that way.

(2) Unhesitating obedience

5 And when Jē'sus came to the place, he looked up, and saw him, and said unto him, Zăc-chæ'us, make haste, and come down; [e]for to day I must abide at thy house.

6 And he made haste, and came down, and [f]received him joyfully.

(3) Religious persecution

7 And when they saw it, they all murmured, saying, That he was gone to be guest with a man that is a sinner.

c One thing is certain - men know right from wrong, for all have a conscience (Rom. 2:12-16). Men in civilization have the Bible, the full revealed and written will of God and know what to do to be saved
d Jesus did not doubt that the young man had obeyed these 5 commandments, for He "loved him" (Mk. 10:21). He next gave a commandment that the young man could not say he had kept - "Sell all that thou hast, and distribute unto the poor." This is the equivalent of "Thou shalt love thy neighbor as thyself" (Mt. 22:37-39). The neighbors are the poor, the ones he could help and thus complete his obedience to God (Lk. 10:27-37)
e Gr. ptochos, destitute, and in want; always rendered poor except in Lk. 16: 20, 22 (beggar), Gal. 4:9 (beggarly), and Jas. 2:2 (poor man) f This is the secret of the Christian life. The whole Christian program from Matthew to Revelation is summed up in these two words. No man can have eternal life who does not do this (Jn. 10: 27-29). This means to obey literally all things in the New Testament that Christians are supposed to do (Jas. 1: 18-27; 2:8-26; 1 Jn. 1:7; 2:3-6, 15-17; 3:5-10; 5:1-5, 18) g 10 reasons why it is hard for some of the rich to inherit eternal life:
1 Their oppressions of the poor to make themselves rich (Neh. 5:1-13; Jas. 2:6-7; 5:1-7; Pr. 18:23; Jer. 22: 13-19)
2 Their lack of trust in God (Job 21: 7-15; Ps. 52:1-6)
3 Their trust in riches (Job 31:24-28; Ps. 52:1-6; Pr. 18:11; 1 Tim. 6:17)
4 Their pride over success (Ps. 52:1-6; 73:3-9; Pr. 28:11; Ezek. 28:5; 1 Tim. 6:4-19)
5 Their sinful pleasures (Jer. 5:7-9, 27-31; Amos 6:1-6)
6 Their boastings (Jer. 9:23; Dt. 8: 17-18; 1 Tim. 6:4-19)
7 Their unwillingness to share with the destitute (Mk. 10:17-27; Lk. 18: 22-26; 1 Tim. 6:17-19; 1 Jn. 3:17)
8 Their covetousness for more riches (Lk. 12:15-21; 16:13-31)
9 Their highmindedness (1 Tim. 6: 17-18; Jas. 1:10; Dt. 8:17)
10 Their refusal to obey God (Mk. 10: 21; Lk. 12:15; 1 Tim. 6:17-18; Mt. 6: 19-21; Pr. 23:4)
Warnings to the rich (Dt. 6:10-12; 8: 10-18; 31:20; Pr. 23:4; 27:23-24; 28:8, 20-22; Pr. 30:8-9; Eccl. 5:9-19; 6:1-2; Isa. 5:8; Mt. 6:19-21; 13:22; Mk. 4:19; Lk. 12:15; 1 Tim. 6:4-19)
God gives riches so men must recognize Him. He can also take them away (1 Sam. 2:7; Dt. 8:17-18; 1 Tim. 6:17-18; Gen. 24:1; 1 Ki. 3:12-14; Job 42:10)
h See note e, Mt. 19:24
i Question 120. Next, v 41. We must not think of rich men as being able to get salvation on the same basis as they get most everything else, for salvation is on a different basis. God does not respect them any more than the poor. They have to meet the same conditions as others and this is why it is hard for them and why so few pay the price to get saved

e Question 121. Next, 19:23 f What a simple way to get healed! Only a man with power could do this and no man can prove that he has such power who cannot do it g Personal faith is necessary when men are capable of it. Where there is no possibility of it, then the minister is supposed to do the work by virtue of his authority with God (Jn. 14:12)
h This is true divine healing and anything short of it is not the same as the work of Christ i Miracles will always bring glory to God; but failure, sickness, and disease will not. It is held today that sickness glorifies God because one has the opportunity to witness to souls, but why not look at it in this light - could not the same witnessing be carried on better with a well body? Is it not better, therefore, to think this - that God gets glory in spite of our sickness, not because of it? Would God have received the glory for all the healings recorded if the blind, the sick, and the lame had not been healed and the demons cast out? Would He have received glory if Lazarus had remained dead? Definitely not, so what is the source of God's glory - to remain sick or be healed?

God and man contrasted (18:7)

He delayeth. The judge delayed from selfish indifference, but God delays from an all-wise purpose, depending on what is asked or whether one has faith or not (Heb. 11:6; Jas. 1:5-8). If it is something that is promised only for the next life, then the delay is clear from Scripture. If it is something promised in this life, then refuse to give up until it is received (Mt. 17:20; 21:22; Mk. 9:23; 11:22-24; Heb. 11:6; Jas. 1:5-8)

End-time faith (18:8)

Will the faith be found among men at His second advent? When all who are saints before the tribulation will have been raptured (1 Th. 4:16; 2 Th. 2:7-8, note)? When men that are left will be at the height of apostasy (Mt. 24:24; 1 Tim. 4; 2 Tim. 3:5; 4:1-4; 2 Th. 2; Rev. 9:20-21; 13:1-18)? When those who get saved during the tribulation will be killed by the multitudes (Rev. 6:9-11; 7:9-17; 13:16-18; 15:2-4; 20: 4-6)?

Jewish fasts (18:12)

On Monday and on Thursday. The law commanded only one fast a year (Lev. 23:27-32). About 1,200 years later, in Zechariah's time, Jews had 4 fasts (Zech. 8:19), in Christ's day, 500 years later, Jews had 104 fasts a year (Lk. 18: 12). Thus they were growing in law but not in grace. Not one word about his sins but many words about his religious self-righteousness. All this and he was not justified (v 14)

f 41st parable in Lk. (19:12-27), illustrating postponement of the kingdom of God until His second advent. Next, 20:9. This is similiar to the parable in Mt. 14:14-30, but different in particulars. The story actually fits the experience of Herod who left Jericho to go to Rome to obtain the kingdom of Judea (Josephus, Ant. 14:3-4; 17:9-13; 18:7, 2), facts of which were well known. Whether this is what Jesus used is not stated, but there is no doubt that all of Christ's illustrations were true happenings of life that His hearers knew about or would recognize as factual and true

i Engage in business until I come j The other point illustrated beside the postponement of the kingdom of God is that of the action of the servants and citizens. In the parable the servants would be the king's personal attendants and the citizens the subjects of the king. As applied to the kingdom of God, the servants would be the ministers and true believers who are to propagate the gospel of the kingdom, and the citizens would be the Jews who rejected Christ and the gospel (Jn. 1:11; 15:18-25; Mt. 27:21-25) many of whom would suffer the most horrible deaths of any in history. See notes, Lk. 21:20-24

The spot where this occured, no doubt, was on the caravan road from Bethany to Jerusalem. On reaching the summit of the Mount of Olives, Jerusalem in its full beauty burst into view. Moriah with its temple, was in the foreground just beyond the narrow deep glen of the Kidron. Zion rose higher still, beyond Moriah, and was crowned with Herod's palace. It was here that the crowd had their emotional outburst and Christ wept over the city making the prediction of its destruction

(5) Conversion and new birth

[c]9 And Jē'sus said unto him, This day is salvation come to this house, forsomuch as he [d]also is a son of Ā'brā-hăm.

10[e]For the Son of man is come to seek and to save that which was lost.

136 Parable of ten pounds: the kingdom postponed (Cp. Mt. 25:14; Acts 1:7)

11 And as they heard these things, he added and spake a parable, because he was nigh to Jē-rų'sā-lĕm, and because they thought that the kingdom of God should immediately appear.

*12 [f]He said therefore, [g]A certain nobleman went into a far country to receive for himself a kingdom, and to return.

13 And he called his ten servants, and delivered them [h]ten pounds, and said unto them, [i]Occupy till I come.

14 But his citizens hated him, and sent a [j]message after him, saying, We will not have this man to reign over us.

15 And it came to pass, that when he was returned, having received the kingdom, then he commanded these servants to be called unto him, to whom he had given the money, that he might know how much every man had gained by trading.

16 Then came the first, saying, Lord, thy [l]pound hath gained ten pounds.

17 And he said unto him, Well, thou good servant: because thou hast been faithful in a very little, have thou authority over ten cities.

18 And the second came, saying, Lord, thy [m]pound hath gained five pounds.

19 And he said likewise to him, Be thou also over five cities.

20 And another came, saying, Lord, behold, here is thy pound, which I have kept laid up in [n]a napkin:

21 For I feared thee, because thou art an [o]austere man: [p]thou takest up that thou layedst not down, and reapest that thou didst not sow.

22 And he saith unto him, Out of thine own mouth will I judge thee, thou wicked servant. Thou knewest that I was an austere man, taking up that I laid not down, and reaping that I did not sow:

23[q]Wherefore then gavest not thou my money into the bank, that [r]at my coming I might have required mine own with usury?

24 And he said unto them that stood by, Take from him the pound, and give it to him that hath ten pounds.

25 (And they said unto him, Lord, he hath [s]ten pounds.)

▶26 For I say unto you, [t]That unto every one which hath shall be given; and from him that hath not, even that he hath shall be taken away from him.

27 But those [u]mine enemies, which would not that I should reign over them, bring hither, and slay them before me.

137 Triumphal entry (Mt. 21:1; Mk. 11:1; Jn. 12:12; Zech. 9:9)

28 ¶ And when he had thus spoken, he went before, [a]ascending up to Jĕ-rų'sā-lĕm.

29 [b]And it came to pass, when he was come nigh to Bĕth'-pha-gē and Bĕth'a-nỹ, at the mount called the mount of Ŏl'-ĭves, he sent two of his disciples,

*30 Saying, Go ye into the village over against you; in the which at your entering ye shall find a [c]colt tied, whereon yet never man sat: loose him, and bring him hither.

31 And if any man ask you, Why do ye loose him? thus shall ye say unto him, Because the Lord hath need of him.

32 And they that were sent went their way, and found [d]even as he had said unto them.

33 And as they were loosing the colt, the owners thereof said unto them, Why loose ye the colt?

34 And they said, The Lord hath need of him.

35 And they brought him to Jē'sus: and they cast their garments upon the colt, and they [e]set Jē'sus thereon.

36 And as he went, they spread their [f]clothes in the way.

37 And when he was come nigh, even now at the [g]descent of the mount of Ŏl'ĭves, [h]the whole multitude of the disciples began to rejoice and praise God with a loud voice for all the mighty works that they had seen;

*38 Saying, [i]Blessed be the King that cometh in the name of the [j]Lord: [k]peace in heaven, and glory in the highest.

39 And some of the Phăr'ĭ-sees from among the multitude said unto him, Master, rebuke thy disciples.

40 And he answered and said unto them, [l]I tell you that, if these should hold their peace, the stones would immediately cry out.

138 Jesus weeps over Jerusalem: predicts its overthrow (Mt. 23:37; Lk. 13:34; 21:12)

41 ¶ And when he was come near, he beheld the city, [m]and wept over it,

*42 Saying, [n]If thou hadst known, even thou, at least in this thy day, the things which belong unto thy peace! but now they are [o]hid from thine eyes.

43 For the days shall come upon thee, that thine [p]enemies shall cast a [q]trench about thee, b In the East it was a custom to give presents to the rich; but a poor man received none and was an easy victim of others to take what little he had. This is spoken by the nobleman of v 12, which is the same principle as that of Jesus in Mt. 13:12; Mk. 4:25; Lk. 8:18. It illustrates that worthy ones will be rewarded and others will not (Mt. 16:27; 25:29; 2 Cor. 5:9-10)

c The nobleman (v 12) is still speaking, but it illustrates that Christ will also come again and will set up a kingdom and punish His enemies (Mt. 25:31-46; 2 Th. 1:7-10; Jude 14; Rev. 19:11-21; Zech. 14)

8 things they did not know:

1 That this was not the time for the kingdom of God to appear (v 11-27)
2 That the Messiah had to suffer first and die to redeem (17:20-25)
3 That the greatest of all conquerors was in their midst, but that His conquest had to be in the spirit realm before it could be in the material kingdoms of the world (Heb. 2:14-15; Col. 2:14-17)
4 That the greatest battle of all ages would be fought in their midst in a few more hours (Jn. 12:31; Col. 2:14-17; Heb. 2:14-15)
5 That all satanic powers would be defeated and spoiled by His death on the cross (Col. 2:14-17; 1 Pet. 2:24)
6 That the guarantee of the restoration of man's dominion would be accomplished at that time (Heb. 2:9-15; 10:10-13; Gal. 3:13; 1 Cor. 15:24-28; Jn. 19:30)
7 That the church must be built and the church age run its course before the kingdom could come (Acts 15:13-18; Eph. 3:1-6; 6:25-31; 2 Th. 2:7, note)
8 That the many prophecies of the dispersion and regathering of Israel, the reign of Antichrist, the future tribulation period, as outlined in Rev. 4:1-19:21 and other prophecies had to be first fulfilled before the second advent and the coming kingdom (Ezek. 37; Zech. 14; Rev. 19-20)

b He was to be crucified at the end of the 69th week of Dan. 9:24-27, or 483 years after the commandment at the end of the Babylonian captivity to restore Jerusalem and the temple (Dan. 9:25, note)
c This is the third purification of the temple. The first one is earlier in His ministry (Jn. 2:15). The second is a few days earlier than this at the first triumphal entry (Mt. 21:12; Mk. 11:15) taking place Friday before the crucifixion. After spending Thursday night at the home of Zacchaeus in Jericho (Lk. 19:1-21) Jesus goes to Jerusalem on Friday and makes His first entry (Mt. 21:1-16). He returns to Bethany where He passes the Sabbath, where He eats the first of three suppers, and where the first of two anointings takes place (Mt. 21:17; Jn. 12:1-11). On Sunday He makes His second triumphal entry and returns to Bethany (Mk. 11:1-11; Lk. 19:29-44; Jn. 12:12-19). On Monday He returns to Jerusalem, cleanses the temple, teaches, curses the fig tree, and goes out of the city (Mt. 21:18-22; Mk. 11:12-19; Lk. 19:45-48; Jn. 12:20-50). On Tuesday He goes back to Jerusalem, teaches, gives the prophecies of Mt. 24-25; Mk. 13; Lk. 21 and returns to Bethany to have the second supper and second anointing (Mt. 21:23-26:13; Mk. 11:20-14:9; Lk. 20:1-21:38). On Wednesday, which is from Tuesday sunset to Wednesday sunset, or on our Tuesday night the last supper is held and Judas betrays Jesus. The Gethsemane prayer, the arrest, the trials throughout Tuesday night or the first part of their Wednesday and all the events of the crucifixion and burial end on Wednesday at sunset (Mt. 26:14-27:66; Mk. 14:10-15:47; Lk. 22:1-23:56; Jn. 12:1-19:42). Thursday, beginning at Wednesday sunset, is the first day of the feast, the high day and a special sabbath (not the weekly sabbath, Lev. 23:7, 24, 35; Jn. 19:31). Christ's body is in the tomb and His soul and spirit in hell for three full days and nights (Mt. 12:40, note)

Great distress (21:23)

The Jews were crucified in such numbers before the walls during the siege that the Romans wanted more room for crosses. Multitudes in the city died of famine until the valleys outside were filled with them. Titus himself groaned and threw up his hands in horror and called God to witness that he was not responsible. No fewer than 600,000 who were thrown out the gates were counted by the Romans. Altogether 1,100,000 Jews died; 97,000 were sold as slaves for trifling prices; 40,000 were freed because no one bought them; and 347,490 more, plus multitudes not counted, perished in many other ways and compass thee round, and keep thee in on every side, 44 And shall[a] lay thee even with the ground, and thy children within thee; and they shall not leave in thee one stone upon another; because thou knewest not the[b] time of thy visitation.

139 Second purification of the temple (Mt. 21:12; Mk. 11:15). First purification (Jn. 2:13)

45 And he went into the temple, and began to[c] cast out them that sold therein, and them that bought;

*46 Saying unto them, It is written,[d] My house is the house of prayer: but ye have made it a[e] den of[f] thieves.

47 And he taught[g] daily in the temple. But the chief priests and the scribes and the chief of the people sought to destroy him, 48 And could not find what they might do: for all the people were very[h] attentive to hear him.

64 CHAPTER 20

140 Jesus' authority questioned (Mt. 21:23; Mk. 11:27)

AND it came to pass, that on one of those days, as he taught the people in the temple, and [i]preached the gospel, the chief priests and the scribes came upon him with the elders,

2 And spake unto him, saying, [j]Tell us, by what authority doest thou these things? or who is he that gave thee this authority?

3 And he answered and said unto them, I will also ask you one thing; and answer me:

4 The baptism of John, was it from heaven, or of men?

5 And they reasoned with themselves, saying, If we shall say, From heaven; he will say, Why then believed ye him not?

6 But and if we say, Of men; all the people will stone us: for they be persuaded that John was a prophet.

7 And they answered, that they could not tell whence it was.

141 Parable of the husbandman (Mt. 21:33; Mk. 12:1)

8 And Jesus said unto them, Neither tell I you by what authority I do these things.

9 Then began he to speak to the people this parable; [k]A certain man planted a vineyard, and let it forth to husbandmen, and went into a far country for a long time.

10 And at the season he sent a servant to the husbandmen, that they should give him of the fruit of the vineyard: but the husbandmen beat him, and sent him away empty.

11 And again he sent another servant: and they beat him also, and entreated him shamefully, and sent him away empty.

12 And again he sent a third: and they wounded him also, and[m] cast him out.

13 Then said the lord of the vineyard, [b]What shall I do? I will send my [c]beloved son: it may be they will reverence him when they see him.

14 But when the husbandmen saw him, they reasoned among themselves, saying, This is the heir: come, let us kill him, that the inheritance may be ours.

15 So they cast him out of the vineyard, and killed him.[d] What therefore shall the lord of the vineyard do unto them?

16 He shall come and destroy these husbandmen, and shall give the vineyard to others. And when they heard it, they said, God forbid.

*17 And he beheld them, and said,[e] What is this then that is written, [l]The stone which the builders rejected, the same is become the head of the corner?

*18 [g]Whosoever shall fall upon that stone shall be broken; but on whomsoever it shall fall, it will grind him to powder.

142 Question of tribute money (Mt. 17:24; 22:15; Mk. 12:13)

19 ¶ And the chief priests and the scribes the same hour sought to [h]lay hands on him; and they feared the people: for they perceived that he had spoken this parable against them.

20 And they [i]watched him, and sent forth [j]spies, which should [k]feign themselves just men, [l]that they might take hold of his words, that so they might deliver him unto the power and authority of the governor.

21 And they asked him, saying, Master, [m]we know that thou sayest and teachest rightly, neither acceptest thou the person of any, but teachest the way of God truly:

22 [n]Is it lawful for us to [o]give tribute unto Cæ'sar, or no?

23 But he perceived [p]their craftiness, and said unto them, Why tempt ye me?

24 Shew me a [q]penny. [r]Whose image and superscription hath it? They answered and said, Cæ'sar's.

25 And he said unto them, Render therefore unto Cæ'sar the things which be Cæ'sar's, and unto God the things which be God's.

26 And they could not [s]take hold of his words before the people: and they marvelled at his answer, and held their peace.

143 Question of the resurrection (Mt. 22:23; Mk. 12:18)

27 ¶ Then [t]came to him certain of the Sad'du-cees, which deny that there is any resurrection; and they asked him,

28 Saying, Master, "Mo'ses wrote unto us, If any man's brother die, having a wife, and he die without children, that his

It is used by the Father of the Son (Mt. 3:17; 12:18; 17:5; Mk. 1:11; 9:7; Lk. 3:22; 9:35) and by Jesus of a certain man's son, which illustrated Himself (Mk. 12:6; Lk. 20:13). It is also a common word for believers in the epistles, being used 51 times (Rom. 1:7; 11:28; 16:8-12; Phil. 2:12; 1 Jn. 3:2; 4:1, 7, 11, etc.)
d Question 130. Next, v 17. The answer to this question was clear to the Jews, who replied, "God forbid" (v 16). In Mt. 21:41 they answered this question themselves. The point illustrated is clearly stated in Mt. 21:42-45. It not only concerns the rejection of Jesus by the Jews, but also the rejection of the Jews by God - taking the kingdom of heaven from them and giving it to the Gentiles. No wonder they cried, "God forbid." They did not want this to happen, but they were still determined not to do the thing that would prevent it

2 To deliver Him to Pilate, who alone had the power of life and death; so it was the Lord's life they had in view. This they were to accomplish when it was in God's time, for to this end Christ came into the world (Lk. 22:53; Jn. 10:18; 18:37) - to die

They are good at memorizing such chosen verses but they misapply and misinterpret the Scriptures to suit their own purposes. As stated in 2 Pet. 3:16 they wrest them "unto their own destruction." False religions thrive on this refusal to make an honest investigation of truth for truth's sake

c Gr. aion, an age, any period of time whether long or short. Children of this age marry, but the children of resurrection do not marry. This does not mean that natural men will not marry in the next age, the Millennium (Rev. 20; Isa. 65:20-25) and forever in the New Earth, but that people who have part in the resurrection will never marry again. It does not mean they will be sexless for all will have their own male or female body in the resurrection (1 Cor. 15:35-58). It simply teaches that resurrected people do not and will not need to marry to keep their race going, being like the angels who do not reproduce after their own kind, as do men

That there will be marrying among natural people on the earth now and forever is one of the most simply stated doctrines of the Bible (Gen. 8:22; 9:12, 16; 17:19; 2 Sam. 7; Isa. 9:6-7; 59:20-21; Dan. 2:44-45; 7:13-14, 27; Zech. 14:16-21; Ezek. 43:7; Lk. 1:31-33; Mt. 25:31-46; Rev. 11:15; 20:1-15; 22:4-5)

e The eternal age, or the age of the ages, when Messiah rules forever on the earth (Isa. 9:6-7; Dan. 2:44-45; 7:13-14, 27; Zech. 14; Mt. 13:42, 50; 25:31-46; Lk. 1:31-33; Rev. 11:15; 20:1-15; 22:4-5)

g Gr. ek nekron, from among the dead, implying a resurrection of some from among the dead before the rest of the dead are resurrected. This refers to the righteous from among the wicked 1,000 years before the wicked are resurrected (Rev. 20:4-6). The "dead in Christ" only will be resurrected at the rapture (Jn. 14:1-3; 1 Th. 4:13-18; 1 Cor. 15:23, 51-58)

h All men in the resurrection will be raised to immortality in body. If men are resurrected temporarily, like Lazarus, they will die again, but when they see corruption and are resurrected in the future resurrections, they will enter into immortality to die no more (1 Cor. 15:51-58; Phil. 3:20-21). They will be equal to the angels in immortality of body (v 36)

i All who have part in the first resurrection enter "that world" and all are children of God. The dead who are not in this first resurrection are not children of God. They are not the "blessed and holy" so they live not again until the end of the Millennium and then they will be resurrected to eternal punishment (Rev. 20:4-6, 11-15; Jn. 5:28-29; Dan. 12:2)

j Being in the resurrection does not make men children of God, for all men will be resurrected (1 Cor. 15:21-23; Jn. 5:28-29; Dan. 12:2; Rev. 20:4-6, 11-15). If bodily resurrection would make men children of God, then it was not necessary for Christ to die

m This has often been used of the last two world wars, but all these things did not happen then. This really refers to the wars that will form the ten kingdoms of Dan. 7:23-24; Rev. 17:12, and to the wars between the ten kingdoms under Antichrist and the many nations north and east of the old Roman empire (Dan. 11:40-45)

n These four words, "But before all these" refer to the immediate destruction of Jerusalem, 70 A. D., while v 8-11 remain to be fulfilled in signs of the second coming of Christ. Jesus had just predicted the destruction of Jerusalem and its temple (v 6). The disciples asked Him in v 7 when would Jerusalem be destroyed. In verses 12-24 He answered this question, then the Lord continued giving signs of His second coming (v 25-36)

r This is almost inconceivable, but it pictures the power of demon religions in their control of their victims. Religion caused the first betrayal and death (Gen. 4) and it will cause the last ones (Rev. 6:9-11; 7:9-17; 14:13; 15:2-4; 20:4-6; Mt. 24:4-24). a Not one genuine Christian shall fall in the destruction of Jerusalem. Cp. Mt. 10:30
b By patient endurance you shall keep your souls in harmony with God and thus be saved (Mt. 10:39; 16:25; Mk. 8:35; Lk. 17:33)
c When the Romans surround the city and cut off all supplies (fulfilling Lk. 19:43) then let those on the outside effect their escape for the desolation of Jerusalem is at hand (v 20-24). This is the main emphasis of Christ in Lk. 21, answering the question of v 7 which is not answered in Mt. 24 or Mk. 13
d The days of visitation in judgment (Hos. 9:7), not the days of visitation in mercy when Messiah offered peace and blessing (Lk. 19:41-44). If they had accepted the days of visitation for peace, the visitation for vengeance would never have been (Mt. 23:37-39; Lk. 13:33-35)
e All things that are written concerning the destruction of Jerusalem, not the complete fulfillment of all other prophecies f Perhaps referring to the practice of some heathen nations in destroying pregnant women and mothers with children. This is similar to Mt. 24:15-22, but a distinct event from that. This was fulfilled 70 A. D., while Matthew will be fulfilled in the future tribulation just before the second advent of Christ and when Jerusalem will be delivered from the Gentiles. At this time also Jerusalem will be surrounded by the armies of the Antichrist and half of the city only will be taken (Zech. 14:1-5), so similar events as to the punishment of women and children will happen at both times. In fact, Zech. 14 states that the women will be ravished
g See Great distress, p. 84, col. 1
h Jerusalem, still partly in Gentile hands, will be liberated from them and will become the Jewish capital for a short time, until the middle of Daniel's 70th week. Then Antichrist will break his 7 year covenant with Israel and enter Palestine. He will take over Jerusalem and the future Jewish temple as his capital building and start the beast worship (Dan. 9:27; 11:4-45; 12:7; Mt. 24:15-21; 2 Th. 2:1-12; Rev. 13; 14:9-11; 15:2-4; 20:4-6). Jerusalem will then be in Gentile hands for 42 months finally being liberated at the second coming of Christ (Rev. 11:1-3; 12:6, 14; 13:5; 19:11-21; Zech. 14:2 Th. 2:8-12). The times of the Gentiles will then end. These times simply mean that period in Israel's history as a nation in Egypt to the second coming of Christ when she will be oppressed, more or less, by the Gentiles. It began with the Egyptian bondage, not with the overthrow of Jerusalem by Nebuchadnezzar. This is clear from the fact that the Jews were oppressed under Egypt and Assyria more than 1,500 years, off and on, before Nebuchadnezzar. What would these oppressions be but the times of the Gentiles? Then, too, Rev. 17:8-17 proves that there have been and will be 8 great world empires oppressing Israel in the times of the Gentiles. See p. 873 of O. T.
i The Lord now returns to His former subject of signs of His second advent (v 8-11). Verses 25-28 predict 8 great signs of the second advent as well as that advent itself, proving that these verses were not fulfilled when Jerusalem was destroyed, 70 A. D. These verses are enlarged upon by Jesus shortly after His temple prophecy when He leaves the temple and goes out on the Mount of Olives in Mt. 24-25 and Mk. 13
j See Mt. 24:29-31; Mk. 13:24-26 k THEN: during the signs of v 25-26 and immediately after the tribulation of Mt. 24:15-22 Christ will come to set up His kingdom (Mt. 24:29-31; 25:31-46; Zech. 14; Rev. 19-20) all men for my name's sake.

▸18 But there shall not an[a]hair of your head perish.
19 [b]In your patience possess ye your souls.

20 And when ye shall see Jĕ-ru'să-lĕm [c]compassed with armies, then know that the desolation thereof is nigh.
21 Then let them which are in Jū-dæ'á flee to the mountains; and let them which are in the midst of it depart out; and let not them that are in the countries enter thereinto.
22 For these be the [d]days of vengeance, that [e]all things which are written may be fulfilled.
23 But [f]woe unto them that are with child, and to them that give suck, in those days! for there shall be [g]great distress in the land, and wrath upon this people.
24 And they shall fall by the edge of the sword, and shall be led away captive into all nations: and Jĕ-ru'să-lĕm shall be trodden down of the Ġĕn'tīleş, until the times of [h]the Ġĕn'tīles be fulfilled.

(5) The end of this age - the second advent - the end of the times of the Gentiles (Mt. 24:27; 25:31; Mk. 13:24; Rom. 11:25; 2 Thess. 1:7; 2:8; Jude 14; Rev. 1:7; 19:11; Zech. 14; Joel 3)

25 [i]And there shall be [j]signs in the sun, and in the moon, and in the stars; and upon the earth distress of nations, with perplexity; the sea and the waves roaring;
26 Men's hearts failing them for fear, and for looking after those things which are coming on the earth: for the powers of heaven shall be shaken.
▸27 [k]And then shall they see the Son of man coming in a cloud with power and great glory.
▸28 And when [l]these things begin to come to pass, [m]then look up, and lift up your heads; [n]for your redemption draweth nigh.

(6) Parable of the fig tree (Mt. 24:32; Mk. 13:28)

29 And he spake to them a parable; [o]Behold the fig tree, and all the trees;
30 When they now shoot forth, ye see and know of your own selves that summer is now nigh at hand.
31 So likewise ye, when ye see these things come to pass, know ye that the kingdom of God is nigh at hand.

(7) All signs of v 8-11, 25-28 will take place in one generation (Mt. 24:34; Mk. 13:30)

32 Verily I say unto you, [p]This generation shall not pass away, till all be fulfilled.
▸33 [q]Heaven and earth shall pass away: but my words shall not pass away.

(8) Warnings in view of the second coming of Jesus

●34 ¶ And [a]take heed to [b]yourselves, lest at any time your hearts be [c]overcharged [d]with surfeiting, and [e]drunkenness, and [f]cares of this life, and so that [g]day come upon you [h]unawares.
35 For as a snare shall it come on all them that dwell on the face of the whole earth.

(9) Promise of a rapture before the second advent (Jn. 14:1; 1 Th. 4:16, refs.)

●36 [i]Watch ye therefore, and pray always, that ye may be accounted worthy to escape all these things that shall come to pass, and to stand before the Son of man.◂

(10) Final public teaching

37 [j]And in the day time he was teaching in the temple; and at night he went out, and [k]abode in the mount that is called the mount of Ŏl'ĭveş.

148 Tenth attempt to kill Jesus (Mt. 26:3, refs.; Mk. 14:1)

NOW the feast of unleavened bread drew nigh, which is called the [l]Passover.
2 And the chief priests and scribes sought [m]how they might kill him; for they feared the people.

149 Judas agrees to betray Jesus (Mt. 26:14; Mk. 14:10)

3 ¶ Then entered Să'tan [n]into Jū'das surnamed Ĭs-kăr'ĭ-ot, being of the number of the twelve.
4 And he went his way, and communed with the chief priests and [o]captains, how he might betray him unto them.
5 And they were [p]glad, and covenanted to give him money.
6 And he promised, and sought opportunity to betray him unto them in the absence of the multitude.

150 Preparation for the passover (Mt. 26:17; Mk. 14:12)

7 ¶ Then came the [q]day of unleavened bread, when the passover must be killed.
8 And he sent Pē'tēr and Jōhn, saying, Go and prepare us the passover, that we may eat.
9 And they said unto him, Where wilt thou that we prepare?
●10 And he said unto them, Behold, [r]when ye are entered into the city, there shall a [s]man meet you, bearing a pitcher of water; follow him into the house where he entereth in.

e Gr. methe, intoxication. Only here; Rom. 13:13; Gal. 5:21. Cp. Pr. 20:1; Isa. 28:7; Ezek. 23:32; 39:19

h Gr. aiphnidios, suddenly. Only here and in 1 Th. 5:3
i This is the first plain reference in all Scripture to the rapture - of some escaping all the terrible events of v 25-28. How they were to escape, if they met conditions, is stated here as "to stand before the Son of Man" (v 36). How could all worthy ones go to be before Him unless by rapture as stated in Jn. 14:1-3; 1 Th. 4:13-18?
j These two verses are paremhetical and explain His activities during the last 6 days k It was now springtime, when the nights were mild and balmy. Many preferred to sleep in the open air on the housetops and in gardens. Christ, no doubt, spent many nights in the open as He did here l Beginning with the Passover Feast, the Feast of Unleavened Bread was observed. It lasted 7 days (Lev. 23:5-8). The 14th was the butchering day or preparation day for the feasts, which started in the evening at sundown, or the 15th day of Nisan, our April. See Mt. 26:17-19; Mk. 14:12-16 m How they might turn favorable, popular opinion against Christ, so that they might safely proceed to kill Him. Or, to kidnap Him and thus avoid a public trial. The Gr. for kill him here is anaireo, to take up and carry off. Judas had not yet come along to solve their problem n Satan, as an angel, could not possibly enter bodily into Judas, for he has his own personal spirit body as big as a man. The doctrine of interpenetration in Scripture, that is, persons entering into each other, as Paul said of Corinthians and Philippians being in his heart (2 Cor. 7:3; Phil. 1:7); God being in Christ (2 Cor. 5:19); Christ being in God (Jn. 14:20); God and Christ being in each other (Jn. 14:10-11); men being in both the Father and the Son (1 Jn. 2:24); men being in Christ (2 Cor. 5:17); men and the Spirit being in each other (Rom. 8:9); Christ being in men (Col. 1:27; Rom. 8:10); man and Christ being in each other (Jn. 14:20); all creation being in God (Acts 17:28); and Satan entering into men (Lk. 22:3; Jn. 13:27). It means in union with, consecration to the same end - one in mind, purpose, and life, not bodily entrance into. It may be best understood by a man and woman becoming one in life together, to be in each other's plans, life, etc. Hence, Satan entering into Judas simply means Judas submitted to Satan's temptation to betray Jesus. He became one with Satan, like men become one in spirit with God when joined to Him in consecration (1 Cor. 6:17)
o Officers of the temple guards
p The plotters against Jesus rejoiced because this seemed to solve their difficult problem of taking Jesus when not with the multitudes whom He held under the spell of His marvelous teaching (v 6). They then could use means to sway the multitudes when they had Him in their hands being tried by the Romans 12 And he shall shew you a large [d]upper room [e]furnished: there make ready.

13 And they went, and found as he had said unto them: [f]and they made ready the passover.

151 The last passover: (1) Lord's supper instituted (Mt. 26:26; Mk. 14:22; Jn. 13)

14 And when the [g]hour was come, he [h]sat down, and [i]the twelve apostles with him.

*15 And he [j]said unto them, With desire I have desired to eat this passover with you before I suffer:

▸16 For I say unto you, I will not any more eat thereof, [k]until it be fulfilled in the [l]kingdom of God.

17 [m]And he took the cup, and gave thanks, and said, Take this, and divide it among yourselves:

▸18 For I say unto you, I will not drink of the [n]fruit of the vine, until the kingdom of God shall come.

▸19 ¶ And he took bread, and gave thanks, and brake it, and gave unto them, saying, This is my body which is given for you: this do in remembrance of me.

▸20 Likewise also the cup after supper, saying, This cup is the new testament in my blood, which is shed for you.

(2) Betrayal by Judas foretold (Mt. 26:20; Mk. 14:17; Jn. 13:18)

21 ¶ But, behold, [o]the hand of him that betrayeth me is with me on the table.

22 And truly the Son of man goeth, as it was determined: but woe unto that man by whom he is betrayed!

23 And they began to enquire among themselves, which of them it was that should do this thing.

(3) Strife over personal greatness (Cp. Mt. 20:24; Mk. 10:41)

24 ¶ And [p]there was also a strife among them, which of them should be accounted the greatest.

25 And he said unto them, The kings of the Gĕn'tīles exercise lordship over them; and they that exercise authority upon them are called benefactors.

26 But ye shall not be so: but he that is greatest among you, let him be as the [q]younger; and he that is chief, as he that doth serve.

27 [r]For whether is greater, he that sitteth at meat, or he that serveth? is not he that sitteth at meat? [s]but I am among you as he that serveth.

*32 But I have prayed for thee, that thy faith fail not: and when thou art [g]converted, strengthen thy brethren.

33 And he said unto him, Lord, [h]I am ready to go with thee, both into prison, and to death.

*34 And he said, I tell thee, Pē'tĕr, [i]the cock shall not crow this day, before that thou shalt thrice deny that thou knowest me.

153 New equipment permitted (Cp. Mt. 10:9-10; Lk. 10:4)

35 And he said unto them, [j]When I sent you without purse, and scrip, and shoes, lacked ye any thing? And they said, Nothing.

*36 Then said he unto them, But now, he that hath a purse, let him take it, and likewise his scrip: [m]and he that hath no sword, let him sell his garment, and buy one.

*37 For I say unto you, that this that is written must yet be accomplished in me, [n]And he was reckoned among the transgressors: for the things concerning me have an end.

38 And they said, Lord, behold, here are two swords. And he said unto them, [o]It is enough.

VI The suffering of Christ

1 Agony in the garden (Mt. 26:36; Mk. 14:32; Jn. 18:1)

39 ¶ And he came out, and went, [p]as he was wont, to the mount of Ŏl'ĭvēş; [q]and his disciples also followed him.

40 And when he was at the place, he said unto them, Pray that ye enter not into temptation.

41 And he was withdrawn from them about a stone's cast, and kneeled down, and prayed, 42 Saying, Father, if thou be willing, remove this [r]cup from me: nevertheless not my will, but thine, be done.

43 And there appeared [s]an angel unto him from heaven, strengthening him.

44 And being in an [t]agony he prayed more earnestly: and his sweat was as it were [u]great drops of blood falling down to the ground.

45 And when he rose up from prayer, and was come to his disciples, he found them sleeping for sorrow, l See notes on Mt. 4:17; 19:24

m The doctrine of the Lord's Supper:
1 It was instituted at the time of the passover meal (v 14-20)
2 It is "the Lord's Supper" (1 Cor. 11:20), "the communion of the blood of Christ," and "the communion of the body of Christ" (1 Cor. 10:16)
3 The elements used were "the fruit of the vine" (grape juice, Mk. 14:25; Lk. 22:18) and unleavened "bread" (Mt. 26:17, 26; Mk. 14:12, 22; Lk. 22:7, 19)
4 The bread was broken, symbolizing the marred and striped body of Christ for our healing (Mt. 26:26; Lk. 22:19; 1 Cor. 10:16; 11:24-29; Isa. 52:14; 53:4-5; 1 Pet. 2:24)
5 The grape juice symbolized the blood of Christ shed for the remission of sins (Mt. 26:28; Mk. 14:24; Lk. 22:20; 1 Cor. 10:16; 11:25-29; Eph. 1:7; Col. 1:14, 20)
6 Each believer is supposed to partake (Mt. 26:26-27; Mk. 14:22; Lk. 22:17; 1 Cor. 10:16-17; 11:28)
7 Thanksgiving and blessings were offered for it (Mt. 26:26-27; Mk. 14:22-23; Lk. 22:17, 19; 1 Cor. 10:16; 11:24)
8 It is a remembrance of the death of Christ until He comes again (Lk. 22:19; 1 Cor. 11:24-26)
9 It can be partaken daily (Acts 2:42, 46), weekly (Acts 20:7; 1 Cor. 10:17) or as "often" as desired (1 Cor. 11:26). Early disciples observed it daily until they began to have weekly meetings, then it was observed every Sunday, according to history and Acts 20:7; 1 Cor. 16:2
10 It will be observed by Christ and all believers in the kingdom of God forever (Mt. 26:29; Mk. 14:25; Lk. 22:18, 30)
11 It is an ordinance that should bring unity and love among believers and not division and strife (1 Cor. 10:16-17; 11:16-30)
12 It should be partaken in faith and proper examination of self for condemnation, sickness and even death may result (1 Cor. 11:17-30) n Gr. gennema, produce of the vine. There is no proof that it was fermented and intoxicating, for it is called "wine" while in the cluster (Isa. 65:8). See Drunkenness p. 92
o That Judas did eat and have his feet washed seems clear in Mt. 26:20-25; Mk. 14:17; Lk. 22:21-23; Jn. 13:2-19 p What a time to have strife! At the very time they should have been concerned about Christ and His sufferings, what did they care about His sufferings? To have strife was enough in itself, but to have no concern over Him, and to strive over being someone great to take over after He died was a disgrace. Now we see the same devilish spirit being manifested in all religious circles over position, power, and authority. Can we ever learn the lessons Christ taught?

r Questions 142-143, Next, v 35
s Man's standard of greatness is to be served; God's is to serve. Man's standard is to receive; God's is to give. Man's standard is to humble others; God's is to humble oneself. Failure to obey God's principles of life caused both Lucifer (Isa. 14:12-14; Ezek. 28:11-17; 1 Tim. 3:6) and Adam to exalt themselves (Gen. 3)

f Gr. exalteo, hath demanded; to obtain by asking. This is what he did in Job's case (Job 1:6; 2:1). God evidently granted him his request, for Jesus adds, "I have prayed for thee, that thy faith fail not" (v 32). g 48th N. T. prophecy in Lk. (22:32, fulfilled). Next, v 34. This does not mean that Peter had not been converted, for he had been and had served God for over 3 years. It simply refers to the fact that he was headed for a fall, and that he would come back to God and be reconverted becoming stronger than before. See The new birth, p. 207 h This kind of pride and boastfulness was the cause of Peter's downfall (Pr. 16:18). Such is likely to happen to anyone who does not take heed (1 Cor. 10:12-13) i 49th N. T. prophecy in Lk. (22:34, fulfilled). Next, v 67.
j Question 144. Next, v 46 k This shows that the former instructions (Mt. 10:9-10) no longer held good, due to the fact that He would not be with them to supply their needs, and because the time had come when hospitality would be scarce due to the persecution of the new religion. It was now all right for them to make preparations for their journeys in preaching the gospel
l See notes, Mt. 10:9-10 m This can be taken literally as it meant protection from wild beasts and robbers that filled Judea, which, if they found them unprotected, would not hesitate to take their lives. Whatever the purpose, the swords were not to be offensive weapons to propagate the gospel n 9th and last O. T. prophecy fulfilled in Lk. (22:37; Isa. 53:12)

p As was His custom q Only eleven, for Judas was gone
r See notes, Mt. 20:22; 26:39
s Note here that the angel strengthened Him to endure His agony. Cp. Mt. 4:11. Perhaps the ordinary human strength could not have endured the agony, the bloody sweat, and the terrible struggle in the garden when Satan and all his forces sought to kill Him before He could get to the cross (Heb. 5:7). We have no way of knowing the terribleness of this conflict. The whole plan of God was at stake. If Satan could have succeeded here or on previous occasions to kill Christ, he could have averted his own doom and kept control of the earth indefinitely. It was imperative that God be victor and Christ get to the cross to pay the penalty for sin and conquer Satan forever (Col. 1:20; 2:14-17; Heb. 2:14-15) t Gr. agonia, a struggle, conflict. It is from agon, a place of assembly, especially the place in which Greeks assembled to celebrate solemn games; a place of contest and struggle of exertion to the utmost to overcome all opposition in attaining the goal. Hence, it is used of Christians in their fight to spread the gospel among their enemies and live victorious to the end (1 Th. 2:2; Phil. 1:30; 1 Tim. 4:12; 2 Tim. 4:7). This proves that Christ was in a life and death struggle in the garden and that He was not going through experiences of ordinary prayer u It is a recognized fact that under extreme mental pressure, the pores may be so dilated that the blood may issue from them; so that there may be bloody sweat. A number of cases are on record of such agony

4 The Roman soldiers
5 A mob of the common people
Not all of these were hostile to Jesus, for Nicodemus and Joseph of Arimathaea were His friends (Jn. 19:38-39)

j A look that Peter never did forget - a look that brought him to his senses and to repentance

k See note s, Lk. 19:41

l Note the different ways they abused Him (v 63-65). A game of "blindman's-buff" was often played. A person blind-folded was struck until he guessed who smote him. In this case they could have much sport unless Christ would tell them by the gift of knowledge and discernment who smote Him, for He was not acquainted with them. Many of these same men had seen Him heal the severed ear. Others had seen Him heal in the temple and elsewhere and yet they were so hard-hearted and godless. Is it any wonder that God abandoned the nation to destruction (Lk. 21:20-24)?

Beelzebub. Christ did no miracle to satisfy his unbelieving curiosity, nor will He do so for men today. But simple and unwavering faith in His name today will still work miracles and supply for any individual that which is promised (Mt. 17:20; 21:22; Mk. 9:23; 11:22-24; Jn. 14:12) p Gr. semeion, a sign. Herod wanted proof - some unusual happening in nature to confirm His claims as Messiah. Christ had already proved every claim of His and had fulfilled every prophecy of what Messiah was to do, so He ignored the wish of the king. Herod had over three years to make proper investigation and would have found many signs if he had in any way been honest and sincere in his seeking for truth. Christ knowing the hypocrisy and unconcern of Herod did not give him any satisfaction by even answering his questions (v 9)

q These arch-rebels had to go along to accuse Him to Herod, so Christ simply let them say what they wanted without an answer

r Gr. eutonos, forcibly. Only here and in Acts 18:28

s Treated Him with contempt and mocked Him and sent Him back to Pilate. Naturally, this was very pleasing to the religious leaders of Israel

t Gr. lampros, shining, brilliant. It was a white robe, the same kind worn by candidates for office in Rome. As a gift from Herod, it was intended to mock our Lord as a claimant of the kingdom. Herod found no cause of death in Him, so we have a second record and public attestation of His innocence. Thus the civil rulers of both Galilee and Judea were in accord that He was innocent and should not be put to death. But divine providence had already decreed that He should die for the sins of the people - the very people that kept demanding His life until Pilate finally gave in and turned Him over to be crucified 46 And said unto them, [a]Why sleep ye? rise and pray, lest ye enter into temptation.

2 Eleventh attempt to kill Jesus: betrayed by Judas: heals the severed ear (Mt. 26:47; Mk. 14:43; Jn. 18:2)

47 ¶ And while he yet spake, behold a multitude, and he that was called Jū'das, one of the twelve, went before them, and drew near unto Jē'şus to [b]kiss him.

48 But Jē'şus said unto him, Jū'das, betrayest thou the Son of man with a kiss?

49 When they which were about him saw what would follow, they said unto him, Lord, shall [c]we smite with the sword?

50 ¶ And [d]one of them smote the servant of the high priest, and cut off his right ear.

51 And Jē'şus answered and said, [e]Suffer ye thus far. And he touched his ear, and healed him.

52 Then Jē'şus said unto [f]the chief priests, and captains of the temple, and the elders, which were come to him, Be ye come out, as against a thief, with swords and staves?

53 When I was daily with you in the temple, ye stretched forth no hands against me: [g]but this is your hour, and the power of darkness.

3 Peter's denial of Jesus (Mt. 26:69; Mk. 14:66; Jn. 18:15, 25)

54 ¶ [h]Then took they him, and led him, and brought him into the high priest's house. And Pē'tēr followed afar off.

55 And when they had kindled a fire in the midst of the hall, and were set down together, Pē'tēr sat down among them.

56 But a certain maid beheld him as he sat by the fire, and earnestly looked upon him, and said, This man was also with him.

57 And he denied him, saying, Woman, I know him not.

58 And after a little while another saw him, and said, Thou art also of them. And Pē'tēr said, Man, I am not.

59 And about the space of one hour after another confidently affirmed, saying, Of a truth this fellow also was with him: for he is a Gāl-ī-læ'an.

60 And Pē'tēr said, Man, I know not what thou sayest. And immediately, while he yet spake, [i]the cock crew.

61 And the Lord turned, [j]and looked upon Pē'tēr. And Pē'tēr remembered the word of the Lord, how he had said unto him, Before the cock crow, thou shalt deny me thrice.

62 And Pē'tēr went out, [k]and wept bitterly.

4 Trial and mockery of Jesus (Mt. 26:57; Mk. 14:53; Jn. 18:12, 19)

63 ¶ And the men that held Jē'şus mocked him, and smote him.

64 And when they had blindfolded him, they struck him on the face, and asked him, saying, [l]Prophesy, who is it that smote thee?

65 And many other things blasphemously spake they against him.

66 ¶ And as soon [m]as it was day, the elders of the people and the chief priests and the scribes came together, and led him into their council, saying,

*67 [n]Art thou the Christ? tell us. And he said unto them, [o]If I tell you, ye will not believe:

68 And if I also ask you, ye will not answer me, nor let me go.

69 Hereafter shall the Son of man sit on the right hand of the power of God.

70 Then said they all, [p]Art thou then the Son of God? And he said unto them, [q]Ye say that I am.

71 And they said, What need we any further witness? for we ourselves have heard of his own mouth.

67 CHAPTER 23

5 Jesus before Pilate (Mt. 27:1, 11; Mk. 15:1; Jn. 18:28; 19:8)

AND the [a]whole multitude of them arose, and led him unto Pī'late.

2 And they began to [b]accuse him, saying, We found this fellow perverting the nation, and forbidding to give tribute to Cæ'şar, saying that he himself is Christ a King.

3 And Pī'late asked him, saying, [c]Art thou the King of the Jews? And he answered him and said, Thou sayest it.

4 Then said Pī'late to the chief priests and to the people, [d]I find no fault in this man.

5 And they were the more fierce, saying, He [e]stirreth up the people, teaching throughout all Jew'rў, beginning from Gāl'ī-lee to this place.

6 Jesus mocked by Herod (13:31)

6 When Pī'late heard of Gāl'ī-lee, he asked whether the man were a Gāl-ī-læ'an.

7 And as soon as he knew that he belonged unto Hĕr'od's jurisdiction, he sent him to [f]Hĕr'od, who himself also was at Jē-rų'sā-lĕm at that time.

8 ¶ And when Hĕr'od [g]saw Jē'şus, he was exceeding glad: for he was desirous to see him of a [h]long season, because he had heard many things of him; and he [i]hoped to have seen some [j]miracle done by him.

9 Then he questioned with him in many words; but he answered him nothing.

10 And the [k]chief priests and scribes stood and [l]vehemently accused him.

11 And Hĕr'od with his men of war set him [m]at nought, and mocked him, and arrayed him in a [n]gorgeous robe, and sent him again to Pī'late.

12 ¶ And the same day Pī'- b He had been tried most of the night. Both the Jews and Pilate had examined Jesus before midnight on our Tuesday night, or their Wednesday, which was from sunset Tuesday to sunset Wednesday (Jn. 19:14). He had already been scourged also (Jn. 19:1). Between midnight and morning the demand for His life had continued. Now in the early morning He was again taken into the Jewish council and questioned about His claim of being the Messiah and the Son of God. His answer was considered blasphemy, so they took Him to Pilate again (Lk. 22:66-23:5). He then sent Him to Herod who mocked Him and sent Him back to Pilate who finally gave Him up to be crucified (Lk. 23:6-26)

c Question 150, Next, v 70

d 50th N. T. prophecy in Lk. (22:67-69, v 67-68 are fulfilled and v 69 is unfulfilled). Next, 23:28. If I show you the many proofs that I am the Messiah, which you already know, you will not believe. If I ask you to show Me one prophecy of the Messiah that I have not fulfilled, you will pretend ignorance, will refuse to answer Me, and will continue in your rebellion and unbelief. The next proof that I will give you is My exaltation at the right hand of God, and My coming again in glory (v 67-69; Mt. 26:63-65)

e Questions 151-152. Next, 23:3

f A Hebraism denoting a strong affirmation. The claim of Sonship was one of 10 reasons they crucified Christ (note d, Jn. 8:40)

g By this time the multitudes were under the spell of the high priests, elders, and demon powers, and had forgotten the triumphant entries of Christ when they hailed Him as the Messiah

b Accuse Him of 3 things:
1 Perverting (agitating) the nation to rebellion against Caesar. He did just the opposite of this (Isa. 41:8; 42:1; Mt. 12:19)
2 Forbidding to give tribute to Caesar. He taught to render to Caesar the things that were his (Lk. 20:25)
3 Claiming to be king instead of Caesar. This He did not do, for He said His kingdom was not of this world (Jn. 18:36). He refused the offer to be king and taught that this was not the time of His kingdom (Jn. 6:15; Lk. 19:11-27; Acts 1:6-7). He did not deny that He was born to be the king of the Jews, but He made it clear that this was not the time to establish a kingdom

j No honest man has ever found fault with Christ and His program k Gr. anaselo, instigates. A stronger word than "pervert" of v 2. There was no let up of His enemies to accuse Him and to demand His life. Pilate was too strong to be moved by jealousy at Christ's claim to be king of the Jews. He disregarded the charges of rebellion against Caesar. Regardless of how his feelings were about this extraordinary man, he gave an honest judicial Gentile testimony of the innocence of the Lord, and an abiding record of the injustice and cruelty of His Jewish persecutors l This was Herod Antipas, governor of Galilee, who had beheaded John the Baptist. He had come to Jerusalem to keep the passover. This was Pilate's first attempt to escape responsibility of killing an innocent man. He perhaps thought Herod would punish or release Him since He was a Galilean. Note the other 3 attempts to release Him, declaring His innocence each time (v 13-23)

m The next time he sees Jesus he will be exceedingly sad and in eternal remorse over his many sins. He will especially remember that this very man whom he mocked could have saved his soul from eternal hell. Herod and all others will be forced to bow the knee to Him (Phil. 2:9-11)

n It will be a much longer, yea, an eternal season that he will regret ever having seen Jesus and had the opportunity to mock Him

o Since he acknowledged Christ had miraculous powers, why did he so mistreat Him, unless it was that, like the Pharisees, he was jealous and wilfully and maliciously attributed His power to a This enmity is supposed to have come between them because Pilate had mingled the blood of Galileans with their sacrifices (Lk. 13:1-2)

b This is the second public confession of Pilate, who also publicly acknowledged that the civil rulers of Galilee had found no fault in Him (v 4, 13-15). Pilate now planned to release Him, thinking that His enemies would be satisfied by another whipping, but in this he was mistaken. They were determined to see Him die. Pilate next offered them Christ or Barabbas, thinking that they surely would choose Christ to a real criminal, but again he was mistaken

c All together, or in a mass, so as to confuse Pilate and change his decision. Pilate spoke again of releasing Him; and still a third time since coming back from Herod, he testified of Christ's innocence, but they would not listen to reason (v 20-22) d Question 154, Next, v 31. They could not answer this question, which further showed malice and hatred

e Gr. epikeimai, to press upon, be urgent. Cp. Lk. 7:4; Acts 26:7; Rom. 12:12; 2 Tim. 4:2

f Had power to wear down Pilate's will to release Jesus, so he finally broke and submitted to their will (v 23-26)

g Mt. 27:31-34; Mk. 15:20-23, notes

h These of the sex that first sinned now stayed more true to the Saviour than those of the sex which chose to sin without being deceived (1 Tim. 2:14)

i Beat their breasts and lamented

j 51st N. T. prophecy in Lk. (23:28-31, fulfilled, 70 A. D., when Jerusalem was destroyed). Next, 23:43. These women were of Jerusalem, not the ones from Galilee of v 49, 55. They were told to weep for themselves and for their children. Christ foresaw their terrible sufferings about 40 years later when many in this same crowd perished in the horrible carnage which took place on the capture of the city. See notes, 21:20-24

k This no doubt was said many times by women in the siege of Jerusalem when children died by the thousands in the famine

l This word "Then" connects the prophecy with the destruction of Jerusalem, 70 A. D., and therefore, could not refer to the 6th seal of Rev. 6:12-17, which will be fulfilled in the first half of Daniel's 70th week after the rapture of the Church. This is simply a cry of despair, hoping for any kind of death in preference to what they were facing. This was the desire of the multitude during the siege and at the fall of Jerusalem

m Question 155, Next, v 40. This is a proverbial expression referring to His sufferings compared with that of the nation in 70 A. D., Jesus as the "green tree," fair and fruitful; the Jews or the nation as the "dry tree," dead and unfruitful. If the Romans thus consent to deliver up and crucify the innocent, who has never given them cause of offense, what will they do to the nation who will provoke them?

The term "green tree" is one of many references to the humanity of Jesus

1 Human names (Mt. 1:1, 21; 2:2; 8:20; 9:19; Jn. 1:29, 41; 4:25; 20:16; Rom. 1:3; 1 Cor. 15:45; Rev. 5:5; 22:16)

2 Human mother (Gen. 3:15; Isa. 7:14; 9:6-7; 11:1; Mt. 1:18-23; Gal. 4:4)

3 Human babyhood (Lk. 2:16), childhood (Lk. 2:40, 52), and manhood (1 Tim. 2:5)

4 Human flesh-and-blood body (Jn. 1:14; Heb. 2:14-18; 1 Jn. 4:1-6)

5 Human in all things like men (Heb. 2:9-18; 4:14-16)

6 Human in life on earth (Lk. 2:40, 52; Jn. 5:30-46; 8:57; 7:16; 8:27-29; Phil. 2:5-11; Heb. 2:9-18; 4:14-16; 5:7-9)

7 Human in limitations and passions: grew in body and spirit (Lk. 2:40, 52), wept (Jn. 11:35), hungered (Mt. 4:1-11; Mk. 11:12), thirsted (Jn. 4:7; 19:28), slept (Mt. 8:24), grew weary (Jn. 4:6), sorrowed (Isa. 53:3-4), suffered bodily pain (Lk. 22:44; 1 Pet. 3:18; 4:1); craved sympathy (Mt. 26:36-40; Lk. 22:15-27), was tempted (Mt. 4; Heb. 4:14-16), died physically (Jn. 19:30; Acts 1:3; 2:23; 1 Pet. 2:24), and was resurrected bodily to live in a glorified human body forever (Lk. 24:49; Jn. 20:27; 1 Cor. 15; Zech. 13:6) late and Hĕr'od were made friends together: for before they were at[a] enmity between themselves.

7 Jesus condemned: Barabbas released (Mt. 27:15; Mk. 15:7; Jn. 18:38)

13 ¶ And Pī'late, when he had called together the chief priests and the rulers and the people, 14 Said unto them, Ye have brought this man unto me, as one that perverteth the people: and, behold, I, having examined him before you, have found [b]no fault in this man touching those things whereof ye accuse him:
15 No, nor yet Hĕr'od: for I sent you to him; and, lo, nothing worthy of death is done unto him.
16 I will therefore chastise him, and release him.
17 (For of necessity he must release one unto them at the feast.)
18 And they cried out[c] all at once, saying, Away with this man, and release unto us Bär'äb'bas:
19 (Who for a certain sedition made in the city, and for murder, was cast into prison.)
20 Pī'late therefore, willing to release Jē'şus, spake again to them.
21 But they cried, saying, Crucify him, crucify him.
22 And he said unto them the third time, [d]Why, what evil hath he done? I have found no cause of death in him: I will therefore chastise him, and let him go.
23 And they were[e] instant with loud voices, requiring that he might be crucified. And the voices of them and of the chief priests[f] prevailed.
24 And Pī'late gave sentence that it should be as they required.
25 And he released unto them him that for sedition and murder was cast into prison, whom they had desired; but he delivered Jē'şus to their will.
26 [g]And as they led him away, they laid hold upon one Sī'mon, a Çў-rē'nĭ-an, coming out of the country, and on him they laid the cross, that he might bear it after Jē'şus.

8 The weeping women

27 ¶ And there followed him a great company of people, and of[h] women, which also [i]bewailed and lamented him.
[k]28 But Jē'şus turning unto them said, [j]Daughters of Jē-rų'sā-lĕm, weep not for me, but weep for yourselves, and for your children.
29 For, behold, the days are coming, in the which they shall say, [k]Blessed are the barren, and the wombs that never bare, and the paps which never gave suck.
30 [l]Then shall they begin to say to the mountains, Fall on us; and to the hills, Cover us.
31 [m]For if they do these things in a green tree, what shall be done in the dry?

9 The crucifixion of Jesus (Mt. 27:33; Mk. 15:22; Jn. 19:16)

32 And there were also two other, [a]malefactors, led with him to be put to death.
33 And when they were come to the place, which is [b]called Căl'vą-rў, there they crucified him, and the malefactors, one on the right hand, and the other on the left.
34 ¶ Then said Jē'şus, [c]Father, forgive them; for they know not what they do. [d]And they parted his raiment, and cast lots.
35 And the people stood beholding. And the rulers also with them [e]derided him, saying, He saved others; [f]let him save himself, if he be Christ, the chosen of God.
36 And the [g]soldiers also mocked him, coming to him,
37 And offering him vinegar,
38 And saying, [h]If thou be the king of the Jews, save thyself.
38 And a [i]superscription also was written over him in letters of Greek, and Lăt'in, and Hē'brew, THIS IS THE KING OF THE JEWS.

10 The penitent thief

39 ¶ And [j]one of the malefactors which were hanged railed on him, saying, If thou be Christ, save thyself and us.
40 But the other answering rebuked him, saying, [k]Dost not thou fear God, seeing thou art in the same condemnation?
41 And we indeed justly; for we receive the due reward of our deeds: but this man hath done nothing amiss.
42 And he said unto Jē'şus, Lord, remember me when thou comest into thy kingdom.
[k]43 And Jē'şus said unto him, Verily I say unto thee, [m]To day shalt thou be with me [n]in paradise.

11 The death of Jesus (Mt. 27:45; Mk. 15:33; Jn. 19:28)

44 And it was about the [o]sixth hour, and there was a darkness over all the earth until the ninth hour.
45 And the sun was darkened, and the [p]veil of the temple was rent in the midst.
46 ¶ And when Jē'şus had cried with a loud voice, he said, Father, into thy hands [q]I commend my [r]spirit: and having said thus, he gave up the ghost.
47 Now when the centurion saw what was done, he glorified God, saying, [s]Certainly this was a righteous man.
48 And all the people that came together to that sight, beholding the things which were done, [t]smote their breasts, and returned.
49 And [u]all his acquaintance, and the women that followed him from Găl'ĭ-lee, stood afar off, beholding these things.

12 The burial of Jesus (Mt. 27:57; Mk. 15:42; Jn. 19:38)

a Evil-doers, criminals, knaves, villains. There seems to have been two crucified with Him and two more a little later, making five crosses. See note i, Mt. 27:38

b The place of a skull, called in Heb., Golgotha, a hill that looked like a skull. See note d, Mt. 27:33 c The last of 7 occasions of prayer of Jesus in Luke. See note p, 3:21. Cp. Acts 7:60

e Turned up their noses at Him, mocking (Lk. 16:14. Cp. Ps. 2:4; 22:7; 35:16)

f This manifests utter ignorance of the mission of the Messiah and of the gospel. If He had saved His life, He could not have saved others (Mt. 16:25; Mk. 8:35; Lk. 9:24; 17:33).

g This could be expected of heathen soldiers out of contempt of the Jewish nation, and loyalty to their emperor, whose sovereignty they thought was insulted by the Lord's claim of being born king of the Jews. One would not expect religious leaders to be so hardhearted as these regardless of how just their cause might seem to be at the time

h Note the three statements of the religious and heathen mockers (v 35, 37, 39)

i See note, Mk. 15:26

j An indication that there were four crucified with Christ, for both thieves railed on Him, but only one of the malefactors (Mt. 27:44; Mk. 15:32)

k Question 156, Next, 24:5

Two dying criminals contrasted:

1 One mocked Christ, demonstrating utter lack of reason (v 39)

2 One demonstrated the highest type of intelligence in 8 ways (v 40-43):
(1) Feared God (v 40)
(2) Rebuked another for not fearing God (v 40)
(3) Acknowledged his own condemnation and helpless state (v 40)
(4) Acknowledged justice for crimes committed (v 41)
(5) Confessed faith in the innocence of Christ who had been cleared by all civil rulers of any wrongdoing and who was being crucified solely because of religious jealousy and malice, as could be seen by all men (v 41)
(6) Confessed Jesus as Lord (v 42)
(7) Confessed faith in the eventual triumph of Christ's kingdom (v 42)
(8) Asked mercy and forgiveness of Jesus Christ (v 42)

l 52nd N. T. prophecy in Lk. (23:43, fulfilled when Christ and the penitent criminal went to paradise in the lower parts of the earth, Eph. 4:8-10; Ps. 16:10; Mt. 12:40; Heb. 2:14-15). Next, 24:7. The rebellious one went to hell where the rich man was (Lk. 16:19-31; Rev. 20:11-15)

m It must be remembered that no Gr. MSS. had any punctuation of any kind until the 9th century and then it was only a dot in the middle of the line separating each word. All punctuation, therefore, rests upon human authority. This is a statement of fact and not a question. The Gr. reads, "Verily I say to thee, Today with me thou shalt be in paradise"

n The paradise here is the one in the lower part of the earth (note 1, above), not the one in the third heaven (2 Cor. 12:1-3). It is true, that if one went into this paradise where the righteous went before Christ captured them and took them to heaven, he would also go to the paradise in heaven with Christ (2 Cor. 12:1-4; Rev. 2:7). See note e, Lk. 16:23

r The soul and spirit that leave the body at physical death (Jas. 2:26). His body went to the tomb and He went to paradise (note 1, above)

s He said this and also, "Truly this was the Son of God" (Mt. 27:54)

t These fearful sights and supernatural acts made men realize the great sin they had committed u All His disciples watched from afar. Some stood near the cross for a time (Jn. 19:25-27) and then retired to a farther distance (v 49; Mt. 27:55-56)

a One of two secret disciples who buried Him: Nicodemus and Joseph (Jn. 3:1-9; 7:50; 19:39)
b Both Joseph and Nicodemus spoke up for Christ (v 51; Jn. 7:50). Both were members of the sanhedrin (v 50; Jn. 3:1, 10). At least, both voted against killing Jesus, for the word trans. consented here means deposit one's vote or opinion along with others
c This was the great concern of all godly in Israel (Lk. 2:25, 38; 19:11; Acts 1:6-7)
d Gr. aiteo, same word for required (v 23) and desired (v 25)

f Day of preparation for the feast
g The high sabbath, the first day of the feast, not the ordinary weekly sabbath, which was yet two full days away. The special sabbath or the first day of the feast of unleavened bread always came on the 15th of Nisan regardless of what day of the week it fell on. It was on Thursday at this time, which was from our Wednesday sunset to Thursday sunset. Christ was in the tomb 3 full days and 3 full nights (Mt. 12:40)
h Proving the disciples were present when He was buried i Our Saturday sunset to Sunday sunset. They came early on Sunday morning and found Christ already risen, proving He had been resurrected sometime during the night or at the end of the 3 days and 3 nights He was in hell and His body in the tomb (Mt. 12:40). See notes, Mt. 28:1; Mk. 16:1; Jn. 20:1
j First occurrence of this full title. It is found 40 times in the epistles k Matthew and Mark both mention only one angel, but one could have been in the tomb and one on the stone door, so Luke gives the more complete account l Question 157. Next, v 17. One of the clearest things about these events is that Christ was bodily resurrected from the dead and that He is alive forever (v 5-51; 1 Cor. 15:1-23; Rom. 8:34; Eph. 1:20-23; Heb. 7:8, 25; Rev. 1:18)
m 53rd N. T. prophecy in Lk. (24:7, fulfilled). Next, v 49 n The disciples evidently had a common meeting place, perhaps in the upper room where the last supper was held and where they tarried for the Holy Spirit (Lk. 22:12; Acts 1:13)
o One of 6 Mary's, and healed by Jesus (Mk. 16:9; Lk. 8:2-3). Present at the crucifixion (Mt. 27:56; Mk. 15:40; Jn. 19:25), at the tomb (Mt. 27:61; 28:1-7; Mk. 15:47; 16:1-7; Lk. 23:49, 55; 24:1-7; Jn. 20:1, 11-13). First to see Jesus after the resurrection (Mk. 16:9; Jn. 20:14-18)
p Wife of Chuza, the steward of Herod, and a disciple of Jesus (Lk. 8:3; 24:10)
q One of 6 Mary's (Gr. Maria), wife of Cleopas and sister of Mary the mother of Jesus (Mt. 27:56; Mk. 15:40; Jn. 19:25). She was with other women at the tomb and a witness of the resurrection (Mt. 27:61; 28:1; Mk. 15:47; 16:1; Lk. 24:10) r The son of Alphaeus and cousin of Jesus and brother to Judas (not Iscariot), Matthew, and Simon Zelotes (note n, Lk. 6:16). One of the 12 apostles (Mt. 10:3; Mk. 3:18; Lk. 6:15; Acts 1:13). Not the James of Mt. 13:55; Mk. 6:3, who was the half-brother of Jesus (note d, Lk. 8:19). He is distinguished from James the half-brother of Jesus in Acts 1:13-14 s Gr. leros, silly nonsense. Occurs only here and is a medical term for delirium t Who would believe as long as they held this to be silly nonsense, as in note s, above?

5 Simeon's in Scripture (2:25):

1 Son of Jacob (Gen. 29:33, note)
2 An ancestor of Jesus (Lk. 3:30)
3 A disciple, Niger (Acts 13:1)
4 Peter (Acts 15:14)
5 A Jew in Jerusalem who:
(1) Was just and devout (v 25)
(2) Waited for the Messiah (v 25)
(3) Had the Holy Spirit (v 25)
(4) Received a revelation (v 26)
(5) Was led by the Spirit (v 27)
(6) Handled Jesus (v 28, Cp. 1 Jn. 1)
(7) Prophesied (v 28-35)
(8) Blessed Joseph and Mary (v 34)

50 ¶ And, behold, there was a man named[a] Jō'ṣeph, a counsellor; and he was a good man, and a just:

51 (The same had[b] not consented to the counsel and deed of them;) he was of Ăr-ĭ-mă-thæ'ă, a city of the Jews: who also himself[c] waited for the kingdom of God.

52 This man went unto Pī'late, and[d] begged the body of Jē'sus.

53 And he took it down, and wrapped it in[e] linen, and laid it in a sepulchre that was hewn in stone, wherein never man before was laid.

54 And that day was [f]the preparation, and the[g] sabbath drew on.

55 And the women also, which came with him from Gă'lĭ-lee, followed after, and beheld the sepulchre, and[h] how his body was laid.

56 And they returned, and prepared spices and ointments; and rested the sabbath day according to the commandment.

68 CHAPTER 24

VII Post-resurrection ministry of Jesus

1 Angelic testimony to the resurrection (Mt. 28:1; Mk. 16:1; Acts 1:11)

NOW upon the[i] first day of the week, very early in the morning, they came unto the sepulchre, bringing the spices which they had prepared, and certain others with them.

2 And they found the stone rolled away from the sepulchre.

3 And they entered in, and found not the body of the[j] Lord Jē'sus.

4 And it came to pass, as they were much perplexed thereabout, behold,[k] two men stood by them in shining garments:

5 And as they were afraid, and bowed down their faces to the earth, they said unto them, [l]Why seek ye the living among the dead?

6 He is not here, but is risen: remember how he spake unto you when he was yet in Gă'lĭ-lee,

★7 Saying,[m] The Son of man must be delivered into the hands of sinful men, and be crucified, and the third day rise again.

8 And they remembered his words,

2 Testimony of women to the resurrection of Jesus (Mt. 28:8; Mk. 16:8; Jn. 20:11)

9 And returned from the sepulchre, and told all these things unto the eleven,[n] and to all the rest.

10 It was[o] Mā'rў Măg-da-lē'nē, and[p] Jō-ăn'nă, and[q] Mā'rў the mother of James, and other women that were with them, which told these things unto the apostles.

11 And their words seemed to them as[r] idle tales, and [s]they believed them not.

3 The empty tomb (Lk. 24:34)

12 Then [a]arose Pē'tĕr, and ran unto the sepulchre; and stooping down, he beheld the linen clothes [b]laid by themselves, and departed, wondering in himself at that which was come to pass.

4 Christ appears to two disciples: (1) Trip to Emmaus

13 ¶ And, behold, [c]two of them went that same day to a village called [d]Ĕm-mā'us, which was from Jĕ-rų'să-lĕm about threescore furlongs.

14 And they talked together of all these things which had happened.

(2) Jesus appears and questions them

15 And it came to pass, that, while they communed together and reasoned, Jē'sus himself drew near, and went with them.

16 But their eyes were[e] holden that they should not know him.

17 And he said unto them, [f]What manner of communications are these that ye have one to another, as ye walk, and are sad?

(3) The story of the events

18 And the one of them, whose name was Clē'o-păs, answering said unto him, Art thou only a stranger in Jĕ-rų'să-lĕm, and hast not known the things which are come to pass there in these days?

19 And he said unto them, What things? And they said unto him, Concerning Jē'sus of Năz'a-rĕth, which was a prophet mighty in deed and word before God and all the people:

20 And how the chief priests and our rulers delivered him to be condemned to death, and have crucified him.

21 But we trusted that it had been he which should have redeemed Is'ra-el: and beside all this, to day is the third day since these things were done.

22 Yea, and certain women also of our company made us astonished, which were early at the sepulchre;

23 And when they found not his body, they came,[s] saying, that they had also seen a vision of angels, which said that he was alive.

24 And certain of them which were with us went to the sepulchre, and found it even so as the women had said: but him they saw not.

(4) Jesus rebukes their unbelief: expounds the Scriptures

25 Then he said unto them, O [t]fools, and slow of heart to believe [i]all that the prophets have spoken:

26 [j]Ought not Christ to have suffered these things, and to enter into his glory?

27 And beginning at Mō'ses a Note the 6 things Peter did as in this verse—arose, ran, stooped, saw, departed, wondered. The one thing he should have done was to believe, but this did not occur to him thus far b This is important evidence that He was not stolen by the disciples, as the Jews paid soldiers to report (Mt. 28:12-15) c One was Cleopas, the father of James the Less, and husband of Mary (Gr. Maria), the sister of Mary (v 10, 16; Jn. 19:25). The other one is not known, but many ancient and modern men hold that it was Luke himself who was one of the seventy (Lk. 10), and the reason he did not mention himself was that he was the writer of this story d Josephus, Wars of the Jews, book VII, 6, mentions Emmaus the same distance as in Lk. 24:13, threescore furlongs from Jerusalem, or about 6 miles. The location is not given, but some think it was southwest of Jerusalem e Gr. krateo, to hold in check, restrain; to retain, to keep, and to lay hold upon. Just how their eyes were held from recognizing Him, whether He was changed in appearance so they could not know Him, or what miraculous agency was involved is not clear. This much is clear: He could appear and disappear; make Himself known and unknown; and change Himself to appear in various ways (Mk. 16:9, 12; Lk. 24:16, 31, 36-43; Jn. 20:14-16, 19, 26; 21:4; Rev. 1:12-17; 10:1-3). In Lk. 24:16, 31; Jn. 20:14-15 it seems their eyes were affected, and in the other passages it seems He changed form when He did not appear normally, so that they would not know Him f Questions 158-160. Next, v 26. They were discussing the events of the last few days, not knowing that this stranger knew more about them than they did. Christ wanted to hear from them how they really felt about these events. They reviewed for Him all things and how they had trusted that He had been the true Messiah (v 19-24). Their speech would not be clear to a total stranger of these events and doctrines g The events were so unbelieveable and considered such silly nonsense (note s, v 11), it was no wonder that the actual appearance of angels seemed but a vision. The investigators found the tomb empty, but they could not find Jesus (v 24) h Gr. anoetos, dull, foolish, slow of understanding and faith. Trans. unwise (Rom. 1:14); fool (Lk. 24:25); and foolish (Gal. 3:1, 3; 1 Tim. 6:9; Tit. 3:3)

i All, not a part of the prophecies. Jews were good at believing the glory and the greatness of the kingdom that would make them great in the eyes of the Gentiles, but they would not believe those of the humility and sufferings. They crucified Him because He did not fulfil their hopes and ambitions or even sympathize with them under the Roman yoke
j Question 161. Next, v 32. Should not Christ fulfil the many prophecies of sufferings He had experienced the last few days, as well as the prophecies of glory and power? The first prophecy of the Bible concerns His suffering and struggles with Satan (Gen. 3:15). Other whole chapters are devoted to this (Ps. 22; Isa. 53; Ex. 12). Many separate passages reveal the sufferings of the Messiah (Isa. 50:4-7; 52:14; Dan. 9:26; Zech. 13:6-7). All the types of the sacrifices and offerings from Abel on picture the sufferings, so beginning with Moses and all the prophets He made it clear why these events had to take place before the coming in glory and the kingdom (v 25-27)

8 filled with Spirit in Luke (2:25):

1 John the Baptist (1:15-17, 80)
2 Mary (1:35, 46-55)
3 Elisabeth (1:41-45)
4 Zacharias (1:67-79)
5 Simeon (2:25-35)
6 Anna the prophetess (2:36-38)
7 Disciples (Lk. 9:1-6; 10:1-20 with Mt. 10:1-8, 20)
8 Jesus Christ (2:40-52). Jesus, the disciples, and Mary were later baptized in the Spirit (3:21; Acts 1:4-14; 2:1-11) a No deception, but what every rule of ordinary civility required. As a mere traveler He had no right to impose upon them

b Gr. parabiazomai, to constrain one by entreaties; to compel by force. Used only here and in Acts 16:15 c The similarity of these acts to the institution of the Lord's Supper (Mt. 26: 26), would indicate that He celebrated it here to open their eyes and prove to them that He was no stranger after all.

d He became invisible to them. They could have reported that they had seen a vision, as they took the angelic appearance in v 23, but this was too real. He had actually walked miles with them, had questioned them, expounded the Scriptures to them, had yielded to their entreaties to abide with them, and had eaten food with them. This was no vision. It was real

f Their business here could wait. We must go back at once and tell the others that we have seen the Lord and what He has said to us g They found all the Christians still in meeting discussing the new developments of the resurrection events. That was a full day. Christ and angels had appeared to Mary, the other women, and to Peter (v 34), the tomb had been examined, Christ was missing, the news was spreading, and Christians were in their first meeting on the first day of the week, which lasted into the night of the second day of the week. Now here suddenly came two others with a glowing report. There would be no sleep this night!

h The last report was under discussion - the Lord had appeared to Peter who was now forgiven, re-converted and ready to strengthen the brethern (Lk. 22:32, note)

i The two from Emmaus reported their experience and how they got to know Him in the breaking of bread. As they finished speaking, Jesus suddenly appeared in His visible form in their midst (v 36). It was such a sudden and miraculous appearance that it terrified the disciples who took Him for a ghost (v 37)

j Questions 163-164. Next, v 41. I am the same Jesus that walked with you for several years. I am not a ghost or a spirit. I have a human body of flesh and bones that you can handle just as much as before. Handle Me and see. What could be clearer than that Jesus was resurrected bodily, not in spirit. His spirit and soul did not die, so they could not have been resurrected. Only the body died and only the body was resurrected (Jas. 2:26; Ps. 16:10; 1 Cor. 15). The inner man is immortal and cannot become dormant (1 Pet. 3:4). It can be separated from God in sins, but it is still conscious (Isa. 59:2; Eph. 2:1-9; 1 Tim. 5:6) k 21 proofs of bodily resurrection:

1 Behold, My hands and My feet (v 39)
2 It is I Myself, not another and a different person (v 39)
3 Handle Me, and see (v 39)
4 A spirit hath not flesh and bones, as you see Me have (v 39)
5 He showed them His hands and His feet (v 40; Jn. 20:20)
6 He took fish and honeycomb and did eat before them (v 41-43)
7 He is risen (Mt. 28:6-7; Mk. 16:6). What is risen? It could not be His soul and spirit for they did not die. They went into hell to preach and carry on work (Ps. 16:10; Lk. 23:43; Eph. 4:8-10; 1 Pet. 3:19; Heb. 2:14-15). His body is the only thing that died (Jas. 2:26) and the only thing that could have been resurrected (Lk. 24:39; Zech. 13:6; Acts 1:11)
8 They held Him by the feet (Mt. 28:9; Lk. 24:39-40)
9 They saw Him (Mt. 28:17; Jn. 20: 19-20)
10 They found not the body (Lk. 24:3, 23). Why? Because it was resurrected (Lk. 24:39-43)
11 Why seek you the living (body) among the dead bodies (Lk. 24:5-6; Jas. 2:26)? Did they go to the tomb seeking a spirit to embalm, or was it the body they sought? Then it was the body that was risen from the dead 12 Jesus Himself drew near... He sat at meat with them... they knew Him (Lk. 24:16, 30-31)
13 Angels said He was alive (Lk. 24: 23; Mt. 28:6-7; Mk. 16:6)
14 Jesus Himself stood in the midst of them (Lk. 24:36; Jn. 20:19). What was it that stood in their midst? They thought it was a spirit (Lk. 24:37), but Jesus assured them that it was not a spirit. It was His own body that had been with them for years (Lk. 24:39-43)
15 It behoved Christ to be crucified, and to rise from the dead (Lk. 24:46). What was it that was crucified? The same thing that rose from the dead
16 He lifted up His hands... He was parted from them, and carried into heaven (Lk. 24:51-52). Whose hands were these? Were they the hands of a spirit? What was it that was separated from them and taken to heaven? If it was not a spirit, as He said (Lk. 24:37-43), then it was His body
17 They have taken away the Lord out of the sepulchre... For as yet they knew not the Scripture, that He must rise from the dead (Jn. 20:2, 9). The missing body made no less than 12 appearances to hundreds of witnesses (note k, Jn. 21:14). It was not taken away. It was resurrected and is alive today at the right hand of God (Mk. 16: 19; Acts 2:33; Rom. 8:34; Heb. 1:3; 12:2)
18 Except I shall see in His hands the print of the nails, and put my finger into the print of the nails, and thrust my hand into His side, I will not believe. Thomas had opportunity 8 days later, proving His body was literally resurrected (Jn. 20:25-29; Lk. 24:37-43)
19 In all resurrections the bodies were made alive again, not the souls (1 Ki. 17:17-24; 2 Ki. 4:18-37; 13:21; Jn. 11; etc.). To argue that Christ's body is the only one never to be resurrected is extreme rebellion, for many scriptures say it was raised (Acts 2:31; 4:33; Rom. 1:4; 1 Pet. 3:21; etc.)
20 One shall say unto Him in eternity, "What are these wounds in thine hands? Then, he shall answer, Those with which I was wounded in the house of my friends" (Zech. 13:6)
21 He was buried... He arose again (1 Cor. 15:1-58)
In this scripture it is clear that anyone who does not believe in the bodily resurrection of Christ will be lost and all the prophets, he expounded unto them in all the scriptures the things concerning himself.

(5) Jesus made known to them

28 And they drew nigh unto the village, whither they went. and he [a]made as though he would have gone further.

29 But they [b]constrained him, saying, Abide with us: for it is toward evening, and the day is far spent. And he went in to tarry with them.

30 And it came to pass, as he sat at meat with them, [c]he took bread, and blessed it, and brake, and gave to them.

31 And their eyes were opened, and they knew him; and [d]he vanished out of their sight.

32 And they said one to another, [e]Did not our heart burn within us, while he talked with us by the way, and while he opened to us the scriptures?

(6) Their report to apostles

33 And they rose up [f]the same hour, and returned to Jĕ-rụ'sā-lĕm, and found the eleven gathered together, and [g]them that were with them, 34 [h]Saying, The Lord is risen indeed, and hath appeared to Sī'mon.

35 And [i]they told what things were done in the way, and how he was known of them in breaking of bread.

5 Jesus appears to ten: Thomas absent (Cp. Jn. 20:19)

36 ¶ And as they thus spake, Jē'sus himself stood in the midst of them, and saith unto them, Peace be unto you.

37 But they were terrified and affrighted, and supposed that they had seen a spirit.

(7) Proof of His bodily resurrection (note k, Jn. 21:14)

38 And he said unto them, [j]Why are ye troubled? and why do thoughts arise in your hearts?

39 [k]Behold my hands and my feet, that it is I myself: handle me, and see; for a spirit hath not flesh and bones, as ye see me have.

40 And when he had thus spoken, he shewed them his hands and his feet.

41 And while they yet believed not for joy, and wondered, he said unto them, Have ye here any meat?

42 And they gave him a piece of a broiled fish, and of an honeycomb.

43 And he took it, and did eat before them.

44 And he said unto them, These are the words which I spake unto you, while I was yet with you, that all things must be fulfilled, which were written in the [l]law of Mō'ses, and in the prophets, and in the psalms, concerning me.

45 Then [m]opened he their understanding, that they might understand the scriptures,

6 The Great Commission: the Christian's power of attorney (Mt. 28:18; Mk. 16:15; Acts 1:1-8)

46 And said unto them, Thus it is written, and thus it behoved Christ to suffer, and to rise from the dead the [n]third day:

47 And that [o]repentance and remission of sins should be preached in his name among all nations, beginning at Jĕ-rụ'sā-lĕm.

48 And ye are witnesses of these things.

7 Promise of enduement of power for service (Mt. 18:18, refs.)

*49 ¶ And, behold, I send [p]the promise of my Father upon you: but [q]tarry ye in the city of Jĕ-rụ'sā-lĕm, until ye be endued with [r]power from on high.

8 The ascension (Mk. 16:19-20; Jn. 3:13; Acts 1:9-11)

50 ¶ And he led them out as far as to Bĕth'a-nỵ, and [s]he lifted up his hands, and blessed them.

51 And it came to pass, while he blessed them, he was parted from them, and [t]carried up into heaven.

9 Obedience in waiting for the Holy Spirit (Acts 1: 12-2:13)

52 [u]And they worshipped him, and returned to Jĕ-rụ'sā-lĕm with [v]great joy:

53 And were [w]continually in the temple, praising and blessing God. Ā-mĕn'.

a Question 165. Last question in Luke b The Law: the Pentateuch; the Prophets, Joshua, Judges, Samuel, Kings, all other prophets except Daniel; the Psalms: the rest of the canonical books

c By clearing up all remaining questions (Acts 1:3) and by giving them a measure of the Holy Spirit to enlighten them (Jn. 20:22)

d See note k, Lk. 9:22

e The doctrine of repentance:
1 Nature: contrition, confession, faith, restitution (2 Cor. 7:8-11)
2 Necessity (Lk. 13:1-5)
3 Power (Rom. 10:9-10; Lk. 18:14)
4 How produced (Jn. 16:8; Heb. 4: 12; Rom. 2:4; 2 Cor. 10:8-11)
5 Not expiatory or meritorious, but qualifies for pardon (1 Jn. 1:9; Acts 2: 38; 3:19; Rom. 10:9-10)
6 Demanded of all men (Lk. 13:1-5; 24:47; Acts 10:35; 17:30)
7 By whom preached (Lk. 24:48; Acts 1:8; Mt. 28:19-20; Mk. 15:15-20)
8 How preached (Lk. 24:49; Acts 1: 4-8; 5:31-32; 1 Cor. 2:1-5; 4:20; Rom. 15:18-19, 29; Heb. 2:1-4)
9 Must not be delayed (2 Cor. 6:2; Heb. 4:7; Eph. 5:14)
10 How attested (Lk. 3:8; Rom. 1:5; 10:16; Acts 5:32; 2 Cor. 10:11)

f 54th and last N.T. prophecy in Lk. (24:49, fulfilled, Acts 2)

g This was the Spirit baptism that was promised to all believers (Mt. 3:11; Jn. 1:31-33; 7:37-39; 14:12-17, 26; 15:26; 16:13-15; Acts 1:4-8; 2:1-21, 33, 38-39; 5:32; 10:44-48; 11:14-18; 15:7-13; 19:1-7; etc.)

h This is what early disciples were told to do to get the Spirit baptism or the full enduement of power from on high to do the works of Christ (v 49; Acts 1:4-8; Lk. 11:13)

i Gr. enduo, put on (Mt. 27:31; Mk. 15: 20; Lk. 15:22); be clothed with (Mk. 15: 17; Rev. 1:13); be clothed in (Rev. 15:6; 19:14); and be arrayed in (Acts 12:21). Anyone clothed with this power will be able to confirm what he preaches, and this is the only normal N.T. program (Jn. 14:12; Mk. 16:16-20)

j Gr. dunamis, inherent power; the power of reproducing itself; from which we get the English dynamo. This enduement of power is the same as receiving the promise of the Father or the promised Holy Spirit in baptismal measure. Power to do the works of Christ is what is promised here (Jn. 14:12; Mk. 16:17-18; Acts 1:4-8)

k This was the old priestly way of blessing the people (Ex. 17:12; 1 Ki. 8:22, 38, 54; Ezra 9:5)

m Christ was now an object of worship (Rev. 5:8-14; 7:10)

n This is taken by some as the evidence of the Spirit baptism; but this cannot be, for they did not get this baptism until 10 days later at Pentecost (Acts 1:4-8; 2:1-21, 33). Many angels and men had joy who were not baptized in the Holy Spirit (Instances of joy, p. 62)

o Gr. diapantos, a period during which anything is done. The disciples were in the temple continually (v 53. Cp. Heb. 13:15). The idea is that they offered praise frequently throughout the period of 10 days, not that they praised God every moment day and night. This would be a physical impossibility, but to do it regularly and frequently during a period would be entirely possible. The word is also trans. always in Mk. 5:5; Acts 10:2; 24:16; Rom. 11:10

So-called lost books of the Bible

There have been many apocryphal books written which contain many fantastic stories. Forty six of them are published in "The Lost Books of the Bible," 20 O. T. apocryphal books, and 26 N. T. apocryphal books. The 14 apocryphal books in the old family Bibles make 60 books that are well known. Besides these there are many that have not been published. The difference between these and the Bible books is that between inspired writings and religious history, religious novels and uninspired writings.

They contain no new essentials and are imitations and additions to the accounts of the Bible except 1 and 2 Maccabees, which are history, and a few other portions that are not so out of line with truth.

The N. T. apocryphal books assume the truths of the four gospels. They witness to the existence of the four gospels by quoting from them. They prove the existence of much material or other narratives before the four gospels were written. No doubt hundreds of people wrote down facts and stories during the life of Christ which were later put in books supposed to be true of the life of Christ. The four gospels are the only ones counted authoritative by Christians, heretics, Jews and heathen. The finding of these apocryphal documents confirms the good judgment of the church which set apart these sacred books from all others. As early as the second century the four gospels were accepted without rivals. Sometimes supplemental narratives were used along with them by local churches in their controversies with the heathen and Jews.

All stories of the boy Jesus doing unheard of miracles such as carrying water in a cloak; stretching lumber to the desired length; making one grain of wheat grow 800 bushels; making birds and animals of clay and giving life to them; getting angry at a boy who ran into Him on the street and causing him to die; the parents complaining and being made blind; lepers being cleansed in water He bathed in; widening or contracting gates, boxes, milk-pails and other things Joseph made with dimensions wrong; changing people to animals and back again; withering hands; causing blindness; and other such things are out of harmony with the acts of God and contradict Scripture (Jn. 10: 10; Acts 10:38). Jesus did no miracle until after His anointing with the Spirit (Jn. 2:11). These stories that are told of the boy Jesus are matched by those told of His sufferings, such as the cross walking and talking and of Jesus coming out of the tomb so tall that His head was in the clouds. None of these are worthy of truth and show why they were rejected from our Scriptures.

Law of God and of Moses the same (Lk. 2:39)

1 Both ceremonial and moral laws were given on Sinai (Ex. 19; 24:12-18; 25:40; 26:30; 27:8; 31:18; 32; 33: 6; 34; Lev. 7:38; 25:1; 26:46; 27:34; Num. 3:1; 15:22)

2 The ten commandments are spoken of as the law of Moses (Mt. 22:36-40; Rom. 2:21-22; 7:7-16; Ex. 20; Dt. 5)

3 God's law was written in a book as well as on stones (Josh. 24:25-26)

4 Such terms as "the Lord said" and "the Lord spake," are used 46 times in Exodus; 36 times in Leviticus; 72 times in Numbers; and 50 times in Deuteronomy, proving the so-called moral law and the ceremonial law were "one law" (Ex. 12:49; Lev. 24: 22; Num. 15:16, 29)

5 Many terms are used to apply to both, such as, the law (194 times, Josh. 1:7-8; 8:31-35; Jn. 1:17); My law (Ps. 89:30-31; Hos. 8:12-13); the law of the Lord (1 Chr. 16:40; Lk. 2: 22-39); the book of the law of God (Josh. 24:25-26; Neh. 8:1-13; 9:3; 10: 29); the book of the law of Moses (Josh. 8:31; 23:6); the law of God and the law of Moses (Acts 13:39; Rom. 7:22-25; Heb. 10:28); the law of commandments and handwriting of ordinances (Eph. 2:15; Col. 2:14-17); the statutes ...ordinances...and the law and commandments which God wrote (Ex. 24: 12; 2 Kl. 17:34-37; 2 Chr. 14:4); the whole law...by the hand of Moses (2 Chr. 33:8; 2 Kl. 17:13; 21:8; Gal. 5: 3); and "Moses" and the old testament (Acts 15:21; 2 Cor. 3:6-15; Heb. 8:6-9:10). If what we have is the law of Moses and God's law was written only on stones, then we do not have God's law any longer for the stones were lost with the ark 25 centuries ago.

7 lessons on prayer (11:2-13):

1 Stay within the bounds of certain general principles of prayer and learn:
(1) How to begin (v 2; Mt. 11:25)
(2) Whom to address (v 2; Jn. 14: 13-15; 15:16; 16:23-26; note n, Mt. 6:9)
(3) Whose name to revere (v 2)
(4) Whose will to obey (v 2)
(5) Whose interests to serve and have at heart (v 2; Mt. 22:37)
(6) What to ask for (v 2-4)
(7) How to keep clear channels to God (v 4; 1 Jn. 3:21-22)
(8) How to live with our fellowmen (v 4; Mk. 11:25-26; Eph. 4)
(9) How to live with God (v 4; 1 Jn. 1:3-9; Jn. 17:2-3)
(10) How to live free from sin (v 4; Rom. 6:16-23; 8:12-13)

2 Be bold as the friends of God - importune, urge with frequent solicitation, be tenacious in purpose, stubbornly adhering to a purpose; continue steadily, incessant, refuse to give an inch: be desperate, demanding, insistent, eager, and troublesome in pursuit of what God has promised (v 5-8; 18:1-8; Heb. 4:14-16; 10:19-23, 36)

3 Believe in and have confidence in the absolute certainty of answered prayer with no wavering or doubt as to the final outcome (v 9-10; Mt. 7:7-11; 17:20; 21:21; Mk. 9:23; 11:22-24; Jn. 14:12-15; 15:7, 16; 16:23-26; Heb. 11: 6; Jas. 1:5-8; 1 Jn. 3:19-22; 5:14-15)

4 Believe in and have confidence in the infinite Fatherhood of God, realizing that He is at least as interested in our welfare as an earthly parent, that He will give all things which are best to His children, and that He will give exactly what is asked according to His will and Word (v 11-13; Mt. 7:7-11; 1 Jn. 3:19-22; 5:14-15; Ps. 84:11)

5 Believe in and know beyond all possible doubt that it is the will of God for His children to get what they will and want (v 9-13; Ps. 23:1; 34:9-10; 84:11; Mt. 17:20; 21:21; Mk. 11:22-24; Jn. 15:7)

6 Believe in and ask God for the Holy Spirit, the all-inclusive gift, who will enable us to pray and get answers (v 13; Rom. 8:26-27; Eph. 2:18; 6:18; Jude 20; Jn. 7:37-39)

7 Believe in and never question it - that God will answer each person who prays right, not just a few special ones (v 9-13; Mt. 7:7-11; Mk. 9:23; 11:24; Jn. 14:12-15; Rom. 2:11)

Anyone who learns and practices well these lessons will get answers

Rich man and Lazarus (16:19-31)

18 facts of the story are:

1 Regardless of the state in this life the next life may be different (v 22-32)
2 Poor people can be well off in the next life if they are saved. Otherwise they will suffer hell like the unsaved rich
3 The rich do not suffer hell unless they are unsaved
4 The rich, like the poor, must make proper preparation for the next life or be lost and punished
5 The rich and the poor both die and their bodies are buried
6 The saved are carried by angels into paradise (v 22; 23:43), which was then in the lower parts of the earth (Mt. 12:40; Ps. 16:10), but since Eph. 4: 8-10; Heb. 2:14-15 the righteous go to heaven (2 Cor. 5:8; Phil. 1:21-24; Heb. 12:22-23; Rev. 6:9-11)
7 There is something real at death for angels to carry and a real place to put it (v 22)
8 The unsaved go to hell when they leave their bodies (v 23; Jas. 2:26; Isa. 14:9; Rev. 20:7-15; Ps. 9:17; 55:15)
9 The lost are in conscious torment in hell (v 23-28; Dt. 32:22; 2 Sam. 22:6; Ps. 18:5; 116:3; 139:8; Isa. 14: 9-11; Ezek. 32:21; Cant. 8:6; Hab. 2:5)
10 Souls and spirits have spirit forms with bodily parts, like the parts of the physical body. They wear clothes, talk, feel, etc. (v 22-24; Isa. 14:9-11; Mt. 17:3; Ps. 16:10; Heb. 12:22-23; Rev. 6:9-11).
11 God only can put into hell (v 22-32; Ezek. 31:16; Ps. 9:17; Mt. 10:28; Lk. 12:4-5; Rev. 20:10-15; Mt. 25:41, 46; 2 Pet. 2:4; Jude 6-7)
12 Souls are immortal in hell and heaven (v 22-32; 1 Pet. 3:4; 4:6; Lk. 20:38; 2 Cor. 5:8; Phil. 1:21-24; Heb. 12:22-23; Rev. 6:9-11)
13 Prayer and conversations continue in hell and heaven (v 22-32; Isa. 14: 9-11; Jon. 2:2; Ezek. 32:21; Rev. 6: 9-11)
14 Fire and torments are in the present and eternal hell (v 22-32; Rev. 14: 9-11; 19:20; 20:10-15; 21:8; Isa. 66: 22-24; Mt. 8:12; 13:42, 49-50; 24:51; 25:41, 46; Mk. 9:43-49)
15 Unsaved ones are confined to hell until the judgment (v 26; Rev. 20: 11-15)
16 One can escape hell if conditions are met in this life (Pr. 23:14; Jn. 3: 16; Tit. 2:11-14; Lk. 13:1-5; 2 Cor. 5:17-21)
17 Both present and eternal hells are located in "the lower parts of the earth" (Ps. 63:9; Eph. 4:8-10; Mt. 12: 40), "the nether parts of the earth" (Ezek. 31:14-18; 32:18-27), and "beneath the earth" (Pr. 15:24; Isa. 14:9-15; Ezek. 31:14-16; 32:18-27; Rev. 21:8)
18 Satan, angels, demons, and men will be put into eternal hell (Mt. 8: 29; 25:41; Rev. 20:10-15; 2 Pet. 2:4; Jude 6-7)

Not one of the above facts or scriptures could possibly apply to the grave, proving hell and the grave are two different things. See notes on Ps. 9:17; Lk. 12:5; 16:26; Rev. 20:3; Isa. 30:33

Examples of making excuses: (Lk. 14:18)

1 Adam and Eve (Gen. 3:12-13)
2 Moses (Ex. 4:1-12)
3 Aaron (Ex. 32:22-24)
4 Gideon (Judg. 6:12-17)
5 Elisha (1 Kl. 19:19-21)
6 Naaman (2 Kl. 5:10-14)
7 Jeremiah (Jer. 1:1-10)
8 Felix (Acts 24:25)
9 Others (Mt. 8:21; Lk. 9:59-62)

There is no excuse for making an excuse (Dt. 30:11-14; Rom. 1:20; 2:1)

SAINT JOHN

History of Jesus Christ - The Apostles - The New Covenant - Christianity - Sermons - Promises - Prophecies
The Gospel of The Divine One - Christ is Presented as Jehovah's Son, "Behold thy God" (Isa. 40:9) a Gr. arche, beginning, origin, first. The dateless past (Gen. 1:1; Pr. 8:23) b The Word refers to Christ (v 14; Rev. 19:13) and proves His pre-existence (Mic. 5:1-2; Rev. 1:8, 11; 2:8; 22:13-16). He is an eternal Being as are also the Father and the Holy Spirit (Ps. 90:1-2; Heb. 9:14). They make the Divine Trinity (1 Jn. 5:7). See note b, Acts 1:1

c Not only was the Word "with God," but He "was God" and always will be as much divine as the other two members of the Trinity (Ps. 45:6-7; Isa. 9:6-7; Jn. 1:1; Heb. 1:8-12; Rev. 1:8, 11; 22:13-16)
d God created all things "by Jesus Christ" (v 3; Eph. 3:9; Col. 1:15-18; Heb. 1:1-2) e Not only were all things created "by him," but redemption of creation is "by him" (17:2; Col. 1:20). As all creation came BY the Son, THROUGH the Holy Spirit, so all redemption comes the same way. It was what Christ did on the cross that made it possible for God to redeem through the power of the Holy Spirit (Jn. 3:3-5; Tit. 3:5)
f Gr. kata-lambano, to seize upon; to keep down or under; stop; to catch up with in the sense of to discover or detect. It means that the satanic powers of darkness (Eph. 6:12) did not overcome the Word, but that the Word spoiled them on the cross (Col. 2:14-17)
g John the Baptist. Used 19 times in this gospel and never by the title "Baptist" as in the other gospels h He, the Messiah, was the true light (Jn. 8:12; 9:5; 12:35-46)
i Without exception, as the sun shines upon all. Gentiles were to be blessed by the Messiah (Gen. 12:2; Rom. 10:11-13; 15:8-12)
j The Jews (Mt. 10:5-6; Rom. 9:5) k The gospel benefits only the individual (Mk. 16:16; Jn. 3:16; 6:37)
l Gr. exousia, delegated power; the liberty and right to use power. It is the liberty and right of every man to be saved if he wills (Jn. 3:16; 6:37; 1 Tim. 2:4; 2 Pet. 3:9; Rev. 22:17)
m Who believe on His name (v 12; Mt. 1:21; Acts 2:21; 3:16; 4:12) n Gr. gennao, a bringing forth. A word used of one who brings others to Christ by the gospel (1 Cor. 4:15; Ph'm 10) and of people who are "adopted" into the family of God (Jn. 3:3; Rom. 8:15; 1 Jn. 2:29; 3:9; 5:1, 18). It does not mean in either of these uses that a new body, soul, and spirit have come into existence, as when used of Christ who is the "only begotten" Son of God and the first begotten of Mary (v 14, 18; 3:16. See Mt. 1:3, note) o "Not of bloods," that is, not by right of natural descent from man p Not by right of the flesh merely to escape punishment
q Not by right of man's theories and religions, but of God who took man's place to save him (3:16; Rom. 3:20-30; 2 Cor. 5:14-21)
r "Made flesh," not spirit; man, not God; and earthly, not heavenly. This made Him God's Son, for sonship in connection with Jesus Christ always refers to humanity, never to deity (note d, Lk. 1:35; note f, Acts 13:33)
s First of 12 parentheses in John (1:14, 38; 2:9; 4:8; 6:23; 7:39, 50; 9:7; 11:2; 19:31; 21:7, 8)
t Mt. 17:2; Mk. 9:3; Lk. 9:29; 2 Pet. 1:16-17 u Jesus is, and was, and always will be "the only begotten Son" of God (v 14, 18; 3:16, 18; 1 Jn. 4:9). Men never will be "begotten" or "born" in the same sense as Jesus was (Mt. 1:18-25; Lk. 1:34-35), for their sonship is on a different basis - that of adoption, not an actual begetting and coming into existence (Rom. 8:15; 9:4; Gal. 4:5; Eph. 1:5)

Scripture does not reveal Jesus and John as blood cousins (note, Lk. 1:36) y Gr. phaneroo, to bring to light. Here, it means to introduce the Messiah to Israel (v 11; Mt. 16:24)

CHAPTER 1 69

I Concerning Jesus Christ: 1 Deity and eternity (Mic. 5:1; Heb. 1:5-14; Rev. 1:8, 17; 22:13)

IN the[a] beginning was the Word, and the[b] Word was with God, and the Word[c] was God.

2 The same was in the beginning with God.

2 Pre-incarnation work (Rev. 3:14; Col. 1:16; Heb. 1:2; Eph. 3:9)

3 All things were made[d] by him; and without him was not any thing made that was made.

4 In him[e] was life; and the life was the light of men.

5 And the light shineth in darkness; and the darkness [f]comprehended it not.

II Concerning John the Baptist (Mt. 3:1; Mk. 1:1; Lk. 3:1)

6 ¶ There was a man sent from God, whose name was Jŏhn.

7 The same came for a witness, to bear witness of the Light, that all men through him might believe.

8 He was not that Light, but was sent to bear witness of that Light.

III Concerning Jesus Christ 1 Divinity, creative work and reception by Israel

9[h] That was the true Light, which lighteth[i] every man that cometh into the world.

10 He was in the world, and the world was made by him, and the world knew him not.

11 He came unto his own, and his own received him not.

2 Redemptive work (Jn. 17:2)

▸12 But[k] as many as received him, to them gave he[l] power to become the sons of God, even to them that believe on his name:

13[m] Which were[n] born,[o] not of blood, nor of the[p] will of the flesh, nor of the[q] will of man, but of God.

3 Incarnation (Isa. 7:14; 9:6; Mt. 1:18; Lk. 1:35; Rom. 1:3; 8:3; Gal. 4:4; 1 Tim. 3:16; Heb. 1:5)

14 And the Word[r] was made flesh, and dwelt among us, (and[s] we beheld his[t] glory, the glory as of the[u] only begotten of the Father,) full of grace and truth.

IV Concerning John the Baptist (Mt. 3:1; Mk. 1:1; Lk. 3:1; Jn. 1:6)

15 ¶ Jŏhn bare witness of him, and cried, saying, This was he of whom I spake, He that cometh after me is preferred before me: [v]for he was before me.

V Concerning Christ; source of grace and truth (Jn. 14:6, 12-26; 17:2)

16 And of his[w] fulness have all we received, and [x]grace for grace.

17 For the law was given[a] by Mō'şes, but grace and truth came by Jē'şus Chrīst.

18 No man hath[z] seen God at any time; the only begotten Son, which is in the[a] bosom of the Father, he hath[i] declared him.

VI Concerning John the Baptist: 1 His testimony of himself (1:15; 3:25; Mt. 3:3; Mk. 1:3; Lk. 3:4)

19 ¶ And this is the record of Jŏhn, when the Jews sent priests and Lē'vītes from Jĕ-rų'sā-lĕm to ask him, [j]Who art thou?

20 And he confessed, and denied not; but confessed, [k]I am not the Christ.

21 And they asked him, What then? Art thou Ē-lī'as? And he saith, I am not. Art thou that [l]prophet? And he answered, No.

22 Then said they unto him, Who art thou? that we may give an answer to them that sent us. What sayest thou of thyself?

▸23 He said,[m] I am the voice of one crying in the wilderness, Make straight the way of the Lord, as said the [n]prophet Ē-sā'ĭas.

24 And they which were sent were of the Phăr'ĭ-sees.

2 His testimony of his baptism (Mt. 3:11; Mk. 1:4; Lk. 3:3, 16)

25 And they asked him, and said unto him, [o]Why [p]baptizest thou then, if thou be not that Christ, nor Ē-lī'as, neither that prophet?

26 Jŏhn answered them, saying, [q]I baptize with water: but there standeth one among you, whom ye know not;

27 He it is, who coming after me is preferred before me, whose shoe's latchet I am not worthy to unloose.

28 These things were done in Bĕth-ăb'a-rā beyond Jôr'dan, where Jŏhn was baptizing.

3 His testimony of Jesus Christ (3:25; Mt. 3:11; Mk. 1:7; Lk. 3:16)

▸29 ¶ The next day Jŏhn seeth Jē'sus coming unto him, and saith, [r]Behold the[s] Lamb of God, which[t] taketh away the [u]sin of the world.◂

30 This is he of whom I said, After me cometh a man which is preferred before me: [v]for he was before me.

31[x] And I knew him not: but that he should be made [y]manifest to Ĭs'ra-el, therefore am I a Before John in existence, but after John in public earthly ministry (Mt. 3:11; Lk. 3:17; Jn. 1:31-33)

b Gr. pleroo, to fill, satisfy, complete. All needs and lawful wants are promised by the gospel (2 Cor. 1:20; Mt. 7:7-11; 17:20; 21:22; Mk. 9:23; 11:22-24; Jn. 14:12-17; 15:7; 16; 16:23-26)
c Grace upon grace; full grace, according to needs and wants (Heb. 4:14-16; 10:19-38; Jas. 1:5-8)
d The law that condemns in the moral life, and only typifies in the religious life
e First of 13 times Moses is mentioned in John (1:17, 45; 3:14; 5:45-46; 6:32; 7:19-23; 8:5; 9:28-29)
f This does not mean that there was no law before Moses, or no grace and truth before Jesus Christ. The law itself is truth, and the N.T. is law. There are 1,050 commands in the N.T. The idea here is that the fulness of grace came by Jesus Christ. One can get today in fulness what men received only in part in O.T. times g Gr. horao, like our English "seen," means to see with the eyes and also see with the mind. That it means here to comprehend fully or understand is clear from the fact that many men have seen God with the eyes (Gen. 18:2, 33; 32:24-30; Ex. 24:10; 33:11; Josh. 5:13; Isa. 6; Ezek. 1:26-28; Dan. 7:9-14; 10:5-6; Acts 7:56-59; Rev. 4:2-5; 5:1-7). The verse could read, "No man has ever comprehended or experienced God at any time in all His fulness, save the only begotten Son, . . . He hath declared Him." That Christ is the first to experience God in the fulness of the Holy Spirit is clear from Jn. 3:34; Acts 10:38; Isa. 11:1-2; 61:1-2; Lk. 4:16-18
h See note m, Lk. 6:38
i Gr. exogeomai, revealed, expounded; our "exegesis." Only here and Lk. 24:35; Acts 10:8; 15:12, 14; 21:19
j Questions 1-6. Next, v 25 k He was not the Christ, Elijah, or anyone else who had lived in the past. He was the natural son of Zacharias and Elizabeth (Lk. 1:24, 57). He came in the spirit and power of Elijah to do for Israel before the first advent, what Elijah will do before the second advent (Mal. 4:5-6; Lk. 1:17). This explains Mt. 11:14; 17:10-13
l That Moses predicted would come (Dt. 18:15-18; Acts 3:22-23; 7:37)

p Jews were accustomed to making converts by ceremonial cleansing, but never without an order from the Sanhedrin or before 3 magistrates or doctors of the law. They, therefore, felt jealous of John, who not only baptized without Jewish authority, but baptized Jews contrary to the practice of the Pharisees q John's reason for baptizing was that the Messiah should be made manifest to Israel (v 26-31)
r Many MSS. read "Bethania," which is supposed to be a village opposite Jericho across Jordan (Judg. 7:24; Jn. 10:39-42)

u Gr. airo, to bear in the sense of removing sin; doing away with the guilt and punishment (1 Pet. 2:24; Ps. 103:12; 1 Jn. 3:5). See Mk. 16:18, note)
v Gr. hamartia, missing the mark always in a moral sense - a sin, whether by omission or commission, in thought, word, or deed. Christ came to teach men how to shoot straight - to hit the moral bull's eye every time (Tit. 2:11-14; 1 Jn. 2:1-2, 29; 3:9; 5:1-4, 18)

Seven witnesses to the Messiah:
1 The Father (5:30–38; 8:13–18)
2 The Son (5:17–27; 8:14; 18:37)
3 The Holy Spirit (15:26; 16:13–15)

6 John (1:7, 32–34; 5:33–35)
7 Disciples (15:27; 19:35; 21:24)

b Gr. meno, abide, dwell, remain. Occurs 41 times in John and only 12 times in the other gospels

c A clear reference to the Trinity. The Son he did not know; the Father he did know; and the Spirit he saw coming from the Father upon the Son (Mt. 3:16–17; Lk. 3:22) d Gr. eidon, to see; not only the mere act of looking, but the actual perception of the object. Thus, not only have the Father and Son been seen with the human eyes as separate and distinct persons at the same time and place (Dan. 7:9–14; Acts 7:55; Rev. 5:7; 7:10), but the Holy Spirit as a separate person from both the Father and the Son has been seen n Finding Jesus changes the life (2 Cor. 5:17–18). One will seek to find others and bring them to Jesus. This is always characteristic of new converts, but so often lacking in old ones. Why?

o The Gr. transliteration of the Heb. Mashiah, meaning Anointed (Jn. 1:41; 4:25; 1 Sam. 2:10, 35; Ps. 2:2; Dan. 9:24–26). It is used repeatedly of priests (Lev. 4:3–5; 6:22), kings (1 Sam. 12:3–5; 16:6; 24:6–10; 26:9–23; 2 Sam. 1:14–21; 19:21; 22:51; 23:1), prophets (1 Chr. 16:22; Zech. 4:14; Ps. 105:15), Lucifer (Ezek. 28:14), and even a heathen king chosen of God to overthrow Babylon (Isa. 45:1). The equivalent of Mashiah in the Greek is "christos" and used of Jesus 569 times in the N.T. (note a, Mt. 1:1)

p Aramaic for John

q Aramaic for stone. Only in 1 Cor. 1:12; 3:22; 9:5; 15:5; Gal. 2:9

r Gr. petros, little stone, rock (v 42) and 161 other places trans. Peter (Mt. 16:18, notes). This shows how Jesus could judge a man at the first look. He knew Peter to be firm and strong in soul, and hard and unyielding in purpose

VII Ministry and teachings of Jesus Christ (Mt. 4:14; Mk. 1:14; Lk. 4:14)

1 Two disciples won by John

35 ¶ Again the next day after John stood, and two of his disciples;

36 And looking upon Jesus as he walked, he saith, Behold the Lamb of God!

37 And the two disciples heard him speak, and they followed Jesus.

38 Then Jesus turned, and saw them following, and saith unto them, What seek ye? They said unto him, Rabbi, (which is to say, being interpreted, Master,) where dwellest thou?

39 He saith unto them, Come and see. They came and saw where he dwelt, and abode with him that day: for it was about the tenth hour.

2 Peter won by Andrew

40 One of the two which heard John speak, and followed him, was Andrew, Simon Peter's brother.

41 He first findeth his own brother Simon, and saith unto him, We have found the Messias, which is, being interpreted, the Christ.

42 And he brought him to Jesus. And when Jesus beheld him, he said, Thou art Simon the son of Jona: thou shalt be called Cephas, which is by interpretation, A stone.

3 Philip won by Jesus Himself

43 ¶ The day following Jesus would go forth into Galilee, and findeth Philip, and saith unto him, Follow me.

44 Now Philip was of Bethsaida, the city of Andrew and Peter.

4 Nathanael won by Philip

45 Philip findeth Nathanael, and saith unto him, We have found him, of whom Moses in the law, and the prophets, did write, Jesus of Nazareth, the son of Joseph.

46 And Nathanael said unto him, Can there any good thing come out of Nazareth? Philip saith unto him, Come and see.

5 Nathanael's doubts expelled

47 Jesus saw Nathanael coming to him, and saith of him, Behold an Israelite indeed, in whom is no guile!

48 Nathanael saith unto him, Whence knowest thou me? Jesus answered and said unto him, Before that Philip called thee, when thou wast under the fig tree, I saw thee.

49 Nathanael answered and saith unto him, Rabbi, thou art the Son of God; thou art the King of Israel.

6 First prophecy of Jesus

50 Jesus answered and said unto him, Because I said unto thee, I saw thee under the fig tree, believest thou? thou shalt see greater things than these.

51 And he saith unto him, Verily, verily, I say unto you, Hereafter ye shall see heaven open, and the angels of God ascending and descending upon the Son of man.

70 CHAPTER 2

7 First miracle of Jesus: 162 gallons of water made wine

AND the third day there was a marriage in Cana of Galilee; and the mother of Jesus was there:

2 And both Jesus was called, and his disciples, to the marriage.

3 And when they wanted wine, the mother of Jesus saith unto him, They have no wine.

4 Jesus saith unto her, Woman, what have I to do with thee? mine hour is not yet come.

5 His mother saith unto the servants, Whatsoever he saith unto you, do it.

6 And there were set there six waterpots of stone, after the manner of the purifying of the Jews, containing two or three firkins apiece.

7 Jesus saith unto them, Fill the waterpots with water. And they filled them up to the brim.

8 And he saith unto them, Draw out now, and bear unto the governor of the feast. And they bare it.

9 When the ruler of the feast had tasted the water that was made wine, and knew not whence it was: (but the servants which drew the water knew;) the governor of the feast called the bridegroom,

10 And saith unto him, Every man at the beginning doth set forth good wine; and when men have well drunk, then that which is worse: but thou hast kept the good wine until now.

11 This beginning of miracles did Jesus in Cana of Galilee, and manifested forth his glory; and his disciples believed on him.

e Question 12. Next, 2:4. Christ's statement of seeing him by the Spirit before He could see him with His eyes convinced Nathaniel of His Sonship f 2nd N.T. prophecy in Jn. (1:50–51, fulfilled). Next, 2:19. Nathaniel did see many greater works. He saw all the works of Christ for over three years. When v 51 was to be fulfilled is not stated. It may be fulfilled in the eternal kingdom of Jesus on earth when angels will ascend and descend in a more literal way than now (Mt. 13:41–43; 24:31; 25:31; 2 Th. 1:7; etc.)

g Means Surely, surely or Amen, amen. Used doubly 25 times by John (1:51; 3:3, 5, 11; 5:19, 24, 25; 6:26, 32, 47, 53; 8:34, 51, 58; 10:1, 7; 12:24; 13:16, 20, 21, 38; 14:12; 16:20, 23; 21:18). So used for emphasis, and only by Him who is the truth (Jn. 14:6). Always used singly elsewhere: in the O.T. only 15 times; 30 times in Matthew; 15 times in Mark; and 8 times in Luke and only by Christ. Found only 21 times in the N.T. outside the gospels. Altogether, used 103 times by Jesus and only 36 times by all others in 62 books

h Used 88 times of Christ in the N.T. and once in Dan. 7:13. It always has the definite article when used of Christ, but not when used of ordinary men. He is God's Man to redeem man. He is God's answer to Satan to guarantee his defeat and restore man's original dominion

y Gr. semeion, a sign or token by which something is known; a token of confirmation of a divine work or call. It is trans. sign 50 times; miracle 23 times; wonder 3 times; and token 1 time. Generally used of miracles and wonders wrought by men to confirm their call and mission from God (Mt. 12:38; 16:1–4; Mk. 8:11; 16:17–20; Lk. 11:16, 29; 23:8; Jn. 2:11, 18, 23; 3:2; 4:54; 6:2, 14, 26, 30; 7:31; 9:16; 10:41; 11:47; 12:18, 37; 20:30; Acts 2:22, 43; 8:6; 1 Cor. 1:22; Rom. 15:19). It is also used of the power by which false teachers seek to confirm their fallacies to be of God (Mt. 24:24; Mk. 13:22; 2 Th. 2:8–12; Rev. 13:13–18; 16:14; 19:20). The last scriptures above refer to the satanic powers in these last days to cause men to accept false teachings and be lost. Does God want Satan and his agents to manifest more power than the church? No! The church is promised a It started out to be "the Lord's Passover" (Ex. 12:11, 27; Lev. 23:5; Num. 28:16), but now it had degenerated to be "the Jews' Passover" (Jn. 2:13; 6:4; 11:55). The "feasts of the Lord" (Lev. 23:2) had now become the "feasts of the Jews" (Jn. 5:1; 6:4; 7:2; 11:56; 19:42). Even the commandments were nullified by traditions of men (Mt. 15:1-9; 16:6-12)

Nicodemus' 3 steps:
1 Came to Jesus (v 1)
2 Testified for Him (Jn. 7:50-51)
3 Did service for Him (Jn. 19:39)

p Entirely too much criticism has been heaped upon Nicodemus for coming to Jesus by night. There is no proof of personal shame any more than in the case of the disciples in Jn. 20:19. It was more from fear than shame (Jn. 7:50; 19:38-39). Through centuries Christians who were not ashamed of Christ did do things for fear of persecutors and this was wisdom in most cases

It always remains eternal, and is only in Jesus Christ (note d, 6:27; 1 Jn. 5:11-12)

9 First purification of the temple (Cp. Mt. 21:12, refs.)

13 ¶ And the [a]Jews' passover was at hand, and Jē'sus went up to Jē-ru'sā-lĕm,

14 And found in the temple those that [a]sold oxen and sheep and doves, and the changers of money sitting:

15 And when he had [c]made a scourge of small cords, he drove them [d]all out of the temple, and the sheep, and the oxen; and poured out the changers' money, and overthrew the tables;

16 And said unto them that sold doves, Take these things hence; make not [e]my Father's house an house of merchandise.

*17 And his disciples remembered that it was written, [f]The zeal of thine house hath eaten me up.

10 Jews seek a sign: first prophecy of His death (Cp. Mt. 12:38; Lk. 11:29)

18 ¶ Then answered the Jews and said unto him, [g]What sign shewest thou unto us, seeing that thou doest these things?

*19 Jē'sus answered and said unto them, [h]Destroy this temple, and in three days I will raise it up.

20 Then said the Jews, [i]Forty and six years was this temple in building, and wilt thou rear it up in three days?

21 But he spake of the temple of his body.

22 When therefore he was risen [j]from the dead, his disciples remembered that he had said this unto them; and they believed the [k]scripture, and the word which Jē'sus had said.

11 Many miracles in Jerusalem: His gift of knowledge

23 ¶ Now when he was in Jē-ru'sā-lĕm at the passover, in the feast day, [l]many believed in his name, when they saw the miracles which he did.

24 But Jē'sus did not [m]commit himself unto them, because he knew all men,

25 And needed not that any should testify of man: for he knew what was in man.

3 Jē'sus answered and said unto him, Verily, verily, I say unto thee, [s]Except a man [t]be born again, he cannot [u]see the kingdom of God.

(3) The new birth misunderstood by a religious leader (Rom. 9:30 - 10:13; 1 Cor. 1:18-31; 2 Cor. 3:13-18; 4:3-4)

4 Nic-o-dē'mus saith unto him, [d]How can a man be born when he is old? can he enter the second time into his mother's womb, and [e]be born?

(4) Necessity of the new birth again stated and illustrated (Rom. 1:19-20)

5 Jē'sus answered, Verily, verily, I say unto thee, Except a man be [f]born of water and of the Spirit, he cannot enter into the kingdom of God.

6 That which is born [g]of the flesh is flesh; and that which is born of the Spirit is spirit.

7 Marvel not that I said unto thee, Ye must be born again.

8 The wind bloweth where it listeth, and thou hearest the sound thereof, but canst not tell whence it cometh, and whither it goeth: [h]so is every one that is born of the Spirit.

(5) The new birth still a mystery to Nicodemus

9 Nic-o-dē'mus answered and said unto him, [i]How can these things be?

(6) Nicodemus rebuked for his ignorance and unbelief

10 Jē'sus answered and said unto him, [j]Art thou a master of Is'ra-el, and knowest not these things?

11 Verily, verily, I say unto thee, We speak that we do know, and testify that we have seen; and [k]ye receive not our witness.

12 If I have told you earthly things, and ye believe not, how shall ye believe, [l]if I tell you of heavenly things?

13 The writer's testimony: (1) Of the ascension and reality of living Christ in heaven

13 And no man hath [m]ascended up to heaven, but he that came down from heaven, even the Son of man which [n]is in heaven.

(2) Of the crucifixion and how to be born again (Jn. 1:12; 1 Jn. 1:9; 5:1)

*14 ¶ [o]And as Mō'sēs lifted up the serpent in the wilderness, [p]even so must the Son of man be lifted up:

*15 [q]That [r]whosoever [s]believeth in him should not [t]perish, but have eternal life.

*16 ¶ For God so loved [u]the world, that he gave his [v]only begotten Son, that whosoever believeth in him should not perish, but have [w]everlasting life.

a See 7 "except's", p. 201

b Gr. gennethe anothen, be begotten from above. (Note h, 4, Lk. 1:3). It literally means there must be a transformation from God and a renewal in righteousness and true holiness to be saved (2 Cor. 5:17-21; Eph. 4:22-24; Col. 1:13-14, 20; 2:12-17; 3:1-16)

c Gr. eidon, to see, not so much the mere act of looking, but the actual perception of the kingdom and its realities

d Questions 16-17. Next, v 9

e Nicodemus misunderstood Jesus and thought only in human terms. Millions today make the same mistake in comparing the new birth with the old birth. This is the very thing Jesus did not want men to do (v 12). The truth is one is a begetting and a coming into existence and the other is an adoption (Rom. 8:14-16; Gal. 4:5; Eph. 1:5)

f Not the natural birth, for Nicodemus already had this birth and he was told he had to be born again of both water and Spirit. Not water baptism; all O. T. saints were saved and born again without water baptism (Heb. 11; Rom. 3:23-25; Heb. 9:15; Rom. 4; Gal. 4:29; Jas. 2:23; Ps. 32:5; 103:3; Lk. 1:70; Acts 3:21; Dt. 32:18; 2 Pet. 1:21). They all had the Holy Spirit, gifts, and many blessings without water baptism (Ps. 51:12; 1 Ki. 3:12; 4:29-34; Num. 11:17-29; Acts 3:21; Lk. 1:15-17, 41, 46, 67; 2:25-38; Heb. 11). Many in Christ's ministry were forgiven without water baptism (Mt. 9:1-7, 22; Mk. 5:34; 10:52; Lk. 7:48; 17:19; 18:9-14; 19:1-9; 23:43; Jn. 4:49-53; 7:31; 8:30-31; 11:45; 12:11, 42). Men have been baptized in the Holy Spirit before water baptism (Acts 9:17; 10:44-48; 11:14-18; 15:7-11). Christ was baptized in water without forgiveness of sins (Mt. 3:15-17). It is a mere "figure" (1 Pet. 3:21) and a "witness" (1 Jn. 5:6-10), but not held as essential to salvation (1 Cor. 1:13-24; 15:1-5; Rom. 1:16; 10:9-14; Eph. 2:8-9; Acts 10:43; 13:38-39; 16:31; Jn. 3:14-18, 36; 5:24; 1 Jn. 5:1). It is only for men who have repented (Mt. 3:2-6; 28:19; Acts 2:38-41; 8:12, 37; 10:43-48; 18:8; 19:4)

Water is used in a figurative sense of salvation (Jn. 4:14; Isa. 12:3), of the Spirit baptism (Jn. 7:37-39), and of cleansing by the Word of God (Jn. 15:3; Eph. 5:26). Since men are cleansed and born again by the Word (Jas. 1:18; 1 Pet. 1:23), it is clear that being born of water means being born again by the Word of God

g This is a fundamental law in both natural and spiritual realms, that is, we live after the flesh or after the Spirit (Rom. 8:1-13; Gal. 5:16-26)

h As the natural man hears the wind, so the man born again hears the voice of the Spirit

i Question 18. Next, v 10. The answer should have been clear to him if he had known such scriptures as Jer. 31:33; 32:39; Ezek. 11:19; 18:31; 36:25-27; Ps. 51:10; Isa. 1:18-20; 55:6; 2 Chr. 7:14

j Question 19. Next, v 12. Jesus expected him to know the Scriptures enough to be saved, but he was like millions in churches today, even many ministers who do not know what the new birth is k This is the only hint that Nicodemus at this time went away in doubt about spiritual things, but later it is clear he accepted them (Jn. 19:39). Or, the "ye" could refer to the "we" of v 2, the teachers of Israel

l Question 20. Next, 4:9. The earthly things in this passage are in v 6, 8 and the heavenly in v 3, 5, 6, 8

m Gr. anabaino, to go up of own power, not taken up as was Enoch (Gen. 5:24; Heb. 11:5), Elijah (2 Ki. 2:11), Paul (2 Cor. 12:1-3), and John (Rev. 4:1). This refers to the ascension of Christ (v 13; 6:62; Acts 1:11; Lk. 24:51; Eph. 4:8-10). Christ ascended and came back before His final ascension to heaven to stay (Jn. 20:17)

n This verse proves that Jesus had already ascended when John wrote this book; that the conversation with Nicodemus ended with v 12; and that Jesus was now in heaven

o 4th N. T. prophecy in John (3:14, fulfilled, Num. 21:9; Jn. 8:28; 12:32, 34; 1 Pet. 2:24). Next, v 30 p It behoved Christ to be crucified in order to fulfill prophecy and to redeem man (Lk. 24:26, 46; Acts 3:18; 17:3) a Gr. krino, to judge. The next time the Son is sent to the world it will be to judge (Mt. 16:27; 25:31-46).

b His name means "Saviour" and anyone who does not believe it and take Him as such cannot be saved (Mt. 1:21, note)
c Gr. krisis, judgment, or basis of judgment, not the result of it d Lovers of sin (Job 15:16; 20:12; Pr. 2:14; Jn. 3:19; 12:43; 2 Pet. 2:22) e Gr. phaulos, worthless, base things. Only here; 5:29; Tit. 2:8; Jas. 3:16
f Be brought home to him
g Actively produces gospel fruit by being a doer of the Word (Jas. 1:22-27; 2:14-26; Mt. 5:16; 7:15-20)
h This proves that He had left Jerusalem after the passover and was either back in Samaria or Galilee (2:13)
i Jesus did not baptize, but His disciples did (Jn. 4:2) j Gr. Ainon, springs, a town on the west of Jordan, about 54 miles northeast of Jerusalem in Samaria k Many springs and streams suitable for baptizing l Whether John's baptism or the legal ceremonies of the Jews were the most effectual to purify sin ceremonially m How literally true! We earn and deserve nothing; but God gives us all things that pertain to life and godliness - now and hereafter (2 Pet. 1:3-11; 2 Cor. 1:20) n The one who played an important part in the wedding ceremonies, and sometimes conducted the negotiations between the bride and groom o The friend, at the time of the first meeting of the bride and groom, stands just outside the door to hear how delighted the groom is about his bride - to hear his first words of love making p This does not mean John was not to be a member of the future bride of Christ, for he will be. The heavenly city, the New Jerusalem, is the bride of Christ (Rev. 21:2, 9-10, notes). All O. T. saints (Heb. 11:10-16) and all N. T. saints will go there (Heb. 13:14; Jn. 14:1-3). This includes John the Baptist and other saints of all ages from Abel to the end of the first resurrection (1 Cor. 15:23, 51-58; 1 Th. 4:16; Rev. 20:4-6). All John expresses here is the fact that he is not the bridegroom, but his friend, as are all saints who are "friends" of the bridegroom (Jn. 15:13-15). As John invited people to Christ, so do all the members of the bride (Rev. 22:17)
q 5th N. T. prophecy in John (3:30, fulfilled). Next, 4:21 mansion and in a city located on a material planet called Heaven (Jn. 14:1-3; Heb. 11:10-16; 13:14; Rev. 21); sits on a throne (Isa. 6; Dan. 7:9-14; Rev. 4:1-5; 22:3-6); walks (Gen. 3:8; 18:1-8, 22, 33); rides (Ps. 18:10; 68:17; 104:3; Ezek. 1); engages in other activities

He has a personal soul with feelings of grief (Gen. 6:6); anger (1 Ki. 11:9); repentance (Gen. 6:6); jealousy (Ex. 20:5); hate (Pr. 6:16); love (Jn. 3:16); pity (Ps. 103:13); fellowship (1 Jn. 1:1-7); pleasure and delight (Ps. 147:10); and other soul passions like other beings (Gal. 5:22-23)

He has a personal spirit (Ps. 143:10; Isa. 30:1) with mind (Rom. 11:34); intelligence (Gen. 1:26; Rom. 11:33); will (Rom. 8:27; 9:19); power (Eph. 1:19; 3:7, 20; Heb. 1:3); truth (Ps. 91:4); faith and hope (Rom. 12:3; 1 Cor. 13:13); righteousness (Ps. 45:4); faithfulness (1 Cor. 10:13); knowledge and wisdom (Isa. 11:2; 1 Tim. 1:17); reason (Isa. 1:18); discernment (Heb. 4:12); immutability (Heb. 6:17); and many other attributes, powers, and spirit faculties

He has been seen bodily many times (Gen. 18; 32:24-30; Ex. 24:9-11; Josh. 5:13-15; Isa. 6; Dan. 7:9-13; Ezek. 1; Acts 7:56-59; Rev. 4-5); and can be understood by the things that are made. Man is the visible image and likeness making the invisible God clearly seen as in Rom. 1:20. See 18 proofs that God can be seen, p. 222.

▸17 For God sent not his Son into the world to condemn the world; but that the world through him might be saved.

(3) Of condemnation to unbelievers (Jn. 16:7; Mk. 16:16)

▸18 He that believeth on him is not condemned: but he that believeth not is condemned already, because he hath not believed in the name of the only begotten Son of God.

19 And this is the condemnation, that light is come into the world, and men loved darkness rather than light, because their deeds were evil.

20 For every one that doeth evil hateth the light, neither cometh to the light, lest his deeds should be reproved.

21 But he that doeth truth cometh to the light, that his deeds may be made manifest, that they are wrought in God.

14 Jesus ministers in Judea

22 ¶ After these things came Jĕ'sus and his disciples into the land of Jū-dæ'ā; and there he tarried with them, and baptized.

15 John's ministry in Ænon

23 ¶ And Jŏhn also was baptizing in Æ'nŏn near to Sā'lĭm, because there was much water there: and they came, and were baptized.

24 For Jŏhn was not yet cast into prison.

16 Last testimony of John the Baptist: (1) Of Himself (Cp. Jn. 1:19, refs.)

25 ¶ Then there arose a question between some of Jŏhn's disciples and the Jews about purifying.

26 And they came unto Jŏhn, and said unto him, Răb'bī, he that was with thee beyond Jŏr'dan, to whom thou barest witness, behold, the same baptizeth, and all men come to him.

27 Jŏhn answered and said, A man can receive nothing, except it be given him from heaven.

28 Ye yourselves bear me witness, that I said, I am not the Christ, but that I am sent before him.

29 He that hath the bride is the bridegroom: but the friend of the bridegroom, which standeth and heareth him, rejoiceth greatly because of the bridegroom's voice: this my joy therefore is fulfilled.

(2) Of Jesus Christ (Cp. Jn. 1:6, 15, 19, 29)

★30 He must increase, but I must decrease.

31 He that cometh from above is above all: he that is of the earth is earthly, and speaketh of the earth: he that cometh from heaven is above all.

32 And what he hath seen and heard, that he testifieth; and no man receiveth his testimony.

33 He that hath received his testimony hath set to his seal that God is true.

34 For he whom God hath sent speaketh the words of God: for God giveth not the Spirit by measure unto him.

35 The Father loveth the Son, and hath given all things into his hand.

▸36 He that believeth on the Son hath everlasting life: and he that believeth not the Son shall not see life; but the wrath of God abideth on him.

72 CHAPTER 4

17 Jesus goes into Galilee

WHEN therefore the Lord knew how the Phăr'ĭ-sees had heard that Jĕ'sus made and baptized more disciples than Jŏhn,

2 (Though Jĕ'sus himself baptized not, but his disciples,)

3 He left Jū'dæ'ā, and departed again into Gā'lĭ-lee.

18 Jesus and the Samaritan woman: (1) The circumstances

4 And he must needs go through Sā-mā'rĭ-ā.

5 Then cometh he to a city of Sā-mā'rĭ-ā, which is called Sy'chär, near to the parcel of ground that Jā'cob gave to his son Jŏ'sĕph.

6 Now Jā'cob's well was there. Jĕ'sus therefore, being wearied with his journey, sat thus on the well: and it was about the sixth hour.

(2) First of 205 words of Jesus: Give Me to drink

7 There cometh a woman of Sā-mā'rĭ-ā to draw water: Jĕ'sus saith unto her, Give me to drink.

8 (For his disciples were gone away unto the city to buy meat.)

(3) First of 134 words of woman: Why do You ask me?

9 Then saith the woman of Sā-mā'rĭ-ā unto him, How is it that thou, being a Jew, askest drink of me, which am a woman of Sā-mā'rĭ-ā? for the Jews have no dealings with the Sā-mär'ĭ-tanş.

(4) Jesus: If you ask I will give you living water

10 Jĕ'sus answered and said unto her, If thou knewest the gift of God, and who it is that saith to thee, Give me to drink; thou wouldest have asked of him, and he would have given thee living water.

(5) Woman: Where would you get living water to give me?

11 The woman saith unto him, Sir, thou hast nothing to draw with, and the well is deep: from whence then hast thou that living water?

12 Art thou greater than our father Jā'cob, which gave us the well, and drank thereof himself, and his children, and his cattle?

a Different measures of the Spirit:

2 Mosaic portion divided into 71 portions (Num. 11:16-17, 25-29)
3 Elijah portion (2 Ki. 2:9)
4 Double portion (2 Ki. 2:9-10)
5 Elijah portion on John the Baptist (Lk. 1:15-17)
6 Earnest of the Spirit (2 Cor. 1:22; 5:5; 1 Jn. 4:13; Phil. 1:19)
7 The Spirit "without measure" (Jn. 3:34; Isa. 11:2; 42:1; 61:1; Lk. 4:16-21; Acts 10:38); Spirit baptism or baptismal measure (Mt. 3:11; 20:22-23; Lk. 3:16; Jn. 1:31-34; Acts 1:4-8; 2:1-21; 8:15-24; 10:44-48; 11:14-18; 15:7-11; 19:1-7; Gal. 3:14); the fulness of God (Eph. 3:19; Rom. 15:29); the rivers of living water (Jn. 7:37-39); and the full anointing of the Spirit and endowment of power from on high (Lk. 24:49; Jn. 14:12-15)

d Gr. opsomai, the future of horao of note g, 1:18, not so much the act of seeing with the eyes, but to comprehend truly e Gr. orge, temper, agitation of the soul, violent emotion, anger, wrath, indignation, hence used of punishment itself. Here it is God's attribute manifested in punishing the rebellion and sin of man (Mt. 3:7; Lk. 3:7; Jn. 3:36; Rom. 1:18; 4:15; 9:22; 2 Th. 1:16; Heb. 3:11; 4:3; Rev. 14:10) a Gr. pege, fountain, spring (Mk. 5:29; Jas. 3:11-12; Rev. 7:17; 8:10; 14:7; 16:4; 21:6). Also trans. well (Jn. 4:6, 14; 2 Pet. 2:17)

b Note the request and two reasons for it.
c This was Christ's way of getting to the root of her trouble, so He could legally give her salvation d Christ knew this by the Holy Spirit gift of knowledge (1 Cor. 12:4-11). He could see her past and read her thoughts, as He did others (Mt. 9:4; 12:25; Lk. 5:22; 6:8; 11:17; Jn. 2:24-25)

f This knowledge about her past life startled her and she concluded that He was a prophet with power. She quickly changed the subject lest He expose more of her life g Mt. Gerizim, the mount of blessing, just across a narrow valley from Mt. Ebal, the mount of cursing (Dt. 11:29; 27:12-26; Josh. 8:33). Jotham addressed Israel here (Judg. 9:7). About 332 B.C. Sanballet, governor of Samaria under the Persians, and who opposed Israel under Nehemiah (4:7-13; 28), went over to the side of Alexander the Great who gave him permission to build a temple on Mt. Gerizim like the one in Jerusalem. He built it for his son-in-law, Manasseh, and made him High Priest. The Samaritans established rival worship to Jerusalem and accepted the Pentateuch as their Bible (Josephus, Ant., Book XI, 8). The great controversy between Jews and Samaritans was whether to worship on Gerizim or Moriah. Since Christ's words proved Him to be a prophet, the woman seized upon the opportunity to have this question answered

q In harmony with full revealed and attested truth, not in fallacies, controversies, ceremonies, rituals and offerings r God is a Spirit Being, not the sun, moon, stars; nor an image of wood, stone, or metal; and not beast or man. He is not the air, wind, universal mind, love or some impersonal quality

He is a person with a personal spirit body, a personal soul, and a personal spirit, like that of angels, and like that of man except His body is of spirit substance instead of flesh and bones (Job 13:8; Heb. 1:3)

He has a personal spirit body (Dan. 7:9-14; 10:5-19); shape (Jn. 5:37); form (Phil. 2:5-7); image and likeness of a man (Gen. 1:26; 9:6; Ezek. 1:26-28; 1 Cor. 11:7; Jas. 3:9). He has bodily parts such as, back parts (Ex. 33:23), heart (Gen. 6:6; 8:21), hands and fingers (Ps. 8:3-6; Heb. 1:10; Rev. 5:1-7), mouth (Num. 12:8), lips and tongue (Isa. 30:27), feet (Ezek. 1:27; Ex. 24:10), eyes (Ps. 11:4; 18:24; 33:18), ears (Ps. 18:6), hair, head, face, arms (Dan. 7:9-14; 10:5-19; Rev. 5:1-7; 22:4-6), loins (Ezek. 1:26-28; 8:1-4), and other bodily parts

He has bodily presence (Gen. 3:8; 18:1-22) and goes from place to place in a body like all other persons (Gen. 3:8; 11:5; 18:1-5, 22, 33; 19:24; 32:24-32; 35:13; Zech. 14:5; Dan. 7:9-14; Tit. 2:13)

He has a voice (Ps. 29; Rev. 10:3-4); breath (Gen. 2:7); and countenance (Ps. 11:7). He wears clothes (Dan. 7:9-14; 10:5-19); eats (Gen. 18:1-8; Ex. 24:11); rests (Gen. 2:1-4; Heb. 4:4); dwells in a

(6) Jesus: I will give you a well of water of eternal life

▸13 Jē'sus answered and said unto her, Whosoever drinketh of this water shall thirst again:
▸14 But whosoever drinketh of the water that I shall give him shall never thirst; but the water that I shall give him shall be in him a [a]well of water springing up into everlasting life.

(7) Woman: Give me this water

15 The woman saith unto him, Sir, [b]give me this water, that I thirst not, neither come hither to draw.

(8) Jesus: Go call thy husband

16 Jē'sus saith unto her, [c]Go, call thy husband, and come hither.

(9) Woman: I have no husband

17 The woman answered and said, I have no husband. Jē'sus said unto her, Thou hast well said, I have no husband:

(10) Jesus: You have had five husbands and one not a husband

18 For [d]thou hast had [e]five husbands; and he whom thou now hast is not thy husband: in that saidst thou truly.

(11) Woman: Thou art a prophet. Where shall I worship?

19 The woman saith unto him, Sir, I perceive that thou art a prophet.

20 Our fathers worshipped in this [g]mountain; and ye say, that in Jē-rū'sā-lĕm is the place where men ought to worship.

(12) Jesus: Worship God in Spirit and in truth where you are *21 Jē'sus saith unto her, [h]Woman, believe me, [i]the hour cometh, when ye shall neither in this mountain, nor yet at Jē-rū'sā-lĕm, worship the [j]Father.

22 Ye [k]worship ye know not what: we know what we worship: for [l]salvation is of the Jews.

23 [m]But the hour cometh, and now is, when the [n]true [o]worshippers shall worship the Father [p]in spirit and [q]in truth: for the Father seeketh such to worship him.

24 God is a [r]Spirit: and they that worship him must worship him in spirit and in truth.

(13) Woman: I am looking for the Messiah who will teach us truth

25 The woman saith unto him, I know that Mĕs-sī'as cometh, which is called Christ: when he is come, he will tell us all things.

(14) Jesus: I am the Messiah

26 Jē'sus saith unto her, I that speak unto thee am he.

19 Disciples return: the woman testifies and brings a whole city to Christ

27 ¶ And upon this came his disciples, and marvelled that he talked with the [a]woman: yet no man said, [b]What seekest thou? or, Why talkest thou with her?

28 The woman then left her waterpot, and went her way into the city, and saith to the men, 29 Come, see a man, which told me [c]all things that ever I did: [d]is not this the Christ?

30 Then they went out of the city, and came unto him.

20 Secret of a minister's pleasure and satisfaction

31 ¶ In the mean while his disciples prayed him, saying, Master, eat.

32 But he said unto them, [e]I have meat to eat that ye know not of.

33 Therefore said the disciples one to another, [f]Hath any man brought him ought to eat?

34 Jē'sus saith unto them, My [g]meat is to do the will of him that sent me, and to [h]finish his work.

21 First lesson on missionary work and its rewards

35 [i]Say not ye, There are yet four months, and then cometh harvest? behold, I say unto you, Lift up your eyes, and look on the fields; for they are white already to harvest.
▸36 And [k]he that reapeth receiveth wages, and gathereth fruit unto life eternal: that both he that soweth and he that reapeth may rejoice together.

37 And herein is that saying true, One soweth, and another reapeth.

38 I sent you [l]to reap that whereon ye bestowed no labour: other men laboured, and ye are entered into their labours.

22 Two days of revival meetings

39 ¶ And many of the Sā-mār'ī-tans of that city [m]believed on him for the saying of [n]the woman, which testified, He told me all that ever I did.

40 So when the Sā-mār'ī-tans were come unto him, they besought him that he would tarry with them: [o]and he abode there two days.

41 And [p]many more believed because of his own word;

42 And said unto the woman, Now we believe, not because of thy saying: for we have heard him ourselves, and know that this is indeed the Christ, the [q]Saviour of the [r]world.

a They marvelled, not only because there were no dealings between Jews and Samaritans, but because Jewish etiquette and the Talmud forbad Rabbis to converse with women in public, or instruct them in the law. No Rabbi could even converse with his wife, sister, or daughter in public and in the street
b Questions 24-25. Next, v 29
c It may be that Christ did tell her all about her life, so her report was no exaggeration
d Question 26. Next, v 33.
e Refreshment or soul satisfaction you have not learned. I delight in converting these Samaritans (v 34)
f Question 27. Next, v 35
g Here is another great principle of life. The true sustenance of life is to do God's will and to accomplish what we are here for. Even in the natural realm nothing stimulates, keeps alive, or maintains courage more than seeing success in the mission one is dedicated to bring about h Gr. teleioo, to complete and bring to an end (5:36; 17:4, 23; 19:28, 30)
i Question 28. Next, 5:6. The harvest began after the passover in April, so the four months before this would be in December j This no doubt refers to the Samaritans that were coming out of the city to hear Him. The harvest of souls was already at hand, produced in one day. The lesson is that we are not to sit and wait four months for spiritual harvests; we can have immediate harvest of the seed sown k Christ had sown the seed in the woman and had already received wages of gratification of saving souls. He had sown and gathered fruit unto life eternal the same day, so the sower and the reaper, who here, were one and the same person, rejoiced over the harvest of that day. Cp. 1 Cor. 3:6-9
l This verse simply states that Christ had sent the disciples out to reap benefits of the labors, and to carry on the work of the prophets and others before them, including Himself and John the Baptist. They had already baptized many and had preached and healed many (Mt. 10; Lk. 9; 10; Jn. 4:2) m This brings the new birth and eternal life (v 42; 3:15-18; 1 Jn. 5:1)
There is no proof that she was a prostitute. Her five husbands could have died, as the seven mentioned in Mt. 22:28, or they could have legally divorced her, for divorce then was easy to get. Men divorced for "every cause" (Mt. 19:1-12). It was not always that Dt. 24:1 applied - "it come to pass that she find no favour in his eyes, because he hath found some uncleanness in her: then let him write her a bill of divorcement." Rabbis now ignored this giving divorces for minor causes. Whether the Samaritan suffered divorces or repeated widowhood is not known. The one "whom thou now hast" may have only been under contract to her and they had not yet come together as man and wife (v 18)
o This is another of many customs of the Jews that were broken by Jesus. Talking to the woman itself was breaking rabbinical law and having fellowship with Samaritans for two days would have been unpardonable in the eyes of the Pharisees (v 9). Jesus taught being neighborly to those whom one could help, so here He practiced what He preached (Lk. 10:29-37) p Two groups of "many" (v 39, 41) made a large congregation, perhaps even more than the average preacher wins in a lifetime q Only here and in Jn. 4:14
r These Samaritans believed He was the Saviour of Gentiles as well as Jews. They were not like the other Samaritans that would not receive Him (Lk. 9:51-56). Receiving Jesus will make a change in any life, community, or nation s Gr. meta, following; after in time. (Cp. note m, 5:1). Here, following 2 days in Samaria. This same word proves also the time of the resurrection of Christ to be after or following 3 days and 3 nights, not during some part of them. AFTER 3 days rise again (Mt. 28:63; Mk. 8:31). Cp. after 2 days (Mt. 26:2; Mk. 14:1), after 3 days (Acts 25:1; 28:17), after 6 days (Mt. 17:1; Mk. 9:2), and after 8 days (Lk. 9:28)

a His native country was Judea – His town, Bethlehem (Mic. 5:1–2; Mt. 2). His adopted country was Galilee. Judea rejected Him, but Galilee received Him (v 45). Nazareth, His adopted home town, rejected Him, but not all of Galilee (Lk. 4:16–30) c Gr. basilikos, an officer, or prince (Jn. 4:46, 49; Acts 12:20–21; Jas. 2:8). One of the royal family or an officer of Herod Antipas, tetrarch of Galilee (Lk. 3:1; Mt. 14:1) d Not the same miracle as that of the centurian's servant in Mt. 8:5–13 and Lk. 7:1–10. The two miracles differ as to time, place, person, plea, the Lord's answer, and the man's faith, as can be seen from a comparison e A statement showing the lack of absolute faith that the centurian of Mt. 8 demonstrated f See note y, Jn. 2:11. Signs and wonders are given to make believers (Mk. 16:15–20; Jn. 5:20–36; 9:3–4; 10:25–38; 14:10–15), This is why Jesus went with him. If he did not at first believe, he did after Jesus gave him the promise (v 50). Wanting to see works is no where condemned. It is when they are done and men still reject God, that judgment will fall (Mt. 11:20–23; Lk. 10:13)

g 7th N. T. prophecy in John (4:50, fulfilled). Next, 5:20
h This, after all, is faith (Rom. 4:17; 10:17; Heb. 11:1). When faith is truly exercised one can go his way in absolute assurance that the work is done. Note that no definite prayer was given; merely a prophecy and a promise i One of the most used scriptures today by certain ones who pray for the sick. It is said that Jesus did not always heal instantly, but sometimes gradually, so we are not always to expect an instantaneous healing. This is not the truth. It not only belittles the work of Christ but demonstrates that the preachers have no faith for an instantaneous miracle. This boy was healed the very hour Jesus said he would live (v 53). If men today can get healing this quickly it will be like that which Jesus gave j At 1:00 p. m. k His faith of v 50 was confirmed l If whole houses are saved, then they must all believe. God saves no one on the faith of others

m Gr. meta tauta, after these things. A common phrase used 15 times by John for the times of the events which he wrote about and is rendered "after these things" (Jn. 3:22; 5:1; 6:1; 7:1; 21:1; Rev. 7:1; 18:1; 19:1); "after this" (Rev. 4:1); "after that" (Rev. 15:5; 20:3); "afterwards" (Jn. 5:14); and "hereafter" (Jn. 13:7; Rev. 1:19; 4:1; 9:12). This phrase is used only 8 other times in the N. T. to express the order of events (Lk. 5:27; 12:4; 17:8; Acts 7:7; 13:20; 15:16; Heb. 4:8; 1 Pet. 1:11), which shows the books of John and Revelation are more chronological in events than other N. Gäl'ĭ-lee.

44 For Jē'şus himself testified, that a prophet hath no honour in his own country.

45 Then when he was come into Gäl'ĭ-lee, the Gäl-ĭ-lē'ans received him, having seen all the things that he did at Jē-rụ'sä-lĕm at the feast: for they also went unto the feast.

24 Nobleman's son healed

[a] 46 So Jē'şus came again into Cā'nä of Gäl'ĭ-lee, where he made the water wine. And there was a certain [c]nobleman, whose [e]son was sick at Cā-pĕr'na-ŭm.

47 When he heard that Jē'şus was come out of Jū-dæ'ä into Gäl'ĭ-lee, he went unto him, and besought him that he would come down, and heal his son: for he was at the point of death.

48 Then said Jē'şus unto him, [f]Except ye see signs and wonders, ye will not believe.

49 The nobleman saith unto him, Sir, come down ere my child die.

[g][h] 50 Jē'şus saith unto him, [i]Go thy way; thy son liveth. [k]And the man believed the word that Jē'şus had spoken unto him, and he went his way.

51 And as he was now going down, his servants met him, and told him, saying, Thy son liveth.

52 Then enquired he of them the hour when he [l]began to amend. And they said unto him, Yesterday at the [m]seventh hour the fever left him.

53 So the father knew that it was at the same hour, in the which Jē'şus said unto him, Thy son liveth: and [k]himself believed, and his [l]whole house.

54 This is again the second miracle that Jē'şus did, when he was come out of Jū-dæ'ä into Gäl'ĭ-lee.

73 CHAPTER 5

25 The troubled pool: Jesus heals a man on the sabbath

[n] AFTER this there was a [o]feast of the Jews; and Jē'şus [o]went up to Jē-rụ'sä-lĕm.

2 Now there is at Jē-rụ'sä-lĕm by the [p]sheep market a [q]pool, which is called in the Hē'brew tongue [r]Bĕ-thĕş'dä, having [s]five porches.

3 In these lay a great multitude of [t]impotent folk, of blind, [u]halt, [v]withered, waiting for the moving of the water.

4 For an angel went down at a certain season into the pool, and troubled the water: whosoever then first after the troubling of the water stepped in was made whole of whatsoever disease he had.

5 And a certain man was there, which had an infirmity thirty and eight years.

[w] 6 When Jē'şus saw him lie, and knew that he had been now a long time in that case, he saith unto him, [x]Wilt thou be made whole?

7 The impotent man answered him, [y]Sir, I have no man, when the water is troubled, to put me into the pool: but while I am coming, another steppeth down before me.

8 Jē'şus saith unto him, [z]Rise, take up thy bed, and walk.

9 And immediately the man was made whole, and took up his [a]bed, and walked: and on the same day was the sabbath.

26 Healed man rebuked for carrying his bed on the sabbath

10 ¶ The Jews therefore said unto him that was cured, [b]It is the sabbath day: it is not lawful for thee to carry thy bed.

11 He answered them, He that made me whole, the same said unto me, Take up thy bed, and walk.

12 Then asked they him, [c]What man is that which said unto thee, Take up thy bed, and walk?

13 And he that was healed [d]wist not who it was: for Jē'şus had [e]conveyed himself away, a multitude being in that place.

27 Jesus meets the man again

14 Afterward Jē'şus findeth him in the temple, and said unto him, Behold, thou art made whole: [f]sin no more, lest a worse thing come unto thee.

28 The man reports to the Jews

15 The man departed, [k]and told the Jews that it was Jē'şus, which had made him whole.

29 Second attempt to kill Jesus (Mt. 26:3)

16 And therefore did the Jews persecute Jē'şus, and sought to slay him, [l]because he had done these things on the sabbath day.

30 Jesus' answer: (1) Claims equality with God in nature (1:1)

17 ¶ But Jē'şus answered them, [m]My Father worketh [n]hitherto, and I work.

18 Therefore the Jews sought the more to [l]kill him, because he not only had broken the sabbath, but [m]said also that God was his Father, making himself [o]equal with God.

(2) Claims equality with God in power and works (Jn. 3:34)

19 Then answered Jē'şus and said unto them, Verily, verily, I say unto you, The Son [p]can do nothing of himself, but what he seeth the Father do: for what things soever he doeth, these also doeth the Son likewise.

[q] 20 For the Father loveth the Son, and sheweth him all things that himself doeth: [r]and he will shew him greater works than these, that ye may marvel.

(3) Claims equality with God in resurrection power (Jn. 11:25) a The third great miracle recorded in John (Cp. 2:11; 4:54). Why Jesus did not heal others that were here is not explained. No doubt, He did not want a great public demonstration at this time when His enemies were plotting against Him. Another reason He did not want to cause such a stir on the sabbath (v 16). It certainly was not because He could not have healed them nor should this story be used to teach that God does not desire to heal everybody. He then would be a respecter of persons and the stripes of Christ would be in vain for some (Isa. 53:4–5; Mt. 8:17; 1 Pet. 2:24)

b A rough quilt or pallet
c Rabbis made it unlawful to carry anything from a public place to a private place, and vice versa (Talmud, Sabb. 6, a. See Jer. 17:21). Many like laws they made which they strictly enforced when possible
d Question 30, Next, v 44
e Anglo-Saxon, witan, to know
f Gr. ekneuo, to escape, slip away. He withdrew from the multitude that was in that place. He knew the hatred of the leaders and the result of His breaking their man-made laws. This is one reason perhaps He did not stay to heal more. He simply did not want to endanger Himself needlessly at this place
g Gr. miss the mark (note v, Jn. 1:29)
h This showed ingratitude on his part, or at least ignorance of the attitude of the Jews toward Jesus i Jesus had healed on the sabbath elsewhere (Mt. 12:10–14; Mk. 1:21–27; 3:1–6; Lk. 6:6–11; 13:10–16; 14:1–5; Jn. 5:16; 9:14). This always brought persecution. Is it any wonder that God finally hated sabbaths and predicted He would do away with them (Isa. 1:13–15; Hos. 2:11)? God hates any church law, ritual, or form of religion that violates good and exalts pride and hypocrisy j God works on sabbaths as well as on other days in upholding the universe and running Its infinite mechanism; He works in providence, watching over and caring for all creation of dependent creatures, so here Christ worked in healing on the sabbath, in providing food for the hungry, and performing acts of mercy and love. This is the true principle of sabbath observance if there is to be any recognition of one day above another (Rom. 14:5–6). We are not to rest in indolence or merely rest from physical and mental toil, but we are to follow the divine examples and "do good on the sabbath days" (Mt. 12:12; Mk. 2:27–28; 3:4; Lk. 6:9; 13:16; Jn. 7:22–23; Gal. 4:9–10; Col. 2:14–17) k Referring to the delegated authority given Him by the Father (v 19–40; Heb. 1:1–2). He was working the works that the Father gave Him to do, and since the Father worked on sabbaths, so He was also under orders to work on the sabbath
l Note the many attempts upon the life of Christ (Mt. 26:3, refs.)
m This was another reason for wanting to kill Him. All Jews considered God as their Father, but here they understood Him to mean that God was His personal Father making Him equal with God n Before becoming man, Jesus was equal with both the Father and the Holy Spirit. He had a Spirit body and all the natural attributes and powers like them, but in becoming man He laid aside this God-form and "emptied Himself" to be like man (See notes, Phil. 2:5–11). Note the claims of equality with God in the outline (v 17–29). This equality was in fulfillment of the plan of the Trinity, not of one as an independent, but of all as partners o No person of the Trinity acts independently of the others. During His "self-emptying" life He was an agent of the Father, who worked through Him by the Holy Spirit (Isa. 11:2; 61:1; Acts 10:38, Christ's union with Father, p. 105) p The Son does the same works as the Father in perfect union with Him and His will q The Son was limited in knowledge and wisdom and power during the days of His flesh (Isa. 11:2; 50:4; Lk. 2:40, 52; Mt. 11:25–27; 24:36; Acts 1:6–8; Rev. 1:1)

j Mk. 16:15-16; Lk. 24:47; Acts 2:38-39; 3:19; Rom. 10:9-17 k As God this could not be true, but as the son of man all life-giving powers and all authority to redeem and judge were given by the Father through the Holy Ghost (Isa. 11:2; 42:1; 61:1; Acts 10:38; Mt. 12:28)

m Only the bodies die at physical death (Jas. 2:26) and only the bodies go into the graves to await physical resurrection (v 28-29). All scriptures on the future resurrection of the dead refer to the bodies that sleep in the graves, not to the souls and spirits which are immortal and do not sleep in the graves (1 Pet. 3:4; note). The righteous are in a conscious state in heaven (Eph. 4:8-10; Phil. 1:21-24; 2 Cor. 5:8; Rev. 6:9-11; Heb. 12:22-23) and the wicked are conscious in hell (Lk. 16:19-21; Isa. 14:9; Rev. 20:11-15). See p. 881
n Souls and spirits of all men will be brought back from heaven or hell to the place where the bodies were buried and God will then resurrect them so that they will hear the voice of the Son of God and come forth to live forever in heaven or hell (v 28-29; Dan. 12:2)
o The bodies cannot come forth out of the graves lifeless and dead, so when the souls and spirits reunite with the bodies in the resurrection they will come forth like Christ did when His soul and spirit came back from hell to the body in the tomb and He came out of the grave (Ps. 16:10; Mt. 12:40; 28:1-6; Eph. 4:8-10; also Acts 2:27)
p The righteous that "have done good" (v 29); that are "blessed and holy" (Rev. 20:4-6); that "are Christ's" (1 Cor. 15:23, 51-58; Gal. 5:24); that are "worthy" (Lk. 21:36); that are "in Christ" (1 Th. 4:16-17; 2 Cor. 5:17); that are "in the way, the truth, and the life" (Jn. 14:1-6); that have purified themselves "even as He is pure" (1 Jn. 3:2-3; 2 Cor. 7:1; Gal. 5:16-24; Heb. 12:14); that are without "spot or wrinkle... and without blemish" and are in "the church, the body of Christ" (Eph. 1:22-23; 5:27; 1 Cor. 12:13; Col. 1:18, 24), will be resurrected to eternal life 1,000 years before the wicked (v 29; Dan. 12:2) q The wicked will be resurrected to eternal punishment and damnation 1,000 years after the resurrection of the righteous (v 29; Dan. 12:2; Rev. 14:9-11; 20:4-6, 11-15; 21:8; 22:15)
r Gr, prasso, to practice or perform repeatedly, habitually; thus differing from poieo, translated in this same verse "done good," which means to make basically good, and refers not so much to individual acts of goodness as to character, nature, and conduct s Gr. krisis, judgment, as in v 22, 24, 27. The wicked will be resurrected to judgment and punishment in contrast to the righteous who will be raised to everlasting life and eternal freedom from judgment (v 24)
t Christ's union with the Father, p. 105 u If I am the only one that bears witness of Myself it may be accurate, but to be legally true and acceptable there must be two or three witnesses (Dt. 17:6)
v The Father (v 31; 7:28; 8:26; Mt. 3:17; 17:5). I do not refer to John the Baptist who also witnessed of Me (v 33-35), but I refer to God and the works which are greater witnesses than John (v 36-38)
w This was a common rabbinic idiom for a famous man. Cp. 8:12. You believed John to be a prophet. A prophet cannot lie, so why not believe what he said of Me (Jn. 1:29)?

21 For as the Father raiseth up the dead, and quickeneth them; even so the Son quickeneth whom[a] he will.

(4) Claims equality with God in judgment (Acts 17:31)

22 For the Father judgeth no man, but hath committed[b] all judgment unto the Son:

(5) Claims equality with God in honour (Heb. 2:7-9)

23 That all men should honour the Son, [c]even as they honour the Father. He that honoureth not the Son honoureth not the Father which hath sent him.

(6) Claims equality with God in giving eternal life (17:2)

▸24 Verily, verily, I say unto you, He that heareth[d] my word, and [d]believeth on him that sent me, [e]hath everlasting life, and shall not come into [f]condemnation; [g]but is passed from death unto life.

✱25 Verily, verily, I say unto you, [h]The hour is coming, and now is, when the [i]dead shall hear the voice of the Son of God: [j]and they that hear shall live. ◂

(7) Claims equality with God in self-existant life (1:4)

26 For as the Father hath life in himself; [k]so hath he given to the Son to have life in himself;

27 And hath given him authority to execute judgment also, because he is the Son of man.

(8) Claims equality with God over death and destiny

✱28 [l]Marvel not at this: for the hour is coming, in the which all that are [m]in the graves [n]shall hear his voice, ▸29 [o]And shall come forth; [p]they that have done good, unto the resurrection of life; and [q]they that have [r]done evil, unto the resurrection of [s]damnation.

(9) Claims absolute justice in His own right (8:16; 9:39)

30 [t]I can of mine own self do nothing: as I hear, I judge: and my judgment is just; because I seek not mine own will, but the will of the Father which hath sent me.

(10) Claims 4-fold witness: A John the Baptist (1:29)

31[u] If I bear witness of myself, my witness is not true.

32 ¶ There is [v]another that beareth witness of me; and I know that the witness which he witnesseth of me is true.

33 Ye sent unto John, and he bare witness unto the truth.

34 But I receive not testimony from man: but these things I say, that ye might be saved.

35 He was a[w] burning and a shining light: and ye were willing for a season to rejoice in his light.

B His own works (10:31-38)

36 ¶ But I have greater witness than that of John: for the works which the Father hath given me to finish, the same works that I do, bear witness of me, that the Father hath sent me.

C The Father (Jn. 8:13; 10:25; 12:28; 14:10; Mt. 3:17; 17:5)

37 And the Father himself, which hath sent me, hath borne witness of me. [a]Ye have neither heard his voice at any time, nor seen his shape.

38 And ye have not his word abiding in you: for whom he hath sent, him ye believe not.

D The Scriptures (Lk. 24:27, 44)

●39 ¶ [b]Search the scriptures; for in them ye think ye have eternal life: and they are they which [c]testify of me.

40 And ye will not come to me, that ye might have life.

41 I receive not [d]honour from men.

42 But I know you, that ye have not the love of God in you.

(11) Christ's power of attorney: foretells His rejection and Jews' reception of the coming Anti-Christ (Dan. 9:27)

✱43[e] I am come in my Father's name, and ye receive me not: if [f]another shall come in his own name, [g]him ye will receive.

(12) Jesus rebukes unbelief

44[h] How can ye believe, which receive [i]honour one of another, and seek not the honour that cometh from God only?

45 [j]Do not think that I will accuse you to the Father: there is one that accuseth you, even Mō'ses, in whom ye trust.

46 For had ye believed Mō'ses, ye would have believed me: [k]for he wrote of me.

47 [l]But if ye believe not his writings, how shall ye believe my words?

CHAPTER 6

31 Five thousand miraculously fed (Mt. 14:15; Mk. 6:32; Lk. 9:11)

[m]AFTER these things Jē'sus went over the sea of Gāl'i-lee, which is the sea of [n]Tī-bē'rī-as.

2 And a great multitude followed him, because they saw his [o]miracles which he did on them that were diseased.

3 And Jē'sus went up into a mountain, and there he sat with his disciples.

4 And the passover, [p]a feast of the Jews, was nigh.

5 ¶ When Jē'sus then lifted up his eyes, and saw a great company come unto him, he saith unto Phil'ip, [q]Whence shall we buy bread, that these may eat?

6 And this he said to prove him: for he himself knew what a You Jews here today have never heard His voice as did Israel at Sinai (Dt. 5:22-33 and others in Mt. 3:17; 17:5) nor have you seen His shape (Gr. eidos, external appearance, form, figure) as men in other ages have seen His bodily form (Gen. 18:1-8; 32:24-30; Ex. 24:9-11; Josh. 5:13-15; Judg. 6:11-23; 13:3-23; 1 Chr. 21:16; Job 42:5; Isa. 6; Amos 9:1; Ezek. 1:26-28; Dan. 7:9-14; 10:5-6; Acts 7:56-59; Rev. 4-5). This proves that God has both a voice and a bodily shape

b Gr. ereunao, to search as a hound tracks by the scent. Lit., this reads: "Ye search the Scriptures, for ye think in them life eternal to have"
c My "works" (v 36) are only indirect testimonies; the Father Himself has given direct testimony concerning Me (v 30-37; Mt. 3:17; 17:5). That kind of testimony cannot be derived by you, for you have never heard His voice (v 37). Neither have you the direct witness of the Spirit as all believers have, for you do not have His Word in you and you refuse to believe in Me whom He hath sent (v 38, 40). Yet there is one form of direct testimony of Me that you can know; that is, if you will search the Scriptures

q Question 33, Next, v 9. There was never the slightest mention as to where they were going to get money. This was not a great concern of this evangelistic team as it is with modern evangelists and Christian workers of every kind and in almost every place, with Christ and His faith nothing was impossible (Mt. 17:20; 21:22; Mk. 9:23; 11:22-24; Jn. 15:7, 16)

2 Jerome (378-430 A.D.) testifies that it was found in many Greek and Latin MSS

3 Eusebius (315 A.D.) quotes Papias (130 A.D.) as referring to it

4 Ambrose (374 A.D.) and Augustine (395 A.D.) quote it

5 300 Cursive MSS. agree in placing It here in John's gospel

6 The Constitutions of the Holy Apostles (250 A.D.), at least 150-300 years before these two MSS., refers to this woman who was brought before Jesus (Ante-Nicene Fathers, Vol. VII, 408)

7 The second epistle of Callistus (217 A.D.) refers to it (Ante-Nicene Fathers, Vol. VIII, 618)

8 Since it has been brought down to us and is in all Bibles, why question further in view of the above facts? Could it not have been part of the original gospel and in some hand written copies could it not have been left out by mistake? On the basis of leaving it out because a few MSS. do not have it, we could also leave out whole books because they are not in some MSS

b He appeared with Philip in Jn. 1:44; 12:22. He solved the problem for a very few, but Jesus solved it for the very many (v 9-13). He found a baker boy with his basket of barley loaves. Such boys are to be seen among crowds even today in the Orient

d On all such occasions Jesus gave thanks to God for blessings already provided, putting emphasis on thankfulness rather than asking for food to be blessed e As much as everyone could eat, not only "take a little," as expressed by Philip in v 7 f It is always a divine principle to use everything possible and waste nothing. God has always followed the principle of creating everything for a purpose and of using everything according to the creative purpose g They had more than twice as much left over as when they started and yet 5,000 men were filled and fully satisfied. Twelve baskets full - one for each of the apostles h Gr. kophinos, a wicker hard-basket, not the same as in Mt. 15:37; Mk. 8:8. Many traveling salesmen were always on hand wherever crowds gathered, so there would be many baskets in such a large crowd i The one spoken of in the law and prophets, the Messiah (Jn. 1:21, 45) j This notable miracle was sufficient to cause an immediate political rally to make Christ king of the Jews. A man that could do this could defeat the Romans and the whole world, so they tried to take Him by force and make Him a king. Jesus did what every man must learn to do in times of popularity and temptation to be exalted over success. He slipped away from the crowd into some secret place to pray. What a lesson to learn! Would to God many men today who are constantly seeking to exalt themselves as God's man of the hour would stumble on to this example and have grace to follow it. It is repulsive to say the least to hear and see the self-exaltation of such men. Believe it or not, Pr. 16:18 will be fulfilled many times in these days of pride and boastfulness over gifts and abilities, which, if really received, should make men the most humble and dependent upon God and as nothing before men

h Questions 37-38. What sign can You give to prove that You are the Messiah and the Son of God? Your multiplying bread does not prove it, for Moses gave Israel bread for 40 years and He did not claim to be the Messiah or the Son of God. See note, 2:11 Next, v 42
i Moses did not give you the true bread that feeds the soul and sustains eternal life, but that mere temporal bread that feeds the body only (Ex. 16:15; Ps. 78:24). See note on 1:17

1 Bread of Life (6:35-51)
2 Light of the World (8:12; 9:5)
3 Door of the Sheep (10:7-9)
4 Good Shepherd (10:11-14)
5 Resurrection and Life (11:25)
6 Way, Truth, and Life (14:6)
7 True Vine (15:1-6)
l Will never thirst because he can have "rivers of living water" flowing out of his innermost being (Jn. 7:37-39). The abundant fulness of the Holy Spirit will meet every need and solve every problem (Mt. 17:20; 21:22; Mk. 9:23; 11:22-24; Lk. 11:9-13; Jn. 14:12-17, 26; 15:7, 16, 26; 16:7-15; Acts 1:4-8; 8:26; 1 Cor. 12:1-13; Gal. 3:14; 5:16-26)

he would do.

7 Phil'ip answered him, Two hundred[a] pennyworth of bread is not sufficient for them, that every one of them may take a little.

8 One of his disciples, [b]An'drew, Si'mon Pe'ter's brother, saith unto him, 9 There is a lad here, which hath five barley loaves, and two small fishes: [c]but what are they among so many?

10 And Je'sus said, Make the men sit down. Now there was much grass in the place. So the men sat down, in number about five thousand.

11 And Je'sus took the loaves; and when he had[d] given thanks, he distributed to the disciples, and the disciples to them that were set down; and likewise of the fishes[e] as much as they would.

12 When they were filled, he said unto his disciples, Gather up the fragments that remain, that[f] nothing be lost.

13 Therefore they gathered them together,[g] and filled twelve [h]baskets with the fragments of the five barley loaves, which remained over and above unto them that had eaten.

32 Jesus demanded as King: secret of mortifying personal pride

14 ¶ Then those men, when they had seen the miracle that Je'sus did, said, This is of a truth[i] that prophet that should come into the world.

15 When Je'sus [j] therefore perceived that they would come and take him by force, to make him a king, he departed again into a mountain himself alone.

33 Jesus walks on water (Mt. 14:22; Mk. 6:45)

16 ¶ And when even was now come, his disciples went down unto the sea, 17 And entered into a ship, and went over the sea toward Ca-per'na-um. And it was now dark, and Je'sus was not come to them.

18 And the sea[k] arose by reason of a great wind that blew.

19 So when they had rowed about[l] five and twenty or thirty furlongs, they see[m] Je'sus walking on the sea, and drawing nigh unto the ship: and they were afraid.

20 But he saith unto them, [n]It is I; be not afraid.

21 Then they willingly received him into the ship: [o]and immediately the ship was at the land whither they went.

34 Discourse on the bread of life: (1) Multitudes seek Jesus

22 ¶ The day following, when the people which stood on the other side of the sea saw that there was none other boat there, save that one whereinto his disciples were entered, and that Je'sus went not with his disciples into the boat, but that his disciples were gone away alone;

23 (Howbeit there came other boats from Ti-be'ri-as nigh unto the place where they did eat bread, after that the Lord had given thanks:)

24 When the people therefore saw that Je'sus was not there, neither his disciples, they also took shipping, and came to Ca-per'na-um, [a] seeking for Je'sus.

25 And when they had found him on the other side of the sea, they said unto him, Rab'bi, [b]when camest thou hither?

(2) Jesus rebukes the motive of the mixed multitude

26 Je'sus answered them and said, Verily, verily, I say unto you, [c]Ye seek me, not because ye saw the miracles, but because ye did eat of the loaves, and were filled.

▸27 [d]Labour not for the meat which perisheth, but for that meat which endureth unto everlasting life, which the Son of man shall give unto you: for him hath God the Father [e]sealed.

(3) People ask the secret of power to do the works of God

28 Then said they unto him, [f]What shall we do, that we might work the works of God?

(4) Secret of power stated

29 Je'sus answered and said unto them, [g]This is the work of God, that ye believe on him whom he hath sent.

(5) The people demand a sign instead of exercising faith

30 They said therefore unto him, [h]What sign shewest thou then, that we may see, and believe thee? what dost thou work?

31 Our fathers did eat manna in the desert; as it is written, He gave them bread from heaven to eat.

(6) God gives the true bread of life, not Moses

▸32 Then Je'sus said unto them, Ver'ily, verily, I say unto you, Mo'ses gave you [i]not that bread from heaven; but my Father giveth you the true bread from heaven.

33 For the bread of God is he which cometh down from heaven, and giveth life unto the world.

(7) Request for eternal bread

34 Then said they unto him, Lord, [j] evermore give us this bread.

(8) Jesus the true bread of life

✱35 And Je'sus said unto them, I am the bread of life: [k]he that cometh to me shall never hunger; and he that believeth on me shall [l] never thirst. ◂

a They no doubt still had in mind to crown Him king (v 15)
b Question 35. Next, v 28
c You seek Me, not because you saw miracles, but because you did eat; not as being convinced by visible miracles, which should lead godly men to acknowledge Me as Messiah, but as by appetite, which leads sensual men like beasts through impulse of want and supply d 23 conditions of eternal life:
1 Come to Christ (Jn. 6:37, 44, 45, 65)
2 Eat His flesh - drink His blood (Jn. 6:50-51, 53, 58)
3 Labour (Jn. 6:27)
4 Reap - win souls (Jn. 4:35-36)
5 Hate (love less) the life in this world (Jn. 12:25)
6 Know God and Christ (Jn. 17:2-3)
7 Enter right gate (Mt. 7:13-14)
8 Cause no offense (Mt. 18:8-9)
9 Keep commandments (Mt. 19:17)
10 Forsake all (Mt. 19:27-29; Mk. 10:28-30; Lk. 18:28-30)
11 Live free from sin (Rom. 5:21; 6:16-23; 8:1-13; Tit. 2:11-14)
12 Continue in well doing and seek eternal life (Rom. 2:7)
13 Sow to the Spirit (Gal. 6:7-8)
14 Fight the good fight of faith: lay hold on it (1 Tim. 6:12, 19)
15 Be sober and hope to the end for it (Tit. 1:2; 3:7; 1 Pet. 1:5, 9, 13 with Rom. 8:24)
16 Endure temptations (Jas. 1:12)
17 Let the promise of it remain in you and continue in God and Christ (1 Jn. 2:24-25; 5:11-20)
18 Love everybody (1 Jn. 3:14-15)
19 Keep yourself in the love of God, looking for eternal life (Jude 20-24)
20 Overcome sin (Rev. 2:7, 11, 17, 26; 3:5, 12, 21)
21 Be faithful unto death (Rev. 2:10; Heb. 12:14-15)
22 Believe and obey the gospel (Jn. 3:15-19, 36; 4:14; 5:24; 6:40, 47, 54; 2 Cor. 5:17; Rom. 1:5)
23 Be born again, hear Christ, and follow Him (Jn. 3; 10:27-29). We get eternal life now and keep it forever if we meet the above conditions, but it does not become an unforfeitable eternal possession until we "enter into" it (Mt. 7:13; 18:8-9; 19:17; Rom. 6:22); "receive" it (Rom. 6:23; Jas. 1:12; 1 Pet. 1:13; Rev. 2:10); "reap" it (Gal. 6:7-8); and "inherit" it in the world to come (Mt. 19:27-29; Mk. 10:28-30; Lk. 18:28-30), and at the "end" of this life (Rom. 6:22). See note w, 3:16
e Confirmed by giving Him the Holy Spirit without measure (Jn. 3:33-34). See note a, Jn. 3:34, and notes on 1 Ki. 21:5; Job 34:14; 2 Cor. 1:22; Eph. 1:13; 4:30; Rev. 7:2
f Question 36. Next, v 30. This is and has always been the great question among Christians, and rightly so, for we are commanded to "let" men see our good works and glorify God (Mt. 5:16) and to show faith by works (Jas. 1:22-27; 2:9-26). People "zealous of good works" are the only kind that are redeemed (Tit. 2:11-14). A desire to do miracles is not sinful if the motive is right. There can be a right and a wrong motive back of everything and a right and wrong way to do everything Lucifer (Isa. 14:12-14) and Adam (Gen. 3:1-14) had a noble desire - to be like God, but the motive back of it and the methods they used were sinful. One should desire this more than his necessary food, but he must go about it the way Christ set the example - by emptying Himself (Phil. 2:5-11, notes). Jesus did not rebuke even these selfish people for wanting miraculous power. He gave them the only true answer (v 29)
g This answer to the question of what to do to work the works of God is the clearest one possible. It gives the sum total of all answers to the question. It has been so lightly passed over and limited in meaning to a mere faith that Jesus is the Son of God and to forgiveness of sins only. How far from the whole truth this is! Faith and forgiveness are a part of what is referred to, but not all. Receiving the enduement of power from on high to "work the works of God" is included (Mk. 16:15-20; Lk. 24:49; Jn. 14:12)

k 3rd O. T. prophecy fulfilled in John (6:45; Isa. 54:13; Jer. 31:34). Next, 7:42
l This is how men are drawn by God. He uses agents to preach His Word (Rom. 10:11-17; 1 Cor. 1:17-24) and the Holy Spirit to convict of sin (Jn. 16:7-11). Man's conscience then condemns or sanctions his own action as to right and wrong according to the light received (Rom. 2:12-16; 2 Cor. 2:15-17; 1 Jn. 1:7). God draws or allures but never drags or uses force

m Gr. horao, meaning here to comprehend fully or understand with the mind: to see truth fully. It is used in this sense in many places (Jn. 8:38; 14:9; 15:24; 1 Jn. 3:6). See note, Jn. 1:18 n This expresses an act and a continued process. It could not be that one act of faith and no more will save the soul (Lk. 8:13; 1 Tim. 1:19; 4:1; 5:8, 12; 6:12, 21; 2 Tim. 2:11-13; Heb. 3:6, 12-14; 4:11; 10:23-38; Jude 5; Rev. 2:13). The faith that saves is an ever present active one and it cannot cease and still produce results. Even God has faith in all He does (Rom. 4:17; 1 Cor. 13:13). Believers live by the faith of the Son of God and must always live by faith (Rom. 1:17; Gal. 2:20; Heb. 10:23-38). See note, Jn. 3:15
o See note, Jn. 6:27

q 16th N. T. prophecy in John (6:50-51, fulfilled and is being fulfilled). Next, v 53

r Any man that eats thereof will not die. This refers to eternal life, not to physical life which all men have (Heb. 9:27; 1 Cor. 15:51-58; 1 Th. 4:16-17)

s The 4th and last time in this chapter Christ claims to be the bread of life (v 35, 41, 48, 51). This bread is His flesh which He gave for the life of the world (v 33, 51). Conditions must be met by the world in order to get this life. See note, v 27 t Gr. zoe, life. He is the life producing bread (v 48, 51) u This is one of a number of conditions one must meet to have everlasting life. See note, v 27 v Eating of Christ simply means that man must accept by faith what Christ did for him and live by obedience to Him without sin so the penalty will not have to be paid again. See note, v 63
w Question 41. Next, v 60. We live when we accept Christ as our substitute and meet conditions (note, v 27)
x 17th N. T. prophecy in John (6:53-54, being fulfilled and will be completely fulfilled in the resurrection, 1 Cor. 15:23, 51-58; 1 Th. 4:16-17). Next, v 62. See note, Jn. 3:3

36 But I have said unto you, That ye also have [c]seen me, and believe not.

37 [d]All that the Father giveth me shall come to me; and him that [c]cometh to me I will in no wise cast out. ◂

38 For I came down from heaven, not to do mine own will, but the will of him that sent me.

39 [d]And this is the Father's will which hath sent me, that of all which he hath given me [e]I should lose nothing, but should raise it up again at the [f]last day.

▸40 And this is the will of him that sent me, that every one which seeth the Son, and believeth on him, may have [g]everlasting life: and I will raise him up at the last day.

(9) Murmuring Jews (Mt. 26:3)

41 The Jews then murmured at him, because he said, [h]I am the bread which came down from heaven.

42 And they said, [i]Is not this Jē'sus, the son of Jō'seph, whose father and mother we know? how is it then that he saith, I came down from heaven?

(10) Jesus explains more fully the bread of life, its benefits and how it is received

43 Jē'sus therefore answered and said unto them, Murmur not among yourselves.

44 [j]No man can come to me, except the Father which hath sent me [k]draw him: and I will raise him up at the last day. ◂

45 It is written in the prophets, [k]And they shall be all taught of God. Every man therefore that [l]hath heard, and hath learned of the Father, cometh unto me.

46 Not that any man [m]hath seen the Father, save he which is of God, he hath seen the Father.

▸47 Verily, verily, I say unto you, He that [n]believeth on me hath [o]everlasting life.

48 I am that bread of life.

49 Your fathers did eat manna in the wilderness, [p]and are dead.

50 [q]This is the bread which cometh down from heaven, that [r]a man may eat thereof, and not die.

▸51 [s]I am the [t]living bread which came down from heaven: [u]if any man eat of this bread, he shall live for ever: and [v]the bread that I will give is my flesh, which I will give for the life of the world.

(11) Jews are more puzzled

52 The Jews therefore strove among themselves, saying, [w]How can this man give us his flesh to eat?

(12) Jesus still further explains the bread of life

53 Then Jē'sus said unto them, Verily, verily, I say unto you, [x]Except ye eat the flesh of the Son of man, and drink his blood, ye have no life in you.

▸54 Whoso [c]eateth my flesh, and drinketh my blood, hath eternal life; and I will raise him up at the last day.

55 For my flesh is meat indeed, and my blood is drink indeed.

▸56 He that eateth my flesh, and drinketh my blood, dwelleth in me, and I in him.

▸57 As the [t]living Father [y]hath sent me, and I live by the Father: so he that eateth me, even he shall live by me.

▸58 This is that bread [z]which came down from heaven: not as your fathers did eat manna, and are dead: he that eateth of this bread shall [e]live for ever.

35 Discipleship tested by doctrine (Cp. Mt. 8:22, refs.)

59 These things said he in the synagogue, as he taught in Cā-pēr'na-ŭm.

60 Many therefore of his disciples, when they had heard this, said, [a]This is an hard saying; who can hear it?

61 When [b]Jē'sus knew in himself that his disciples murmured at it, he said unto them, [c]Doth this offend you?

62 [d]What and if ye shall see the Son of man ascend up where he was before?

63 [e]It is the spirit that quickeneth; [f]the flesh profiteth nothing: [g]the words that I speak unto you, they are spirit, and they are life.

64 But there are some of you that believe not. [h]For Jē'sus knew from the beginning who they were that believed not, and who should betray him.

65 And he said, Therefore said I unto you, that no man can come unto me, except it were given unto him of my Father.

66 ¶ From that time [i]many of his disciples went back, and walked no more with him.

36 Peter's new confession (Cp. Mt. 16:13; Mk. 8:27; Lk. 9:18)

67 Then said Jē'sus unto the twelve, Will ye also go away?

68 Then Sī'mon Pē'tēr answered him, Lord, to whom shall we go? thou hast the words of [j]eternal life.

69 And [k]we believe and are sure that thou art that Christ, the Son of the living God.

37 Jesus predicts His betrayal by Judas

70 Jē'sus answered them, [l]Have not I chosen you twelve, and one of you is a [m]devil?

71 He spake of [n]Jū'das Īs-kăr'ī-ot the son of Sī'mon: for he it was that should betray him, being one of the twelve.

38 Jesus taunted by His brethren (Cp. Lk. 9:51; Mk. 3:21; Jn. 7:3-10; Ps. 69:8-9) a Eating and drinking is used figuratively of partaking of the benefits of the death of Christ. We partake by faith and enjoy the benefits because God gives them on the basis of what Christ did for us (Eph. 2:8-9; Rom. 3:24-25; 5:1-11; 10:9-10; Acts 3:16; 4:12; 15:9; 26:18; Gal. 2:16-20; 3:1-26; 1 Pet. 1:5-13). Eating is used figuratively of partaking of spiritual food (1 Cor. 10:1-3); of other benefits received (Ps. 69:9; Ezek. 2:8; 3:1-3; Rev. 10:9); and even of the evil results of sin (Pr. 9:17; Hos. 10:13; Jas. 5:3). No figure of speech was more common to Jews at this time, so there was no excuse for them to misunderstand His words. By comparing v 47-48 with 53-54 we see that believing on Christ is the same as eating and drinking Him

b Gr. zoe, life giving Father c Three times Christ here claims to be sent from heaven (v 38, 41, 42) and 5 times He claims He was sent by the Father (v 38, 39, 40, 44, 57)
d Seven times manna and the true bread are spoken of as coming from heaven (v 31, 32, 33, 50, 51, 58)
e Six times here men are promised everlasting life if they meet certain conditions (v 40, 47, 50, 51, 54, 58). Note, v 27
f Question 42. Next, v 61. Who can digest such a doctrine as this? It is intolerable and impractical g Jesus knew by the gift of knowledge that this time it was some disciples that were offended and murmured (1 Cor. 12:4-11; Isa. 11:2, Cp. v 64) h Questions 43-44. Next, v 67. If eating My flesh and drinking My blood offend you, what if I tell you a harder doctrine? Suppose you saw the Son of Man ascend up to heaven where He was before?
i 18th N. T. prophecy in John (6:62, fulfilled, Lk. 24:51; Acts 1:11; Eph. 4:8-10). Next, 7:33
j This must be understood figuratively of the benefits of His sacrifice. I will give this bread, which symbolizes My body given in death to save the world (1 Pet. 2:24; Col. 1:20; 2:14-17)
k If you could literally eat My flesh and drink My blood, it would not save your souls l The life I speak of is spiritual and eternal life, not fleshly life (2 Cor. 3:6; Heb. 4:12) m Jesus knew two things (v 64):
1 From the beginning of His ministry that some did not believe
2 Who should betray Him
n Many disciples went back, but not the twelve (v 67)
o Questions 45-46. Next, v 70. Will you twelve also abandon Me? You that I have saved, chosen out of the world, empowered for service, revealed eternal secrets to, and whom I have great plans for?
p See note d, v 27
q 4 things Peter was sure of:
1 No one else to go to
2 Christ alone had the words of eternal life
3 Jesus was the Christ
4 Christ was the Son of the living God. This kind of confession brings the new birth (1 Jn. 5:1)
r Question 47. Next, 7:11
s Gr. diabolos, adversary, false accuser, slanderer (1 Tim. 3:11; 2 Tim. 3:3; Tit. 2:3). Here it reveals Judas as an adversary of Christ. The word is otherwise used of Satan who is an adversary of God and man (note, Jn. 8:44) t He was an ordinary man, the son of Simon (Jn. 6:71; 12:4; 13:2, 26); a genuine chosen and empowered apostle (Mt. 10:1-20; Mk. 3:14-19; Lk. 6:12-16; 9:1-10; Acts 1:17); the treasurer of the disciples (Jn. 12:4-6; 13:29); and a successful preacher and healer (Mk. 6:7-13; Lk. 9:10). He was named "Iscariot," meaning "man of Kerioth," a place in Judah (Josh. 15:25). He became a "thief" and an "adversary" of Christ late in His ministry (Jn. 6:70; 12:4-6). Betrayed Jesus Mt. 26:14-16, 47-50; Mk. 14:10-11, 43-45; Lk. 22:3-6, 47-49; Jn. 13:2; 18:2-5; Acts 1:16-25), returned the money to the chief priests (Mt. 27:3-10), committed suicide and is lost (Mt. 26:24; 27:5; Mk. 14:21; Lk. 22:22; Jn. 17:12; Acts 1:16-25). Prophecies concerning him (Mt. 26:21-25; Mk. 14:18-21; Lk. 22:21-23; Jn. 13:18-26; 17:12; Acts 1:16, 20 with Ps. 41:9; 69:25; 109:8; Zech. 11:12-13) c It was held the 15th to 22nd of September (Lev. 23:34–44; Dt. 16:13–16; 2 Chr. 8:13; Zech. 14:16–21). This feast was about 7 months before the crucifixion. See note a, 2:13

e Thy disciples in Judea may see and be spectators of Thy works f This was no ordinary man. Another would have taken every opportunity of exhibiting himself before the public that he might become famous, but not so with Christ. Their appeal was to leave the country, the small villages, and the ignorant people and go to the city, the capital, among the learned doctors and rulers to make himself a name g They knew His miracles and no doubt accepted Him as a prophet, but not as the Messiah, for they had found Him declining the kingship (Jn. 6:15), which was one of the Messiah's chief offices. They could not believe that He would do this if He were really the Messiah h Either He referred to the time of His sufferings or He had business to attend to before going to the feast. The world cannot hate you because you still have its interests at heart and you expect a worldly Messiah. It hates Me because I condemn its injustice, pride, ambitions, way of life, and its doctrines.
i Gr. anabaino, the technical word for going with others in a caravan (11:55; Mt. 20:17–18; Mk. 10:32–33; Lk. 2:42; 18:31; 19:4, 28)
j He did not say that He was not going to the feast, but "I go not up yet." It could have been that He wanted to go alone with His disciples, not with the multitude, so as not to bring criticism from His enemies that He was exciting sedition, and also to prevent any popular commotion from a renewed effort to make Him king (6:15)
k He stayed in Galilee about 4 days and went up in the midst of the feast (v 14)
l Any godly man who was seeking to save the lost instead of seeking worldly fame and popularity would want to stay away from the ever changeable mobs m That is, the rulers of the Jews who were seeking to destroy Him. From the following verses it is clear that many were for Him, but would not openly take a stand for Him for fear of the rulers (v 12–13, 30–32, 40–53) n Question 48. Next, v 15. The great question of lost souls!
o Jesus knew this would go on at the feast, so perhaps wanted this to die down some before making His appearance p Leads astray (Cp. Mt. 24:4, 24; 1 Tim. 4:1; Jude 13)
q Rabbinical law required Him to be there the first day, for the performance of many of the rites; but as they were mostly of human invention, He might have thought it improper to attend them r Question 49. Next, v 19. He knew their Scriptures, traditions, history and future better than all others combined. (Lk. 2:42–47). He had great knowledge and wisdom from God (Isa. 11:2; 42:1; 50:6; 61:1; Lk. 2:40, 52; Jn. 7:16; 8:28, 47; 12:49; 14:10, 24; 17:8) s Seven times He claimed that He spoke only God's words and at His direction (7:16; 8:28, 47; 12:49; 14:10, 24; 17:8). He was a true ambassador and a true example to modern ones (2 Cor. 5:20)
t The acid test of true doctrine is whether or not it is scriptural; whether it makes men love God supremely and others as themselves; and whether it glorifies God and produces peace among men. He challenged His enemies to judge His doctrine on this basis u Another infallible rule. I will give to prove whether I am of God or not: if I am a self-seeker for My own glory and secular interests, then reject Me. But if I promote God's glory, induce men to serve Him, propose nothing contrary to the Scripture or the fulfillment of it, then judge Me a true prophet. If you add to this the miraculous works confirming My divine mission, then you must accept Me as the Messiah v Questions 50–52. Next, v 23
w Jesus accused them of violating the very law they professed to respect and obey (v 19–23)

AFTER these things Jē'sus walked in Gāl'ĭ-lee: for he would not walk in [b]Jew'rў, because the Jews sought to kill him.

2 Now the [c]Jews' feast of tabernacles was at hand.

3 [d]His brethren therefore said unto him, Depart hence, and go into Jū-dæ'ā, that thy [e]disciples also may see the works that thou doest.

4 For there is [f]no man that doeth any thing in secret, and he himself seeketh to be known openly. If thou do these things, shew thyself to the world.

5 [g]For neither did his brethren believe in him.

6 Then Jē'sus said unto them, My time is not yet come: but your time is alway ready.

7 The world cannot hate you; but me it hateth, because I testify of it, that the works thereof are evil.

8 [h]Go ye up unto this feast: I go not up/yet unto this feast; for my time is not yet full come.

9 When he had said these words unto them, [i]he abode still in Gāl'ĭ-lee.

39 Final departure from Galilee to die for all men

10 ¶ But when his brethren were gone up, then went he also up unto the feast, [j]not openly, but as it were in secret.

11 Then the [k]Jews sought him at the feast, and said, [l]Where is he?

12 And there was much murmuring among the people [m]concerning him: for some said, He is a good man: others said, Nay; but he [n]deceiveth the people.

13 Howbeit no man spake openly of him for fear of the Jews.

40 First temple discourse: (1) The Jews marvel

14 ¶ Now about the [o]midst of the feast Jē'sus went up into the temple, and taught.

15 And the Jews marvelled, saying, [p]How knoweth this man letters, having never learned?

(2) The secret of getting truth and the acid test of a true servant of God

16 Jē'sus answered them, and said, [q]My doctrine is not mine, but his that sent me.

▸17 If any man will do his will, he shall [r]know of the doctrine, whether it be of God, or whether I speak of myself.

18 [s]He that speaketh of himself seeketh his own glory: but he that seeketh his glory that sent him, the same is true, and no unrighteousness is in him.

19 [t]Did not Mō'sēs give you the law, and [u]yet none of you keepeth the law? Why go ye about to kill me?

(3) Jesus accused of being demon possessed (Jn. 8:48, 52; 10:20. Cp. Mt. 12:24)

20 The [v]people answered and said, Thou hast a devil: who goeth about to kill thee?

(4) Jesus rebukes inconsistent practices (Cp. Mt. 23:3, 13)

21 Jē'sus answered and said unto them, I have done [w]one work, and ye all marvel.

22 Mō'sēs therefore gave unto you circumcision; (not because it is of [x]Mō'sēs, but of the fathers;) and ye on the sabbath day circumcise a man.

23 If a man on the sabbath day receive circumcision, that the law of Mō'sēs should not be broken; [y]are ye angry at me, because I have made a man every whit [z]whole on the sabbath day?

24 Judge not according to the appearance, but judge righteous judgment.

(5) Jewish objection to Jesus

25 Then said some of them of Jē-ru'sā-lĕm, [a]Is not this he, whom they seek to kill?

26 But, lo, he speaketh boldly, and they say nothing unto him. Do the rulers know indeed that this is the very Christ?

27 Howbeit we know this man whence he is: but when Christ cometh, [b]no man knoweth whence he is.

(6) Jesus answers the Jews

28 Then cried Jē'sus in the temple as he taught, saying, [c]Ye both know me, and ye know whence I am: and I am not come of myself, but he that sent me is true, whom ye know not.

29 But I know him: for I am from him, and he hath sent me.

(7) Division: plot to kill Jesus (Mt. 26:36, refs.)

30 Then they sought to [d]take him: but no man laid hands on him, because his hour was not yet come.

31 And many of the people believed on him, and said, [e]When Christ cometh, will he do [f]more miracles than these which this man hath done?

32 ¶ The Phär'ĭ-sees heard that the people murmured such things concerning him; and the Phär'ĭ-sees and the chief priests sent [g]officers to take him.

(8) Jesus answers Pharisees

★33 Then said Jē'sus unto them, [h]Yet a [i]little while am I with you and then I go unto him that sent me.

34 [j]Ye shall seek me, and shall not find me: and where I am, thither ye [k]cannot come.

(9) Jewish reasonings about Jesus and His doctrines

35 Then said the Jews among themselves, [l]Whither will he go, that we shall not find him? will he go unto the [m]dispersed among the [n]Gĕn'tĭles, and teach the Gĕn'tĭles?

a Many strangers at the feast were ignorant of the plots of the Pharisees, so they were astonished at His announcement b This one work was healing the man on the sabbath (v 23; 5:1–16). The Pharisees accused Him of breaking the law and in the interest of religion thought He should be killed. He replied that they did more work on the sabbath in circumcising a boy than He did in healing a man, so who was the greater sinner (v 21–23)?
c Moses mentioned it only in Ex. 12:44, 48; Lev. 12:3, but the law concerning it was given to Abraham (Gen. 17:9–14)
d Question 53. Next, v 25
e In soul and body (5:8–9)
f Sight, or outward appearance. If you think you have not violated the sabbath in circumcision, then how can you think I broke the sabbath when I healed one of you who had been helpless for 38 years? If you will view My act in the same light as your own, then you will not class Me as a criminal. The covenant of healing (Ex. 15:26) should be obeyed as much as the covenant of circumcision (Gen. 17:9–14). Sickness in your midst proves you have broken God's covenant just as much as a foreskin would prove you have broken it. If you admit that circumcision is necessary, then why do you not admit that it is a necessity for a man to be cured on that day?
g Questions 54–55. Next, v 31
h The Rabbis taught from Isa. 53:8 that when the Messiah would be born He would hide Himself and that when He appeared no man would know from whence He had come. They had a proverb, "Three things come unexpectedly: a thing found by chance, the sting of a scorpion, and the Messiah."
i Christ took up their argument of v 27. Since you know Me and know where I came from, you should add this to your knowledge, that I have not come of Myself and am no self-appointed prophet. I came from God whom I know, but whom you do not know (v 28–29. See 8:19, note)
j Arrest Him (v 32, 44), but no man was able to touch Him until His time was come. God's power backed up by innumerable angels would not allow Him to be arrested at this time (Mt. 26:53; Lk. 22:53; Jn. 18:6; Heb. 12:22–23)

q This could be a prophetical reference to the nation seeking a deliverer in vain when the Romans would come and destroy their city r One must meet certain conditions to go up where He now is. If one is cut off in his sins he will never be able to go there, but if one is saved from them he will go there at death (2 Cor. 5:6; Phil. 1:21–24; Heb. 12:23; Rev. 6:9–11) s Questions 57–59. Next, v 41. To go some place else on earth and teach is all these Jews could comprehend at this time
t Gr. diaspora, dispersion, and refers to Israel being scattered among the nations. Only 3 times (v 35; Jas. 1:1; 1 Pet. 1:1) u Gr. hellen, translated "Gentile" 7 times (Jn. 7:35; Rom. 2:9, 10; 3:9; 1 Cor. 10:32; 12:13) and "Greek" 20 times (Jn. 12:20; Acts 14:1; 16:1, 3; 17:4; 18:4, 17; 19:10, 17; 20:21; 21:28; Rom. 1:14, 16; 10:12; 1 Cor. 1:22–24; Gal. 2:3; 3:28; Col. 3:11). Not the ordinary word ethnos, translated "Gentile" 93 times; "nation" 64 times; "heathen" and "people" 7 times. The Heb. goyim is rendered "nations" 371 times; "heathen" 143 times; "Gentile" 30 times; and "people" 11 times. The word "Gentile" simply means the non-Israelites, nations. Hellenes in the N. T. never means Jews, but the Hellenists, referring to Hellenized Jews who spoke Greek (Acts 6:1; 9:29; 11:20) a The 8th day, the great day of the feast because it was a day of great assembly and offering sacrifices for Israel; the first seven days they professed to offer sacrifices for other nations (Lev. 23: 34–36). On this day a priest drew water from the pool of Siloam, in a golden vessel, and brought it to the temple; and at the time of the morning sacrifice while it was on the altar he poured this water mingled with wine upon it, the people all the while singing with great joy. It was perhaps at this time that the Lord made His great prophecy of the fulness of the Holy Spirit in the life of each believer in Him (v 37–39).

b 20th N. T. prophecy in John (7:37–39, being fulfilled). Next, 8:21

c This confirms the fact of v 27 that "any man" of every race and generation from the beginning of the fulfillment of this prophecy can experience the "rivers of living water" (Mt. 3:11; Jn. 14:12; Acts 2:38–39; 5:32; Gal. 3:14). "He that believeth" proves that the promise is for every man, as much as it does in Mk. 16:16; Jn. 3:18, 36; 5:24; 6: 35, 40; 11:25; 12:44; 14:12; 1 Pet. 2: 6; 1 Jn. 5:5, 10

Conditions of receiving the Spirit

1 Thirst (v 37). This means the ardent, eager, famishing, keen, and all-consuming craving and passion of the soul for complete union with God and the fulness of the Spirit (Ps. 42:2; 63:1; 143:6; Isa. 41:17; 44:3)

2 Come unto Me (v 37). This means the complete surrender of the life to do the whole will of God as light is received (Isa. 55:1; Mt. 11:28–30; 1 Jn. 1:7)

3 Drink (v 37). This means the whole-hearted reception into one's life of the gifts, the fruit, and operations of the Holy Spirit (1 Cor. 12:4–13; Gal. 5:22–23; Rev. 22:17).

4 Believe on Me as the Scripture hath said (v 38). This means to believe in and obey to the letter the whole gospel program (Jn. 14:12–15; Mt. 28:20; Mk. 16:15–20; Lk. 24:49; Acts 1:4–8; 5:32)

e Out of the believer will flow unlimited power to do the works of Christ (Jn. 14:12)

f Gr. koilia, from koilos, hollow, bowels, belly, the midst of a thing. Here it means the innermost being or part of man: the soul and spirit, as the seat of the intellect, emotions and desires (Ps. 31:9; Pr. 18:8; 20:27; Jn. 7:38)

g A constant flow from the believer or the Spirit without measure – the measure Christ experienced (Jn. 3:34, note)

h This is Christ's explanation that the rivers of living water refer to the fulness of the Holy Spirit that was to be given to all men after He became glorified (Acts 2:33, 38–39). See note, Jn. 3:34. This is a prophecy of the same thing Joel spoke about (Cp. Joel 2:28 with Acts 2:1–21)

k Question 62. Next, v 47

l They were powerless to arrest Him, not being permitted of God.

m Questions 63–64. Next, v 51. Rulers believing a thing or not does not prove it to be right or wrong. This is a standard held too long now by too many people. Many rulers did believe in Him (Jn. 12: 42; 19:38–39) n Neither knowing the law nor keeping it saves the soul. The law only condemned and made guilty (Rom. 3:9–23; 7:7–25; 1 Jn. 3:4)

o Questions 65–66. Next, 8:5

p They here stated ignorance of facts that some claimed to know in v 27. Christ was not born in Galilee, but in Bethlehem (Mic. 5:1–2; Mt. 2; Lk. 2). If they had searched they would have found that Jonah, Hosea, Elijah, Elisha, and others were from the northern kingdom and not from Judea q John 7:53–8:11 is omitted in the Sinaitic and Vatican MSS. It should not be rejected as part of the original gospel because:

1 The Bezae MSS, Vulgate (383 A. D.), the Jerusalem Syriac (Cent. V), Memphitic (Cent. III), and the Ethiopic (Cent. IV) all have it

(10) The great declaration of the Spirit baptism (Mt. 3: 11; 20:22–23; Lk. 24:49; Jn. 14:12–17, 26; 15:26; 16: 13–15; Acts 1:4–8; 2:1–21, 38–39; 5:32; 8:14–21; 9:17; 10:44–48; 11:14–18; 15: 7–11; 19:1–6; Gal. 3:14)

41 Division: 4th attempt to kill Jesus (Mt. 26:3, refs.)

40 ¶ Many of the people therefore, when they heard this saying, said, Of a truth this is the Prophet.

41 Others said, This is the Christ. But some said, [i]Shall Christ come out of Gā'lĭ-lee?

★42 Hath not the scripture said, That Christ cometh of the seed of Dā'vid, and out of the town of Bĕth'lĕ-hĕm, where Dā'vid was?

43 So there was a division among the people because of him.

45 ¶ Then came the officers to the chief priests and Phăr'ĭ-sees; and they said unto them, [k]Why have ye not brought him?

46 The officers [l]answered, Never man spake like this man.

47 Then answered them the Phăr'ĭ-sees, [m]Are ye also deceived?

48 Have any of the rulers or of the Phăr'ĭ-sees believed on him?

49 But this people who knoweth not the law are cursed.

52 They answered and said unto him, Art thou also of Gā'lĭ-lee? [o]Search, and look: for out of Gā'lĭ-lee ariseth no prophet.

CHAPTER 8 — 76

43 Second temple discourse: (1) Woman taken in adultery

JĒ'ŞUS went unto the mount of Ŏl'ĭvеs.

2 And early in the morning he came again into the temple, and all the people came unto him; and he sat down, and taught them.

3 And the scribes and Phăr'ĭ-sees brought unto him a woman taken in adultery; and when they had set her in the midst,

4 They say unto him, Master, this woman was taken in adultery, in the very act.

5 Now Mō'şes in the law commanded us, that such should be [a]stoned: [b]but what sayest thou?

6 This they said, [c]tempting him, that they might have to accuse him. But Jĕ'şus stooped down and with his finger [d]wrote on the ground, as though he heard them not.

7 So when they continued asking him, he [e]lifted up himself, and said unto them, He that is [f]without sin among you, let him first [g]cast a stone at her.

8 And again he stooped down, and wrote on the ground.

9 And they which heard it, being [h]convicted by their own conscience, went out one by one, beginning at the eldest, even unto the last: and Jĕ'şus was left alone, and the woman standing in the [i]midst.

10 When Jĕ'şus had lifted up himself, and saw none but the woman, he said unto her, Woman, [j]where are those thine accusers? hath no man condemned thee?

11 She said, No man, Lord. And Jĕ'şus said unto [k]her, Neither do I condemn thee: go, and sin no more.

(2) Jesus the light of the world (Jn. 1:4–9; 9:5; 12:35)

▸12 ¶ Then spake Jĕ'şus [l]again unto them, saying, [m]I am the light of the world: he that followeth me shall not walk in darkness, but shall have the light of life.

(3) Jesus accused of boasting

13 The Phăr'ĭ-sees therefore said unto him, [n]Thou bearest record of thyself; thy record is not true.

(4) Jesus claims the Father as a witness (Jn. 5:37–38)

14 Jĕ'şus answered and said unto them, Though I bear record of myself, yet my record is true: for I know whence I came, and whither I go; but ye cannot tell whence I come, and whither I go.

15 Ye [o]judge after the flesh; I judge no man.

16 And yet if I judge, my judgment is true: for I am not alone, but I and the Father that sent me.

17 It is also written in [p]your law, that the testimony of two men is true.

18 ¶ I am one that bear witness of myself, and the Father that sent me beareth [r]witness of me.

(5) Where is Thy Father? The answer

19 Then said they unto him, a Lev. 20:10; Dt. 22:22; Num. 5

b Question 67. Next, v 10

c Had He contradicted Moses (Lev. 20: 10; Dt. 22:22–24), He would have been condemned as a false prophet. Had He condemned the woman to death He would have been accused to the Romans as usurping authority, so He merely wrote on the ground as if He did not hear them. When they continued to ask, He told them that the sinless ones should first cast a stone d What He wrote on the ground is not recorded. Who knows?

e Gr. anakupto, stand upright (v 7, 10; Lk. 13:11) and to look up (Lk. 21:28)

f Gr. anamartetos, sinless

g Capital punishment by stoning was lawful (Ex. 19:13; Dt. 13:10; 17:5; 22: 21). Jewish method of execution in cases tried and condemned was to cast the criminal from a 10 or 12 ft. scaffold half naked, with hands tied in the back. The witnesses did the pushing with great force and if this did not kill him a witness then would take a large stone and dash it upon the breast. On occasions where mobs stoned a man no scaffold was used, but certain accusers threw the first stones and then all could throw until the victim was dead (Num. 15:36; Josh. 7:25; 1 Ki. 21:13; Acts 7: 58–59; 14:19; 2 Cor. 11:25)

h Conscience is a wonderful thing. It is the faculty that decides the lawfulness of our actions as to right and wrong (Rom. 2:12–16)

6 causes of conviction:

1 Their own evil designs against Him, not so much against her

2 Their failure to include the man who was guilty with the woman

3 What Christ wrote on the ground

4 The challenge to start throwing if they were sinless themselves

5 Their hypocrisy which was known to Christ and others present

6 Their guilt of committing the same sin (Rom. 2:1).

i Only her accusers had departed, leaving the woman in the midst of the disciples and others who were present (v 10)

j Questions 68–69. Next, v 19

k This statement caused early Christians to avoid reading this story in public when lessons were read from the gospels. It was not in any list of scriptures to be read in churches, and as it was probably marked in the MSS, as a portion not to be read in public, it came, after some time, to be left out of some copies of Scriptures, though in the greater number it still remains as an original part of this gospel. Early Christians thought Jesus was not condemning adultery here, but the idea is that He was not a magistrate and since no man of her accusers stayed to condemn, He was not going to pass sentence on the woman, taking it upon Himself to execute the law of Moses. He had to avoid the Jews accusing Him of taking magisterial authority in His own hands. Then, too, Christ came to save men, not to destroy them so forgiveness of her sin was as much His obligation then as it still is when anyone repents and turns from sin (Mt. 12:31–32; 1 Jn. 1:9). Jesus did not say He did not condemn adultery as a sin. He simply forgave the woman, as He had done others who were sinful (Mt. 9:1–8; Lk. 7:37–50). He frankly told her to sin no more, proving He did condemn adultery as sin. He did so elsewhere (Mt. 5:27–32; 19:9, 18–19).

l This proves that He had been speaking to them but was interrupted by their bringing the woman to Him (v 1–2). If we leave out this section (7:53–8:11) it does not make proper connection with 7:52

m See note, Jn. 6:35. The Jews added a 9th day to the feast on which they lighted a lamp putting it in the chest instead of the sacred books to illustrate Pt. 6: 23; Ps. 119:105. To this Christ could have alluded, as well as to scriptures referring to the Messiah as a light (Isa. 9:2; 49:6; 60:1)

n Note, Jn. 5:31–39

o See notes on Jn. 5:22; 7:24

p Dt. 17:6; 19:15; 2 Cor. 13:1

q Another clear reference to plurality of persons in the Deity. See Jn. 6:17–40; 1 Jn. 5:7

r By the miracles He sent Me to perform (Jn. 5:32, 36; 11:42; 14:11; Acts 10:38)

a Question 70, Next, v 22
b This is proof that 7:28 means also that they really did not know Him as they claimed. A person cannot know one or the other without knowing both, for no man can come to Christ unless he is drawn by the Father (Jn. 6:37, 39, 44). Eternal life is to know both (Jn. 17:2-3; 1 Jn. 5:20) c Jesus taught in this place many times (Mk. 12:41; Lk. 21:1; Jn. 8:20). It was in the court of women. It had 13 chests, the 13th one for the women to put their offerings in. The other 12, which had the names of the 12 sons of Jacob on them, were for the men's offerings

g Die in your sin, the sin of unbelief h Question 71, Next, v 25. Note the contrast between this question and the one in Jn. 7:35; both asked in connection with similar statements. They finally realized He was speaking of death, not of going to preach elsewhere as in 7:35, but now they raised the question as to who would kill Him i The earth (1 Cor. 15:47).
j Jn. 3:13, 31; 6:33-42; Col. 3:1
k They were capable of murder and suicide because they were of this world, earthly, sensual, and devilish, but He was of another world, from heaven, and was incapable of such. They confirmed His word by murdering Him and by many of them committing suicide to escape famine in 70 A. D.
l Plural here in the Greek, but singular in v 21
m There is no "he" in the Greek in v 24 and 28, reminding us of the name of God in Ex. 3:14-15. It means the Eternal, the ever present One n Question 72, Next, v 33. Who are You to deal out threatenings to us like this?
o The light of the world, as I said to you at the beginning of this discourse (v 12). It could be literally translated, since there is no "from" in the Greek, "that which I also say to you (now), the beginning," that is, the beginning of all things, the head of all principality and power (Eph. 1:20-23; 4:15; 5:23; Col. 1:18; 2:10, 19; Heb. 1:2-3) p I have many things to say to you and to judge you of, for God sent Me to speak as I am doing (v 14, 16, 18, 26)
q When you have lifted up (crucified, 3:14; 12:34) the Son of Man, then by My resurrection and ascension shall you know that I am the light of the world, the Son of God
r Christ's union with the Father. See p. 105, col. 4 s Can we say that these were not true believers? If they were not, the Holy Spirit should never have recorded such a statement
t There are 1,522 "if's" in the Bible and all of them express a condition if one of them does. The condition to be met if these new believers were to remain as true disciples and have freedom from sin was: "continue in My Word" (v 31-32); for if any man "committeth sin" he "is the servant of sin" (v 34)
u This is the secret of freedom from sin, sickness, and all the curses of this life that Christ died to set men free from (Rom. 10:17; Heb. 11:6; Jas. 1:5-8)
v This is one of the many false statements of the Jews, for their history in Egypt, Assyria, Babylon, Medo-Persia, Greece, and Rome, as well as many servitudes to other smaller nations round about for 1,800 years to 70 A. D. prove this false
w Question 73, Next, v 43
x No man can commit sin and not be a servant of sin (v 34). No man can sin and not have to pay the penalty for sin (Gen. 2:17; Ezek. 18:4; Rom. 6:12-13; 1 Cor. 6:9-11; Gal. 5:19-21; 6:7-8)
y The servant of sin does not abide in the house of the Lord forever, but if we become free from sin we will abide with the Son of God in God's house forever (Rom. 6:16-23; Jn. 14:1-3; 15:1-6; 1 Th. 4:16)
z If one is made free from sin by the Son, he is free indeed and is no longer a servant of sin (Rom. 6:16-23; 8:1-13; Gal. 5:16-26; Heb. 12:14; 1 Jn. 2:29; 3:6-10; 5:1-4, 18). Greeks permitted a son and heir to adopt brothers and Romans permitted him to free all slaves that were born in the house during the father's life time

"Where is thy Father? Jĕ'şus answered, [b]Ye neither know me, nor my Father: if ye had known me, ye should have known my Father also.

20 These words spake Jĕ'şus in the [c]treasury, as he taught in the temple: and no man laid hands on him; [d]for his hour was not yet come.

[e]★21 Then said Jĕ'şus again unto them, I go my way, and ye shall [f]seek me, and shall die in [g]your sins: whither I go, ye cannot come.

(6) Will He kill Himself? The answer

22 Then said the Jews, [h]Will he kill himself? because he saith, Whither I go, ye cannot come.

23 And he said unto them, Ye are from [i]beneath; I am from [j]above: [k]ye are of this world; I am not of this world.

24 I said therefore unto you, that ye shall die in your [l]sins: for if ye believe not that [m]I am he, ye shall die in your sins.

(7) Who art Thou? The answer

25 Then said they unto him, [n]Who art thou? And Jĕ'şus saith unto them, Even the same that I said unto you from [o]the beginning.

[p]26 I have many things to say and to judge of you: but he that sent me is true; and I speak to the world those things which I have heard of him.

27 They understood not that he spake to them of the Father.

28 Then said Jĕ'şus unto them, [q]When ye have lifted up the Son of man, then shall ye know that I am he, and that [r]I do nothing of myself; but as my Father hath taught me, I speak these things.

29 And he that sent me is with me: the Father hath not left me alone; for I do always those things that please him.

(8) Jesus exhorts believers

30 As he spake these words, [s]many believed on him.

31 Then said Jĕ'şus to those Jews which believed on him, [t]If ye continue in my word, then are ye my disciples indeed;

[u]★32 And ye shall [v]know the truth, and the truth shall make you free.

(9) Jewish claim of being children of freedom refuted by Jesus (1 Jn. 3:8; Rom. 6:16-23)

33 ¶ They answered him, [w]We be Ă'bră-hăm's seed, and were never in bondage to any man: [x]how sayest thou, Ye shall be made free?

34 Jĕ'şus answered them, Verily, verily, I say unto you, Whosoever [y]committeth sin is the servant of sin.

35 And the [z]servant abideth not in the house for ever: but the Son abideth ever.

[a]★36 [b]If the Son therefore shall make you free, ye shall be free indeed.

37 I know that ye are Ă'bră-hăm's seed; but ye seek to kill me, because my word hath no place in you.

38 I speak that which I have seen with my Father: and ye do that which ye have seen with your father.

(10) Jewish claim of being children of Abraham refuted by Jesus (Cp. Rom. 2:28-29; 9:6)

39 They answered and said unto him, [c]Ă'bră-hăm is our father. Jĕ'şus saith unto them, If [d]ye were Ă'bră-hăm's children, ye would do the works of Ă'bră-hăm.

40 But now ye seek to kill me, a [e]man [f]that hath told you the truth, which I have heard of God: this did not Ă'bră-hăm.

(11) Jewish claim of being children of God refuted by Jesus (Jn. 3:5; 1 Jn. 3:8-10)

41 [g]Ye do the deeds of your father. Then said they to him, We be not [h]born of fornication; we have one Father, even God.

42 Jĕ'şus said unto them, [i]If God were your Father, ye would love me: for I proceeded forth and came from God; neither came I of myself, but he sent me.

43 [j]Why do ye not understand my speech? even [k]because ye cannot hear my word.

44 Ye are of your father [l]the devil, and the [m]lusts of your father ye will do. He was [n]a murderer [o]from the beginning, and [p]abode not in the truth, [q]because there is no truth in him. When he speaketh a lie, he speaketh of his own: for he is a liar, [r]and the father of it.

45 And because I tell you the truth, ye believe me not.

46 [s]Which of you [t]convinceth me of sin? And if I say the truth, why do ye not believe me?

47 He that is of God heareth God's words: ye therefore hear them not, [u]because ye are not of God.

(12) Jewish claim of His nationality and source of power refuted by Jesus (Lk. 1:35; Mt. 1:18; 3:16-17; Acts 10:38)

48 Then answered the Jews, and said unto him, [v]Say we not well that thou art a [w]Să-mär'i-tan, and hast a [x]devil?

49 Jĕ'şus answered, I have not a devil; [y]but I honour my Father, and ye do dishonour me.

50 And I seek not mine own glory: there is one that seeketh and judgeth.

[z]★51 Verily, verily, I say unto you, If a man keep my saying, he [a]shall never see death.

(13) Jewish questions of His greatness answered (Isa. 7:14; 9:6-7; Jn. 1:1-2)

52 Then said the Jews unto a True, according to the flesh, but this does not make true children of Abraham or true Israelites. One must not only be a descendent in the flesh, but must also be saved and a child of the promise to be a true Jew and an Israelite (Rom. 2:28-29; 9:4-11) b If you were really the spiritual seed of Abraham you would imitate him in faith, obedience, and righteousness; but you seek to kill Me merely because I tell you the truth. Abraham never did anything like this c The only place Jesus calls Himself a "man." He generally refers to Himself as the Son of God and Son of Man (Jn. 1:49, 51, notes). He was truly man and truly God in nature, being born of God and a virgin (Mt. 1:18, refs.)

d 10 reasons why Jews killed Jesus: See p. 105, col. 4 e The fact that you do the deeds of the devil proves you are of the devil (1 Jn. 3:8). Since you seek to kill Me you must be the offspring of him who was a murderer from the beginning (v 41-44)
f We are not idolaters. God is our Father. Idolatry is spiritual fornication or a violation of the spiritual and covenant marriage between God and Israel (Judg. 2:17; Isa. 1:21; Hos. 1:2; 4:12; 2 Chr. 21:11; Ezek. 16) g If God were your Father you would love Me. You would not persecute Me if you were of the same Father that I am
h Question 74, Next, v 46
i Because it exposes your hypocrisy and condemns your sins, so you are determined not to hear j Gr. diabolos, adversary, slanderer, accuser. Used of Satan here and in 13:2; Mt. 4:1-11; 13:39; 25:41; Lk. 4:1-13; 8:12; Acts 10:38; 13:10; Eph. 4:27; 6:11; 1 Tim. 3:6-7; 2 Tim. 2:26; Heb. 2:14; Jas. 4:7; 1 Pet. 5:8; 1 Jn. 3:8-10; Jude 9; Rev. 2:10; 12:7-12; 20:2, 10. It is used of men in Jn. 6:70; 1 Tim. 3:11; 2 Tim. 3:3; Tit. 2:3, who were slanderers and accusers k Gr. epithumia, desire, crave, long for, lust. Satanic lusts are like those of men but much stronger because of being agitated by spirit forces. Fallen angels and men are capable of misusing their creative faculties in deeper and deeper degrees of sin and rebellion as time goes by l Because death came through him. This refers, not to Cain's murder, but to the death of the whole race by sin (Gen. 2:17; Rom. 5:12-21; Heb. 2:14) m Gr. ap' arches, from the beginning. Used 21 times thus:

From the beginning of:
1 The creation (Mt. 19:4, 8; 24:21; Mk. 10:6; 13:19; 2 Pet. 3:4)
2 The human race (Jn. 8:44)
3 The Lord's ministry (Lk. 1:2; Jn. 15:27; 1 Jn. 1:1)
4 Paul's public life (Acts 26:4-5)
5 Your hearing (1 Jn. 2:7, 13, 14, 24; 3:11; 2 Jn. 5-6)

n He walked in truth for a time until he decided to rebel against God and this was before he "abode not" or rebelled against truth (Ezek. 28:11-17; Isa. 14:12-14). This was before Adam's day for he was already a fallen creature when he came into Adam's Eden (Gen. 3). The rebellion caused the flood of Lucifer (Gen. 1:2; Jer. 4:23-26; 2 Pet. 3:5-8)
o He chose to reject all truth in his period of probation as the Jews were doing here (v 39-47). When he speaks a lie, he speaks of his own falsehood, for he is a liar and the father of lies and liars p To teach that this refers to the future Antichrist is out of harmony with the passage as well as all scriptures on the subject. This is talking about speaking a lie, not speaking into existence some human Antichrist q Questions 75-76, Next, v 48. If you cannot convict Me of sin, error, falsehood, why do you not believe Me?
r Convict, as in v 9; 3:20; 16:8
s The fact you do not hear God's Word proves you are not of God
t Question 77, Next, v 53
u This would mean to the Jews a heretic, a schismatic, an idolater, a man self-excommunicated with whom no man should fellowship v Gr. diamonion, demon. Cp. Mt. 12:24 w See note, v 28
x See note, Jn. 3:16

a This convinces us You have a devil, for all men have died and You say believers in You will never "taste death." This is a perversion of Christ's words. Christ meant the second or eternal death and they took Him to mean physical death which all men must meet who live before the rapture (Heb. 9:27; 1 Cor. 15:51-58)

b Questions 78-79. Next, v 57

c This is not the answer of an insane man or a self-seeker, who would always be boastful of himself and his own abilities and wonderful self (2 Chr. 25:19; Pss. 49:6; 94:4; 97:7; Rom. 1:30)

d God honours Me by working miracles through Me, and by supporting My every claim. If He is your God, why do you not support Me also?

e You lie when you say that you know Him. I would lie if I said that I did not know Him. I prove that I know Him by My obedience to Him. You prove that you do not know Him by rejecting Me whom He has sent (v 39-56)

f Gr. agalliao, rejoice exceedingly (1 Pet. 1:8; 4:13; Lk. 10:21)

g Gr. eidon, to see: implying not the mere act of seeing with the eyes, but the actual perception of the object; that which is seen, the form, shape, and figure

Abraham saw 3 things clearly:

1 The plan of God in sending the Messiah for His people to redeem them and guarantee to them the land of Canaan as an everlasting possession; and he was happy (Gen. 12:1-3; 17:1-22)

2 He saw the plan of God in the Messiah being sent through his natural seed (Rom. 4:13-22; 9:4-7; Gal. 3:16) and rejoiced by faith (Rom. 4)

3 He saw the second person of the Trinity in visible form (Gen. 18:1-8, 19-20; 19:24)

h Question 80. Next, 9:2

i This is one of the eternal names of God, proving that He existed before Abraham (Ex. 3:14-15; Mic. 5:1-2; Jn. 1:1-2. See note, 8:24). The Jews understood that He applied this name to Himself, thus declaring His deity j See note, v. 40. He claimed to be God, which was blasphemy to them, so to fulfill the law of Lev. 24:16 they started to stone Him

k For a little while until their wrath cooled and then He went through their midst out of the temple

l Question 81. Next, v 8. Jews believed that pious souls were re-incarnated as a reward, not punishment; and that the wicked were put into eternal prisons to be tormented forever (Josephus, Ant. book XVIII, and War, book II). Some Asiatic nations and some Jews believed souls came back into bodies as a penalty for sins committed in a pre-existent state. Controversies raged over whether some physical infirmity was the result of one's sins before birth, even in the womb, or sins by the parents. They held that marks on the body proved sin in the soul

Hindoos identified the sins of a previous life with afflictions of the present. For example, headaches were for irreverence to parents; epilepsy for poisoning someone; pain in the eyes for coveting another man's wife; blindness for murder of mother; etc.

m Neither; all the theories of re-incarnation, pre-existent sins, physical infirmities proving personal sin is involved, and all fallacies that go with such paganism are unscriptural. Personal and immediate sin is not necessarily involved in the imperfection of reproduction. Mental, moral, and physical wrecks are caused by the fall and sin of man, by Satanic powers (Eph. 2:1-3; Lk. 13:16; Acts 10:38), by continued depravities and sin, by imperfect and undeveloped cells, and by overwork, worry, accidents, and violation of natural laws

n This was not the cause of his blindness, but a simple declaration that the works of God were to be manifest regardless of the cause. Jesus answered their question as to whether the man or his parents had sinned. He did not state the cause, but it is certain God was not the cause, God was the healer and Satan was back of the cause (Mt. 12:22; Acts 10:38; Jn. 10:10; 1 Jn. 3:8) him, Now we know that thou hast a devil. Ă'brā-hăm is dead, and the prophets; and thou sayest, If a man keep my saying, he shall never [a]taste of death.

53 [b]Art thou greater than our father Ă'brā-hăm, which is dead? and the prophets are dead: whom makest thou thyself?

54 Jē'şus answered, [c]If I honour myself, my honour is nothing: [d]it is my Father that honoureth me; of whom ye say, that he is your God:

55 Yet [e]ye have not known him; but I know him: and if I should say, I know him not, I shall be a liar like unto you: but I know him, and keep his saying.

56 Your father Ă'brā-hăm rejoiced to [g]see my day: and he saw it, and was glad.

(14) Jesus' claim as to His age refuted (Mic. 5:2; Jn. 1:1-2)

57 Then said the Jews unto him, [h]Thou art not yet fifty years old, and hast thou seen Ă'brā-hăm?

58 Jē'şus said unto them, Verily, verily, I say unto you, Before Ă'brā-hăm was, [i]I am.

59 Then took they up [j]stones to cast at him: but Jē'şus [k]hid himself, and went out of the temple, going through the midst of them, and so passed by.

CHAPTER 9 77

45 The man born blind:

(1) Question of responsibility

AND as Jē'şus passed by, he saw a man which was blind from his birth.

2 And his disciples asked him, saying, Master, [l]who did sin, this man, or his parents, that he was born blind?

3 Jē'şus answered, [m]Neither hath this man sinned, nor his parents: [n]but that the works of God should be made manifest in him.

(2) Jesus heals the blind man

4 I must work the works of him that sent me, while it is day: the night cometh, when no man can work.

5 As long as I am in the world, I am the light of the world.

6 When he had thus spoken, he spat on the ground, and made clay of the spittle, and he anointed the eyes of the blind man with the clay,

7 And said unto him, Go, wash in the [o]pool of Sī-lō'am, (which is by interpretation, Sent.) He went his way therefore, and washed, and came seeing.

(3) The neighbors and the man

8 ¶ The neighbours therefore, and they which before had seen him that he was blind, said, [a]Is not this he that sat and begged?

9 Some said, This is he: others said, He is like him: but he said, I am he.

10 Therefore said they unto him, How were thine eyes opened?

11 He answered and said, A man that is called Jē'şus made clay, and [b]anointed mine eyes, and said unto me, Go to the pool of Sī-lō'am, and wash: and I went and washed, and I received sight.

12 Then said they unto him, Where is he? He said, I know not.

(4) The Pharisees and the man

13 ¶ They brought to the Phăr'ī-sees him that aforetime was blind.

14 [c]And it was the sabbath day when Jē'şus made the clay, and opened his eyes.

15 Then again the Phăr'ī-sees also asked him how he had received his sight. He said unto them, He put clay upon mine eyes, and I washed, and do see.

16 Therefore said some of the Phăr'ī-sees, [d]This man is not of God, because he keepeth not the sabbath day. Others said, How can a man that is a sinner do such miracles? And there was a division among them.

17 They say unto the blind man again, [e]What sayest thou of him, that he hath opened thine eyes? He said, He is a prophet.

(5) The parents and Jews

18 But the Jews [f]did not believe concerning him, that he had been blind, and received his sight, until they called the parents of him that had received his sight.

19 And they asked them, saying, [g]Is this your son, who ye say was born blind? how then doth he now see?

20 His parents answered them and said, We know that this is our son, and that he was born blind:

21 But by what means he now seeth, we know not; or who hath opened his eyes, we know not: he is of age; ask him: he shall speak for himself.

22 These words spake his parents, because they feared the Jews: for the Jews had agreed already, [h]that if any man did confess that he was Christ, he should be put out of the synagogue.

23 Therefore said his parents, He is of age; ask him.

(6) The Pharisees and the man

24 Then again called they the man that was blind, and said unto him, [i]Give God the praise: we know that this man is a sinner.

25 He answered and said, Whether he be a sinner or no, I know not: one thing I know, that, whereas I was blind, now a Questions 82-83. Next, v 12

b Why Jesus did this is not explained. One may draw lessons from it, but let no one claim his imaginations are divine explanations of the event

c Question 84. Next, v 16

d This made it the unpardonable sin as far as the hypocrites were concerned. Nothing good was to be done on this day except for material gain. One could take a beast out of the ditch, but not save a man from death, hell and the grave. Such utter senselessness in religion exists even to this day in many respects! Is it any wonder that sensible men reject outward forms, rituals, and teachings that have no practical and beneficial value at all!

e Did keeping the sabbath help the Pharisees or prove they were of God? No more than in many cases today where men maintain some mere outward show of religion before others. Would they perform consistently the same things in private if no one was in the grandstand?

f Question 85. Next, v 17. Why can you Pharisees not heal the blind if you are of God more than He is?

g Question 86. Next, v 19. The blind sinner was more sensible than all the religious leaders of the day. From only one miracle and one brief contact with Jesus he knew that He was a prophet h This is why they were so blind. They would not believe facts when they were seen. They would not believe that He was even a prophet, which, according to the Jews themselves, permitted one to break the sabbath

i Questions 87-88. Next, v 26

j Too many parents, if church membership is involved, will not stand up for truth and righteousness k This means that anyone acknowledging Jesus as the Messiah was to be cut off from all religious connection with synagogue worshippers. It was the first time a law was made against Christians. This is why Christians had to form their own congregations l These were the words used in making an oath. To give God praise was equivalent of swearing to tell the truth (Josh. 7:19). While they sought to put him under an oath they put their own words in his mouth to say that Jesus was a sinner, and the man answered very wisely (v 25)

Christ's union with the Father (8:28)

1 The Son can do nothing of Himself (Jn. 5:17, 19; 8:18)

2 I can of Mine own self do nothing (Jn. 5:30)

3 I seek not Mine own will, but the will of the Father (Jn. 5:30; 6:38)

4 My doctrine is not Mine, but His that sent Me (Jn. 7:16; 8:26, 36)

5 I do nothing of Myself (Jn. 8:28)

6 I do always those things that please Him (Jn. 8:29)

7 I came from God, neither came I of Myself (Jn. 8:42; 16:28)

8 I seek not Mine own glory (Jn. 8:50, 54)

9 I have not spoken of Myself, but the Father gave Me commandment what to speak (Jn. 12:49-50; 14:10)

10 My works are not Mine, but the Father doeth the works (Jn. 10:25, 37-38; 14:10-11)

10 reasons why the Jews killed Jesus (8:40)

1 Kingship (Mt. 2:2-3, 16; Jn. 18:33-40; 19:12-22)

2 Telling the truth (Lk. 4:21-29; Jn. 8:40)

3 Healing on the sabbath (Mt. 12:9-14; Mk. 3:1-6; Jn. 5:16; 9:16)

4 Jealousy (Mt. 26:3-4; 27:18; Mk. 14:1; 15:10; Lk. 22:2; Jn. 11:48)

5 Ignorance (Mt. 26:64-66; Mk. 14:62-64; Jn. 12:40; Acts 3:17)

6 To fulfill prophecy (Lk. 13:33-35; Jn. 12:38-40; 18:31-32; 19:11, 28, 36-37; Acts 2:22-36; 3:18)

7 Claiming Sonship (Jn. 5:18; 10:24-39; 19:7)

8 Unbelief (Jn. 5:38-47; 6:36; 9:40-41; 12:36-38)

9 Claiming to be God (Jn. 8:53-59; 10:33. Cp. Jn. 1:1-2; Heb. 1:5-14)

10 Fear of losing their authority (Jn. 11:46-53; 12:10-11, 19)

a Questions 89–92, Next, v 34. This is the third time they asked him how he was healed (v 10, 15, 26). The blind man was the only one who was not afraid to talk up to the Pharisees (v 27). This brought religious wrath and excommunication upon him (v 28–34)

b Gr. loidoreo, vilify, rail at; not merely to rebuke, but to abuse by words (Pr. 12:16). Elsewhere only in Acts 23:4; 1 Cor. 4:12; 1 Pet. 2:23

c For the first time they spoke the truth, which confession alone should have moved each one to make an honest investigation of the claims of Christ. On other occasions His enemies claimed they did know all about Him and that He was the son of Joseph and not God's Son (Mt. 13:55; Mk. 6:3; Jn. 6:42; 7:27, 52)

d This statement of the blind man should not be taken as a direct statement of God. It has been used for generations to prove too much - that no prayer of any sinner will ever be heard of God. It should be understood only in connection with what was uttered: God does not use sinners to heal the eyes of the blind and if He were not of God He could do nothing (v 31–34). To take this as proof that no sinner will ever get any kind of prayer answered is erroneous, for God has heard sinners in all ages and will always do so if they pray the right kind of prayers

Examples of hearing sinners:
1 Jacob for prosperity (Gen. 28)
2 Israel for deliverance (Judg. 3:9, 15; 6:7–10; 10:6–18; 20:18–28)
3 Ahab for mercy (1 Ki. 21:25–29)
4 Manasseh for mercy (2 Chr. 33:9–13)
5 Sinner woman for pardon (Lk. 7:36–50)
6 Publican for pardon (Lk. 18:9–14)
7 Nobleman for healing (Jn. 4:49–53)
8 Cornelius and house for salvation (Acts 10:1–6 with 11:14–18; 15:7–13)

He has not promised sinners any particular answer other than forgiveness if they repent (1 Jn. 1:9), but if God in His goodness chooses to hear other prayers of sinners, that is His privilege and no statement of a blind man can tie His hands

e Questions 93–95, Next, v 40

f The man was cast out contrary to the agreement of the Jews (v 22). It was because of taking a stand for what was right, which crossed religious leaders. His crime was being an honest man and true to convictions

3 grades of excommunication:
1 The niddin, pronounced for 30 days during which offenders were prohibited from public worship, were not allowed to shave, and were required to wear garments of mourning
2 The cherem, pronounced on those who continued in rebellion. The offender was formally cursed, was excluded from all intercourse with other people, and was prohibited from entering the temple or a synagogue
3 The shammatha, pronounced on those who persisted in rebellion. They were cut off from all connection with the Jewish people, and were consigned to utter perdition

g Referring to the effect of His coming. Rejection of Him will bring judgment. John 12:47 refers to the object of His coming. He came to save, but if men will not have salvation they will finally be judged (Jn. 3:16–20)

h See the reason in Mt. 13:14–16

i Question 96, Next, 10:20

j If you were really ignorant you would have no sin, but now you are not in ignorance. You reject Me through enmity so your sin remains

k See note, Jn. 1:51

l This phrase "I say unto you" is used by Christ 137 times and only once by another person in the N.T. (Acts 5:38). It expresses complete authority when used by Christ, while in Acts 5:38 it is merely advice

m This refers to the place of shelter for flocks where they might repose at night and be safe from the attacks of wild beasts. Sheepfolds were low buildings opening into a court, surrounded by a stone wall or fence with a layer of thorns on top for protection. A doorway carefully guarded the entrance (Num. 32:16–36; 1 Sam. 24:3; 2 Chr. 32:28; Ps. 78:70)

I see.

26 Then said they to him again, [a]What did he to thee? how opened he thine eyes?

27 He answered them, I have told you already, and ye did not hear: wherefore would ye hear it again? will ye also be his disciples?

28 Then they[b] reviled him, and said, Thou art his disciple; but we are Mō'şeş' disciples.

29 We know that God spake unto Mō'şeş: [c]as for this fellow, we know not from whence he is.

30 The man answered and said unto them, Why herein is a marvellous thing, that ye know not from whence he is, and yet he hath opened mine eyes.

31 Now [d]we know that God heareth not sinners: but if any man be a worshipper of God, and doeth his will, him he heareth.

32 Since the world began was it not heard that any man opened the eyes of one that was born blind.

33 If this man were not of God, he could do nothing.

34 They answered and said unto him, Thou wast altogether born in sins, and [e]dost thou teach us? And they[f] cast him out.

(7) Jesus and the healed man

35 Jē'şus heard that they had cast him out; and when he had found him, he said unto him, Dost thou believe on the Son of God?

36 He answered and said, Who is he, Lord, that I might believe on him?

37 And Jē'şus said unto him, Thou hast both seen him, and it is he that talketh with thee.

38 And he said, Lord, I believe. And he worshipped him.

46 Third temple discourse:

(1) Mission of Jesus stated (Mt. 5:17; 10:34; 20:28; Lk. 4:18; 12:49; 19:10; Jn. 10:10, 16; 12:46; Acts 10:38; Tit. 2:14; Heb. 4:14; 1 Pet. 3:18; 1 Jn. 3:5–8)

39 ¶ And Jē'şus said, [g]For judgment I am come into this world,[h] that they which see not might see; and that they which see might be made blind.

(2) Question of the Pharisees answered by Jesus

40 And some of the Phăr'ĭsees which were with him heard these words, and said unto him, Are we blind also?

41 Jē'şus said unto them, [i]If ye were blind, ye should have no sin: but now ye say, We see; therefore your sin remaineth.

78 CHAPTER 10

(3) Parable of the good shepherd (Ps. 23; Heb. 13:20)

VERILY, [k]verily, [l]I say unto you, He that entereth not by the door into the [m]sheepfold, but climbeth up some other way, the same is [a]a thief and a [b]robber.

2 But [c]he that entereth in by the door is the shepherd of the sheep.

3 To him [d]the porter openeth; and the sheep hear his voice: and he [e]calleth his own sheep by name, and leadeth them out.

4 And when he putteth forth his own sheep, [f]he goeth before them, and [g]the sheep follow him: for they know his voice.

5 And a stranger will they not follow, but will flee from him: for they know not the voice of strangers.

6 This [h]parable spake Jē'şus unto them: but they understood not what things they were which he spake unto them.

(4) Parable of the good shepherd explained

7 Then said Jē'şus unto them again, Verily, verily, I say unto you, I am the door of the sheep.

8 All that ever came before me are thieves and robbers: but the sheep did not hear them.

▸9 I am the door: by me if any man enter in, he shall be saved, and shall go in and out, and find pasture.

▸10 The thief cometh not, but for to steal, and to kill, and to destroy: I am come that they might have life, and that they might have it more abundantly.

11 I am the good shepherd: the good shepherd giveth his life for the sheep.

12 But he that is an hireling, and not the shepherd, whose own the sheep are not, seeth the wolf coming, and leaveth the sheep, and fleeth: and the wolf catcheth them, and scattereth the sheep.

13 The hireling fleeth, because he is an hireling, and careth not for the sheep.

14 [i]I am the good shepherd, and know my sheep, and am known of mine.

15 As the Father knoweth me, even so know I the Father: and I lay down my life for the sheep.

16 And other sheep I have, which are not of this fold: them also I must bring, and they shall hear my voice; and there shall be one fold, and one shepherd.

17 Therefore doth my Father love me, because I lay down my life, that I might take it again.

18 No man taketh it from me, but I lay it down of myself. I have power to lay it down, and I have power to take it again. This commandment have I received of my Father.

(5) Division among the Jews (Jn. 7:12, 30, 40)

19 ¶ There was a [j]division therefore again among the Jews for these sayings.

20 And many of them said, He hath a [k]devil, and is [l]mad; [m]why hear ye him?

21 Others said, These are not the words of him that hath a devil. Can a devil open the eyes of the blind?

a Gr. kleptes, a thief (Mt. 6:19; 24:43; Lk. 12:33, 39; Jn. 10:1, 10; 1 Cor. 6:10; 1 Pet. 4:15); a pilferer (Jn. 12:6). It is here applied to false teachers, who do not care to instruct men, but abuse their confidence for gain

b Gr. lestes, one who uses violence (v 8; 18:40; 2 Cor. 11:26). Elsewhere wrongly rendered "thief" as in Mt. 21:13; 26:55; 27:38, 44; Mk. 11:17; 14:48; 15:27; Lk. 10:30, 36; 19:46; 22:52

c Marks of a good pastor: See p. 120

d The doorkeeper of the fold who opens to the shepherds to get their flocks in the morning and who receives them at night

e Eastern shepherds give names to their sheep, as we do to dogs and horses. Every sheep recognizes his own name and comes when called. Even when flocks are mingled they speedily separate at the command of the shepherd

f Eastern shepherds go before their flocks to lead them to good grass and water

g Sheep always follow their own shepherd, but will pay no attention to strangers

h Gr. paroimia, wayside saying; proverb, a saying deviating from the usual manner of speaking; not parabole, parable. It is translated proverb in Jn. 16:25, 29; 2 Pet. 2:22 and parable here. Parabole is used 50 times and not once in John. V 1–6 is an extended proverb and v 7–30 records the truths taught. They are

1 I am the door of the sheep (v 7, 9. See note, 6:35)
2 All previously announced Messiah's were false (v 8)
3 I am the way to salvation (v 9; 3:15–20, 36; 5:24; 14:6)
4 Anyone can go in and out and be perfectly free (v 9; 8:32)
5 The devil's work is to steal (Lk. 8:12), kill (Heb. 2:14), and destroy (v 10; Mk. 9:22; Lk. 13:16; Acts 10:38; Job 2:7)
6 I am come that men might have abundant life (v 10; Mt. 4:23; 8:17; Lk. 4:18; Acts 10:38; 1 Pet. 2:24; Heb. 2:14; Isa. 53)
7 I am the good shepherd: the chief shepherd, and great shepherd (v 11, 14; 1 Pet. 5:4; Heb. 13:20). He is also head of the church (Eph. 1:20–23; 5:25–31; Col. 1:18, 24), and head of all principality and power (Col. 2:10; 1 Pet. 3:22)
8 I redeem the sheep by dying in their place (v 11, 15, 17–18; Isa. 53; 1 Pet. 2:24)
9 Hireling shepherds flee from danger and leave the sheep to death, destruction, and division (v 12–13; Acts 20:28–31; Rom. 16:17; 2 Cor. 11:14–15; 1 Tim. 4; 2 Tim. 4)
10 I know My sheep and they know Me (v 14, 27; Jn. 17:1–3)
11 I know the Father and He knows Me (v 15; 7:29; 8:55)
12 I have other sheep (Gentiles) which are not of this (Jewish) fold. They will hear My voice and come into the fold, having one shepherd (v 16; Rom. 10:12; 1 Cor. 12:13; Gal. 3:28; Eph. 1:10; 2:11–22; 3:6–15)
13 My Father loves Me because I sacrifice My life for the sheep (v 17; 1 Pet. 2:24; Col. 2:20)
14 No man can kill Me, I volunteer to die for men (v 18; Jn. 19:11; Isa. 53:7)
15 I will be resurrected (v 17–18; 1 Cor. 15; Mt. 28)
16 All who hear My voice and do not obey are not My sheep; all who hear My voice and obey are My sheep. I know My sheep, and they follow and obey Me daily. To all who obey and follow Me I give eternal life. They shall never perish, nor be plucked from My hand (v 25–29; Mt. 19:27–30; Mk. 10:28–31; Lk. 9:23; 18:28–30; Gal. 6:7–8; Rom. 6:16–23; 8:12–13)

Causes of madness: invasion (Jer. 25:16); self-exaltation (Jer. 29:26); sufferings (Dt. 28:34); oppression (Eccl. 7:7); and sin (Jer. 51:7; Hos. 9:7)

m Questions 97–98, Next, v 24. One thing is certain, the devil can work miracles (Mt. 24:24; 2 Th. 2:8–12; Rev. 13:13–20; Ex. 7:10–12; 8:7, 18–19)

a Gr. enkainia, renewal: from kainos, new. The feast was appointed by Judas Maccabaeus to commemorate the purification of the temple after it had been defiled by Antiochus Epiphanes, who offered a sow on the altar and polluted the temple by sprinkling its broth all around, 25th of Chisleu (December) 164B. C. (1 Macc. 4:52-59). It lasted 2 days (later 8 days) and could be celebrated elsewhere. It was about 3 1/2 months after the feast of tabernacles of Jn. 7:2 and about 4 months before the passover and the crucifixion. Thus John mentions 5 feasts Christ attended (2:13; 5:1; 7:2, 10; 10:22; 12:1; 13:1) b The outer court of the temple or court of the Gentiles was surrounded by cloisters supported upon ranges of marble columns. They were called porches and were used by the Jews and strangers as public promenades. The eastern side of the court was called Solomon's porch, built by him and left standing when Nebuchadnezzar took the city, probably because of its grandeur and beauty. It was over 800 ft. long f 3 things men must do and continue in to receive eternal life:

1 Believe, which implies complete and continued obedience (v 26. See note n, 6:47; Faith, p. 201
2 Hear His voice, and be not hearers only, but also doers of His Word (v 27; Jas. 1:22-27; 2:9-26. See note 18, v 6)
3 Follow Christ, not only at the beginning of a Christian experience, but daily and throughout life (v 27; Lk. 9:23. See note, v 6). To claim eternal life when one does not follow is like these Jews claiming to know God and have eternal life. Jesus declared such was not true (Jn. 5:37-47; 8:54-55)

g See note, 6:27

h Why will they never perish? Because they meet the conditions in note above

i Gr. arpazo, take by force (Mt. 11:12; Jn. 6:15; Acts 23:10); catch (Jn. 10:12); catch away or up (Mt. 13:19; Acts 8:39; 2 Cor. 12:2-4; 1 Th. 4:17; Rev. 12:5); pull (Jude 23); and pluck (Jn. 10:28-29)

j The Father is greater than all the united forces of men, fallen angels, demons, and all enemies, so no one need fear of being snatched out of God's hand. The only thing one must do is come to God and permit His salvation and keeping power to be manifested. God cannot keep one contrary to his will any more than He kept Lucifer (Isa. 14:12-14; 1 Tim. 3:6), angels (2 Pet. 2:4; Jude 6-7), pre-Adamites (Jer. 4:23-26; 2 Pet. 3:6-8), demons (Mt. 8:29), Adam and Eve (Gen. 3; Rom. 5:12-21), and many others who willed to sin k One in unity (Jn. 17:11, 21-23), not one in person or individuality (Dan. 7:9-14; 1 Jn. 5:7; Acts 7:55; Rom. 8:34; 1 Cor. 6:6; 11:3; Eph. 1:20-23; Eph. 4:1-6; 1 Tim. 2:5; Heb. 1:3; 8:1; 12:2; 1 Pet. 3:22; Rev. 5:1-7)

l Attempting to stone Him again for blasphemy (v 33; 8:59; Lev. 24:14-16)

m Question 100. Next, v 34. I have healed your sick, cast out demons, cleansed lepers, raised the dead, fed multitudes, and taught you the truth at all times without charge. Is this My reward?

n Question 101. Next, v 36

o Quoted from Ps. 82:6. The word "law" is sometimes used of all sacred writings (12:34; 15:25). If ordinary judges were called gods, why should it be blasphemy of Me to claim deity who am the Son of God and one with God?

p Question 102. Next, 11:8

q Set apart. Sanctification, p. 231

r All I want is for you to judge on the basis of the works that I do s Sought again to arrest Him (7:30, 32, 44). How He escaped is not stated t See note, Jn. 1:28. He stayed here opposite Jericho from December to the time of going back to Bethany to resurrect Lazarus. Then He went to Ephraim until April when He was crucified (Jn. 11:54)

47 Fourth temple discourse:
(1) Inquiry of the Jews

22 ¶ And it was at Jĕ-ru'sa-lĕm the feast of the [a]dedication, and it was winter.

23 And Jĕ'sus walked in the temple in[b]Sŏl'o-mon's porch.

24 Then came the Jews round about him, and said unto him, [c]How long dost thou make us to doubt? If thou be the Christ, tell us plainly.

(2) Jesus again claims deity (Jn. 1:1; 5:17-47; 14:9; 17:2)

25 Jĕ'sus answered them, [d]I told you, and ye believed not: the works that I do [e]in my Father's name, they bear witness of me.

26 [f]But ye believe not, because ye are not of my sheep, as I said unto you.

▸27 My sheep hear my voice, and I know them, and they follow me:

▸28 And I give unto them [g]eternal life; and [h]they shall never perish, neither shall any man [i]pluck them out of my hand.

▸29 My Father, which gave them me, is [j]greater than all; and no man is able to pluck them out of my Father's hand.

30 I and my Father are [k]one.

(3) Sixth attempt to kill Jesus for claiming to be God (Mt. 26:3, refs.)

31 Then the Jews took up stones [l]again to stone him.

32 Jĕ'sus answered [m]them, Many good works have I shewed you from my Father; for which of those works do ye stone me?

33 The Jews answered him, saying, For a good work we stone thee not; but for blasphemy; and because that thou, being a man, makest thyself God.

(4) Jesus states proof of His deity (Jn. 1:1, 14; 5:17-47)

34 Jĕ'sus answered them, [n]Is it not written in your law, I said, [o]Ye are gods?

35 If he called them gods, unto whom the word of God came, and the scripture cannot be broken;

36 [p]Say ye of him, whom the Father hath[q]sanctified, and sent into the world, Thou blasphemest; because I said, I am the Son of God?

37 [r]If I do not the works of my Father, believe me not.

38 But if I do, though ye believe not me, believe the works: that ye may know, and believe, that the Father is in me, and I in him.

48 Seventh attempt to kill Jesus (Mt. 26:3; refs.)

39 Therefore they [s]sought again to take him: but he escaped out of their hand,

40 And went away again [t]beyond Jŏr'dan into the place where Jŏhn at first baptized; and there he abode.

41 And many resorted unto him, and said, [a]Jŏhn did no miracle: but all things that Jŏhn spake of this man were true.

42 And many believed on him there.

CHAPTER 11 79

49 Resurrection of Lazarus:
(1) Occasion and purpose

NOW a certain man was [b]sick, named [c]Lăz'a-rŭs, of Bĕth'a-nў, the [d]town of Mā'rў and her sister [e]Mär'thá.

2 (It was that [f]Mā'rў which anointed the Lord with ointment, and wiped his feet with her hair, whose brother Lăz'a-rŭs was sick.)

3 Therefore his sisters [g]sent unto him, saying, Lord, behold, he whom thou lovest is [h]sick.

4 When Jĕ'sus heard that, he said, This sickness is not unto death, [i]but for the glory of God, that the Son of God might be glorified thereby.

5 Now Jĕ'sus loved Mär'thá, and her sister, and Lăz'a-rŭs.

6 When he had heard therefore that he was sick, he [j]abode two days still in the same place where he was.

(2) Journey back to Judea from beyond Jordan (Jn. 10:40)

7 Then after that saith he to his disciples, Let us go into Jū-dæ'a again.

8 His disciples say unto him, Master, the Jews [k]of late sought to stone thee; [m]and goest thou thither again?

9 Jĕ'sus answered, Are there not [n]twelve hours in the day? If any man walk in the day, he stumbleth not, because he seeth the light of this world.

10 But if a man walk in the night, he stumbleth, because there is no light in him.

11 These things said he: and after that he saith unto them, Our friend Lăz'a-rŭs [o]sleepeth; but I go, that I may awake him out of sleep.

12 Then said his disciples, Lord, if he sleep, he shall do well.

13 Howbeit Jĕ'sus spake of his death: but they thought that he had spoken of taking of rest in sleep.

14 Then said Jĕ'sus unto them plainly, Lăz'a-rŭs is [p]dead.

15 And I am glad for your sakes that I was not there, [q]to the intent ye may believe; nevertheless let us go unto him.

16 Then said [r]Thŏm'as, which is called Dĭd'y-mŭs, unto his fellowdisciples, Let us also go, that we may [s]die with him.

(3) Arrival: Jesus and Martha

17 Then when Jĕ'sus came, he found that he had lain in the grave [t]four days already.

18 Now Bĕth'a-nў was nigh unto Jĕ-ru'sa-lĕm, about [u]fifteen furlongs off:

19 And many of the Jews came to Mär'thá and Mā'rў, [v]to a There is no record of any miracle by John; but he had power to do some, for he had Elijah's power (Lk. 1:17)

b Gr. astheneo, to be weak (2 Cor. 11:21, 29; 12:10), impotent (Jn. 5:3, 7), sick (Jn. 4:46; 11:1-6; Acts 19:12) c Same as Eleazar, God helpeth. Not the same man as in Lk. 16:19-31 who had died sometime before this Lazarus did d A village on the eastern slope of the Mount of Olives, nearly 2 miles from Jerusalem (Jn. 11:18; Lk. 10:38-41). Jesus attended a feast here (Mt. 26:6-13; Jn. 12:1-9). The colt on which Jesus rode was from here (Mk. 11:1-11)

e Ministers to Jesus (Lk. 10:38-42; 12:2). Friend of Jesus (Jn. 11:5)

f This explains the relation of Mary and Martha to Lazarus and which Mary anointed Jesus in Jn. 12:3-8. See note, Mt. 26:6. It does not prove that she did this before this event. John is simply recording this many years later

g Gr. apostello, send a messenger

h Weakening or fast sinking. They thought this would not fail to bring Him to them, but Christ by divine guidance had other plans i This sickness is not unto death and corruption, but God will permit a temporary death, so that the glory of God can be manifest by a resurrection. This no doubt was the message sent back to the sisters. Jesus was only about 18 miles away j Had Lazarus not been resurrected there would have been no glory to God. So today, God does not get glory out of sickness, but out of healing the sick. God may get some glory in spite of some sickness, but the sickness itself is no glory. Anyone, young or old, can certainly glorify God better and do more work for Him when well than when sick. Let no person be deceived in thinking he is sick for God's glory, for there is no scriptural foundation for such modern fallacy k Not neglecting His love, but waiting the time to demonstrate greater love and power to them

l A few weeks before (10:31-42)

m Questions 103-104. Next, v 26

n Sunrise to sunset; 6 a. m. to 6 p. m., or 12 equal parts, but they varied in length according to the season of the year (Mt. 20:3-12). The night was also divided into 12 equal parts or 4 watches of 3 equal parts or 3 hours each. The longest summer day would be about 14 hours and 12 minutes and the shortest 9 hours and 48 minutes

o Has fallen asleep, referring to death (v 13-14; 1 Th. 4:13-17; 5:6-10; Acts 7:60; 1 Cor. 11:30; 15:18, 20) p Indicating he died the day the messenger was sent. Jesus knew it by revelation

q The miracle was to confirm further His claims to disciples that He was in reality the Messiah

r Called Didymus, or twin, one of the 12 apostles (Mt. 10:3; Mk. 3:18; Lk. 6:15; Acts 1:13-14). Questions Jesus (Jn. 14:5). Sees Jesus after the resurrection (Jn. 20:24-29; 21:1-2). It was customary for Jews to take a Greek or Latin name similar to their own when going to a foreign land or having much intercourse with Greeks or Romans

s Let us risk our lives, and if need be, die with Jesus. He, through love of His friends in Bethany, exposed Himself to death by His implacable enemies in Jerusalem. Thomas thought it certain death to venture again to this city

t Two days after He received the message from the sisters. At least one day was spent on the road, and another when the messenger went from the sisters. The rabbins had an idea that the spirit wandered about the sepulchre for three days, called days of weeping, seeking an opportunity to return to the body. When decomposition set in on the 4th day, the spirit left the grave and the people beat their breasts in loud lamentations four days, making seven days of mourning (Gen. 27:41).

u About two miles

v Gr. paramutheomai, to speak tenderly. It was a custom for formal visitations of friends to last several days. As soon as they returned from the grave the mourners stood in a long row, and their friends passed by, each speaking a word of comfort while passing. There were afterwards several visits of sympathy at the house (v 31) comfort them concerning their brother.

20 Then Mär'thą, as soon as she heard that Jē'şus was coming, went and met him: but Mą'rў sat still in the house.

21 Then said Mär'thą unto Jē'şus, Lord, if thou hadst been here, my brother had not died.

22 But I know, that even now, whatsoever thou wilt ask of God, God will give it thee.

23 Jē'şus saith unto her, Thy brother shall rise again.

24 Mär'thą saith unto him, I know that he shall rise again in the resurrection at the last day.

25 Jē'şus said unto her, I am the resurrection, and the life: he that believeth in me, though he were dead, yet shall he live:

26 And whosoever liveth and believeth in me shall never die. Believest thou this?

27 She saith unto him, Yea, Lord: I believe that thou art the Christ, the Son of God, which should come into the world.

(4) Jesus and Mary (Lk. 10:38)

28 And when she had so said, she went her way, and called Mą'rў her sister secretly, saying, The Master is come, and calleth for thee.

29 As soon as she heard that, she arose quickly, and came unto him.

30 Now Jē'şus was not yet come into the town, but was in that place where Mär'thą met him.

31 The Jews then which were with her in the house, and comforted her, when they saw Mą'rў, that she rose up hastily and went out, followed her, saying, She goeth unto the grave to weep there.

32 Then when Mą'rў was come where Jē'şus was, and saw him, she fell down at his feet, saying unto him, Lord, if thou hadst been here, my brother had not died.

(5) The compassion of Jesus

33 When Jē'şus therefore saw her weeping, and the Jews also weeping which came with her, he groaned in the spirit, and was troubled,

34 And said, Where have ye laid him? They said unto him, Lord, come and see.

35 Jē'şus wept.

36 Then said the Jews, Behold how he loved him!

(6) Journey to the sepulchre

37 And some of them said, Could not this man, which opened the eyes of the blind, have caused that even this man should not have died?

38 Jē'şus therefore again groaning in himself cometh to the grave. It was a cave, and a stone lay upon it.

(7) Unbelief of Martha

39 Jē'şus said, Take ye away the stone. Mär'thą, the sister of him that was dead, saith unto him, Lord, by this time he stinketh: for he hath been dead four days.

(8) Absolute faith of Jesus

40 Jē'şus saith unto her, Said I not unto thee, that, if thou wouldest believe, thou shouldest see the glory of God?

(9) The prayer of Jesus

41 Then they took away the stone from the place where the dead was laid. And Jē'şus lifted up his eyes, and said, Father, I thank thee that thou hast heard me.

42 And I knew that thou hearest me always: but because of the people which stand by I said it, that they may believe that thou hast sent me.

(10) The power of Jesus: Lazarus resurrected

43 And when he thus had spoken, he cried with a loud voice, Lăz'a-rŭs, come forth.

44 And he that was dead came forth, bound hand and foot with graveclothes: and his face was bound about with a napkin. Jē'şus saith unto them, Loose him, and let him go.

50 The result of a miracle

45 Then many of the Jews which came to Mą'rў, and had seen the things which Jē'şus did, believed on him.

46 But some of them went their ways to the Phăr'ĭ-sees, and told them what things Jē'şus had done.

51 Eighth attempt to kill Jesus (Mt. 26:3, refs.)

47 ¶ Then gathered the chief priests and the Phăr'ĭ-sees a council, and said, What do we? for this man doeth many miracles.

48 If we let him thus alone, all men will believe on him: and the Rō'mans shall come and take away both our place and nation.

52 Prophecy of Caiaphas of the death of Jesus (Jn. 18:14)

49 And one of them, named Că'ĭa-phās, being the high priest that same year, said unto them, Ye know nothing at all,

50 Nor consider that it is expedient for us, that one man should die for the people, and that the whole nation perish not.

51 And this spake he not of himself: but being high priest that year, he prophesied that Jē'şus should die for that nation;

52 And not for that nation only, but that also he should gather together in one the children of God that were scattered abroad.

53 Ninth attempt to kill Jesus (Mt. 26:3, refs. Cp. Mk. 14:1; Lk. 22:1) a This was a custom of posture in time of grief (Ezra 9:3–4; Neh. 1:4; Ps. 137:1; Isa. 47:1; Lk. 1:79; Mt. 27:61)

b Jesus had demonstrated His success in getting answers to prayer for years, even to raising the dead, so her statement was backed by many historical proofs. This is exactly the kind of answers Jesus promised every believer without exception (Mt. 7:7–11; 17:20; 21:22; Mk. 9:23; 11:22–24; Lk. 11:1–13; 18:1–14; Jn. 14:1–15; 15:7, 16; 16:23–26). Jesus also knew this to be a fact, hence His absolute confidence that He was going to raise Lazarus (v 11–16). Martha did not ask such a favour in direct terms; she only expressed the faith in His ability to do it. This is why many prayers today are not answered

c Jn. 6:39, 40, 44, 54; 12:48; Dan. 12:2, 13

d See note, Jn. 6:35

e In Him is all life (1 Jn. 5:11–12; Jn. 1:4; 3:15–20, 36; 5:24; 14:6)

g Though he die physically (Heb. 9:27), yet he will be resurrected bodily to life forever (1 Cor. 15:20–23, 51–58; 1 Th. 4:13–18)

h Whoever believes in Me in this life will live eternally (Jn. 6:27, note)

i Question 105, Next, v 34. The answer confirmed her faith in His Messiahship and Sonship, but her faith went no further concerning the pressing need of her brother. She was like many others who stop short of a direct request and absolute faith for what they want j Jesus had evidently requested Mary to be present so she could witness the resurrection of her brother. Jesus waited for her to come before proceeding to the grave (v 28–38)

k Jewish burying places were outside the towns and villages

l It was the custom of relatives and friends to go often to the grave to weep during the 3 days of mourning and 4 days of lamentation. It was about time for the spirit to leave the grave, as the rabbins taught (see note t, v 17)

m 9 prostrations before Christ:
1 Wise men (Mt. 2:11)
2 Jairus (Mk. 5:22)
3 The woman healed (Mk. 5:33)
4 Syrophenician woman (Mk. 7:25)
5 Peter (Lk. 5:8)
6 The leper (Lk. 5:12)
7 The Gadarene (Lk. 8:28)
8 The Samaritan (Lk. 17:16)
9 Mary (Jn. 11:32)

n She also expressed faith in what would have happened if Jesus had arrived before her brother died. She made no request concerning resurrection o Gr. embrimaomai, to snort as a horse does from fear or anger; be very angry, moved with indignation (Jn. 11:33, 38; Mt. 9:30; Mk. 1:43; 14:5). What He was moved against here was no doubt the satanic powers that had Lazarus in their grip (Heb. 2:14–15). He became troubled, (Gr. tarasso, to stir or agitate) in mind. He faced a conflict with Satan, the power of death (Heb. 2:14). See the use of this word in Mt. 14:26; Mk. 6:50; Lk. 1:12; Jn. 5:4, 7; 12:27; 14:1. Something unusual caused the agitation in each one of these instances

p Question 106, Next, v 37

q The shortest verse in the Bible, but very expressive of the humanity of Jesus in generous and sympathetic feelings for His friends. He wept with those who wept and caused even His enemies to acknowledge His love and compassion (v 33, 36; Isa. 53:3; Heb. 2:16–18; 4:15; Rom. 12:15). Another cause of His weeping might have been the fearful and universal ravages of sin and death, and the ever darkening shadows of unbelief of His race that would lead them to final rejection of Him and total destruction of the nation (v 46–54; Lk. 13:34–35; 19:41; Mt. 23:37–39)

r Question 107, Next, v 40. Certainly He could! They had no idea that a greater miracle was about to be performed than healing the blind

t Jews generally cut their graves out of the faces of cliffs. The stone here did not lie upon the grave opening, but leaned against it a He has a putrefactive odor by now for he has been dead 4 days. See note, v 17 b Question 108, Next, v 47. This is no where stated before this, proving that the record is not complete of everything said on this occasion (Jn. 21:25) c Looked up to heaven, having eyes open (Mt. 17:8; Lk. 6:20; 16:23; Jn. 4:35; 6:5; 17:1)

d Fifteen times Christ used this name in prayer (Mt. 11:25–26; 26:39, 42; Lk. 23:34, 46; Jn. 11:41; 12:27–28; 17:1, 5, 11, 21, 24–25. Cp. Lk. 10:21; 22:42; Mk. 14:36). Next to Jn. 17 this is the longest recorded prayer of Christ

e This suggests that Christ had already prayed and was heard, receiving the will of God in this case before He started on His trip to Bethany (v 3–6). He no doubt was led of God to delay this trip as recorded here

f 14 purposes of Christ's miracles:
1 Make believers (Jn. 2:23; 4:48; 11:42; 12:37; 14:11). Cp. Acts 2:43; 4:30; 5:12; 8:13; 14:3; 15:12; 19:11; Rom. 15:18–29
2 Fulfill prophecy (Isa. 11:2; 61:1–2; Mt. 8:17; Lk. 4:18)
3 Demonstrate God's will (Jn. 5:30; 6:38; 10:10; Heb. 10:7)
4 Destroy works of Satan (Lk. 13:16; Acts 10:38; 1 Jn. 3:8) 5 Give abundant life (Jn. 10:10).
6 Confirm His Sonship and Messianic claims (Jn. 5:17–19, 30–36; 10:25, 36–38; 14:10–11; 15:24; 20:30–31; Acts 2:32)
7 Confirm God's Word and love (Jn. 5:20; Heb. 2:3–4. Cp. Mk. 16:15–20; 2 Cor. 12:12; Jn. 14:12)
8 Prove that God was WITH Him (Jn. 3:2; Acts 10:38)
9 Demonstrate God's power over Satan (Lk. 10:19; 13:16; Mt. 12:28; Acts 10:38)
10 Prove the kingdom of God present (Mt. 12:28. Cp. 1 Cor. 4:20)
11 Glorify God (Jn. 2:11; 11:4; Mt. 9:8; 15:31; Mk. 2:12; Lk. 4:15; 5:26; 7:16; 13:13)
12 Set an example for all gospel ministers (Mt. 10:1–8; 28:20; Mk. 6:7–13; Lk. 9:6; 10:9; Jn. 17:18. Cp. Mk. 16:15–20; Jn. 14:12; Acts 1:1–8; Rom. 15:18–29)
13 Demonstrate the power of the Spirit baptism (Mt. 20:22–23; Lk. 4:18; Jn. 3:34. Cp. Mt. 3:11; Lk. 24:49; Acts 1:4–8; Jn. 7:37–39)
14 Demonstrate full salvation for body, soul, and spirit (Mt. 4:23–24; 8:17; 9:35; 13:15; Jn. 10:10; 1 Pet. 2:24; Isa. 53:4–5)

q This is John's explanation of the prophecy of Caiaphas in v 50. God seemingly used the ungodly high priest, as He used Balaam in Num. 22:38

r If John refers only to the Jews of the dispersion this will be fulfilled at the second advent (Mt. 24:31; Isa. 11:11–12; Ezek. 37). If the Jews and Gentiles becoming one is the reference, then this will take place in the Millennium (Eph. 1:10; 1 Cor. 15:24–28)

n Question 111. Next, v 19.
o Gr. denarion, 17¢; 300 pence, $51.00 p Gr. klepten, note, 10:1
q Gr. glossokomon, a case in which to carry mouth pieces for wind instruments (v 6; 13:29)
r Gr. bastazo, to lift up; bear or carry off. Here it seems to have the sense of "stealing," as in Jn. 20:15. If this was not the thought we perhaps would not have been told in particular that he carried what was in the bag after being told he carried the bag. This is the only meaning of the word "thief" here s Here Jesus made another reference to His death which disciples failed to see t This shows the curiosity of men in all ages to be the same - merely to see famous people u What a crime! How far will religious people go to commit sin to protect their own interests?
v Gr. apokteino, to kill. It is used 75 times and mostly implies violent death, not by judicial execution. Cp. Mt. 14:5; Lk. 9:22; 20:14; Acts 3:15; 7:52; 23:12
w These people withdrew from the faction of the chief priests to those who were not willing to kill Jesus or Lazarus x The 4th day before the passover, the 11th of Nisan, our Saturday sunset to Sunday sunset. The day of the second triumphal entry (Mk. 11:1-7; Lk. 19:28-35; Jn. 12:12). Jesus left Bethany and was met by multitudes from Jerusalem (Mk. 11:8-10; Lk. 19:36-40; Jn. 12:12-19). He wept over the city (Lk. 19:41-44), entered the temple, looked around and returned to Bethany to spend the night (Lk. 11:11)

words are used of God to man. Phileo is used in Jn. 11:3, 36 of Christ's love for Lazarus, but not in Jn. 11:5 where the sisters are included q Gr. pauche, used 105 times of lower animals and man. See note, Mk. 8:36.
r Gr. apollumi, (Note t, 3:16)
s An idiom of preference. See note q, Lk. 14:26
t See note, Jn. 10:26 u Question 113. Next, v 34
v Jn. 11:33; 13:21; 14:1, 27
w This should be connected with the question just preceding this: Shall I say, Father save Me from this hour? No, because for this purpose I came x An audible voice, as in Mt. 3:17; 17:5; Dt. 5:22-25; etc.)

53 Then from that day forth they took counsel[a] together for to put him to death.

54 Jĕ'sus therefore walked no more[b] openly among the Jews; but went thence unto a country near to the wilderness, into a city called[c] Ĕ'phrā-ĭm, and there continued with his disciples.

54 Standing orders to arrest Jesus (Mt. 26:3, refs.)

55 ¶ And the[d] Jews' passover was nigh at hand: and many went out of the country up to Jĕ-rū'sā-lĕm before the passover, to[e] purify themselves.

56 Then sought they for Jĕ'sus, and spake among themselves, as they stood in the temple, What think ye, that he will not come to the feast?

57 Now both the chief priests and the Phăr'ĭ-sees had given a commandment, that, if any man knew where he were, he should shew it, that they might take him.

CHAPTER 12 80

55 Second anointing of Jesus (Mt. 26:6; Mk. 14:3. Cp. Lk. 7:36)

THEN Jĕ'sus[f] six days before the passover came to Bĕth'-a-nȳ, where Lăz'a-rŭs was which [g]had been dead, whom he raised from the dead.

2 There they made him [a] supper; and Mär'thā served: but Lăz'a-rŭs was one of them that sat at the table with him.

3 Then took Mā'rȳ a[h] pound of ointment of spikenard, very costly, and[i] anointed the feet of Jĕ'sus, and wiped his feet with her hair: and the house was filled with the odour of the ointment.

4 Then saith one of his disciples,[m] Jū'das Is-căr'ĭ-ot, Sī'mon's son, which should betray him,

5[n] Why was not this ointment sold for three hundred[o] pence, and given to the poor?

6 This he said, not that he cared for the poor; but because he was a[p] thief, and had the[q] bag, and[r] bare what was put therein.

7 Then said Jĕ'sus, [s] Let her alone: against the day of my burying hath she kept this.

8 For the poor always ye have with you; but me ye have not always.

56 Plot to kill Lazarus also

9 Much people of the Jews therefore knew that he was there: and they [t] came not for Jĕ'sus' sake only, but that they might see Lăz'a-rŭs also, whom he had raised from the dead.

10 ¶ But the chief priests consulted that they might [u] put Lăz'a-rŭs also to[v] death;

11 Because that by reason of him many of the Jews[w] went away, and believed on Jĕ'sus.

57 Triumphal entry (Mt. 21:1; Mk. 11:1; Lk. 19:28; Zech. 9:9)

12 ¶ On[x] the next day much people that were come to the feast, when they heard that Jĕ'sus was coming to Jē-rū'-sā-lĕm,

*13 Took branches of palm trees, and went forth to meet him, and [a] cried, [b] Hō-sān'nā: Blessed is the King of Ĭs'ra-el that cometh in the name of the Lord.

14 And Jĕ'sus, when he had found a young ass, sat thereon; as it is written,

*15[c] Fear not, daughter of Sī'ŏn: behold, thy King cometh, sitting on an ass's colt.

16 These things understood not his disciples at the first: but when Jĕ'sus was[d] glorified, then remembered they that these things were written of him, and that they had done these things unto him.

17 The people therefore that was with him when he called Lăz'a-rŭs out of his grave, and raised him from the dead, [e] bare record.

18 For this cause the people also met him, for that they heard that he had done this miracle.

19 The Phăr'ĭ-sees therefore said among themselves, [f] Perceive ye how ye[g] prevail nothing? behold, the world is[h] gone after him.

58 Fifth temple discourse:
(1) Occasion: Greeks seek Jesus

20 ¶ And there were [i] certain Greeks among them, that came up to worship at the feast:

21 The same came therefore to[k] Phĭl'ĭp, which was of Bĕth-să'ĭ-dă of Găl'ĭ-lee, and desired him, saying, Sir, we would see Jĕ'sus.

22 Phĭl'ĭp cometh and telleth An'drew: and again [l] An'drew and Phĭl'ĭp tell Jĕ'sus.

(2) Jesus predicts and illustrates His death (Mt. 27:45)

*23 ¶ And Jĕ'sus answered them, saying, The hour is come, that the Son of man should be glorified.

24 Verily, verily, I say unto you, Except a[m] corn of wheat fall into the ground and die, it abideth alone: but if it die, it bringeth forth much fruit.

(3) Test of discipleship (Mt. 16:24, refs.)

▶25[n] He that [o] loveth his [p] life shall [q] lose it; and he that [r] hateth his life in this world shall keep it unto life eternal.

▶26 If any man serve me, [s] let him follow me; and where I am, there shall also my servant be: if any man serve me, him will my Father honour.

(4) Prayer: an audible voice from heaven (Mt. 3:17; 17:5)

27[t] Now is my soul[u] troubled; and what shall I say? [v] Father, save me from this hour: but for this cause came I unto this hour.

*28 Father, glorify thy name. Then came there a[w] voice from a Gr. krazo, shouting out, as in v 44; 7:37; 11:43; 18:40; 19:6, 15; Mt. 12:19; 15:22 b 5th O.T. prophecy fulfilled in John (12:13; Ps. 118:25-26). Next, v 15. Hosanna is Aramaic for God save or help c 6th O.T. prophecy fulfilled in John (12:15; Zech. 9:9). Next, v 38

d Gr. doxazo, used in John 23 times and only 14 times in all the other gospels e These eyewitnesses of the resurrection of Lazarus gave public testimony to the fact and caused many to believe in Jesus (v 17-18)
f Question 112. Next, v 27. The Pharisees were frantic when they saw the multitudes were leaving them and following Jesus. Something had to be done but caution must be exercised lest the people turn on them and destroy them g Gr. opheleo, profit. Occurs 15 times and is trans. profit (Mt. 15:5; 16:26; Mk. 7:11; 8:36; Jn. 6:63; Rom. 2:25; 1 Cor. 13:3; 14:6; Gal. 5:2; Heb. 4:2; 13:9); be advantaged (Lk. 9:25); be better (Mk. 5:26); and prevail (Mt. 27:24; Jn. 12:19)
h This would be the best thing for the world if it could only realize it. This will literally be true in the New Earth (Rev. 21; 2 Pet. 3:13; Isa. 65:17; 66)
i These were Gentile proselytes to the Jewish religion (1 Ki. 8:41-42; Mt. 23)
j Gr. proskuneo, to prostrate one's self, do homage. This would be in the outer court of the Gentiles (Rev. 11:2). They would not be allowed to eat of the feast unless they were proselytes (Ex. 12:48) k One of the 12 apostles (Mt. 10:3; Mk. 3:18; Lk. 6:14; Acts 1:13). His call (Jn. 1:43-50). Brother of Nathaniel (Jn. 1:45-50, Cp. Jn. 1:41). Is mentioned three other times (Jn. 6:5-7; 12:20-22; 14:8-13)
l One of the 12 apostles (Mt. 10:2; Mk. 3:18; Lk. 6:14; Acts 1:13). He was a fisherman and brother to Peter (Mt. 4:18; Jn. 1:41-44). He was a disciple of John (Jn. 1:40). Is mentioned three other times (Mk. 13:3-4; Jn. 6:8; 12:20-22)
m 24th N.T. prophecy in John (12:23-24, fulfilled). Next, v 31. The hour is come for My sufferings and glory and for the middle wall of partition to be broken down between Jews and Gentiles so they can be united in one body (Mt. 27:51; 1 Cor. 12:13; Rom. 1:16; 10:9-14; Eph. 2:12-18; 3:6; Gal. 3:28)
n Gr. kokkos, grain (Mt. 13:31; 17:20; Mk. 4:31; Lk. 13:19; 17:6; Jn. 12:24; 1 Cor. 15:37). Jesus compares Himself to a grain of wheat; His death to a grain sown and decomposed in the ground; His resurrection to the blade that springs up out of the dead grain; and His manifestation and glorification to the abundant fruit of the many grains produced to sustain life. I must die to be glorified and fruitful. I cannot establish a glorious church unless I am glorified (Jn. 7:37-39; Acts 2:33; Eph. 1)
The 8 fold death and resurrection of Christ Illustrated (v 24):
1 Necessity - except
2 Cause - fall into the ground
3 Place - into the ground
4 Present state - death
5 Unselfishness - not alone
6 Resurrection - bringeth forth
7 Purpose - much fruit, redemption of the world
8 Mystery of: many elements of mystery surround the death and resurrection of any seed. We believe a dead grain multiplies itself and we are nourished by its multiplication, but we cannot understand how it is done. We cannot tell how one grain becomes multiplied into many - how the earth, air, water, and sunshine co-operate together to create new life. We believe it, not because we understand it, but because it produces results. If we cannot explain and fully understand these earthly things of one little seed why do we have to understand the infinite purposes and works of God in redeeming men through the death, burial, and resurrection of Christ before we believe?
o Note the many paradoxes in Scripture (v 25; Pr. 13:7; Mt. 10:39; 2 Cor. 6:4-10; 12:4-11; Eph. 3:17-19; Phil. 3:7) p Gr. phileo, to be fond of, from the standpoint of feeling as distinct from principle. It is never used of man's love to God. This is always agapao, to regard with favor, to make much of a thing or person, on principle. Both heaven, saying, [c]I have both glorified it, and [b]will glorify it again.

29 The people therefore, that stood by, and [c]heard it, said that it thundered: others said, An angel spake to him.

(5) Judgment of the world in the cross of Christ (Col. 2:14; Gal. 3:13; 1 Pet. 2:24; Heb. 2:14)

30 Jē'şus answered and said, This voice came not because of me, [f]but for your sakes.

*31 [g]Now is the [f]judgment of this world: now shall [g]the prince of this world be [h]cast out.

32 And I, if I be [i]lifted up from the earth, will [j]draw all men unto me.

33 This he said, signifying what death he should die.

(6) Jesus again questioned

34 The people answered him, We have heard out of the law that [k]Christ abideth for ever: and [l]how sayest thou, The Son of man must be lifted up? who is this Son of man?

(7) Jesus admonishes the people and then hides from them

35 Then Jē'şus [m]said unto them, Yet a little while is the light with you. Walk while ye have the light, lest darkness come upon you: for he that walketh in darkness knoweth not whither he goeth.

36 While ye have light, believe in the light, that ye may be the children of light. These things spake Jē'şus, and departed, and did hide himself from them.

59 Jesus rejected in fulfillment of prophecy (Mt. 13:10)

37 ¶ But though he had done so many miracles before them, yet they [n]believed not on him:

*38 That the saying of Ē-şā'ias the prophet might be fulfilled, which he spake, [o]Lord, [p]who hath believed our report? and to whom hath the [q]arm of the Lord been revealed?

39 Therefore they could not believe, because that Ē-şā'ias said again,

*40 [r]He hath blinded their eyes, and hardened their heart; that they should not see with their eyes, nor understand with their heart, and be [s]converted, and I should heal them.

41 These things said Ē-şā'ias, when he saw [t]his glory, and spake of him.

60 Chief characteristic of professors (Cp. Acts 6:7)

42 ¶ Nevertheless among the chief rulers also [u]many believed on him; but because of the Phăr'ī-sees they did not confess him, lest they should be put out of the synagogue:

43 For they [v]loved the praise of men more than the praise of God.

61 Jesus' last testimony of Himself to the public

44 ¶ Jē'şus [a]cried and said, He that believeth on me, believeth not on me, [b]but on him that sent me.

45 And he that seeth me seeth him that sent me.

46 [c]I am come a light into the world, that whosoever believeth on me should not abide in darkness.

47 And if any man [d]hear my words, and believe not, [e]I judge him not: for I came not to judge the world, but to save the world.

*48 [f]He that [g]rejecteth me, and receiveth not my words, hath one that judgeth him: the word that I have spoken, the same shall judge him in [h]the last day.

49 For I have not [i]spoken of myself; but the Father which sent me, he gave me a commandment, what I should say, and what I should speak.

50 And I know that his [j]commandment is life everlasting: whatsoever I speak therefore, even as the Father said unto me, so I speak.

81 CHAPTER 13

62 The last passover (Mt. 26:20; Mk. 14:17; Lk. 22:14). (1) The hour (2:4; 7:30; 8:20; 12:23, 27; 17:1)

NOW [k]before the feast of the passover, when Jē'şus knew that [l]his hour was come that he should depart out of this world unto the Father, having loved his own which were in the world, he loved them unto the [m]end.

(2) Supper set: Judas tempted

2 And supper being [n]ended, the devil having [o]now put into the heart of Jū'das Is-căr'ī-ot, Sī'mon's son, to betray him;

(3) Jesus sets an example of humility to rebuke the strife over leadership (Lk. 22:24)

3 Jē'şus knowing that [p]the Father had given all things into his hands, and that he was come from God, and went to God;

4 He riseth [q]from supper, and laid aside his [r]garments; and took a [s]towel, and girded himself.

5 After that he poureth water into a bason, and began to wash the disciples' feet, and to [t]wipe them with the towel wherewith he was girded.

(4) Peter is touched by such lowly service from His Master

6 Then cometh he to Sī'mon Pē'tēr: and Pē'tēr saith unto him, [u]Lord, dost thou wash my feet?

(5) Lessons beyond feet washing that Peter did not understand a Referring to Christ glorifying God in Satan's defeat (Mt. 4:1-11) b Referring to Satan's final defeat at the cross (Col. 2:14-17) c The people heard the voice as a sound, like those who heard Christ's voice to Paul as a sound, not hearing the distinction of the words the voice uttered (Acts 9:7 with 22:9) d For the sake of the Gentiles that had been brought to Jesus to confirm their faith in Christ e 25th N. T. prophecy in John (12:31-32, fulfilled). Next, v 48 f Gr. krisis, judgment, especially of judicial proceedings. Our English crisis means a turning-point. Used 48 times and trans. judgment 40 times; 8 times damnation (Mt. 23:33; Mk. 3:29; Jn. 5:29); condemnation (Jn. 3:19; 5:24; Jas. 5:12); and accusation (2 Pet. 2:11; Jude 9). This refers to the judgment of the world upon the cross

g Gr. archon, ruler; applied to Satan as ruler of the world system (v 31; 14:30; 16:11); ruler of demons (Mt. 12:24; Mk. 3:22); and ruler of the air (Eph. 2:2)
h Same word as in 9:34-35; Mt. 21:39; Mk. 12:8; Lk. 20:15; Acts 7:58
i Gr. hupsoo, to lift up on high, exalt. Translated "exalt" 11 times (Mt. 11:23; 23:12; Lk. 1:52; 10:15; 14:11; 18:14; Acts 2:33; 5:31; 8:17; 2 Cor. 11:7; 1 Pet. 5:6). From this we must conclude that Jesus being "lifted up" refers more to the heavenly exaltation through crucifixion than merely to the cross itself (Jn. 3:14; 8:28; 12:32; 34). It is translated "lift up" in Jas. 4:10 j It is because of His exaltation that He can draw all men to Him by the Holy Spirit and miraculous works through believers in confirming the gospel (Jn. 7:37-39; 14:12; Acts 2:33; Mk. 16:17-20; Lk. 24:49; Heb. 2:3-4). All men will literally be drawn to Him in the day of His glory and reign (Gen. 49:10; Isa. 11:10; Eph. 1:10) k May be a reference to Ps. 89:29; 110:4; Isa. 9:6-7; Dan. 7:14

m The Messiah does abide forever (v 34), but like the sun He is not always visible. Believe in Me while you can and be children of light. Darkness will come soon when you will long for Me and cannot find Me (Lk. 17:22; Jn. 7:34; Mt. 21:43)
n This was the purpose of the miracles then, and it still is today

p Questions 116-117. Next, 13:6
q The arm of the Lord expresses His miraculous power (Ps. 98:1; Isa. 52:10; 53:1; 59:16; 63:5; Acts 4:30; 11:21; 13:11)
r 8th O. T. prophecy fulfilled in John (12:40; Isa. 6:9-10). Next, 13:18. See notes, Mt. 13:14-15; 2 Cor. 2:15-16; Jn. 9:39-41; 15:22-25 s 2 things promised believers here:
1 Conversion, a change of direction, a new walk with God (Ps. 19:7; 51:13; Isa. 6:10; 60:5; Mt. 13:15; 18:3; Mk. 4:12; Lk. 22:32; Jn. 12:40; Acts 3:19; 15:3; 28:27; Jas. 5:19-20)
2 Healing (bodily), a change of health, a new health in God (Ex. 15:26; Ps. 91; 103:3; Isa. 6:10; 53; Mt. 8:17; Jn. 10:10; Rom. 8:11; 1 Pet. 2:24; 3 Jn. 2; Jas. 5:14-16)
To accept the literal fulfillment of only half of this prophecy is wrong. The way Jesus demonstrated healing and conversion together is proof that both are still for all men (Mt. 8:17; 9:5, 35; 10:1-8; 12:28; 13:15; Jn. 10:10; Acts 10:38)
Shall we say that it is easier to forgive than heal? That it was only God's will that He do this for men for a limited time? That God does not care to bless His children this way today? That He loved them for only a few years? That the work of Christ on the cross has lost its power? That the promises, provision, and benefits started with the gospel were only temporary? Or, shall we return to God and the original gospel benefits?
t Jesus here applies Isa. 6 to Himself, proving His deity and pre-existence u Only two are named (Jn. 19:38-39)
v Gr. agapao, note, v 25. Many permit fear of disgrace, love of the praise of men, riches, and temporal advantages to make them cowards and too weak in faith to bear the reproach of Christ (Heb. 11:26; 13:13; 1 Pet. 4:14)

a Spoke in a loud voice (7:27; 11:43). This is His last discourse to the people (v 44-50)
b Faith in Christ does not end here, but passes on to recognize the Father (5:23; 7:14-19; 10:30; 12:44-50; 13:20) c See note, Lk. 5:32
d 3 things all must do (v 47-48):
1 A man must hear in order to believe Christ's words (v 47; Rom. 10:14)
2 He must believe in order to keep them (v 47; Rom. 10:14)
3 He must keep them in order to be saved (Mt. 10:22; Rom. 6:22; Heb. 3:6, 12-14; 6:11; 1 Pet. 1:9, 13; Rev. 2:26)
e I judge him not now, but My words shall judge him in the last day (v 45-46)

g Gr. atheteo, to count as nothing, despise (v 48; Mk. 6:26; 7:9; Lk. 7:30; 10:16; 1 Cor. 1:19; Gal. 2:21; 3:15)
h Last of 6 times in John (6:39, 40, 44, 54; 11:24; 12:48)

j His commandment He has given Me to speak (v 49) is the germ and power of eternal life (6:63; 12:50; 1 Jn. 3:23; 5:10-13). This is John's last mention of Christ's public ministry. He does not give any account of the second day before the passover, Nisan the 13th, our Monday sunset to Tuesday sunset. Early the Christ goes to Jerusalem. The disciples question about the fig tree (Mk. 11:20-26). He teaches in the temple and gives the first great prophecy (Mt. 21:23-23:39; Mk. 11:27-12:44; Lk. 20:1-21:38). He leaves the temple for the Mount of Olives where the second great prophecy is given (Mt. 24:1-25:46; Mk. 13:1-37). He returns to Bethany for a second supper in the house of Simon the leper and the second anointing (Mt. 26:1-13; Mk. 14:1-9) k This is the preparation day for the passover, Nisan the 14th, our Tuesday sunset to Wednesday sunset, the day of the crucifixion. Judas plots to betray Jesus at the last supper (Mt. 26:14-29; Mk. 14:10-25; Lk. 22:1-38; Jn. 13:1-36). The discourse on the way to Gethsemane (Mt. 26:30-35; Mk. 14:26-31; Lk. 22:39; Jn. 14:1-18:1). Gethsemane, arrest and trials (Mt. 26:36-27:31; Mk. 14:32-15:19; Lk. 22:40-23:25; Jn. 18:2-19:15). The crucifixion and burial (Mt. 27:31-66; Mk. 15:20-47; Lk. 23:26-56; Jn. 19:16-42)

m Furthest extent, referring not so much to a period of time, but to readiness to do the most humble service in their behalf n That is, the end of the preparation for the supper (Mt. 26:14-19). The washing was first (v 3-17. Cp. Lk. 7:44)
o Having already (Mt. 26:14-19)
p Note this statement of His divinity, authority, and coming glory, made just before He humbled Himself to take the place of a slave to wash feet q He arose from the upper table when the preparation had been completed and began to wash the disciples' feet. The reason for this was their argument about who would be "the greatest" among them (Lk. 22:24). Before He had rebuked this kind of spirit by setting a little child in their midst and stating that they had to become as little children and not seek to lord it over each other (Mt. 18:1-10). He had also rebuked this spirit on other occasions (Mt. 20:20-28; Mk. 10:35-45). Years had gone by now and they had not yet learned their lesson on this point. He was seeking to get rid of this passion for worldly honour and dignity, which would have wrecked the foundation of the church after His death if He had not succeeded r Outer robe (19:2, 5). It was removed for working and sleeping s This was the duty of the meanest or lowest slave. Some think He began with Judas, so as to melt him with kindness and show how to act toward enemies. Judas was washed (v 5, 10-12)
t Gr. nipto, to wash part of the body (Mt. 6:17; 15:2; Mk. 7:2; Jn. 9:7-15; 13:5-14; 1 Tim. 5:10), not bapto, to dip in, immerse (Rev. 19:13; Jn. 13:26; Lk. 16:24), from which we get our word baptize. See note, Mt. 3:6
u Gr. ekmasso, 11:2; 12:3; Lk. 7:38, 44
v Question 118. Next, v 12

a I will explain My motives for what I am doing, shortly. He did in v 12-17.
b See note, Jn. 5:1
c Gr. ou me eis ton aiona, by no means unto the age. I consider it far below Your dignity d Surely something more than mere washing of feet is involved. The reason for such an example was to emphasize the absolute necessity of getting rid of self-exaltation among Christians. One must get rid of the spirit of wanting to lord it over all other Christians or he will not be saved. It will damn the soul (Mt. 18:1-6; 23:8-12; Lk. 14:7-11; 18:14; 1 Pet. 5:1-8)
e Peter evidently understood Jesus to refer to spiritual cleansing, so wanted to be completely washed f He that is bathed, as they no doubt had been to prepare themselves for the passover (on that occasion Jews bathed twice), need only to wash his feet of the dust on them from walking between the bath and the supper. See note, Lk. 7:44
g All the disciples were clean from sin, but Judas who had permitted Satan to use him again (v 11)
h Gr. katharos, pure, clean from anything that soils or corrupts. Used 28 times and trans. pure (Mt. 5:8; Acts 20:26; Rom. 14:20; 1 Tim. 1:5; 3:9; Tit. 1:15; Heb. 10:22; Jas. 1:27; 1 Pet. 1:22; Rev. 15:6; 21:18, 21; 22:1); clean (Mt. 23:26; 27:59; Lk. 11:41; Jn. 13:10-11; 15:3; Acts 18:6; Rev. 19:8, 14); and clear (Rev. 21:18)
i Question 119. Next, v 25
j This double title was not given except to the most accredited teachers k If I have condescended to do this to you, then you should be willing to do the lowest service for each other and prefer the least in honour to yourselves (Phil. 2:1-7). The act of washing feet is given to inspire self-denying acts of kindness to all in need. Literal washing of feet was not practiced among Christians as a church ordinance until the 4th century. No reference is made of it in any N.T. book. Widows who were supported were to wash the feet of saints (1 Tim. 5:10), but this does not refer to washing feet as a church ordinance, otherwise widows are the only ones to do it l Mt. 10:24-25; Lk. 6:40; Jn. 15:20 m Not washing feet, but services to others who are in need and to those who are the least n Referring again to Judas of v 10-11
o I prayed all night for the will of God concerning whom I should choose (Lk. 6:12-16). I chose Judas, not as a wicked man, nor that he should become such; but I foresaw that he would not remain true to Me, and that he would give way to iniquity delivering Me into the hands of My enemies and bringing ruin upon himself. I even tried to prevent this, but he would not listen p 9th O.T. prophecy fulfilled in John (13:18; Ps. 41:9). Next, 15:25. Eating bread with Jesus made the crime of Judas all the more sinful, for in the East it is a custom that eating bread with an enemy makes you friends and rights of hospitality cannot be broken. It seals the bond of mutual friendship, kindness, and protection of each other q A reference to an ill-natured horse that sometimes kicks even the person who feeds and cares for him r Miracles of power and utterance were performed constantly to confirm the disciples in their faith s See Jn. 8:28, 58; 18:5-6

u 27th N.T. prophecy in John (13:21, fulfilled). Next, v 26. This was after the washing of feet. Judas was still with them, having had his feet washed along with the rest
v Mt. 26:14-16, 45-50; Mk. 14:10-11; Lk. 22:3-6, 47-48
w Judas was not suspected (v 22-26). The disciples had absolute confidence in their treasurer. Judas must have been a good actor as well as demon inspired to go through this ordeal of pretending such innocence. Were not these dealings of Jesus to break him if possible and bring him to repentance?
x Reclining on the divan to the right of the Lord so that his head came close to the bosom of Jesus
y This was John the writer of this gospel (19:26; 20:2; 21:7, 20-24)

7 Jē'sus answered and said unto him, [c]What I do thou knowest not now; but thou shalt know [b]hereafter.

(6) Peter rebels: pride rebuked

8 Pē'tēr saith unto him, Thou shalt [c]never wash my feet. Jē'sus answered him, [d]If I wash thee not, thou hast no part with me.

(7) Peter's self-humbling

9 Si'mon Pē'tēr saith unto him, [e]Lord, not my feet only, but also my hands and my head.

(8) All clean except Judas

10 Jē'sus saith to him, [f]He that is washed needeth not save to wash his feet, but is clean every whit: and [g]ye are clean, but not all.

11 For he knew who should betray him; therefore said he, Ye are not all [h]clean.

(9) Application of His lowly service (Cp. Mt. 18:2, refs.)

12 So after he had washed their feet, and had taken his garments, and was set down again, he said unto them, [i]Know ye what I have done to you?

13 Ye call me [j]Master and Lord: and ye say well; for so I am.

14 [k]If I then, your Lord and Master, have washed your feet; ye also ought to wash one another's feet.

15 For I have given you an example, that ye should do as I have done to you.

16 Verily, verily, I say unto you, The [l]servant is not greater than his lord; neither he that is sent greater than he that sent him.

17 If ye know [m]these things, happy are ye if ye do them.

(10) Jesus predicts His betrayal by Judas (Mt. 26:20; Mk. 14:17; Lk. 22:21)

*18 ¶ I speak not of you [n]all: I know whom I have [o]chosen: but that the scripture may be fulfilled, [p]He that eateth bread with me hath [q]lifted up his heel against me.

19 Now I tell you before it come, [r]that, when it is come to pass, ye may believe that [s]I am he.

20 Verily, verily, I say unto you, [t]He that receiveth whomsoever I send receiveth me; and he that receiveth me receiveth him that sent me.

*21 When Jē'sus had thus said, he was troubled in spirit, and testified, and said, Verily, verily, [u]I say unto you, that one of you shall [v]betray me.

22 Then the disciples looked one [w]on another, doubting of whom he spake.

23 Now there was [x]leaning on Jē'sus' bosom one of his disciples, [y]whom Jē'sus loved.

24 Si'mon Pē'tēr therefore beckoned to him, that he should ask who it should be of whom he spake.

25 He then lying on Jē'sus' breast saith unto him, [e]Lord, who is it?

*26 Jē'sus answered, [b]He it is, to whom I shall give a [c]sop, when I have dipped it. And when he had dipped the sop, he gave it to Jū'das Is-kăr'i-ot, the son of Si'mon.

(11) Judas submits to Satan

27 And after the sop [d]Sā'tan entered into him. [e]Then said Jē'sus unto him, That thou doest, do quickly.

28 Now no man at the table knew for what intent he spake this unto him.

29 For some of them thought, because Jū'das had the bag, that Jē'sus had said unto him, Buy those things that we have need of against [f]the feast; or, that he should give something to the poor.

30 He then having received the sop went immediately out: and it was [g]night.

(12) Jesus' last teaching at the passover (Mt. 26:30)

*31 ¶ Therefore, when he was gone out, Jē'sus said, [h]Now is the Son of man glorified, and God is glorified in him.

32 If God be glorified in him, God shall also glorify him in himself, and shall straightway glorify him.

33 Little children, [i]yet a little while I am with you. Ye shall seek me: and as I said unto the Jews, Whither I go, ye cannot come; so now I say to you.

●34 A [j]new commandment I give unto you, That ye love one another; as I have loved you, that ye also love one another.

35 [k]By this shall all men know that ye are my disciples, if ye have love [l]one to another.

63 Discourse on the Mount of Olives (Mt. 26:30)

(1) Peter's denial foretold (Mt. 26:31; Mk. 14:26; Lk. 22:31)

*36 ¶ Si'mon Pē'tēr said unto him, [m]Lord, whither goest thou? Jē'sus answered him, [n]Whither I go, thou canst not follow me now; but thou shalt follow me afterwards.

37 Pē'tēr said unto him, [o]Lord, why cannot I follow thee now? I will lay down my life for thy sake.

*38 Jē'sus answered him, Wilt thou lay down thy life for my sake? Verily, verily, I say unto thee, [p]The cock shall not crow, till thou hast [q]denied me thrice.

CHAPTER 14 — 82

a Question 120. Next, v 36.
b 28th N.T. prophecy in John (13:26, fulfilled). Next, v 31 c Gr. psomion, a morsel. Only here and in v 27, 30. It was a portion of the paschal supper, collected in the fingers and dipped in the sauce, and handed to one of the guests. It was a mark of honor for the guest who received it. The Lord had appealed to the conscience of Judas in v 21, now He appealed to his heart, but it was too hard to respond. Judas must have been on the left of Jesus so he could take it from Him. If this be the case the Lord laid His head on the bosom of Judas just back of Him reclining on the couch d The only time this word is used in John. Satan had put it in his heart before this and the deal was already made (Mt. 26:14-16). Judas hardened his heart at the last appeal of Jesus, so now he was open for satanic control. See Lk. 22:3
e Jesus now knowing that Judas had submitted to Satan and that further appeal was useless, dismissed him for the work he was to do. Cp. Ps. 41:6 with 41:9
f Referring to the whole festival which was to last 7 days g When most sin is committed. This was early Tuesday night h 29th N.T. prophecy in John (13:31-33, fulfilled). Next, v 36. I am glorified by being appointed to save the world. The Father is glorified in My saving the world. The Father and I are glorified together in seeing Our ruined work redeemed and restored i I will be with you but this day and then I will be crucified and remain dead for three whole days. Then you will see Me 40 more days and then no more (Mt. 12:40; Acts 1:3, 11). As I said to the Jews (7:34; 8:21), I say to you, when I do finally go you cannot follow, but I will come back for you later (v 36; 14:1-3) j Gr. kainos, renewed. This is the same as the old commandment in Lev. 19:18, "Thou shalt love thy neighbor as thyself." The renewed commandment here has an additional part, "as I have loved you." Christ more than fulfilled the Mosaic precept. He not only loved His neighbor as Himself, but He loved him more than Himself, for He laid down His own life for others. In this He called upon His disciples to follow Him; to be ready on all occasions to lay down their lives for each other and for enemies if it would save them from hell (Rom. 5:8-11). This surpassed by far all moral systems of all religions. No system ever prescribed any thing so pure and unselfish k Christ virtually said to them, "You have been ambitious, envious, and at strife for supremacy. This cannot be. You must love, as I love. By this shall all men know you to be Christians." Disciples of different teachers were known by their habits, or some particular creed or rite, but the disciples of Christ were to be known by the love they had for one another (1 Jn. 3:11-18; 4:7-21)
l Gr. en allelois, among or in yourselves. Only here and in Mk. 9:50

o Questions 122-123. Next, 14:5. Peter wanted to know just why He could not follow Jesus now. He was willing (so he said) to die and go along with Him now. Christ knew Peter better than he knew himself, so made a prediction that proved it (v 38)

q Gr. aparneomai, utterly denied; always of denying a person, as in Mt. 26:34-35, 75; Mk. 14:30-31, 72; Lk. 22:34, 61
r 32nd N.T. prophecy in John (14:1-3, unfulfilled). Next, v 16. This will be fulfilled at the rapture (1 Th. 4:16; 1 Cor. 15:23, 51-58)
s 4 troubled things in John:
1 Troubled water (5:4-7)
2 Troubled spirit (11:33; 13:21)
3 Troubled soul (12:27)
4 Troubled hearts (14:1, 27)
t This phrase is used 32 times in John; 16 times in Matthew; 2 times in Luke and not once in Mark. See note, Jn. 4:21 u Gr. oikia, dwelling place. The Father's dwelling place is heaven (2 Cor. 12:1-4; Rev. 4-5; Eph. 1:20; Heb. 8:1; 9:24; Acts 1:11)

many [a]mansions: if it were not so, I would have told you. I go to prepare [b]a place for you.

3 And if I go and prepare a place for you, [c]I will come again, and [d]receive you unto myself; that where I am, there ye may be also.

4 And whither I go ye know, and the way ye know.

(3) Life's great question

5 Thŏm'as saith unto him, Lord, we know not whither thou goest; and [e]how can we know the way?

(4) Answer to all destiny

6 Jē'şus saith unto him, [f]I am the [g]way, the [h]truth, and [i]the life: [j]no man cometh unto the Father, but by me.

7 [k]If ye had known me, ye should have known my Father also: and from henceforth ye know him, and have [l]seen him.

(5) The universal desire of all true believers

8 Phil'ĭp saith unto him, Lord, shew us the Father, and it sufficeth us.

(6) The true revelation of God

9 Jē'şus saith unto him, [m]Have I been so long time with you, and yet hast thou not known me, Phil'ip? he that hath seen me hath seen the Father; and how sayest thou then, Shew us the Father?

10 Believest thou not that I am [n]in the Father, and the Father in me? the words that I speak unto you I speak not of myself: but the Father that dwelleth in me, he doeth the works.

11 Believe me that I am in the Father, and the Father in me: or else believe me for the very works' sake.

(7) The Christian's power of attorney: promise of unlimited power (Mt. 18:18, refs.)

12 Verily, verily, I say unto you, [o]He that [p]believeth on me, the [q]works that I do [r]shall he do also; and [s]greater works than these shall he do; [t]because I go unto my Father.

(8) Promise of unlimited answers: chief end of prayer and the Christian's power of attorney

13 And whatsoever ye shall ask in my name, [u]that will I do, that the Father may be glorified in the Son.

14 If ye shall ask any thing in my name, I will do it.

(9) Genuine proof of love: the all-comprehensive gift (Lk. 11:13; Acts 2:38-39; 10:45; 11:17; 15:8; Gal. 3:14)

15 ¶ If ye love me, keep my commandments.

16 [v]And I will pray the Father, and he shall give you [w]another [x]Comforter, that he may abide with you [y]for ever;

17 Even the [z]Spirit of truth; whom the [a]world cannot receive, [b]because it seeth him not, neither knoweth him: but [c]ye know him; for he dwelleth [d]with you, and shall be in you.

(10) Promise and condition of spiritual union and power

18 I will not leave you [e]comfortless: [f]I will come to you.

19 [g]Yet a little while, and the world seeth me no more; but ye see me: [h]because I live, ye shall live also.

20 At that day ye shall know that I am in my Father, [i]and ye in me, and I in you.

21 He that hath my commandments, [j]and keepeth them, he it is that loveth me: and he that loveth me shall be loved of my Father, and I will love him, and [k]will manifest myself to him.

(11) The question of divine manifestation to believers

22 [l]Jū'das saith unto him, not Is-căr'i-ot, [m]Lord, how is it that thou wilt manifest thyself unto us, and not unto the world?

(12) Secret of divine indwelling and ownership (1 Cor. 6:17)

23 Jē'şus answered and said unto him, [n]If a man love me, he will keep my words: and my Father will love him, and we will come unto him, and make [o]our abode with him.

24 He that loveth me not keepeth not my sayings: and the word which ye hear is not mine, but the Father's which sent me.

25 These things have I spoken unto you, being yet present with you.

(13) The believer's new teacher and reminder of truth

26 But the [p]Comforter, which is the Hō'lў Ghŏst, whom the Father will send in my name, he shall teach you all things, and [q]bring all things to your remembrance, whatsoever I have said unto you.

(14) The source of true peace

27 [r]Peace I leave with you, my peace I give unto you: not as the world giveth, give I unto you. [s]Let not your heart be troubled, neither let it be afraid.

(15) Jesus' return to the Father the secret of all blessings (Jn. 14:6, 12, 16, 26; 13:26; 16:7, 23; Acts 1:4; 2:33; Rom. 8:34; Heb. 1:3; 4:14; 7:25) a Gr. mone, abiding places, mansions. Used only here and in v 23, "abode."

b Gr. topos, a place of habitation, as a city (Heb. 11:10-16; 12:22-23; 13:14; Rev. 21:2, 9-27)
c This refers to the rapture, not the second advent (1 Th. 4:16; 1 Cor. 15:23, 51-58; Phil. 3:21; Col. 3:4; Eph. 5:27). At this time He will receive to Himself all the dead and living in Christ who will come back to earth with Him at the second advent (Zech. 14:5; Jude 14; Rev. 19:11-21)
d Since Christ is in heaven, that is where we are to go at the rapture (Acts 1:11; Eph. 1:20; Heb. 8:1; 9:24)
e Question 124, Next, v 9
f I am - used 58 times in John by Christ (4:26; 5:43; 6:35-7:36; 8:12-9:39; 10:7-12:46; 13:13-14:20; 15:1-5; 16:28-32; 17:10-18:37; 19:21; 20:17)
g Christ is a 7 fold way: See p. 121
h This word is used by Jesus in John 24 times and only 5 times by Him in the other gospels. He is the truth of God that sets free (Jn. 8:32-36; 14:6). He is the teacher and source of truth (Mt. 22:16; Mk. 12:14; Jn. 1:14, 17)
i This word is used 43 times in John and only 38 times in the other gospels. Christ is the source of eternal life. See note, Jn. 6:27
j Acts 4:12; Eph. 2:18
k See note b, Jn. 12:44
l See note on Jn. 1:18
m Questions 125-127, Next, v 22
n This speaks of union with, not bodily entrance into. See "Interpenetration," Lk. 22:3
o This means each and every believer, as it does in 3:15-18, 36; 5:24; 6:35, 47; 7:37-39; 11:25; 12:44-46; Mk. 9:23; 16:15-20; Acts 10:43; Rom. 1:16; 3:26; 1 Jn. 5:1-10 p See Faith, p. 201
q Gr. ergon, works, deeds, acts. Trans. work and works 152 times and deeds 22 times. It is clear that He refers to miracles, healings, signs, wonders, and mighty acts of power (Mt. 11:20-23; 13:54-58; 14:2; Jn. 5:20, 36; 9:3; 10:25, 32; 14:10-12). His works consisted of healing all manner of sickness and disease, casting out devils, raising the dead, cleansing lepers, and doing innumerable acts of deliverance from all the works of Satan (Mt. 4:23-24; 9:35; Acts 10:38). He controlled the elements, multiplied food, walked on water, restored a severed ear, turned water into wine, accomplishing anything He undertook to do in the material and spiritual realms r The promise here is that each believer can be endued with power (Lk. 10:19; 24:49; Acts 1:4-8) and receive the Spirit without measure (Jn. 7:37-39) so he can do all the works of Christ and even greater works than what He did. To make this a promise of spiritual works only when He did material and spiritual works is a poor excuse for unbelief. To make it refer to saving souls is to ignore facts, because He did this also. To limit it to the works of the apostles will rob the other believers of the benefits of the promise s The greater works are not those of reaching more people by means of radio, television, and the printed page, for these are natural means and can be used by unsaved men who do not have the Holy Spirit power to do the works of Christ. No man can receive greater power than Christ, for He received the Spirit without measure (Jn. 3:34; Isa. 11:2; 61:1-2). Therefore, the greater works could not consist of doing greater things than Christ could have done had He had the occasion to do them. The thought is that each believer can have equal power with Christ to do what He did as well as greater things if and when the occasion requires it
t 21 reasons for greater works: See p. 121 u The purpose of the Christian's power of attorney. It glorifies God to answer all prayers and save, heal, and bless all men materially, but He cannot do so unless they ask in faith, nothing wavering (Heb. 11:6; Jas. 1:5-8; Mk. 11:22-24)
v 33rd N.T. prophecy in John (14:16-21, fulfilled and being fulfilled). Next, v 23. I will become the Mediator between God and man (1 Tim. 2:5), and through My mediation and intercession all blessings of grace shall come to you (Rom. 8:34; Heb. 7:25)

a Not Me, but another divine person
b Gr. parakletos, see note on v 26 c Forever, not until the rapture or some other time and then He will be taken out of the world. He will never be taken away. He will be here during the tribulation, Millennium, and forever (Acts 2:16-21; Rev. 7:14; 12:17 with 19:10; Zech. 12:10; etc.). To have the Holy Spirit taken out of the world would mean to nullify the eternal benefits of the N. T. for men. This is inconceivable and unscriptural. The only passage suggested as proof for such a fallacy is 2 Th. 2:7, which see d The Spirit of the truth
e Gr. kosmos, social world; the unsaved cannot receive Him. Therefore, all men do not have the Holy Spirit (Rom. 8:9, 14-16; Gal. 4:6; 1 Cor. 3:16-17)
f The reason why unsaved men do not partake of the Holy Spirit. They refuse to "see" or understand Him (1 Cor. 2:14) or become acquainted with Him by receiving the gospel and permitting His work in their lives (Jn. 1:12; 3:5, 16-20, 36; 5:24; 16:7-15)
g You disciples know Him or have experienced Him, for He dwells in you in a measure and He shall come into your lives in all fulness when you are baptized in the Spirit (in about 50 days; Jn. 7:37-39; Lk. 24:49; Acts 1:4-8)
h Gr. para, beside, alongside of, proving that the Spirit was with the disciples and even "in" them (Mt. 10:1-8, 20; Mk. 6:7-13; Lk. 9:1-10; 10:1-20). If He was in them and yet shall be in them it could only refer to receiving the Spirit in greater and baptismal measure as Christ had (Jn. 3:34). Christ came to give all disciples this fulness of the Spirit (Mt. 3:11; Jn. 1:31-33; 7:37-39; Lk. 11:13; 24:49; Acts 1:4-8; 2:16-21, 33, 38-39; 5:32; Gal. 3:14). The doctrine of interpenetration does not mean bodily entrance into, but union with, so the idea is that there is a measure and a fulness; a partial union with and a complete union with the Spirit. See note, 3:34 and note, Lk. 22:3
i Gr. orphanos, orphans. Only here and in Jas. 1:27. Disciples of a particular teacher were called his children and upon his death they were considered orphans. Christ calls His disciples children (Jn. 13:33) and now promises that He will not leave them orphans
j He did (Jn. 20; Acts 1:3) k In about 20 hours when He was taken down from the cross l Because I shall be resurrected you will also be resurrected. My resurrection will be a pledge and proof of yours (1 Cor. 15)
m See Interpenetration, Lk. 22:3
n Not only must we have them, but we must keep them. See note, 6:27 and notes, 10:6, 26

s Note the plural pronouns of this verse, asserting the unity in work and omniscient abiding of both the Father and the Son. This refers to the time when He would leave them and after the glory would be restored to Him (Jn. 17:5). Now He is omnipresent, but in the days of His life on earth He was localized as all other human beings and limited in knowledge and other powers t Gr. parakletos, only used by John in the N. T. Rendered "Comforter" in Jn. 14:16, 26; 15:26; 16:7, and "Advocate" in 1 Jn. 2:1. It means one called to the side of another for help or counsel. The Spirit is our Paraclete or Helper on earth and Christ is the Paraclete or Helper in heaven u See note on Jn. 16:8
v I leave with you My last, My best, My dying legacy - peace; not the kind the world gives. Men have peace societies, temples, and plans, but arm for war all the while. They killed the Prince of Peace (Acts 4:27) and ignore Him still, so they will have no peace until He comes to reign (Ps. 2; 1 Th. 5:3; 1 Cor. 15:24-28) a The Father is the head of the Divine Trinity (Jn. 14:16; 16:23-26; 1 Cor. 11:3). He is neither the Father nor the Holy Spirit. See 89 proofs, p. 280

b Satan (12:31; Eph. 2:2; 2 Cor. 4:4) c No relationship, no sin, no nature, and nothing of Satan in Him. He was not subject to death because He had not sinned. In the fall Satan gained a pseudo sovereignty over man on the principle of possession and consent of a responsible agent, or government by consent of the governed. God recognized this and decided to permit Satan to defeat himself by causing him to kill an innocent victim over whom he had no claim. When he inflicted death on Christ, he forfeited all his claims, rights, and pseudo authority and his right to liberty itself. He lost the right to inflict death on all others who became the property of Christ by virtue of His redemption for them d The only place where Jesus speaks of loving the Father. Six times the Father is spoken of as loving the Son (3:35; 10:17; 15:9; 17:23-26)
e Gave Me commission, so I obey f Perhaps the same as Mt. 26:30. If so, then Jn. 14 was spoken before leaving the upper room, and Jn. 15-17 was spoken on the road to the garden g Israel turned out to be a false vine producing wild grapes (Isa. 5:1-7). Christ as the true vine brings forth good fruit h Every believer in Christ is referred to by this illustration or it is meaningless. If the believer is fruitful he is purged to produce more fruit. If he is fruitless he is taken away or removed from being part of the vine. The Father does this, not man. No man is able to pluck one branch from God's hands, but if we say that God cannot cut off any branch that is necessary, then we limit God and make the dead, fruitless, and useless branches to be more powerful than He is. To take this position would be like saying to the vinedresser that it would be unlawful to prune the vine and remove dead branches. No man can cut off any branch that is not actually in the vine. It is absurd and contrary to the letter and spirit of the parable here to talk about branches that are cut off as merely professing to be branches. If the idea here is only a professed union of the vine and branches, then there could only be a professed cutting off and burning; so the passage would mean nothing because it said nothing to any purpose i Now, not you are going to be, so the cleanliness referred to here was a present experience before the cross and before Pentecost j Gr. katharos, note, 13:11. Real heart purity is meant (Mt. 5:8) k Gr. meno, remain, continue, dwell, and abide. This is a command to remain in Christ. The reason is given here as not being able to bear fruit otherwise
l See Interpenetration, Lk. 22:3
m Again He repeats that He is the true vine and believers are the branches; and they are powerless to produce fruit if they do not abide in Him n Believers must remain in Him to bring forth fruit. If any man does not abide in Him he is cast forth as a branch and is withered and burned (v 6) s Found 359 times in Scripture and over half of these definitely command men to keep the commandments of God. This is not only true of the O. T., but of the N. T. Therefore, Christians are under obligation to obey the gospel throughout life, not only during one brief act of faith. See p. 284 t Emphasizing to what extent one must render obedience to God by keeping His commandments. If we are to be as righteous as He was in the world (Jn. 17:14-16; 1 Jn. 2:29; 3:7-10; 4:17; 5:1-5, 18), then nothing short of complete obedience must be rendered. It is impossible to retain a sense of pardoning grace without continuing in obedient grace me, ye would rejoice, because I said, I go unto the Father: for my Father is[a] greater than I.

29 And now I have told you before it come to pass, that, when it is come to pass, ye might believe.

30 Hereafter I will not talk much with you: for the[b] prince of this world cometh, and[c] hath nothing in me.

31 But that the world may know that[d] I love the Father; and as the Father[e] gave me commandment, even so I do. [f] Arise, let us go hence.

CHAPTER 15 83

64 Discourse on the way to the garden: (1) The true vine

I AM the[a] true vine, and my Father is the husbandman.

(2) Two kinds of branches

▸2[g] Every branch in me that beareth not fruit he taketh away: and every branch that beareth fruit, he purgeth it, that it may bring forth more fruit.

(3) State of true believers

3[h] Now ye are clean through the word which I have spoken unto you.

(4) Condition of fruit-bearing

●4[i] Abide in me, and I in you. As the branch cannot bear fruit of itself, except it abide in the vine; no more can ye, except ye abide[j] in me.

▸5[k] I am the vine, ye are the branches: He that abideth in me, and I in him, the same bringeth forth much fruit: for without me ye can do nothing.

(5) Absolute necessity of abiding in Christ to be saved

6[l] If a man abide not in me, he is cast forth as a branch, and is withered; and men gather them, and cast them into the fire, and they are burned.

(6) The all-inclusive condition of answered prayer

▸7[m] If ye abide in me, and my words abide in you, ye[n] shall ask what ye will, and it shall be done unto you.

(7) Purpose of fruit-bearing

8 Herein is my Father glorified, that ye bear[o] much fruit; so shall ye be my disciples.

(8) Conditions and blessings of abiding in Christ

●9 As the Father hath loved me,[p] so have I loved you: continue ye in my love.

▸10 If ye[q] keep my commandments, ye shall abide in my love; [r] even as I have kept my Father's commandments, and abide in his love.

11 These things have I spoken unto you, that my joy might remain in you, and[s] that your joy might be full.

●12[t] This is my commandment, That ye love one another, as I have loved you.

13 Greater love hath no man than this, that a man lay down his life for his friends.

14 Ye are my friends,[u] if ye do whatsoever I command you.

(9) Seven proofs of friendship: the Christian's power of attorney

15[v] Henceforth I call you not servants; for the servant knoweth not what his lord doeth: but I have called you friends; for all things that I have heard of my Father I have made known unto you.

▸16 Ye have not chosen me, but I have chosen you, and ordained you, that ye should go and bring forth fruit, and that your fruit should remain: that whatsoever ye shall ask of the Father[w] in my name, he may give it you.

●17 These things I command you, that ye love one another.

(10) Why the world hates true believers (Mt. 10:22; Jas. 4:4; 1 Jn. 2:15-17; Jn. 16:3; 17:14)

✶18[x] If the world hate you, ye know that it hated me before it hated you.

19 If[y] ye were of the world, the world would love his own: but because ye are not of the world, but I have chosen you out of the world, therefore[z] the world hateth you.

20 Remember the word that I said unto you, The servant is not greater than his lord. If they have[a] persecuted me, they will also persecute you; if they have kept my saying, they will keep yours also.

21 But all these things will they do unto you for[b] my name's sake, because they know not him that[c] sent me.

(11) Why the world hates God and Christ (Mt. 10:34; Jn. 3:16-21; 7:7; Rom. 8:7; 2 Cor. 4:3-4)

22 If I had not come and spoken unto them, they had not had sin: but now they have[d] no cloke for their sin.

23 He that hateth me hateth my Father also.

24 If I had not done among them the works which none other man did, they had not had sin: but now have they both seen and hated both me and my Father.

✶25 But this cometh to pass, that the word might be fulfilled that is written in their law,[e] They hated me[f] without a cause.

(12) The Spirit of Testimony (Rev. 19:10; Gal. 4:4)

✶26[g] But when the Comforter is come, whom[h] I will send unto you from the Father, even the Spirit of truth, which[i] proceedeth from the Father,[j] he shall testify of me:◂

a Getting complete answers to prayer is associated with this idea in Jn. 16:24. Would not joy be full if one lived in perfect obedience to God as did Christ (v 10)? Would God not answer all his prayers, as He always did the Son (Jn. 11:42)? Contrast "my joy" (15:11; 17:13) with "your joy" (15:11; 16:22, 24). The conditions of joy and peace (14:27) are both based upon perfect obedience (v 9-14)
b My commandment to you is the same as My Father's commandment to Me (v 10). You love one another to the extent that I love you. I lay down My life for you; you lay down your lives for each other (v 12-14) c If you obey you are My friends; if you do not obey you are not d I am not going to make you bond-slaves. I make you full partners and My personal representatives on earth. You are to represent Me and reproduce My works as I represented God and did His works (14:12; 15:15; 17:18; 20:21-23). You will share equally with Me in My inheritance if you share in sufferings and work (Rom. 8:17). You are to share with Me all things the Father has made known to Me (v 15)
e You are chosen and ordained to:
1 Go and bring forth fruit (v 15)
2 Produce eternal works (v 15)
3 Get an answer to every prayer (v 15)

m Gr. elegcho, to convince, convict, refute, expose, to bring to shame the person reproved. It is found 17 times and trans. convince (Jn. 8:46; 1 Cor. 14:24; Tit. 1:9; Jas. 2:9); convict (Jn. 8:9); tell one's fault (Mt. 18:15); reprove (Lk. 3: 19; Jn. 3:20; 16:8; Eph. 5:11, 13; 2 Tim. 4:2); rebuke (1 Tim. 5:20; Tit. 1:13; 2: 15; Heb. 12:5; Jude 15; Rev. 3:19)
n Not only the Jews, but all men (Jn. 3:16; 1 Jn. 2:2)
o Of sin: that unbelief is the foundation of sin and the source of sinfulness that will damn men (Mk. 16:16; Lk. 8:13; Jn. 3:16-20, 36; 5:24, 38; 8:24; 10:26)
p Of righteousness: that man's righteousness is useless (Isa. 64:6; Rom. 10:3); that Christ is our righteousness (1 Cor. 1:30); and that in Him alone and by faith in His atonement can we be righteous (Rom. 3:22-25; 4:1-22; 2 Cor. 5:14-21)
q The Holy Spirit will do this in My place for I am going back to My Father and will not be here to do it. See note, Jn. 14:12
r Of judgment: that men who believe in Christ will escape the judgment of damnation (Jn. 3:15-20; 5:24); that all who refuse to believe will be damned with Satan (Mt. 25:41; Jn. 3:36; Rev. 20:11-15; 21:8)
s All unbelievers are assured of judgment because their master has already been defeated on the cross and is helpless to avert his own doom much less theirs (v 11; 12:31; Col. 2:14-17; Rom. 16:20; Rev. 20:10-15)
t Gr. bastazo, to carry or bear what is burdensome, not able to understand a matter or receive it calmly (19:17; Acts 15:10; Gal. 6:2, 5. Cp. note, Jn. 12:6)
It would be best for Me not to tell you that the whole Mosaic system must be set aside; that the sabbath and Jewish festivals will be abolished; that Gentiles must be equal members of the church; and that many cherished dreams of yours about what the Messiah will do when He comes will not come to pass at this time. I will reveal these things to you when the Holy Spirit shall come (v 13-15).

84 CHAPTER 16

(13) Jesus predicts persecution (Mt. 5:10; Jn. 15:18)

16 ᵇTHESE things have I spoken unto you, that ye should not be ᶜoffended.
2 They shall ᵈput you out of the synagogues: yea, the time cometh, that whosoever killeth you will think that he doeth God ᵉservice.
3 And these things will they do unto you, because they have not known the Father, nor me.

(14) Reason for the prophecy of persecution of Christians

4 ᶠBut these things have I told you, that when the time shall come, ye may remember that I told you of them. And these things I said not unto you at the beginning, because I was with you.
5 But now I go my way to him that sent me; and none of you asketh me, ᵍWhither goest thou?
6 But because I have said these things unto you, sorrow hath filled your heart.

(15) Necessity of going back to the Father (Jn. 14:12)

▸7 Nevertheless I tell you the truth; It is ʰexpedient for you that I go away: for ⁱif I go not away, the Comforter will not come unto you; but if I depart, I will ᵏsend him unto you.

(16) Threefold work of the Holy Spirit in the world (14:26; 15:26; 16:13-15; Rom. 8:1-26)

8 And when he is come, ˡhe will ᵐreprove the ⁿworld of sin, and of righteousness, and of judgment:
9 ᵒOf sin, because they believe not on me;
10 ᵖOf righteousness, ᵍbecause I go to my Father, and ye see me no more;
11 ʳOf judgment, ˢbecause the prince of this world is judged.

(17) Prophecy of future revelations (fulfilled, Acts 1:2)

12 I have yet many things to say unto you, but ye cannot ᵗbear them now.
▸13 Howbeit when he, the Spirit of truth, is come, he will guide you into all truth: for he shall not speak of himself; but whatsoever he shall hear, that shall he speak: and he will shew you things to come.
▸14 He shall glorify me: for he shall receive of mine, and shall shew it unto you.
15 All things that the Father hath are mine: therefore said I, that he shall take of mine, and shall shew it unto you.

(18) New statement of doctrine

▸16 ᵘA little while, and ye shall not see me: and again, a little while, and ye shall see me, ᵛbecause I go to the Father.

(19) Disciples misunderstand

17 Then said some of his disciples among themselves, ʷWhat is this that he saith unto us, A little while, and ye shall not see me: and again, a little while, and ye shall see me: and, Because I go to the Father?
18 They said, therefore, What is this that he saith, A little while? we cannot tell what he saith.

(20) Jesus explains His going away and coming again

*19 Now Jē'sus knew that they were desirous to ask him, ˣand said unto them, Do ye enquire among yourselves of that I said, A little while, and ye shall not see me: and again, a little while, and ye shall see me?
▸20 Verily, verily, I say unto you, ʸThat ye shall weep and lament, but the world shall rejoice: and ye shall be sorrowful, but your sorrow shall be turned into joy.
21 ᶻA woman when she is in travail hath sorrow, because her hour is come: but as soon as she is delivered of the child, she remembereth no more the anguish, for joy that a man is born into the world.
▸22 And ye now therefore have sorrow: but I will see you again, and your heart shall rejoice, and your joy no man taketh from you.

(21) The new law on prayer: "In my name" - the Christian's power of attorney

▸23 And ᵃin that day ye shall ask me nothing. Verily, verily, I say unto you, ᵇWhatsoever ye shall ask the Father ᶜin my name, he will give it you.
▸24 ᵈHitherto have ye asked nothing in my name: ᵉask, and ye shall receive, ᶠthat your joy may be full.
25 These things have I spoken unto you in proverbs: but the time cometh, when I shall no more speak unto you in proverbs, but I shall shew you plainly of the Father.
▸26 At that day ye shall ask in my name: and I say not unto you, ᵍthat I will pray the Father for you:

(22) Further explanation of the misunderstanding of v 16

27 For the Father himself loveth you, because ye have loved me, and have believed that I came out from God.
28 I came forth from the Father, and am come into the world: again, I leave the world, and go to the Father.

(23) Disciples now understand

29 His disciples said unto him, Lo, now speakest thou plainly, and speakest no proverb.

a 3 times Jesus said this:
1 I am not going to be here to continue My works, so I am making full provision for believers to do them (Jn. 14:12-17, 26; 15:7, Mt. 3:11; 17:20; Lk. 11:13; 24:49; Acts 1:4-8; 38-39)
2 I am sending the Holy Spirit to take My place and convince the world of sin, righteousness and of judgment (16:8-11)
3 I am going to My Father, so you will not be able to see Me until I come again (16:16).

g Again assuring no limitations to what believers may ask and receive within the bounds of the promises
h This repeats the doctrine of the Christian's power of attorney, and teaches agency in divine affairs. Legally, any person capable of free and intelligent action may act as an agent. A lunatic, imbecile, an infant, or anyone incapable of free and intelligent action cannot act as an agent
The power of attorney means the legal and written authority to transact business for another. One may be a general agent to represent another in all of his business, or a special agent who is authorized to do some specific work, or transact some special business. The agent can act with all authority within the bounds of the legal authorization as much as the one who gave him this authority
All believers have full, legal, redemptive, gospel, blood bought, promised, and family rights to use the name of Jesus in:
1 Salvation (Mt. 1:21; Acts 4:12)
2 Baptism (Mt. 28:19; Acts 8:16)

10 Prayer (Jn. 14:13-15; 15:16; 16: 23-26)
11 Praise (Eph. 5:20; Heb. 13:15)
12 All things (Col. 3:17)
13 Receiving the Holy Spirit (Lk. 11: 13; 24:49; Jn. 7:37-39; 14:26; Acts 1:4-8)
14 Doing the works of Christ (Mk. 16: 17-20; Jn. 14:12-15). Free, unlimited, and unqualified use of His name is the church's deposit. Checks will be honored in the amount signed with a steady and unwavering hand (Jas. 1:5-8)
i Up to now you have not asked anything in My name for I was with you and you asked Me personally, but after I leave you must ask the Father in My name j Do not be afraid to ask - simply ask in faith and you shall receive. Asking is not limited to salvation, but "whatsoever," "anything," and "all things" will be given in My name (Mt. 17:20; 21:22; Mk. 11:22-24; Jn. 14:12-15; 15:16; 16:23-26)
k The purpose of answering prayer is to help you and to confirm the infinite Fatherhood of God (Mt. 7:11; Lk. 11:9-13; Jas. 1:17), so do not hesitate to ask any material, physical, or spiritual blessing - any need for body, soul, or spirit, for no good thing will He withhold from you (Ps. 23:1; 34:9-10; 84: 11; 91:1-12; Mt. 21:22; Mk. 9:23; 11: 22-24; Jn. 14:12-15)
l You pray and I will make intercession for you (Rom. 8:34; Heb. 7:25; 1 Jn. 2: 1-2). If you will pray and have faith, the Father will never deny you what you want. He always hears Me. If He did not spare Me in sufferings and death He will not refuse to give you what I died to give you (Rom. 8:32). When you pray in My name or by My authority the Father will always hear and answer, because this is what He sent Me to tell you, so let this be a settled fact in your lives (v 27)

30 Now are we sure that thou knowest all things, and needest not that any man should ask thee: by this we believe that thou camest forth from God.

(24) Prophecy of suffering and Christian persecutions

31 Jĕ'sus answered them, Do ye now believe?

*32 Behold, the hour cometh, yea, is now come, that ye shall be scattered, every man to his own, and shall leave me alone: and yet I am not alone, because the Father is with me.

●33 These things I have spoken unto you, that in me ye might have peace. In the world ye shall have tribulation: but be of good cheer; I have overcome the world. ◂

CHAPTER 17 85

65 The Lord's prayer:

(1) Glorification of the Father and the Son

THESE words spake Jĕ'sus, and lifted up his eyes to heaven, and said, Father, the hour is come; glorify thy Son, that thy Son also may glorify thee:

(2) Concerning life eternal

2 As thou hast given him power over all flesh, that he should give eternal life to as many as thou hast given him.

3 And this is life eternal, that they might know thee the only true God, and Jĕ'sus Christ whom thou hast sent.

(3) Testimony of mission fulfilled on the earth

4 I have glorified thee on the earth: I have finished the work which thou gavest me to do.

(4) Prayer for original glory

5 And now, O Father, glorify thou me with thine own self with the glory which I had with thee before the world was.

(5) Testimony of the power of attorney and its results

6 I have manifested thy name unto the men which thou gavest me out of the world: thine they were, and thou gavest them me; and they have kept thy word.

7 Now they have known that all things whatsoever thou hast given me are of thee.

8 For I have given unto them the words which thou gavest me; and they have received them, and have known surely that I came out from thee, and they have believed that thou didst send me.

(6) Prayer for the keeping and oneness of all believers (v 20)

9 *I pray for them: I pray not for the world, but for them which thou hast given me; for they are thine.

10 And all mine are thine, and thine are mine; and I am glorified in them.

11 And now I am no more in the world, but these are in the world, and I come to thee. Holy Father, keep through thine own name those whom thou hast given me, that they may be one, as we are.

(7) All kept but one: reason

*12 While I was with them in the world, I kept them in thy name: those that thou gavest me I have kept, and none of them is lost, but the son of perdition; that the scripture might be fulfilled.

(8) Testimony of the holiness of all believers (Heb. 12:14; Jn. 15:3)

13 And now come I to thee; and these things I speak in the world, that they might have my joy fulfilled in themselves.

14 I have given them thy word; and the world hath hated them, because they are not of the world, even as I am not of the world.

(9) Prayer for believers to be kept from all evil

15 I pray not that thou shouldest take them out of the world, but that thou shouldest keep them from the evil.

(10) Testimony of the holiness of believers (Jn. 15:3, 19)

16 They are not of the world, even as I am not of the world.

(11) Prayer for a setting apart of believers to a world ministry by the truth (Jn. 10:36)

17 Sanctify them through thy truth: thy word is truth.

18 As thou hast sent me into the world, even so have I also sent them into the world.

19 And for their sakes I sanctify myself, that they also might be sanctified through the truth.

(12) Prayer for the oneness of all new believers as God and Christ were one (v 9)

20 Neither pray I for these alone, but for them also which shall believe on me through their word;

21 That they all may be one; as thou, Father, art in me, and I in thee, that they also may be one in us: that the world may believe that thou hast sent me.

22 And the glory which thou gavest me I have given them; that they may be one, even as we are one:

23 I in them, and thou in me, that they may be made perfect in one; and that the world may know that thou hast sent me, and hast loved them, as thou hast loved me.

(13) Prayer for the glorification of all believers

24 Father, I will that they

a Question 133, Next, 18:4.
b 40th N. T. prophecy in John (16:32-33, fulfilled). Next, 18:9
c See note, Jn. 15:19
d Gr. nikao, conquered. Used 28 times. Only here in John, but used by him 23 times in 1 Jn. and Rev. and trans. overcome (1 Jn. 2:13-14; 4:4; 5:4-5; Rev. 2:7, 11, 17, 26; 3:5, 12, 21; 11:7; 12:11; 13:7; 17:14; 21:7); conquer (Rev. 6:2); prevail (Rev. 5:5); and got the victory (Rev. 15:2). Used elsewhere in Lk. 11:22; Rom. 3:4; 12:21
e All of 13:32-16:33. Then the Lord prayed His longest recorded prayer, which may be divided into 4 sections:
1 For Himself (v 1-5)
2 For His disciples (v 9-19)
3 For all disciples (v 20-24)
4 For His disciples (v 25-26)
f See note, Jn. 11:41
g Jn. 7:30; 8:20; 12:23, 27; 13:1
h Jn. 12:16, 28-30
i Gr. exousia, authority, delegated power; the right to give eternal life to all whom God gives to Him
j As He died for all, He can give eternal life to all if all meet the conditions. It is a free choice whether one accepts eternal life or not (Jn. 3:16; 1 Tim. 2:4; 2 Pet. 3:9; Rev. 22:17) k 7 times (v 2, 6, 9, 11, 12, 24)
l See Eternal life, p. 121
m Knowing God is eternal life. This is why knowledge is stressed in Scripture. The words "know," "knowledge," "known," etc. are found 1,496 times in the Bible. All Scripture centers around the idea of knowing God and of conforming to His eternal will. Ignorance of Him and refusal to know and to believe in Him are condemned many times. This is what will damn the soul. See 1 Jn. 5:13; 2 Pet. 1:1-8 n True in contrast with false gods (2 Chr. 15:3; Jer. 10:10; Jn. 3:33; 8:26; 1 Th. 1:9; 1 Jn. 5:20; Rev. 6:10)
See True things in Scripture: p. 120 o Six times in this prayer (3, 8, 18, 21, 23, 25). Christ being sent of God is mentioned 46 times in John and only 3 times in the other gospels p By demonstrating the will of God in preaching, teaching, healing, and holy living q The work of Mt. 4:23; Acts 10:38. The work of redemption was to be finished in a few hours (19:30). The work in heaven is still going on (Rom. 8:34; Heb. 4:14-16; 7:25)
r A plain reference to His self-emptying (Phil. 2:7, notes). Here He refers to 3 experimental states:
1 Eternal pre-existence (Mic. 5:1-2; Jn. 1:1-2; Rev. 1:8, 11; 2:8; 22:13; Col. 1:15-18)
2 Earthly self-emptying (Lk. 2:40, 52; Jn. 1:14; Phil. 2:5-11; Heb. 1:3-9; 2:9-18; 4:14-16; 5:7)
3 Restored glory (Jn. 17:5; Mt. 28:18; Eph. 1:20-23; Phil. 2:9-11; 1 Pet. 3:22; Heb. 12:2; Rev. 3:21)
s Thy authority (Jn. 5:43; 10:25)
t The men not only included the 12, but also the 70 disciples and many others that had come to believe on Him
Note 10 things of these men:
1 I have manifested Thy name and glory to them (v 6, 22, 23)
2 They are Thine (v 6, 9)
3 They have received and kept Thy Word (v 6, 8)
4 They know God and believe that I came from God (v 7, 8, 25)
5 The world hates them (v 14)
6 They are not of the world even as I am not (v 14-16)
7 I am glorified in them (v 10)
8 Thou gavest them Me (7 times, v 2, 6, 9, 11, 12, 24)
9 I have given them eternal life (v 2-3)
10 Those that Thou gavest Me I have kept, and none of them is lost, except Judas (v 12) u 7 things prayed for believers:
1 To be kept from evil (v 11, 15)
2 Unity of all believers, as God and Christ are one (v 11, 21-23)
3 Joy of Christ fulfilled in all believers (v 13)
4 Sanctification or separation of believers to the full work of God, as He had been set apart for this work (v 17-19; 10:36)
5 World recognition of God's love to believers (v 24)
6 Reunion with Christ (v 24)
7 To see His glory (v 24)

a This is a claim to perfect equality with God. Any believer can say that all mine are Thine, but only Christ can say all Thine are Mine b None is lost, but Judas who fell from the apostleship by transgression (Acts 1:20-25; Ps. 41:9; 69:25-29). Judas was certainly included with those whom God gave to Christ or language means nothing here (v 12; Mt. 10:1-20; Mk. 3:13-19; 6:7-13; Lk. 6:12-16) c Gr. apollumi. Used in John: to lose (Jn. 6:12, 39; 12:25; 17:12; 18:9); perish (Jn. 3:15-16; 6:27; 10:28; 11:50); destroy (Jn. 10:10); and die (Jn. 18:14)
d Literally, son of destruction, because destined to destruction. Used also of Antichrist (2 Th. 2:3), and in the Sept. of children of transgression (Isa. 57:4). Hebrews and Greeks called anyone who had a particular destiny, quality, or trait, the child of that thing, as "children of the kingdom" (Mt. 8:12; 13:38); "of the bridechamber" (Mt. 9:15); "of hell" (Mt. 23:15); "of wrath" (Eph. 2:3); "of wisdom" (Mt. 11:19; Lk. 7:35); etc. Judas and Antichrist have no relationship to each other as to parents, birth, life, death, etc. Both are simply destined to destruction by their own deeds. Antichrist will die at the hands of Christ, while Judas hung himself (Dan. 7:11; Isa. 11:4; 2 Th. 2:8; Rev. 19:20)
e 11th O. T. prophecy fulfilled in John (17:12; Ps. 41:9; 69:25-29; 109:8; Acts 1:20-25). Next, 19:24. Judas was not lost that prophecy might come to pass, but prophecy foretold the fact of his wilful sin and lost state. He was lost because he refused to be saved; lost through his own avarice and stubbornness to come back to Christ even after his crime f He does not pray for them to die and leave the world, nor seclude themselves in deserts or segregate themselves from the world in communities and monasteries to escape temptation, but to live as lights and examples of God in the world (Mt. 5:16; Phil. 2:15; Tit. 2:11-14; 1 Cor. 5:10)
g The evil one (Mt. 6:13; 1 Jn. 5:19)
h Gr. hagiazo, to separate from a profane to a sacred use; to consecrate self wholly to God and His service. The primary meaning is separation, not making holy. It means to make holy only when the person or thing sanctified needs to be cleansed from sin or defilement in order to be fit to be separated unto God and His service. Material things such as a day (Gen. 2:3); the tabernacle (Ex. 29:43-44); clothes (Lev. 8:30); houses (Lev. 27:9-29); or the temple (2 Chr. 7:16-20) must be cleansed from all defilement in order to be fit to be presented to God for His holy uses. God's name (Ezek. 36:23); God (1 Pet. 3:15); Christ (Jn. 10:36; 17:19); or the already cleansed disciples (Jn. 13:10; 15:3; 17:2, 6, 14, 16) need not be cleansed from sin
i This being sent as God had sent Him applies to all disciples, for Christ is not praying "for these alone, but for them also which believe on me through their word" (v 20; Mt. 28:20; Mk. 16:15-20; Jn. 14:12; 20:21; Mt. 18:18, refs.)
j I separate Myself unto God to do His will, even unto death, so that disciples may benefit through My salvation for them and be sanctified continually as they get to know the Word (1 Jn. 1:7; Eph. 5:26) k This request for absolute unity is made 5 times (v 11, 21-23). This was to convince the world that He had been sent of God. Is this why the world has not been convinced? Is this why the world will eventually be convinced in the Millennium (Isa. 2:2-4; 11:9)?
m If Christians want to know how to convince the world that their religion is of God, then let them become one as God and Christ are one. Make no mistake about it - this is the secret of world recognition of Christianity. See what it did in the early church when they were one (Acts 1:14; 2:1, 46; 4:24, 32; 5:12). Jas. 3:16 is so true: "For where envying and strife is, there is confusion and every evil work" a The second statement here of His pre-existence (v 5, note) b 8 facts regarding the Father:

1 Righteous (Jn. 17:25)
2 Holy (Jn. 17:11)
3 Heavenly (Mt. 6:14, 26, 32)
4 Father of Mercies (2 Cor. 1:3)
5 Father of Glory (Eph. 1:17)
6 Father of Spirits (Heb. 12:9)
7 Father of Lights (Jas. 1:17)
8 Lord of Heaven (Mt. 11:25) c 169 pronouns are used in this prayer. Plural pronouns are used of God and Christ in the same sense as used of disciples, proving plurality of persons in the Godhead (v 11, 21-23). 65 singular personal pronouns are used of Christ and 53 of the Father, 43 plural pronouns are used of God and disciples 10 "I have's" of John 17:
1 I have glorified Thee on earth (v 4)
2 Finished Thy work (v 4)
3 Manifested Thy name (v 6)
4 Given them Thy words (v 8)
5 Kept them (v 12)
6 Given them Thy word (v 14)
7 Sent them into the world, as You sent Me (v 18)
8 Given them Thy glory (v 22)
9 Known Thee (v 25)
10 Declared unto them Thy name (v 26)
d From the place where He was speaking, Cp. 14:31 e Called Kidron (2 Sam. 15:23; 1 Ki. 15:13; 2 Ki. 23:4). It was a small rivulet about 6 or 7 ft. wide in a deep ravine about 200 yds. from the wall of Jerusalem, beyond which the Mount of Olives began with a steep slope. See 1 Macc. 12:37; Josephus, War, book 5, 3. It was the sewer outlet of the city and was dry except during rains. This is where David crossed when he was betrayed (2 Sam. 15:23) f Or orchard, called Gethsemane (Mt. 26:36-47; Mk. 14:30-36; Lk. 22:40-44). Jewish rich men had their gardens and pleasure grounds outside the city. It perhaps belonged to some friend of Jesus, for He often resorted there (v 2; Lk. 22:40)
g Christ's life was strikingly diversified between extreme activity in public work, and the love of quiet retirement; one He used in doing good (Acts 10:38), and the other in teaching His disciples and having communion with God
h Gr. speira, a military cohort of 600 men (v 3, 12; Acts 10:1; 21:31; Mt. 27:27; Mk. 15:16). This cohort was accompanied by the officers of the chief priests (Jn. 7:32, 45-46)
i Gr. phano, torch. Only here j Gr. lampas, lamps (Mt. 25:1-8; Rev. 4:5; 8:10; Acts 20:8) n This showed that He could have killed them by His power if He had chosen to do so. This was a lesson to rebels that they had no power over Him without His consent and to the disciples that He could have escaped if He had desired and if it were not His time to go back to the Father

o Question 135, Next, v 11 p Not words of weakness and entreaty, but of authority. I give Myself to you voluntarily, but you must not hurt one of My disciples. I have already given you proof of My power over you. I will not use it on My behalf, for I lay down My life for My sheep; but I will use it if need be to protect My sheep. It was certainly the power of Christ that protected them, especially after Peter began to use the sword (v 10) s Gr. palo, only here; Mt. 26:68; Mk. 14:47; Lk. 22:64; Rev. 9:5

t Perhaps he advanced to seize the Lord so Peter acted intending to cleave his skull; but God no doubt permitted only the ear to be severed so as to cause another great miracle and further convince the soldiers that they were powerless to act without His consent (Mt. 26:51-56)
u John alone gives the name of this servant and who smote him, but he does not mention the healing of the ear (Lk. 22:51)
v Question 136, Next, v 17
w Cup of sufferings (Mt. 20:22-23)

also, whom thou hast given me, be with me where I am; that they may behold my glory, which thou hast given me: for thou lovedst me[a] before the foundation of the world.

(14) Testimony of the contrast between the faith of the world and believers

25 O [b]righteous Father, the world hath not known thee: but I have known thee, and these have known that thou hast sent me.

(15) The mission fulfilled

26 And I have declared unto them thy name, and will declare it: that the love wherewith thou hast loved me may be in them, and I in[c] them.

86 CHAPTER 18

VIII The sufferings of Jesus:
1 Jesus in the garden (Mt. 26:36; Mk. 14:32; Lk. 22:39)

WHEN Jē'sus had spoken these words, he [d]went forth with his disciples over the brook [e]Çē'dron, where was [f]a garden, into the which he entered, and his disciples.

2 Eleventh attempt to kill Jesus: betrayal and arrest (Mt. 26:3; refs.; 26:47; Mk. 14:43; Lk. 22:47)

2 And Jū'das also, which betrayed him, knew the place: for Jē'sus [g]ofttimes resorted thither with his disciples.

3 Jū'das then, having received [h]a band of men and officers from the chief priests and Phăr'ĭ-sees, cometh thither with [i]lanterns and [j]torches and [k]weapons.

4 Jē'sus therefore, knowing all things that should come upon him, went forth, and said unto them, [l]Whom seek ye?

5 They answered him, Jē'sus of Năz'a-rĕth. Jē'sus saith unto them, [m]I am he. And Jū'das also, which betrayed him, stood with them.

6 As soon then as he had said unto them, I am he, they went backward, and [n]fell to the ground.

7 Then asked he them again, [o]Whom seek ye? And they said, Jē'sus of Năz'a-rĕth.

8 Jē'sus answered, I have told you that I am he: if therefore ye seek me, [p]let these go their way:

9 That the saying might be fulfilled, which he spake, [q]Of them which thou gavest me have I lost none.

10 Then Sī'mon Pē'tĕr having [r]a sword drew it, and [s]smote the high priest's servant, and [t]cut off his right ear. The servant's name was [u]Măl'chus.

11 Then said Jē'sus unto Pē'tĕr, [v]Put up thy sword into the sheath: the [w]cup which my Father hath given me, shall I not drink it?

3 Jesus led first before Annas and Caiaphas (Mt. 26:57; Mk. 14:53; Lk. 22:63)

12 Then the band and the [a]captain and officers of the Jews took Jē'sus, and bound him, 13 And led him away to [b]An'nas first; for he was father in law to Cā'ia-phās, which was the high priest that [c]same year.

14 Now Cā'ia-phās was [d]he, which gave counsel to the Jews, that it was expedient that one man should die for the people.

4 Peter's first denial (Jn. 18:25; Mt. 26:69; Mk. 14:66; Lk. 22:54)

15 ¶ And Sī'mon Pē'tĕr followed Jē'sus, and so did another disciple: [e]that disciple was known unto the high priest, and went in with Jē'sus into the palace of the high priest.

16 But Pē'tĕr stood at the door without. Then went out that other disciple, which was known unto the high priest, and spake unto her that kept the door, and brought in Pē'tĕr.

17 Then saith the [f]damsel that kept the door unto Pē'tĕr, [g]Art not thou also one of this man's disciples? He saith, [h]I am not.

18 And the servants and officers stood there, who had made a fire of coals; for it was cold: and [i]they warmed themselves: and Pē'tĕr stood with them, and [j]warmed himself.

5 The trial of Jesus (Mt. 26:57; Mk. 14:53; Lk. 22:63)

19 ¶ The high priest then asked Jē'sus [k]of his disciples, and of his doctrine.

20 Jē'sus answered him, [l]I spake openly to the world; I ever taught in the synagogue, and in the temple, whither the Jews always resort; and in secret have I said nothing.

21 [m]Why askest thou me? ask them which heard me, what I have said unto them: behold, they know what I said.

22 And when he had thus spoken, [n]one of the officers which stood by struck Jē'sus with the palm of his hand, saying, [o]Answerest thou the high priest so?

23 Jē'sus answered him, [p]If I have spoken evil, bear witness of the evil: but if well, why smitest thou me?

24 ¶ Now An'nas had sent him bound unto Cā'ia-phās the high priest.

6 Peter's second and third denials (Jn. 18:15, refs.)

25 And Sī'mon Pē'tĕr stood and warmed himself. They said therefore unto him, [q]Art not thou also one of his disciples? He denied it, and said, [r]I am not.

26 One of the servants of the high priest, being his kinsman whose ear Pē'tĕr cut off, saith, Did not I see thee in the garden with him?

27 Pē'tĕr then [s]denied again: and immediately the cock crew.

7 Jesus before Pilate (Mt. 27:1, 11; Mk. 15:1; Lk. 23:1)

28 ¶ Then [t]led they Jē'sus a Gr. chiliarchos, commander of 1,000 men; one of 6 tribunes attached to a legion, showing the importance the Romans attached to the arrest of Jesus, the Jews having represented it as a dangerous case of sedition b He was perhaps the head of the Sanhedrin. He had been appointed high priest several times, and had 5 sons and a son-in-law who had held this office c The office was no longer for life, as originally. Now it was by appointment by civil rulers d He had already passed sentence that He should be killed (Jn. 11:49-52), hence he was disqualified to be His judge. But Christ was not tried by rules of justice or He would not have been crucified e Perhaps John himself who always refers to himself in the third person (13:23; 19:26; 21:7, 20). Or it could have been Nicodemus or Joseph (19:38)

f Tradition says her name was Ballila. Women were door keepers (Acts 12:13)
g Question 137, Next, v 21
h First of three lies (v 17, 25-26)
i The officers and servants of the high priest, the Roman Chiliarch and his soldiers had gone back to the barracks, leaving Him in the hands of the Jews
j A dangerous thing to do - warm one's self by the fire of his enemies k Questioned Him as to His authority of collecting disciples, forming a different sect, preaching new doctrines and setting Himself up as a reformer. He perhaps was seeking something whereby he could legally accuse Him, but he found nothing. All this was at night, which was contrary to the law of the Jews. The Talmud says, "Criminal processes can neither commence nor terminate, but during the course of the day" (Sanhed. c. iv, s. 1). If a person was condemned the sentence could not be until the next day. No judgment could be executed either on the eve of the sabbath, or the eve of any festival. All these laws were broken in the trial of Christ which was in the night, on the eve of the passover, and the eve of the special sabbath of the feast. It had been predicted that justice and judgment would be taken away during His trial (Isa. 53:8; Acts 8:33)
l I have spoken openly to all people, in synagogues in the cities and even in the temple at Jerusalem and have said nothing in secret. If you have not heard Me, then ask those who have. You and your spies have watched Me everywhere. I have said nothing contrary to the law and the prophets. I have not disturbed the state by rebellion. Judge Me righteously according to your laws if I have done something wrong
m Question 138, Next, v 22 n This was an outrage against justice, for a prisoner before trial and condemnation was under special protection of the court. This is the 5th definite law of justice and judgment broken before the trial really got under way (note k, above and note, Mk. 14:55)
o Questions 139-140, Next, v 25 p A Christian is bound to bear injuries and injustices without revengeful retaliation; but he is privileged, even by the example of the Lord, to call to question such mistreatment. This does not break the law of Mt. 5:39 from Cā'ia-phās unto [a]the hall of judgment: and it was [b]early; and they themselves went not into the judgment hall, lest they should be defiled; but that they might eat the [c]passover.

29 Pī'late then [d]went out unto them, and said, [e]What accusation bring ye against this man?

30 They answered and said unto him, If he were not [f]a malefactor, we would not have delivered him up unto thee.

31 Then said Pī'late unto them, Take ye him, and judge him according to your law. The Jews therefore said unto him, [g]It is not lawful for us to put any man to death:

32 That the saying of Jē'sus might be [h]fulfilled, which he spake, signifying what death he should die.

33 Then Pī'late entered into the judgment hall again, and called Jē'sus, and said unto him, [i]Art thou the King of the Jews?

34 Jē'sus answered him, [j]Sayest thou this thing of thyself, or did others tell it thee of me?

35 Pī'late answered, [k]Am I a Jew? Thine own nation and the chief priests have delivered thee unto me: what hast thou done?

36 Jē'sus answered, My kingdom is not [l]of this world: if my kingdom were of this world, then would my servants fight, that I should not be delivered to the Jews: but now is my kingdom not from hence.

37 Pī'late therefore said unto him, [m]Art thou a king then? Jē'sus answered, [n]Thou sayest that I am a king. To this end was I born, and for this cause came I into the world, that I should bear witness unto the truth. Every one that is of the truth heareth [o]my voice.

8 Jesus condemned: Barabbas released (Mt. 27:15; Mk. 15:7; Lk. 23:13)

38 Pī'late saith unto him, [p]What is truth? And when he had said this, [q]he went out again unto the Jews, and saith unto them, I find in him no fault at all.

39 But ye have a[r]custom, that I should release unto you one at the passover: [s]will ye therefore that I release unto you [t]the King of the Jews?

40 Then cried they all again, saying, Not this man, but Bär-räb'bas. Now Bär-räb'bas was a[u]robber.

CHAPTER 19

9 Jesus crowned with thorns (Mt. 27:27; Mk. 15:16)

THEN Pī'late therefore took Jē'sus, and [v]scourged him.

2 And the soldiers platted [w]a crown of thorns, and put it on his head, and they put on him a purple robe,

3 And said, [x]Hail, King of the Jews! and they smote him with their hands.

10 Pilate brings Jesus before the multitude

4 Pī'late therefore went forth again, and saith unto them, Behold, [a]I bring him forth to you, that ye may know that I find no fault in him.

5 Then came Jē'sus forth, wearing the crown of thorns, and the purple robe. And Pī'late saith unto them, [b]Behold the man!

6 When the chief priests therefore and officers saw him, they cried out, saying, Crucify him, crucify him. Pī'late saith unto them, Take ye him, and crucify him: for I find no fault in him.

7 The Jews answered him, We have a law, and by our law he ought to die, [c]because he made himself the Son of God.

11 Jesus again taken before Pilate (Jn. 18:28, refs.)

8 ¶ When Pī'late therefore heard that saying, he was [d]the more afraid;

9 And went again into the judgment hall, and saith unto Jē'sus, [e]Whence art thou? But Jē'sus gave him no answer.

10 Then saith Pī'late unto him, Speakest thou not unto me? knowest thou not that I have power to crucify thee, and have power to release thee?

11 Jē'sus answered, [f]Thou couldest have no power at all against me, except it were given thee from above: therefore he that delivered me unto thee hath the greater sin.

12 Pilate seeks to free Jesus

12 And from [g]thenceforth Pī'late sought to release him: but the Jews cried out, saying, If thou let this man go, thou art not [h]Cæ'sar's friend: whosoever maketh himself a king speaketh against Çæ'sar.

13 Pilate again brings Jesus before the Jews

13 [i]¶ When Pī'late therefore heard that saying, he brought Jē'sus forth, and sat down in the [j]judgment seat in a place that is called the Pavement, but in the Hē'brew, [k]Găb'-ba-thà.

14 And it was the preparation of the passover, and about the [l]sixth hour: and he saith unto the Jews, [m]Behold your King!

14 Final rejection of Jesus by the Jews (Mt. 27:25)

15 But they cried out, [n]Away with him, away with him, crucify him. Pī'late saith unto them, [o]Shall I crucify your King? The chief priests answered, [p]We have no king but Cæ'sar.

15 The crucifixion (Mt. 27:33; Mk. 15:22; Lk. 22:32)

16 Then [q]delivered he him therefore unto them to be crucified. And they took Jē'sus, and led him away.

17 And [r]he bearing his cross went forth into a place called the place of a [s]skull, which is called in the Hē'brew Gŏl'- a Pilate made his 3rd appearance from the Praetorium to the Jews outside and brought the scourged, bleeding, crowned, and kingly clothed Christ of God before them, hoping that they would be willing to let Him go after such suffering. But, as ever, religious persecutors have no love and mercy on their victims. They cried for crucifixion until Pilate wanted to turn Him over to them to crucify, declaring the innocence of Christ two more times (v 4, 6)

b Pilate hoped against hope that this awful spectacle would melt their hearts, but it only whetted their appetite for more suffering to the man they considered their rival in religion and power

c This new charge to Pilate was another of 10 reasons for condemning Him to die (see p. 105). This new angle made Pilate all the more afraid, so he took Him into the judgment hall again to question Him (v 8-11)

d Pilate was torn between two fears: that of offending the Sanhedrin and the populace who would file formal charges against him to Caesar, and perhaps cause immediate rebellion; and that of killing an innocent man, a miracle worker, a prince and an offspring of a deity, and one whom he had been warned of by his wife and his own growing conviction not to have a part in His death

e Questions 151-153. Next, v 15. The first question concerned whether He was a real offspring of deity or not. Was this man who was so different from all others he had ever seen, really a supernatural being? Christ gave no answer, so he threatened boastingly of his power to release or crucify Him

f You could not do one thing unless God willed. It is a sin for you to condemn Me, for you are convinced by your conscience of My innocence; but the Jews have the greater sin, because they wilfully sin against Me g Pilate sought all the more to release Him, but the Jews now brought up the accusation of high treason to force his decision (v 12). We will accuse you to Caesar for preferring another king to your own emperor

h They hated Caesar, but they hated their own Messiah more i When Pilate heard their accusation against him of high treason, he brought Jesus out before the Jews again and made his 5th attempt to deliver Him (Lk. 23:4, 15, 20, 22; Jn. 18:38; 19:4, 6, 12, 13-14). He knew that Tiberius was one of the most jealous and distrustful rulers in the world and that during his reign accusations and conspiracies were plentiful, being founded on foolish pretenses, and being punished with excessive rigor

j Gr. bema, a stone platform in the open court in front of the Praetorium; the place of final sentence (Mt. 27:19; Jn. 19:13; Acts 12:21; 18:1-17; 25:6, 10, 17). Used also of the judgment seat of Christ (Rom. 14:10; 2 Cor. 5:10) n Gr. airo, the same word trans. "take up" serpents in Mk. 16:17-18. It is never used in the sense of making a side show or demonstration to prove faith, but it means to remove, destroy, and put out of the way by death, as in Mt. 22:13; Jn. 1:29; 19:15; Acts 21:36; 22:22; 1 Jn. 3:5. See note, Mk. 16:18

o Question 154. Next, 20:13

p Deeper and deeper these religious people were going into sin and rebellion - choosing an enemy instead of friend; Satan instead of God; and eternal damnation instead of eternal life

q Pilate now surrendered to the pressure of facing Tiberius in trial for not yielding to the Jews to crucify their king. He delivered Jesus to their will (Lk. 23:25). Thus the Jews are accused of crucifying the Messiah (Acts 2:23). The Romans merely carried out the will of the Jews, Pilate having pronounced no sentence but having washed his hands of the whole affair (Mt. 27:24). John omits the insults of the soldiers (Mt. 27:26; Mk. 15:16)

r He bore the cross at first until He could no longer carry it alone, then Simon was forced to help Him (Mt. 27:32)

o Jn. 8:47; 10:3-4, 16, 27

p Question 149. Next, v 39. He was no doubt confused by all the religious and philosophies clamouring for recognition. He did not stay to get an answer and in this he is like millions today who do not honestly seek to know truth, but follow every wind of doctrine that comes along. Christ is the truth and anyone who finds Him and obeys Him will know the truth (Jn. 8:32-36; 14:6)

q The second time he left the judgment hall to reason with the Jews (v 28-29). This time he declared the innocence of Christ as to treason

r Gr. sunetheia, custom. Only here and in 1 Cor. 11:16

s Question 150. Next, 19:9. He thought surely they would wish the release of Jesus instead of a common criminal, but this only gave them further occasion to demand the death of Jesus (v 40)

t This insincere taunt of Pilate about their king only led them to retort by threat of high treason against Pilate himself (19:12)

u Gr. lestes, bandit (Mk. 11:17; 14:48; 15:27. They chose a highway robber and a murderer instead of Messiah

v Had Him scourged in the Roman manner which was more severe than the Jewish (see note on Mt. 27:26)

It was customary to scourge a person before crucifixion, but Pilate hoped that this punishment would satisfy the Jews so that he could release Jesus (Lk. 23:16). This did not satisfy the bloodthirsty Jews who wanted Him dead and out of their way

d Roman laws forbad the sentence be altered when once pronounced. The inscription named the only crime for which He was crucified. It was a true statement, for He was and will always be King of the Jews and will be so acknowledged by them at the second advent (Mt. 23:39; Zech. 12:10-13:1; Rev. 1:7; Lk. 1:32-33; Isa. 9:6-7)

f Gr. chiton, a tunic or inner garment which was worn next to the skin. It usually had sleeves, and generally reached down to the knees and sometimes to the ankles (Mt. 5:40; Lk. 6:29; Acts 9:39). Wearing two of them was for luxury, so they were forbidden to the disciples (Mt. 10:10; Mk. 6:9; Lk. 3:11; 9:3). When a person had on no other garment but this he was said to be naked (1 Sam. 19:24)

The soul never goes to the grave with the body nor is it unconscious (Jas. 2:26; Phil. 1:21-24; 2 Cor. 5:8; Heb. 12:22-23; Isa. 14:9; Ps. 16:10; Rev. 6:9-11; 20:11-15). 18 Where they crucified him, and two other with him, on either side one, and Jē'şus in the midst.

19 ¶ And Pi'late wrote a title, and put it on the cross. And the writing was, JĒ'ŞUS OF NĀZ'ARĒTH THE KING OF THE JEWS.

20 This title then read many of the Jews: for the [b]place where Jē'şus was crucified was nigh to the city: and it was written in Hē'brew, and Greek, and Lāt'in.

21 Then said [c]the chief priests of the Jews to Pi'late, Write not, The King of the Jews; but that he said, I am King of the Jews.

22 Pi'late answered, [d]What I have written I have written.

23 ¶ Then the soldiers, when they had crucified Jē'şus, took his garments, and made [e]four parts, to every soldier a part; and also his coat: now the coat was [f]without seam, woven from the top throughout.

*24 They said therefore among themselves, Let us not rend it, but cast lots for it, whose it shall be: that the scripture might be fulfilled, [g]which saith, They parted my raiment among them, and for my vesture they did cast lots. These things therefore the soldiers did.

16 The women at the cross

25 ¶ Now there stood by the cross of Jē'şus his mother, and his mother's sister, [h]Mā'rў the wife of [i]Clē'o-phās, and Mā'rў Măg-da-lē'nē.

26 When Jē'şus therefore saw his mother, and the *j*disciple standing by, whom he loved, he saith unto his mother, Woman, behold thy son!

27 Then saith he to the disciple, Behold thy mother! And from that hour that disciple took her unto his own home.

17 The death of Jesus (Mt. 27:45; Mk. 15:33; Lk. 23:44)

*28 ¶ After this, Jē'şus knowing that all things were now accomplished, that the scripture might be [k]fulfilled, saith, I thirst.

29 Now there was set a vessel full of vinegar: and they filled a spunge with vinegar, and put it upon [l]hyssop, and put it to his mouth.

30 When Jē'şus therefore had received the vinegar, he said, It is [m]finished: and he [n]bowed his head, and [o]gave up the ghost.

31 The Jews therefore, because it was [p]the preparation, that the bodies should not remain upon the cross on the sabbath day, (for that sabbath day was an high day,) besought Pi'late [q]that their legs might be broken, and that they might be taken away.

32 Then came the soldiers, and brake the legs of the first, and of the other which was crucified with him.

33 But when they came to Jē'şus, and saw that he was dead already, they brake not his legs:

34 But one of the soldiers with a spear pierced his side, [a]and forthwith came there out blood and water.

35 And [b]he that saw it bare record, and his record is true: and he knoweth that he saith true, that ye might believe.

*36 For these things were done, that the scripture should be fulfilled, [c]A bone of him shall not be broken.

*37 And [d]again another scripture saith, They shall look on him whom they pierced.

18 The burial of Jesus (Mt. 27:57; Mk. 15:42; Lk. 23:50)

38 ¶ And after this [e]Jō'şeph of Ar-i-mā-thæ'a, being a disciple of Jē'şus, but secretly for fear of the Jews, besought Pi'late that he might take away the body of Jē'şus: and Pi'late gave him leave. He came therefore, and took the body of Jē'şus.

39 And there came also [f]Nĭc-o-dē'mus, which at the first came to Jē'şus [g]by night, and brought a mixture of [h]myrrh and [i]aloes, [j]about an hundred pound weight.

40 Then took they the body of Jē'şus, and wound it in [k]linen clothes with the spices, as the manner of the Jews is to bury.

41 Now in the place where he was crucified there was a [l]garden; and in the garden a new [m]sepulchre, wherein was never man yet laid.

42 There laid they Jē'şus therefore because of the Jews' preparation day; for the sepulchre was [n]nigh at hand.

1X Post-resurrection ministry of Jesus. 1 Women report to the apostles of an empty tomb

THE [o]first day of the week cometh Mā'rў Măg-da-lē'nē [p]early, when it was yet dark, unto the sepulchre, and seeth the stone taken away from the sepulchre.

2 Then she runneth, and cometh to Sī'mon Pē'tēr, and to the other [q]disciple, whom Jē'şus loved, and saith unto them, They have taken away the Lord out of the sepulchre, and we know not where [r]they have laid him.

3 Pē'tēr therefore went forth, and that other disciple, and came to the sepulchre.

It is not known how much it cost per pound, but if this mixture cost even half as much as spikenard of Jn. 12:3-5, which was $51.00 per litra, it would be $2,550 worth that these rich men used on Jesus. Great quantities were used in embalming the dead body of respected persons. When Herod died 500 servants bearing aromatics attended the funeral (Josephus, Ant. book 15, 3:4). The women also brought spices (Mk. 16:1; Lk. 23:56; 24:1) k This was not embalming as practiced by Egyptians (Gen. 50:2-3, note). Jews simply anointed the body and wrapped it in fine linen, putting the spices and ointments in the folds. In Christ's case the operation was not completed due to the coming of sabbath. As soon as the sabbath was over the women came back to complete the work (Mk. 16:1). No wrath, sorrow, fire, degrees of torment, consciousness, souls, gates, bars, keys, prayer, conversations, pains, angels, demons, Satan, punishment, remorse, feelings, emotions, desires, suffering, memory, comfort, or life are ever mentioned as being in graves; but all these things are mentioned many times as being in hell. The two places cannot possibly be the same. See notes, Lk. 12:5; 16:19-31 n Indicating that they had to make haste to bury Him before the special sabbath began at sunset Wednesday to sunset Thursday. Also, it appears that they planned a better tomb and that they had no hopes of Him ever being resurrected, as He had repeatedly said. They considered Him a great prophet and planned on treating Him as such by making a great tomb for Him In centuries past superstition, fraud, and all manner of sinfulness have been carried on in connection with the holy sepulchre. Greeks and Armenians for centuries pretended that divine miracles came through it and even immunity from hell fire would accompany anyone buried in cloth that was singed in the candle fires of the Church of the Holy Sepulchre. The fire was supposed miraculous and from heaven each East-the linen clothes, but [c]wrapped together in a place by itself.

8 Then went in also that other disciple, which came first to the sepulchre, and he saw, and believed.

*9 For as yet they knew not the scripture, [b]that he must rise again from the dead. Ps. 16:10

10 Then the disciples went away again unto their [c]own home.

3 Jesus appears to Mary Magdalene (Cp. Mt. 28: 8, refs.)

11 ¶ But [d]Mă'rỹ stood without at the sepulchre weeping: and as she wept, she stooped down, and looked into the sepulchre, 12 And seeth two angels in white sitting, the one at the head, and the other at the feet, where the body of Jē'şus had lain.

13 And they say unto her, [e]Woman, why weepest thou? She saith unto them, [f]Because they have taken away my Lord, and I know not where they have laid him.

14 And when she had thus said, she turned herself back, and saw Jē'şus standing, [g]and knew not that it was Jē'şus.

[h]15 Jē'şus saith unto her, Woman, why weepest thou? whom seekest thou? She, supposing him to be the [i]gardener, saith unto him, Sir, if thou have borne him hence, tell me where thou hast laid him, and [j]I will take him away.

16 Jē'şus saith unto [k]her, Mă'rỹ. She turned herself, and saith unto him, [l]Răb-bō'nī; which is to say, Master.

*17 [m]Jē'şus saith unto her, [n]Touch me not; [o]for I am not yet ascended to my Father: but go to my [p]brethren, and say unto them, I ascend unto my Father, and your Father; and to my God, and your God.

4 Testimony of Mary Magdalene to the resurrection (Mt. 28:8)

18 Mă'rỹ Măg-da-lē'nĕ came and [q]told the disciples that she had seen the Lord, and that he had spoken these things unto her.

5 Jesus appears to the ten: Thomas absent (Cp. v 24-25)

19 ¶ [r]Then the same day at evening, being the [s]first day of the week, when the [t]doors were shut where the disciples [u]were assembled for fear of the Jews, came Jē'şus and stood in the midst, and [v]saith unto them, Peace be unto you.

20 And when he had so said, he shewed unto them his hands and his [w]side. Then were the disciples glad, when they saw the Lord.

6 The disciples commissioned and given the power of attorney to do the works of Christ (Jn. 14:12; Mt. 18:18, refs.)

21 Then said Jē'şus to them again, Peace be unto you: [a]as my Father hath sent me, even so send I you.

22 And when he had said this, he [b]breathed on them, and saith unto them, Receive ye the Hō'lỹ Ghŏst:

▶23 [c]Whose soever sins ye remit, they are remitted unto them; and whose soever sins ye retain, they are retained.

7 Faith that rests on sight

24 ¶ But [d]Thŏm'as, one of the twelve, called Dĭd'ỹ-mŭs, was not with them when Jē'şus came.

25 The other disciples therefore said unto him, We have seen the Lord. But he said unto them, Except I shall see in his hands the print of the nails, and put my finger into the print of the nails, and thrust my hand into his side, [e]I will not believe.

8 Jesus appears to eleven

26 ¶ [f]And after eight days again his disciples were within, [g]and Thŏm'as with them: then came Jē'şus, the doors being shut, and stood in the midst, and said, Peace be unto you.

27 Then saith he to Thŏm'as, Reach hither thy finger, and behold my hands; and reach hither thy hand, and thrust it into my side: and be not faithless, but believing.

28 And [h]Thŏm'as answered and said unto him, My Lord and my God.

9 Faith that rests on the Word of God, not sight

29 Jē'şus saith unto him, Thŏm'as, because thou hast seen me, thou hast believed: blessed are they [i]that have not seen, and yet have believed.

10 Purpose of John's gospel

30 ¶ And many other [j]signs truly did Jē'şus in the presence of his disciples, [k]which are not written in this book:

▶31 But these are written, [l]that ye might believe that Jē'şus is the Christ, the Son of God; and that believing ye might have life through his name.

CHAPTER 21 89

11 Third appearance of Jesus to the apostles: (1) The fishing trip and its failure

[m]AFTER these things Jē'şus [n]shewed himself again to the disciples at the sea of Tĭ-bē'rĭ-as; and on this wise shewed he himself.

2 [o]There were together Sī'mon Pē'tẽr, and Thŏm'as called Dĭd'ỹ-mŭs, and Nā-thăn'a-el of Că'nā in Gă'lĭ-lee, and the sons of Zĕb'e-dee, and two other of his disciples.

3 Sī'mon Pē'tẽr saith unto them, I go a fishing. They say unto him, We also go with thee. They went forth, and entered into a ship immediately; [p]and that night they [q]caught nothing.

a These things were lying in place as they were when they were wrapped about Him. He had merely passed out of them without disturbing them, not needing as Lazarus to be loosed (11:44). It was proof that a resurrected body could come out without disturbing material objects. The door was opened, not to let Him out, but to show the disciples that He had risen. He later went through closed doors (v 19)

b 16th and last O. T. prophecy fulfilled in John (20:9; Ps. 16:10-11)

c That is, places where they were temporarily residing d Mary stayed at the sepulchre after Peter and John had gone. She saw this time two angels in the tomb (v 12). This was evidently a second appearance of angels. The one in Mt. 28:1-6; Mk. 16:1-6 was before Mary reported to Peter and John in Jn. 20:1-2 e Question 155, Next, v 15. This is the only question in John asked by angels f Cp. v 2 where it is "we" because she was with other women (Mk. 16:1). Here it is "I" because she was evidently alone

g It is not clear why she did not recognize Him. Cp. Lk. 24:16

h Questions 156-157, Next, 21:5. Cp. v 13. He knew whom she was seeking, but He wanted to hear what she had to say and whether she had any understanding as to the resurrection. He had told the disciples many times that He would be raised after three days and not one seemed to believe it. The ungodly Jews remembered it when the disciples did not (Mt. 27:63)

i Gr. kepouros, the overseer of the garden in charge of the workmen and produce to render account to the owner

j "Love feels no load" seemed true in her case, yet how could she have borne Him with the 100 lbs. of spices added to the body?

k Gr. Maria, not Miriam as when used of Mary the mother of Jesus. She now recognized Jesus. To her Jesus first showed Himself and she became the first herald of the resurrection

m 42nd N. T. prophecy in John (20:17, fulfilled). Next, 21:18 n Gr. apto, to fasten to, cling to. Mary attempted to hold Him and Jesus said, "Touch me not," that is, cling not to Me, I am going immediately to heaven, You go tell My brethren that I ascend to God but will be back again to see them. That very day He did ascend to heaven and came back to appear with the disciples (v 19)

o This is the reason why He did not want Mary to detain Him. He permitted women to "touch" Him (Mt. 28:9), but not detain Him

p Christ made it clear who His brethren were - they were His disciples, not His fleshly brothers (Mt. 12:49; 28:10; Lk. 8:19-21; Heb. 2:11)

q They did not believe (Mk. 16:11)

r After having gone to heaven and back (v 17)

s This and v 26; Acts 20:7; 1 Cor. 16:2 disprove the theory that no Christian gathering ever took place on Sunday or the first day of the week. From v 19 and 26 it is clear that Christ honored this day two times to meet with His disciples. Then, too, Pentecost fell on the first day of the week and they had gathered at least one other first day during the ten days of waiting for the Holy Spirit (Lk. 24:49; Acts 1:1-8; 2:1). Christians have been gathering ever since on the first day or Sunday (Acts 20:7; 1 Cor. 16:1-2). See notes, p. 159, 191, 222

t Proving that resurrected bodies do not need openings to get into houses. They are called "spiritual" bodies in 1 Cor. 15:42-44. They evidently are like spirit beings that can appear and disappear or be visible and invisible at will u Perhaps the upper room in the friend's house where the passover was eaten (Mk. 14:15; Lk. 22:12; Acts 1:13)

v This was the common salutation of Hebrews. Joseph's brethren refused to say this to him (Gen. 37:4). Cp. Judg. 19: 20; 1 Sam. 25:6; Mt. 10:12-13. Salutations became meaningless to the average person, but Jesus informed the disciples that when He used the word "peace" it meant something (Jn. 14: 27; 16:33)

w Hand, feet, and side (Lk. 24:39)

a The Son sends His disciples with the same enduement of power and the fulness of the Spirit that the Father gave to Him (Jn. 7:37-39; 14:12; 17:18; 20:21; Lk. 24:49; Acts 1:4-8; Mt. 18:18; refs.)

b Gr. emphusao, only here in the N. T., but used in Gen. 2:7 in the Sept. for the Heb. naphach, to breathe, or blow with force. See Ezek. 37:9

c This is simply another form of expressing power to bind and to loose and to do the works of Christ (Mt. 18:18, refs.)

d See Thomas, p. 121

e All unbelief is unreasonable, obstinate, rebellious, prejudiced, presumptuous, insolent, stubborn, self-willed, boastful, insensible, hardening, and deceitful

f The 8th day after the last meeting of Christians on the first day of the week (v 19), which would be on the second Sunday after the resurrection, Thomas went to church, as we would say it today. Again Christ appeared with them and gave the usual salutation (v 19, 21, 26). The doors were again shut, emphasizing again that resurrected bodies can go through material substance without an opening (v 19, note). He simply appeared in their midst, as on other occasions, and after teaching them He vanished out of their sight (Lk. 24:31). Six more Sundays after this 8th day after the resurrection made 50 days, the day of Pentecost. His time on the other 4 Sundays while He remained on earth with them was spent in teaching (Acts 1:3). The 40th day, or Thursday He ascended (Acts 1:11), leaving 10 days until the 2nd Sunday after His ascension and the 7th Sunday after His resurrection, which was the 50th day or Pentecost (Acts 2:1; Lev. 23:15-16). What Christ did between Sundays is not known. He might have used part of this time to teach also. At least the first week between Sundays He did not teach them (v 19, 26)

g Thomas was not with the first gathering of Christians (v 19), but when he heard that they had seen Jesus alive and that He had appeared to them on the first Sunday, he was determined to be present on the next Sunday when they were to gather again. Jesus, as usual, satisfied the doubting and unbelief of Thomas (v 27-28)

h This is not a mere exclamation, but one of the plainest and most irresistible testimonies of the deity of Jesus Christ. Whether he did feel the nail prints and the spear wound in the side is not stated and all guesswork is valueless. He was the first to give the title of God to Jesus, other than the prophets in predicting these events (Isa. 9:6-7; Ps. 45:6-7; etc., Cp. Jn. 1:1-2; 5:17-47; 10:33-36; Acts 20:28; Phil. 2:5-11; Col. 1:15-18; Heb. 1:8-9)

i No special blessing is pronounced on those who have seen God over those who have not seen Him

j Referring to the two signs of v 19, 26, or to all the many signs of the gospel (Jn. 2:11, note; Acts 1:3; Heb. 2:1-4; Mk. 16:15-20; etc.)

k Here was the chance for the writers of the apocryphal gospels, of which they were not slow to avail themselves

l To prove beyond all doubt that Jesus of Nazareth is the promised Messiah and God's Son, and that we might have full redemption and the benefits of the gospel by faith

m The last time this phrase is found in John. See note, Jn. 5:1

n Gr. phaneroo, manifested His power and glory after His resurrection. This time it was in Galilee, as He promised (v 1; Mt. 28:7)

o Seven disciples went on a fishing trip; whether for pleasure or going back to gain a living is not clear. Cp. Lk. 8:3

p Repeating the same results as when they went on the last fishing trip. In both instances Christ gave them a miraculous catch, which convinced them that it was the Messiah. On both occasions they received a call to preach (Lk. 5:1-11; Jn. 21:1-20)

q Gr. piazo, used by John only in the gospels, and always, of "taking" Christ to destroy Him (7:30, 32, 44; 8:20; 10:39; 11:57), except here and in v 10. It is used three other times of apprehending men (Acts 12:4; 2 Cor. 11:32; Rev. 21: 19) and once of taking hold of a man to lift him up (Acts 3:7) a Because of darkness, distance, or another form (Mk. 16:12) b Question 158. Next, v 12. Gr. paidion, an infant; also a term of endearment c Gr. prosphagion, something to eat with bread. Only here, and used of fish. The Lord might have appeared as if He wanted to buy fish d John said to Peter (note, 20:4)

e Gr. diazonnumi, to wrap around (13:4-5; 21:7)
f This means he had only his tunic or undergarment on (19:23, note). He cast himself into the sea, perhaps the shallow water to help draw the boat and net to shore
g About 134 yards from shore
h This was as miraculous as the catch of fish, demonstrating that the Lord could supply every need and that they did not have to go back to the fishing business to make a living i Gr. aristao, the morning meal (Lk. 11:37); note deipnon, supper (Mt. 22:4; Lk. 11:38; 14:12). Christ no doubt ate with them to prove He was real and that resurrected people still eat (Lk. 24:42-43). Even God and angels eat (Gen. 18; Ex. 24:9-11)
j Question 159. Next, v 15
k The third time to show Himself to the majority of apostles (20:19, 26; 21:1-14). It was the 7th appearance since the resurrection

12 appearances of Christ: to

1 Mary Magdalene (Mk. 16:9; Jn. 20:15-16)
2 Women at the tomb (Mt. 28:9)
3 Two disciples on the road to Emmaus (Lk. 24:13-31)
4 Peter (Lk. 24:34; 1 Cor. 15:5)
5 The ten (Jn. 20:19)
6 The eleven (Jn. 20:26)
7 The seven (Jn. 21:1-22). This was after the second Sunday
8 The eleven on a certain mountain in Galilee (Mt. 28:16)
9 The twelve, including Matthias (1 Cor. 15:5; Acts 1:26)
10 500 brethren (1 Cor. 15:6)
11 James, the Lord's brother (1 Cor. 15:7; Gal. 1:19)
12 All the apostles (1 Cor. 15:7; Mk. 16:19-20; Lk. 24:50-53; Acts 1:3-12, 26)

l Question 160. Next, v 16. Peter is always addressed as "Simon" except in Lk. 22:34. Do you really love Me more than the rest of the disciples, as you boasted (Mt. 26:33-35)? He had boasted of greater love than the rest and no one (Judas excepted) had treated Him so basely. Peter in his reconverted state gave a most modest reply m Jesus used the Gr. verb agapao in the first two questions, which means ardently, supremely, perfectly, while Peter answered with the verb phileo, to like, be fond of, feel friendship for another. The third time the Lord used phileo which deeply humbled Peter n Gr. bosko, to feed, tend a flock, provide pasture for, take care of, guide, lead, defend, govern, and shepherd My lambs o Gr. arnion. Only here and 27 times in Revelation, and always of Christ except 13:11. The other word for lamb is amnos (Jn. 1:29, 36; Acts 8:32; 1 Pet. 1:19)
p Question 161. Next, v 17

(2) Miraculous Christ-directed cast (Cp. Lk. 5:1-11)

4 But when the morning was now come, Jē'sus stood on the shore: but the disciples[a] knew not that it was Jē'sus.

5 Then Jē'sus saith unto them, Children,[b] have ye any[c] meat? They answered him, No.

6 And he said unto them, Cast the net on the right side of the ship, and ye shall find. They cast therefore, and now they were not able to draw it for the multitude of fishes.

(3) Recognition by John

7 Therefore that disciple whom Jē'sus loved[d] saith unto Pē'tēr, It is the Lord. Now when Si'mon Pē'tēr heard that it was the Lord, he[e] girt his fisher's coat unto him, (for he [f]was naked,) and did cast himself into the sea.

(4) The catch landed: recognition by all the disciples

8 And the other disciples came in a little ship; (for they were not far from land, but as it were [g]two hundred cubits,) dragging the net with fishes.

9 As soon then as they were come to land,[h] they saw a fire of coals there, and fish laid thereon, and bread.

10 Jē'sus saith unto them, Bring of the fish which ye have now caught.

11 Si'mon Pē'tēr went up, and drew the net to land full of great fishes, an hundred and fifty and three: and for all there were so many, yet was not the net broken.

12 Jē'sus saith unto them, Come and [i]dine. And none of the disciples durst ask him, Who art thou? knowing that it was the Lord.

13 Jē'sus then cometh, and taketh bread, and giveth them, and fish likewise.

14 This is now the[k] third time that Jē'sus shewed himself to his disciples, after that he was risen from the dead.

12 Peter's three-fold commission

15 ¶ So when they had dined, Jē'sus saith to Si'mon Pē'tēr, Si'mon, son of Jō'nas,[m] lovest thou me more than these? He saith unto him, Yea, Lord; thou knowest that I love thee. He saith unto him,[n] Feed[o] my lambs.

16 He saith to him again the second time,[p] Si'mon, son of Jō'nas, lovest thou me? He saith unto him, Yea, Lord; thou knowest that I love thee. He saith unto him,[n] Feed[o] my sheep.

17 He saith unto him [q]the third time, Si'mon, son of Jō'nas, lovest thou me? Pē'tēr was [r]grieved because he said unto him the third time, Lovest thou me? And he said unto him, [l]Lord, thou knowest all things; thou knowest that I love thee. Jē'sus saith unto him,[s] Feed my sheep.

13 Prophecy of Peter's death: his last call (2 Pet. 1:14)

*18[k] Verily, verily, I say unto thee, [t]When thou wast young, thou girdedst thyself, and walkedst whither thou wouldest: but when thou shalt be old, thou shalt stretch forth thy hands, and another shall gird thee, and [k]carry thee whither thou wouldest not.

19 This spake he, signifying by what death he should glorify God. And when he had spoken this, he saith unto him, [t]Follow me.

14 Peter's inquiry of John

20 Then Pē'tēr, turning about, seeth[u] the disciple whom Jē'sus loved following; which also leaned on his breast at supper, and said, [v]Lord, which is he that betrayeth thee?

21 Pē'tēr seeing him saith to Jē'sus, Lord, and what shall this man do?

22 Jē'sus saith unto him, If I will that he tarry till I come, what is that to thee? follow thou me.

23 Then went this saying abroad among the brethren, that that disciple should not die: yet Jē'sus said not unto him, He shall not die; but, [w]If I will that he tarry till I come, what is that to thee?

15 Authorship of John and the closing remarks of the book

24[x] This is the disciple which testifieth of these things, and wrote these things: and we know that his testimony is true.

25 And there are also [y]many other things which Jē'sus did, the which, if they should be written every one, I suppose that even the world itself could not contain the books that should be written. Ā-mĕn'.

a Gr. poimaino, used 11 times and is trans. rule (Mt. 2:6; Rev. 2:27; 12:5; 19:15) and feed (21:16; Lk. 17:7; Acts 20:28; 1 Pet. 5:2, etc.)
b Gr. probaton, sheep (Mt. 12:11-12; 18:12-13; Lk. 15:4-6; Jn. 2:14-15). Used figuratively of Christ (Acts 8:32); lost men (Mt. 9:36; 10:6; 15:24; 1 Pet. 2:25); saved men (Mk. 10:16; 26:31; Jn. 10:1-27; 21:16-17; Rom. 8:36; Heb. 13:20); and men in general (Mt. 25:31-46)
c Peter had denied the Lord 3 times before the cock crew; now Christ caused him to make a triple confession
d Question 162-163. Next, v 20
e Gr. lupeo, to make sorrowful, to affect with sadness, cause grief, make uneasy. It is trans. grieve (Mk. 10:22; Jn. 21:17; Rom. 14:15; 2 Cor. 2:4-5; Eph. 4:30); sorrow (Mt. 14:9; 17:23; 18:31; 19:22; 26:22, 37; Mk. 14:19; Jn. 16:20; 2 Cor. 2:2; 6:10; 7:8-11; 1 Th. 4:13); and be in heaviness (1 Pet. 1:6). Could Peter think that Christ knew something about him that he, himself did not know, which might lead to another fall and was He about to tell him of it?
f This might have been the confession and the humility Christ was looking for. A few days before he knew more about himself than Christ did and was frank enough to say so, but his fall and repentance had greatly humbled him. Now he was not so sure of himself, but he was sure that he loved Jesus (v 17)
g Gr. bosko, note, v 15
h Last of 25 times in John; note, Jn. 1:51
i 43rd and last N. T. prophecy in John (21:18, fulfilled). A prediction of the kind of death he should glorify God with (v 19). This was written after his death. Ancient writers say he was crucified head down at his own request, because he thought he was unworthy to die with his head up like his Master j Gr. neoteros, younger. The word neos generally applied to people under thirty. The use of this word and the fact John outran him (20:4) gave rise to the tradition that he was a middle aged man k Gr. phero, lead, carry, bear, or bring forth (Jn. 2:8; 12:24; 15:2-8, 16; 21:18). This refers to the time when Peter would die. Another would take him to where he would not desire to go - to death and the grave l Gr. akoloutheo, used of a servant, soldier, or pupils following their leader even to death (Mt. 8:19; 9:9; 19:27; Jn. 12:26; 21:22). This statement no doubt relieved Peter, showing that Christ was not going to make any more predictions of his weaknesses and failure. Two times here he is commanded to follow (v 19, 22)
m The last of 5 times, referring to John (13:23; 19:26; 20:2; 21:7, 20, 24) n Questions 164-166. Next, v 23. Peter had his instructions, now he wanted to know what John was supposed to do. Jesus rebuked his curiosity by stating that if He willed for John to live to the second advent that was none of his concern. You follow Me and let John do likewise. This statement about John not dying is explained in v 23. He did die about the close of the first century o Question 167. The last question in the gospel of John p This is proof of the authorship of John (v 24)
q This verse simply expresses the idea that Jesus had done so many things which are not written, that if they should be written in books the world (Gr. kosmos, social world) would not have room for them. Men would not even take time to peruse or digest them

Marks of a good pastor (Jn. 10:2):

1 Personal knowledge: no stranger to God or gospel experiences (v 5; 2 Cor. 5:17; Jn. 3:5; Gal. 5:16-26; 1 Cor. 12)
2 Divine call: not from avarice, personal ambition, respect, honour, self-interests, or love of ease (v 2; Acts 13:3; 1 Cor. 12:28; Eph. 4:11; Rom. 11:29)
3 Consecrated motives: God's will and glory, salvation of lost souls, and the best interests of the church and all men (v 9-13; Lk. 19:10; Acts 20:28; 2 Cor. 5:14-21; Eph. 4:12)
4 Divine anointing: not human education, wisdom, polish, and effort only, but divine leading and help (Lk. 11:13; 24:49; Jn. 7:37-39; 14:12-17, 26; 15:26; Acts 1:4-8; 5:32; 1 Cor. 2:1-10; 12:1-11; 2 Cor. 3)
5 Personal interest: acquaintance with his flock, private and public instruction, and helpfulness in all problems (v 3, 9; Acts 20:26-35; Eph. 1:15-19; 3:13-21; 1 Th. 2:4-13; 2 Tim. 4:1-5; Heb. 13:7, 17)
6 Good example: lead, not drive; feed, not destroy; and live what is preached (v 3-4; 1 Cor. 4:9-13; 2 Cor. 4:8-18; 6:1-10; 1 Tim. 3:1-13; 4:11-16; 2 Tim. 2; Tit. 1)
7 Divine success: be zealous and fearless to protect, heal, preserve, increase, visit, and sacrifice for the flock (v 9-18; Mk. 16:17-18; Jas. 5:14-16; Lk. 19:10; Jer. 23:1-8; Ezek. 13:1-9; 34)

True ministers must be (Jn. 15:16):

1 United to the vine (v 5)

3 Ordained of God for the work (v 15)

6 Preservers of their fruit, not destroyers of it (v 16; 6:27)
7 Prayers that get results (v 16)
8 Lovers of all men (v 12-17; 1 Jn. 3:4-18; 1 Cor. 13)

Christ is a 7 fold way (Jn. 14:6):

1 The only way to God (Mt. 7:14; Jn. 10:1, 7, 9; 14:6)
2 The way of escape (1 Cor. 10:13)
3 The way into the holiest (Heb. 9: 8-15; 10:19-23)
4 The new and living way (Heb. 10:20; 5:9)
5 The way of truth (2 Pet. 2:2)
6 The right way (2 Pet. 2:15)
7 The way of righteousness (2 Pet. 2:21; 1 Cor. 1:30)

21 reasons for greater works (Jn. 14:12)

1 Satan is cast out (Jn. 12:31)
2 Satan's defeat on the cross (Col. 2:14-17; 1 Pet. 2:24)
3 Completed redemption (Jn. 19: 30; Col. 2:14-17; 1 Pet. 1:10-12)
4 Spirit baptism which could not be given until Jesus was glorified (Jn. 7: 37-39; Acts 1:4-8; 2:33)
5 Christ's intercession for believers (Rom. 8:34; Heb. 7:25)
6 His restored glory (Jn. 17:5)
7 High priesthood of Christ (Heb. 4:14-16; 6:20; 7:11-28; 9:11-15)
8 Headship of all powers (Eph. 1:20-23; 1 Pet. 3:22; Col. 2:10)
9 All authority given to Christ to give to believers (Mt. 28:18-20; Jn. 14:12-15; Acts 1:8)
10 Completed victory over death, hell and the grave (Heb. 2:14-15; Rev. 1:18; Col. 2:14-15)
11 His headship of the church (Eph. 1:20-23; Col. 1:18-18, 24)
12 Making of the New Covenant benefits based upon better promises (Mt. 26:28; 2 Cor. 3:6-15; Heb. 8:6) and confirmed by greater powers (Heb. 2: 1-4; Mk. 16:15-20; Lk. 24:49; 2 Cor. 3:6-15; 2 Pet. 1:1-10)
13 Fulness of grace now possible in Christ (Jn. 1:17; Col. 2:10)
14 Full salvation glory that was to follow the sufferings (1 Pet. 1:10-12; Heb. 2:1-4; 2 Cor. 3)
15 Entrance into the holiest by every believer now possible (Heb. 10:19-38; Eph. 2:14-18)
16 Time for God to bless both Jews and Gentiles alike (Eph. 2:14-18; 3: 1-11; Rom. 10:9-14)
17 Time to send men with full authority and power like God sent Christ (Jn. 17:18; 20:21)
18 Time for each believer to receive all the gifts and fruit of the Spirit, which they could only receive in part in O. T. times (Jn. 7:37-39; 14:12-15; Mt. 17:20; 21:22; Mk. 9:23)
19 Time of no limitations in Christ, in the Spirit, and in the full benefits of the gospel promises (Mt. 17:20; 21:22; Mk. 9:23; 11:22-24; Jn. 15:7, 16; 2 Cor. 2:20; 2 Pet. 1:1-12)
20 Time for the universality of the program of God in blessing all nations (Mt. 28:18-20; Mk. 16:15-20; Lk. 24: 47-49; Acts 1:4-8; Gen. 12:1-3). Believers would be carrying out the full program of the gospel in world-wide works of power even in a greater degree and kind than that of Christ, depending upon the needs 21 Because I go to My Father and will not be here to continue My works or do greater ones, I will give My power to My disciples to carry on where I stop. They will do the greater things that I would have done if I had continued (v 12). I will give them authority and see to it that My work is carried on through them

Ask what ye will (Jn. 15:7)

The promise is "ask what ye will," plainly teaching that answered prayer is up to the child of God as to what he wants. This is in perfect harmony with promises of both testaments. A true Christian can get what he wants as well as what he needs (Ps. 23:1; 34:9-10; 84: 11; Mt. 7:7-11; 17:20; 18:18-20; 21: 22; Mk. 9:23; 11:22-24; Jn. 14:12-15; 15:7, 16; 16:23-26; Eph. 3:20; Heb. 11: 6; Jas. 1:5-8; 1 Jn. 3:21-22; 5:14-15). A prayer saying, "If it be Thy will" concerning anything God has already promised, and therefore has already made it clear that it is His will, providing we ask in faith, nothing wavering, is really a prayer of unbelief. It is like saying, "I know You have already promised and You have made it very clear by Your Word that it is Your will but do You really mean what You say? Are You a truthful God or not? Can we depend upon what You say?" We insult God by constantly questioning His will that is already revealed by His Word. It is no less insulting to Him than it would be to a human friend who had promised something and we continued to question him about his will in the matter. He would finally say to us, "What is the matter with you? Have I not told you repeatedly that I would do it? Can you not take me at my word? Are you going to make me a liar?" We would not dare do this to any earthly friend. Then why do it to our heavenly Father who promises that He will do more for His children than any earthly parent (Mt. 7:7-11; Lk. 11:9-13; Rom. 8:32; Jas. 1:5)?

Thomas (Jn. 11:16; 20:24)

Third mention of him in John (11:16; 14:5; 20:24). He is one of the 12 apostles, called also Didymus (twin, v 24; 21:2; Mt. 10:3; Mk. 3:18; Lk. 6:15; Acts 1:13). He is known as "doubting Thomas" because he doubted (v 25), but on the same basis we can call all the apostles doubters and unbelievers (Mt. 28: 17; Mk. 16:11-14; Lk. 24:11, 25, 41; Jn. 20:27). He simply had not been with the others when Christ had appeared. He lost by not being faithful to gather with the rest, and so it is today (Heb. 10:25). He is supposed to have labored in India and left many Christian converts. Here idol-priests tortured him with red-hot plates, then cast him into an oven which had no effect on him. They then pierced him with spears while in the furnace until he died. St. Jerome says that his body, unconsumed, was buried at a town called Calamina

12 great lessons of Jn. 15:1-8:

1 God is the husbandman (v 1)
2 Christ is the vine (v 1, 5)
3 Believers are the branches in Christ (v 2, 5)
4 Every fruitless branch "in me" is cut off, withered, gathered with other dead branches and cast into the fire and burned (v 2, 6)
5 Every fruitful branch "in me" is purged that it might be more fruitful (v 2, 5)
6 Every branch "in me" is clean (pure in heart by the Word if walking in the light, v 3; Mt. 5:8; Eph. 5:26; Jn. 3:5; Jas. 1:18; 1 Pet. 1:23; 1 Jn. 1:7)
7 Branches must "abide in" Christ and Christ in them to produce fruit (v 4-5)
8 The branch is helpless to produce fruit of itself (v 4-5)
9 Christ is helpless to produce fruit through the branch unless it remains in Him (v 4-6)
10 Branches must abide in Christ or be cut off and burned (v 6)
11 Branches must not only remain in Christ but must have His words abiding in them or prayers will not be answered (v 7)
12 God can only be glorified by the branches when they remain in Christ and produce much fruit (v 8)

What is finished? 16 things: (Jn. 19:30)

1 Fulfillment of all scriptures of the sufferings of Christ (Ps. 22; Isa. 53; Lk. 24:25-26, 44; Jn. 19:28; 1 Pet. 1:11; 3:18)

12 Cancellation of the mortgage claim of Satan and freeing of man and his dominion from sin and Satan (1 Cor. 6:19-20; Rom. 8:18-24; 14:7-9; 2 Cor. 5:14-15; 1 Th. 5:10; Heb. 2:9-15; Rev. 5:9-10; 21:1-22:5; 1 Pet. 1:19)
13 Satisfaction of the full justice of God (Gen. 2:17; Rom. 3:21-26; 5:1-11; Jn. 3:16)
14 Bodily healing for all (Mt. 8:17; 13:15; Isa. 53:4-5; 1 Pet. 2:24; Jn. 10:10; Jas. 5:14-16)
15 A way for the full enduement of power and full anointing of the Holy Spirit (Gal. 3:13-14; Jn. 7:37-39; Lk. 24:49; Acts 1:4-8, 33)
16 Blotting out of the Old Covenant and making and sealing of the New Covenant (Col. 2:14-17; Eph. 2:14-18; Mt. 26:28; 2 Cor. 3:6-15; Gal. 3:13-25; 4:21-31; Heb. 7:11-28; 8:6-10:1-18)

Eternal life (Jn. 17:3)

Science and the Bible agree that certain organisms possess eternal life; both define the principle and condition on which all life continues to live eternally. Degrees of life depend upon correspondence with environment and partaking of nature

For example, an amoeba, a gelatinous piece of matter, can only communicate with the smallest era of environment. An insect by virtue of its more complex nature, corresponds with a wider area and environment. It has more life than an amoeba because it is a higher form of life. Fish, fowls, reptiles, and beasts have more and longer lives than an insect because they are higher types of life and they have a wider correspondence with creation as a whole

Man is more varied and eternal in his make-up and is capable of correspondence with all parts of creation. He is even capable of knowing the Creator and being in perfect and eternal union with Him

This law of life according to nature and the degree of correspondence to God and all creation holds true to the minutest and the highest form of life. Life becomes fuller, more sensitive, responsive, and eternal from the lowest to the highest form of life, depending on its nature and relationship to God and His creative purpose

When creatures are taken out of their native environment they die, such as fish out of water, etc. Higher forms of life can maintain life longer than lower forms due to their nature and powers of adaptation and ability to master their environment. There are even higher powers over which they have no control and when they are overcome by these they must die

Man was given power over all creation and had he remained master of all things he would have continued to live forever. Satan, evil spirits, and sin got the mastery over him and he had to die (Gen. 2:17; Heb. 2:14; 1 Jn. 3:8). Christ came to bring man complete mastery over these powers so he can again live forever in union with God. Eternal correspondence and relationship with the eternal God bring eternal life

When man passes beyond the finite and the material realm where his life does not depend upon these things he enters into the infinite, spiritual, and eternal. Because of partaking of the nature of the eternal and having perfect correspondence with the spiritual and the eternal he can live forever (Jn. 17:3; 2 Cor. 4:18; 2 Pet. 1:4). Such a life in the spiritual world possesses the elements of eternity, provided that this life, correspondence, environment, and union with the eternal is not broken off by sin and rebellion thereby incurring the death penalty (Gen. 2:17; Ezek. 18:4; Rom. 6:16-23; 8:12-13; 1 Cor. 6:9-11; Gal. 5:19-21; Rom. 1: 29-32)

To know God eternally is eternal life. To know Him for a time like Adam is temporary life (Gen. 2:17). Eternal life is not prolonged existence or eternal continuance of being, for all the wicked have this and will be punished in conscious existence forever (Isa. 66: 22-24; Mt. 25:41, 46; Mk. 9:43-49; Rev. 14:9-11; 20:10-15; 21:8). It is not merely eternal existence, but eternal knowing of God in eternal and perfect correspondence and perfect, eternal, and infinite environment. This life is only in God's Son (1 Jn. 5:11-12). Thus everlasting life is not merely everlasting existence

This scientific proof of the possibility of eternal life through eternal correspondence with God also proves the possibility of the opposite - eternal death or separation from God because of the lack of correspondence with God. If eternal life is only in God's Son, then all who are not in Christ do not have eternal life, even though they will continue to exist in consciousness forever. Furthermore, those who do not continue abiding in Christ lose true eternal life

Just as anything in nature lives to the extent and as long as it continues in the environment producing its life or keeping it from dying, so the believer lives according to his knowledge of and appropriation of God by proper use of that knowledge. As all things in nature die when they cease to have correspondence with and utilize the environment which keeps them alive, so the believer dies and is separated from God when he ceases to live in God and appropriate by faith the benefits provided him on the grounds of obedience to the gospel, as stated in notes on Jn. 6:27; 10:1-28; 15:1-8; and on p. 284. Nothing in nature is given unqualified and unconditional life in itself, and nothing in nature is ever blessed with any degree of life without meeting the conditions upon which that life is given and maintained. The believer also must meet the conditions of maintaining life in God and in Christ, according to Scripture, if he is to live forever

ACTS OF THE APOSTLES

The Post-resurrection Ministry of Christ - the Ascension - the Descent and Acts of the Holy Spirit Spread of the Gospel in Asia, Europe, and Africa - History of the Apostles and First Missionaries

90 CHAPTER 1

I Post-resurrection ministry of Jesus Christ (Mt. 28; Mk. 16; Lk. 24; Jn. 20-21)

1 Subject of the Book of Luke

THE [a]former [b]treatise have I made, O [c]Thĕ-ŏph'ĭ-lŭs, of all that Jē'sus [d]began both to do and teach,

2 Subject of the Book of Acts

2 [e]Until the day in which he was [f]taken up, after that he through the [g]Hō'lĭ Ghōst had given [h]commandments unto the apostles whom he had chosen:

3 Forty days of infallible proofs of the resurrection of Jesus (Mt. 28; Mk. 16; Lk. 24; Jn. 20-21; 1 Cor. 15:6-20; 2 Pet. 1:14)

3 To whom also he shewed himself alive after his [i]passion by many infallible proofs, [j]being seen of them forty days, and speaking of the things [k]pertaining to the kingdom of God:

4 Command to wait for the Holy Spirit baptism before starting their ministry (Lk. 24:49-53)

●4 And, being assembled together with them, [l]commanded them that they should not depart from Jē-rụ'sā-lĕm, but wait for the [m]promise of the Father, which, saith he, [n]ye have heard of me.

5 Prophecy of the Holy Spirit baptism (Mt. 3:6, note a)

★5 For Jŏhn truly baptized with water; [o]but ye shall be baptized with the Hō'lĭ Ghōst not many days hence. ◂

6 Question of the kingdom (Mt. 4:17, note)

6 When they therefore were come together, they asked of him, saying, Lord, [p]wilt thou at this time restore again the kingdom to Ĭs'ra-el?

7 And he said unto them, It is not for you to know the times or the seasons, which the Father hath put in his own power.

7 Power promised with the Holy Spirit baptism (Lk. 24:49; Mt. 18:18, refs.)

★8 [q]But ye shall receive [r]power, after that the Hō'lĭ Ghōst is come upon you: and ye shall be witnesses unto me both in Jē-rụ'sā-lĕm, and in all Jū-dæ'a, and in Sā-mā'rĭ-a, and unto [s]the uttermost part of the earth. ◂

8 The ascension (2:33; Mk. 16:19; Lk. 24:50; Jn. 3:13; Eph. 1:20; 4:8; Phil. 2:9-11; Heb. 1:3; 1 Pet. 3:22)

9 And when he had spoken these things, while they beheld, he [a]was taken up; and a [b]cloud received him out of their sight.

9 Second advent predicted (Mt. 24:27, refs.)

10 And while they looked stedfastly [c]toward heaven as he went up, behold, [d]two men stood by them in [e]white apparel;

★11 Which also said, Ye [f]men of Găl'ĭ-lee, [g]why stand ye gazing up into heaven? [h]this same Jē'sus, which is taken up from you into heaven, shall so come [i]in like manner as ye have seen him go into heaven. ◂

II The Church baptized in the Holy Spirit (Mt. 3:6, note a). 1 Ten days' wait Acts 1:3-5; 2:1; Lev. 23:4-16)

12 Then returned they unto Jē-rụ'sā-lĕm from the mount called [j]Ō'lĭ-vĕt, which is from Jē-rụ'sā-lĕm a [k]sabbath day's journey.

13 And when they were come in, they went up into an [l]upper room, where [m]abode both Pē'tēr, and Jāmes, and Jōhn, and An'drew, Phĭl'ĭp, and Thōm'as, Bär-thŏl'o-mew, and Măt'thew, Jāmes the son of Al-phæ'us, and Sī'mon Zē-lō'tēs, and Jū'das the brother of Jāmes.

14 These all [n]continued [o]with one accord in prayer and supplication, with [p]the women, [q]and Mā'rў the mother of Jē'sus, and with [r]his brethren.

2 First business meeting of the church. (1) Vacancy stated

15 ¶ And in [s]those days Pē'tēr stood up in the midst of the disciples, and said, (the number of names [t]together were about an [u]hundred and twenty,)

16 Men and brethren, [v]this scripture must needs have been fulfilled, which the Hō'lĭ Ghōst by the mouth of Dā'vid spake before concerning Jū'das, which was guide to them that took Jē'sus.

17 For he was numbered with us, and [w]had obtained part of this ministry.

18 [x]Now this man purchased a field with the reward of iniquity; and [y]falling headlong, he burst asunder in the midst, and all his bowels gushed out.

19 And it was known unto all the dwellers at Jē-rụ'sā-lĕm; insomuch as that field is called in their proper tongue, Ā-çĕl'da-mā, that is to say, The field of blood.

★20 [z]For it is written in the book of Psălms, Let his habitation be desolate, and let no man dwell therein: and [a]his bishoprick let another take.

1 Bodily resurrection of Christ. (See note, Jn. 21:14)
2 His rightful authority (Mt. 28:18; Acts 1:4-8; Lk. 24:49)
3 World-wide preaching the gospel (Mt. 28:19; Mk. 16:15; Lk. 24:47; Acts 1:8) 16).
4 Water baptism (Mt. 28:19; Mk. 16:
5 Observance of every command of Christ (Mt. 28:20) 20).
6 Age-long gospel program (Mt. 28:
7 Signs of gospel (Mk. 16:17-20)
8 Prophets true (Lk. 24:25-27, 44)
9 Sufferings necessary (Lk. 24:46).
10 Resurrection and ascension necessary (Lk. 24:26, 46. Cp. 1 Cor. 15)
11 Christ the central theme of the Scriptures (Lk. 24:27, 44)
12 Reality of resurrection bodies - eat food; etc. (Lk. 24:39-43; note, Jn. 21:14)
13 Scriptures have literal ful(111-ment, not spiritual (Lk. 24:27, 44-46)
14 Tarry for the enduement of power to propagate the gospel (Lk. 24:49; Acts 1:4-8)
15 Carry out the N.T. program:
(1) Preach the gospel (Mt. 28:19; Mk. 16:15-16; Lk. 24:47; Acts 1:8)
(2) Confirm the gospel (Mt. 28:20; Mk. 16:17-20; Lk. 24:49; Jn. 20:21-23; Acts 1:1, 4-8)
l A command to all believers of this age (Mt. 28:20; Mk. 16:15-20; Lk. 24:49; Jn. 7:37-39; 14:12; 15:1-16)
m The promise of the Father or the promised Holy Spirit and the baptism in the Spirit are the same n Christ had spoken of this Spirit baptism on several occasions (Jn. 7:37-39; 14:12-17, 26; 15:26; 16:7-15).

a He ascended (Mk. 16:19; Lk. 24:51; Jn. 3:13; Eph. 1:20; Heb. 1:3; 1 Pet. 3:22)
b Literal clouds, not angels (Dan. 7:13-14; 1 Th. 4:17; Rev. 1:7; 11:12; 14:14) c Toward the spot where He had disappeared into the cloud d Two angels who had not been seen descending, proving angels can appear and disappear (Heb. 13:2) e Angels and God have always appeared in white garments (Dan. 7:9; Mt. 17:2; 28:3; Jn. 20:12; Rev. 4:4). The redeemed will be dressed in white (Rev. 3:4, 5, 18; 6:11; 7:9, 13; 19:8, 14)
f The word men was a common term in addressing a company (v 11, 16; 2:14, 22, 29, 37; 3:12; 5:35; 7:2; 13:15, 16, 26, 38; 15:7, 13; 17:22; 19:35; 21:28; 22:1; 23:1, 6; 28:17)

h 3rd N.T. prophecy in Acts (1:11, unfulfilled; will be fulfilled at second advent, Mt. 24:29-31; 25:31-46; Rev. 19:11-21). Next, 2:17. THIS SAME JESUS, not another; THIS SAME BODY, not a spirit (Lk. 24:37-43)
i The descent will be exactly like the ascension, actual, bodily, literal, visible, with clouds, and to the exact place. Men will again see Him with the natural eyes (v 12; Dan. 7:13-14; Zech. 14:1-5; Mt. 24:29-31; 25:31-46; 2 Th. 1:7-10; Rev. 1:7; 19:11-21)

m Further proof that the upper room of Mk. 14:15; Lk. 22:12; Acts 1:13 was in a private residence where the disciples lived during these days. See note, Mk. 14:15. They also spent regular times in the temple courts in prayer and praise during the period (Lk. 24:53). Some homes were large enough to accommodate many people n Gr. proskartereo, to persevere in a thing, or to adhere firmly to (v 14; 2:42, 46; 6:4; 8:13; 10:7; Rom. 13:6; Col. 4:2; Mk. 3:9)

x This no doubt refers to the Pharisees taking the money of Judas and buying his burying place (Mt. 27:6-8)
y Lightfoot says that the devil took Judas up in the air and dashed his body on the ground after strangling him. Luke records that some extraordinary catastrophe occurred and he fell mutilating himself (v 18-19. Cp. Mt. 27:5) z 1st O.T. prophecy fulfilled in Acts (1:20; Ps. 69:25-28; 109:8-15). Next, 2:16. Note that in Ps. 69:25-28 Judas is referred to as having his habitation desolate and his name blotted out of the book of life. Cp. Ex. 32:32-33; Rev. 3:5; 22:18-19 a There is no term ordained in the Gr. here. It means "must one become a witness" with us of the resurrection

b This was the great subject of the apostolic ministry (2:24, 31-32; 4:2, 10, 33; 10:40; 13:30; 17:3, 18, 32; 23:6; 24:15, 21; 1 Cor. 15; Heb. 6:2; etc.)

c Chose or nominated two candidates: Joseph (some texts read Joses Barnabas as in Acts 4:36) and Matthias

e The place suited or prepared for him and which he chose by sinning (Mt. 25:41; 26:24; Rev. 21:8; Ps. 9:17)

f Today we would vote, but then the common way was to put the names on stones, parchment, or wood into an urn and after prayer let somebody put his hand in and draw out one of the lots. Cp. Lev. 16:8-9; Josh. 14:2

g This is the Holy Spirit's record of the choice of the twelfth apostle long after it was done by lot. That Paul did not take the place of Judas is clear from 1 Cor. 15:5-8 where he does not consider himself as one of the twelve h Gr. for fifty, the fiftieth day from the waving of the sheaf of the first-fruits (Lev. 23:15-16). Only here and in Acts 20:16; 1 Cor. 16:8

i All the 120 of 1:15 were of one mind. None were uninterested, unconcerned, or lukewarm, but all were in earnest and united in faith and prayer.

j Probably in the temple court where they had met regularly for prayer (Lk. 24:53; Acts 2:46) and not in the upper room where they had residence during this time (Mk. 14:15, note, Acts 1:13).

k Gr. aphno, here; 16:26; 28:6

l Gr. echos, here; Lk. 4:37; Heb. 12:19

m Gr. phero, to move (2 Pet. 1:21); carry (Jn. 21:18); be driven (Acts 27:17); or to rush (Acts 2:2). The Holy Spirit filled the house and moved upon the 120 flowing out of their innermost beings like rivers of living water (Jn. 7:37-39). The word for "shed forth" (v 33); "shed on" (Tit. 3:5-6); and "pour out of" (v 17) literally means to gush out, to spill out freely, or pour out abundantly like mighty Niagaras of living water and power from on high (Lk. 24:49; Acts 1:8). It was like a "rushing mighty wind" or the blast of a clap of thunder sweeping before it. Cp. 1 Ki. 19:11-12

n Indicating patient waiting (Acts 1:4) and tarrying until (Lk. 24:49)

o Along with this mighty thunder or blast came visible forked tongues like fire sitting upon each of the 120 disciples p They were both filled and baptized with the Spirit. See O.T. spiritual experiences, p. 158

q This was predicted by Isaiah (28:9-12) and by Christ (Mk. 16:17; Jn. 15:26; 16:13) and fulfilled in Acts 2:4-13; 10:44-48; 19:1-7; 1 Cor. 12-14

r This was similar to the Spirit speaking through the prophets in their own language (Acts 3:21; Heb. 1:1-2), only here it was with different languages (v 4, 6, 11)

Though speaking in tongues is done through immediate inspiration by new recipients when one has thus received the gift, it then becomes a part of his mental make-up so that he can, if he desires to do so, exercise it without direct inspiration, even in a backslidden condition (1 Cor. 13:1-3). This is why the exercise of vocal gifts of prophecy, tongues, and interpretation of tongues is commanded to be regulated and even judged as to whether it be under direct inspiration or whether the person is exercising a gift of himself (1 Cor. 14:29-33)

s Gr. katoiheo, to be settled or live in a place. Therefore these were not altogether visitors at the feast from every nation, but Jews of the dispersion who had returned to take up permanent residence in Jerusalem, perhaps because of the expectation of the Messiah at that time

t Gr. eulabes, pious; here; 8:2; Lk. 2:25

u The noise of the mighty clap of thunder and of the sound of rushing wind of v 2 alarmed the whole city and they came running to the temple where they found the disciples full of the Spirit and speaking in foreign languages

v Questions 3 and 4. Next, v 12.

21 Wherefore of these men which have companied with us all the time that the Lord Jĕ'sus went in and out among us,

22 Beginning from the baptism of Jŏhn, unto that same day that he was taken up from us, must one be ordained to be a witness with us of his resurrection.

(3) Nominations completed

23 And they appointed two, Jŏ'seph called Bär'sa-bās, who was surnamed Jŭs'tus, and Măt-thī'as.

(4) The nomination prayer

24 And they prayed, and said, Thou, Lord, which knowest the hearts of all men, shew whether of these two thou hast chosen, 25 That he may take part of this ministry and apostleship, from which Jū'das by transgression fell, that he might go to his own place.

(5) Election of Matthias

26 And they gave forth their lots; and the lot fell upon Măt-thī'as; and he was numbered with the eleven apostles.

CHAPTER 2 91

3 Pentecost: first baptism of men with the Holy Spirit (note a, Mt. 3:6; Jn. 7:37)

AND when the day of Pĕn'tecŏst was fully come, they were all with one accord in one place.

2 And suddenly there came a sound from heaven as of a rushing mighty wind, and it filled all the house where they were sitting.

3 And there appeared unto them cloven tongues like as of fire, and it sat upon each of them.

4 And they were all filled with the Hō'lў Ghŏst, and began to speak with other tongues, as the Spirit gave them utterance.

4 Effect of the Holy Spirit baptism on the people

5 And there were dwelling at Jĕ-rų'sā-lĕm Jews, devout men, out of every nation under heaven.

6 Now when this was noised abroad, the multitude came together, and were confounded, because that every man heard them speak in his own language.

7 And they were all amazed and marvelled, saying one to another, Behold, are not all these which speak Găl-ĭ-læ'ans?

8 And how hear we every man in our own tongue, wherein we were born?

9 Pär'thĭ-ans, and Mēdes, and Ē'lam-ītes, and the dwellers in Mĕs-o-pō-tā'mi-ā, and in Jū-dæ'ā, and Căp-pa-dō'cĭ-ā, in Pŏn'tus, and A'sĭa,

10 Phrўg'ĭ-ā, and Pām-phўl'-ĭ-ā, in Ē'gўpt, and in the parts of Lĭb'ў-ā about Cў-rē'nē, and strangers of Rōme, Jews and proselytes, 11 Crētes and A-rā'bĭ-ans, we do hear them speak in our tongues the wonderful works of God.

12 And they were all amazed, and were in doubt, saying one to another, What meaneth this?

13 Others mocking said, These men are full of new wine.

III Revival at Jerusalem (Acts 2:14-8:3. Cp. 8:4;11:19)

1 First apostolic sermon: (1) Preacher and his audience

14 ¶ But Pē'tĕr, standing up with the eleven, lifted up his voice, and said unto them, Ye men of Jū-dæ'ā, and all ye that dwell at Jĕ-rų'sā-lĕm, be this known unto you, and hearken to my words:

(2) Joel's prophecy fulfilled (Joel 2:28)

15 For these are not drunken, as ye suppose, seeing it is but the third hour of the day.

16 But this is that which was spoken by the prophet Jō'el;

(3) Prediction of Joel's prophecy being fulfilled again in the "last days"

17 And it shall come to pass in the last days, saith God, I will pour out of my Spirit upon all flesh: and your sons and your daughters shall prophesy, and your young men shall see visions, and your old men shall dream dreams:

18 And on my servants and on my handmaidens I will pour out in those days of my Spirit; and they shall prophesy:

(4) Even in the future tribulation men will be saved and baptized in the Holy Spirit (Joel 2:28; Zech. 12:10-13:7; Rev. 6:9-11; 7:14)

19 And I will shew wonders in heaven above, and signs in the earth beneath; blood, and fire, and vapour of smoke:

20 The sun shall be turned into darkness, and the moon into blood, before that great and notable day of the Lord come:

21 And it shall come to pass, that whosoever shall call on the name of the Lord shall be saved.

(5) Jesus approved of God

22 Ye men of Ĭs'ra-el, hear these words; Jē'sus of Năz'a-rĕth, a man approved of God among you by miracles and wonders and signs, which God did by him in the midst of you, as ye yourselves also know:

(6) The crucifixion of Jesus fulfilled God's plan (Gen. 3:15; Isa. 53; Ps. 22)

23 Him, being delivered by the determinate counsel and foreknowledge of God, ye have taken, and by wicked hands have crucified and slain:

c Gr. gleukos, only here, but frequent in medical works. A special kind of wine distilled from the grape before it is pressed, being the sweetest and strongest wine. Ancients had a secret of preserving wine through the whole year and were fond of drinking it daily

e Peter was the 12th (Acts 1:26)

f The speaking in tongues had now ceased and Peter preached a sermon by the same inspiration of the Spirit, but in his own tongue that could be understood by all the Jews from all the 16 different nations mentioned in v 9-11

h To the onlooker the disciples appeared to be drunk judging from the way they were acting and speaking and being so full of joy (v 15)

k 4th N.T. prophecy in Acts (1:17-21, partially fulfilled but will be completely fulfilled in the tribulation when God will be fulfilling also v 19-21; Rev. 6:9-11; 7:1-17; 15:2-4). Next, 3:20. This prophecy is proof:

1 That the Holy Spirit will not be taken out of the world during the future tribulation (v 17-21; Jn. 14:16; Zech. 12:10-13:1; Rev. 6:9-11; 7:14; 12:17 with 19:10). No Scripture ever says the Spirit will be taken out of the world. See 2 Th. 2:7, note

2 That God will be pouring out His Spirit during the future tribulation

3 That Joel's prophecy concerns men and women; Jews and Gentiles

4 That Joel's prophecy was not completed on the day of Pentecost

5 That Joel's prophecy refers to the Spirit baptism or Spirit in all fulness (Acts 1:4-8 with 2:1-21)

6 That women as well as men will be baptized in the Spirit and preach (v 17-18 with 1 Cor. 11:4-6; 14:3, 31)

7 That "silence in the churches" refers to asking things of "their husbands" in church, and not to preaching or teaching in the church (1 Cor. 14:34-35 with Acts 2:17-18)

8 That visions, dreams, prophecies, and other experiences will accompany the Spirit baptism (v 17-18)

9 That men will continue to be saved and receive the Spirit baptism up to the second advent itself (v 17-21; Rev. 6:9-11; 7:14; 12:17; 15:2-4)

10 That the door of mercy will never be closed to Jews or Gentiles (v 17-21; Rev. 7:1-17; 17:17; 15:2-4)

l Jews understood this term to mean in "the days of the Messiah," so this outpouring was another proof to them that the one they had crucified was the Messiah. End-time expressions, p. 236

u The second advent or day of the Lord (Mt. 24:29-31; 25:31-46; Rev. 19:11)

v This will be true as long as there are sinners to repent. No such doctrine in Scripture as the door of mercy being closed to Jews or Gentiles at any time, before their death (Heb. 9:27)

w Used 7 times in Acts to emphasize that the despised man from a despised city was indeed the Messiah (Acts 2:22; 3:6; 4:10; 6:14; 10:38; 22:8; 26:9)

x Gr. apodeiknumi, set forth, or commended, here; 25:7; 1 Cor. 4:9; 2 Th. 2:4. God approved Christ by miracles, wonders, and signs (Acts 10:38; Jn. 14:11; 15:24; Isa. 61:1-2; Heb. 2:3-4)

y This means that in the foreknowledge of God He saw it was necessary to send a Saviour for men or His eternal program with them would come to naught. God determined and planned a sacrifice to save men and permitted the wicked hands of men to slay it sus fulfilled prophecy (Ps. 16:9-10; 110:1, 5)

24 Whom God hath raised up, having loosed the [a]pains of death: because it was not possible that he should be holden of it.

★25 [b]For Dā'vid speaketh concerning him, I foresaw the Lord always before my face, for he is on my right hand, that I should not be moved:

26 Therefore did my heart rejoice, and my tongue was glad; moreover also my flesh shall rest in hope:

27 Because thou wilt not leave my [c]soul in hell, [d]neither wilt thou suffer thine Holy One to see corruption.

▶28 Thou hast made known to me the ways of life; thou shalt make me full of joy with thy countenance.

29 Men and brethren, let me freely speak unto you of [e]the patriarch Dā'vid, that he is both dead and buried, and his [f]sepulchre is with us unto this day.

★30 [g]Therefore being a prophet, and knowing that God had sworn with an oath to him, [h]that of the fruit of his loins, according to the flesh, he would raise up Christ to sit on his throne;

★31 [i]He seeing this before spake of the resurrection of Christ, that his soul was not left in hell, neither [j]his flesh did see corruption.

(8) Jesus has ascended to heaven and the Spirit baptism you SEE and HEAR is proof of it (Jn. 7:39; 14:16-26; 15:26; 16:7-15)

33 Therefore [l]being by the right hand of God exalted, and having received of the Father the promise of the Hō'lȳ Ghōst, he hath shed forth this, which ye now see and hear.

★34 [m]For Dā'vid is not ascended into the heavens: but he saith himself, "The LORD said unto my Lord, Sit thou on my right hand,

(9) God has made Jesus both LORD and CHRIST (Acts 2:26)

2 Effect of Peter's sermon (v 41; 4:4; 5:33)

37 ¶ Now when they heard this, they were [o]pricked in their heart, and said unto Pē'tēr and to the rest of the apostles, Men and brethren, [p]what shall we do?

3 What all sinners must do (Lk. 13:1-5; 24:47; 1 Jn. 1:9)

●38 Then Pē'tēr said unto them, [q]Repent, and be baptized every one of you [r]in the name of Jē'sus Christ [s]for the remission of sins, and [t]ye shall receive the gift of the Hō'lȳ Ghōst.◀

4 Spirit baptism promised to all believers (Mt. 3:11; Lk. 11:14; Jn. 7:37-39; Gal. 3:14)

▶39 For the promise is unto you, and to your children, and to all that are afar off, even as many as the Lord our God shall call.

5 Many unwritten exhortations (Cp. Jn. 21:25)

40 And with many other words did he testify and exhort, saying, Save yourselves from this untoward generation.

6 3,000 converted (Cp. 4:4)

41 ¶ Then they that [u]gladly received his word [v]were baptized: and the same day there were added unto them about three thousand souls.

7 Glorious state of the early church (4:32; 5:12; 6:1)

42 And they [w]continued stedfastly in the apostles' doctrine and fellowship, and in breaking of bread, and in prayers.

43 [x]And fear came upon every soul: and many wonders and signs were done by the apostles.

44 [y]And all that believed were together, and had all things common;

45 And sold their possessions and goods, and parted them to all men, as every man had need.

46 And they, continuing daily with one accord in the [z]temple, and breaking bread from house to house, did eat their meat with gladness and singleness of heart, 47 Praising God, and having favour with all the people. And the Lord added to the church daily [aa]such as should be saved.

92 CHAPTER 3

8 First healing by the apostles since the Spirit baptism (Cp. Mt. 10:1-8; Mk. 6:7-13)

NOW [ab]Pē'tēr and Jŏhn went up together into the temple at the hour of prayer, being the [ac]ninth hour.

2 And a certain man lame from his mother's womb was carried, whom they laid daily at the gate of the temple which is called [ad]Beautiful, to ask alms of them that entered into the temple;

3 Who seeing Pē'tēr and Jŏhn about to go into the temple asked an alms.

4 And Pē'tēr, fastening his eyes upon him with Jŏhn, said, Look on us.

5 And he gave heed unto them, expecting to receive something of them.

6 Then Pē'tēr said, [ae]Silver and gold have I none; [af]but such as I have give I thee: [ag]In the name of Jē'sus Christ of Năz'a-rĕth rise up and walk.

b 3rd O. T. prophecy fulfilled in Acts (2:25-27; Ps. 16:8-11). Next, v 30 c The souls of all men are immortal and never go to the grave. The body only goes there for it is the only part of man that is made of dust (Gen. 2:7; 3:19; Jas. 2:26). All souls went to sheol or hades once, being held in separate compartments (Lk. 16:19-31). Christ rescued righteous souls out of hell and took them to heaven with Him when He ascended on high (Heb. 2:14-15; Eph. 4:8-10). Now a saved soul goes to heaven at death (2 Cor. 5:8; Phil. 1:21-24; Heb. 12:23; Rev. 6:9-11). The wicked souls continue to go to hell until the resurrection (Isa. 14:9; Rev. 20:11-15)

d Christ's body did not see corruption, but was raised from the dead as an eternal, immortal flesh and bone body, not as a spirit being (Lk. 24:37-43; Jn. 20:25-29; Zech. 13:6; Acts 1:11)

e Occurs here; 7:8-9; Heb. 7:4. Used of Abraham and Jacob's sons as founders of the nation, and of David as founder of the monarchy

f Gr. mnaymion, and is trans. grave (Jn. 11:17, 31, 38; 12:17); graves (Mt. 27:52-53; Lk. 11:44; Jn. 5:28; Rev. 11:9); tomb (Mt. 27:60; Mk. 6:29); tombs (Mt. 8:28; Mk. 5:2-5; Lk. 8:27); sepulchre (Mt. 27:60; 28:8; Mk. 15:46; 16:2-8; Lk. 23:53, 55; 24:1, 2, 12, 22, 24; Jn. 19:41-42; 20:1-11; Acts 2:29; 7:16; 13:29); and sepulchres (Mt. 23:29; Lk. 11:47-48)

The Heb. for grave is quĕber and is trans. grave (Gen. 35:20; 50:5; Num. 19:16-18; 2 Sam. 3:32; 19:37; 1 Kl. 13:30; 14:13; 2 Kl. 22:20; 2 Chr. 34:28; Job 3:22; 5:26; 10:19; 21:32; Ps. 88:5, 11; Isa. 14:19; 53:9; Ezek. 32:23-24; Nah. 1:14); graves (Ex. 14:11; 2 Kl. 23:6; 2 Chr. 34:4; Job 17:1; Isa. 65:4; Jer. 8:1; 26:23; Ezek. 32:22-25; 37:12-13; 39:11); burial (2 Chr. 26:23; Eccl. 6:3; Isa. 14:20; Jer. 22:19); burying place (Gen. 23:4, 9, 20; 47:30; 49:30; 50:13; Judg. 16:31); sepulchre (Gen. 23:6; Dt. 34:6; Judg. 8:32; 1 Sam. 10:2; 2 Sam. 2:32; 4:12; 17:23; 21:14; 1 Kl. 13:22, 31; 2 Kl. 9:28; 13:21; 21:26; 23:17, 30; Ps. 5:9; Isa. 22:16; Jer. 5:16); sepulchres (Gen. 23:6; 2 Kl. 23:16; 2 Chr. 16:14; 21:20; 24:25; 28:27; 32:33; 35:24; Neh. 2:3, 5; 3:16)

These are the true words to use of the grave. Sheol and hades are the true words for hell and should never be used in connection with grave. See notes, Lk. 12:5; 16:19-31; Ps. 9:17

g 4th O. T. prophecy fulfilled in Acts (2:30; 2 Sam. 7:12-16). Next, v 31.

h Further proof of the bodily, fleshly resurrection of Jesus. David did not beget a spirit being, but a flesh being with a soul and spirit. The same body of flesh that descended from him was crucified and raised from the dead and will sit forever on his throne (Isa. 9:6-7; Lk. 1:32-33; Rev. 11:15)

i 5th O. T. prophecy fulfilled in Acts (2:31; Ps. 16:10). Next, v 34

j If His flesh did not see corruption, then His flesh is still alive (Lk. 24:39-43)

k This Jesus, not a spirit Jesus, God raised from the dead (Lk. 24:37-43)

l 2 major doctrines in this verse:
1 Christ's exaltation at the right hand of God (Mt. 26:64; Mk. 16:19; Acts 7:56; Rom. 8:34; Eph. 1:20; Col. 3:1; Heb. 1:3; 8:1; 12:2; 1 Pet. 3:22)
2 Fulfillment of the promise of God and of Christ in giving the Spirit baptism to men (Lk. 24:49; Jn. 1:33; 7:37-39; 14:16-17, 26; 15:26; 16:7-15; Acts 1:4-8; 2:33; 5:32; 11:16; 15:7-11; Gal. 3:14)

m This refers to David's body in resurrection, not to his soul and spirit which are in heaven (Heb. 12:23; Eph. 4:8-10; 2 Cor. 5:8; Phil. 1:21-24)

n 6th O. T. prophecy fulfilled in Acts (2:34; Ps. 110:1). Next, 3:22

o God has made Jesus BOTH LORD AND CHRIST, and not some invisible spirit p Cut to the heart (Jn. 16:7-9). They were brought to see that they were without hope except through the mercy of the one whom they had crucified (v 37)

q Question 6, Next, 3:12

r Peter had the right answer (v 38)

a Being baptized by the authority of Jesus Christ to a Jew meant giving up Judaism and all fellowship of his nation with all his political rights and privileges. See notes on Mt. 28:19

b Gr. eis, because of remission of sins. When one repents, which is always required in Scripture before baptism, he is immediately forgiven (1 Jn. 1:9; Rom. 10:9-10). Then, and then only, is one a fit candidate for water baptism which is an outward symbol of the death, burial, and resurrection of Jesus Christ (1 Pet. 3:21). It testifies to the world that one has already repented and been forgiven by faith in Christ (Eph. 2:8-9; Rom. 1:16; 3:24-25; 5:1). See note, Mt. 3:11

c Here we have the promise that if and when one repents and his sins are remitted he can have the Spirit baptism, for the promise is to all men (v 39; 5:32; Mt. 3:11; Jn. 1:33; 7:37-39; Lk. 14:12, 16-17, 26; 15:26; 16:7-15; Gal. 3:13-14)

d Gr. apodechomai, fully received. Here; 15:4; 18:27; 24:3; 28:30; Lk. 8:40. See 35 things exhorted to do, p. 159

e It does not say how quickly they were baptized, by whom, how many did the baptizing, or how long it took them to baptize 3,000 souls f 4 things they continued stedfastly in:

1 Apostolic teaching (Mt. 28:20)
2 Fellowship (1 Jn. 1:1-7)
3 Holy Communion (v 42, 46; 20:7; 1 Cor. 10:16-17; 11:23-34; Mt. 26:26-30)
4 Prayers (Mt. 7:7-11; 21:22; Mk. 11:22-24; Jn. 15:7, 16; Eph. 6:18)

g Great fear came upon all in Jerusalem. For several weeks past they had seen great miracles and were seeing them daily (v 43), so there was confusion and fear upon all the people

h Many thousands of people were cared for without charge at the feasts at Jerusalem. Therefore, a sort of community of goods was no strange thing in Jewry at such times. This community idea was carried farther and longer than at a feast. Multitudes were staying longer due to the revival and strange happenings, making it necessary to provide for the people. Many sold their possessions (not necessarily their homes but extra possessions) in order that everyone could be provided for. This was only temporary during the revival and was not a practice of the church as a permanent thing at Jerusalem or elsewhere. The fact that collections were later taken only for the poor and not for the church proves that not all the church was poor (1 Cor. 16:1; 2 Cor. 8-9). No one was forced to sell anything for the common cause, as proved in Acts 5:4

i In the temple courts which alone could accommodate such crowds of thousands

j Literally, those who were hearing and obeying the Word of God as it was daily preached to the people, or the Lord added to the church daily those that were saved

k Mentioned 7 times together in Acts (v 1; 3, 4, 11; 4:13, 19; 6:14)

l 3:00 in the afternoon. Jews had three hours of prayer a day: at 9:00 a. m. morning; 12:00 at noon; and 3:00 p. m. They taught that Abraham instituted the first; Isaac the second; and Jacob the last

m This gate is supposed to have been made of brass and was about 31x62 ft

n It was customary to carry money into the temple for offerings and to give to the poor, but the apostles were so poor they had nothing to give o To know one has this power is more wonderful than all the riches of the world.

p The first definite exercise of the Christian's power of attorney (Jn. 16:23, note) q This is the kind of healing that Jesus always produced. See note, Mt. 13:58. "Immediately" is found 7 times in Acts and 10 times in Luke a Gr. exallomai, springing or jumping up b 5 new experiences for the lame man:

1 Standing up by himself
2 Walking by himself
3 Leaping and jumping like a child
4 Praising God in the temple (v 8)
5 Holding preachers (v 11) c Gr. hallomai, jumping, leaping, springing up. Here; 14:10; Jn. 4:14. Cp. Isa. 35:6 d This is always true of real healings.
e See note, Lk. 4:28
f About 800 ft. long and built on the east side of the outer court (note, Jn. 10:23)
g Questions 7-8, Next, 4:7
h It is not by man's power or godliness that miracles are performed but by the power of God upon the lives of men who have tarried until they are endued with power (Lk. 24:49; Acts 1:4-8)
i This healing is proof that Jesus had been glorified, for the Holy Spirit in baptismal measure was promised when He would be glorified (Jn. 7:37-39)
j This is plain speech from one who had denied Christ himself (Mt. 26:69-75) k Demons and apostles called Christ "the Holy One" (Mk. 1:24; Lk. 4:34; Acts 2:27; 3:14; 4:27, 30). Cp. Ps. 16:10; Isa. 29:23; 49:7
l Jesus is called this here; 7:52; 22:14
m Referring to Barabbas (Mt. 27:15-26)
n Gr. archegos, leader, or author one who stands at the head or at the beginning of a list or rank. Christ is:
1 Prince (Author) of peace (Isa. 9:6)
2 Prince (Leader) of Princes (Dan. 8:25)
3 Messiah the (Anointed) Prince (Dan. 9:25)
4 Prince (Author) of Life (Acts 3:15)
5 A Prince and a Saviour (Acts 5:31)
6 Prince (Leader or Ruler) of the Kings of the Earth (Rev. 1:5)
7 Captain (Prince, Author) of Salvation (Heb. 2:10)
8 The Author (Prince) and Finisher of our Faith (Heb. 12:2)
o This is the secret of power with God and of all divine miracles (Mt. 1:21; Mk. 16:17-18; Jn. 1:12; 14:12-15; 15:16; 16:23-26, notes; Acts 2:38; 3:6; 4:12; 9:34; Phil. 2:9-11). Through faith in the Prince or author of life has this man been given life (Jn. 10:10) p Gr. holoklerla, wholeness. Only here; 1 Th. 5:23; Jas. 1:4
q Gr. olda, know, as in v 16
r Their ignorance was highly criminal, for it was prejudice against evidence. a very wilful ignorance. Peter used it as an argument for repentance, not an excuse for former sin. He pointed out that their sin was pardonable so they had no reason to despair of salvation if they would yet turn to God s The many prophecies of the sufferings of the Messiah by all the prophets have now been fulfilled, beginning with the seed of the woman having His heel bruised (Gen. 3:15), and continuing with all the sacrifices pointing to His sufferings which are also described by David (Ps. 22); Isaiah (52:14; 53:1-12); Daniel (9:25-26) and others. He has literally fulfilled the prophets t 2 things necessary for forgiveness:
1 Repent, Gr. metanoeo, to change the mind for better morally; to change the attitude toward sin (Mt. 3:2; 4:17; Acts 2:38; 3:19; Lk. 13:1-5, note). Now you are convinced that Jesus was the Messiah so change your minds and let your hearts be contrite for your crimes against Him
2 Be converted - change your conduct; turn right about face; make a change in direction and begin a new walk toward God and with Him (Ps. 19:7; 51:13; Mt. 18:3; Jas. 5:19)
O.T. conversion commanded.
(1) "Turn unto the Lord. . . . with all thine heart, and with all thy soul" (Dt. 30:10)
(2) "Turn from your evil ways and keep my commandments" (2 Ki. 17:13)
(3) "Humble themselves, and pray, and seek my face, and turn from their evil ways" (2 Chr. 7:14; Jer. 25:5; 26:3; Ezek. 33:11; Zech. 1:4)

8 And he [a]leaping up stood, and walked, and entered with them into the temple, [b]walking, and [c]leaping, and praising God.

9 Effect of a miracle upon the people (Cp. Mt. 8:27; 15:31)

9 And all the people [d]saw him walking and praising God:

10 And they knew that it was he which sat for alms at the Beautiful gate of the temple: and they were [e]filled with wonder and amazement at that which had happened unto him.
11 And as the lame man which was healed held Pē'tēr and Jŏhn, all the people ran together unto them in the [f]porch that is called Sŏl'o-mon's, greatly wondering.

10 Peter's second sermon:
(1) This miracle confirms the deity and claims of Jesus Christ (Jn. 5:36; 10:37-38; 14:11)

12 ¶ And when Pē'tēr saw it, he answered unto the people, Ye men of Ĭs'ra-el, [g]why marvel ye at this? or why look ye so earnestly on us, as though by our [h]own power or holiness we had made this man to walk?
13 The God of Ā'brā-hăm, and of Ĭ'saac, and of Jā'cob, the God of our fathers, hath [i]glorified his Son Jē'sus; whom ye delivered up, and denied him in the presence of Pī'late, when he was determined to let him go.

(2) The three sins of Israel (Mt. 27:15-25; Acts 2:23; 7:51)

14 But [j]ye denied the [k]Holy One and the [l]Just, and desired a murderer [m]to be granted unto you;
15 And killed the [n]Prince of life, whom God hath raised from the dead; whereof we are witnesses.

(3) The power of Jesus' name (Mk. 16:17-18; Jn. 14:12-15; 15:16)

16 [o]And his name through faith in his name hath made this man strong, whom ye see and know: yea, the faith which is by him hath given him this [p]perfect soundness in the presence of you all.

(4) The crucifixion of Jesus fulfilled the prophets (Gen. 3:15; Isa. 53; Ps. 22)

17 And now, brethren, I [q]wot that [r]through ignorance ye did it, as did also your rulers.
18 But [s]those things, which God before had shewed by the mouth of all his prophets, that Christ should suffer, he hath so fulfilled.

(5) Conditions of national restoration (Rom. 11:25-27; Zech. 12:10-13:1)

●19 ¶ [t]Repent ye therefore, and be converted, that your [u]sins may be [a]blotted out, [b]when the times of refreshing shall come from the presence of the Lord;◂

(6) Second coming of Jesus a subject of all the prophets (Mt. 24:27, refs.)

★20 [c]And he shall send Jē'sus Christ, which before was preached unto you:◂
21 Whom the heaven must receive [d]until the times of [e]restitution of all things, which God hath spoken by the mouth of all his holy prophets [f]since the world began.

(7) First coming of Jesus predicted by Moses (Dt. 18:15)

★22 For Mō'şes truly said unto the fathers, [g]A prophet shall the Lord your God raise up unto you of your brethren, like unto me; him shall ye hear in all things whatsoever he shall say unto you.

(8) Free choice between life or death (Jn. 3:14-16)

23 And it shall come to pass, that every soul, which will not hear that prophet, shall he destroyed from among the people.

(9) All the prophets predicted the sufferings of Christ (Lk. 24:25-27, 44)

24 Yea, and all the prophets from Săm'u-el and those that follow after, as many as have spoken, have likewise foretold of these days.

(10) Even Abraham predicted the universal work of Christ (Gen. 12:1-3; Jn. 8:52-58)

★25 Ye are the children of the [h]prophets, and of the [i]covenant which God made with our fathers, saying unto Ā'brā-hăm, And [j]in thy seed shall all the kindreds of the earth be blessed.◂

(11) Gospel first offered to Israel (Mt. 10:6; Rom. 1:16)

▸26 [k]Unto you first God, having raised up his Son Jē'sus, sent him to bless you, in [l]turning away every one of you from his iniquities.

CHAPTER 4 93

11 First persecution:
(1) Arrest of Peter and John (Cp. 5:17, 25; 8:1; 9:1; 12:1)

AND as they spake unto the people, [m]the priests, and the [n]captain of the temple, [o]and the Săd'du-çees, came upon them,
2 Being [p]grieved that they taught the people, and preached through Jē'sus the resurrection from the dead.
3 And [q]they laid hands on them, and put them in hold unto the next day: for it was now eventide.

b Gr. hopos, in order that, or so that, denoting a purpose and is so used 15 times in this sense in Acts alone; when or that (3:19); that (8:15, 24; 9:2, 12, 17; 15:17; 23:15, 20; 24:26; 25:3, 26); to (9:24; 23:23); and because (20:16).
It should read, "that times of refreshing shall come," meaning if one becomes truly converted he will have times of refreshing from God (2 Cor. 5:17-18; Eph. 1:3; Gal. 5:22-23; Isa. 28:11-12) c 5th N. T. prophecy in Acts (3:20-21, unfulfilled but will be fulfilled at the second advent and in the Millennium and the new earth forever). Next, 9:15. Verse 20 refers to the second advent (Mt. 24:29-31; 25:31-46; 2 Th. 1:7-10; Jude 14; Rev. 19:11-21; Zech. 14)
d Christ must remain in heaven until the time of restoration of all things.
e Gr. apokatastasis a complete restoration or re-establishment. It refers to the Millennium when Christ will reign 1,000 years for the purpose of gathering together all things in one as before the fall (Eph. 1:10); of ridding the earth of all rebellion (1 Cor. 15:24-28); of making the new heavens and new earth; and of restoring all things to perfection and sinlessness as before the rebellions of Lucifer and Adam (Isa. 65:17; 66:22-24; 2 Pet. 3:5-13; Rev. 21-22). When this complete restoration work is finished, then the Son will deliver the restored and perfect kingdom to the Father so that He may be all and all as before rebellion. See Restitution of all things, p. 313
f Gr. ap' aionos, from of old. It could literally refer to the beginning of the present social system. The day man fell God Himself gave a prophecy of his restoration by the seed of the woman (Gen. 3:15). Enoch, the 7th from Adam predicted the 2nd advent (Jude 14). Nearly all the prophets made predictions of the final and complete restoration of all things after the present curse n These seemed to be the chief opponents of Christ from here on instead of the Pharisees. They did not believe in the resurrection (Acts 23:8), so their whole system of religion was in danger by the preaching of the apostles whose main theme was the resurrection. See note, Acts 1:22

o Being exasperated and "fed up" with the success of the preaching of the resurrection by the apostles they determined to stamp it out p This was the thing they should not have done, had they not wanted the revival to spread all the more (v 4, 33; 5:11)

5 assurances of such conversion:

(3) "He shall surely live and not die" (Ezek. 18:28-32; 33:11)
(4) "I will repent of the evil I thought to do to them" (Jer. 26:3)
(5) "Your sins will be blotted out" (Acts 3:19; 2:38; 1 Jn. 1:9)
u Gr. hamartia, note, Jn. 1:29

a This makes at least 8,000 converts up to this time (2:41)
b An assembly of the sanhedrin, or grand council of the Jews
c An associate high priest with Caiphas (v 6; Lk. 3:2; Jn. 18:13,19,24). He had been high priest for 11 years, bore the title all his life, and had the honor of seeing 5 sons fill the office after him.

i By what name means by what authority. The council was convinced that they had wrought a miracle, but by what means they were not certain. As all traffic with demons and familiar spirits was unlawful they hoped by examination to prove them guilty of death according to Lev. 20:27
j This is why Peter was free from man-fear compared to the last time he was in the hall of Caiaphas when he denied the Lord through fear of a servant girl (Mt. 26:69-75). The prophecy of Jesus was now being fulfilled about being brought before rulers (Mt. 10:18-20)
k We do not hesitate to declare to you that it was by the name (authority) of Jesus Christ of Nazareth, that this man was healed

1 Saving, deliverance from and preservation from destruction and judgment of Noah's flood (Heb. 11:7)
2 Saved from enemies (Lk. 1:71)
3 Saved from sins (Rom. 10:1, 9-10)
4 Deliver from slavery (Acts 7:25)
5 Health, preservation of life and physical health (Acts 27:34)
6 Salvation from physical infirmity (Acts 4:12 with v 10; 3:1-12, 16)
7 Salvation in general - all kinds of deliverances (Lk. 1:69; Jn. 4:22; Acts 13:26, 47; Rom. 1:16; 11:11; 2 Cor. 1:6; 6:2; 7:10; Eph. 1:13; Phil. 2:12; 2 Tim. 3:15; Heb. 6:9; Jude 3)
8 Salvation from sins (Lk. 1:77; 19:9; Rom. 10:10; 2 Th. 2:13)
9 Salvation, final and complete deliverance from all the curse, including death (Rom. 13:11; Phil. 1:19, 28; 1 Th. 5:8-9; 2 Tim. 2:10; Heb. 1:14; 2:3, 10; 5:9; 9:28; 1 Pet. 1:5, 9, 10; 2 Pet. 3:15; Rev. 7:10; 12:10; 19:1)

6 Boldness (Acts 4:13, 29, 31; Eph. 3:12; Phil. 1:20; 1 Tim. 3:13; Heb. 10:19; 1 Jn. 4:17)
7 Confidence (Acts 28:31; Heb. 3:6; 10:35; 1 Jn. 2:28; 3:21; 5:14)

p Without the higher education of Judaism; unprofessional men - men of the rank and file of the Jews. They were not destitute of knowledge for they had divine knowledge q They recognized them to be followers or companions of Jesus of Nazareth r Seeing proof of a divine work in their midst their mouths were shut. Had the apostolic doctrine been false the man could not have been healed in Jesus' name s Question 10. Next, v 25

t That the doctrine of Christ stop before other miracles take place and all the people leave Judaism for Christianity and we alone be the enemies of Jesus the Messiah sermon: 5,000 more converted (Cp. 2:31-41)

4 Howbeit many of them which heard the word believed; and the [a]number of the men was about five thousand.

(3) Trial of Peter and John (Cp. Acts 5:27 - 33)

5 ¶ And it came to pass on the morrow, that their [b]rulers, and elders, and scribes,
6 And [c]Ăn'nas the high priest, and [d]Că'ia-phăs, and [e]John, and [f]Al-ĕx-ăn'dĕr, and as many as were of the [g]kindred of the high priest, were gathered together at Jĕ-ru'să-lĕm.
7 And when they had set them in the midst, they asked, [h]By what power, [i]or by what name, have ye done this?

(4) Peter's defense: the power of the name of Jesus (Mt. 10:19)

8 Then Pē'tĕr, [j]filled with the Hō'lȳ Ghōst, said unto them, Ye rulers of the people, and elders of Ĭs'ra-el,
9 If we this day be examined of the good deed done to the impotent man, by what means he is made whole;
10 [k]Be it known unto you all, and to all the people of Ĭs'ra-el, that by the name of Jē'sus Christ of Năz'a-rĕth, whom ye crucified, whom God raised from the dead, even by him doth this man stand here before you whole.
★11 [l]This is the stone which was set at nought of you builders, which is become the head of the corner.
▶12 Neither is there [m]salvation in any other: [n]for there is none other name under heaven given among men, whereby we must be saved.

(5) Decision of the Sanhedrin (Cp. Acts 5:34 - 39)

13 ¶ Now when they saw the [o]boldness of Pē'tĕr and John, and perceived that they [p]were unlearned and ignorant men, they marvelled; [q]and they took knowledge of them, that they had been with Jē'sus.
14 And [r]beholding the man which was healed standing with them, they could say nothing against it.
15 But when they had commanded them to go aside out of the council, they conferred among themselves, 16 Saying, [r]What shall we do to these men? for that indeed a notable miracle hath been done by them is manifest to all them that dwell in Jē-ru'să-lĕm; and we cannot deny it.
17 [t]But that it spread no further among the people, let us straitly threaten them, that they speak henceforth to no man in this name.
18 And they called them, and commanded them not to speak at all nor teach in the name of Jē'sus.

(6) Answer of Peter and John (Cp. Acts 5:25 - 32)

19 But Pē'tĕr and John [a]answered and said unto them, Whether it be right in the sight of God to hearken unto you more than unto God, judge ye.
20 [b]For we cannot but speak the things which we have seen and heard.

(7) Further threats against the apostles by the Jews (5:40)

21 So when they had further threatened them, they let them go, [c]finding nothing how they might punish them, because of the people: for all men glorified God for that which was done.
22 For the man was [d]above forty years old, on whom this miracle of healing was shewed.

12 Prayer for power to preach and confirm the gospel (Mk. 16:17-20; Lk. 24:49-52)

23 ¶ And being let go, they went to their [e]own company, and reported all that the chief priests and elders had said unto them.
24 And when they heard that, they lifted up their voice to God with [f]one accord, and said, Lord, thou art God, which hast made heaven, and earth, and the sea, and all that in them is:
★25 [g]Who by the mouth of thy servant Dā'vid hast said, [h]Why did the heathen rage, and the people imagine vain things?
26 The kings of the earth stood up, and the rulers were gathered together [i]against the Lord, and against his Christ.
27 For of a truth against thy holy child Jē'sus, whom thou hast anointed, both Hĕr'od, and Pŏn'tĭ-ŭs Pi'late, with the Ġĕn'tīles, and the people of Ĭs'ra-el, were gathered together, 28 For to do whatsoever thy hand and thy [i]counsel determined before to be done.
29 And now, Lord, [k]behold their threatenings: and grant unto thy servants, that with all boldness they may speak thy word, 30 By [l]stretching forth thine hand to heal; and that signs and wonders may be done by the name of thy holy child Jē'sus.

13 Answer to their prayer (Cp. Acts 5:12-16; 15:4, 12; 19:11-12)

31 ¶ And when they had prayed, [m]the place was shaken where they were assembled together; [n]and they were all filled with the Hō'lȳ Ghōst, and they spake the word of God with boldness.

14 State of the church (Acts 2:42; 5:12-16; 6:1-7)

32 And the multitude of them that believed were of one heart and [o]of one soul: [p]neither said any of them that ought of the things which he possessed was his own; but [q]they had all a In all their answers the apostles demonstrated a mouth of wisdom that their enemies could not gainsay, fulfilling Mk. 13:11; Lk. 21:15. Cp. Acts 6:10 b We cannot and will not lie about the things we have seen and heard c Finding no way to punish them because all men were stirred and multitudes were turning to be Christians (5:14)

d This case of infirmity was the longest on record. Christ healed a man 38 years infirm (Jn. 5:5)
e The church was no doubt in prayer for them during their trial that God would intervene and protect them
f See note, Acts 1:14
g 10th O. T. prophecy fulfilled in Acts (4:25-28; Ps. 2:1-2). Next, 7:6.
h Question 11. Next, 5:3. Note the 4 representative classes against Christ:
1 Heathen Gentiles (v 27)
2 People of Israel (v 27)
3 Kings - Herod and Caesar, represented by Pilate (v 27)
4 Rulers of Israel (v 26)
i Against the Lord (one person) and against His Christ (another person) See scriptures on Trinity, p. 280
j Gr. proorizo, predetermine (note 2, Rom. 8:29). It is God's determined counsel to save sinners. Jesus came to bring this program about (Heb. 9:15; 10:4-10; Jn. 3:16). God determined two things 1 To give up His Son to die for sinners (Rom. 5:8)
2 To give up sinners to their own will, so that, even while they resisted His will they would fulfill it by crucifying the one who was destined to save all who believe (Acts 2:22-24; 3:13-26; 4:10, 26-30; Jn. 3:16; Rev. 22:17)
k Their threatenings are against You, not us. They are determined to bring to naught Your Word and counsel. Now, Lord, give us power to speak and to confirm Your Word (v 30)
l This expression always indicates the power to do miracles (v 30; 11:21)
m This earthquake was evidence of the presence of God and of answered prayer Earthquakes that manifested God
1 To Elijah (1 Kl. 19:11-12)
2 To Israel and Jerusalem (Isa. 29:6)
3 At the crucifixion (Mt. 27:54)
4 At the resurrection (Mt. 28:2)
5 When disciples prayed (Acts 4:31)
6 When apostles prayed (Acts 16:26)
Future earthquakes of prophecy
1 In the 6th seal (Rev. 6:12-17)
2 Between the 7th seal and 1st trumpet (Rev. 8:5)
3 When the two witnesses are resurrected and ascend to heaven (Rev. 11:13)
4 At the 7th trumpet (Rev. 11:19)
5 At the 7th vial (Rev. 16:17-21)
6 Many earthquakes in divers places (Mt. 24:7; Mk. 13:8; Lk. 21:11) n Believers who are baptized in the Spirit (Acts 1:4-8; 2:1-11, 33, 38-39) must have new outpourings of the Spirit to maintain the fulness of God (v 31; Jn. 1:16; Phil. 1:19; 2 Cor. 1:22; 5:5; Eph. 3:19; 1 Jn. 4:13). Christ Himself lived in prayer and received many new infillings and fresh supplies of the Spirit and power to continue in all the fulness of God. As virtue went out of Him it had to be supplied again, as proved by the scriptures above and by the many times Christ prayed as all men must do to maintain spiritual power in life (note p, Lk. 3:21)
o See note o, Acts 1:14
p Here is recorded the true observance of Christian love and brotherhood - that of being unselfish and so full of love as to live solely for others instead of for self (Phil. 2:1-3; Mt. 22:39; Jn. 13:34-35; 15:9-13, 17; Jas. 2:14-18; 1 Jn. 3:11-18; 4:7-21; 1 Cor. 13). These new believers were so changed and so unselfish that personal possessions were for the good of all others of like faith. See note h, Acts 2:44-45 q This passage and Acts 2:44-47 are often taken by socialists and communists to prove to Christians that their political philosophy is the only Christian one, but even Jesus Christ will not have a socialist or communist government when He comes to reign. It will be a theocratic form of government and sin and selfishness will be unsparingly put down (Isa. 11:1-10; 1 Cor. 15:24-28; Rev. 2:27; 5:10; 12:5; 20:1-10; Zech. 14:1-21; Joel 3) a Power of the early church (Acts 1:8):

1 Great power (Acts 4:33)
2 Mighty power (Eph. 1:19)
3 Exceeding great power (Eph. 1:19)
4 Excellent power (2 Cor. 4:7)
5 Eternal power (Rom. 1:20)
6 Glorious power (Col. 1:11)
7 Divine power (2 Pet. 1:3)

b They were still on the main theme regardless of the law of the priests (v 17). The resurrection is the thing that makes all the gospel effective, and anyone who does not believe in it cannot be saved (1 Cor. 15:1-23)

c "Great" things of the church in Acts:

1 Power (4:33)	5 Wonders (6:8)
2 Grace (4:33)	6 Miracles (6:8)
3 Fear (5:5, 11)	7 Persecutions (8:1)
4 Company (6:7)	8 Joy (8:8; 15:3)

d See note h, Acts 2:44-45 e Some texts read Joseph Barnabas, the same as Joseph Barsabas in Acts 1:23, called "Son of Consolation." See note v, Acts 13:15. He becomes a prophet and an apostle (Acts 13:1; 14:14). Brings Paul to the apostles (Acts 9:25-27). A co-worker with Paul (Acts 11:30; 12:25; 13:1-15:35). Separates from Paul (Acts 15:36-41). Goes astray from truth (Gal. 2). Is reconciled to Paul (1 Cor. 9:6)

f Ananias and Sapphira mean grace and beauty, but their names do not fit their conduct. They were disciples of Christ and members of the apostolic church of which no man would belong unless he had a real experience of salvation. This we have to conclude because the church was hated and persecuted (Acts 4:1-4, 17; 5:13, 17-18, 27-42; 8:1; etc.). Then, too, it is repeatedly stated that all were of one accord and one mind who did belong to the church (1:14; 2:1, 46; 24, 32-37)

g Questions 12-15. Next, v 8

h This was what caused them to hold back part of the price and so lie to the Holy Ghost who is also called "God" in v 4. The Holy Ghost is just as much God as is the Father and the Lord Jesus Christ i This implies careful and planned deception, not a sudden act (Jas. 1:13-15)

j Questions 16-17. Next, v 28

k This proves that Peter had the gifts of knowledge and discernment of spirits as well as other gifts of 1 Cor. 12:4-11

l Gifts of the Spirit in Acts:
All the gifts of the Spirit of 1 Cor. 12:4-11 are recorded in the lives of the believers in the early chapters of Acts after the reception of the Spirit baptism, except one, and no doubt this was also manifest. See Gifts, p.145
1 Tongues (2:4; 10:44-48; 19:1-7)
2 Healings (2:43; 3:6; 5:12-16)

7 Faith (2:43; 3:6, 16; 5:12-16)
8 Discernment (2:15; 3:4-6; 5:3-11)
Other miraculous manifestations:
1 Executing judgment (Acts 5:1-12; 13:6-12; 1 Cor. 4:18-21; 5:4-5).
2 Miraculous deliverances (Acts 5:19-28; 9:3-9, 31; 12:1-19)
3 Holy Spirit imparted by laying on hands (Acts 8:14-25; 9:17-19; 19:1-7)
4 Imparting spiritual gifts to others (Rom. 1:11; 1 Tim. 4:14; 2 Tim. 1:6)
5 Immunity from poisons (Mk. 16:17-18; Lk. 10:19; Acts 28:3-6)
6 Raising the dead (Acts 9:40; 20:10)
7 Earthquakes (Acts 4:31; 16:26)
8 Special miracles (Acts 19:11-12)
9 Fulness of the Spirit manifest (Rom. 15:18-19, 29; Heb. 2:3-4)
Miraculous power is mentioned in all N.T. books (Mt. 10:1-8; Mk. 16:17-20; Lk. 10:19; 24:49; Jn. 14:12; 17:18; Acts (see above); Rom. 1:11; 15:18-19, 29; 1 Cor. 1:4-7, 18-24; 2:1-7, 12-13; 4:18-21; 12:1-11, 28-31; 13:1-3; 14:1-40; 16:10; 2 Cor. 1:20-22; 2:14; 3:6-15; 4:7; 6:3-10; 8:7; 10:4-7; 12:12-18; 13:10; Gal. 3; Eph. 1:3-19; 3:7-4:13; 6:10-18; Col. 1:11; 2:10; Phil. 1:7, 27; 1 Th. 1:3-8; 2:13-14; 2 Th. 1:3, 11; 2:17; 3:1, 9; 1 Tim. 1:16; 2 Tim. 1:7; 2:4, 19-21; 3:1-5, 16-17; Tit. 2:11-14; 3:4-6; Heb. 2:1-4; 3:6, 12-14; 4:11-16; 6:11-12; 10:19-39; 11:1-12:2; 13:8, 21; Jas. 1:5-8; 2:17-26; 4:6-10; 5:14-16; 1 Pet. 2:12; 4:10-11; 5:5-10; 2 Pet. 1:3-10; 1 Jn. 2:6, 13-27; 3:1-3, 20-24; 5:13-14; 2 Jn. 2-4; 3 Jn. 2-4; Jude 3-25; Rev. 1:9; 19:10) things common.

33 And with [g]great power gave the apostles witness of the [h]resurrection of the Lord Jĕ'sus: and [i]great grace was upon them all.

34 Neither was there any among them that lacked: for as many as were possessors of lands or houses sold them, and brought the prices of the things that were sold,

35 And laid them down at the apostles' feet: and [d]distribution was made unto every man according as he had need.

36 And [e]Jō'sĕs, who by the apostles was surnamed Bär'nabăs, (which is, being interpreted, The son of consolation,) a Lĕ'vīte, and of the country of Çÿ'prus, 37 Having land, sold it, and brought the money, and laid it at the apostles' feet.

CHAPTER 5 94

15 First sin in the early church and its results (Cp. 13:11; 1 Cor. 4:18-21; 5:5)

BUT a certain man named [f]An-a-nī'as, with Săp-phī'rā his wife, sold a possession,

2 And kept back part of the price, his wife also being privy to it, and brought a certain part, and laid it at the apostles' feet.

3 But Pē'tĕr said, Ăn-a-nī'as, why hath [g]Sā'tan [h]filled thine heart to lie to the Hō'lÿ Ghost, and to keep back part of the price of the land?

4 Whiles it remained, was it not thine own? and after it was sold, was it not in thine own power? why hast thou [i]conceived this thing in thine heart? thou hast not lied unto men, but unto God.

5 And Ăn-a-nī'as hearing these words fell down, and gave up the ghost: and great fear came on all them that heard these things.

6 And the young men arose, wound him up, and carried him out, and buried him.

7 And it was about the space of three hours after, when his wife, not knowing what was done, came in.

8 And Pē'tĕr answered unto her, Tell me whether ye sold the land for so much? And she said, Yea, for so much.

9 Then Pē'tĕr said unto her, How is it that ye have agreed together to tempt the Spirit of the Lord? behold, the feet of them which have buried thy husband are at the door, and shall carry thee out.

10 [k]Then fell she down straightway at his feet, and yielded up the ghost: and the young men came in, and found her dead, and, carrying her forth, buried her by her husband.

11 And great fear came upon all the church, and upon as many as heard these things.

16 Power of the early church (Mt. 18:18; Mk. 16:17-20; 1 Cor. 12)

12 ¶ And by the hands of the apostles were [l]many signs and wonders wrought among the people; (and they were all with one accord in [m]Sŏl'o-mon's porch.

13 And of the rest durst no man join himself to them: but the people magnified them.

14 And believers were the more added to the Lord, multitudes both of men and women.)

15 [n]Insomuch that they brought forth the sick into the streets, and laid them on beds and couches, [c]that at the least the shadow of Pē'tĕr passing by might overshadow some of them.

16 There came also a multitude out of the cities round about unto Jĕ-rų'sā-lĕm, bringing sick folks, [d]and them which were vexed with unclean spirits: and they were healed every one.

17 Second persecution:

(1) Apostles are arrested (Cp. 4:1; 5:25; 8:1; 9:1; 12:1)

17 ¶ Then the high priest rose up, and all they that were with him, (which is the [e]sect of the Săd'du-çees,) and were filled with [f]indignation, 18 And laid their hands on the apostles, and put them in the common prison.

(2) Their miraculous escape (Cp. Acts 12:3-11)

19 But the angel of the Lord by night [g]opened the prison doors, and brought them forth, and said, 20 [h]Go, stand and speak in the temple to the people all [i]the words of this life.

(3) The Sanhedrin discovers the escape of the apostles

21 And when they heard that, they entered into the temple early in the morning, and taught. But the high priest came, and they that were with him, and called the [j]council together, and all the senate of the children of Ĭs'ra-el, and sent to the prison to have them brought.

22 But when the officers came, and found them not in the prison, they returned, and told,

23 Saying, The prison truly found we shut with all safety, and the keepers standing without before the doors: but when we had opened, [k]we found no man within.

24 Now when the high priest and the captain of the temple and the chief priests heard these things, they [l]doubted of them whereunto this would grow.

(4) Third arrest of the apostles (Cp. Acts 4:1-3; 5:17; 8:1; 9:1; 12:1) 25 Then came one and told them, saying, Behold, the men whom ye put in prison are standing in the temple, and teaching the people.

26 Then went the captain with the officers, [m]and brought them without violence: [n]for they feared a See note b, Jn. 10:23 and Acts 3:11

b Note how this is connected with the great increase of church membership. The more there are together who will believe God the greater will be the atmosphere of faith created and the easier it will be for others to experience answers to prayer. Believing rose to such heights that the multitudes had faith even in the shadow of Peter and their faith was met by God - they were healed every one (note b, Mt. 13:58)

c The miracles and fame of the apostles appear to have become equal to that of Christ and so Jn. 14:12 was fulfilled for the first time. There was no healing virtue in a shadow but there always is in unwavering faith in God. The facts of the gospel were fully known and God was Himself confirming the truth with signs following (Mk. 16:17-20; Heb. 2) d Here we have another proof that there is a difference between sicknesses and being vexed with unclean spirits. See Mt. 4:24; 10:1; Mk. 1:32-34; 16:17-18; Lk. 4:40-41; 7:21

e Gr. hairesis, a choosing, hence, a sect (Acts 5:17; 15:5; 24:5; 26:5; 28:22) and heresy (Acts 24:14; 1 Cor. 11:19; Gal. 5:20; 2 Pet. 2:1)
The word itself has no evil meaning. It simply refers to a doctrinal view or belief at variance with the recognized and accepted tenets of a system, church, or party. The word heretic is used once in Scripture (Tit. 3:10), and means one who holds a heresy; a dissenter, nonconformist. It only takes on an evil meaning when sound doctrine is rejected and fallacy is accepted and taught in preference to truth. If the doctrine is unsound and one dissents from the main body who holds the fallacy, then he is a heretic in a good sense
The word signifies a sect or party, whether good or bad, distinguished from all other sects and parties. It formerly was applied to different sects of heathen philosophers
The church of Rome uses it only in an evil sense to apply to all who cannot go along with their many dogmas and rituals that have been added for many centuries to the pure teachings of the Christian faith. A heretic to them is one who is not a papist, and because of this is outside the Christian religion. Most all denominations use it in this same sense of those who do not see eye to eye with them. True Christians apply it to all false religions who do not accept the true Christian doctrines. Jews called Christians a sect (Acts 24:5, 14; 28:22) and Christians called the Pharisees and Sadducees and other groups sects (Acts 5:17; 15:5; 26:5). All deviation from truth is heresy (Gal. 5:20; 1 Cor. 11:19; 2 Pet. 2:1)

f Gr. zelos, trans.: zeal (Jn. 2:17; Rom. 10:2; 2 Cor. 7:11; 11:2; Phil. 3:6; Col. 4:13); fervent mind (2 Cor. 7:7); emulation (Gal. 5:20); envy (Acts 13:45); envying (Rom. 13:13; 1 Cor. 3:3; 2 Cor. 12:20; Jas. 3:14-15); jealousy (2 Cor. 11:2); and indignation (Acts 5:17)

g Done for seven reasons:
1 To encourage the apostles
2 Prove they were under God's care
3 Show Jewish rulers they were fighting against God
4 Show Jews that they were persecuting true followers of God
5 Show Jews they were hindering the gospel of salvation to all men
6 Give Jews another loving reproof
7 Give Jews another chance to repent

h Note the fivefold message here i The words of physical, spiritual, and eternal life through Christ and the resurrection so bitterly opposed by the Sadducees

j Sanhedrin and all elders of Israel

k Found everything in place as they had left it except the prisoners l They were at a loss to know how the prisoners escaped and what new thing would happen next

m Brought them without binding them

n They did not fear the apostles and their converts, but the unsaved Jews who were standing with the apostles and who were expecting some great deliverance, and were prepared to defend the miracle working apostles. This providence held the passions of the persecutors in check by other bad passions of other men

DO NOT FOLLOW VAIN MEN.

g This is the duty of all preachers (Lk. 24:48; Acts 1:8, 22; 2:32; 3:15; 4:2, 19-20, 33; 5:20, 29, 32)
h The life, miracles, doctrines, and sufferings of Christ (Acts 1:21-22)
i Not only is the preacher a witness of these things, but also the Holy Spirit bears witness (Jn. 15:26-27) and confirms the Word with signs following (2:1-11, 33, 38-39, 43; 3:6-11; 4:29-31; 5:12-20, 32; Heb. 2:1-4; 1 Cor. 12)
j Here we have a definite statement showing that the Holy Spirit is given to those who obey God. If we do not have Him as the early believers did it could be because of the disobedience of unbelief (Lk. 24:49; Acts 1:4-8) k Gr. diapriomai, cut through the heart. Only here and in 7:54. Not the same word katanusso, pricked to the quick or to agitate violently as in Acts 2:37. This was the opposite effect to that in 2:37 where they were stung to the heart with remorse and repentance. Here the Greek means to saw asunder. They were filled with spite, malice, and revenge against those who witnessed their murderous conduct the people, lest they should have been stoned.

(5) Second trial of the apostles (Cp. Acts 4:5-22)

27 And when they had brought them, they set them before the council: and the high priest asked them,

28 Saying, [c]Did not we straitly command you that ye should not teach [b]in this name? and, behold, ye have [c]filled Jĕ-ru'să-lĕm with your doctrine, [d]and intend to bring this man's blood upon us.

(6) Defense of the apostles (Cp. Acts 4:8-12)

29 ¶ Then Pē'tĕr and the other apostles answered and [e]said, We ought to obey God rather than men.

30 The [f]God of our fathers raised up Jē'sus, whom ye slew and hanged on a tree.

▸31 Him hath God exalted with his right hand to be a Prince and a Saviour, for to give repentance to Ĭs'ra-el, and forgiveness of sins.

▸32 And [g]we are his witnesses of [h]these things; [i]and so is also the Hō'lў Ghŏst, [j]whom God hath given to them that obey him.

(7) Effect of the defense (Cp. Acts 4:13-18)

33 ¶ When they heard that, they were [k]cut to the heart, and took counsel to slay them.

(8) The warning of Gamaliel

34 Then stood there up one in the council, a Phăr'ĭ-see, named [l]Gă-mā'lĭl-el, a doctor of the law, had in reputation among all the people, and commanded to put the apostles forth a little space;

35 And said unto them, Ye men of Ĭs'ra-el, take heed to yourselves what ye intend to do as touching these men.

36 For before these days rose up [m]Theū'das, boasting himself to be somebody; to whom a number of men, about four hundred, joined themselves: who was slain; and all, as many as obeyed him, were scattered, and brought to nought.

37 After this man rose up [n]Jū'das of Gă'lĭ-lee in the days of the taxing, and drew away much people after him: he also perished; and all, even as many as obeyed him, were dispersed.

38 And now I say unto you, Refrain from these men, and let them alone: [o]for if this counsel or this work be of men, it will come to nought:

39 But if it be of God, ye cannot overthrow it; lest haply ye be found even to [p]fight against God.

(9) Apostles beaten and commanded to cease preaching

40 And to him they agreed: and when they had called the apostles, [q]and beaten them, they commanded [e]that they should not speak in the name of Jē'sus, and let them go.

(10) Effect on the apostles

41 ¶ And they departed from the presence of the council, [b]rejoicing that they were counted worthy to suffer shame for his name.

18 Continued ministry of apostles in spite of opposition

42 And [c]daily in the temple, and in every house, they ceased not to teach and preach Jē'sus Christ.

95 CHAPTER 6

19 First strife in the church

AND in those days, when the number of the disciples was multiplied, there arose [d]a murmuring of the [c]Grē'cians against the [f]Hē'brews, because their widows were neglected in the [g]daily ministration.

20 How solved: qualifications for business elders (1 Tim. 3:8)

2 Then the twelve called the multitude of the disciples unto them, and said, It is not reason that we should leave the word of God, and [h]serve tables.

3 Wherefore, brethren, [i]look ye out among you seven men of honest report, full of the Hō'lў Ghŏst and wisdom, whom we may appoint over this business.

21 Duties of preachers (Acts 20:28; 2 Cor. 5:14-18; 6:1-10; Eph. 4:11-13; 1 Tim. 3; Tit. 1)

4 But we will give ourselves continually to prayer, and to the [j]ministry of the word.

22 First deacons and how ordained (Cp. 13:1-5; 1 Tim. 4:14; 2 Tim. 1:6; Heb. 6:2)

5 ¶ And the saying pleased the whole multitude: [k]and they chose Stē'phen, a man full of faith and of the Hō'lў Ghŏst, and Phĭl'ĭp, and Prŏch'o-rŭs, and Nĭ-cā'nor, and Tī'mon, and Pär'me-năs, and Nĭc'o-lās [l]a proselyte of Ăn'tĭ-ŏch:

6 Whom they set before the apostles: and when they had prayed, [m]they laid their hands on them.

23 Great growth of the church (Cp. Acts 2:41; 4:4; 5:14)

7 And the word of God increased; and the number of the disciples multiplied in Jĕ-ru'să-lĕm greatly; and a great company of the [n]priests were obedient to the faith.

24 Power of deacons (v 3-5; Mk. 16:17; 14:12-15)

8 And Stē'phen, [o]full of faith

a Second command not to preach in the name of Jesus (4:17-18; 5:28)

d Gr. gongusmos, here; Jn. 7:12; Phil. 2:14; 1 Pet. 4:9. First murmuring in the church (note o, Lk. 5:30). If they had continued without having "all things common" this trouble would not have developed. However, without a doubt something else would have come up eventually, for no multitude can long continue without strife of some kind. Community of goods never was practical or an ordinance of the gospel
e Greek-speaking Jews of the dispersion who sojourned at Jerusalem but who had lived in various countries where Greek was spoken f Native Jews who spoke Hebrew (Acts 21:40; 22:2)
g The relief of 2:44-45
h Attend to the tables where collections were received and distributions to the people were made i Choose men from among both factions in whom all can confide. We WILL APPOINT them over this work, but we will continue in prayer and the ministry of the Word (v 3-4)
j Gr. diakonia tou logou, the deaconship of the Word. This suggests preaching elders, the others being business elders - servants to minister the Word and servants to minister material things to the people. Every Jewish synagogue had at least 3 deacons who were judges of sacred and civil problems and who presided at all trials of Jewish members. See note d, Mt. 20:26 k The church chose 7 men and the apostles laid hands on them and prayed, setting them apart for this business (v 3, 5-6). Apart from Stephen (6:5-8:2; 22:20) and Philip (6:5; 8:1-40; 21:8) all we know of the others is here
l See note r, Mt. 23:15
m The laying on of hands was not to impart the Holy Spirit or some gift. They already had the Holy Ghost, faith, power, and wisdom (note o, below). Laying on hands was to designate them for an office, as Moses did Joshua (Num. 27:18-23) n This was one of the greatest miracles yet. To convert many of these men who were bitter enemies of Christ shows how powerful the revival was l One of the most celebrated and honored Jewish rabbins. He was grandson of Hillel and succeeded as president of the Sanhedrin on the death of his father Rabbi Simeon, son of Hillel. He was the 35th receiver of the traditions and of the law given at Sinai. He is better known as the teacher of Paul (Acts 22:3). He died 18 years before Jerusalem was destroyed. His son Simeon died in the ruins of the city, 70 A.D. He was a strict Jew but liberal in his views as indicated in v 34-39 m It is not certain as to who this man was, as the one mentioned by Josephus, Ant. book XX, chap. V, was at least 10 years later than this record in Acts n Referred to in Josephus, Ant. chap. 1. He caused a revolt over taxes and was destroyed as stated here o This has not always been true, for many false religions have succeeded in the world and still continue, either where they have superseded or corrupted Christianity. So to say that all that is not of God fails is sometimes untrue

Why these religions succeed:

1 Because they have honored existing prejudices, adopted existing opinions and practices, or ministered to the baser passions of men.

2 Because the founders possessed much worldly learning, or used worldly means to influence the world

Christianity has used none of these means. Its founders and followers were rejected men; Christ's converts were despised; and their only means of propagation was that of God inspiring and working miracles through them. In this one point Gamaliel was correct. If God had not backed it under these circumstances Christianity would have failed a This confirms the truth of the promises and signs for all believers, not apostles only (Mt. 17:20; 21:22; Mk. 9:23; 11:22-24; 16:15-20; Lk. 24:49; Jn. 14:12-15; 15:7, 16; 16:23-26; Acts 1:4-8; 2:38-39; 5:32; 1 Cor. 12:4-11)

Seven men besides the apostles did these works that we know of in this one chapter. How many others there were among the thousands promised the same Spirit baptism in Acts 2:38-39, who did miracles is not recorded. According to the above scriptures such is promised each believer then and now

b Either slaves freed when Tiberius expelled all Jews from Rome about 20 A. D., or more likely the inhabitants of Libertina in Africa who had come to settle in Jerusalem. Many Jews from Cyrene and Alexandria in No. Africa are also mentioned here. These Jews from Africa had their own synagogues and together with Jews of Cilicia, Paul's district in Asia, started a dispute with Stephen. They could not resist the wisdom of Stephen so used physical force to get rid of him. This has been the common method of dealing with hereitcs in all ages

c Stephen was no apostle, proving that the spiritual power promised the apostles was not confined to them (Lk. 21:15). Not one degree of power promised apostles was limited to them (Jn. 14:12; Mk. 9:23; 16:17-18; 1 Cor. 12:4-11)

d Gr. hupoballo, make false charges; swear to or do underhand work for money

e Gr. blasphemous, here: v 13; 1 Tim. 1:13; 2 Tim. 3:2; 2 Pet. 2:11

f Organized a mob of baser people, got the elders' approval, and violently brought him before the judgment seat ready to carry out any evil work

g 4 accusations of blasphemy of Stephen:
1 Blasphemed Moses by making Christ greater than Moses (v 11, 14)
2 Blasphemed God by exalting Christ greater than temple and law (v 11, 14)
3 Blasphemed the temple by saying that Christ will destroy it (v 14. Cp. Mt. 24:1-3; Lk. 21:20-24; Dan. 9:26)
4 Blasphemed the law by saying that Christ had abolished the law and made a new covenant (v 14. Cp. Mt. 26:28; 2 Cor. 3:6-15; Col. 2:14-17).

h God permitted His glory to shine through the face of Stephen to convince all the people that what he had said was the truth. Thus everything in the establishment of the church was miraculous. It had to be, for everything that could prevent the establishment of the church was brought to bear against it. The men used in establishing it had neither might nor power except what came from God i Question 19, Next, v 26. Stephen did not deny that he had said certain things they accused him of saying, but He proceeded to make it clear what he had said to convince them, if possible, and bring them to repentance to avert judgment. He clearly showed that his accusers were the ones who were breaking the law and dishonoring God and the temple worship and power, [a]did great wonders and miracles among the people.

25 Third persecution:

(1) Power and wisdom of Stephen - persecution extended to deacons (Cp. 4:1; 5:17, 25; 8:1; 9:1; 12:1)

9 ¶ Then there arose certain of the synagogue, which is called the synagogue of [b]the Lĭb'ĕr-tĭnes, and Çy-rē'nī-ans, and Ăl-ĕx-ăn'drĭ-ans, and of them of Çĭ-lĭ'çĭa and of Ă'şĭa, disputing with Stē'phen.

10 And they were not able to resist the [c]wisdom and the spirit by which he spake.

11 Then they [d]suborned men, which said, We have heard him speak [e]blasphemous words against Mō'şes, and against God.

(2) Stephen on trial for life: Brought before the council; Accused by false witnesses

12 And they [f]stirred up the people, and the elders, and the scribes, and came upon him, and caught him, and brought him to the council,

13 And set up false witnesses, which said, [g]This man ceaseth not to speak blasphemous words against this holy place, and the law:

14 For we have heard him say, that this Jē'şus of Năz'a-rĕth shall destroy this place, and shall change the customs which Mō'şes delivered us.

15 And [h]all that sat in the council, looking stedfastly on him, saw his face as it had been the face of an angel.

CHAPTER 7 — 96

THEN said the high priest, [i]Are these things so?

(3) Stephen's defense theme: unbelief and rebellion of Israel. A Call of Abraham (Gen. 12:1-9)

2 And he said, Men, brethren, and fathers, hearken; [j]The God of glory appeared unto our father Ă'brā-hăm, when he was in [k]Mĕs-o-pō-tā'mĭ-ā, before he dwelt in [l]Chăr'ran,

3 And said unto him, [m]Get thee out of thy country, and from thy kindred, and come into the land which I shall shew thee.

B Promises and covenants (Gen. 12:1-9; 13:14-18; 15:1-21; 17:6-19; 22:15-18)

4 Then came he out of the land of the Chăl-dæ'ans, and dwelt in Chăr'ran: and from thence, [n]when his father was dead, he removed him into this land, wherein ye now dwell.

5 And he gave him none inheritance in it, no, not so much as to set his foot on: yet he promised that he would give it to him for a possession, and to his seed after him, when as yet he had no child.

*6 And God spake on this wise, [o]That his seed should [p]sojourn in a [q]strange land; and that they should [a]bring them into bondage, and [b]entreat them evil [c]four hundred years.

7 And the [d]nation to whom they shall be in bondage will [e]I judge, said God: and [f]after that shall they come forth, and serve me in this place.

8 [g]And he gave him the covenant of circumcision: [h]and so Ă'brā-hăm begat Ī şaac, and circumcised him the eighth day; and Ī'şaac begat Jā'cob; and Jā'cob begat the twelve [i]patriarchs.

C Joseph and Israel in Egypt (Gen. 37:28-34; 41:1-50:14)

9 And the patriarchs, moved with [j]envy, sold Jō'şeph into Ē'gўpt: [k]but God was with him,

10 And delivered him out of all his afflictions, and gave him favour and wisdom in the sight of Phă'raōh king of Ē'gўpt; and he made him governor over Ē'gўpt and all his house.

11 Now there came a [l]dearth over all the land of Ē'gўpt and Chă'năan, and great affliction: and our fathers found no [m]sustenance.

12 But when Jā'cob heard that there was corn in Ē'gўpt, he sent out our fathers first.

13 And at the second time Jō'şeph was [n]made known to his brethren; and Jō'şeph's kindred was made known unto Phă'raōh.

14 Then sent Jō'şeph, and called his father Jā'cob to him, and all his kindred, [o]threescore and fifteen souls.

15 So Jā'cob went down into Ē'gўpt, and died, he, and our fathers, 16 And were carried over into [p]Sў'chem, and laid in the sepulchre that Ă'brā-hăm bought for a sum of money of the sons of Ĕm'môr the father of Sў'chem.

D Egyptian bondage (Ex. 1:7-22)

17 But when the time of the promise drew nigh, which God had sworn to Ă'brā-hăm, the people grew and multiplied in Ē'gўpt, 18 Till [q]another king arose, which knew not Jō'şeph.

19 The same dealt subtilly with our kindred, and evil entreated our fathers, so that they cast out their young children, to the end they might not live.

E Forty years of human training for Moses (Ex. 2:10)

20 In which time Mō'şes was born, and was [r]exceeding fair, and nourished up in his father's house three months:

21 And when he was cast out, Phă'raōh's daughter took him up, and nourished him for her own son.

22 And Mō'ses was learned in all the [s]wisdom of the Ē-gўp'tians, and was mighty in words and in deeds.

The 400 years of Gen. 15:13; Acts 7:6 are to be reckoned from the confirmation of Isaac as the seed when Ishmael was cast out (Gen. 21:12; Gal. 4:30). This was 5 years after the birth of Isaac. The 430 years are reckoned from the departure of Abraham from Haran at the age of 75 years, 25 years before Isaac was born or 30 years before Isaac was confirmed and Ishmael cast out. h Abraham begat Isaac under the covenant of circumcision; Isaac begat Jacob and Jacob begat the 12 heads of the tribes of Israel under the same covenant of circumcision. Thus, all of them were true sons and heirs of that covenant and of the promised land and all secular and spiritual blessings of it

2 Delivered him from all his afflictions (v 10; Gen. 41:14-45)

Sum of gospel of salvation (5:30):

1 Death of Christ (v 30)
2 Bodily resurrection of Jesus (v 30; Lk. 24:37-43; Jn. 21:14, note)
3 Exaltation of Jesus to make effective His atoning work (v 31; 2:33-35; Rom. 4:24-25; 5:10-11; 6:1-14; 8:34; 10:9-10; 1 Cor. 15:1-23; Heb. 1:3)
4 Repentance and forgiveness of sins (Mt. 4:17; Lk. 13:1-5; 24:47; Acts 2:38; 3:19; 1 Jn. 1:9; Eph. 1:7). Forgiveness must not be limited to initial justification. It also means the destruction of its power, the pardon of its guilt, and the cleansing of sin's pollution
Note how identical these facts are with the sum of salvation principles in 1 Cor. 15:1-8, consisting of the death, burial, bodily resurrection, and manifestation of Christ and repentance and faith in God

23 And when he was [a]full forty years old, [b]it came into his heart to visit his brethren the children of Iṣ'ra-el.

24 And seeing one of them suffer wrong, he defended him, and [c]avenged him that was oppressed, and smote the Ê-ġyp'-tian:

25 [d]For he supposed his brethren would have understood how that God by his hand would deliver them: but they understood not.

26 And the next day he shewed himself unto them as they strove, and [e]would have set them at one again, saying, [f]Sirs, ye are brethren; [g]why do ye wrong one to another?

27 But he that did his neighbour wrong [h]thrust him away, saying, [i]Who made thee a ruler and a judge over us?

28 [j]Wilt thou kill me, as thou diddest the Ê-ġyp'tian yesterday?

G Forty years of divine training for Moses: called to deliver Israel from bondage (Ex. 2:15-4:31)

29 Then fled Mō'ṣeṣ at this saying, and was a[k]stranger in the land of [l]Mā'dī-an, where he begat two sons.

30 And when forty years were expired, there appeared to him in the wilderness of [m]mount Si'nā an [n]angel of the Lord in a flame of fire in a bush.

31 When Mō'ṣeṣ saw it, he wondered at the [o]sight: and as he drew near to behold it, the voice of the Lord came unto him, ■32 Saying, I am the God of thy fathers, the God of Ā'brā-hām, and the God of Ī'ṣaac, and the God of Jā'cob. Then Mō'-ṣeṣ [p]trembled, and durst not behold.

33 Then said the Lord to him, Put off thy shoes from thy feet: for the place where thou standest is holy ground.

34 I have seen, I have seen the [r]affliction of my people which is in Ê'ġyp't, and I have heard their [s]groaning, and am come down to deliver them. And now come, I will send thee into Ê'ġyp't.

H Forty years of Israel's rebellion against Moses and God (Ex. 5:1-19:2; 32:1-6; Num. 12-14)

35 This Mō'ṣeṣ [u]whom they refused, saying, [v]Who made thee a ruler and a judge? the same did God send to be a ruler and a [w]deliverer [x]by the hand of the angel which appeared to him in the bush.

36 He brought them out, after that he had shewed wonders and signs in the land of Ê'ġyp't, and in the Red sea, and in the wilderness forty years.

★37 ¶ This is that Mō'ṣeṣ, which said unto the children of Iṣ'ra-el, [y]A prophet shall the Lord your God raise up unto you of your brethren, like unto me; him shall ye hear.

38 This is he that was in the [a]church in the [b]wilderness with the [c]angel which spake to him in the mount Si'nā, and with our fathers: who received [d]the lively oracles to give unto us:

39 To whom our fathers would not obey, but thrust him from them, and in their hearts turned back again into Ê'ġyp't, 40 Saying unto Aār'on, [e]Make us gods to go before us: for as for this Mō'ṣeṣ, which brought us out of the land of Ê'ġyp't, we wot not what is become of him.

41 And they made a calf in those days, and offered sacrifice unto the idol, and rejoiced in the works of their own hands.

I Israel rejected of God because of continued rebellion (Judg. 2:11 - 14; Amos 5:25 - 27)

42 [f]Then God turned, and gave them up to worship the host of heaven; as it is written in [g]the book of the prophets, [h]O ye house of Iṣ'ra-el, have ye offered to me slain beasts and sacrifices by the space of forty years in the wilderness?

43 Yea, ye took up the tabernacle of [i]Mō'lōch, and the star of your god [j]Rĕm'phan, figures which ye made to worship them: and I will carry you away beyond Bāb'ȳ-lon.

44 Our fathers had the tabernacle of witness in the wilderness, as he had appointed, speaking unto Mō'ṣeṣ, that he should make it according to the fashion that he had seen.

45 Which also our fathers that came after brought in with [k]Je'ṣus into the possession of the Gĕn'tīleṣ, whom God drove out before the face of our fathers, [l]unto the days of Dā'vid;

46 Who found favour before God, and desired to find [m]a tabernacle for the God of Jā'cob.

47 But Sŏl'o-mon built him an house.

48 Howbeit the [n]most High dwelleth not in temples made with hands; as saith the prophet, 49 [o]Heaven is my throne, and earth is my footstool: [p]what house will ye build me? saith the Lord: or what is the place of my [q]rest?

50 Hath not my hand made all these things?

J Israel still rebellious and lawless (Mt. 21:42-46; 23:37-39; 26:25)

51 ¶ Ye [r]stiffnecked and [s]uncircumcised in heart and ears, ye do always [t]resist the Hō'lȳ Ghŏst: [u]as your fathers did, so do ye.

52 [v]Which of the prophets have not your fathers persecuted? and they have slain them which shewed before of the coming of the [w]Just One; of whom ye have been now the betrayers and murderers:

53 Who have received the law by the [x]disposition of angels, and have not kept it.

b This came about by the Holy Spirit who stirred him up to his call early in life. He already had God's word from which his faith came (Heb. 11:24 with Rom. 10:17)
c Gr. ekdikeō, took vengeance (v 24; Lk. 18:7-8; 21:22; Rom. 12:19; 2 Cor. 7:11; 2 Th. 1:8; Heb. 10:30; 1 Pet. 2:14)
d He imagined that the divine influence upon him calling him to deliver Israel had already made clear to them the same thing, but here is where the human failed to understand the time and way of the divine mind. He was now willing to enter upon his call if his people were willing to act, but he was to learn much before they became willing to receive him as their deliverer. His education on this line began the next day (v 26)
e Moses' first lesson was that of learning that people cannot be driven together in unity by force or human effort (v 26-28)

i Question 21, Next, v 28. It would be hard for Jews to understand how this man, who was brought up an Egyptian, could have any interest in them
j Question 22, Next, v 35. This exposure of his crime made him fear for his life so he fled the country. He had already renounced the adoption by Pharaoh's daughter and perhaps had no further standing in Egyptian ruling circles (Heb. 11:24-26). Being rejected by his brethren and having God's word as to what to do, he did not hesitate to flee (Heb. 11:27)

d Gr. logia zonta, living doctrines that produce life upon obedience to them. Here the term applies to Moses' law. In Rom. 3:2 it refers to the O. T. in general, and in Heb. 5:12; 1 Pet. 4:11 it refers to the whole of the O. T. and N. T. revelation h Question 24, Next, v 49. The answer to this question is NO if it be asked whether Israel was upright and free from all idolatry in heart and act (v 43).

i The name of the main Ammonite deity to whom children were offered by fire (Dt. 18:10; Lev. 18:21; 20:2; 2 Ki. 16:3; 21:6; 23:10; Jer. 19:5; 32:35). Supposed to be the sun god. It's image was a hollow brazen figure, with the head of an ox, and outstretched human arms. It was heated red hot by fire within, and the little ones placed in its arms to be slowly burned. To prevent the parents from hearing the dying cries the priests would beat drums j A Coptic name of Saturn, called Chiun in Amos 5:26, the star-god of Babylon. It was customary for idolaters of all nations to carry small images of their gods on their journeys and in war. They were enclosed in miniature temples called tabernacles or shrines (Acts 19:24). Israelites carried these imitating their neighbors, the Moabites, Ammonites, etc. Because they carried these idols God predicted by Amos that they, themselves would go into captivity beyond "Damascus" and "Babylon" (Amos 5:25-27; Acts 7:43). They were carried into Assyria and Media (2 Ki. 17:6), and soon after Stephen's sermon they were carried to all parts of the earth

q Gr. katapausis, a putting down: to depose one from power. Used here; Heb. 3:11, 18; 4:1, 3, 5, 10, 11. It refers to complete putting down of enemies where one can rest secure from any danger of further uprising as referred to in Acts 2:35; Mt. 22:44. God's rest from all redemptive work and of using force to put down rebellion will come at the end of the Millennium when Christ has put down all enemies and God becomes all and all (1 Cor. 15:24-28; Eph. 1:10; Rev. 21:3-7; 22:3)

i Here we have prayer to Jesus and proof that He is a member of the Trinity.

j This proves that the spirit of man at death does not remain in the body (Jas. 2:26; Mt. 10:28; Lk. 12:5; 2 Cor. 5:8; Phil. 1:21-24; 1 Pet. 3:4; Heb. 12:23; Rev. 6:9-11)

k What a wonderful position and spirit in which to die. He died on his knees and without malice toward his murderers

l Cp. this prayer with Lk. 23:34

m The body only sleeps at death and knows nothing in the grave. The spirit remains fully conscious after leaving the body whether it goes to hell (Lk. 16:19-31; Isa. 14:9; Rev. 20:11-15) or to heaven (see under note j, above)

n Gr. suneudokon, gladly consenting or being pleased with this murder

o Gr. anaireis, murder or "taking off" (Acts 8:1; 22:20) p This was the first Christian church, so the boast of others is unfounded q Gr. diaspora, dispersion (v 1, 4; 11:19, Cp. Jas. 1:1; 1 Pet. 1:1). This was God's method of scattering the gospel to many lands. Jews dwelling at Jerusalem from all the lands of Acts 2:5-11 and who were saved took the gospel back to these lands when this persecution started. Every place they went they became a nucleus of the church (v 4; 11:19-21)

r This was miraculous itself

s It was a mark of piety, charity, and mercy to bury the dead

t Such was never done for those who were condemned by the Sanhedrin

u Gr. lumainomai, to treat shamefully or with injury; to ravage; signifies the act of ferocious animals seeking prey

v Dragging, not sparing age or sex, but forcing them before magistrates w Romans only had the power of life and death. The Sanhedrin by whom Paul was employed could only imprison and punish short of death. It is true some were killed (26:10), but this was by Roman permission or by murder, as in the case of Stephen x Gr. euangelizo, announce glad news; having regard to the matter announced. Thus the very means devised by Satan to get rid of this new religion became the means of God in scattering and establishing it y Philip the deacon (6:5; 8:5-40; 21:8-9), not the apostle (note g, Lk. 6:14)

z What city this was is not known. The old city called Samaria in the O. T. had been completely destroyed by John Hyrcanus, 128 B. C. Herod rebuilt it in 27 B. C. and called it Sebaste, but it was never called Samaria. Sychem was the place of the heart of the Samaritan religion, and Mt. Gerizim was the place of their temple. It might have been this city. Christ had already won many converts here (Jn. 4:1-43)

a Gr. kerusso, to proclaim as a herald; without reference to the matter proclaimed; and without including the idea of teaching. He preached Christ which is the duty of every preacher (Jn. 16:13-15)

55 But he, being full of the Hō'lȳ Ghōst, [b]looked up stedfastly into heaven, and saw the glory of God, [c]and Jē'sus standing on the right hand of God.

56 And said, Behold, I see the heavens opened, and the [d]Son of man standing on the [e]right hand of God.

(5) Stephen the first Christian martyr: first mention of Paul (Acts 22:20)

57 Then they cried out with a loud voice, and stopped their ears, and ran upon him with one accord, 58 And cast him out of the city, and stoned him: [f]and the witnesses laid down their clothes at a [g]young man's feet, whose name was [h]Saul.

59 And they stoned Stē'phen, calling upon God, and [i]saying, Lord Jē'sus, [j]receive my spirit.

60 And he [k]kneeled down, and cried with a loud voice, [l]Lord, lay not this sin to their charge. And when he had said this, [m]he fell asleep.

CHAPTER 8 — 97

(6) Persecution extended to laymen: church is scattered (Cp. 4:1; 5:17, 25; 8:1; 9:1; 12:1)

AND Saul was [n]consenting unto his [o]death. And at that time there was a great persecution against the [p]church which was at Jē-rụ'sā-lēm; and they were all [q]scattered abroad throughout the regions of Jū-dæ'ā and Sā-mā'rĭ-ā, [r]except the apostles.

(7) Burial of Stephen: Saul, chief persecutor (1 Tim. 1:13)

2 And [s]devout men carried Stē'phen to his burial, and made great [t]lamentation over him.

3 As for Saul, he made [u]havock of the church, entering into every house, and [v]haling men and women [w]committed them to prison.

IV Missionary work in Judea and Samaria (Cp. 1:8; 8:1, 5)

1 A compulsory program

4 Therefore they that were scattered abroad went every where [x]preaching the word.

2 Revival in Samaria: (1) The evangelist and his message

5 Then [y]Phĭl'ĭp went down to the [z]city of Sā-mā'rĭ-ā, [a]and preached Christ unto them.

(2) Second city-wide revival (Cp. Acts 5:12-38, 42)

6 And the people with [b]one accord gave heed unto those things which Phĭl'ĭp [c]spake, hearing and seeing the miracles which he did.

7 For [d]unclean spirits, crying with loud voice, came out of many that were possessed with them: and many taken [e]with palsies, and that were lame, were healed.

8 And there was great joy in that city.

(3) Simon the sorcerer converted (Cp. Acts 13:6-12)

9 But there was a certain man, called [b]Sī'mon, which before-time in the same city used [c]sorcery, and [d]bewitched the people of Sā-mā'rĭ-ā, [e]giving out that himself was some great one:

10 To whom they all gave heed, from the least to the greatest, saying, [f]This man is the great power of God.

11 And to him they had regard, because that of long time he had bewitched them with [g]sorceries.

12 But when they believed Phĭl'ĭp [h]preaching the things concerning the kingdom of God, and the name of Jē'sus Chrĭst, they were baptized, both men and women.

13 Then Sī'mon himself believed also: and when he was baptized, he continued with Phĭl'ĭp, and [i]wondered, beholding the miracles and signs which were done.

(4) Samaritan converts receive the Spirit baptism (Mt. 3:6, note a)

14 Now when the [j]apostles which were at Jē-rụ'sā-lēm heard that Sā-mā'rĭ-ā had received the word of God, they sent unto them Pē'tēr and Jōhn:

15 Who, when they were come down, [k]prayed for them, [l]that they might receive the Hō'lȳ Ghōst:

16 (For as yet he was fallen upon none of them: only they were baptized in the name of the Lord Jē'sus.)

17 Then laid they their hands on them, and they received the Hō'lȳ Ghōst.

(5) Simon's sinful proposal

18 And when Sī'mon saw that through laying on of the apostles' hands the Hō'lȳ Ghōst was given, he offered them money, 19 Saying, Give me also this power, that on whomsoever I lay hands, he may receive the Hō'lȳ Ghōst.

(6) Peter rebukes Simon

20 But Pē'tēr said unto him, Thy money perish with thee, because thou hast thought that the gift of God may be purchased with money.

21 Thou hast neither part nor lot in this matter: for thy heart is not right in the sight of God.

22 [m]Repent therefore of this thy wickedness, and pray God, if perhaps the thought of thine heart may be forgiven thee.

23 For I perceive that thou art in the gall of bitterness, and in the bond of iniquity.

(7) Simon's fear of judgment a Gr. paralonmai, paralysis (v 7; 9:33; Lk. 5:18, 24; Heb. 12:12, feeble)

b Ancient ecclesiastical writers say that Simon claimed he was the Father who gave the law to Moses; that he came in the reign of Tiberias in the person as the Son; that he descended upon the disciples at Pentecost in flames of fire; that he was the Messiah, the Paraclete, and Jupiter; and that the woman who accompanied him called Helena was Minerva, or the first Intelligence

c Gr. mageuo, practice of the rites or sciences of the magi, the worshippers of fire among the Persians; a magician (note q, Mt. 2:1)

d Gr. existemi, to drive out of one's senses; to be amazed beyond measure. Cp. Acts 2:7, 12; Mk. 3:21; 2 Cor. 5:13

e Claiming to be some great one

f This man has great supernatural power

2 Miracles and healings (v 6-7, 12-13)
3 Demons cast out (v 7)
4 Great joy (v 8)
5 Many baptized in water (v 12-16)
6 Holy Spirit given (v 14-23)

i Bewitched (note d, above) by the signs and great works of power

j First mention of apostles leaving the revival at Jerusalem k 16 great lessons here:

1 Prayer for the Holy Ghost is part of the gospel program (v 15; 1:14; 9:17-18; 19:1-7; Lk. 11:13; 1 Cor. 12:30; 14:1)
2 Holy Spirit being given here does not refer to receiving the Spirit of adoption, for all receive this when born again (Rom. 8:9, 14-16)
3 Holy Spirit here must refer to the Spirit baptism and the supernatural gifts of the Spirit for service, not to salvation, for these people were already saved from sin, justified, born again, healed, baptized in water, and had great joy in Christ (v 6-13)
4 This experience was subsequent to the experiences above (v 6-13)
5 It was for all believers (v 14-17)
6 It was evidently what the church at Jerusalem had received so they wanted other churches to have it (Acts 2:33, 38-39. Cp. Mt. 3:11; Jn. 7:37-39)
7 Being converted, healed, baptized in water, and having great joy does not bring the Holy Spirit as the Church at Jerusalem had the Spirit, for the Samaritans had all this and yet lacked the Holy Spirit power (v 6-13)
8 Holy Spirit in this measure can be imparted by prayer and laying on of hands (v 15-23)
9 This does not mean that this is the only way to receive, for no hands were laid on men at Pentecost (2:1-21) or at the house of Cornelius (10:44-48)
10 Others besides the 12 apostles can lay hands on believers to receive the Spirit in this manner (Acts 9:17-18; 19:1-7; 1 Tim. 4:14; 2 Tim. 1:6)
11 It is biblical to hold special services for this extra reception of the Holy Spirit (v 15-17; 9:17-18; 19:1-7; 1 Tim. 4:14; 2 Tim. 1:6; Heb. 6:2)
12 This experience was something that produced evidences that could be seen and heard by men or else no money would have been offered for such power (v 18-23)
13 Spiritual things are not for the purpose of making money (v 18-23)
14 The Spirit power cannot be bought with money (v 18-23)
15 One must be right at heart to partake of this program (v 21)
16 It was "the gift of God" (v 20), which is also called the Spirit baptism in Acts 1:4-5; 2:38-39; 11:14-18; 15:7-13; 19:1-7

l Peter did not indicate that Simon was past hope, but he must repent to be freed from the wickedness of wanting to buy the Spirit for personal gain a "Simon himself BELIEVED ALSO" and was baptized and continued with Philip; but later when he saw a chance to get powerhe was tempted to seek personal gain in religion (v 18-23). Here turning back from his wicked thoughts he asked for prayer (v 24)

b First evangelistic tour of Peter and John (v 25). Their message was "the word of the Lord" and "the gospel." This fulfilled the third stage of evangelization - Jerusalem - Judea - Samaria (Acts 1:8)

c Ministry of angels in Acts:
1 Deliverance of the apostles from jail (5:19)
2 Directing Philip, the evangelist, where to preach (8:26)
3 Directing Cornelius where to find a preacher so he could be saved (10:3, 7, 22; 11:13-18; 15:5-11)
4 Deliverance of Peter from jail (12:7-11, 15)
5 Executing Herod for pride (12:23)
6 Directing - comforting Paul (27:23)

d Gaza was a town about 3 miles from the sea and the last town on the road into Egypt. It was located at the entrance of the wilderness

e Note how obedient Philip was to leave a wonderful revival and a city with all its conveniences to go to the desert to preach to one soul. He was not even told why he was to go south or how far. Gaza was 100 mi. from the revival

f Gr. dunastes, Potentate (1 Tim. 6:15); mighty (Lk. 1:52); and of great authority (Acts 8:27). Cp. 2 Cor. 9:8; 13:3; Rom. 14:4

g A title of Ethiopian queens, similar to Pharaoh in Egypt and Abimelech in Philistia

h Gr. basilissa (v 27; Mt. 12:42; Lk. 11:31; Rev. 18:7)

i Proof he was a worshipper of the God of Israel, perhaps getting his knowledge by tradition from the queen of Sheba (1 Ki. 10). It has been held by the Abyssinians that this queen of Sheba, called Balkis by some and Maqueda by others, not only was taught Solomon's religion, but also established it in her realm on her return home; that she had a son by Solomon named Menilek, who succeeded her in the kingdom; and that her people have preserved the Jewish religion from that time until now

j The Holy Spirit directed Philip to join himself to the chariot, knowing the readiness of this man to accept the Messiah k Philip was quick to obey the Spirit so ran swiftly to meet the chariot

l Questions 29-30. Next, v 33

m This is no proof that the Scriptures are hard to understand and that one must have an authorized interpreter n 13th O. T. prophecy in Acts (8:32; Isa. 53:7-8, fulfilled). Next, 13:33. This is quoted almost word for word from the Septuagint

o It was the custom among the Jews, when they were taking any criminal from judgment to execution, to call out and inquire whether there was any person who could appear in behalf of the character of the criminal or that could say anything in his favor? In Christ's case this inquiry was not made. It is of this breach of justice the prophet speaks. It shows how minutely the trial of Jesus was known 750 years before it took place

p Questions 31-33. Next, v 36. The Gr. word for generation here is genea, a begetting, birth, nativity, descent, genealogy, age, span of life. v 33 gives the true meaning, "for his life was taken from the earth," so who will declare His life and works?

q Began, but did not confine his remarks to this one scripture. He showed by the sacred books that Jesus was the Messiah and that He recently fulfilled the prophets by His death, burial, resurrection, and ascension to heaven r Question 34. Next, 9:4. This request by the eunuch shows that Philip told him the whole gospel story

s This is the secret of salvation (Rom. 1:16; 10:9-10; Eph. 2:8-9)

t This, if believed with the whole heart, will bring the new birth (1 Jn. 5:1)

u Both Philip and the eunuch went down into the water so burial in water could take place (Rom. 6:4; Col. 2:12). They went down into the water and came up out of the water, as in other places (Mt. 3:6, note; 3:16; Mk. 1:10)

24 Then answered Simon, and said, [a]Pray ye to the Lord for me, that none of these things which ye have spoken come upon me

3 Revivals in other cities

25 And [b]they, when they had testified and preached the word of the Lord, returned to Jĕ-rụ'sa-lĕm, and preached the gospel in many villages of the Să-măr'ĭ-tanș.

4 Philip and the Ethiopian: (1) Called from a city-wide revival to preach to one soul

26 And the [c]angel of the Lord spake unto Philip, saying, Arise, and go toward the south unto the way that goeth down from Jĕ-rụ'sa-lĕm unto [d]Gā'za, which is desert.

27 And he [e]arose and went: and, behold, a man of Ē-thĭ-ō'pĭ-a, an eunuch of [f]great authority under [g]Căn'da-çē[h]queen of the Ē-thĭ-ō'pĭ-anș, who had the charge of all her treasure, and had come [i]to Jĕ-rụ'sa-lĕm for to worship, 28 Was returning, and sitting in his chariot read Ē-sā'ias the prophet.

29 Then the [j]Spirit said unto Philip, Go near, and join thyself to this chariot.

(2) Good example of personal work (Cp. Jn. 1:35-36; 4:6-30)

30 And Philip [k]ran thither to him, and heard him read the prophet Ē-sā'ias, and said, [l]Understandest thou what thou readest?

31 And he said, [m]How can I, except some man should guide me? And he desired Philip that he would come up and sit with him.

*32 The place of the scripture which he read was this, [n]He was led as a sheep to the slaughter; and like a lamb dumb before his shearer, so opened he not his mouth:

33 [o]In his humiliation his judgment was taken away: [p]and who shall declare his generation? for his life is taken from the earth.

34 And the eunuch answered Philip, and said, I pray thee, of whom speaketh the prophet this? of himself, or of some other man?

35 Then Philip opened his mouth, [q]and began at the same scripture, and preached unto him Jē'sus.

(3) Private baptismal service

36 And as they went on their way, they came unto a certain water: and the eunuch said, See, here is water; [r]what doth hinder me to be baptized?

37 And Philip said, [s]If thou believest with all thine heart, thou mayest. And he answered and said, [t]I believe that Jē'sus Christ is the Son of God.

38 And he commanded the chariot to stand still: [u]and they went down both into the water, both Philip and the eunuch; and he [v]baptized him.

(4) A preacher's transportation problem solved (Cp. Jn. 15:21; 2 Ki. 2:11; Heb. 11:5)

39 And when they were come [a]up out of the water, the [c]Spirit of the Lord caught away Philip, that the eunuch saw him no more: and he went on his way rejoicing.

(5) Revivals in other cities

40 But Philip was found at Ā-zō'tus: and passing through he preached in all the cities, till he came to [d]Çæs-a-rē'a.

98 CHAPTER 9

V Story of Saul. 1 Chief persecutor of Christians (Acts 7:38; 8:1, 3; 22:4; 26:9; Gal. 1:13; 1 Tim. 1:13; Phil. 3:6)

AND Saul, yet breathing out threatenings and slaughter against the disciples of the Lord, went unto the high priest,

2 And desired of him letters to Dā-más'cus to the synagogues, that if he found any of [e]this way, whether they were men or women, he might bring them bound unto Jē-rụ'sa-lĕm.

2 Jesus arrests Saul (Acts 22:6; 26:13)

3 And as he journeyed, he came near [f]Dā-más'cus: and suddenly there shined round about him a light from heaven:

4 [g]And he fell to the earth, and heard a voice saying unto him, Saul, Saul, [h]why persecutest thou me?

5 And he said, Who art thou, Lord? And the Lord said, I am Jē'sus whom thou persecutest: it is hard for thee to kick against the pricks.

6 And he trembling and astonished said, Lord, what wilt thou have me to do? And the Lord said unto him, Arise, and go into the city, and it shall be told thee what thou must do.

7 And the men which journeyed with him stood speechless, [i]hearing a voice, but seeing no man.

3 Saul's blindness and three day fast (Acts 22:11)

8 And Saul arose from the earth; and when his eyes were opened, [j]he saw no man: but they led him by the hand, and brought him into Dā-más'cus.

9 And he was three days without sight, and neither did eat nor drink.

4 Mission of Ananias (22:12)

10 ¶ And there was a certain disciple at Dā-más'cus, named An-a-nī'as; and to him said the Lord in a [k]vision, An-a-nī'as. And he said, Behold, I am here, Lord.

11 And the Lord said unto him, Arise, and go into the a The true N.T. teaching on baptism:

1 Bapto, the root word for baptize and baptism, means to dip; dip under; sink; dip in; immerse; plunge; and to cover wholly with liquid. It is used 4 times in Scripture:
(1) Dip finger in water (Lk. 16:24)
(2) Dip bread in gravy (twice in Jn. 13:26)
(3) Garment dipped in blood to dye it (Rev. 19:13)
2 Baptidzo, derived from bapto, to make whelmed or wholly wet; immerse; submerge; sink; plunge; to dip under; and to baptize. It appears 80 times in the N. T. and is used thus:
(1) Baptized in the river Jordan (Mt. 3:6; Mk. 1:5, 9)
(2) Baptized with (Gr, in) water (Mt. 3:11; Mk. 1:8; Jn. 1:26, 31, 33)
(3) When he was baptized, went up out of the water (Mt. 3:16; Mk. 1:10; Acts 8:38-39)
(4) Baptized in the cloud and in the sea (1 Cor. 10:2)
(5) Baptize you with (Gr, in) the Holy Ghost (Mt. 3:11; Mk. 1:8; Lk. 3:16; Jn. 1:33; Acts 1:5; 11:16)
(6) Two times out of 80 it is trans. wash with the idea of dipping or thoroughly cleansing that which was washed (Mk. 7:4; Lk. 11:38)
(7) It is trans. Baptist one time (Mk. 6:14) and baptized one time (Jn. 10:40), meaning dipper and dipped
(8) It is trans. baptize, to dip under; whelm; literally, to dip wholly, 76 times (Mt. 3:6-16; 20:22-23; 28:19; Mk. 1:4-9; 10:38-39; 16:16; Lk. 3:7-21; 7:29-30; 12:50; Jn. 1:25-33; 3:22-26; 4:1-2; Acts 1:5; 2:38, 41; 8:12-16, 36-38; 9:18; 10:47-48; 11:16; 16:15, 33; 18:8; 19:3-5; 22:16; Rom. 6:3; 1 Cor. 1:13-17; 10:2; 12:13; 15:29; Gal. 3:27)
3 Baptisma, that which is dipped. It is used 22 times and always trans. baptism (Mt. 3:7; 20:22-23; 21:25; Mk. 1:4; 10:38-39; 11:30; Lk. 3:3; 7:29; 12:50; 20:4; Acts 1:22; 10:37; 13:24; 18:25; 19:3-4; Rom. 6:4; Eph. 4:5; Col. 2:12; 1 Pet. 3:21)
There are 7 different baptisms (Mt. 3:6, note). All baptisms are by burial (Rom. 6:4; Col. 2:12) which means by dipping, according to facts above
Baptism does not remit sins. See note n and a, Mt. 3:11
4 Baptismos, a dipping in water; a baptism. It is trans. baptisms (Heb. 6:2); washing (Mt. 7:4, 8); and washings (Heb. 9:10). These washings refer to the many ceremonial cleansings
5 Baptistes, a baptizer; one who dips a dyer. It is trans. Baptist 14 times (Mt. 3:1; 11:11-12; 14:2, 8; 16:14; 17:13; Mk. 6:24-25; 8:28; Lk. 7:20, 28, 33; 9:19)

b Further proof that baptism is by immersion. See note g, Mt. 3:16 c Proof that the Spirit of v 29 was the Holy Spirit. Here the Spirit translates Philip about 25 miles to Azotus. The Gr. for caught away is harpadzo, to seize; catch away; pluck; pull or take away by force. It is trans. take by force (Mt. 11:12; Jn. 6:15; Acts 23:10); catch away (Mt. 13:19; Acts 8:39); catch (Jn. 10:12); catch up (2 Cor. 12:2-4; 1 Th. 4:17; Rev. 12:5); pluck (Jn. 10:28-29); pull (Jude 23). This then means what it says and there is no need to change it

d Not Caesarea Philippi (Mt. 16:13), but a city built by Herod between Joppa and Mt. Carmel (Josh. Ant. XVI, v 1). Philip settled here (Acts 21:8). Always when mentioned singly it refers to this city

i His companions heard the sound of the voice, but not the words spoken. Cp. with Acts 22:9

j His eyes were open but he was blind (v 9). He saw no man, but he had seen the Lord while in the trance (v 17, 27; 22:14; 1 Cor. 9:1; 15:8)

k Ananias saw the Lord and actually heard His voice in a vision. Visions are not mere ideas in the mind, but real pictures to the eyes (Gen. 15:1; Num. 12:6; 24:4, 16; Job 33:15; Ezek. 8:4; 43:3; Dan. 2:19; 7:2; 8:1-2, 27; 9:21; 10:5-8; Mt. 17:1-9; Lk. 1:22; 24:23; Acts 10:3, 17-19; 11:5) a Gr. rhume. Trans. lane (Lk. 14:21) and street (v 11; 12:10; Mt. 6:2) b It ran from the east to the west gate. In oriental cities such would be the bazaar. One time there were three lanes divided by Corinthian columns c Nothing is known of this Judas d The capital of Cilicia, located on the Cydnus, and now called Tarasso. At one time it was a rival of Alexandria and Athens in the arts and sciences. The inhabitants during the time of Julius Caesar showed kindness to the Romans so were granted full rights as Roman citizens (Acts 22:29; 23:27)

e He was in earnest prayer to know the way of salvation and the will of God. He had not yet been saved from the law of sin and death. He had merely become awakened to his sinful state and was startled to know that he, in his zeal for God, had been fighting against God and Christ. It is this very period of three days of physical blindness and spiritual struggle with the newly realized law of sin and death that Rom. 7:7-25 describes. In Rom. 8:1-4 Paul was delivered from the law of sin and death. The historical record of this is in Acts 9:17-18. When Paul said he had lived in all good conscience to this day, he simply claimed that even in killing saints he was walking in all the light he knew at that time (Acts 23:1) f Paul had already seen the vision of Ananias and now Ananias was dealt with by God to fulfill this vision
g A Jew of Damascus (v 10; 22:12); not the Ananias of Acts 5
h All saved men are saints, so there is no grounds for making men saints after death (v 13, 32, 41; 26:10; Rom. 1:7; 1 Cor. 1:2; 6:1-2; 2 Cor. 1:1; Eph. 1:1; Phil. 1:1; Col. 1:2; 2 Th. 1:10; Jude 3; Rev. 5:8; 13:7, 10; 17:6)
i 6th N. T. prophecy in Acts (9:15-16, fulfilled). Next, 11:28

m Gr. hupodeiknumi, forewarn (v 16; 20:35; Mt. 3:7; Lk. 3:7; 6:47; 12:5) n Instead of expending his life in persecuting others he must expend it in being persecuted for that very preaching he once persecuted. This itself is proof of the reality of Christianity
o See note g, Mt. 12:50 p This word is not in the Gr. Here Jesus is called Lord. He was made both Lord and Christ (Acts 2:36). Christians in Acts call Him "Lord Jesus" 21 times, Peter calls Him "Lord of all" (Acts 10:36). Jesus calls Himself "Lord" (Acts 9:5; 22:8)
The Gr. kurios is the common equivalent of the O. T. Jehovah and is used 334 times of both the Father and the Son. Both are Jehovah and Lord but two separate persons of the deity (Mt. 22:44; Ps. 110:1) q The first instance of the Holy Spirit being imparted through an ordinary believer. Cp. Acts 8:14-23; 19:1-7; 1 Tim. 4:14; 2 Tim. 1:6
r Gr. lepis. Only here, but in Lev. 11:9-10 of the Septuagint s Water baptism followed the receiving of the Spirit here and in 10:44-48, but preceded it in Acts 2, 8, and 19
t The Holy Spirit anointing enabled Paul to preach immediately. In prayer he received an abundance of revelations from God (1 Cor. 2:1-16; 2 Cor. 12:1, 7; Gal. 1:11-16; 2:7). He had studied Scripture for years and by the new anointing of the Spirit he could and did preach and convince men that Jesus was the Messiah (v 20, 22)

[c]street which is called [b]Straight, and enquire in the [c]house of Jū'das for one called Saul, [d]of Tär'sus: for, behold, [e]he prayeth, 12 [f]And hath seen in a vision a man named [g]An-a-nī'as coming in, and putting his hand on him, that he might receive his sight.

13 Then An-a-nī'as answered, Lord, I have heard by many of this man, how much evil he hath done to thy [h]saints at Jē-rụ'sā-lĕm:

14 And here he hath authority from the chief priests to bind all that call on thy name.

*15 But the Lord said unto him, [i]Go thy way: for he is [j]a chosen [k]vessel unto me, to [l]bear my name before the Gĕn'tiles, and kings, and the children of Is'rā-el:

16 For I will [m]shew him how great things [n]he must suffer for my name's sake.

5 Saul healed of blindness: filled with the Holy Spirit (Acts 22:12, 16; 26:13-18)

17 And An-a-nī'as went his way, and entered into the house; and putting his hands on him said, [o]Brother Saul, the Lord, [p]even Jē'sus, that appeared unto thee in the way as thou camest, hath sent me, that thou mightest receive thy sight, and be [q]filled with the Hō'lỹ Ghŏst.

18 And immediately there fell from his eyes as it had been scales: and he received sight forthwith, and arose, [r]and was baptized.

19 And when he had received meat, he was strengthened. Then was Saul certain days with the disciples which were at Dā-mās'cus.

6 Saul preaches Christ and confounds Jews at Damascus (Acts 26:19-20; Gal. 1:15-24)

20 [s]And straightway he preached Christ in the synagogues, that he is the Son of God.

21 But all that heard him were [t]amazed, and said; [u]Is not this he that [v]destroyed them which called on this name in Jē-rụ'sā-lĕm, and came hither for that intent, that he might bring them bound unto the chief priests?

22 But Saul [z]increased the more in strength, and [y]confounded the Jews which dwelt at Dā-mās'cus, [z]proving that this is very Christ.

7 First attempt to kill Saul: he escapes (2 Cor. 12:32)

23 ¶ [a]And after that many days were fulfilled, the Jews [b]took counsel to kill him:

24 But their laying await was known of Saul. And they watched the gates day and night to kill him.

25 Then the disciples took him by night, and let him down by the wall in a basket.

8 Saul preaches in Jerusalem (Acts 22:17; Gal. 1:17-2:2)

26 And when Saul was come to Jē-rụ'sā-lĕm, he [c]assayed to join himself to the disciples: but they were all afraid of him, and believed not that he was a disciple.

27 But [d]Bär'na-bas took him, and brought him to the [e]apostles, and declared unto them how he had seen the Lord in the way, and that he had spoken to him, and how he had preached boldly at Dā-mās'cus in the name of Jē'sus.

28 And he was [f]with them coming in and going out at Jē-rụ'sā-lĕm.

9 Second attempt to kill Saul: again escapes (v 23-25)

29 And he [g]spake boldly in the name of the Lord Jē'sus, and disputed against the [h]Grē'cians: but they went about to slay him.

30 Which when the brethren knew, they brought him down to [i]Cæs-a-rē'a, and sent him forth to [j]Tär'sus.

10 End of the third persecution of the church (Acts 6:9-8:4)

31 Then had the [k]churches rest throughout all Jū-dæ'a and Gāl'ĭ-lee and Sā-mā'rĭ-a, and were edified; and walking in the fear of the Lord, and in the comfort of the Hō'lỹ Ghŏst, were multiplied.

VI History of Peter resumed: 1 Healing a paralyzed man

32 ¶ And it came to pass, as Pē'tēr passed throughout all quarters, he came down also to the saints which dwelt [l]at Lỹd'dā.

33 And there he found a certain man named Æ'ne-ās, which had kept his bed eight years, and was sick of [l]the palsy.

34 And Pē'tēr said unto him, Æ'ne-ās, [m]Jē'sus Christ maketh thee whole: arise, and make thy bed. [n]And he arose immediately.

35 And all that dwelt at Lỹd'dā and Sā'ron saw him, [o]and turned to the Lord.

2 Resurrection of Tabitha

36 ¶ Now there was at [p]Jŏp'pā a certain disciple named [q]Tăb'ĭ-thā, which by interpretation is called Dôr'cas: this woman was [r]full of good works and almsdeeds which she did.

37 And it came to pass in those days, that she was sick, and died: whom when they had [s]washed, they laid her in an upper chamber.

38 And forasmuch as Lỹd'dā was nigh to Jŏp'pā, and the disciples had heard that Pē'tēr was there, they sent unto him two men, desiring him that he would not delay to come to them.

39 Then Pē'tēr arose and went with them. When he was come, they brought him into the upper chamber: and all the widows

c To Peter and James (Gal. 1:19). Why the saints at Jerusalem had not known of Paul's conversion 3 years before is not clear. He perhaps was unheard of during the 3 years in Arabia. If they had heard of his change at all they had no proof of it. He was no doubt a total stranger to the Christians at Jerusalem

1 Rest or peace - no more persecution
2 Edification or building up
3 Walking in the fear of the Lord
4 Walking in the comfort of the Spirit
5 Increased in numbers. This verse is a brief description of the blessings, purity, and state of the early church
One chief reason for the rest from persecution was a Roman edict at this time that statues of the Roman emperor must be placed in the temple at Jerusalem. An army was sent to do this and to destroy all Jews who opposed. This so occupied the Jews with their own persecution that they had no time for persecuting Christians. The conversion of Paul could not have stopped all the widespread persecution in all Judea, Samaria, and Galilee
j We now continue the story of Peter who has been the most prominent of the 12 apostles in the book of Acts thus far (1:13-15; 2:14, 37-38; 3:1-12; 4:8-19; 5:1-29; 8:14-23). His story continues to Acts 12:19

The idea here is that by comparing the life and works of Christ with the prophets it was clear that He was the Messiah. Instead of searching the Scriptures to see if these things be so, the Damascenes were occupied with the change in Saul's attitude so failed to believe. Hence, there is no record of a Christian church in Damascus. Cp. Acts 17:11-12

h A person who dealt in hides, whether of clean or unclean animals, was held in contempt by the Jews. Thus Peter did not stay with the "millionaires" of Joppa, but lived in a humble abode.

First period of the Christian Church

With the resurrection of Dorcas we have the ending of the first period of the Christian church. About 8 years had passed since Pentecost, during which time the gospel had been preached only to the Jews (Mt. 10:6; Jn. 1:11; Rom. 1:16). The church was founded by Jews and for Jews. The time had now arrived when God wanted to take the gospel to the Gentiles. He knew and predicted that the Jews would reject the gospel so planned to change administrations (Mt. 21:33–46). The conversion of Saul of Tarsus was in preparation for this change of religious programs.

Second period of the Christian Church

In the second period of the church there was a gradual change in the gospel program to fit the Gentiles. Not that the gospel itself was changed, but it was purged of all mixture with the law of Moses. Soon Gentile ministers and churches appeared and a new program for Gentiles was settled on by general conference (Acts 15; Gal. 2: 3: 19–25; 4:21–31; Col. 2:14–17; 2 Cor. 3:6–15; Heb. 7, 8, 9, 10)

i See note d, Acts 8:40 j He and his house were the first Gentiles to hear the gospel since Pentecost (Acts 15:7–13). Until then it did not occur to the church that anyone could be saved unless he was circumcised and kept the law of Moses. This fallacy would have continued if God had not intervened and convinced Peter, and through him all the other apostles (Acts 10:9–28, 34–35; 11:1–18; 15:7–13)
k The captain of 100 men in the Roman army. At least 10 such men are mentioned in the N. T. (Mt. 8:5; 27:54; Lk. 7:6; Acts 10:1; 21:32; 22:25; 23:17, 23; 24:23; 27:1)

1 Being devout, pious, or dutiful to religion. In v 7 the word devout is used of a soldier devoted to Cornelius and in 22:12 it is used of Cornelius being devout according to the law. It is used of religious unsaved men in Acts 2:5; 13:50; 17:17

2 Fearing God (v 2). Demons fear (Jas. 2:19) as well as unsaved men (1 Sam. 12:18; 2 Ki. 17:32–34, 41; Jonah 1:16; Rev. 21:8)

3 Giving much alms (v 2). Pharisees did this and yet rejected salvation (Mt. 6:1–2). One may give all he has and be lost (1 Cor. 13:3)

4 Praying always (v 2). Sinners and hypocrites pray often (Mt. 6:5–7; Lk. 18:9–14). Men even pray in hell but it avails nothing (Lk. 16:23–31)

5 Seeing visions (v 3–6). Unsaved men have seen visions that did not save them (Job 33:14–30; Isa. 29:7–12; Dan. 2:1–9, 28; 4:5, 27–37; 5:1–31; Zech. 13:5)

6 Being just in the eyes of men (v 22)

7 Having a good reputation of men (v 22). Paul had this while murdering saints (Acts 23:1; 26:5; Phil. 3:6)

8 Fasting (v 30). Hypocrites did this weekly (Mt. 6:16–18; Lk. 18:9–14)

40 But Pē'tĕr [c]put them all forth, and [d]kneeled down, and prayed; and turning him to the body said, Tăb'ĭ-thá, [e]arise. And she opened her eyes: and when she saw Pē'tĕr, she sat up.

CHAPTER 10

3 Revival among the Gentiles: (1) Vision of Cornelius

THERE was a certain man in [i]Cæs-a-rē'á called [j]Côr-nē'lĭ-ûs, a [k]centurion of the [l]band called the Ĭ-tăl'ian band,

2 A devout man, and one that feared God with all his house, which gave much alms to the people, and prayed to God alway.

3 He saw in a vision evidently about the ninth hour of the day an angel of God coming in to him, and saying unto him, Côr-nē'lĭ-ûs.

4 And when he looked on him, he was afraid, and said, [m]What is it, Lord? And he said unto him, [n]Thy prayers and thine alms are come up for a memorial before God.

5 And now send men to Jŏp'pá, and call for one Sī'mon, whose surname is Pē'tĕr:

6 [o]He lodgeth with one Sī'mon a tanner, whose house is by the sea side: he shall tell thee what thou [p]oughtest to do.

(2) Cornelius sends for Peter (Acts 11:13; 15:7–11)

7 And when the angel which spake unto Côr-nē'lĭ-ûs was departed, he called two of his household servants, and a devout soldier of them that waited on him continually;

8 And when he had declared all these things unto them, he sent them to Jŏp'pá.

(3) Peter's vision: sheet and unclean animals (Acts 11:4–10)

9 ¶ On the [r]morrow, as they went on their journey, and drew nigh unto the city, Pē'tĕr went up upon the [s]housetop to pray about the [t]sixth hour:

10 And he became very hungry, and would have eaten: but while they made ready, he fell into a [u]trance,

11 And saw heaven opened, and a certain vessel descending unto him, as it had been a great sheet knit at the [v]four corners, and let down to the earth:

12 Wherein were all manner of fourfooted beasts of the earth, and wild beasts, and creeping things, and fowls of the air.

13 And there came a voice to him, Rise, Pē'tĕr; [q]kill, and eat.

14 But Pē'tĕr said, Not so, Lord; for I have never eaten any thing that is [b]common or unclean.

15 And the voice spake unto him again the second time, What God hath [c]cleansed, that call not thou common.

16 This was done [d]thrice: and the vessel was received up again into [e]heaven.

(4) Peter and the messengers of Cornelius (Acts 11:11)

17 Now while Pē'tĕr [f]doubted in himself what this vision which he had seen should mean, behold, the men which were sent from Côr-nē'lĭ-ûs had made enquiry for Sī'mon's house, and stood before the gate,

18 And called, and asked whether Sī'mon, which was surnamed Pē'tĕr, were lodged there.

19 ¶ While Pē'tĕr thought on the vision, the [g]Spirit said unto him, [h]Behold, three men seek thee.

20 Arise therefore, and get thee down, and go with them, doubting nothing: for I have sent them.

21 Then Pē'tĕr went down to the men which were sent unto him from Côr-nē'lĭ-ûs; and said, Behold, I am he whom ye seek: [i]what is the cause wherefore ye are come?

22 And they said, Côr-nē'lĭ-ûs the centurion, a just man, and one that feareth God, and of good report among all the nation of the Jews, was [j]warned from God by an holy angel to send for thee into his house, and to hear words of thee.

(5) Peter and Cornelius (11:13)

23 Then called he them in, and lodged them. [k]And on the morrow Pē'tĕr went away with them, and certain brethren from Jŏp'pá accompanied him.

24 And the morrow after they entered into Cæs-a-rē'á. And Côr-nē'lĭ-ûs waited for them, and had [l]called together his kinsmen and near friends.

25 And as Pē'tĕr was coming in, Côr-nē'lĭ-ûs met him, and fell down at his feet, and worshipped him.

26 But Pē'tĕr [m]took him up, saying, Stand up; I myself also am a man.

27 And as he talked with him, he went in, and found many that were come together.

28 And he said unto them, Ye know how that it is an unlawful thing for a man that is a Jew to keep company, or come unto one of another nation; [n]but God hath shewed me that I should not call any man common or unclean.

29 Therefore came I unto you without gainsaying, as soon as I was sent for: [o]I ask therefore for what intent ye have sent for me?

30 And Côr-nē'lĭ-ûs said, Four days ago I was fasting until this a Lit., sacrifice and eat. Since Jews and Gentiles were represented by the animals, showing how God would also save the Gentiles, it was Peter's duty to preach to both. God was illustrating and emphasizing to Peter that the middle wall of partition was broken down. Already about 8 years had gone by and the gospel had been withheld from Gentiles (Eph. 2:14–16). It was time now to bring both into one fold under one shepherd (Jn. 10:16; 1 Cor. 12:13)

b Defiled and forbidden by the law (Mk. 7:2; Lev. 11; Dt. 14)
c God had not yet saved Gentiles by the gospel, but was on the verge of doing so. He first had to teach Peter that if He wanted to save Gentiles that He was, after all, sovereign. He now wanted the church to know that Gentiles are just as good as Jews when both are cleansed from sin; that there is to be no distinction in races in Christ (Gal. 3:28; Col. 3:11); and that both Jews and Gentiles are to make one body in Christ (1 Cor. 12:13; Eph. 2:14–22).
d Three times to confirm it (2 Cor. 13:1)
e The vessel was let down from heaven, signifying the will of God to save both Jews and Gentiles. It was taken up into heaven, signifying that both Jews and Gentiles came from God and both would return to God through the gospel of Jesus Christ (Eph. 3:14–15)
f Gr. diaporeo, perplexed as to meaning g The Holy Spirit had prepared Cornelius telling him to send for Peter, while this took place He dealt with Peter to make him willing to obey, even to go to Gentiles. God again worked with both persons concerned as in the case of Saul and Ananias (Acts 9:10–20). When God is in a matter such harmony of His dealings is evident n 3 personal acts of the Holy Spirit:

1 Sent an angel to Cornelius and gave him a vision (v 3–7, 22, 30; 11:13)
2 Gave Peter a vision (v 9–16; 11:5)
3 Spoke to Peter and gave him explicit instructions (v 19–20)

i Question 40, Next, v 29
j This is the express purpose of the Holy Spirit in arranging for Peter to go to Cornelius (v 6, 22, 32–44; 11:14; 15:7). Preaching the gospel is God's method of saving men (Mk. 16:15–16; Lk. 24:47; Acts 1:8; 8:4; Rom. 1:16; 10:9–17; 1 Cor. 1:17–24; 2:1–16; 15:1–8) k See note r, v 9. Peter took 6 witnesses with him, as he knew he would have to give account to the church for his action (10:45; 11:1–18; 15:7)
l Cornelius had no doubt brought up his family in all the truth he had, teaching the same to his friends. Hence, they were ready to be saved (v 44)
m A rebuke to any human who receives men kneeling down before him or permits them to kiss his feet. This is not the Christian spirit (v 25–26; 14:11–18; Rev. 19:10; 22:8–9). Cornelius had been brought up a pagan and was accustomed from boyhood to seeing divine honors rendered to heroes. He no doubt thought Peter was an angel of a higher order, being sent for by an ordinary angel. It was not strange then that he would bow to Peter n Peter now understood why he had received the vision at Joppa. God has showed me that I should not call any man common or unclean (v 28, 34–35; 11:17–18)
o Question 41, Next, v 47. He had asked the messengers (v 21), and now asked for still more facts, hoping to find the cause of these strange events of the last 3 days (v 29)

r Cæsarea was about 35 miles north of Joppa and could not be reached in one day. Cornelius received the vision at 3:00 p. m. (v 3) so if they started on the journey shortly after that they would reach Peter by noon. Cp. v 23–24

b All appearances of God and angels have been in brightness and white clothing. Appearances in darkness and gray or dark clothes are satanic c There is no contradiction between what the angel said here and in v 4. Could he not have used both expressions? God usually makes His will known by repeating the message two or three times to confirm it (v 16; 2 Cor. 13:1) d It must be kept in mind that all this information was given by an angel of a man Cornelius perhaps never heard of. The instructions giving name, address, and other information were verified when followed through. The only way to test leadings and revelations today is to see if they are in harmony with the Bible. Those that are not can be dismissed without any further test and that without fear of missing the will of God (1 Jn. 4:1-6; Dt. 18:22)
e This is the only thing a congregation or even an individual has the right to expect from a man of God
f 22 doctrines in Peter's sermon: p. 158
g This could be understood as the message of reconciliation between Jews and Gentiles and between them and God (Eph. 2:14-16; 1 Cor. 12:13; 2 Cor. 5:14-21). Because of this, He is Lord of all and no respecter of persons; and will save all on the same terms (v 34-37, 43)

k Gr. emphanes, to be openly seen by all present. Used only here and in Rom. 10:20 l This simply means He did not appear to the ungodly multitude that slew Him. He did not make a show of Himself and gloat before His enemies that their crucifixion did not profit them in getting rid of Him. This would have caused more confusion and rebellion. He chose such witnesses whose testimony was impeachable and who would risk their very lives to preach what they had seen and heard. Multitudes never were called to witness any fact for God. Even in giving the law, God chose only 74 men to see Him in person (Ex. 24:1-11). The multitudes that heard His voice begged that it not be heard any more; it was so terrible (Dt. 5:22-33; Heb. 12:18-21). Christ never did withhold Himself from some and appear to others in the same crowd. All saw Him or none, even up to over 500 men at once (1 Cor. 15:5-8) received the gospel, so when Peter arrived back at Jerusalem he was rebuked for going among Gentiles with the gospel (v 1-3). This is another proof that Peter had no supremacy over the church as the prince of the apostles, as the vicar of Jesus Christ, and as the infallible head of the church. This is refuted in many N.T. scriptures. See notes on 1 Pet. 5:1

o What a great sin! Eating with Gentiles! When did this become a sin (1 Jn. 3:4)?
p Here Peter relates the whole story, recorded in Acts 10, with a few additional circumstances hour; and at the [a]ninth hour I prayed in my house, and, behold, a man stood before me in [b]bright clothing, 31 And said, [c]Cŏr-nē'lĭ-ŭs, thy prayer is heard, and thine alms are had in remembrance in the sight of God.

32 [d]Send therefore to Jŏp'pā, and call hither Sī'mon, whose surname is Pē'tēr; he is lodged in the house of one Sī'mon a tanner by the sea side: who, when he cometh, shall speak unto thee.

33 Immediately therefore I sent to thee; and thou hast well done that thou art come. Now therefore are we all here present before God, [e]to hear all things that are commanded thee of God.

(6) Peter's sermon. Theme: salvation by faith (Cp. 13: 14-41) A God no respecter of persons (Dt. 1:17; 16:19; 2 Sam. 14:14; 2 Chr. 19:7; Rom. 2:11; Eph. 6:9; Jas. 2:9)

▶34 ¶ Then Pē'tēr opened his mouth, and [f]said, Of a truth I perceive that God is no respecter of persons:

▶35 But in every nation he that feareth him, and worketh righteousness, is accepted with him.

B The Word of God gives peace and bodily healing to all (Ps. 107:20; Mt. 8:17; 13:15; Mk. 16:17; Rom. 4: 16; 2 Cor. 1:20; 1 Pet. 2:24)

36 The word which God sent unto the children of Ĭs'ra-el, preaching [g]peace by Jē'sus Christ: (he is Lord of all:)

37 That word, I say, ye know, which was published throughout all Jū-dæ'ā, and began from Gā'lĭ-lee, after the baptism which John preached;

38 How God [h]anointed Jē'sus of Năz'a-rĕth with the Hō'lў Ghōst and [i]with power: who went about doing good, and healing all that were [j]oppressed of the devil; for God was with him.

C Four main points of the gospel: death, burial, resurrection, and manifestation of Jesus Christ (Cp. 1 Cor. 15:1-23)

39 And we are witnesses of all things which he did both in the land of the Jews, and in Jē-rў'sā-lĕm; whom they slew and hanged on a tree:

40 Him God raised up the third day, and [k]shewed him openly;

41 [l]Not to all the people, but unto witnesses chosen before of God, even to us, who did eat and drink with him after he rose from the dead.

D Christ the judge of the living and dead (Acts 17: 31; Jn. 5:22; Rom. 2:16; Mt. 25:31)

●42 And he [m]commanded us to preach unto the people, and to testify that it is he which was [n]ordained of God to be the [o]Judge of [p]quick and dead.

E Remission of sins through Christ for all who believe (13:39; Rom. 3:21, refs.)

▶43 [q]To him give all the prophets witness, that through his name whosoever believeth in him shall receive [r]remission of sins.

(7) Gentiles saved and baptized in the Holy Spirit without and before water baptism (Acts 11:14-18; 15:7-11; Mt. 3:6, note a)

44 ¶ While Pē'tēr yet spake these words, the Hō'lў Ghōst fell on all them which [s]heard the word.

45 And [t]they of [u]the circumcision which believed were astonished, as many as came with Pē'tēr, [i]because that on the Gĕn'tiles also was poured out the gift of the Hō'lў Ghōst.

46 [i]For they heard them speak with tongues, and magnify God. Then answered Pē'tēr, 47 [k]Can any man forbid water, that these should not be baptized, which have received the Hō'lў Ghōst as well as we?

48 And [l]he commanded them to be baptized [v]in the name of the Lord. Then prayed they him to tarry certain days.

(8) Peter accused of wrongdoing in preaching to Gentiles

AND the apostles and brethren that were in [a]Jū-dæ'ā heard that the Gĕn'tiles had also received the word of God.

2 And when Pē'tēr was come up to Jē-rў'sā-lĕm, they that were of the circumcision contended with him,

3 Saying, [b]Thou wentest in to men uncircumcised, and didst eat with them.

(9) Peter's defense: A God showed me that He was no respecter of persons (Acts 10:34, refs.)

4 But Pē'tēr [c]rehearsed the matter from the beginning, and expounded it by order unto them, saying,

5 I was in the city of Jŏp'pā praying: and in a trance I saw a vision, A certain vessel descend, as it had been a great sheet, let down from heaven by four corners; and it came even to me:

6 Upon the which when I had fastened mine eyes, I considered, and saw fourfooted beasts of the earth, and wild beasts, and creeping things, and fowls of the air.

7 And I heard a voice saying unto me, Arise, Pē'tēr; slay and eat.

8 But I said, Not so, Lord: for nothing common or unclean hath at any time entered into my mouth.

9 But the voice answered me again from heaven, What God

c Living and the dead. The word living refers to those who are now alive but who will die and be among the dead at the future judgment of the dead. There will be a judgment of the living nations at the second advent (Mt. 25:31-46). This will be a representative judgment and of the people of the nations that will be mobilized against Jerusalem to battle when Christ comes (Zech. 14:1-5). Not all people of all nations will be there. It will be the armies of the nations. Many in the interior of certain countries will not even know of this battle or of the second advent until it is over and the saints take over the whole world after the second advent (Isa. 66:19-21)

g The 6 Jews and Peter (10:23; 11:12) h The Jews are referred to every time this term is used (v 45; 11:2; Rom. 3:30; 4:9-12; 15:8; Gal. 2:7-12; Phil. 3:3; Col. 4:11; Tit. 1:10)
i This was why the Jews were astonished. They did not believe that God would ever give the Spirit baptism to Gentiles as He gave the Jews at Pentecost (v 47; 11:15-17; 15:8-9)
j This is why they knew the Gentiles had received the same Spirit baptism that they had received about 8 years before at Pentecost (2:1-11; 10:44-48; 19:1-7). This experience proves that the Holy Spirit baptism may be given to men at the time of their conversion, as in the case of Paul (Acts 9:17-18). It also can be received long after conversion as in the case of the disciples at Pentecost (Acts 2:1-11), the Samaritans (Acts 8:12-23), and the Ephesians (Acts 19:1-7). This also proves that it can be received before water baptism, as in the case of Paul (Acts 9:17-18), or after water baptism, as in the case of Jesus (Mt. 3:16-17), the disciples at Pentecost (Acts 2:1-11), the Samaritans (Acts 8:4-23), and the Ephesians (Acts 19:1-7) k Question 42, Next, 11:17. The question is, shall we baptize these Gentile converts who have been born again, whose sins are already remitted, and who have received the Spirit baptism as we did at Pentecost? Or, shall we not baptize them? Here and in the case of Paul (Acts 9:17-18) it is clear that sins were remitted and the Holy Ghost given before water baptism. If water baptism was essential to the remission of sins, shall we accuse God of getting ahead of His own program? Or, shall we be more sensible and accept God's work of forgiveness without water baptism? See notes n and a, Mt. 3:11
l Since no man could "forbid water" baptism to these new converts and new Spirit-baptized people, Peter commanded them to be baptized as all converts should be; not to save the soul, but as an answer to a good conscience and an outward testimony of an inward work (1 Pet. 3:21; 1 Jn. 5:6-8) m Not in the name of Jesus only, but simply "by the authority of the Lord" who authorized to baptize "in the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Ghost" (Mt. 28:19). Christ authorized to baptize in the name of all three members of the Godhead (1 Jn. 5:7) and not in His name only, which ignores the Father and the Holy Spirit n Jewish Christians in Judea heard that the Gentiles at Caesarea, Samaria, had b Two servants and a soldier of Cornelius (10:7, 19; 11:11)

c The Holy Spirit (note h, 10:19)
d This is as plain as language can express a truth that Cornelius was not a saved or born-again man when he sent for Peter and that he was not converted before Peter's sermon (10:43-48; 11:14-18; 15:7-13)

12 reasons Cornelius was not saved:
1 V 14 plainly says that the angel told Cornelius that Peter would tell him words whereby he would be saved
2 He was no more saved than his house, for both were to be saved by the message that Peter was to give them (v 14)
3 The 8 things of note m, 10:2, do not prove that he was saved
4 Acts 10:6 confirms the fact of 11:14 that Peter was to tell Cornelius what he must do to be saved
5 Peter's vision breaking down his prejudice about God saving Gentiles proves that they were not yet saved (Acts 10:9-16; 11:4-18)
6 Acts 10:22 again confirms the fact that Peter was to speak words to Cornelius to save him, as in 11:14
7 Acts 10:32 is the final word referring to God's command to Peter to preach the gospel that would save the Gentiles
8 Acts 10:43 records the necessary words of salvation which Cornelius heard for the first time so he could be saved as the angel promised in 11:14
9 Acts 11:17 states when Cornelius and house believed on the Lord. It was when Peter preached a certain part of his sermon and the Holy Ghost fell on them that heard the Word (10:43-44). They could not have believed this kind of message until they had heard it (Rom. 10:14-17)
10 The apostles acknowledged that the Gentiles were granted "repentance unto life" when Peter preached to the house of Cornelius (11:18 with 10:43-44)
11 Peter again testified later that it was God who made the choice among the apostles that the Gentiles "by my mouth should hear the word of the gospel, and believe" (Acts 15:7)
12 Acts 15:9 says that the hearts of the Gentiles were purified by faith when Peter preached to them e Lit, in my beginning to speak, that is, I had hardly started with what I was going to preach when the Holy Ghost fell on them AS ON US AT THE BEGINNING (Acts 2:1-11; 10:44-48)

f When I heard the Gentiles speaking in other languages as we did at Pentecost, I remembered how the Lord Jesus associated this with the baptism in the Holy Ghost (v 16 with 1:4-8; Mt. 3:11). I recognized that they had been baptized in the Holy Spirit as we had been at Pentecost, for it was "the like gift," so who was I to withstand God (v 17)?
g Question 43. Next, 13:10
h When they (Jewish Christians and apostles at Jerusalem, v 1) heard this story of God changing Peter's attitude toward Gentiles, of the salvation of Gentiles, and of their receiving the Spirit baptism in spite of Jewish opposition, then they began to withdraw their opposition submitting to the will of God to preach and save both Jews and Gentiles (v 18)
The unwillingness to receive Gentiles into the church further proves its divine origin. For if it had been a false church and a false religion its first propagators would have compassed sea and land to make proselytes, and like false religions in all ages, would have yielded to every accommodation of the opinions, prejudices, and practices of God regarding the preaching to and saving of both Jews and Gentiles (v 18)
i This with v 3 further proves that Cornelius was not a proselyte to Judaism
j The Jewish Christians that were forced to flee from the persecution of Acts 8:1-2 went into Phenice, Cyprus, and Antioch establishing Jewish churches

10 And this was done three times: and all were drawn up again into heaven.

B God commanded me to go preach to Gentiles (10:9-35)

11 And, behold, immediately there were [b]three men already come unto the house where I was, sent from Cæs-a-rē'á unto me.

12 And the [c]spirit bade me go with them, nothing doubting. Moreover these six brethren accompanied me, and we entered into the man's house:

C Cornelius, angels, and the Holy Spirit all confirmed God's command to me (10:7-22)

13 And he shewed us how he had seen an angel in his house, which stood and said unto him, Send men to Jŏp'pá, and call for Sī'mon, whose surname is Pē'tēr;

14 [d]Who shall tell thee words, whereby thou and all thy house shall be saved.

D Jesus Christ Himself confirmed my preaching by baptizing Gentiles in the Holy Spirit (Acts 10:44-48)

15 And [e]as I began to speak, the Hō'lȳ Ghōst fell on them, as on us at the beginning.

▸16 [f]Then remembered I the word of the Lord, how that he said, Jŏhn indeed baptized with water; but ye shall be baptized with the Hō'lȳ Ghōst.

E If God blessed Gentiles who was I to withstand Him?

17 Forasmuch then as God gave them the like gift as he did unto us, who believed on the Lord Jē'şus Christ; [g]what was I, that I could withstand God?

4 The church is satisfied and thanks God for His mercy

18 [h]When they heard these things, they held their peace, and glorified God, saying, Then hath God [i]also to the Gĕn'tīleş granted repentance unto life.

19 ¶ Now [j]they which were scattered abroad upon the persecution that arose about Stē'phen travelled as far as [k]Phĕ-nĭ'çē, and [l]Çўprus, and [m]An-tĭ-ŏch, preaching the word to none but unto the [n]Jews only.

20 And some of them were men of Çўprus and [o]Çў-rē'nē, which, when they were come to An'tĭ-ŏch, spake unto the [p]Grē'çians, preaching the Lord Jē'şus.

21 And the [q]hand of the Lord was with them: and a great number believed, and [c]turned unto the Lord.

3 First missionary sent by a church (Cp. 8:1, 4; 11:19)

22 ¶ Then tidings of these things came unto the ears of the [e]church which was in Jē-rų'sā-lĕm: and [c]they sent forth Bär'na-bās, that he should go as far as An'tĭ-ŏch.

23 Who, [d]when he came, and had seen the grace of God, was glad, and [c]exhorted them all, that with purpose of heart they would [f]cleave unto the Lord.

24 For he was a good man, and full of the Hō'lȳ Ghōst and of faith: and much people was added unto the Lord.

25 Then departed Bär'na-bās to Tär'sus, for to [g]seek Saul:

26 And when he had found him, he brought him unto An'tĭ-ŏch. And it came to pass, that a whole year they assembled themselves with the church, and taught much people. And the disciples were [h]called Chrĭs'tianş first in An'tĭ-ŏch.

5 First prophets of the church (Acts 13:1; 21:10-11)

27 ¶ And in these days came [i]prophets from Jē-rų'sā-lĕm unto An'tĭ-ŏch.

6 First relief work for the poor saints at Jerusalem (Gal. 2:10; 2 Cor. 8-9)

29 Then the disciples, every man according to his ability, determined to send relief unto the brethren which dwelt in Jū-dæ'á:

30 Which also they did, and sent it to the [l]elders by the hands of Bär'na-bās and Saul.

b This was the original church, the mother church of Christianity
c The early church began to send forth qualified ministers but only in co-operation with the Holy Ghost who directed all things (v 22; 8:29, 39; 10:19; 11:12; 13:2-4; 15:28; 16:7; 20:28; 21:11)

f Gr. prosmeno, abide with. Here: 18:18; Mt. 15:32; Mk. 8:2; 1 Tim. 1:3; 5:5. Why exhort to do this if there is no danger of being separated from God?
g Persecution drove Paul home (9:29-30). Now his training in schools of Greek philosophy, his eloquence, and logic were needed among the polished scholars of Antioch, capital of Syria and third city of importance in all the Roman empire, Rome and Alexandria alone being more eminent h The name means Christlike. Regardless of who started it the name has remained as the best one for followers of Christ. Its use here: 26:28; 1 Pet. 4:16 indicates the Holy Spirit considers it the highest name human beings can bear upon earth i Prophets were those who spoke for God (Heb. 1:1; Acts 3:21). They were primarily preachers of righteousness (Acts 15:32; 1 Cor. 14:3), but sometimes foretold the future (Acts 11:28; 21:10; Lk. 24:44). Prophecy was one of the gifts of the Spirit (1 Cor. 12:4-11, 28) and those who had and exercised this gift were prophets (Eph. 4:11; Acts 11:27; 13:1). Directions for the exercise of this gift are found in 1 Cor. 14. The office was next in importance to apostles (Eph. 4:11; 1 Cor. 12:28). See notes, 1 Sam. 19:20; 2 Chr. 9:29

k 7th N.T. prophecy in Acts (11:28). Next, 13:11. This drouth must be understood to refer to Judea. The disciples so understood it in v 29-30, for no preparations were made for themselves in Antioch or other parts of the world. If there had been a drouth in other places why send relief only to Judea? A famine in the 4th year of Claudius Caesar (4th Roman Emperor) particularly affected Judea (Josephus, Ant. book 20, ch. 2, 5). The word "world" is used in a limited sense. a Gr. tetradion, a body of four. Only here. Four soldiers guarded him for each of the four watches. He was chained to two and guarded by two others (v 6)

b Gr. pascha, the Passover, as trans. in 26 other places (Mt. 26:2-19; Mk. 14:1-16; Lk. 2:41; 22:1-15; Jn. 2:13, 23; 6:4; 11:55; 12:1; 13:1; 18:28, 39; 19:14; 1 Cor. 5:7; Heb. 11:28)

This is an unfortunate and absurd trans., as Easter was a pagan festival observed long before Christ. It is not a Christian name, but is derived from Ishtar, one of the Babylonian titles of an idol goddess, the Queen of Heaven. The Saxon goddess Eastre is the same as the Astarte, the Syrian Venus, called Ashtoreth in the O. T. It was the worship of this woman by Israel that was such an abomination to God (1 Sam. 7:3; 1 Ki. 11:5, 33; 2 Ki. 23:13; Jer. 7:18; 44:18). Round cakes, imprinted with the sign of the cross were made at this festival, the sign being, in the Babylonian mysteries, a sign of life

Easter eggs which play a great part in this day's celebration were common in all heathen nations. The fable of the egg declares that "an egg of wondrous size fell from heaven into the river Euphrates; the fish rolled it to the bank, where doves settled upon it and hatched it; and out came Astarte, or Ishtar, the goddess of Easter."

Easter, Christmas, Lady Day, Lent, and other Babylonian festivals were all borrowed from this religion and were all observed centuries before Christ. None of them have any relationship to Christ or Christianity

Paul and Barnabas took him on the first missionary journey but he got home sick and left the party (12:25; 13:5,13). Paul and Barnabas separated over Mark when they started on the second missionary journey (Acts 15:33-39). He was a convert of Peter (1 Pet. 5:13). He later worked with Paul (Col. 4:10-11; 2 Tim. 4:11; Phm. 24)

m Gr. mainomai. Here; 26:24-25; Jn. 10:20; 1 Cor. 14:23. They were praying constantly for Peter's release and yet could not believe it when prayer was answered (v 15-16)

n Jews believed in guardian angels, so they concluded that this was what was knocking- Peter's angel. However, they seemed in no hurry to let his angel in o It was always customary to know the identity of a person before admitting him. If it was a friend, the door keeper announced it to the master of the house getting permission to open the door. In this case, the doors were doubly guarded with care for fear of the Jews (Jn. 20:19)

p Gr. existemi (2:7; 8:13; 8:21; 10:45) q The action indicates that he was in a hurry and must not be interrupted. He wanted to leave the news of his deliverance before departing from Herod's tyranny. He went back to some unknown destination four quaternions of soldiers to keep him; intending after Eastertide to bring him forth to the people.

3 Continual prayer by the church for Peter's deliverance

5 Peter therefore was kept in prison: but prayer was made without ceasing of the church unto God for him.

6 And when Herod would have brought him forth, the same night Peter was sleeping between two soldiers, bound with two chains: and the keepers before the door kept the prison.

4 Peter's miraculous deliverance from chains and prison

7 And, behold, the angel of the Lord came upon him, and a light shined in the prison: and he smote Peter on the side, and raised him up, saying, Arise up quickly. And his chains fell off from his hands.

8 And the angel said unto him, Gird thyself, and bind on thy sandals. And so he did. And he saith unto him, Cast thy garment about thee, and follow me.

9 And he went out, and followed him; and wist not that it was true which was done by the angel; but thought he saw a vision.

10 When they were past the first and the second ward, they came unto the iron gate that leadeth unto the city; which opened to them of his own accord: and they went out, and passed on through one street; and forthwith the angel departed from him.

11 And when Peter was come to himself, he said, Now I know of a surety, that the Lord hath sent his angel, and hath delivered me out of the hand of Herod, and from all the expectation of the people of the Jews.

5 Unbelief in answered prayer

12 And when he had considered the thing, he came to the house of Mary the mother of John, whose surname was Mark; where many were gathered together praying.

13 And as Peter knocked at the door of the gate, a damsel came to hearken, named Rhoda.

14 And when she knew Peter's voice, she opened not the gate for gladness, but ran in, and told how Peter stood before the gate.

15 And they said unto her, Thou art mad. But she constantly affirmed that it was even so. Then said they, It is his angel.

16 But Peter continued knocking: and when they had opened the door, and saw him, they were astonished.

17 But he, beckoning unto them with the hand to hold their peace, declared unto them how the Lord had brought him out of the prison. And he said, Go shew these things unto James, and to the brethren. And he departed, and went into another place.

6 Herod's wrath on the jailers

18 Now as soon as it was day, there was no small stir among the soldiers, what was become of Peter.

19 And when Herod had sought for him, and found him not, he examined the keepers, and commanded that they should be put to death. And he went down from Judæa to Cæsarea, and there abode.

7 The death of Herod

20 ¶ And Herod was highly displeased with them of Tyre and Sidon: but they came with one accord to him, and, having made Blastus the king's chamberlain their friend, desired peace; because their country was nourished by the king's country.

21 And upon a set day Herod, arrayed in royal apparel, sat upon his throne, and made an oration unto them.

22 And the people gave a shout, saying, It is the voice of a god, and not of a man.

23 And immediately the angel of the Lord smote him, because he gave not God the glory: and he was eaten of worms, and gave up the ghost.

8 Paul and Barnabas return from their relief mission (11:29)

24 ¶ But the word of God grew and multiplied.

25 And Barnabas and Saul returned from Jerusalem, when they had fulfilled their ministry, and took with them John, whose surname was Mark.

CHAPTER 13 102

IX Paul's first missionary journey (Acts 13:1-14:28. Cp. 15:35; 18:23). 1 Called by the Spirit

NOW there were in the church that was at Antioch certain prophets and teachers; as Barnabas, and Simeon that was called Niger, and Lucius of Cyrene, and Manaen, which had been brought up with Herod the tetrarch, and Saul.

2 As they ministered to the Lord, and fasted, the Holy Ghost said, Separate me Barnabas and Saul for the work whereunto I have called them.

2 Paul and Barnabas are sent by the Holy Spirit and the church as missionaries to the Jews (Cp. Mt. 4:17; 10:6; 15:24; Rom. 1:16)

3 And when they had fasted and prayed, and laid their hands

g Tyre and Sidon were equal subjects of the Romans with the inhabitants of Galilee, so Herod could not go to war with them. Being irritated by them he could cut off supplies from Galilee and other countries under him. Tyre and Sidon were trading centers and could not exist without provisions from surrounding countries, so they made peace with Herod h Made a political speech which was hailed by the people and exalted Herod. He took glory that belonged to God i Herod did not rebuke the people for this, so was smitten by an angel. Josephus says, "He fell into the deepest sorrow; a severe pain also arose in his bowels, and he died after five days of illness" (Josephus, book 19, ch. 8, 2). Thus Peter's dreaded enemy was dead, so that he could go about again in Herod's territory without fear (v 1-17)

t Gr. leitourgeo, to serve at one's own expense; to render public service; to perform a work; to minister. The same word is used of the daily ministration of the priests in Mosaic worship (Heb. 10:11). Leitourgia is used of the service of priests in prayer and sacrifice (Lk. 1:23; Heb. 8:6; 9:21) and of the relief of the poor (2 Cor. 9:12; Phil. 2:30). The same idea is used of angels executing God's will to saints (Heb. 1:14). A Leitourgos was a public minister or servant. In religion, one busy with holy things (Heb. 8:2; Rom. 15:16; Heb. 1:7; Phil. 2:25). Thus, ministering to the Lord means that one is performing services for others in the Lord's stead (2 Cor. 5:20; Phil. 2:17). Relief of the needy is called lending to the Lord (Pr. 19:17). Here, the prophets and teachers were fasting and ministering in Christ's stead to the people in teaching, praying, healing the sick, saving souls, relieving the poor u On Mondays and Thursdays pious Jews fasted and attended worship, but how often or how long Christians fasted is not known. On Sabbaths, Jews also attended worship but did not fast

v How the Holy Ghost said is not stated. See 8 ways God speaks to men: p. 157

w Gr. aphorizo, to mark off from others by boundaries (Mt. 13:49; 25:32; Lk. 6:22; Acts 19:9; Gal. 2:12); to set apart for a specific purpose or work (Acts 13:2; Rom. 1:1; Gal. 1:15); and to live separated from sin (2 Cor. 6:17)

4 ¶ So they, [r]being sent forth by the Hō'lȳ Ghōst, [s]departed unto Sĕ-leū'çĭ-ā; and from thence they sailed to Çȳ'prus.

5 And when they were at Săl'a-mĭs, they [r]preached the word of God in the [d]synagogues of the Jews: and they had also [e]John to their minister.

3 Miracle of blindness at Paphos on the Isle of Cyprus

6 And when they had gone through the isle unto [f]Pā'phos, they found a certain [g]sorcerer, [h]a false prophet, a Jew, whose name was [i]Bär-jē'sus:

7 Which was with the [j]deputy of the country, Sēr'gĭ-ŭs Paū'lus, a prudent man; who called for Bär'na-bās and Saul, and desired to hear the word of God.

8 But [k]Ĕl'ў-mās the sorcerer (for so is his name by interpretation) withstood them, seeking to turn away the deputy from the faith.

9 Then Saul, (who also is called [l]Paul,) filled with the Hō'lў Ghōst, set his eyes on him,

10 And said, O full of [m]all subtilty and all mischief, thou child of the devil, thou enemy of all righteousness, [n]wilt thou not cease to pervert the right ways of the Lord?

★11 [o]And now, behold, the hand of the Lord is upon thee, and thou shalt be blind, not seeing the sun for a season. And immediately there fell on him a mist and a darkness; and he went about seeking some to lead him by the hand.

6 Paul's sermon at Antioch. Theme: salvation by faith (Cp. Acts 10:34). (1) Exodus of Egypt and settlement in Canaan (Ex. 12:1-19:2; Josh. 6-22)

16 Then Paul stood up, and beckoning with his hand said, Men of [u]Ĭs'ra-el, and ye that fear God, give audience.

17 The God of this people of Ĭs'ra-el chose our fathers, and exalted the people when they dwelt as strangers in the land of Ē'gўpt, and with an high arm brought he them out of it.

18 [v]And about the time of forty years suffered he their manners in the wilderness.

19 And when he had destroyed [w]seven nations in the land of Chā'nāan, he [x]divided their land to them by lot.

(2) Period of the judges and the reign of Saul (Jdg. 2:16-1 Sam. 31:13)

20 And after that he gave unto them [y]judges about the space of four hundred and fifty years, [z]until Săm'u-el the prophet.

21 And afterward they desired a [a]king: and God gave unto them Saul the son of Çĭs, a man of the tribe of Bĕn'ja-mĭn, by the space of forty years.

(3) Jesus the seed of David (Mt. 1:1-17; Lk. 3:23-38)

22 And when he had removed him, he raised up unto them Dā'vid to be their king; to whom also he gave testimony, and said, [b]I have found Dā'vid the son of Jĕs'se, a man [c]after mine own heart, which shall fulfil all my will.

▸23 Of this man's [d]seed hath God according to his [e]promise raised unto Ĭs'ra-el a Saviour, Jē'şus:

(4) John the Baptist the forerunner of Jesus (Mt. 3)

24 When Jōhn had first preached before his coming the [f]baptism of repentance to all the people of Ĭs'ra-el.

25 And as Jōhn fulfilled his course, he said, [g]Whom think ye that I am? I am not he. [h]But, behold, there cometh one after me, whose shoes of his feet I am not worthy to loose.

(5) Crucifixion of Jesus fulfilled the prophets (Isa. 53; Ps. 22)

▸26 Men and brethren, children of the stock of A'brā-hām, and whosoever among you feareth God, to you is the [i]word of this salvation sent.

27 For they that dwell at Jĕ-rų'sā-lĕm, and their rulers, [j]because they knew him not, nor yet the voices of the prophets which are read every sabbath day, they have fulfilled them in condemning him.

28 And though they found no cause of death in him, yet desired they Pī'late that he should be slain.

29 And when they had fulfilled all that was written of him, they took him down from the tree, and laid him in a sepulchre.

(6) Jesus' resurrection proved by many witnesses

a For the details of this sermon see note c, v 5. The terms Jews and Israel are used interchangeably in all the N. T. and after the captivity of the ten tribes in 2 Ki. 17. The term Jew is used but one time in the Bible before this (2 Ki. 16:6). It is used 19 times in the O. T. outside of Ezra, Nehemiah, and Esther. It is used 53 times in Esther. The ten-tribe kingdom was destroyed in 749 B.C. and Judah and all others of the twelve tribes living in Judah became representative of all Israel. The term Jew became the equivalent to Israelite and this is the way it is used in Scripture. It is used 91 times in the O. T. and 202 times in the N. T. Not one scripture says that Jews and Israelites were two distinct classes of people. Jews were not only of Judah (Esther 2:5; Acts 21:39; Phil. 3:5). Only Jews and Gentiles are contrasted in Scripture as being of two distinct classes (Rom. 2:9; 3:9; 9:24; 1 Cor. 10:32; 12:13). The term Israel is found in Scripture 1280 times before the division of the twelve tribes, and 1069 times after the ten-tribe kingdom was destroyed. It is used only 257 times while the kingdom was divided. The reason the ten-tribe kingdom is sometimes called "house of Israel" and the two-tribe kingdom "house of Judah" during the division is to distinguish between them and because the northern kingdom consisted of the greater portion of Israel. The division did not make the two tribes Jews and less Israelite than they were before. All tribes are still Jews and Israelites (Mt. 19:28; Lk. 22:30; Acts 26:7; Rev. 7:4; 21:12)

During the division, the godly of the ten tribes remained true to David and helped make the kingdom of Judah (1 Ki. 12:17-23; 2 Chr. 11:5-17; 10:17; 15:9; 16:1-6; 30:1-11). The ten tribes continually came back to Judah and became part of that kingdom (1 Chr. 9:3; 2 Chr. 10:17; 11:3-17; 15:9; 16:1; 19:8; 23:2; 29:24; 30:1-25; 31:6; 35:17-18). Captives from Babylon are called "all Israel" (Ezra 2:2, 59, 70; 3:1; 6:21; 7:10-13; 8:25; 9:1; 10:1-5, 10, 25; Neh. 2:10; 7:7, 61, 73; 8:17; 10:33; 11:3; 12:47). All Israelites are called Jews during the captivity (Esther 2:5; 3:4-6; 5:13; 6:10; 8:7-17; 9:1-32; 10:1-3)

The terms "fathers of Judah and Benjamin" (Ezra 1:5); "fathers of Israel" (Ezra 4:3; 8:29); "elders of the Jews" (Ezra 5:5; 6:7, 8, 14); and "children of Israel" (Ezra 6:21; 7:7, 10, 13, 28; 9:1; 10:5) are used of the same returning captives. In Ezra and Nehemiah the returning captives are called "Jews" 18 times; "Israel" 62 times; and "Judah" 43 times

In the 17 prophetical books (excluding Amos and Hosea to the ten tribes and Micah to both kingdoms) written to Judah the term "Israel" is used 423 times and "Jews" 16 times of the same people

In the N. T. the term "Israel" is used 79 times and "Jew" 202 times of the same people

Both houses of Israel are to come back from the nations in the last days and be blessed under the Messiah (Jer. 3:18; 23:5-8; 31:27-34; 33:14-18; Ezek. 28:25-26; 36:21-38; 37:1-28; 39:25-29; 43:7; 45:6-17; Zech. 8:13-23)

One honest study of these words in both testaments proves that the Anglo-Saxon or British-Israel theory of making a distinction between Israel and Jews and making Anglo-Saxons the ten so-called lost tribes is false

f 14th O. T. prophecy fulfilled in Acts (13:33; Ps. 2:7). Next, v 34. This refers to the incarnation when the second person of the Divine Trinity took a human body to redeem (Phil. 2:5-11; Isa. 7:14; 9:6). It was when God had a Son through Mary (Mt. 1:18-25; Lk. 1:35; Jn. 1:14). This happened on a certain day, "THIS DAY have I begotten thee" (Heb. 1:5-7), and therefore, we cannot say that God had a Son before this time. This proves that sonship in connection with God had to refer to humanity and not to deity

As God the person we now know of as Jesus Christ had no beginning, was not begotten, was not a Son, and did not come into being. He always existed as God(Ps. 90:2; Mic. 5:2; Jn. 1:1-2; Heb. 1:8), but as man and as God's Son He was not eternal, He did have a beginning. He was begotten, this being the same time Mary had a Son. Therefore, the doctrine of eternal sonship of Jesus Christ is irreconcilable to reason, is unscriptural, and is contradictory to itself. Eternity has no beginning, so if He has been God from eternity, then He could not have a beginning as God. Eternity has no reference to time, so if He was begotten "THIS DAY," then it was done in time and not in eternity

The word Son supposes time, generation, father, mother, beginning, and conception - unless one is a son by creation, as Adam (Lk. 3:38), and angels (Job 1:6; 2:1; 38:7; Gen. 6:1-4). Time, created, beginning, are opposites to God and eternity and are absolutely impossible to reconcile with them. If sonship refers to deity, not to humanity, then this person of the Deity had a beginning in time and not in eternity. It is plainly stated in Ps. 2:7; Acts 13:33; Heb. 1:5; 5:5 that God had a Son "THIS DAY" and not in eternity. It is stated in Heb. 1:5-7; Lk. 1:35; Mt. 1:18-25 when this took place. It was something over 1900 years ago. It had been predicted that God would have a Son (Isa. 7:14; 9:6; Heb. 1:5; Mt. 1:18-25; Lk. 1:32-35). When the Virgin "conceived of the Holy Ghost" (Mt. 1:20), this was fulfilled, and not at any other time. To say that God had an eternal Son would mean He had two; but it is plainly stated that Jesus was "the only begotten of the Father" (Jn. 1:14, 18; 3:16-18; 1 Jn. 4:9)
g The Son born of God and Mary was not to see corruption in body. He was to be resurrected before seeing corruption (Ps. 16:10; Acts 2:24-27; 13:33; Lk. 24:39; Jn. 21:14, note). The idea here is that He should no more return to death or to the grave, the place of corruption h 15th O. T. prophecy fulfilled in Acts (13:34; Isa. 55:3; Ps. 16:10; 89:3-4, 20-24, 35-37). Next, v 35. The sure mercies of David are guaranteed by the resurrection of Christ. They refer to the mercies assured David by an everlasting king and kingdom (2 Sam. 7; Ps. 89:3-4, 28-36). The Resurrection guarantees even the terms of the new covenant (1 Cor. 15:9-23)
i 16th O. T. prophecy fulfilled in Acts (13:35; Ps. 16:10). Next, v 41
j Through Jesus is forgiveness of sins (Mt. 1:21; 26:28; Acts 2:38; 4:12; 13:38-39; Eph. 1:7; Col. 1:20; 1 Pet. 2:24)
k Faith in Christ and His atonement is what justifies (Jn. 3:15-20; Rom. 1:16; 3:24-31; 10:9-17; 1 Cor. 15:1-8)
l Faith in the law of Moses, or works by it, could not save the soul (Rom. 3:27-31; 4:1-6, 14-15; 9:11, 30-33; 11:5-6; Gal. 2:16; 3:1-14, 18-29; Eph. 2:8-9; Tit. 3:5). This is why there had to be a change in the law, or why it had to be abolished (2 Cor. 3:6-15; Gal. 3:19-25; 4:21-31; Heb. 7:10-28; 8:1-13)
m If you reject these benefits now freely offered to you in Christ, the judgments of God will come upon you. As God sent judgment upon your fathers by Babylon (Hab. 1:5-10), so now He will send judgment upon you by Rome (Lk. 21:20-24)

★33 God hath fulfilled the same unto us their children, in that he hath raised up Jĕ'sus again; as it is also written in the second psalm, [f]Thou art my Son, this day have I begotten thee.

★34 And as concerning that he raised him up from the dead, now no more to return to [g]corruption, he said on this wise, [h]I will give you the sure mercies of Dă'vid.

★35 Wherefore he saith also in another psalm, [i]Thou shalt not suffer thine Holy One to see corruption.

36 For Dă'vid, after he had served his own generation by the will of God, fell on sleep, and was laid unto his fathers, and saw corruption:

37 But he, whom God raised again, saw no corruption.

7 Result of Paul's sermon at Antioch in Pisidia (13:14-21)

42 And when the Jews were gone out of the synagogue, [q]the Gĕn'tiles besought that these words might be preached to them the next sabbath.

43 Now when the congregation was broken up, many of the Jews and religious proselytes followed Paul and Bär'na-bas: who, speaking to them, [r]persuaded them to continue in the grace of God.

8 Opposition by the Jews

44 ¶ And the next sabbath day came almost the whole city together to hear the word of God.

45 But when the Jews saw the multitudes, they were [s]filled with envy, and spake against those things which were spoken by Paul, [t]contradicting and blaspheming.

9 First turn to Gentiles: founding of a church by Antioch (Cp. 18:6; 28:28; 13:4, refs.)

46 Then Paul and Bär'na-bas [u]waxed bold, and said, It was necessary that the word of God should [v]first have been spoken to you: but seeing ye [w]put it from you, and judge yourselves unworthy of everlasting life, lo, [x]we turn to the Gĕn'tiles.

★47 For so hath the Lord commanded us, saying, [y]I have set thee to be a light of the Gĕn'tiles, that thou shouldest be for salvation unto the ends of the earth.◂

48 And when the Gĕn'tiles heard this, they were glad, and glorified the word of the Lord: and as many as were [z]ordained to eternal life believed.

49 And the word of the Lord was [aa]published throughout all the region.

10 Paul and Barnabas expelled from Antioch in Pisidia (13:14)

50 But the Jews stirred up the [ab]devout and honourable women, and the chief men of the city, and raised persecution against Paul and Bär'na-bas, and expelled them out of their coasts.

51 But they [ac]shook off the dust of their feet against them, and came unto [ad]Ĭ-cō'nĭ-ŭm.

52 And the disciples [ae]were filled with joy, and with the Hō'lў Ghōst.

CHAPTER 14 103

11 Founding of a church in Iconium

AND it came to pass in Ĭ-cō'nĭ-ŭm, that they went both together into the synagogue of the Jews, and [af]so spake, that a great multitude both of the Jews and also of the Greeks believed.

2 But the unbelieving Jews stirred up the Gĕn'tiles, and made their minds [ag]evil affected against the brethren.

3 Long time therefore abode they speaking [ah]boldly in the Lord, which gave testimony unto the word of his grace, [ai]and granted signs and wonders to be done by their hands.

4 But the multitude of the city was divided: and part held with the Jews, and part with the apostles.

5 And when there was [aj]an assault made both of the Gĕn'tiles, and also of the Jews with their rulers, to use them despitefully, and to stone them, h Gr. tasso, Trans. ordain (Acts 13:48; Rom. 13:1); set (Lk. 7:8); appoint (Mt. 28:16; Acts 22:10; 28:23); determine (Acts 15:2); addict (1 Cor. 16:15). The simple meaning is that God has appointed and provided eternal life for all who will believe (Jn. 3:15-20; Rom. 1:16; 10:9-10; 1 Tim. 2:4; 2 Pet. 3:9; Rev. 22:17). It could not mean that by God's predetermined decree certain ones are to be saved and others are to be lost simply upon the basis of His own choice. Predestination is never that of individual conformity of the will to salvation without man's choice, but rather that God has predestined a plan that all who conform will be saved and all who do not will be damned. It is the plan, not the act of the will that is predestined. The Jews who rebelled here failed to meet the terms of being appointed to eternal life, while the believing Jews and Gentiles who gladly accepted the terms of the gospel were appointed to the blessings promised all who will believe s 17th O. T. prophecy fulfilled in Acts (13:41; Hab. 1:5). Next, v 47

t Gr. aphanizo, to snatch out of sight. Rather, hide yourselves through terror of your enemies. Used in Mt. 6:16, 19-20; Acts 13:41; Jas. 4:14. This was fulfilled, 70 A. D. u This explains the work of the destruction of Jerusalem and of the nation soon to be fulfilled in 70 A. D. (Mt. 24:2; Lk. 19:41-44; 21:20-24; Dan. 9:26). This does not refer to a spiritual revival in Israel, as some hold, for Hab. 1:5-10 refers to destruction, not revival v It seems that the rebellious Jews left the synagogue before the Gentile proselytes (v 43) and believing Jews requested they speak the next sabbath. Then they all left, following Paul to hear his exhortation (v 42-43)
w This is foolish if there is no possibility of failure in the grace of God (Gal. 1:6; 5:4; Heb. 12:15) a Aware. They were informed of the plot to stone them so they fled, not from fear, but to live to continue the work (Mt. 10:23)

b At Iconium the inhabitants consisted of Greeks, a powerful Jewish colony, Roman officials, and a few natives of the country, but the inhabitants of Lystra and Derbe were mainly rude idolaters who were natives. Hence, the difference in the reception of the apostles in the different places.
c He discerned he believed the gospel and had faith to be healed. Paul evidently had all the gifts of the Holy Spirit of 1 Cor. 12:4–11. See p. 143
d This is a normal N. T. healing, the kind that Jesus Christ and the early church produced (note b, Mt. 13:58; Acts 3:6–9; 5:16; 6:8; 8:7; 9:18, 34; 19:11)
e This was not the Greek language. What kind it was is not known to us today f Regardless of how low heathen rated the divine nature they still held it to be different from that of man. They imagined that many times gods would take the form of man to punish evil or reward good deeds. These natives were no doubt familiar with the legends that Jupiter and Mercury made a visit to an aged couple, Philemon and Baucis, in the neighboring province of Phyrgia, and that they were supposed to have come down to visit Lycaon, from whence the Lycaonians derived their name. In the works of Ovid, Homer, Virgil, and other poets there are many such visitations described. These no doubt are corruptions of the many angelic appearances to men recorded in Scripture. Jupiter and Mercury were the gods that were supposed to visit men more than others. Jupiter is pictured as large and aged, and Mercury as small, young, and eloquent of speech. Paul and Barnabas resembling them, together with the healing, all the more convinced the natives of another visit from the gods g In from of the city gate stood a temple of Jupiter and his priest started to make a sacrifice to the apostles. It was customary for the poor and lame to sit near the doors of synagogues and temples to ask alms. Here is perhaps where the man was healed h Garlands of flowers were placed on the horns of animals to be sacrificed or on the idols at the place of sacrifice.
i Question 46, Next, 15:10
j We are only human beings as you are k 5 main points of Paul's sermon:
1 Be converted – turn from idols (v 15)
2 Turn to the living God (v 15)
3 God created all things (v 15)
4 God is longsuffering to sinners (v 16)
5 Providence of God (v 17)
This was bold preaching in the face of a heathen mob intent on performing superstitious worship which they considered to be a divine and civil necessity. This made the mob an easy prey to the Jews who appeared on the scene at this point and stirred up the people to stone the apostles (v 19–20) l Gr. matalos, vain things. Only here; 1 Cor. 3:20; 15:17; Tit. 3:9; Jas. 1:26; 1 Pet. 1:18 m Used 15 times in the O. T. (Dt. 5:26; Josh. 3:10; 1 Sam. 17:26, 36; 2 Ki. 19:4, 16; Ps. 42:2; 84:2; Isa. 37:4, 17; Jer. 10:10; 23:36; Dan. 6:20, 26; Hos. 1:10) and 16 times in the N. T. (Mt. 16:16; 26:63; Jn. 6:69; Acts 14:15; Rom. 9:26; 2 Cor. 3:3; 6:16; 1 Th. 1:9; 1 Tim. 3:15; 4:10; 6:17; Heb. 3:12; 9:14; 10:31; 12:22; Rev. 7:2). The term "the living Father" is used once (Jn. 6:57). All these passages contrast with lifeless idols n God tolerated past ignorance, but now He demands men to repent (Acts 17:30)
o This is a clear demonstration of the changeableness of people p The disciples no doubt prayed earnestly for Paul to be healed and so he was resurrected from the dead (v 19–20)
q Gr. anistemi, to stand up, rise again, and is used 111 times; 40 times of resurrection (Mt. 12:41; 17:9; 20:19; Mk. 8:31; 9:9, 31; 10:34; 12:23–26; Lk. 9:8, 19; 11:32; 16:31; 18:33; 24:7, 46; Jn. 6:39–40, 44, 54; 11:23–24; 20:9; Acts 2:24, 30, 32; 3:26; 10:41; 13:33–34; 14:20; 17:3, 31; Rom. 14:9; 15:12; Eph. 5:14; 1 Th. 4:14, 16). This goes far in proving that Paul was dead and resurrected here

a church founded

6 They were[a] ware of it, and fled unto [b]Lȳs'trȧ and Dĕr'bē, cities of Lȳc-a-ō'nĭ-ȧ, and unto the region that lieth round about:

7 And there they preached the gospel.

8 ¶ And there sat a certain man at Lȳs'trȧ, impotent in his feet, being a cripple from his mother's womb, who never had walked:

9 The same heard Paul speak: who stedfastly beholding him, and [c]perceiving that he had faith to be healed,

10 Said with a loud voice, Stand upright on thy feet. And he[d] leaped and walked.

13 Apostles refuse worship of pagans who took them for gods

11 And when the people saw what Paul had done, they lifted up their voices, saying in[e] the speech of Lȳc-a-ō'nĭ-ȧ, [f]The gods are come down to us in the likeness of men.

12 And they called Bär'na-bȧs, Jū'pĭ-tĕr; and Paul, Mĕr-cū'rĭ-ŭs, because he was the chief speaker.

13 Then the priest of Jū'pĭ-tĕr, which was [g]before their city, brought oxen and[h] garlands unto the gates, and would have done sacrifice with the people.

14 Which when the apostles, Bär'na-bȧs and Paul, heard of, they rent their clothes, and ran in among the people, crying out,

15 And saying, Sirs, [i]why do ye these things? We also are men of [j]like passions with you, and [k]preach unto you that ye should turn from these [l]vanities unto the [m]living God, which made heaven, and earth, and the sea, and all things that are therein:

16 Who in[n] times past suffered all nations to walk in their own ways.

17 Nevertheless he left not himself without witness, in that he did good, and gave us rain from heaven, and fruitful seasons, filling our hearts with food and gladness.

18 And with these sayings scarce restrained they the people, that they had not done sacrifice unto them.

14 Paul is stoned and dragged out of the city as dead. He is healed and departs for Derbe

19 ¶ And there came thither certain Jews from Ăn'tĭ-ŏch and Ī-cō'nĭ-ŭm, who[o] persuaded the people, and, having stoned Paul, drew him out of the city, supposing he had been dead.

20 Howbeit, as the [p]disciples stood round about him, he[q] rose up, and came into the city: and the next day he departed with Bär'na-bȧs to Dĕr'bē.

15 Return to Lystra, Iconium, and Antioch in Pisidia. Elders ordained in every church. Cp. 1:22; Tit. 1:5

21 And when they had preached the gospel to that city, and had [r]taught many, they[s] returned again to Lȳs'trȧ, and to Ī-cō'nĭ-ŭm, and Ăn'tĭ-ŏch,

22 [t]Confirming the souls of the disciples, and exhorting them to [u]continue in the faith, and that we must through much tribulation enter into the[v] kingdom of God.

23 And when they had [w]ordained them [x]elders in every church, and [y]had prayed with fasting, they [z]commended them to the Lord, on whom they believed.

16 Return to Perga, Attalia, and then back to Antioch in Syria completing the first missionary journey begun in Acts 13:1

24 And after they had passed throughout Pĭ-sĭd'ĭ-ȧ, they came to Păm-phȳ'lĭ-ȧ.

25 And when they had preached the word in Pĕr'gȧ, they went down into Ăt-tȧ'lĭ-ȧ:

26 And thence sailed to [aa]Ăn'tĭ-ŏch, from whence they had been recommended to the grace of God for the work which they fulfilled.

17 Report to the church on the first missionary journey

27 And when they were come, and had gathered the church together, they [ab]rehearsed all that God had done with them, and how [ac]he had opened the door of faith unto the Gĕn'tīles.

28 And there they abode[ad] long time with the disciples.

104 CHAPTER 15

X First general council of Christians. 1 Question of law keeping (v 5, 10, 19–21, 24–28; Col. 2:14–17)

AND[ae] certain men which came down from Jū-dæ'ȧ taught the brethren, and said, [af]Except ye be circumcised after the manner of Mō'sĕs, ye cannot be saved.

2 When therefore Paul and Bär'na-bȧs had no small dissension and disputation with them, [ag]they [ah]determined that Paul and Bär'na-bȧs, and certain other of them, should go up to Jĕ-rų'sȧ-lĕm unto the apostles and elders about this question.

2 Paul and Barnabas sent as delegates from Antioch in Syria

3 [ai]And being brought on their way by the church, they passed through Phē-nī'çē and Sā-mā'rĭ-ȧ, [aj]declaring the [ak]conversion of the Gĕn'tīles: and they caused great joy unto all the brethren.

4 And when they were come to Jĕ-rų'sȧ-lĕm, they were received of the church, and of the apostles and elders, and they a Gr. matheteno, make disciples. Here: Mt. 13:52; 27:57; 28:19, note a, 2 b This was Antioch, Syria (note b, 13:4) c Gr. episterizo, to give one something to lean on; confirm (14:22; 15:32, 41; 18:23) d Gr. emmeno, abide in; stand by; continue in (v 22; Gal. 3:10; Heb. 8:9) 10 things to continue in:

1 well doing (Rom. 2:7)
2 Following the Lord (1 Sam. 12:14)
3 The Word of God (Jn. 8:31)
4 Christ's love (Jn. 15:9; 1 Tim. 2:15)
5 The grace of God (Acts 13:43)
6 The faith (Acts 14:22; Col. 1:23)
7 God's goodness (Rom. 11:22)
8 Prayer (Col. 4:2)
9 Sound doctrines (1 Tim. 4:16; 2 Tim. 3:14)
10 The Son and the Father (1 Jn. 2:24)
"If" we do these things we are blessed and if not, then we are cursed. God cannot lay down the conditions upon which He will bless us, then ignore them and bless if the conditions are not met e Note j, Mt. 4:17; note e, Mt. 13:24
f Gr. chirotoneo, chosen. Only here and 2 Cor. 8:19. Not the same as in 13:48. The idea is that of electing men to be elders. This was done by the local church. Here the apostles evidently had charge of the elections. It does not imply the laying on of hands to ordain in the sense we ordain ministers. This perhaps was done after the elections. The Gr. word signifies the holding up or stretching out the hand, as approving the choice of one for a particular work g Gr. presbuteros, elder. The word elders in the O. T. meant the heads or rulers of the tribes, cities, and nations (see note, Dt. 1:13). In the Gospels and Acts it generally refers to the Sanhedrin (Mt. 15:2; 16:21; 21:23; 26:3; Acts 4:5, 8, 23). In the early church elders were the ministers and deacons, or preaching elders and business elders of the local churches (Acts 11:30; 14:23; 16:4; 20:17, 28; 21:18; 1 Tim. 5:17; Tit. 1:5; Jas. 5:14). Apostles were elders (Acts 11:30; 1 Pet. 5:1; 2 Jn. 1; 3 Jn. 1), but all elders were not apostles (Acts 15:2, 4, 6, 22, 23; 16:4). The elders of Acts 20:17 were the overseers of 20:28. The elders of 1 Tim. 5:17; Tit. 1:5–10; 1 Pet. 5:1–2 were preaching elders or bishops. The business elders were deacons (Acts 6). Bishops and deacons are mentioned in Phil. 1:1; 1 Tim. 3:1–13. See notes d and e, Mt. 20:26–27; note t, Acts 20:28.
The word presbuteros is also used of older men and women (Lk. 15:25; Jn. 8:9; Acts 2:17; 4:22; 1 Tim. 5:2). It is used also of heavenly ranks (Rev. 4:4, 10; 5:6, 8, 11, 14; 7:11, 13; 11:16; 14:3; 19:4). It is found 68 times and is trans. elder except in Jn. 8:9; Acts 2:17; 4:22
h This is the way elders were ordained l God opened the door of faith to the Gentiles, not Peter (v 27). No statement is ever made that Peter opened the door of faith to the Jews at Pentecost and to the Gentiles at the house of Cornelius (Mt. 16:19; 18:18, notes)

m Some think about 5 years n Disavowed by the apostles (v 24)
o First doctrinal controversy. This was settled at the conference in this chapter, but despite that many Christians, then as now, were drawn away from the simple Christian faith by the "law" fallacy. The whole church at Galatia went back under the law and were condemned by Paul (Gal. 1:6; 3:1–5; 5:4). Even Peter, Barnabas, and others were carried away with this false doctrine for awhile (Gal. 2:11–21). The law of Moses has been abolished and done away (2 Cor. 3:6–15); cast out (Gal. 4:21–31); abolished (Eph. 2:15); blotted out; taken out of the way (Col. 2:14–17); changed (Heb. 7:12); disannulled (Heb. 7:18); replaced; has vanished (Heb. 8:6–13; 10:9). c They believed but were lawkeepers
d This is not needful, as proved by the settlement of this question (v 19-28) Notes o, l, v 1, 24; Sunday, p. 191
e See note g, 14:23. This was the first general conference of the church and the third time Paul visited Jerusalem (9:26; 11:30) f Same as disputation (v 2). Tradition says that Corinthus was leader of the law-party and strove hard to unite the law and the gospel, and make the salvation promised by the gospel dependent upon the ceremonies of the law. The apostles and elders could have settled this question without so much disputing, but it was good to permit the objecting party free speech and to answer the arguments by proving such bondage useless, unscriptural, and impractical for Gentiles
g About 10 to 12 years before (Acts 10:20)
h This proves that Gentiles before Acts 10 had not been given the gospel (Acts 10:6, 22, 32-33; 11:13-14)
i God the heart-searcher (Jer. 17:10) j God is the one who considered the Gentiles fit to be saved. For God to bear witness is simply approving and setting His seal upon a thing. In this case, God gave the Gentiles the same Spirit baptism that He gave at Pentecost and made no difference between Jews and Gentiles in Christ (1 Cor. 12:13; Gal. 3:28; Col. 3:11). He did this without the Gentiles being circumcised or without sabbath and law keeping k See note j, Acts 10:46 l See note h, Jn. 13:11. This purifying the heart was immediate and took place "while Peter yet spake these words" (Acts 10:44-48). It always takes place at the new birth (2 Cor. 5:17-18; 2 Th. 2:13; 1 Jn. 1:9; 2:29; 3:5-10; 5:1-4, 18). There can be no such thing as becoming a new creature without heart purifying. The disciples had heart purity long before receiving the Spirit baptism at Pentecost (note h, Jn. 13:11; 15:3; 17:14-16). This is done by faith (Rom. 10:9-10; Eph. 2:8-9)
m Question 47, Next, 16:30 n Gr. peirazo, try, put to the test. Trans. tempt 27 times (Mt. 4:1; 16:1; 19:3; 22:18, 35; Mk. 1:13; 8:11; 10:2; 12:1; Lk. 4:2; 11:16; 22:23; Jn. 8:6; Acts 5:9; 15:10; 1 Cor. 7:5; 10:9, 13; Gal. 6:1; 1 Th. 3:5; Heb. 2:18; 3:9; 4:15; 11:37; Jas. 1:13-14); tempter (Mt. 4:3; 1 Th. 3:5); try (Heb. 11:17; Rev. 2:2, 10; 3:10); assay (Acts 16:7); go about (Acts 24:6); examine (2 Cor. 13:5); and prove (Jn. 6:6)
Since God is the one who saved and baptized the Gentiles with the Spirit without demanding of them to be circumcised and keep the law, then it is evident that He does not plan this for them - making them debtors to do the whole law (Gal. 5:3). Why will you insult God and provoke Him to judge you for resisting His will, ignoring His work, and denying the salvation of the Gentiles whom He has already saved without law-keeping? Are you going to undo what God has done?
o Not circumcision only, but the whole of the law that God did not give the Gentiles for 1800 years (Rom. 2:12-16). It was a "yoke of bondage" that no man was able to bear (v 10; Gal. 5:1). This is the thing that some people want today instead of the liberty in Christ (2 Cor. 3:6-17; Gal. 2:4; 5:1, 13) p This is why salvation cannot be of works (Rom. 3:23-31; 4:2, 6; 9:11; 11:6; Gal. 2:16; 3:2-14; Eph. 2:8-9; Tit. 3:5). This does not, however, mean that grace will remit sins without repentance and faith (Lk. 13:1-5; Eph. 2:8-9), or keep one automatically justified without walking and living in the Spirit (Rom. 6:14-23; 8:1-13; Gal. 5:16-26; Col. 1:6-7; 3:5-10; 1 Jn. 1:7). Neither does this mean that Jews are saved by the law and Gentiles by grace (v 11; Rom. 10:9-17; 1 Cor. 12:13; Gal. 3:28; Col. 3:11). These are the last words of Peter in Acts. See them used against him in Gal. 2:14-21
q Even as Gentiles, not the fathers of v 10 declared all things that God had done[q] with them.

3 Purpose of the council

5 But there rose up certain of the [b]sect of the Phär'ĭ-sees which[c] believed, saying, [d]That it was needful to circumcise them, and to command them to keep the law of Mō'ses.

6 ¶ And the apostles and [e]elders came together for to consider of this matter.

4 Peter's argument for Christian liberty - God blessed the Gentiles without law keeping

7 And when there had been much [f]disputing, Pē'tĕr rose up, and said unto them, Men and brethren, ye know how that [g]a good while ago God made choice among us, [h]that the Gĕn'tīles by my mouth should hear the word of the gospel, and believe.

8 And God, which [i]knoweth the hearts, [j]bare them witness, giving them the Hō'lў Ghōst, even as he did unto us;

9 And put no difference between us and them, [l]purifying their hearts by faith.

10 Now therefore [m]why [n]tempt ye God, to put [o]a yoke upon the neck of the disciples, which neither our fathers nor we were able to bear?

11 But we believe that through the [p]grace of the Lord Jĕ'sus Christ we shall be saved, [q]even as they.

5 Paul and Barnabas confirm God's word among Gentiles without the works of the law (Gal. 3:1-5)

12 ¶ Then all the [f]multitude kept silence, and [r]gave audience to Bär'na-bās and Paul, declaring what miracles and wonders God had wrought among the Gĕn'tīles by them.

6 James argues that the prophets agree on the salvation of Gentiles without the law (Rom. 3:21, refs.)

13 ¶ And after they had held their peace, [f]Jāmes answered, saying, Men and brethren, hearken unto me:

14 [s]Sīm'e-on hath declared how God [t]at the first did visit the Gĕn'tīles, to take out of them a people for his name.

15 [u]And to this agree the words of the prophets; as it is written,

16 [v]After this I will return, and will build again the [w]tabernacle of Dā'vid, which is fallen down; and I will build again the ruins thereof, and I will set it up:

17 That the [x]residue of men might seek after the Lord, and all the Gĕn'tīles, upon whom my name is called, saith the Lord, who doeth all these things.

18 [y]Known unto God are all his works from the beginning of the world.

7 Gentile Christians are not to be forced to keep the law (Rom. 3:21, refs.)

19 [z]Wherefore my sentence is, that we trouble not them, which from among the Gĕn'tīles are turned to God:

20 But that we write unto them, [a]that they abstain from pollutions of idols, and from fornication, and from things strangled, and from blood.

21 For Mō'ses of old time hath in every city them that preach [b]him, being read in the synagogues every sabbath day.

8 Unity of Christian doctrine reached without a split

22 Then pleased it the apostles and elders, with the [c]whole church, to send chosen men of their own company to Ăn'tĭ-ŏch with Paul and Bär'na-bās; namely, Jū'das surnamed [d]Bär'sa-bās, and [e]Sī'las, chief men among the brethren:

9 Statement of doctrine for Gentile Christians (Col. 2:14)

23 And they wrote letters by them after this manner; The apostles and elders and brethren send greeting unto the brethren which are of the Gĕn'tīles in Ăn'tĭ-ŏch and Sўr'ĭ-ā and Çĭ-lĭ'çĭā:

24 Forasmuch as we have heard, that certain which went out from us have troubled you with words, [f]subverting your souls, saying, [g]Ye must be circumcised, and keep the law: to whom [h]we gave no such commandment:

25 It seemed good unto us, being assembled with one accord, to send chosen men unto you with our beloved Bär'nabas and Paul,

26 Men that have hazarded their lives for the name of our Lord Jĕ'sus Christ.

27 We have sent therefore Jū'das and Sī'las, [i]who shall also tell you the same things by mouth.

28 For it [j]seemed good to the Hō'lў Ghōst, and to us, to lay upon you no greater burden than these [k]necessary things;

29 That ye abstain from meats offered to idols, and from blood, and from things strangled, and from fornication: from which if ye keep yourselves, ye shall do well. Fare ye well.

10 The epistle and exhortations cause great rejoicing

30 So when they were dismissed, they came to Ăn'tĭ-ŏch: and when they had gathered the multitude together, they delivered the epistle:

31 Which when they had read, they rejoiced for the consolation.

32 And Jū'das and Sī'las, being [l]prophets also themselves, exhorted the brethren with many words, and confirmed them.

33 And after they had tarried there a space, they were let go in peace from the brethren unto c 4 laws for Gentile Christians:

1 Abstain from pollutions of idols, Gr. apecho, abstain (v 20, 29; 1 Th. 4:3; 5:22; 1 Tim. 4:3; 1 Pet. 2:11). It literally means to have nothing to do with: stand aloof from idols, eating things offered to idols, and all immoral acts attendant on such festivals (v 20, 29; 1 Cor. 8:7-13; 10:18-22)
2 Abstain from fornication (v 20, 29). All uncleanness (homosexuality and other perversions) and prostitution which was so common at idol temples (Num. 25:1-15)
3 Abstain from things strangled (v 20, 29; 21:25). When animals were strangled the blood remained in their bodies contrary to Lev. 17:10-14, this being considered as making a greater delicacy
4 Abstain from blood (v 20, 29; 21:25; Gen. 9:4). This not only includes eating blood, but all cruelty and murder in its various forms

f Perhaps a brother of Barnabas (1:32)
g Called Silvanus (2 Cor. 1:19; 1 Th. 1:1; 2 Th. 1:1; 1 Pet. 5:12). A chief man in the church at Jerusalem (v 22). Becomes Paul's companion (Acts 15:40-41; 16:19-29; 17:4-15; 18:5). A prophet (Acts 15:27, 32-34). Takes Peter's letter to Asia Minor (1 Pet. 5:12)
h Unsettling your souls in your faith i Many commentators seem to have missed the full and simple truth about the law being abolished. They emphasize that it was not the moral law that was abolished, but the ceremonial law. The truth is, the entire law was abolished and only 9 of the 10 commandments were re-instated in the new covenant. See 10 reasons 4th commandment left out, p. 159
j We did not send the men that came to Antioch to disturb you (v 1) k They would confirm the fact that the letters were not forged l It pleased the Holy Ghost as well as the whole church to free Gentiles from the yoke of bondage in keeping the law of Moses m The things of note c, above, are the necessary ones to be observed by Christians (v 29)
n See note on 1 Sam. 19:20 s These apostles came forward as the next speakers to corroborate what Peter had said, by showing what God did for Gentiles without law-keeping t The next speaker was James, the Lord's brother, chairman of the conference, who gave the final sentence (v 19). See note b, 12:17; note d, Lk. 8:19 u James did not even address Peter by the name the Lord gave at the time he was supposed to be made head of the church and vicar of Christ (Mt. 16:18). Thus, James did not understand the Lord to have given Peter this pre-eminence, so did not call him Peter, but Simeon

w The prophets predicted the salvation of the Gentiles (Isa. 11:10; 42:1, 6; 49:6, 22; 60:3; 66:19; Rom. 9:25-33; Mal. 1:11; Amos 9:10-11)

After this, that is, after the completion of the church age and after the rapture of the church, God will begin to rebuild the nation of Israel getting it ready for the eternal reign of the Messiah (Hos. 3:4-5; Isa. 9:6-7; Dan. 7:13-14; Lk. 1:32-33; Rev. 11:15; 20:1-10; 22:4-5). The actual return of the Messiah and setting up the kingdom of David again will be when Christ returns (Mt. 24:29-31; 25:31-46; 2 Th. 1:7-10; Rev. 19:11-21; Zech. 14)

a Gr. apostolos, a delegate, one sent with full power of attorney to act in the place of another, the sender remaining behind to back up the one sent. In the case of Christians it means God sends them to do what He, Himself would do if He went. It is found 81 times and trans. "apostle" 78 times; "messenger" 2 times (2 Cor. 8:23; Phil. 2:25); and once "he that is sent" (Jn. 13:16)

b Referring to the churches they had founded on the first missionary journey (note b, 13:4) c Gr. boulomai, deliberate determination, whether in accordance with, or contrary to the original wish or impulse (Mk. 15:15; Acts 5:28, 33; 12:4; 15:37; 18:27; 19:30; 22:30; 23:28; 28:18)

d Mark had left them on the first missionary journey and gone home, so Paul did not think it best to take him on the second trip (note j, 12:12)

e Acts 13:13

f Gr. paroxusmos, an incitement; a stirring up. It does not necessarily imply anger or ill will, as proved by the only other place this word is used (Heb. 10:24). They differed and were set in the plan each adopted. Paul was determined because of righteousness, thinking it best for the work of the Lord. Mark had failed (13:13), and Paul thought he could not be trusted again. Barnabas was determined because of love for a relative. His love led him to hope for the best. Barnabas would not give up and Paul would not change, so they agreed to disagree taking different parts of the work. Mark proved so faithful that even Paul later wrote for him (2 Tim. 4:11). In Christ two can differ and not manifest bad tempers. The way it worked out two parties instead of one accomplished more work than would have been done otherwise g Barnabas disappears from history here. He took the original route (note b, 13:4) and Paul went by land to Asia Minor

j Because the Jews would not hear him preach or have anything to do with him if he was not circumcised. It did not save him or curse him for he did not go back on the gospel. Under the circumstances, to speed the gospel it was wisdom to do so. The same Paul refused to circumcise Titus because of time and circumstances (Gal. 2:3–5). Paul did his best to win the Jews (1 Cor. 9:20; Rom. 9:1–3), but when it came to compromising the gospel and teaching law keeping as necessary to salvation, there he drew a line (Gal. 2:1–21)

k Gr. dogma, doctrine, ordinance, judgment (v 4; 17:7; Lk. 2:1; Eph. 2:15; Col. 2:14; Heb. 11:23) the [a]apostles.

34 Notwithstanding it pleased Si'las to abide there still.

XI Paul's second missionary journey (Acts 15:36–18:22. Cp. 13:1; 18:23). 1 Paul and Barnabas separate company over John Mark (Acts 13:13, refs.)

35 Paul also and Bär'na-bas continued in An'ti-och, teaching and preaching the word of the Lord, with many others also.

36 ¶ And some days after Paul said unto Bär'na-bas, Let us go again and visit our brethren in every city [b]where we have preached the word of the Lord, and see how they do.

37 And Bär'na-bas [c]determined to take with them [d]John, whose surname was Märk.

38 But Paul thought not good to take him with them, [e]who departed from them from Pam-phyl'i-a, and went not with them to the work.

39 And the [f]contention was so sharp between them, that they departed asunder one from the other: and so [g]Bär'na-bas took Märk, and sailed unto Cy'prus;

2 Paul chooses Silas as his new companion and travels through Syria and Cilicia

40 And Paul chose Si'las, and [h]departed, being recommended by the brethren unto the grace of God.

41 And he went through Syr'i-a and Ci-li'cia, confirming the churches.

105 CHAPTER 16

3 Paul again at Derbe and Lystra (Acts 14:20). Timothy, an early convert of Paul's, joins him (1 Tim. 1:2; 2 Tim. 2:2)

THEN came he to Der'be and Lys'tra: and, behold, a certain disciple was there, named [i]Ti-mo'the-us, the son of a certain woman, which was a Jew'ess, and believed; but his father was a Greek:

2 Which was well reported of by the brethren that were at Lys'tra and I-co'ni-um.

3 Him would Paul have to go forth with him; and [j]took and circumcised him because of the Jews which were in those quarters: for they knew all that his father was a Greek.

4 Apostolic decrees given to all the churches (Acts 15:23)

4 And as they went through the cities, they delivered them the [k]decrees for to keep, that were ordained of the apostles and elders which were at Je-ru'sa-lem.

5 And so were the [l]churches established in the faith, and increased in number daily.

5 Tour through Phrygia, Galatia, and to Mysia and Troas

6 Now when they had gone throughout Phryg'i-a and the region of Ga-la'tia, and were forbidden of the Ho'ly Ghost to preach the word in [a]A'sia, 7 After they were come to My'sia, they assayed to go into Bi-thyn'i-a: but the Spirit suffered them not.

8 And they passing by My'sia came down to [b]Tro'as.

6 Macedonian call at Troas

9 And a [c]vision appeared to Paul in the night; There stood a man of Mac-e-do'ni-a, and prayed him, saying, Come over into Mac-e-do'ni-a, and help us.

10 And after he had seen the vision, immediately [d]we endeavoured to go into Mac-e-do'ni-a, [e]assuredly gathering that the Lord had called us for to preach the gospel unto them.

7 Troas to Philippi: first trip with the gospel to Europe

11 Therefore [f]loosing from Tro'as, we came with a straight course to [g]Sam-o-thra'cia, and the next day to [h]Ne-ap'o-lis;

12 And from thence to [i]Philip'pi, which is the [j]chief city of that part of Mac-e-do'ni-a, and a [k]colony: and we were in that city abiding certain days.

8 First convert in Europe

13 And on the sabbath we went out of the city by a river side, where [l]prayer was wont to be made; and we sat down, and [m]spake unto the women which resorted thither.

14 ¶ And a certain woman named [n]Ly'di-a, a seller of purple, of the city of Thy-a-ti'ra, which worshipped God, heard us: whose heart the Lord [o]opened, that she attended unto the things which were spoken of Paul.

15 And when she was baptized, and her [p]household, she besought us, saying, If ye have judged me to be faithful to the Lord, come into my house, and abide there. And she [q]constrained us.

9 Fortune-telling demon cast out: Paul and Silas jailed

16 ¶ And it came to pass, as we [r]went to prayer, a certain damsel possessed with [s]a spirit of divination met us, which brought her masters much gain by [t]soothsaying:

17 The same followed Paul and us, and cried, saying, [u]These men are the servants of the most high God, which shew unto us the way of salvation.

18 And this did she many days. But Paul, [v]being grieved, turned and said to the spirit, I command thee in the name of Je'sus Christ to come out of her. And he came out the same hour.

19 ¶ And when her [w]masters saw that the hope of their gains was gone, they caught Paul and Si'las, and drew them into the marketplace unto the rulers, a The Asia here was not all of Asia Minor, for they had already established churches in Galatia, Phrygia, Pisidia, Lycaonia, and Pamphylia, provinces of it, but it no doubt was the Bithynia and Mysia, the northern and western parts of Asia Minor that the Holy Spirit checked them from going into at this time (v 7). He wanted them to go to other places that were more ripe for the gospel. Later these other parts were visited when they were more ready for it (1 Pet. 1:1)

e Taking it for granted by the vision that the Lord was leading to Macedonia

f Gr. anago, weighed anchor (Lk. 8:22; Acts 13:13; 16:11; 18:21; 20:3, 13; 21:1–2; 27:2, 4, 12, 21; 28:10–11, 21)

g An Aegean island 20 miles around h The harbor of Philippi, which was about 10 miles away. The first European soil trodden by Paul with the gospel

i The place of the decisive battle which ended the Roman republic, 42 B.C. Paul established a church here. It is where events of Acts 16:12–40 happened

j It was the chief city in Paul's day. Amphipolis was the chief city when the Romans first took over the country, but after the battle at Philippi that ended the Roman republic this city became more prominent k A Roman military settlement. Such colonies were settlements of old soldiers and others by Augustus to influence the native people to be loyal subjects. Hence the significance of v 37

l Gr. proseucha, a place of prayer and worship where there was no synagogue. A spacious, uncovered amphitheatre. There were many such places among the Jews on sea sides or on rivers

m Perhaps this was before the crowd had gathered for worship and while they were gathering n She got her name from province of Lydia, Asia Minor, in which was located her city of Thyatira. Lydian women were famous for the manufacture of beautiful purple made from the murex, a shell fish o Gr. dianoigo, open effectually. Only in v 14; 17:3; Mk. 7:34–35; Lk. 2:23; 24:31–32, 45. Some people are honest and yield to the Lord to open their hearts and others refuse all offers of God's dealings and are hardened

p 10 whole households saved: p. 143

q Gr. parabiazomai, to constrain one by entreaties (v 15; Lk. 24:29. Cp. Gen. 19:9; 1 Sam. 28:23). Hindered in preaching in Asia (v 6), their first convert in Europe was an Asiatic r Went into the proseucha, place of prayer (note l, above). This not in the act of prayer, but the place of worship for the purpose of reading the prophets and prayer. The apostles spent many days here preaching the gospel (v 18)

s Gr. spirit of python, or Apollo. Pytho was, according to fable, a huge serpent that had an oracle on Mt. Parnassus, famous for predicting future events. Apollo slew this serpent and was called Pythius becoming celebrated as the foreteller of events. It was believed that all who pretended to foretell events were influenced by the spirit of Apollo Pythius. A priestess at his temple was called Pythoness. Through her, messages were delivered

t See note b, 5, Lk. 12:29

u Every word of this is truth, but the purpose of Satan in it was to discredit the message of the apostles by making the people think that they were in league with demon spirits who were making this announcement through a demon possessed medium. The people would conclude that they were doing miracles by the devil and so discount the gospel. When the demon was cast out in the name of Jesus it proved that they were of God and not of demons (v 18)

v Paul saw the purpose of Satan, so turned to the demon, not the girl, and commanded it to come out and it did so w They no doubt saw the demon rend her in coming out, as in Mk. 9:26; Lk. 9:42; Acts 8:7. They knew that their gains were gone, so they dragged the apostles before the Roman rulers in the market place where courts were held a Gr. strategos, Roman army commanders or rulers of the Roman colony who bore title like praetors (at Rome), for which strategos is the Gr. rendering (v 20–38; 4:1; 5:24–26; Lk. 22:4, 52).

b Paul was a Benjamite (Phil. 3:6) and others were of other tribes but all were Jews, proving that tribes other than Judah were Jews (Gal. 2:13–15) c Romans were very zealous for their national worship. Great care was taken that no one introduce a new religion. On this account Jews were banished from Rome. This was the charge against the apostles here (v 21)
d Gr. rabdizo, to beat with rods, which was the Roman method of treating a criminal (2 Cor. 11:25). Jews gave only 39 stripes, but Romans had no such law. They gave as many as they chose. This is referred to by Paul in 2 Cor. 11:23, "stripes beyond measure" or moderation e Gr. desmophulax, keeper of the prison. Only here and in v 27, 36.
f Perhaps what we call the dungeon
g Roman stocks were not only made to keep one from escape, but were made with holes wide enough apart so as to stretch the legs and bruise the feet to cause great pain and injury. This with the stripes beyond moderation made them suffer agony. But in spite of this they could sing and pray (v 25). The prisoners heard them
h God answered their prayers by sending a great earthquake, opening all doors, and loosing all bonds on prisoners i Jailers were responsible for prisoners, under the penalty of death. This one chose suicide rather than face the death he feared at the hands of the Romans
j Either Paul saw the jailer by a light on the wall of the jailer's apartment or had knowledge of what he intended to do, so called out not to harm himself k When he had got a light he examined to see if what Paul had said was true. He then fell down before the apostles, realizing they were the ones responsible for all these miracles l Question 48. Next, v 37. One of the most used texts of Scripture by soul winners (v 30–31)
m This is the simple way to get saved when one is under conviction of sin and as desperate as this man was. It is not a formal confession of a historical fact that is uttered here, but that kind of faith that will surrender all to God and believe with the heart the truth that is known (Rom. 10:9–10). A formal mental acceptance of Jesus any place at any time will not save the soul. It must be a genuine heartfelt transaction of repentance and faith (Eph. 2:8–9; 1 Jn. 1:9). It would be vain to ask a man to do this who was not willing and ready to do it and who had not been convicted of sin and knew his need. See Faith, p. 201 n The whole house must believe and meet the same terms for all of it to be saved. (Mt. 18:3; Jn. 3:3, 5)
o The Word of God was preached to the whole house and the way of salvation was made clear. All in the house did accept the gospel and were baptized (v 32–33). To use this to prove that baptism does not mean immersion and Paul christened the children and babies in this house and that of Lydia (v 15) is proving too much. Nothing is known of either family or how they were baptized unless it was as in all other cases (Mt. 3:6, note). There is no statement that there was not enough water at hand to immerse these families. There was a river near by in one case (v 13–15) p Gr. rabdouchos, lictors who beat with rods (note d, above). They preceded consuls and carried the fasces, a bundle of rods bound to the handle of a hatchet q The Codex Bezae says that the magistrates came into court in the morning and remembering the earthquake were afraid, so sent to let the apostles go r It was unlawful for any Roman citizen to be bound or beaten without proper trial or be put to death without an appeal to Caesar. Paul's strategy was to teach these magistrates a lesson and to show the people that they had been unjustly condemned, and that the majesty of Rome had been insulted by this treatment of them
s Question 49. Next, 17:18

20 And brought them to [a]the magistrates, saying, These men, being [b]Jews, do exceedingly trouble our city, 21 And teach customs, [c]which are not lawful for us to receive, neither to observe, being Rō'manş.

22 And the multitude rose up together against them: and the magistrates rent off their clothes, and commanded [d]to beat them.

23 And when they had laid many stripes upon them, they cast them into prison, charging the [e]jailor to keep them safely:

24 Who, having received such a charge, thrust them into [f]the inner prison, and made their feet fast in the [g]stocks.

10 A great earthquake

25 ¶ And at midnight Paul and Sī'las prayed, and sang praises unto God: and the prisoners heard them.

26 And [h]suddenly there was a great earthquake, so that the foundations of the prison were shaken: and immediately all the doors were opened, and every one's bands were loosed.

11 The jailer and his house converted and baptized

27 And the keeper of the prison awaking out of his sleep, and seeing the prison doors open, [i]he drew out his sword, and would have killed himself, supposing that the prisoners had been fled.

28 But Paul cried with a loud voice, saying, [j]Do thyself no harm: for we are all here.

29 Then he called for a light, and sprang in, and came trembling, and [k]fell down before Paul and Sī'las, 30 And brought them out, and said, [l]Sirs, what must I do to be saved?

▶31 And they said, [m]Believe on the Lord Jē'şus Christ, and thou shalt be saved, [n]and thy house.

32 And they [o]spake unto him the word of the Lord, and to all that were in his house.

33 And he took them the same hour of the night, and washed their stripes; and was baptized, he and all his, straightway.

34 And when he had brought them into his house, he set meat before them, and rejoiced, believing in God with all his house.

12 Paul refuses to depart privily like a common criminal

35 And when it was day, the magistrates sent the [p]serjeants, saying, [q]Let those men go.

36 And the keeper of the prison told this saying to Paul, The magistrates have sent to let you go: now therefore depart, and go in peace.

37 But Paul said unto them, They have beaten us openly uncondemned, [r]being Rō'mans, and have cast us into prison; and [s]now do they thrust us out privily? nay verily; but let them come themselves and fetch us out.

38 And the serjeants told these words unto the magistrates: and they [t]feared, when they heard that they were Rō'mans.

39 And [u]they came and besought them, and brought them out, and desired them to depart out of the city.

40 And they went out of the prison, and entered into the house of Lȳd'ī-ā: and when they had seen the brethren, they comforted them, and departed.

CHAPTER 17 — 106

13 Philippi to Thessalonica where a church is founded

NOW when they had passed through [a]Am-phip'o-lis and [b]Ap-ol-lō'ni-ā, they came to [c]Thēs-sa-lō-ni'cā, where was a [d]synagogue of the Jews:

2 And Paul, as his manner was, went in unto them, and three sabbath days [e]reasoned with them out of the scriptures,

3 [f]Opening and [g]alleging, [h]that Christ must needs have suffered, and risen again from the dead; and that this Jē'şus, whom I preach unto you, is Christ.

4 And some of them [i]believed, and [j]consorted with Paul and Sī'las; and of the [k]devout Greeks a great multitude, and of the [l]chief women not a few.

14 Opposition from the Jews. Paul forced to leave the city

5 ¶ But the Jews which believed not, [m]moved with envy, took unto them certain lewd fellows of the [n]baser sort, and gathered a company, and set all the city on an uproar, and assaulted [o]the house of Jā'son, and sought to bring them out to the people.

6 And when they found them not, they drew Jā'son and certain brethren unto the rulers of the city, crying, These that have turned the world upside down are come hither also;

7 Whom Jā'son hath received: and these all do [p]contrary to the [q]decrees of Cæ'şar, saying that there is another [r]king, one Jē'şus.

8 And they troubled the people and the rulers of the city, when they heard these things.

9 And when they had [s]taken security of Jā'son, and of the other, they let them go.

15 Thessalonica to Berea where Jewish opposition expels him

10 ¶ And the brethren immediately sent away Paul and Sī'las by night unto [t]Bē-rē'ā: who coming thither went into the synagogue of the Jews.

11 These were more [u]noble than those in Thēs-sa-lō-ni'cā, in that they received the word with all readiness of mind, and searched the scriptures daily, whether those things were so.

a They had a right to fear, for if this case was taken to Rome they would be deposed or probably executed for this violation of Roman law. Romans were zealous in protecting their citizens b The Codex Bezae says that they came with many of their friends pleading for the men to leave before another mob rose up against them, and that the magistrates were ignorant of circumstances and that these were righteous men. They preached to Christians and left (v 40) j Here we have again the 4 fundamental facts of the gospel of salvation (v 3; 1 Cor. 15:1–8. See 30 major doctrines preached, p. 158). Paul collected the facts of what the Messiah was to do and to suffer and then proved that they were fulfilled to the letter in Jesus Christ

t The same attempt to raise the charge of high treason, as in Jn. 18:36–37; 19:12. The apostles no doubt spoke of the kingdom of heaven and of Christ the coming king, but never did they say that He was in competition with any king before the prophecies are fulfilled and the Messiah comes to earth

i Followers of Zeno, 270 B.C., who believed in gods, but that all human affairs were governed by fate, and that no good came from various deities. They held that no supreme good was virtue, and that man should be free from passion and moved by neither joy nor grief, pleasure nor pain. They were the Fatalists and Pantheists of that day. m Gr. zenos daimonion, foreign demons. Daimonion is trans. devils 52 times and gods only here. See Demons, p. 434. Preaching strange gods was forbidden both in Rome and in Athens. One charge against Socrates was that of introducing strange divinities. Heathen theology taught that the theoi were gods of nature, and the daimon were deified men. Paul had taught that Jesus was a man, crucified, risen and exalted at the right hand of God. This was the same to them as the deification of heroes who had been honored for their special services to mankind. Hence the use of the term daimonion in connection with Jesus. To them He was not a god of nature, but a daimon or a deified man. The heathen Greeks also were used to personifying abstract ideas, as victory, pity, etc., and they may have thought that Jesus and the resurrection were two new divinities Paul was introducing. At least, they thought they had just grounds for bringing him before the council of the Athenians n Paul had so emphasized Jesus and the resurrection that the heathen Greeks remembered that much of his message o The hill of Mars where the great council of the Athenians was held (v 22). It was the most sacred and reputable court in the Gentile world. The legend is that Mars was tried there by a court of 12 gods for the murder of Halirrhothius, son of Neptune but was acquitted. The justice administered in this court was held to be so strict and impartial that both the accused and the accusers were satisfied with the decision. Judges held court at night so they could not be distracted from the great business by the sight of the accused to pity or despise. The pleaders were strictly forbidden the use of any means whatever to excite either pity or aversion, or to affect the passions, everything being confined to simple relation, or statement of facts. The two persons involved, placed with bleeding members of an animal (slain on the occasion) between them, were obliged to take oath with a warning that if they did not tell the truth they and their families would be liable to such a horrible death. The gods of the infernal world whose temple was next to the court were called to witness the oaths. When the case was fully heard, the judges gave their decision by throwing flint pebbles on one of two boards or tables; one for condemnation and the other for acquittal of the person in question 12 Therefore many of [a]them believed; also of honourable women which were Greeks, and of men, not a few.

13 But when the Jews of Thĕs-sa-lō-nī'cā had knowledge that the word of God was preached of Paul at Bĕ-rē'ā, they came thither also, and stirred up the people.

14 And then [b]immediately the brethren sent away Paul to go as it were to the sea: but Sī'las and Tī-mō'the-ŭs abode there still.

16 Paul at Athens sends for Silas and Timothy from Berea

15 And they that conducted Paul brought him unto Ăth'ĕns: and receiving a commandment unto Sī'las and Tī-mō'the-ŭs for to come to him with all speed, they departed.

17 Paul disputes with Greek philosophers at Athens

16 ¶ Now while Paul waited for them at Ăth'ĕns, his spirit was [c]stirred in him, when he saw the city [d]wholly given to idolatry.

17 Therefore [e]disputed he in the synagogue with the Jews, and with the devout persons, and in the market daily with them that met with him.

18 Then certain [g]philosophers of the [h]Ē-pĭ-cū-rē'anş, and of the [i]Stō'ĭcks, encountered him. And some said, [j]What will [k]this babbler say? other some, He seemeth to be a [l]setter forth [m]of strange gods: because he preached unto them [n]Jē'şus, and the resurrection.

19 And they took him, and brought him unto [o]Ăr-e-ŏp'a-gūs, saying, May we know what this new doctrine, whereof thou speakest, is?

20 For thou bringest certain strange things to our ears: we would know therefore what these things mean.

18 Paul's sermon at Athens. Theme: judgment of the world by Jesus. (1) Greek superstitions

22 ¶ Then Paul stood in [q]the midst of Mārs' hill, and said, Ye men of Ăth'ĕns, I perceive that in all things ye are [r]too superstitious.

23 For as I passed by, and beheld your [s]devotions, I found an altar with this inscription, TO THE UNKNOWN GOD. Whom therefore ye ignorantly worship, him [t]declare I unto you.

(2) God is Creator: His purpose in creating man (Rev. 4:11)

24 God that [u]made the world and all things therein, seeing that he is Lord of heaven and earth, [v]dwelleth not in temples made with hands;

25 Neither is [a]worshipped with men's hands, [b]as though he needed any thing, seeing he giveth to all life, and breath, and all things;

26 And [c]hath made of one blood all nations of men for to dwell on all the face of the earth, and hath determined the times before appointed, and the bounds of their habitation;

▸27 [d]That they should seek the Lord, if haply they might [e]feel after him, and find him, though he be not far from every one of us:

(3) Idolatry condemned

28 For [f]in him we live, and move, and have our being; as certain also of your own [g]poets have said, For we are also his offspring.

29 Forasmuch then as we are the [h]offspring of God, we ought not to think that the [i]Godhead is like unto gold, or silver, or stone, [j]graven by art and man's device.

(4) Times of ignorance now past: God's demands known

30 And the times of this ignorance God winked at; [k]but now commandeth all men every where to repent:

(5) Judgment appointed for all through Jesus Christ (Jn. 5:22; Rom. 2:16; Mt. 25:31-46)

★31 Because he hath [l]appointed a day, in the which he will judge the world in righteousness by that man whom he hath ordained; whereof [m]he hath given assurance unto all men, in that he hath raised him from the dead.

(6) Result of Paul's sermon

32 ¶ And when they heard of the resurrection of the dead, some mocked: and others said, We will hear thee again of this matter.

33 So Paul [o]departed from among them.

34 Howbeit certain men clave unto him, and believed: among the which was Dī-o-nўs'ĭ-ŭs the [p]Ar-e-ŏp'a-gīte, and a woman named Dăm'a-rĭs, and others with them.

19 Athens to Corinth: Aquila and Priscilla join Paul

AFTER these things Paul departed from Ăth'ĕns, and came to [q]Cŏr'inth;

2 And found a certain Jew named [r]Ăq'uĭ-lā, born in Pŏn'tus, lately come from Ĭt'a-lў, with his wife Prĭs-çĭl'lā; (because that Clau'dĭ-ŭs had [s]commanded all Jews to depart from Rome:) and came unto them.

8 And Crĭs'pus, the chief ruler of the synagogue, believed on the Lord with all his house; and many of the Cō-rĭnth'ĭ-ans hearing believed, and were baptized.

24 Paul arrested and brought before Gallio but is dismissed

12 ¶ And when [m]Găl'lĭ-ō was the deputy [n]of Ă-chā'ĭà, the Jews made insurrection with one accord against Paul, and brought him to the [o]judgment seat, 13 Saying, This fellow persuadeth men to worship God contrary to the law.

14 And when Paul was now about to open his mouth, Găl'lĭ-ō said unto the Jews, If it were a matter of [p]wrong or wicked lewdness, O ye Jews, reason would that I should bear with you:

15 But if it be a question of words and names, and of your law, look ye to it; for I will be no judge of such matters.

25 This man was [n]instructed in the way of the Lord; and being [o]fervent in the spirit, he spake and taught diligently the things of the Lord, [p]knowing only the baptism of Jŏhn.

26 And he began to speak boldly in the synagogue: whom when Àq'uĭ-là and Prĭs-çĭl'là had heard, they took him unto them, and expounded unto him the way of God more perfectly.

27 And when he was disposed to pass into Ă-chā'ĭà, the brethren wrote, exhorting the disciples to receive him: who, when he was come, helped them much which had believed through grace:

28 For he mightily convinced the Jews, and that publickly, shewing by the scriptures that Jē'sus was Christ.

c Questions 52–53. Next, v 15. Every Christian receives the Holy Spirit of sonship (Rom. 8:14–16) and has Him in a measure when converted (Rom. 8:9), but that is not what Paul referred to. He was asking about the Spirit baptism that John had preached (v 4 with Mt. 3:11; Lk. 3:16; Jn. 1:31–34; Acts 1:4–5; 11:15–17). This has nothing to do with the new birth by the Spirit (Jn. 3:1–5). It is the enduement of power for service (Lk. 24:49; Acts 1:4–8; 2:38–39; 5:32). See note p, Acts 2:4. It was the common privilege to receive the "rivers of living waters" or the fulness of the Spirit of Jn. 7:37–39 and all the gifts of the Holy Spirit of 1 Cor. 12:4–11, and still is (Mk. 16:17–18; Jn. 14:12). John's disciples could receive baptism in water, but Christ's disciples the baptism in the Holy Spirit, hence the inquiry of Paul. This was part of the gospel Apollos learned in Acts 18:26
d Gr. pisteusantes, having believed. There is no definite time for this experience in connection with salvation or the new birth, as proved in note j, Acts 10:46. Naturally, these 12 men had been believers and had repented of sins some 26 years before this, but like Apollos, knew only the baptism of John. They could not have received the Spirit baptism then, or at the time they believed, for this was not yet given because Jesus had not yet been glorified (Jn. 7:37–39; Acts 1:4–8; 2:33–39). The Spirit baptism is received by faith (Gal. 3:2; 3:13–14; Jn. 7:37–39). We have to recognize that one can believe for salvation and be in ignorance of the Spirit baptism, but whatever one gets from God it is when, or after one believes (Mk. 11:22–24; Mt. 17:20; 21:22). The term "after that ye believed" does not necessarily mean a time element after faith is exercised. To receive blessings "believe that ye receive them, and ye shall have them" any moment after faith is exercised (Mk. 11:22–24). The time element is made clear even here, for when they heard they could have the Spirit baptism they believed and Paul laid his hands on them and they immediately received it (Acts 19:2–6) e It is possible that these disciples were not present when John promised the Spirit baptism (Mt. 3:11; Lk. 3:13), so we have no right to question the truth of their statement. Then, too, it could be understood that they had heard but did not understand what was meant, so after 26 years, could have even forgotten that they had heard about it f This confirms the fact that Paul was asking them if they had been baptized in the Holy Spirit, for a baptism was the subject. What baptism? Not water, for this Paul did not ask about. It was Spirit baptism which John taught that he asked them about receiving (v 2–6). This proves that the Spirit baptism John promised all his disciples (Mt. 3:11; Lk. 3:16; Jn. 1:31–34) was really for all men, not only for the apostles. See 10 proofs Spirit baptism for all, p. 41
g Paul emphasized the fact that John did announce the coming Spirit baptism upon all of Christ's followers (Mt. 3:11; Lk. 3:16; Jn. 1:31–34). When it happened at Pentecost, men could know what John referred to, so made reference to it later to others (Acts 11:15–17; 19:2–6) h Men must believe on Christ for this Spirit baptism, as they do for salvation (Jn. 1:31–34; 7:37–39). What we believe on Him for is what we get i They were baptized over in water, so they could conform to Christian water baptism "In the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Ghost" (Mt. 28:19). They never had been baptized this way. They only knew the name of God, for John did not know the Son until a certain sign happened (Jn. 1:33), so he could not have baptized except in the name of God (Jn. 5:43). "In the name of" the Lord Jesus simply means "by the authority of" the Lord Jesus, but how He authorized is recorded in Mt. 28:19. Regarding re-baptism, Scripture bears no record of men being

3 Paul at Ephesus finds disciples of John who are baptized in water and in the Holy Spirit (Mt. 3:6, note a)

AND it came to pass, that, while Ă-pŏl'ĭos was at Cŏr'inth, Paul having passed through the [a]upper coasts came to [b]Ĕph'e-sŭs: and finding certain disciples,

2 He said unto them, [c]Have ye received the Hō'lў Ghōst [d]since ye believed? And they said unto him, We have not so much as heard whether there be any Hō'lў Ghōst.

3 And he said unto them, [e]Unto what then were ye baptized? And they said, Unto Jŏhn's baptism.

4 Then said Paul, Jŏhn verily baptized with the baptism of repentance, [f]saying unto the people, [h]that they should believe on him which should come after him, that is, on Christ Jē'sus.

5 When they heard this, they were [i]baptized in the name of the Lord Jē'sus.

6 And when Paul had [j]laid his hands upon them, [k]the Hō'lў Ghōst came on them; [l]and they spake with tongues, [m]and prophesied.

7 And all the men were about twelve.

4 Paul preaches three months in the synagogue and founds a Christian church

8 And he went into the synagogue, and spake boldly for the space of three months, disputing and persuading the things concerning the [n]kingdom of God.

5 Paul separates the church from the synagogue congregation and disputes daily in the school of Tyrannus two full years

9 But when [o]divers were hardened, and believed not, but spake evil of that way before the multitude, he departed from them, and [p]separated the disciples, disputing daily in [q]the school of one Tў-răn'nus.

10 And this continued by the space of two years; so that all they which dwelt in Ă'sĭa heard the word of the Lord Jē'sus, both Jews and Greeks.

6 Special miracles by Paul

11 And God wrought [r]special miracles by the hands of Paul:

12 So that from his body were brought unto the sick handkerchiefs or aprons, and the diseases departed from them, and the evil spirits went out of them.

7 Imitators of Paul beaten by a maniac at Ephesus

13 ¶ Then certain of the [s]vagabond Jews, exorcists, took upon them to call over them which had evil spirits the name of the Lord Jē'sus, saying, We adjure you by Jē'sus whom Paul preacheth.

14 And there were seven sons of one [a]Scē'vă, a Jew, and chief of the priests, which did so.

15 And the evil spirit answered and said, [b]Jē'sus I know, and Paul I know; [c]but who are ye?

16 And the man in whom the evil spirit was leaped on them, and [d]overcame them, and prevailed against them, so that they fled out of that house naked and wounded.

17 And this was known to all the Jews and Greeks also dwelling at Ĕph'e-sŭs; and fear fell on them all, and [e]the name of the Lord Jē'sus was magnified.

8 Revival at Ephesus spreads

18 And many that believed came, and confessed, and shewed their deeds.

19 Many of them also which used curious arts brought their books together, and burned them before all men: and they counted the price of them, and found it [f]fifty thousand pieces of silver.

20 So mightily grew the word of God and prevailed.

9 Preaching tour planned: Timothy and Erastus sent ahead

21 ¶ After these things were ended, Paul [h]purposed in the spirit, when he had passed through Măç-e-dō'nĭ-ă and Ă-chā'ĭă, to go to Jē-rų'să-lĕm, saying, After I have been there, I must also see Rōme.

22 So he sent into Măç-e-dō'nĭ-ă two of them that ministered unto him, Tĭ-mō'the-ŭs and [i]Ē-răs'tus; but he himself stayed in Ă'sĭa for a season.

10 Paul remains in Ephesus: Uproar of the silversmiths. (1) Cause of the uproar

23 And the same time there arose no small stir about [j]that way.

24 For a certain man named Dē-mē'trĭ-ŭs, a silversmith, which made silver [k]shrines for Dĭ-ăn'ă, brought no small gain unto the [l]craftsmen;

25 Whom he called together with the workmen of like occupation, and said, Sirs, ye know that by this craft we have our wealth.

26 Moreover ye see and hear, that not alone at Ĕph'e-sŭs, but almost throughout all Ă'sĭa, this Paul hath persuaded and turned away much people, saying that they be no gods, which are made with hands:

27 So that not only this our craft is in danger to be set at nought; but also that the temple of the great goddess [m]Dĭ-ăn'ă should be despised, and her magnificence should be destroyed, whom all Ă'sĭa and the world worshippeth.

f Gr. periergos, practising magic (v 19); a busybody (1 Tim. 5:13). Here the idea is that of pretending by incantations to raise the dead, coerce spirits to reveal the unknown, foretell events, heal, inflict diseases, counteract evil by amulets or charms, interpret dreams, calculate sex of children before birth, and foretell by the planets the daily life. This sounds like the 20th century. Many confessed and showed the deception of their deeds of pretending supernatural skill in these things (v 18). They made known their deceptions. The books that taught these so-called sciences and how to do these things were burned (Lk. 12:29)

k One must have the fulness of the Spirit himself to do this (Rom. 1:11; 15:29; 1 Tim. 4:14; 2 Tim. 1:6)
l This is what took place at Pentecost (2:4), at the house of Cornelius (10:44–48), and here, and no doubt in Acts 8:17–23. Other places speak of this subject (Isa. 28:11; Mk. 16:17; 1 Cor. 12:4–11; 28–31; 13:1–2; 14:1–40)

3 Speak evil of truth (9:1; 13:45; 18:6)

i The same man as in 1 Tim. 1:20; 2 Tim. 4:14. He was a Jew whom the Jews at Ephesus chose to represent them in the uproar and to cast all the blame upon Paul and the Christians. The heathen sometimes could not distinguish between Jews and Christians, but in this case Jews were also held responsible because it was known that they opposed the worship of Diana as much as Christians. The Greeks knowing this would not permit his speaking, and cried out in an uproar for two hours (v 34).
j Gr. apologeomai, here; 24:10; 26: 8; 26: 1, 2, 24; Lk. 12:11; 21:14; Rom. 2:15; 2 Cor. 12:19. This does not signify the answering of a charge, but simply an apology for the Jews. l Gr. katasteilo, quieted. Here; v 36
m He made 6 main points:
1 No need of advertising the fact that all Ephesians worshipped Diana (v 35)
2 No man was attempting to contest this fact (v 36)
3 Not to act so rashly without just grounds for doing so (v 36)
4 The persons accused were not guilty of breaking the civil laws (v 37)
5 If they had broken any law, this was not the way to handle it (v 38–39)
6 They, themselves were breaking the law and might be called in question (v 40)
n Question 55, Next, 21:13
o Gr. neokoros, temple-sweeper, and means what our word sexton does. He means to say, "The whole city is devoted to the worship of Diana and it is a reputed honor to the highest people to sweep her temple, and open and shut her doors. Besides we offer to her the highest sacrifices; and are intrusted with the religious services that pertain to the emperor's safety."
p The original image of Diana was supposed to have descended from heaven so long ago that no one knew its maker or the time it was made. It was to the interests of the priests of Diana to persuade the people that it fell from heaven. Several sacred things are supposed to have fallen from heaven. Euripides stated that the image of Diana of Tauri fell from heaven. Numa claimed that the sacred shields were from heaven. Italian papists claimed that the shrine of our lady of Loreto was a divine gift from above. The image of Minerva of Troy is supposed to have come from Jupiter. St. Isidore said that the heathen priests killed or banished the makers of these things so they could induce the people to believe that they came from heaven.
q Gr. propetes, headstrong (2 Tim. 3:4).
r Gr. hierosulos, plunderers of temples; spoilers of sacred places. The apostles acted only to enlighten the minds of the people, not to mock their worship s Let Demetrius and his crowd follow the law if they have any just cause
t Gr. enkaleo, accuse or charge (v 38, 40; 23:28–29; 26:2, 7; Rom. 8:33) u Romans always dreaded mobs and made strict laws against them. Any man who stirred up a mob was liable to forfeit his life. Demetrius no doubt felt himself in great personal danger and at the mercy of those whom he accused.
v Assembly, throng, or crowd sayings, they were full of wrath, and cried out, saying, Great is Dī-ăn'ā of the Ĕ-phē'sĭans.

29 And the whole city [a]was filled with confusion: and having caught [b]Gā'ĭus and [c]Ăr-ĭs-tär'chus, men of Măç-e-dō'nĭ-ā, Paul's companions in travel, they rushed with one accord into the [d]theatre.

(3) Paul seeks to face the mob but his friends forbid him

30 And when Paul would have entered in[e]unto the people, the disciples suffered him not.

31 And certain of the [f]chief of Ā'sĭā, which were his friends, sent unto him, desiring him that he would not adventure himself into the theatre.

(4) The confused mob

32 Some therefore cried [g]one thing, and some another: for the [h]assembly was confused; and the more part knew not wherefore they were come together.

33 And they drew [i]Ăl-ĕx-ăn'dĕr out of the multitude, the Jews putting him forward. And Ăl-ĕx-ăn'dĕr beckoned with the hand, and would have made his [j]defence unto the people.

34 But when they knew that he was a Jew, all with one voice about the space of two hours cried out, Great is Dī-ăn'ā of the Ĕ-phē'sĭans.

(5) The mob quieted and dismissed by the townclerk

35 And when the [k]townclerk had [l]appeased the people, [m]he said, [n]Ye men of Ĕph'e-sŭs, what man is there that knoweth not how that the city of the Ĕ-phē'sĭans is a[o]worshipper of the great goddess Dī-ăn'ā, and of the image which [p]fell down from Jū'pĭ-tĕr?

36 Seeing then that these things cannot be spoken against, ye ought to be quiet, and to do nothing [q]rashly.

37 For ye have brought hither these men, which are neither [r]robbers of churches, nor yet blasphemers of your goddess.

38 [s]Wherefore if Dĕ-mē'trĭ-ŭs, and the craftsmen which are with him, have a matter against any man, the law is open, and there are deputies: let them [t]implead one another.

39 But if ye enquire any thing concerning other matters, it shall be determined in a lawful assembly.

40 [u]For we are in danger to be called in question for this day's uproar, there being no cause whereby we may give an account of this [v]concourse.

41 And when he had thus spoken he dismissed the assembly.

CHAPTER 20 — 109

(1) Tour of Macedonia and Greece

AND after the [w]uproar was ceased, Paul called unto him the disciples, and [a]embraced them, and departed for to go into [b]Măç-e-dō'nĭ-ā.

2 And when he had gone over those parts, and had given them much exhortation, he came into [c]Greece,

3 And there abode three months. And when the Jews laid wait for him, as he was about to sail into Sȳr'ĭ-ā, he purposed to [d]return through Măç-e-dō'nĭ-ā.

4 And there accompanied him into Ā'sĭā [e]Sō'pa-tĕr of Bĕ-rē'ā; and of the Thĕs-sa-lō'nĭ-ans, [f]Ăr-ĭs-tär'chus and Sĕ-cŭn'dus; and [g]Gā'ĭus of Dĕr'bē, and [h]Tĭ-mō'the-ŭs; and of Ā'sĭā, [i]Tȳch'-ĭ-cŭs and [j]Trŏph'ĭ-mŭs.

5 These going before tarried for us at Trō'as.

(2) Philippi in Europe to Troas in Asia Minor

6 And we sailed away from Phĭ-lĭp'pī after the days of unleavened bread, and came unto them to Trō'as in five days; where we abode seven days.

(3) Preaching and the Lord's Supper on Sunday (1 Cor. 10:16)

7 And upon the [k]first day of the week, when the [l]disciples came together to [m]break bread, Paul preached unto them, ready to depart on the morrow; and continued his speech [n]until midnight.

8 And there were many lights in the upper chamber, where they were gathered together.

(4) Resurrection of Eutychus

9 And there sat in a window a certain young man named Eū'-tȳ-chŭs, being fallen into a deep sleep: and as Paul was long preaching, he sunk down with sleep, and fell down from the third loft, and was taken up dead.

10 And Paul went down, [o]and fell on him, and embracing him said, Trouble not yourselves; for his life is in him.

11 When he therefore was come up again, and had broken bread, and eaten, and talked a long while, even till break of day, so he departed.

12 And they brought the young man alive, and were not a little comforted.

(5) Troas to Miletus

13 ¶ And we went before to ship, and sailed unto Ās'sŏs, there intending to take in Paul: for so had he appointed, minding himself to [p]go afoot.

14 And when he met with us at Ās'sŏs, we took him in, and came to Mĭt-ў-lē'nē.

15 And we sailed thence, and came the next day over against Chĭ'os; and the next day we arrived at Sā'mos, and tarried at Trō-gȳl'lĭ-ŭm; and the next day we came to Mĭ-lē'tus.

k 10 reasons why Christians keep Sunday:
1 To commemorate the resurrection and the finished work of Christ in His victory over death, hell, and the grave (Mt. 28:1; Mk. 16:9; Jn. 20:1)
2 The Lord's manifestations to His disciples were on Sunday (Mt. 28:1; Mk. 16:9; Jn. 20:1, 19, 26)
3 Christ ignored completely the old Jewish sabbath. The first day is the prominent day after the resurrection (Mt. 28:1; Mk. 16:9; Jn. 20:1, 19, 26)
4 The outpouring of the Holy Ghost came on Sunday. Pentecost was the first day after 7 Jewish sabbaths (Acts 2: 1; Lev. 23:15–21). Thus both Christ and the Holy Spirit manifested themselves to the church on this day, completely ignoring the Jewish sabbath
5 Christ or no apostle commanded to keep the old Jewish sabbath, or any other day, but did command all men not to be bound by any particular day (Rom. 14:5–6; Gal. 5:9–11; Col. 2:14–17). Sin is sin whenever committed. It is transgression of the law that constitutes sin (1 Jn. 3:4), not the day in which it is done. Anything sinful on Saturday or Sunday is sinful on every other day. If it is not sinful on Monday, Tuesday, etc., it is not sinful on Sunday
6 Although no set day is commanded to be the sabbath in the new covenant, as in the old covenant which was abolished (see p. 201), they did keep Sunday as their day of worship (Mt. 28: 1; Mk. 16:9; Jn. 20:1, 19, 26; Acts 20:7; 1 Cor. 16:2; Rev. 1:10) 7 Typology of the old covenant made Sunday a day of worship:
(1) The Jewish sabbath was a changeable sabbath, changing at Pentecost every year to one day later until each day of the week was observed every 7 years. Pentecost was the first day after the 7th sabbath (Lev. 23:15–21, note and note 4, above)
(2) The feast of first-fruits came on Sunday, typifying the resurrection (Lev. 23:9–14; Mt. 28:1; Jn. 20:1)
(3) The feasts of unleavened bread and tabernacles also were observed at least one Sunday and perhaps two, being 7 and 8 days long (Lev. 23:6–36)
8 God honored Sunday by giving the law on that day (Cp. Ex. 19:1, 3, 11 with Lev. 23:3–6; Ex. 12:2–18)
9 God again honored Sunday when giving the book of Revelation (Rev. 1:10)
10 Constantine and the Pope did not change the sabbath, 321 and 364 A. D. See Sunday p. 191
This it is clear that many religious services were held on Sunday as well as on Saturday and other days
l They came together to worship and take the Lord's Supper (1 Cor. 10:16)

11 Paul definitely says sins are put off by circumcision without hands (Col. 2:11-13). This is the baptism of Rom. 6:1-8; 1 Cor. 12:13; Gal. 3:29; Eph. 4:5; Col. 2:12

12 Since water baptism is not the real, literal, physical death, burial, and resurrection of Jesus, then it has to be figurative of it (1 Pet. 3:21; 1 Jn. 5:6-10)

13 Washing of sins by baptism is ceremonial and symbolical, like the ceremony of the leper after he was cleansed (Mt. 8:3-4 with Lev. 14:1-9; 15:1-27) and like the garments washed in the blood (Rev. 7:13-14)

14 Paul did not teach baptismal-regeneration (1 Cor. 1:13-24; 15:1-5; Rom. 1:16; 10:9-10; Eph. 2:8-9)

15 Jesus did not teach baptism as a means of salvation. He forgave multitudes without it (see point 8, above). Not one time did He baptize anyone (Jn. 4:2). He once mentioned faith and then baptism (Mk. 16:16)

16 Texts used to teach remission of sins by baptism (Mt. 3:6-8, 11; Mk. 1:4-5; Lk. 3:3, 8-16; Acts 2:38; Mk. 16:16) do not say sins are remitted by it, but "for" or because of repentance (note a, Mt. 3:16). Repentance and faith always precede baptism in these passages. See Mt. 28:19; Acts 2:38, 41; 8:12, 37; 10:44-48; 18:8; 19:4

c Ä'şiá: for he hasted, if it were possible for him, to be at Jĕ-ru'sa-lĕm the day of Pĕn'te-cost.

16 At Miletus he charges the Ephesian elders: (1) His long and faithful service in Asia

17 ¶ And from d Mĭ-lē'tus he sent to Ĕph'e-sŭs, and called the e elders of the church.

18 And when they were come to him, he said unto them, Ye know, from the first day that I came into Ā'şiá, after what manner I have been with you at all seasons,

19 Serving the Lord with f all humility of mind, and with many tears, and g temptations, which befell me by the lying in wait of the Jews:

(2) His zeal for Christ

20 And how h I kept back nothing that was profitable unto you, but have shewed you, and have taught you publickly, and from house to house, 21 Testifying both to the Jews, and also to the Greeks, i repentance toward God, and k faith toward our Lord Jē'şus Christ.

(3) His consecration to suffer

22 And now, behold, I l go bound in the spirit unto Jē-ru'sa-lĕm, not knowing the things that shall befall me there:

23 Save that the Hō'lў Ghŏst witnesseth in every city, saying that m bonds and afflictions abide me.

24 But none of these things move me, neither count I my life dear unto myself, so that I might finish my n course with joy, and the ministry, which I have received of the Lord Jē'şus, to testify the o gospel of the grace of God.

(4) His purity and faithfulness

25 And now, behold, I know that ye all, among whom I have gone preaching the p kingdom of God, shall see my face no more.

26 Wherefore I take you to record this day, q that I am pure from the blood of all men.

27 For I have not shunned to declare unto you all the r counsel of God.

(5) Warning of divisions and strife in the church

●28 ¶ Take heed therefore unto yourselves, and to all the s flock, t over the which the u Hō'lў Ghŏst hath made you v overseers, w to feed the x church of God, y which he hath purchased with his own blood.

★29 z For I know this, that after my departing shall a grievous wolves enter in among you, b not sparing the flock.

30 Also of your own selves shall men arise, speaking perverse things, b to draw away disciples after them.

●31 Therefore watch, and remember, that by the space of three years I ceased not to c warn every one night and day b with tears.

(6) He commits them to God

▸32 And now, brethren, I c commend you to God, and to the word of his grace, which is able to d build you up, and to give you an e inheritance among all them which are f sanctified.

(7) His unselfish service

33 I have g coveted no man's silver, or gold, or apparel.

34 Yea, ye yourselves know, that these hands have ministered unto h my necessities, and to them that were with me.

35 I have i shewed you all things, how that so labouring ye ought to support the weak, and to remember the words of the Lord Jē'şus, how he i said, It is more blessed to give than to receive.

(8) A Christian parting (v 25)

36 ¶ And when he had thus spoken, he kneeled down, and prayed with them all.

37 k And they all wept sore, and fell on Paul's neck, and kissed him, 38 Sorrowing most of all for the words which he spake, l that they should see his face no more. And they accompanied him unto the ship.

e 8 reasons for women preachers:
1 In the Gospels we read of several women messengers who proclaimed "good news" (Mt. 28:1-10; Lk. 24:9-11; Jn. 4:28-30; 20:16-18)
2 In Acts 2:14-21; Joel 2:28-31 God predicted and promised that He Himself would pour out His Spirit upon women and they would prophesy. To prophesy means to "speak to men to edification, exhortation, and comfort" (1 Cor. 14:3). "He that prophesieth edifieth the church" (1 Cor. 14:4). Prophesying is for the church and general public (1 Cor. 12:1-31; 14:1-6, 12, 24-26, 29-33)
3 In Acts 21:8-9 it is clear that Philip's four daughters were prophetesses, that is, they were evangelists like their father. This is in perfect accord with Joel 2:28-29 which was fulfilled in the early church (Acts 2:16), and with Acts 2:17-18 which will be fulfilled in the last days
4 In Romans 16 we have record of a number of women servants of the Lord in various churches. Phebe (v 1-2), Priscilla (v 3-5), Mary, Tryphena, Tryphosa, Persis, and Julia (v 6-15) are mentioned as laborers in the Lord
5 In Phil. 4:2 Euodias and Syntyche are mentioned as being leaders of the church at Philippi
6 Corinthian women prophesied and prayed in church (1 Cor. 11:4-5), so the scripture in 1 Cor. 14:34-35 that is used to condemn women preachers does not refer to preaching, but to disturbance in church services - asking or talking out to their husbands in church, as stated in 1 Cor. 14:35. Even so with 1 Tim. 2:11-15, Paul is not condemning women preachers as long as they keep their place and do not "usurp authority over the man." Both men and women at Corinth were permitted to pray and prophesy, but were regulated by fixed laws in doing so (1 Cor. 14:24-32)
7 In 1 Cor. 12 Paul compares the church to a human body and mentions 9 gifts of the Spirit, including the gift of prophecy, for all the members of the body of Christ, men and women
8 Women were used of God in O. T. days as prophetesses (Ex. 15:20; Judg. 4:4 2 Kl. 22:14; 2 Chr. 34:22; Neh. 6:14; Isa. 8:3; Lk. 1:39-56; 2:36). The law made provision for women to make sacrifices, attend feasts, and make vows (Dt. 12:11-18; Lev. 27)
God has used a rod (Ex. 4:2, 17); ass (Num. 22:28); ram's horn (Josh. 6:5); ox goad, nail, barley cake, pitchers, jawbone, millstone (Judg. 3:31; 4:21; 7:13, 20; 9:53; 15:15-19); mantle (2 Kl. 2:8); ditches (2 Kl. 3:16); empty vessels (2 Kl. 4:3); cruise of oil, ravens (1 Kl. 17:4, 16); worm, wind, fish, gourd (Jonah 1:4, 17; 4:6-7); cock (Mk. 14:72); and many other weak things to confound the mighty (1 Cor. 1:18-21). Is it not possible then that he can use a woman?

leave one of another, we took ship; and[a] they returned home again.

7 And when we had[b] finished our course from Tyre, we came to Ptŏl-e-mā'is, and saluted the[c] brethren, and abode with them one day.

8 And the next day we that were of Paul's company departed, and came unto[d] Cæs-a-rē'a: and we entered into the house of Phĭl'ĭp the evangelist, which was one of the seven; and abode with him.

9 And the same man had four daughters, virgins, which[e] did prophesy.

20 The Holy Spirit again warns Paul of sufferings (v 4)

10 And as we tarried there many days, there[f] came down from Jū-dæ'a a certain prophet, named[g] Ag'a-bŭs.

*11 And when he was come unto us, he took Paul's girdle, and bound his own hands and feet, and said, [h]Thus saith the Hō-lȳ Ghōst, So shall the Jews at Jē-ru'sa-lĕm bind the man that owneth this girdle, and shall deliver him into the hands of the Gĕn'tīles.

21 Paul determined to go to Jerusalem and suffer

12 And when we heard these things, both we, and they of that place, besought him not to go up to Jē-ru'sa-lĕm.

13 Then Paul answered, [i]What mean ye to weep and to break mine heart? for I am ready not to be bound only, but also to die at Jē-ru'sa-lĕm for the name of the Lord Jē'sus.

14 And when he would not be persuaded, we ceased, saying, The will of the Lord be done.

22 Cæsarea to Jerusalem ending Paul's third missionary journey begun in 18:23

15 And after those days we took up our[k] carriages, and went up to Jē-ru'sa-lĕm.

16 There went with us also certain of the disciples of Cæs-a-rē'a, and brought with them one [l]Mnā'son of Cy'prus, [m]an old disciple, with whom we should lodge.

17 And when we were come to Jē-ru'sa-lĕm, the brethren received us gladly.

XIII Paul's arrest and defenses (Acts 21:18-26:31). 1 Paul's report of his ministry among the Gentiles (Cp. 15:4, 12)

18 And the day following Paul went in with us unto [n]James; and all the[o] elders were present.

19 And when he had saluted them, he[p] declared particularly what things God had wrought among the Gĕn'tīles by his ministry.

2 James and the elders advise Paul to take Jewish vows to pacify the Jewish Christians

20 And when they heard it, they[a] glorified the Lord, and said unto him, Thou seest, brother, how[b] many thousands of Jews there are which believe; and they are all[c] zealous of the law:

21 And they are[d] informed of thee, that thou teachest all the Jews which are among the Gĕn'tīles to[e] forsake Mō'ses, saying that they ought not to circumcise their children, neither to walk after the customs.

22 [f]What is it therefore? the multitude must needs come together: for they will hear that thou art come.

23 [g]Do therefore this that we say to thee: We have four men which have a[h] vow on them;

24 Them take, and[i] purify thyself with them, and be[j] at charges with them, that they may[k] shave their heads: and all may know that those things, whereof they were informed concerning thee, are nothing; but that thou thyself also[l] walkest orderly, and keepest the law.

3 Gentiles not to keep the law (Acts 15:1-29; Rom. 3:21, refs.)

25 [m]As touching the Gĕn-tīles which believe, we have written and concluded that they observe no such thing, save only that they keep themselves from things offered to idols, and from blood, and from strangled, and from fornication.

4 Paul follows the advice of the elders (1 Cor. 9:19-23)

26 Then Paul[n] took the men, and the next day purifying himself with them entered into the temple, to signify the accomplishment of the days of purification, until that an offering should be offered for every one of them.

27 And when the seven days were almost ended, the[o] Jews which were of Ā'sĭa, when they saw him in the temple, stirred up all the people, and laid hands on him,

28 Crying out, Men of Ĭs'ra-el, help: This is the man, that teacheth all men every where against the people, and the law, and this place: and further brought Greeks also into the temple, and hath polluted this holy place.

29 (For they had seen before with him in the city Trŏph'ĭmŭs an Ē-phē'sian, whom they supposed that Paul had brought into the temple.)

30 And all the city was moved, and the people ran together: and they took Paul, and drew him out of the temple: and forthwith the doors were shut.

a Were glorifying - not a single act, but a continual praising c Gr. zelotes, enthusiast. Here; 22:3; 1 Cor. 14:12; Gal. 1:14; Tit. 2:14. Mixing law and the gospel makes a corrupt form of Christianity. Judaism and Christianity cannot work together for they are opposite. At this time God had not completely abolished all sacrifices and all the law in Israel as a national program. He tolerated the Jews continuing with all their rituals until the destruction of Jerusalem. From that time on it was impossible for them to observe these things. Thus He abolished the Mosaic dispensation by rendering the observance of the law impossible, fulfilling Dan. 9:26; Hos. 3:4-5; Mt. 23:36-39; Lk. 19:41-48 d 3 main points of misinformation:

1 Teaching Jews to apostatize (v 21). There is nothing of this nature in any of Paul's sermons to the Jews. On the contrary he repeatedly emphasized turning back to their God by accepting the very Christ Moses and the prophets said would come (9:20-22; 13:16-41, 46-49; 14:21-22; 15:1-2; 16:4-5; 17:2-3, 22-32; 19:8-20). His contention was that the Gentiles were not to be brought under the law and this is what the whole church agreed (15:1-35)
2 Teaching Jews not to be circumcised (v 21). This he did not do. He even had Timothy circumcised to please the Jews (16:2). It was only the Gentiles that He contended were not required to be circumcised and to keep the law of Moses (15:1-35). He only taught in his epistles, some of which were written before this time, that circumcision did not save the soul and by the deeds of the law no flesh shall be justified (Rom. 3:24-31; 4:1-21; Gal. 3:19-25)
3 Teaching Jews to forsake the customs (v 21). Gr. ethos, rites, customs, habits, manners. Trans. custom (Lk. 1:9; 2:42; Acts 6:14; 16:21; 21:21; 26:3; 28:17); manner (Jn. 19:40; Acts 15:1; 25:16; Heb. 10:25); and as one is wont (Lk. 22:39). Paul never advocated the Jews should become different in customs. He made it clear that they were mere forms and not destructive, unless one depended upon them for salvation (Rom. 3:24; Eph. 1:7; 2:8-9; Col. 1:20; 2:14-17)
e Gr. apostasia, apostasy. Here; 2 Th. 2:3. This is far from Paul's aim
f Question 57. Next, v 37
g This advice of the apostles and elders of the church was to avoid trouble with the many thousands of Jews who came to the feast. It did not violate Paul's conscience or make him hypocritical. It was wise under the circumstances to further the gospel among the Jews
h This was perhaps a Nazarite vow which was at an end so now they could cut their hair and shave (v 24; Num. 6:1-8)
i This refers to the ceremonies of a Nazarite vow. Paul perhaps could do this, having made a vow in Cenchrea (18:18)
j Help pay the expenses of the sacrifices and offerings (Num. 6:13-21) k Gr. xuraō, only here; 1 Cor. 11:5-6
l Gr. stoicheō, to walk according to religious observances. Here; Rom. 4:12; Gal. 5:25; 6:16; Phil. 3:16. This advice should be understood to mean no more than to show the Jews that he was not an enemy of Moses and that he still considered the law holy and good. Paul did so, and helped pay the expenses of himself and the 4 brethren. This he could not have done with a clear conscience if the ceremonies were done to obtain justification through the law
m They still concluded, as in Acts 15, that Gentiles were not under such obligations and rituals n Regardless of all criticism of Paul for submitting to this form of law worship, knowing in himself that the law had been abolished, one thing is certain that he was willing to go through anything that he might win the Jews (Rom. 9:1-3; 1 Cor. 9:20). What Paul went through after this was no judgment of God on him for his vow, because God had warned him before that these things would happen if he went to Jerusalem (20:22-23; 21:11)

g Josephus says he was a man who claimed to be a prophet, and who told his followers that the walls of Jerusalem would fall before them if they would help him attack the city. About 30,000 men followed him but the Roman governor came suddenly upon him with a large army of Roman soldiers, both infantry and cavalry, and the crowd fled. About 400 were killed and 200 were taken prisoners, but the Egyptian with a few faithful followers escaped (Josephus, Ant., chap. XX, 7).
As Lysias found this tumult against Paul, he supposed him to be the same Egyptian who had returned to stir up the people again. The difference between the 30,000 and the 4,000 in Acts may be explained that some scribe copying Josephus mismok the Gr. delta, four, for lambda, thirty, writing 30,000 for 4,000. Or, it could be that he had 30,000 followers at one time and only 4,000 who attacked the city in the final end quainted with ceremonial cleansings. He knew that washing was outward and ceremonial and did not cleanse from:

(1) Leprosy (Lev. 14:1-9; 15:1-27)
(2) Guilt (Ps. 26:6; 73:13)
(3) Sins (Isa. 1:16; Jer. 2:22)
(4) Wickedness (Jer. 4:14)
(5) Defilement (Mk. 7:1-23)

Washings only typified cleansing by blood (Heb. 9:7-15, 21-26; 10:1-23)

7 Many words describing redemption are found 3,322 times in Scripture and not once is water baptism required to make any one phase effective

8 Many convincing examples of remission of sins without and before water baptism are recorded in Scripture:
(1) Christ (Mt. 3:16; Lk. 3:21)
(2) O. T. saints (Heb. 11:1-40; Lk. 1:15, 41, 46, 67; 2:25-38)
(3) Paisied man (Mt. 9:1-7)
(4) The publican (Lk. 18:9-14)
(5) Zacchaeus (Lk. 19:1-10)
(6) Thief on the cross (Lk. 23:43)

(12) Paul (Acts 9:18-19)
(13) Cornelius and house (Acts 10:44-48; 11:14-18; 15:7-11)
(14) Multitudes both healed and saved (Acts 5:16-16; Jas. 5:14-15; Mt. 13:15)

9 Both Peter and John state baptism to be a "figure" and "witness" of the death, burial, and resurrection of Jesus Christ (1 Pet. 3:21; 1 Jn. 5:6-10)

10 Peter plainly says it does not save to the point of putting away the filth of the flesh (1 Pet. 3:21; Gal. 5:19-21)

31 And as they went about[a]to kill him, tidings came unto[b]the chief captain of the[c]band, that all Jē-ru'sā-lĕm was in an uproar.

32 Who immediately took soldiers and centurions, and ran down unto them: and when they saw the chief captain and the soldiers, they left beating of Paul.

6 Paul bound by chains and taken into the castle

33 Then the chief captain came near, and took him, and commanded him to be bound[d]with two chains; and demanded who he was, and what he had done.

34 And some cried one thing, some another, among the multitude: and when he could not know the certainty for the tumult, he commanded him to be carried into the castle.

35 And when he came upon the stairs, so it was, that he was borne of the soldiers for the violence of the people.

36 For the multitude of the people followed after, crying, [e]Away with him.

7 Paul demands the right to speak to the people

37 And as Paul was to be led into the castle, he said unto the chief captain, [f]May I speak unto thee? Who said, Canst thou speak Greek?

38 Art not thou that [g]Ē-gĭp'-tian, which before these days madest an uproar, and leddest out into the wilderness four thousand men that were murderers?

39 But Paul said, I am a man which am a Jew of Tär'sus, a city in Çi-lĭ'çiă, a citizen of[h]no mean city: and, I beseech thee, suffer me to speak unto the people.

40 And when he had given him[i]licence, Paul stood on the stairs, and beckoned with the hand unto the people. And when there was made a great silence, he spake unto them in the[i]Hē'brew tongue, saying,

8 Paul's defense before the mob: (1) His persecution of Christians (Acts 9:1, refs.)

MEN, brethren, and fathers, hear ye my[k]defence which I make now unto you.

2 (And when they heard that he spake in the Hē'brew tongue to them, they kept the more silence: and he saith,)

3 I am verily a man which am a Jew, born in Tär'sus, a city in Çi-lĭ'çiă, yet brought up in this city at the feet of [l]Gă-mā'lĭ-el, and taught according to the perfect manner of the law of the fathers, and[m]was zealous toward God, as ye all are this day.

4 And I persecuted[n]this way unto the death, binding and delivering into prisons both men and women.

5 As also the high priest doth bear me witness, and [a]all the estate of the[o]elders: from whom also I received[c]letters unto the brethren, and went to Dă-măs'cus, to[d]bring them which were there bound unto Jē-ru'sā-lĕm, for to be punished.

(2) His conversion (9:3; 26:13)

6 And it came to pass, that, [e]as I made my journey, and was come nigh unto Dă-măs'cus about noon, suddenly there shone from heaven a great light round about me.

7 And I fell unto the ground, and heard a voice saying unto me, Saul, Saul, [f]why persecutest thou me?

8 And I answered, Who art thou, Lord? And he said unto me, I am [g]Jē'sus of Năz'a-rĕth, whom thou[h]persecutest.

9 And they that were with me [i]saw indeed the light, and were afraid; but they [j]heard not the voice of him that spake to me.

★10 And I said, [k]What shall I do, Lord? And the Lord said unto me, [l]Arise, and go into Dă-măs'cus; and there it shall be told thee of all things which are appointed for thee to do.

11 And when I could not see for the glory of that light, being led by the hand of them that were with me, I came into Dă-măs'cus.

(3) Mission of Ananias (9:10)

12 And one[m]An-a-nī'as, a devout man according to the law, having a good report of all the Jews which dwelt there, 13 Came unto me, and stood, and said unto me, Brother Saul, receive thy [n]sight. And the same hour I looked up upon him.

14 And he[o]said, The God of our fathers hath chosen thee, that thou shouldest know his will, and see that Just One, and shouldest hear the voice of his mouth.

15 For thou shalt be his witness unto all men of what thou hast seen and heard.

16 [p]And now why tarriest thou? arise, and be baptized, [q]and wash away thy sins, [r]calling on the name of the Lord.

(4) His vision in the temple (Cp. Acts 9:20-29; 26:19-20)

17 And it came to pass, that, when I was come[s]again to Jē-ru'sā-lĕm, even while I prayed in the temple, I was in a[t]trance;

18 And[u]saw him saying unto me, Make haste, and get thee quickly out of Jē-ru'sā-lĕm: for they will not receive thy testimony concerning me.

19 And I said, Lord, [v]they know that I imprisoned and beat in every synagogue them that believed on thee:

20 And when the blood of thy martyr Stē'phen was shed, I also was standing by, and consenting unto his death, and kept the raiment of them that slew him.

a All the elders of Israel and the high priest can bear witness that I am telling you the truth
b Gr. presbuterion, presbytery, proving that this word is not a new one used of church elders. In fact, the early church titles as "bishop, "presbyter," and "deacon" were well known official titles used in trade unions and other corporations, religious and civil, of that era. Trans. elders (Lk. 22:66; Acts 22:5) and presbytery (1 Tim. 4:14)

5 Chosen to be special witness to all men (v 15; Gal. 1:15-16)
p Question 64. Next, v 25. This was after Paul was saved, filled with the Holy Spirit and healed (Acts 9:17-18). So the baptism could not be to remit his sins, any more than in the case of Christ (Mt. 3:16), the eunuch (Acts 8:37 with 1 Jn. 5:1), the Gentiles (Acts 10:44-48), or anyone else (1 Pet. 3:21; 1 Cor. 1:13-24). r This is what saves (Acts 2:21; Rom. 10:9-10; 1 Jn. 1:9; Lk. 13:3). Then one is ready for baptism, as Paul was after he was saved, healed, and filled with the Spirit (Acts 9:17-18)

Baptism did not remit Paul's sin:

1 Acts 22:12-16 is not a detailed or consecutive account of all the facts, as in Acts 9:17-18, which states:
(1) Reception of sight (9:17-18)
(2) Filling of the Spirit (9:17)
(3) Arising from prayer (9:11, 18)
(4) Baptism in water (9:18)

2 Paul's own testimony elsewhere proves he was saved by faith in the blood (Rom. 3:24-25; 5:1; Eph. 1:7)

3 He was already saved, healed, and filled with the Spirit before he was told to "arise" (v 16 with 9:17-18)

4 "Wash away thy sins" is clearly a ceremonial washing, as are all washings by man (Mt. 8:3-4 with Lev. 14-15). The Gr. apoluo is used only two times once here of ceremonial cleansing and once in 1 Cor. 6:11 where it is the same in meaning as the baptism "without hands" of Col. 2:11

5 No scripture says that sins are washed away by baptism other than ceremonially. Cleansing is done by:
(1) God (Ps. 51:1-13; Tit. 2:11-13)
(2) Christ (Mt. 1:21; Rev. 1:5)
(3) The Holy Spirit (1 Cor. 6:11)
(4) Grace through faith (Eph. 2:8-9)
(5) Faith in the blood (Rom. 3:24-25; 5:9; Eph. 1:7; 1 Jn. 1:7; Mt. 26:28; Heb. 9:22; 1 Pet. 1:18-23; Rev. 1:5)

a This was the particular calling of Paul. He was the apostle to the Gentiles. He preached also to the Jews, but to preach and to write the revelation of God to the Gentiles was his great work. To this end we find him travelling in Judea, Samaria, Syria, Phoenicia, Arabia, Cilicia, Pisidia, Lycaonia, Pamphylia, Galatia, Phrygia, Macedonia, Greece, Asia, the Isles of the Mediterranean and the Aegean seas, Italy, Spain, and other lands. No other preached, travelled, and labored like Paul. The epistles of all the others are mainly Jewish in which many of the revelations of God to Christians are not found except in a minor way. Next to Jesus Christ Paul is the great founder of the Christian church in various lands. Jesus is the foundation.- Paul the master builder (1 Cor. 3:10)

b The second time airo is used to express "Kill him." See note e, 21:36. Any man leading Israel to a strange worship was to be killed (Dt. 13:12-18)

c 3 offences of Paul. To teach:
1 That Gentiles were equal to the Jews. This was intolerable
2 That God had rejected Jews and called Gentiles as His peculiar people. This was all the more unbearable, but it was what they brought upon themselves (Mt. 21:33-46; Rom. 11)
3 That Gentiles should be taught the Messiah of the Jews was a crucified malefactor. This was an outrageous offence to the Jew (1 Cor. 1:23) d Throwing their outer garments and dust into the air; getting ready to stone Paul for his insults. This was the oriental way of showing contempt, rage, and vindicative malice (2 Sam. 16:13)

e The centurian could not understand Paul so upon seeing the multitude grow more outrageous, he supposed that Paul must have given them the highest provocation. He then commanded him to be tortured to find out the nature of the crime. Scourging was a way of getting confession out of people.

f Questions 65-66. Next, 23:3

g Gr. politeia, citizenship. Used only here and in Eph. 2:12. This shows that citizenship in Rome could be bought h Tarsus was a free city and all its inhabitants were considered Roman citizens by a grant from Julius Caesar. Paul either received citizenship by being born in Tarsus or it may be that his father did outstanding service for Rome and was granted citizenship. It was unlawful to scourge or even bind a Roman citizen without open trial. Those who did so were liable to severe punishment and even death. By the simple mention of Rome one might escape punishment and even be given freedom in some cases (v 29; 16:36-40)

i Gr. politeuomai, to live as a citizen; be a good citizen and obey all the laws. Only here and Phil. 1:27. He means to say that all his life as a Jew and as a Christian he had been sincere and honest and no hypocrite. He now had a clear conscience in being a true Christian. Paul pleaded conscience as his guide when killing the saints, proving that conscience is not always a good guide. It can be seared and in that state is not normal (1 Tim. 4:1-2). It can not be a right rule unless enlightened and kept normal. In ignorance it can burn saints at the stake

9 Glad tidings (13:32)e

Gr. euangelizo, trans. declare (Rev. 10:7); preach unto (Rev. 14:6); bring good tidings (Lk. 2:10; 1 Th. 3:6); bring glad tidings (Rom. 10:15); declare glad tidings (Acts 13:32); show glad tidings (Lk. 1:19; 8:1); preach the gospel (Lk. 4:18; 9:6; 20:1; Acts 8:25; 14:7, 21; 16:10; Rom. 1:15; 10:15; 15:20; 1 Cor. 1:17; 9:16, 18; 2 Cor. 10:16; Gal. 1:8-9; 4:13; 1 Pet. 1:12); preach (Lk. 3:18; 4:43; Acts 5:42; 8:4, 12, 35, 40; 10:36; 11:20; 14:15; 15:35; 17:18; 1 Cor. 15:1-2; 2 Cor. 9:7; Gal. 1:16, 23; Eph. 2:17; 3:8); gospel is preached (Mt. 11:5; Lk. 7:22; 16:16; Gal. 1:11; Heb. 4:2, 6; 1 Pet. 1:25; 4:2, 6)

21 And he said unto me, [a]Depart: for I will send thee far hence unto the Gĕn'tiles.

(5) Paul rescued from the mob

22 And they gave him audience unto this word, and then lifted up their voices, and said, [b]Away with such a fellow from the earth: for it is [c]not fit that he should live.

23 And as they cried out, and [d]cast off their clothes, and threw dust into the air, 24 The chief captain commanded him to be brought into the castle, and [e]bade that he should be examined by scourging; that he might know wherefore they cried so against him.

(6) Paul a Roman citizen

25 And as they bound him with thongs, Paul said unto the centurion that stood by, Is it lawful for you to scourge a man that is Rō'man, and uncondemned?

26 When the centurion heard that, he went and told the chief captain, saying, Take heed what thou doest: for this man is a Rō'man.

27 Then the chief captain came, and said unto him, Tell me, art thou a Rō'man? He said, Yea.

28 And the chief captain answered, With a great sum obtained I this [f]freedom. And Paul said, [h]But I was free born.

29 Then straightway they departed from him which should have examined him: and the chief captain also was afraid, after he knew that he was a Rō'man, and because he had bound him.

30 On the morrow, because he would have known the certainty wherefore he was accused of the Jews, he loosed him from his bands, and commanded the chief priests and all their council to appear, and brought Paul down, and set him before them.

CHAPTER 23 — 112

9 Paul's defense before the Sanhedrin. (1) His testimony (Gal. 1:13; Phil. 3:5; 1 Tim. 1:13

AND Paul, earnestly beholding the council, said, Men and brethren, I have [i]lived in all good conscience before God until this day.

2 And the high priest Ăn-a-nī'as commanded them that stood by him to smite him on the mouth.

(2) Paul rebukes the high priest and repents

*3 Then said Paul unto him, God shall [j]smite thee, [k]thou whited wall: [l]for sittest thou to judge me after the law, and commandest me to be smitten contrary to the law?

4 And they that stood by said, Revilest thou God's high priest?

5 Then [a]said Paul, [b]I wist not, brethren, that he was the high priest: for it is written, [c]Thou shalt not speak evil of the ruler of thy people.

(3) Paul's new strategy: appeals to the Pharisees

6 But when Paul [d]perceived that the one part were Săd'du-cees, and the other Phăr'ī-sees, he cried out in the council, Men and brethren, I am a Phăr'ī-see, the son of a Phăr'ī-see: of the hope and [e]resurrection of the dead I am called in question.

(4) His strategy successful: division between the people over him

7 And when he had so said, there arose a dissension between the Phăr'ī-sees and the Săd'du-cees: and the multitude was divided.

8 For the Săd'du-cees say that there is [f]no resurrection, neither angel, nor spirit: but the Phăr'ī-sees confess both.

10 Paul again rescued (22:22)

9 And there arose a great cry: and the scribes that were of the Phăr'ī-sees' part arose, and strove, saying, [g]We find no evil in this man: but if a spirit or an angel hath spoken to him, let us not fight against God.

10 And when there arose a great dissension, the [h]chief captain, fearing lest Paul should have been pulled in pieces of them, commanded the soldiers to go down, and to take him by force from among them, and to bring him into the castle.

11 The Lord speaks to Paul

*11 And the night following the Lord [i]stood by him, and said, Be of good cheer, Paul: [k]for as thou hast testified of me in Jĕ-ru'sā-lĕm, so must thou bear witness also at Rome.

12 Conspiracy to kill Paul

12 And when it was day, certain of the Jews banded together, and bound themselves under a curse, saying that they would neither eat nor drink [l]till they had killed Paul.

13 And they were more than forty which had made this conspiracy.

14 And they came to the chief priests and elders, and said, We have bound ourselves under a great [m]curse, that we will eat nothing until we have slain Paul.

15 [n]Now therefore ye with the council signify to the chief captain that he bring him down unto you to morrow, as though ye would enquire something more perfectly concerning him: and we, or ever he come near, are ready to kill him.

13 The plot discovered a In his first address (22:1-21), Paul made it clear that he was a Jew with the regular Jewish education. He emphasized that he had all the prejudices of the Jew and had given full proof of this in that he was chief in persecution of Christians. He related his experiences with Jesus Christ on the road to Damascus and in the temple, but this was rejected by his people. Had he been a Gentile, no matter how learned or eminent he was, his whole teaching would have been discounted as coming from prejudice and ignorance. But, being who he was it was hard for them to discount what he said. God thus used one of the most eminent, learned, and bigoted Jews of that time to nullify the whole Jewish system and show the necessity of the gospel of Christ.

Now, in his second address to his people he changed his strategy and appealed to the party spirit of the Jews. He knew they were divided in politics and religion into two major groups - the Pharisees and Sadducees. He, being a Pharisee, made his appeal to that group declaring that because of the hope of the resurrection he was called in question. This brought results, for the Pharisees took up his cause (v 6-10)

b Paul was ignorant of this man being the high priest. He really was not, for he had been deprived of this office by the Romans, and succeeded by Jonathan, after whose murder by Festus there occurred a period of vacancy in this office. During this vacancy Ananias usurped the office from which he had been expelled for his crimes. When Paul said that he was ignorant that he was the true high priest he was stating a fact sincerely; for, though his friends called him so, they could not invest him with the office (Josephus, Ant. book XX, ch. 6). Paul no doubt thought that the person presiding was the sagan, or high priest's deputy, or some other person put in the seat for the moment

c Explaining that if he had known he was the high priest he would have shown reverence for the office (Ex. 22:28)

d Paul knowing he could not get justice, thought it best to split his persecutors and bring them at issue with each other. The Pharisees immediately took up his cause because they considered the Sadducees to be irreligious men

e The whole Christian religion is built around Christ and His bodily resurrection and without faith in both men are lost (Rom. 10:9-10; 1 Cor. 15:1-23) f This expresses the sum of the religion of both the Pharisees and Sadducees

g Paul now had on his side the Pharisees who were willing to go along with him if he had received a special revelation from God (v 9)

Tacitus tells us that he governed with all the authority of a king and the baseness and insolence of a slave. He was an unrighteous governor, a base mercenary, a very wicked man. Suetonius says that he had three wives, each a daughter of a king. Claudius made him Procurator of Judea in 52 A. D. Josephus gives many details of the stirring times of his rule, and of his cruelty and treachery (Ant. XX, vii, 1; viii, 5-7) k This letter is no doubt an exact reproduction by Luke, as seems clear from the letter itself. The whole of it is so perfectly formal as to prove this. It is in good style of letter writing of that day l He was the procurator's legate and was responsible for order in Jerusalem. He had acted in promptness and vigor and kind consideration of his prisoner. He said nothing about his proposing to scourge a Roman citizen. He respected Paul more than Felix (24:27) or even Festus (25:9, 14; 26:24) m An official title. Here: 24:3; 26:25; Lk. 1:3. The Gr. word for governor is hegemon, the general term for a subordinate ruler n He did not understand this until after he ordered Paul to be scourged (22:27).
o Referring to 22:30-23:10 p This was helpful to Paul in facing Felix and others. He was to need all the help he could get in face of Jewish hatred party: and so irreligious as to profane the temple

5 They were lawful citizens who had come to present charges that could be proved to the satisfaction of the governor

v Paul's defense, see below
w About 7 years, since 52 A. D., which could thus be called due to the frequent changes in governors of provinces (Josephus, Ant. book XX, chaps. 7-8)

Paul's defense was in 3 parts

1 Introduction: respect for the qualifications of justice in his judge

2 Refutation of charges. This considered of 4 parts to answer 4 accusations:
(1) I am not a plague or a pestilence, but a true worshipper of God (v 11)
(2) I am not a defiler of the temple
(3) I am not a trouble maker among the Jews in any place (v 12)
(4) They cannot prove one violation of any law (v 13)

3 Affirmation. This consisted of a

16 And when Paul's [a]sister's son heard of their [b]lying in wait, he[c]went and entered into the castle, and told Paul.

17 Then Paul [d]called one of the centurions unto him, and said, Bring this young man unto the chief captain: for he hath a certain thing to tell him.

18 So he took him, and brought him to the chief captain, and said, [e]Paul the prisoner called me unto him, and prayed me to bring this young man unto thee, who hath something to say unto thee.

19 Then the chief captain [f]took him by the hand, and went with him aside privately, and asked him, [g]What is that thou hast to tell me?

20 And he said, The Jews have agreed to desire thee that thou wouldest bring down Paul to morrow into the council, as though they would enquire somewhat of him more perfectly.

21 But do not thou yield unto them: for there lie in wait for him of them more than forty men, which have bound themselves with an oath, that they will neither eat nor drink till they have killed him: and now are they ready, looking for a promise from thee.

22 So the chief captain then let the young man depart, and charged him, See thou tell no man that thou hast shewed these things to me.

14 Paul sent to Felix at Cæsarea

23 And he called unto him two centurions, saying, [h]Make ready two hundred soldiers to go to Cæs-a-rē'a, and horsemen threescore and ten, and spearmen two hundred, at the [i]third hour of the night;

24 And provide them beasts, that they may set Paul on, and bring him safe unto [j]Fē'lix the governor.

15 The epistle to Felix

25 And he wrote a[k]letter after this manner:

26 [l]Clau'di-ŭs Ly'sī-as unto the [m]most excellent governor Fē'lix sendeth greeting.

27 This man was taken of the Jews, and should have been killed of them: then came I with an army, and rescued him, having [n]understood that he was a Rō'man.

28 And when I would have known the cause wherefore they accused him, [o]I brought him forth into their council:

29 Whom I perceived to be accused of questions of their law, but to have [p]nothing laid to his charge worthy of death or of bonds.

30 And when it was told me how that the Jews laid wait for the man, [q]I sent straightway to thee, and gave commandment to his [r]accusers also to say before thee what they had against him. [s]Farewell.

16 Paul and the epistle delivered to Felix

31 Then the soldiers, as it was commanded them, took Paul, and brought him by night to [t]An-tip'a-tris.

32 On the morrow they left the horsemen to go with him, and returned to the castle:

33 Who, when they came to [u]Cæs-a-rē'a, and delivered the epistle to the governor, presented Paul also before him.

17 Paul kept a prisoner

34 And when the governor had read the letter, he asked of what province he was. And when he understood that he was of [v]Çi-li'çia;

35 I will hear thee, said he, [w]when thine accusers are also come. And he commanded him to be kept in Hēr'od's [x]judgment hall.

113 CHAPTER 24

18 Paul before Felix: (1) The accusation against him

AND after five days [a]An-a-ni'as the high priest descended with the elders, and with a certain [b]orator named Tēr-tŭl'lus, who informed the governor against Paul.

2 And when he was called forth, [c]Tēr-tŭl'lus began to accuse him, [d]saying, Seeing that by thee we enjoy [e]great quietness, and that very worthy deeds are done unto this nation by thy [f]providence,

3 We accept it always, and in all places, most noble Fē'lix, with all thankfulness.

4 Notwithstanding, that I [g]be not further [h]tedious unto thee, I pray thee that thou wouldest hear us of thy [i]clemency a few words.

5 For we have [j]found this man a pestilent fellow, and a mover of sedition among all the Jews throughout the world, and a ringleader of the [k]sect of [l]the Năz-a-rēnes':

6 Who also hath gone about to [m]profane the temple: [n]whom we took, and would have judged according to our law.

7 [o]But the chief captain Ly'sī-as came upon us, and with great violence took him away out of our hands,

8 Commanding his accusers to come unto thee: by examining of whom thyself mayest take knowledge of all these things, whereof we accuse him.

9 And the Jews also [p]assented, saying that these things were so.

(2) Paul's defense before Felix

10 Then Paul, after that the governor had beckoned unto him to speak, [q]answered, Forasmuch as I know that thou hast been of [r]many years a judge unto this nation, I do the more cheerfully answer for myself:

a A small town in the plain of Sharon, about 40 miles from Jerusalem. It was the ancient Capharsaba mentioned by Josephus (Ant. book XIII, chap. 23). It was rebuilt by Herod the Great and named Antipatris in honor of his father Antipater
b Caesarea was now the political capital and home of the governor instead of Jerusalem. Being a seaport town it could speed communication with Rome. It flourished also as a Christian center of that vicinity until the 7th century. The city has long been destroyed and even its ruins have disappeared
c Cilicia was in the province of Syria and therefore under jurisdiction of Felix d Felix acted wisely in not hearing Paul until his accusers were present. When one side is heard at a time facts are generally obscure and the evil magnified. Hear both sides together and the evil is lessened e Gr. praitorion, a palace built by Herod the Great for holding courts, with apartments adjoining to confine prisoners. Or, it was a guard-room attached to Herod's palace. See notes, Mt. 27:27; Jn. 18:28
f See note b, 23:5
g Gr. rehtor, advocate
h This is a Roman name, yet he spoke as a Jew (v 2-9). But, the theory that he was a proselyte to the Jewish faith and employed by them as their lawyer is no doubt false. Had he been a proselyte the governor would have considered him at once both an apostate from Roman religion and a fool. Thus, it would have been unwise of the Jews to employ him i 3 parts to the oration:
1 Praise for the governor (v 2-3)
2 Accusation of Paul (v 5)
3 Narration of the charge (v 6-8)
j Much peace, Regardless of his wickedness and poor government, he had rendered Judea a great service in that he had suppressed the robber gangs (Josephus, Ant. book XX, chap. 8), had put down the Egyptian prophet (note g, 21:38), and had quelled a civil strife between Jews and Syrians in Caesarea. This had brought peace to the country k Gr. pronoia, care or oversight. Only here and in Rom. 13:14, which see.
l That I may neither trespass on your time, nor enumerate your many deeds m Gr. enkopto, hinder (v 4; Rom. 15:22; Gal. 5:7; 1 Th. 2:18; 1 Pet. 3:7) n Gr. epieikia, mildness, gentleness, fairness (2 Cor. 10:1)
o 4 accusations of Paul:
1 A pest. Gr. loimos, a plague, pestilence. Only here; Mt. 24:7; Lk. 21:11. It was a term used by current authors of a very bad or profligate man. He did not say he was a pestilent fellow, but pestilence itself
2 Sedition. Gr. stasis, a stirring up of sedition among all Jews (v 5)
3 Ringleader of heresy (v 5)
4 Defiler of the Jewish temple (v 6) p Gr. hairesis, heresy (note e, 5:17)
q Only here is this term applied to believers. Jews would not call them Christians (11:26), as this word was derived from the Gr. word for Messiah. They agreed to call them Nazarenes before Felix. Cp. Acts 6:14; 22:8
r This was the most weighty charge, for Romans permitted Jews to put anyone to death who profaned the temple. If it could be proved on Paul this alone would condemn him, but since it was false and based upon the lie of 21:28-29, it could not be proved s We would have judged fairly had the chief captain not taken him from us; and following our judgment would have killed him on the spot t Here Lysias, the chief captain, was accused of wrong doing as well as Paul. But he had many soldiers to testify for him and thus help Paul. Their cause was hindered but, as usual the devil overstepped himself through his agents. It became necessary to postpone the trial until Lysias came (v 22)
u A masterpiece of court procedure:
1 Felix praised to get his favor
2 Jews well pleased with his government and felt under obligation to him

The 6th day the 40 Jews plotted to kill him (23:12–22). That night the soldiers took him to Antipatris (23:23–31). The 7th day he was brought to Caesarea and presented to Felix (23:32–35). f He also believed that the law was not in force for Christians (note o, 15:1; note i, 15:24; 85 contrasts, 201)

q Gr. anesis, relaxation. Here; 2 Cor. 2:13; 7:5; 8:13; 2 Th. 1:7. This is proof that Felix knew he was not guilty of any crime. He would have turned him loose but for two reasons: to please the Jews and hoping to get money from the apostle or his friends for his release (v 26–27)
r She was the daughter of king Herod Agrippa I, and had left her first husband, king Azizus of Emesa, and married Felix. It was no doubt through her that he had his knowledge of the way (v 22). The moment Felix saw her he fell very deeply in love with her, and by means of a pretended Jewish magician, persuaded her to leave her husband. He then took her to be his wife. Josephus mentions that she and her son by Felix were consumed by an eruption of Mt. Vesuvius (Am. book XX, chap. 8)

v This is the sinner's excuse when he is under conviction and refuses to surrender w He saw that Paul had many friends and was head of a large part of Christianity so he hoped they would obtain his freedom with money x Nothing is known of these conversations in particular, but no doubt the subjects of v 25 were continued

11 Because that thou mayest understand, that there are yet but [a]twelve days since I went up to Jĕ-rụ'sā-lĕm for to worship.

12 And they neither found me in the temple disputing with any man, neither raising up the people, neither in the synagogues, nor in the city:

13 Neither can they prove [b]the things whereof they now accuse me.

14 But this I [c]confess unto thee, that after the way which they call [d]heresy, so worship I the [e]God of my fathers, believing all things which are written in [f]the law and in the prophets:

▸15 And have hope toward God, which they themselves also allow, that there shall be [g]a resurrection of the dead, both of the [h]just and [i]unjust.

16 And herein do I [j]exercise myself, to have always a conscience void of offence [k]toward God, and toward men.

17 Now after [l]many years I came to bring [m]alms to my nation, and [n]offerings.

18 [o]Whereupon certain Jews from A'sĭa found me purified in the temple, neither with multitude, nor with tumult.

19 Who ought to have been here before thee, and object, if they had ought against me.

20 Or else let these same here say, if they have found any evil doing in me, while I stood before the council, 21 Except it be for [p]this one voice, that I cried standing among them, Touching the resurrection of the dead I am called in question by you this day.

(3) Trial postponed: Paul permitted liberty and visits

22 And when Fē'lĭx heard these things, having more perfect knowledge of that way, he deferred them, and said, When Lў'sĭ-as the chief captain shall come down, I will know the uttermost of your matter.

23 And he commanded a centurion to keep Paul, and to let him have [q]liberty, and that he should forbid none of his acquaintance to minister or come unto him.

19 Paul preaches to Felix

24 And after certain days, when Fē'lĭx came with his wife [r]Drụ-sĭl'lá, which was a Jew'ess, he sent for Paul, and [s]heard him concerning the faith in Christ.

25 And as he [t]reasoned of righteousness, temperance, and judgment to come, Fē'lĭx [u]trembled, and answered, Go thy way for this time; when I have a [v]convenient season, I will call for thee.

26 [w]He hoped also that money should have been given him of Paul, that he might loose him: wherefore he sent for him the oftener, and [x]communed with him.

20 Two years of silence at Cæsarea

27 But after [a]two years Pôr'cĭ-ŭs [b]Fĕs'tus came into Fē'lĭx' room: and Fē'lĭx, [c]willing to shew the Jews a pleasure, left Paul bound.

CHAPTER 25 114

21 New plot to slay Paul

NOW when Fĕs'tus was come into the province, after three days he ascended from Cæs-a-rē'á to Jĕ-rụ'sā-lĕm.

2 [d]Then the high priest and the chief of the Jews informed him against Paul, and besought him,

3 And desired favour against him, that he would send for him to Jĕ-rụ'sā-lĕm, laying wait in the way to kill him.

22 The plot foiled by Festus

4 But [e]Fĕs'tus answered, that Paul should be kept at Cæs-a-rē'á, and that he himself would depart shortly thither.

5 Let them therefore, said he, which among you are able, go down with me, and accuse this man, if there be any wickedness in him.

23 Paul before Festus

6 And when he had tarried among them more than ten days, he went down unto Cæs-a-rē'á; and the next day sitting on the judgment seat commanded Paul to be brought.

7 And when he was come, the Jews which came down from Jĕ-rụ'sā-lĕm stood round about, and [f]laid many and grievous complaints against Paul, which they could not prove.

8 [g]While he answered for himself, Neither against the law of the Jews, neither against the temple, nor yet against Cæ'sar, have I offended any thing at all.

9 [h]But Fĕs'tus, willing to do the Jews a pleasure, answered Paul, and said, [i]Wilt thou go up to Jĕ-rụ'sā-lĕm, and there be judged of these things before me?

24 Paul appeals to Cæsar

10 Then said Paul, [j]I stand at Cæ'sar's judgment seat, where I ought to be judged: [k]to the Jews have I done no wrong, as thou very well knowest.

11 For if I be an offender, or have committed any thing worthy of death, I refuse not to die: but if there be none of these things whereof these accuse me, no man may deliver me unto them. [l]I appeal unto Cæ'sar.

12 Then Fĕs'tus, [m]when he had conferred with the [n]council, answered, [o]Hast thou appealed unto Cæ'sar? unto Cæ'sar shalt thou go.

25 King Agrippa informed of Paul by Festus

13 And after certain days king [p]Ă-grĭp'pá and Bẽr-nī'çē came a Paul could have been released for two years if he had paid a bribe (v 26)

b He was made procurator, 60 A. D. He wished to have the support of the priests so sought to send Paul back to Jerusalem for trial, perhaps not knowing the reason for the request of the Jews (25:3) c As he had not received the bribe which he expected, he now left Paul bound to win favor of the Jews who planned making charges against Felix in Rome. They pressed their charges even to the emperor who would have punished him if it had not been for the pleadings of his brother who was a favorite with the emperor
d The new plot was to get Paul sent back to Jerusalem and then have men kill him on the way (v 3)
e Festus had everything to gain and nothing to lose in granting this request, but God was working and put in his heart to hear Paul in Caesarea
f The Jews no doubt invented many false charges against Paul in order to turn the mind of the new governor against him and so get him in their hands, but they could prove nothing (v 7)
g Paul defended himself against every charge and said nothing against the law of the Jews, against their temple, or against Caesar, and so disproved every charge to the satisfaction of Festus (v 8)
h The hearings ended with Paul vindicated on all charges and Festus seeking some means to pacify the Jews and win them to his favor
i Question 70, Next, v 12
j Paul could see no point in going to Jerusalem to go through the same charges a third time. Then, too, he knew that the Jews would plot to kill him and that God had already told him that he must yet see Rome; so he made his appeal to Caesar (v 10–12)
k Festus admitted this (v 18–19)
l Paul knew that Festus was only seeking to pacify the Jews by handing him over to them, so was constrained to appeal to Caesar. Every Roman citizen had the right of such appeal so Paul knew this was the only thing left to do to save his life and continue in his work for Christ. No Roman representative could do otherwise than send him to Rome under these circumstances. An appeal to Caesar was highly respected. The Julian law condemned any magistrate who condemned, tortured, imprisoned, or put to death anyone who would appeal to Caesar m The appeal of Paul to Caesar was evidently conditional or Festus would not have conferred with his council of Roman officers. A direct appeal without condition would have brought no other choice on the part of Festus. We may therefore understand Paul to say, "I now stand before a tribunal where I ought to be judged; if you refuse to hear and try this cause here, rather than go to Jerusalem, I appeal to Caesar."
n The word for council here is not the same word sunedrion used elsewhere in Acts. The Gr. sumbouliou used here means the assembly of counsellors or board of advisers to the procurator in every province. Rulers took council with this board of advisers before rendering judgment. This council advised him to send Paul to Caesar if this was Paul's desire o Question 71, Next, 26:8. The fact Festus asked Paul this question proves that the request of Paul was conditional, but if he really meant to appeal to Caesar it would be granted p This was the second son of Herod Agrippa who is mentioned in Acts 12:1. At the death of his father he was too young to be king, but in 50 A. D. Claudius gave him the kingdom of Chalcis. His uncle, the husband of Bernice had died two years before. Shortly after this he was appointed the tetrarchies of Abilene and Trachonitis, with the title of king. His relations with his sister Bernice were the occasions of much suspicion. He was of Idumean descent and well acquainted with Jewish laws. He was also given power to appoint the high priests. He was strongly attached to the Romans and did all in his power to keep the Jews from rebellion. When they did rebel he united his army with Titus and helped destroy Jerusalem. He survived the ruin of his country several years a To pay respects to the new governor

b Festus knew that Agrippa was better acquainted with matters of Jewish religion than he was, so spoke to him of the case of Paul c The heathen had a better sense of justice than the religious Jews who should have been shamed by this fact; but they were past all sense of shame. They killed their own Messiah when the heathen protested the slaying of an innocent man. They killed Stephen in a rage without a trial. They gloated over the death of James and thirsted for the lives of Peter, Paul, and many others and all this contrary to the very law they claimed to keep. It was not justice the Jews wanted, but the life of the apostle. What the heathen thought of these religious people desiring the lives of people instead of saving their lives is only recorded in heaven
d The Romans did not give the lives of men away to favor anyone. The accusers of Paul did not bring any accusation against him that was worthy of death. Festus reported: The charges were different from what I had supposed. They concerned certain questions of their own religion and about one Jesus, which was dead, whom Paul claimed to be still alive. Because I did not understand such things I asked Paul if he was willing to go to Jerusalem and answer questions of this kind, but Paul refused and appealed to Caesar (v 14–21)
e All that is meant by this is religion, national creed, or worship f This is all the enlightenment this poor heathen got out of the religious discussions between the Jews and Paul

g Lit., I was at a loss to know how to decide such questions h The august, or venerable. It was a title Roman emperors assumed following the death of Julius Caesar

i Paul the prisoner was becoming famous as the witness of Jesus to rulers of the earth, fulfilling Mt. 10:18; Acts 9:15. His fame had spread abroad throughout all Judea, Samaria, Syria, Asia Minor, Greece, and other countries, so the king was curious to hear him. His father had been a persecutor of Christianity and had killed James. He proceeded to take Peter and would have destroyed others also if he had not been removed by death. Agrippa had no doubt heard much about Christianity by this time

m Festus made an introduction of Paul to the assembled multitude of great men who were curious to hear Paul talk about his religion. He was not on trial, for he was to be tried in Rome

2 Gr. enkrateia, self-control, chastity, or moderation with regard to the appetites, passions, and propensities of all kinds. Only here; Gal. 5:23; 2 Pet. 1:6, Cp. 1 Cor. 7:9; 9:25; Tit. 1:8

3 Gr. krima, judgment to come; a day of retribution, in which the unjust, intemperate, and incontinent must give account of all the deeds of the body, soul, and spirit. Trans. judgment 13 times (Mt. 7:2; Jn. 9:39; Acts 24:25; Rom. 2:2–3; 5:16; 11:33; Gal. 5:10; Heb. 6:2; 1 Pet. 4:17; 2 Pet. 2:3; Rev. 17:1; 20:4); damnation 7 times (Mt. 23:14; Mk. 12:40; Lk. 20:47; Rom. 3:8; 13:2; 1 Cor. 11:29; 1 Tim. 5:12); condemnation 5 times (Lk. 23:40; 1 Cor. 11:34; 1 Tim. 3:6; Jas. 3:1; Jude 4); and condemned (Lk. 24:20). Never did a man preach a sermon more fitting than to these two who lived under the power of avarice and unbridled lusts, intemperance, and injustice to others unto Çæs-a-rē'á to[a]salute Fēs'-tus.

14 And when they had been there many days, Fēs'tus declared [b]Paul's cause unto the king, saying, There is a certain man left in bonds by Fē'lix:

15 About whom, when I was at Jē-ru'sā-lēm, the chief priests and the elders of the Jews informed me, desiring to have judgment against him.

16 To whom I answered, [c]It is not the manner of the Rō'mans to deliver any man to die, before that he which is accused have the accusers face to face, and have licence to answer for himself concerning the crime laid against him.

17 Therefore, when they were come hither, without any delay on the morrow I sat on the judgment seat, and commanded the man to be brought forth.

18 Against whom when [d]the accusers stood up, they brought none accusation of such things as I supposed:

19 But had certain questions against him of their own [e]superstition, and of one Jē'sus, which was dead, [f]whom Paul affirmed to be alive.

20 And because I [g]doubted of such manner of questions, I asked him whether he would go to Jē-ru'sā-lēm, and there be judged of these matters.

21 But when Paul had appealed to be reserved unto the hearing of [h]Au-gŭs'tus, I commanded him to be kept till I might send him to Çæ'sar.

22 Then Ā-grīp'pá said unto Fēs'tus, [i]I would also hear the man myself. To morrow, said he, thou shalt hear him.

26 Paul before Agrippa

23 And on the morrow, when Ā-grīp'pá was come, and Bēr-nī'çē, with great [j]pomp, and was entered into the place of hearing, with the [k]chief captains, and [l]principal men of the city, at Fēs'tus' commandment Paul was brought forth.

24 And Fēs'tus [m]said, King Ā-grīp'pá, and all men which are here present with us, ye see this man, about whom all the multitude of the Jews have dealt with me, both at Jē-ru'-sā-lēm, and also here, crying that he ought not to live any longer.

25 But when [n]I found that he had committed nothing worthy of death, and that he himself hath appealed to Au-gŭs'tus, I have determined to send him.

26 Of whom I have no certain thing to write unto my [o]lord. Wherefore I have brought him forth before you, and specially before thee, O king Ā-grīp'pá, that, after examination had, I might have somewhat to write.

27 For it seemeth to me unreasonable to send a prisoner, and not withal to signify the crimes laid against him.

115 CHAPTER 26

27 Paul's defense before Agrippa: (1) Persecution of Christians (Acts 9:1, refs.)

THEN Ā-grīp'pá said unto Paul, Thou art permitted to speak for thyself. [a]Then Paul stretched forth his hand, and [b]answered for himself:

2 I think myself [c]happy, king Ā-grīp'pá, because I shall answer for myself this day before thee touching all the things whereof I am accused of the Jews:

3 Especially because I know thee to be expert in all [d]customs and [e]questions which are among the Jews: wherefore I beseech thee to hear me patiently.

4 My manner of life from my youth, which was at the [f]first among mine own nation at Jē-ru'sā-lēm, know all the Jews;

5 Which [g]knew me from the beginning, if they would testify, that after the most straitest [h]sect of our religion I lived a Phăr'i-see.

6 And now I stand and am judged [i]for the hope of the promise [j]made of God unto our fathers:

7 Unto which promise [k]our twelve tribes, instantly serving God day and night, hope to come. For which hope's sake, king Ā-grīp'pá, I am accused of the Jews.

8 [l]Why should it be thought a thing incredible with you, that God should raise the dead?

9 I verily thought with myself, that I ought to do [m]many things contrary to the name of Jē'sus of Năz'a-rēth.

10 Which thing I also did in Jē-ru'sā-lēm: and many of the [n]saints did I [o]shut up in prison, having received authority from the chief priests; and when they were put to death, I gave my voice against them.

11 And I punished them oft in every synagogue, and compelled them to blaspheme; and being [p]exceedingly mad against them, I persecuted them even unto [q]strange cities.

12 Whereupon as [r]I went to Dā-más'cus with authority and commission from the chief priests,

(2) His conversion (9:3; 23:6)

13 At [s]midday, O king, I saw in the way a light from heaven, above the brightness of the sun, shining round about me and them which journeyed with me.

14 And when we were all fallen to the earth, I heard a voice speaking unto me, and saying in the Hē'brew tongue, [t]Saul, Saul, why persecutest thou me? it is hard for thee to kick against the [u]pricks.

15 And I said, Who art thou, Lord? And he said, I am Jē'sus whom thou persecutest.

★16 But rise, and stand upon thy feet: for I have appeared unto thee for this purpose, to make thee a [v]minister and [w]a witness both of these things which thou hast seen, [x]and of those things in the which I will appear unto thee;

17 Delivering thee from the people, and from the Gĕn'tiles, unto[o] whom now I send thee,

▸18 To open their eyes, and to turn them from darkness to light, and from the power of Sā'tan unto God, that they may receive forgiveness of sins, and inheritance among them which are[p] sanctified by faith that is in me.

(3) His preaching (9:20; 22:17)

19 Whereupon, O king Ā-grĭp'-pā, I was not[c] disobedient unto the[d] heavenly vision:
20 But shewed first unto them of Dā-măs'cus, and at Jē-ry'-sā-lĕm, and throughout all the coasts of Jū-dæ'ā, and then to the Gĕn'tiles,[q] that they should repent and turn to God, and do works meet for repentance.

(4) Reason for his arrest

21 For[r] these causes the Jews caught me in the temple, and went about to kill me.
22 Having therefore obtained help of God, I continue unto this day, witnessing both to small and great, saying none other things than those which the prophets and Mō'şeş did say should come:
★23 [g] That Christ should suffer, and that he should be the[h] first that should rise from the dead, and should shew light unto the people, and[s] to the Gĕn'tiles.◂

(5) Paul accused of being mad

24 And as he thus spake for himself, Fēs'tus said with a loud voice, Paul, thou art beside thyself; much [t] learning doth make thee[k] mad.

(6) Paul's answer to the accusation of his madness

25 But he said, [l] I am not mad, most noble Fēs'tus; but speak forth the words of truth and soberness.
26 For the king knoweth of these things, before whom also I speak freely: for I am persuaded that none of these things are hidden from him; [m] for this thing was not done in a corner.

(7) Paul appeals to Agrippa

27 King Ā-grĭp'pā, [n] believest thou the prophets? I know that thou believest.
28 Then Ā-grĭp'pā said unto Paul, [o] Almost thou persuadest me to be a Chris'tian.
29 And Paul said, I would to God, that not only thou, but also all that hear me this day, were both almost, and altogether such as I am, except these bonds.

(8) Decision of Agrippa

30 And when he had thus spoken, the king rose up, and the governor, and Bēr-nī'çē, and they that sat with them:
31 And when they were gone aside, they talked between themselves, saying, This man doeth[a] nothing worthy of death or of bonds.
32 Then said Ā-grĭp'pā unto Fēs'tus, [b] This man might have been set at liberty, if he had not appealed unto Çæ'şar.

CHAPTER 27 116

XIV Paul sent to Rome (Acts 27:1-28:16). 1 Cæsarea to Myra

AND when it was determined that we should sail into It'a-lỹ, they delivered Paul and certain other prisoners unto one named [c] Jū'lĭ-ŭs, a centurion of Au-gŭs'tus' band.
2 And entering into a ship[d] of Ad-ra-mỹt'tĭ-ŭm, we[e] launched, meaning to sail by the coasts of A'şia; one [f] Ar-ĭs-tär'chus, a Măç-e-dō'nĭ-an of Thĕs-sa-lō-nī'cā, being with us.
3 And the next day we touched at Sī'dŏn. And Jū'lĭ-ŭs courteously entreated Paul, and gave him liberty to go unto his friends to refresh himself.
4 And when we had launched from thence, we sailed under Çỹ'prus, because the winds were contrary.
5 And when we had sailed over the sea of Çĭ-lĭ'çĭā and Păm-phỹl'ĭ-ā, we came to Mỹ'rā, a city of Lỹ'çĭā.

2 Change ships for Italy

6 And there the centurion found a ship of Āl-ĕx-ăn'drĭ-ā sailing into It'a-lỹ; and he put us therein.
7 And when we had sailed slowly many days, and scarce were come over against Cnī'dus, the wind not suffering us, we sailed under Crēte, over against Săl-mō'nē;
8 And, hardly passing it, came unto a place which is called The Fair Havens; nigh whereunto was the city of Lā-sē'ā.
9 Now when much time was spent, and when sailing was now dangerous, because [g] the fast was now already past, Paul admonished them,

3 Paul's advice unheeded

★10 And said unto them, Sirs, [h] I perceive that this voyage will be with hurt and much damage, not only of the lading and ship, but also of our lives.
11 Nevertheless the[i] centurion believed the master and the owner of the ship, more than those things which were spoken by Paul.
12 And because the haven was not commodious to winter in, the more part advised to depart thence also, if by any means they might attain to Phē-nī'çē, and there to winter; which is an haven of Crēte, and lieth toward the[j] south west and north west.
13 And[k] when the south wind blew softly, supposing that they had obtained their purpose, loosing thence, they sailed close by Crēte.

4 The storm and despair of life (Cp. Ps. 107:21-30)

14 But not long after there a Clear testimony that Paul was innocent of any wrong doing against the Jews b No doubt Agrippa wanted to see the immediate release of Paul, but the appeal to Caesar was on record and it was now impracticable to change it i He was in authority, being in imperial service, so they sailed on. They sought to get to Phenice at the western end of the island and there spend the winter

j Phenice was located in a harbor that had two openings divided by a little island. One opening was in the direction in which the southwest wind blows toward the northeast; the other opening was in the direction in which the northwest wind blows toward the southeast. Recent researches prove that this is the exact description of the haven of Phenice, Crete k When they saw the wind blow softly they all supposed that they would make it to Phenice, but Paul's prophecy of v 10 had to be fulfilled

(10) Discerned spirits and brought judgment on people (Acts 13:6-11; 16:16; 1 Cor. 4:18-21; 5:5-6)
(11) Ignored natural remedies when bitten by a viper (Acts 28:3-5)
(12) He got up from stonings, beatings, and other personal sufferings and went about his work without hospitalization (Acts 14:19-20; 16:22-40; 21:27-40; 2 Cor. 11:24-28; 12:5-10)
4 Strange doctrines - unusual doctrines, as salvation without works (Rom. 3:24-31; 4:1-8); gifts of the Spirit (1 Cor. 12); the fulness of God for believers (Eph. 3:19); second advent of Christ (2 Th. 1:7-10); freedom from sin (Rom. 6:14-23; 8:1-13; Gal. 5:16-26); and many other prophetical and doctrinal subjects so strange to millions today Was Paul a madman? To men like Festus he was, but to Christians all he experienced and taught confirms the true Christian faith of truth and soberness (v 25)

l I am not insane, but speak truth m Agrippa knew these words to be true for the life of Christ was well known n Question 75. The last question in Acts o This is to be taken literally, that he was almost persuaded to embrace Christianity. At least, this is the way that Paul understood it and so answered it in v 29 arose against it a[a]tempestuous wind, called[b]Eū-rŏc'lȳ-dŏn.

15 And when the [c]ship was caught, and could not bear up into the wind, we let her drive.

16 And running under a certain island which is [d]called Clą̄u'dą́, we had much work to come by the[c]boat:

17 Which when they had taken up, they used [f]helps, undergirding the ship; and, fearing lest they should fall into [g]the quicksands,[h]strake sail, and so were driven.

18 And we being exceedingly tossed with a tempest, the next day they[i]lightened the ship;

19 And the third day we cast out with [j]our own hands [k]the tackling of the ship.

20 And when neither sun nor stars in many days appeared, and no small[l]tempest lay on us, all hope that we should be saved was then taken away.

5 Paul's vision and prophecy

21 But after long[m]abstinence Paul stood forth in the midst of them, and said, Sirs,[n]ye should have hearkened unto me, and not have loosed from Crete, and to have gained this harm and loss.

*22 [o]And now I exhort you to be of good cheer: for there shall be no loss of any man's life among you, but of the ship.

23 For there stood by me this night the angel of God, whose I am, and whom I serve, 24 Saying, Fear not, Paul; thou must be brought before Cæ'sar: and, lo, God hath given thee all them that sail with thee.

25 Wherefore, sirs, be of good cheer: for I believe God, that it shall be even as it was told me.

26 Howbeit we must be cast upon a certain island.

6 Fulfillment of the prophecy

27 But when the fourteenth night was come, as we [p]were driven up and down in A'drĭ-ą́, about midnight the shipmen deemed that they drew near to some country;

28 And sounded, and found it [q]twenty fathoms: and when they had gone a little further, they sounded again, and found it[r]fifteen fathoms.

29 Then fearing lest we should have fallen upon rocks, they cast [s]four anchors out of the stern, and wished for the day.

30 And as the shipmen were about to flee out of the ship, when they had let down the boat into the sea, under[t]colour as though they would have cast anchors out of the foreship,

*31 Paul said to the centurion and to the soldiers, "Except these abide in the ship, ye cannot be saved.

32 [v]Then the soldiers cut off the ropes of the boat, and let her fall off.

33 And while the day was coming on, Paul besought them all to take meat, saying,[w]This day is the fourteenth day that ye have tarried and continued fasting, having taken[x]nothing.

*34 Wherefore I pray you to take some meat; for this is[y]for your [z]health: [c]for there shall not an hair fall from the head of any of you.

35 And when he had thus spoken, he took bread, and gave thanks to God in presence of them all: and when he had broken it, he began to eat.

36 Then were they all of[d]good cheer, and they also took some meat.

37 And we were in all in the ship [c]two hundred threescore and sixteen souls.

38 And when they had eaten enough, they lightened the ship, and cast out the [f]wheat into the sea.

39 And when it was day, they knew not the land: but they discovered a certain[g]creek with a shore, into the which they were minded, if it were possible, to thrust in the ship.

40 And when they had taken up the anchors, they committed themselves unto the sea, and loosed the[h]rudder bands, and hoisted up the [f]mainsail to the wind, and made toward shore.

41 And falling into a place where [i]two seas met, they ran the ship aground; and the forepart stuck fast, and remained unmovable, but the hinder part was broken with the violence of the waves.

42 And the soldiers' counsel was to kill the prisoners, [k]lest any of them should swim out, and escape.

43 But the centurion, [l]willing to save Paul, kept them from their purpose; and commanded that they which could swim should cast themselves first into the sea, and get to land:

44 And the rest, some on boards, and some on broken pieces of the ship. [m]And so it came to pass, that they escaped all safe to land.

117 CHAPTER 28

7 Landing on the Island of Melita about 75 miles south of Sicily

AND when they were escaped, then they knew that the island was called[n]Mĕl'ĭ-tą́.

2 And the [o]barbarous people shewed us no little kindness: for they kindled a fire, and received us every one, because of the present rain, and because of the cold.

8 Miracle of the viper bite (Mk. 16:18; Lk. 10:19; Ps. 91:13)

3 And when Paul had gathered a bundle of sticks, and laid them on the fire, there came a [p]viper out of the heat, and fastened on his hand.

4 And when the barbarians saw the venomous beast hang on his hand, they said among themselves, [q]No doubt this man is a murderer, whom, though he hath escaped the sea, yet vengeance suffereth not to live.

5 And he [r]shook off the beast into the fire, and [s]felt no harm.

h Gr. pedalion, only here; Jas. 3:4. A rudder was a board to guide the course of the vessel. Ancient ships had two or more rudders at the side. The bands were some kind of fastenings, by which the rudders were hoisted out of the water when the storms got too bad to use them and something to let them down into water again when needed. The bands being loosened, the rudders fell down into the water to help steer the ship into the creek if possible j A peninsula washed on both sides by the sea. It also could signify reefs of rock partly above and below the water k The lives of the soldiers were at stake if their prisoners escaped l The centurian saw that Paul was an innocent and a very godly man so wished to save him. He had all the prisoners loosed so they could swim to the shore if possible

It is one immense rock of white, soft freestone, with hardly a foot depth of earth on the average; and most of it has been brought from Sicily. St. Paul's Bay, the traditional scene of the shipwreck, fulfills the description in Acts 27
o Gr. barbaros. Here; v 4; Rom. 1:14; 1 Cor. 14:11; Col. 3:11. It does not mean that they were uncivilized, for Greeks called any people barbarians who did not speak the Greek language. Paul himself used the term of those whose language he did not understand (1 Cor. 14:11). The Egyptians also called all barbarians who did not speak their language p Gr. echidna. Here; Mt. 3:7, note r; 12:34; 23:33; Lk. 3:7
q It was held by the heathen here that if one was worthy of death a serpent would bite him. Even Jews held this idea, as found in some of the writings of the Rabbins r This is the way Paul handled snakes. He did not make a side show of it to prove to the heathen that he had faith, as some foolishly do today. That is not the meaning of Mk. 16:17-18, which see s This was a true demonstration of the promise of Mk. 16:17-18 a They looked intently to see him soon swell and die by the poison of the viper that was introduced into the blood stream. Such poison causes the blood to coagulate quickly. As it thickens, the vessels become obstructed, strong inflamation takes place, and all parts become painfully swollen, producing death in a short time

b A longer time than they knew the viper poison would have killed the ordinary person. When they saw it had no effect on him they changed their minds and said he was a god

c Hercules was one of the gods of the Phoenicians and was worshipped on Malta under the title of dispeller of evil. They perhaps thought he was Hercules; and the more so, because Hercules was famous for having destroyed two serpents that attacked him in the cradle when he was a baby

d Gr. puretos, fevers. Here: Mt. 8:15; Mk. 1:31; Lk. 4:38-39; Jn. 4:52

e Gr. dusenteria, dysentery

f Such a miracle of healing took place that the heathen could see it and know that it was the hand of God. This produced faith so that many others were brought and were healed

g We do not find Luke, the physician having one thing to do with these cures. All were done by prayer and faith, so the modern theory that Luke accompanied Paul as his personal physician to keep him well is out of harmony with truth. Not one thing is ever mentioned of this in all the history of Luke with Paul. Could a man not be trained as a physician and leave his practice to go into gospel work without such a conclusion? Just because he was one time a physician, does that give us authority to teach Paul was a preacher employing a personal physician, especially when he, himself prayed for the sick and healed them by the power of God? See note, 2 Tim. 4:20

h They perhaps reached Malta the last of October or early November, so they sailed again in January or February. At this time of the winter the seas were more calm and the sailing comparatively safe

i This was another grain boat from Africa sailing for Italy, which had wintered in Malta until it was more safe to sail again (Cp. 27:6)

j Gr. Dioskourol, twin sons of Jupiter and Leda, who were supposed to have been translated to heaven and made the two brightest stars in the constellation called Gemini. This sign was propitious to mariners, and it was the custom to have their images on the head and stem of their ships k One of the most famous cities of antiquity. It was the capital of Sicily and built 730 B. C. Christianity has existed there since Paul's 3-day visit of v 12

l A city in southern Italy opposite Sicily. It is now called Reggio

m A city on the Bay of Naples, now called Pozzuoli. It was built about 470 B. C. It was famous for its temple of Jupiter Serapis, which was not built according to the Grecian and Roman, but according to the Adatic pattern n There were already Christians living in Puteoli, perhaps having heard the gospel on Pentecost, being converts of men who were in the Jerusalem revival of Acts 2-8. Many from Rome were present at Pentecost (Acts 2:10). Many in Italy had been converted since then. Paul wrote his epistles to Christians here about 30 years after Pentecost, or about 60 A. D.

o A town about 52 miles from Rome. Christians from Rome met the apostle here (v 15). When Paul saw them he gave thanks and took courage

8 ways God speaks to men:
1 By prophecy (Acts 3:21; 2 Pet. 1:21; Acts 11:27-28; 21:10; Heb. 1:1)
2 Tongues and interpretation (1 Cor. 12:4-11; 14:1-40)
3 Still small voice (1 Ki. 19:12)
4 Audible voice (Mt. 1:17; 17:5; Jn. 12:28; Acts 9:7; Dt. 5)
5 By angels (Acts 8:26; 12:8; 27:23)
6 By visions (Ps. 89:19; Acts 9:10; 10:3; 11:5; 16:9; 18:9)
7 By dreams (Gen. 20:6; Mt. 1:20; 2:12-22; Acts 2:17; Dan. 2:19, 28, 45)
8 By impression upon man's spirit (Acts 17:16; 18:5; 19:21; 2 Cor. 2:13; Eph. 4:30; 1 Th. 5:19; Rom. 8:16). This could be called intuition, impression, inner consciousness, inspiration. It can come in various forms and ways.
The fact the Holy Ghost acts, chooses, wills, speaks, commissions, sends, and exercises personal powers proves that He is a person with a personal spirit body, a soul, and a spirit

6 Howbeit they[d] looked when he should have swollen, or fallen down dead suddenly: but after they had looked a[b] great while, and saw no harm come to him, they changed their minds, and said that he was a[c] god.

7 In the same quarters were possessions of the chief man of the island, whose name was Pŭb'lĭ-ŭs; who received us, and lodged us three days courteously.

9 Healing of the sick on Melita

8 And it came to pass, that the father of Pŭb'lĭ-ŭs lay sick of[a] a fever and of a[e] bloody flux: to whom Paul entered in, and prayed, and laid his hands on him, and[f] healed him.

9 So when this was done, others also, which had diseases in the island, came,[g] and were healed:

10 Who also honoured us with many honours; and when we departed, they laded us with such things as were necessary.

10 Melita to Rome in Italy

11 And after[h] three months we departed in a[i] ship of Al-ĕx-ăn'-drĭ-á, which had wintered in the isle, whose sign was[j] Cās'tŏr and Pŏl'lux.

12 And landing at[k] Syr-a-cūse', we tarried there three days.

13 And from thence we fetched a compass, and came to[l] Rhē'-gĭ-ŭm: and after one day the south wind blew, and we came the next day to[m] Pū-tē'o-lī:

14 [n]Where we found brethren, and were desired to tarry with them seven days: and so we went toward Rōme.

15 And from thence, when the brethren heard of us, they came to meet us as far as [o]Ăp'ĭ-ī Fō'rum, and [p]The Three Taverns: whom when Paul saw, he thanked God, and took courage.

16 And when we [q]came to Rōme, the centurion delivered the prisoners to the[r] captain of the guard: but Paul was suffered to dwell by himself with a soldier that kept him.

11 Paul in Rome: defense before Jews. Cp. Acts 23:1; 26:1

17 And it came to pass, that after three days Paul called the chief of the Jews together: and when they were come together, he said unto them, [s]Men and brethren, though I have committed nothing against the people, or customs of our fathers, yet was I delivered prisoner from Jĕ-ru'sā-lĕm into the hands of the Rō'mans.

18 Who, when they had examined me, would have let me go, because there was no cause of death in me.

19 But when the Jews spake against it,[t] I was constrained to appeal unto Cæ'sar; not that I had ought to accuse my nation of.

20 [u]For this cause therefore have I called for you, to see you, and to speak with you: because that for[v] the hope of Is'ra-el I am bound with this chain.

12 Paul preaches to the Jews

21 And they[d] said unto him, We neither received letters out of Jū-dæ'á concerning thee, neither any of the brethren that came shewed or spake any harm of thee.

22 But we[e] desire to hear of thee what thou thinkest: for as concerning this[f] sect, we know that [t]every where it is spoken against.

23 And when they had [h]appointed him a day, there came many to him into his lodging; to whom he [i]expounded and testified the [l]kingdom of God, persuading them concerning Jē'sus, both out of the law of Mōses, and out of the prophets, from[m] morning till evening.

24 And [i]some believed the things which were spoken, and some believed not.

13 Paul's last message to Jews: turns to the Gentiles

25 And when they[n] agreed not among themselves, they departed, after that Paul had spoken one word, Well spake the[n] Hō'lў Ghōst by Ē-sā'ias the prophet unto our fathers,

26 Saying,[o] Go unto this people, and say, [p]Hearing ye shall hear, and shall not understand; and seeing ye shall see, and not perceive:

27 [q]For the heart of this people is waxed gross, and their ears are dull of hearing, and their eyes have they closed; [r]lest they should see with their eyes, and hear with their ears, and understand with their heart, and should be converted, and I should heal them.

28 [s]Be it known therefore unto you, that the salvation of God is sent unto the Gĕn'tīles, and that they will hear it.

29 And when he had said these words, the Jews departed, and had great [r]reasoning among themselves.

14 Paul's two years of ministry in Rome

30 And Paul[u] dwelt two whole years in his own hired house, and received all that came in unto him, 31 [v]Preaching the kingdom of God, and teaching those things which concern the Lord Jē'sus Christ, with[w] all confidence, no man forbidding him.

a See Acts 25:11

b I wanted to meet with you elders to make it clear to you that it was for the hope of Israel that I am bound by this chain

c This refers to the resurrection of the dead (23:6; 24:15, 21; 26:7-8), to the Messianic hope of Israel in restoring the kingdom of David (Acts 13:34; 14:22; 15:13-17; 17:3, 7, 18; 18:5, 28; 19:8; 20:25), and to the salvation of Israel (13:38-39; 20:21; 26:6-7, 18; Rom. 9-11)

d 3 great factors in Paul's favor:
1 No letters of complaint from the Jews in Judea (v 21). This proves that the Jews in Judea knew that their case against Paul was hopeless. Being frustrated in killing him with their own hands, they decided to let the matter drop. They had no real case to present to Caesar
2 All that came from Judea on the journey with Paul were for him (v 21)
3 The law and the prophets supported Paul's teachings (v 23-24)

e This was Paul's opportunity to present the gospel to Jews at Rome

f See note e, Acts 5:17

g Justin Martyr says that the Jews cursed Christians in their synagogues and sent chosen men throughout the world to poison the Jews against Christians

h Gr. tasso, arranged for a day to hear him (note h, Acts 13:48)

i Gr. ektithemi, set before them. Here: 7:21; 11:4; 18:26; 28:23. Paul expounded or set before the Jews the divine fulfillment of Scripture in Christ

j See notes on Mt. 4:17 and 19:24

k One can cover much ground in a whole day, especially with people who are acquainted with the law and the prophets as all the Jews were who had been taught the Scriptures from childhood

l This is always the case. In every crowd of lovers of the Scripture there will always be some who will be honest and open to truth, even though it is presented in a new way

m This fulfilled the prediction of the prophets and of Jesus who came to bring division (Mt. 10:34-36). Division is caused by men because some will not believe and others will (2 Cor. 2:15-17)

n Paul's testimony that the Holy Ghost had inspired Isaiah the prophet (2 Pet. 1:21; Acts 3:21; Heb. 1:1)

o 21st and last O. T. prophecy fulfilled in Acts (28:26-27; Isa. 6:9-10; Mt. 13:14-15, notes; Jn. 12:40) p All heard the Word alike, but all did not show a like attitude of faith in it: all saw the same thing that Paul set before them, but all did not choose to believe it. The responsibility is with the people and not with God or His Word. All can believe and accept it alike if they want to. It is not that God is responsible for the faith of some and the unbelief of others

q This is a commentary on v 26 and shows that the trouble was in the heart. They had permitted their hearts to wax gross, their ears to become dull of hearing, and their eyes to be blind to truth. It is noted that their hearts, their ears, and their eyes were responsible, not God. No man is forced to do this by God. If he does it, it is man submitting to Satan and not to God (2 Cor. 4:4). It is, therefore, a human and satanic action in rebellion against God and His Word

r This means that any time a man wants to reject Satan and sin and humble himself to believe and conform to God he is free to do so. If he will, then he can see right, hear right, understand right, and become converted and be healed (v 27; Jn. 3:16-20; 1 Jn. 1:9; Rom. 10:9-10) s 20th and last N. T. prophecy in Acts (28:28, fulfilled). Gentiles have been receiving the salvation of God ever since (Rom. 11:1-25). This was uttered by Paul in Acts 13:46; 18:6.

t Great disputation among themselves u This shows that special favor was shown Paul, else he would have been kept in prison. He became known in all of Caesar's house (Phil. 1:12-13; 4:22)

v This is the sum of Paul's teaching in all his ministry among Jews and Gentiles

w Preached with all boldness

O.T. spiritual experiences (Acts 2:4)

O. T. saints had many experiences and blessings, as follows: They were filled (Ex. 28:3; 31:3; 35:31; Dt. 34:9; Mic. 3:8) and had the Spirit in (Gen. 41:38; Num. 27:18; Dan. 4:8-9, 18; 5: 11-14; 6:3); within (Ps. 51:10-11; Isa. 63:10-14; Ezek. 11:19); into (Ezek. 2:2; 3:24; Acts 3:21); upon (Num. 11:17-29; Judg. 3:10; 6:34; 11:29; 14:6, 19; 15: 14); and He moved many (Judg. 13:25; Acts 3:21; 2 Pet. 1:21), but none were baptized in the Spirit. John the Baptist and others were filled with the Spirit, but not baptized (Lk. 1:15-17, 41, 67; 2:25-38). Mary was filled about 35 years before she was baptized with the Spirit at Pentecost (Lk. 1:46-56; Acts 1: 13-15, 2:1-4). Jesus was filled about 30 years before He was baptized with the Spirit (Isa. 50:4-5; Lk. 2:40-52; Mt. 3: 16-17). The disciples were filled and had the Spirit in them 3 years before they were baptized with the Spirit (Mt. 10:1-8, 20; Acts 1:4-8; 2:1-4, 33)

O. T. saints had gifts and fruit of the Spirit (1 Kl. 3:12; 17:1-2 Kl. 13:25; Acts 3:21; Heb. 11); different measures of the Spirit (Num. 11:16-25; 2 Kl. 2:9; Lk. 1:17) but not the Spirit baptism or the Spirit "without measure" (Jn. 3:34; 7:37-39). The disciples had gifts and great power years before the Spirit baptism (Mt. 10:1-8, 16-20; Mk. 6:7-13; Lk. 10), but were told to get the Spirit baptism before starting their ministry (Lk. 24:49; Jn. 7:37-39; 14: 12; Acts 1:4-8)

O. T. saints and disciples of Christ had salvation (Ps. 51:12); redemption (Ps. 31:5); grace (Ps. 84:11); bodily healing (Ex. 15:26); names written in heaven (Ex. 32:32-33; Lk. 10:20); the new birth (Gal. 4:28-30); conversion (Ps. 19:7); righteousness (Rom. 4); the gospel (Gal. 3:6-14; Heb. 4:2); justification (Rom. 4); holiness (Acts 3:21; 2 Pet. 1:21); pure hearts (Ps. 24:4); sanctification (Ex. 29:42-44; 31:13; Ezek. 20:12; Jn. 15:3); and many other spiritual blessings before Pentecost (Jn. 7:37-39; Acts 2:33)

Therefore, one should not take any of these blessings as evidence of a Spirit baptism. From all this we gather that the Spirit baptism is the fulness of God in the lives of believers, not the Spirit by measure as in O. T. times (Jn. 3:34; 7:37-39; Lk. 24:49; Acts 10:38; Isa. 61:1; Rom. 15:29; Eph. 3:19)

The difference between a filling and a baptism or the Spirit by measure and without measure may be illustrated by a glass and a pitcher of water. To the extent the water is poured into the glass it is filled, but not baptized. By burying the glass in the fulness of the water it is both filled and baptized. Taking the glass out of the fulness of the water it is no longer baptized. So it is with believers, to the extent one is filled with the Spirit he has that measure of power and can do things according to the degree of anointing he has. If he is merely filled and has the Spirit by measure he is limited in spiritual power. If he has the Spirit in all fulness there is no limitation. He can do the works of Christ and the apostles (Mt. 17:20; 21:22; Mk. 9:23; 11:22-24; 16:17-18; Jn. 14:12; Acts 2:43; 3:6; 5:16; Rom. 15:18-19, 29)

A filling always comes with a baptism, but a baptism does not always come with a filling. At Pentecost they were both filled and baptized (Acts 1: 4-8; 2:4), and many fillings kept coming to them to replenish the Spirit and power they had received (Acts 4:8, 31; 13:52). One must continue to live and walk in the Spirit and be filled with all the fulness of God in order to maintain that baptismal fulness (Eph. 3:16-20; 5:18; Gal. 5:16-26).

Summary of Acts of the Apostles

Date and place: about 63 A. D. Place, unknown Author: Luke, the beloved physician (Acts 1:1; Lk. 1:1-3). See notes, Summary of Luke Theme: the acts of the Holy Spirit and of the apostles in confirming the Word of God, the spread of Christianity, and the ministry of Paul, the apostle to the Gentiles. It is a record of the expansion of Mk. 16:20. It records the descent of the Holy Spirit upon the new church and His enduing men with power to carry on the work Jesus Christ "began both to do and teach" (Acts 1:1-3). The Millennial kingdom is kept in view throughout the book (1:6; 2:17-20; 3:19-21: 8:12; 14:22; 20:25; 28:23, 31). The action has Jerusalem as its center during the time when the Mosaic law was being observed by Jews. Acts also records the salvation of the Gentiles who were predicted to take over the responsibility of the gospel program instead of Israel (Mt. 21:33-46; 23:37-39; Jn. 10:16; Acts 10:1-28:31). The great controversy was between Jews and Christians over observing the law of Moses. It was finally settled that Christians are not under the law for it has been completely abolished, including the 10 commandments, and that the new covenant with its laws and commandments has now taken the place of the Mosaic law (note 1, Acts 15:24). Luke uses 400 words not used by other writers, many of them medical terms which are dealt with in the notes of this Bible. There are 18 speeches recorded by Luke. The great and uniform message of the Christian preachers was the death, burial, resurrection, and manifestation of Jesus Christ, preached in the power and demonstration of the Holy Spirit and confirmed with signs and miracles and gifts of the Holy Ghost, which won multitudes to Christ (Mk. 16:15-20; Heb. 2:3-4; 1 Cor. 2:1-4). The truth was not spread by human power, by the sword, secular authority, pious frauds, cunning craftiness, human eloquence, or through worldly motives and prospects. In Acts we have the true model of the Christian church and the means of propagating the truth

The Church (Acts 7:38)

Gr. ekklesia, called out. Used 115 times and is always trans. church except in Acts 19:32-41 where it is assembly. It is used in the Septuagint 70 times for the Heb. kahal, to call. Kahal is used 123 times of Israel called out from the nations (Gen. 12:3); of a council called from each tribe (Gen. 49:6); of local assemblies of Israel called out to worship (Dt. 18:16; 31:30; Josh. 8:35; Judg. 21:8); and of any congregation of worshippers (Ps. 22:22-25)

The word church has the same meanings as above, plus the idea of a particular denomination of Christians as distinct from the world; of the building in which congregations assemble; and of the whole body of Christ (Eph. 1:22; Col. 1:18, 24)

The word "church" with other terms:

30 reasons for segregation of races (Acts 17:26)

1 God wills all races to be as He made them. Any violation of God's original purpose manifests insubordination to Him (17:26; Rom. 9:19-24)

2 God made everything to reproduce "after his own kind" (Gen. 1:11-12, 21-25; 6:20; 7:14). Kind means type and color or He would have kept them all alike to begin with

3 God originally determined the bounds of the habitations of nations (17:26; Gen. 10:5, 32; 11:8; Dt. 32:8)

4 Miscegenation means the mixture of races, especially the black and white races, or those of outstanding type or color. The Bible even goes further than opposing this. It is against different branches of the same stock intermarrying such as Jews marrying other descendants of Abraham (Ezra 9-10; Neh. 9-13; Jer. 50:37; Ezek. 30:5)

5 Abraham forbad Eliezer to take a wife for Isaac of Canaanites (Gen. 24:1-4). God was so pleased with this that He directed whom to get (Gen. 24:7, 12-67)

6 Isaac forbad Jacob to take a wife of the Canaanites (Gen. 27:46-28:7)

7 Abraham sent all his sons of the concubines, and even of his second wife, far away from Isaac so their descendants would not mix (Gen. 25:1-6)

8 Esau disobeying this law brought the final break between him and his father after lifelong companionship with him (Gen. 25:28; 26:34-35; 27:46; 28:8-9)

9 The two branches of Isaac remained segregated forever (Gen. 36; 46:8-26)

10 Ishmael and Isaac's descendants remained segregated forever (Gen. 25:12-23; 1 Chr. 1:29)

11 Jacob's sons destroyed a whole city to maintain segregation (Gen. 34)

12 God forbad intermarriage between Israel and all other nations (Ex. 34:12-16; Dt. 7:3-6)

13 Joshua forbad the same thing on sentence of death (Josh. 23:12-13)

14 God cursed angels for leaving their own "first estate" and "their own habitation" to marry the daughters of men (Gen. 6:1-4; 2 Pet. 2:4; Jude 6-7)

15 Miscegenation caused Israel to be cursed (Judg. 3:6-7; Num. 25:1-5)

16 This was Solomon's sin (1 Ki. 11)

17 This was the sin of Jews returning from Babylon (Ezra 9:1-10:2, 10-18, 44; 13:1-30)

18 God commanded Israel to be segregated (Lev. 20:24; Num. 23:9; 1 Ki. 8:53)

19 Jews recognized as a separate people in all ages because of God's choice and command (Mt. 10:6; Jn. 1:11). Equal rights in the gospel gives no right to break this eternal law

20 Segregation between Jews and all other nations to remain in all eternity (Isa. 2:2-4; Ezek. 37; 47:13-48:35; Zech. 14:16-21; Mt. 19:28; Lk. 1:32-33; Rev. 7:1-8; 14:1-5)

21 All nations will remain segregated from one another in their own parts of the earth forever (17:26; Gen. 10:5, 32; 11:8-9; Dt. 32:8; Dan. 7:13-14; Zech. 14; Rev. 11:15; 21:24)

22 Certain people in Israel were not even to worship with others (Dt. 23:1-3; Ezra 10:8; Neh. 9:2; 10:28; 13:3)

23 Even in heaven certain groups will not be allowed to worship together (Rev. 7:7-17; 14:1-5; 15:2-5)

24 Segregation was so strong in the O.T. that an ox and an ass could not be worked together (Dt. 22:10)

25 Miscegenation caused disunity among God's people (Num. 12)

26 Stock was forbidden to be bred with other kinds (Lev. 19:19)

27 Sowing mixed seed in the same field was unlawful (Lev. 19:19)

28 Different seeds were forbidden to be planted in vineyards (Dt. 22:9)

29 Wearing garments of mixed fabrics forbidden (Dt. 22:11; Lev. 19:19)

30 Christians and certain other people of a like race are to be segregated (Mt. 16:15-17; 1 Cor. 5:9-13; 6:15; 2 Cor. 6:14-18; Eph. 5:11; 2 Th. 3:6-16; 1 Tim. 6:5; 2 Tim. 3:5)

10 reasons 4th commandment left out: (Acts 15:24)

1 Neither God nor Christ made it a part of the new covenant. If they had it would be somewhere in the N.T. as the other 9 are

2 Of all the words of Jesus on earth only 4 references are made of the sabbath (Mt. 12:8; 24:20; Mk. 2:27-28; Lk. 6:5). He merely taught that it was lawful to do good on this day and that no day is lord of man. He did not once command any particular observance of any definite day

3 The old Jewish sabbath was part of the contract between God and Israel and a token and sign of that covenant (Ex. 20:8-11; 31:13-18; Ezek. 20:12-20). The contract was not made with men before Moses (Dt. 5:2-3), or with Gentiles and the church (Rom. 2:14; Dt. 4:7-10). The sabbath was not for them

4 The 4th commandment was the only one of the ten that was a ceremonial, not a moral law. Its sole purpose was to commemorate the deliverance from Egyptian bondage when Israel had no rest (Dt. 5:15). It was only a type of future and eternal rest (Col. 2:14-17; Heb. 4:1-11; 10:1). It was natural for it to be left out of the new contract when the reality of rest came of which it was a shadow (Mt. 11:28-29; Col. 2:14-17). The physical and spiritual benefits of a rest day can be realized on any other day as well as on Saturday

5 The 4th commandment was the only one that could degenerate into a mere form without affecting the morals of men. All others concern moral obligations of men. It is the only one of the ten that could be done away with and still leave a moral law for men

6 God foretold and promised He would do away with the old Jewish sabbath (Hos. 2:11; Isa. 1:10-15)

7 The prophets predicted that God would abolish the old and make a new covenant (Isa. 42:6; 49:8; 59:21; Jer. 31:31-40; 32:37-44; Ezek. 36:24-36). That this referred to the N.T. is clear in Rom. 11:25-29; Heb. 8:8-12; 10:16-18; Mt. 26:28

8 In no passage is it stated that men should keep the Jewish sabbath to commemorate the old creation rest. It was to commemorate deliverance from Egypt (Dt. 5:15). This was what they were to "remember" (Ex. 20:8)

9 It is the only commandment that could be and has been broken without breaking a moral law. Israel marched on that day (Num. 33:3; Lev. 23:5-11; Josh. 6:12-16); set up the tabernacle (Ex. 40:1, 17 with Lev. 23:5-11); searched Canaan (Num. 13:25); and made war (1 Ki. 20:29; 2 Ki. 3:9; Josh. 6:12-16). David and others broke it and were blameless (Mt. 12:2-5).

10 The N.T. permits Christians to keep any day as the sabbath, it being one of the doubtful things not covered by commandment in the new covenant (Rom. 14:1-13; Gal. 4:9-11; Col. 2:14-17). The day early Christians observed, not by commandment but by choice, was the first day, Sunday (Jn. 20:1, 19; 20:7; 1 Cor. 16:2). See note, Acts 20:7

Conversion (Acts 15:3)

1 What it is: A wheeling about to the charge; to go in the opposite direction to what one was going; a return to God

2 Possibility: human nature is so constituted that it is capable of a complete change at once to hate the things of sin and the world (2 Cor. 5:17-18)

3 How effected:
(1) Not by eloquence, agrument or reasoning, but by the Holy Spirit (Jn. 16:7-11)
(2) By the Word of God (Jn. 15:3; Jas. 1:18; 1 Pet. 1:23; Heb. 4:12)
(3) By repentance (Lk. 13:1-5; 2 Cor. 7:10; 1 Jn. 1:9; Lk. 18:13; Acts 3:19)
(4) By faith in the name of Jesus and His atonement (Mt. 1:21; Acts 4:12)

4 Hindrances:
(1) Self-love, unwillingness to acknowledge lost condition
(2) Halfheartedness, unwillingness to make a clean surrender to God of sin
(3) Procrastination, purring it off
(4) Various excuses of unbelief. Failure to be open to God and truth

5 Evidences:
(1) Changed person; made a new creature (2 Cor. 5:17-18)
(2) Witness of the Spirit (Rom. 8:16)
(3) No condemnation (Rom. 8:1-4)
(4) Cleansing from sin (1 Jn. 1:7-9)

(6) Sonship (Jn. 1:12; 2 Tim. 1:7)
(7) Crucifixion of flesh (Gal. 5:24)
(8) Salvation (1 Cor. 6:11)

6 Not to be delayed:
(1) Perilous: today is the day of salvation (2 Cor. 6:2)
(2) Delay multiplies difficulties and late conversions are rare

7 Only the beginning of a Christian life (Col. 2:6-7; 2 Pet. 3:18)

1 O.T. saints (Heb. 11:36)

Called Timothy (2 Cor. 1:1; 1 Tim. 1:2, 18; 6:20; 2 Tim. 1:2; Ph'm 1; Heb. 13:23). Converted by Paul on his first trip (14:6-7 with 1 Tim. 1:2). Part Jew and Greek, uncircumcised, but a good Christain (Acts 16:1-3). A miracle worker like Paul (1 Cor. 16:10). Paul's companion from here on (16:1-3; 17:14-15; 18:5; 19:22; 20:4; Rom. 16:21; 1 Cor. 4:17; Phil. 2:19). Freed from prison (Heb. 13:23). Ordained first bishop of Ephesus (see 2 Tim. postscript). It is believed by some that he was Paul's scribe in writing Hebrews and Galatians. Had gifts of the Spirit (1 Tim. 4:14; 2 Tim. 1:6). He was a great student of Scripture (2 Tim. 1:5; 2:15; 3:15)

Offspring (Acts 17:29)

Gr. genos, offspring (v 28-29; Rev. 22:16); generation (1 Pet. 2:9); stock (Acts 13:26; Phil. 3:5); kindred (Acts 4:6; 7:13, 19); countrymen (2 Cor. 11:26); nation (Mk. 7:26; Gal. 1:14); kind (Mt. 13:47; 17:21; Mk. 9:29; 1 Cor. 12:10; 14:10); diversity (1 Cor. 12:28); birth (Acts 4:36; 18:2, 24). All descended from Adam who was created by God to reproduce his kind (Gen. 1:26-28). In this sense only are we the offspring of God

118 CHAPTER 1

I Introduction (Rom. 1:1-17)

1 Author: calling and office

[a]PAUL, a [b]servant of Jē'şus Christ, [c]called to be [d]an apostle, [e]separated unto [f]the gospel of God,

2 The gospel the theme of prophets (1 Pet. 1:10; Acts 3:21)

2 (Which he had [g]promised afore by his prophets in the holy scriptures,)

3 Jesus Christ the theme of the gospel (v 16-17)

3 [h]Concerning [i]his Son Jē'şus Christ our Lord, which [j]was made of the seed of Dā'vid [k]according to the flesh;

4 And [l]declared to be the Son of God with power, [m]according to the spirit of holiness, by the resurrection from the dead:

5 [n]By whom we have received grace and apostleship, [o]for obedience to the faith among [p]all nations, for his name:

6 Among whom are ye also the called of Jē'şus Christ:

4 The salutation of Paul

7 To all that be in Rōme, beloved of God, called to be saints: Grace to you and peace from God our Father, and the Lord Jē'şus Christ.

5 Prayer concerning his visit

8 First, I thank my God through Jē'şus Christ for you all, that your faith is spoken of throughout the [q]whole world.

9 For God is my witness, whom I serve [r]with my spirit in the gospel of his Son, that without ceasing I make mention of you always in my prayers;

10 Making request, if by any means now at length I might have a prosperous journey by the will of God to come unto you.

6 Purpose of his visit (15:22)

11 For I long to see you, [s]that I may impart unto you some spiritual gift, [t]to the end ye may be [u]established;

12 [v]That is, that I may be comforted together with you by the mutual faith both of you and me.

13 [w]Now I would not have you ignorant, brethren, that oftentimes I purposed to come unto you, [x](but was let hitherto,) that I might have some fruit among you also, even as among other Gĕn'tiles.

7 His responsibility and readiness to preach the gospel

14 I am [y]debtor both to the Greeks, and to the [z]Bär-bā'rĭ-ans; both to the wise, and to the [a]unwise.

15 So, as much as in me is, I am [b]ready to preach the gospel to you that are at Rōme also.

8 The gospel is God's power of deliverance to all believers (1:2-3)

16 For I am not [c]ashamed of the [d]gospel of Christ: for it is the [e]power of God unto [f]salvation to every one that believeth; to the Jew first, and also to the Greek.

17 [g]For therein is the righteousness of God revealed from faith to faith: as it is written, [h]The just shall live by faith.

II The whole world guilty before God (Rom. 1:18-3:20). 1 The wrath of God revealed from heaven

18 [i]For the [j]wrath of God is revealed from heaven [k]against all [l]ungodliness and [m]unrighteousness of men, who [n]hold the truth in unrighteousness.

2 The universe a revelation of God and all invisible things

19 Because that which may be known of God is manifest in them; for God hath shewed it unto them.

20 [o]For the invisible things of him from the creation of the world are clearly seen, being understood by the things that are made, even his [p]eternal power and [q]Godhead; so that they are [r]without excuse:

3 Eighteen stages of world apostasy (Rom. 1:21-32). (1) Ten sins for which God gave men up to defile the body

21 Because that, when they [s]knew God, [t]they glorified him not as God, neither were thankful; but became vain in their [u]imaginations, and their foolish heart was darkened.

22 Professing themselves to be wise, they became fools,

23 And changed the glory of the [v]uncorruptible God into an image made like to [w]corruptible man, and to birds, and fourfooted beasts, and creeping things.

(2) Result of apostasy: sex uncleanness or perversion

24 Wherefore God also [x]gave them up to [y]uncleanness through the lusts of their own hearts, to dishonour their own bodies between themselves:

(3) Two sins for which God gave men up to defile their souls

25 Who [z]changed the truth of God into a lie, and worshipped and served the creature more than the Creator, who is blessed for ever. A-mĕn'.

d Another term for gospel of God, v 2 e Gr. dunamis, inherent power; the ability to reproduce itself, like a dynamo

It is God's power to:
1 Produce the new birth (1 Pet. 1:23)
2 Give salvation (1:16; Eph. 1:13)
3 Impart grace (Acts 20:24)
4 Establish in the faith (Rom. 16:25)

g God's righteousness is revealed in the gospel on the ground of faith as the absolute condition of salvation, and is only effective in those who believe h Quoted from Hab. 2:4. It means that the just must live by continued faith, and go from faith to faith as light is received (1 Jn. 1:7)

i The wrath of God is also revealed in the gospel as part of God's righteousness

j This phrase is found only here; Jn. 3:36; Eph. 5:6; Col. 3:6, but wrath is found many times (2:5; 5:9; 9:22; Eph. 2:3) k This is what God's wrath is against. In v 18-32 Paul proves the utter ungodliness of the Gentile world and its deserving God's wrath. In 2:1-3:8 he proves that the Jews are also ungodly and deserving of God's wrath. In 3:9-20 he sums up the case of both Jews and Gentiles, proving the whole world guilty

l Gr. asebela, impiety; no reverence for God or sacred things; irreligious (2 Tim. 2:16; Tit. 2:12; Jude 18)

p Gr. aidios, twice (v 20; Jude 6)

q Gr. Theiotes, Deity. Only here

r No excuse for men to be in ignorance of the invisible things. Same word in 2:1

v Gr. aphtharsos. Here; 1 Cor. 9:25; 15:52; 1 Tim. 1:17; 1 Pet. 1:4, 23; 3:4

w Images of men, birds, cattle, dogs, crocodiles, frogs, and snakes are common among all idolaters. Such idolatry has been the root of all the abominable immoralities of the heathen. The idols have been the patrons of licentiousness (v 23-32), when they formed their gods in human shape they endowed them with passions and represented them as slaves to disgraceful sex perversions and as possessing unlimited powers of sexual gratification

x God permitted them to give themselves over to homosexual sins and like perversions

y Uncleanness here; 2 Cor. 12:21; Gal. 5:19; Eph. 4:19; 5:3; Col. 3:5; 1 Th. 4:7; 2 Pet. 2:10 is a scriptural term for homosexuality and other sex perversions of men and women z Established idolatry for the true worship; a lie for the truth; and worshipped creatures more than the Creator. Idols are called lies in Isa. 44:20; Jer. 10:14; 13:25 c Gr. pathos, affections (v 26; Col. 3:5) and lusts (1 Th. 4:5). Vile affections are passions of infamy and shame d This is lesbianism - unnatural sexual relations between women (homosexuality)

e This is sodomy, pederasty, or homosexuality (Gen. 8:21; 19:5; Lev. 20:13; Dt. 23:17; 1 Ki. 14:24; 15:12; 22:46; 2 Ki. 23:7; Joel 3:3; Eph. 5:4; 2 Tim. 3:3, 13; 2 Pet. 2:7-22; Jude 7-19)

Both men and women by unnatural prostitutions, enervated their bodies, so that they received in themselves the penalties of their wickedness k 3 things God gave them up to:
1 Dishonor their bodies (v 24)
2 Vile affections in their souls (v 26)
3 Reprobate minds (v 28).
l Gr. adokimos, reprobate (v 28; 2 Cor. 13:5, 6, 7; 2 Tim. 3:8; Tit. 1:16); rejected (Heb. 6:8); and castaway (1 Cor. 9:27). Christ is not in reprobates

q Gr. pomeia, unlawful sex sins of single and married people. Note, Mt. 5:32 r Gr. poneria, depravity; iniquity; wicked acting of the evil nature; criminal s Gr. pleonexia, intense lust for gain. Note e, Lk. 12:15 t Gr. kakia, the vicious disposition and desires, rather than their exercise u Gr. phthonos, to pine away; the pain felt and malignity conceived at the sight of the blessing of another v Gr. phonos, murder (Mt. 15:19; Mk. 7:21; 15:7; Lk. 23:19, 25; Rom. 1:29; Gal. 5:21; Rev. 9:21); slaughter (Acts 9:1). Also hating another (1 Jn. 3:15)
w Gr. eris, strife (Rom. 13:13; 1 Cor. 3:3; Phil. 1:15; 1 Tim. 6:4); contention (1 Cor. 1:11; Tit. 3:9); debate (Rom. 1:29; 2 Cor. 12:20); and variance (Gal. 5:20). It means to cause strife and discord. It is not the same as disputing for truth as in Acts 9:29; 15:2, 7; 17:17; 19:8-9 x Gr. dolos, lying, falsity. From delo, to take with a bait. Trans. guile (Jn. 1:47; 2 Cor. 12:16; 1 Th. 2:3; 1 Pet. 2:1, 22; 3:10; Rev. 14:5); deceit (Mk. 7:22; Rom. 1:29); craft (Mk. 14:1); and subtilty (Mt. 26:4; Acts 13:10)
y Gr. kakoetheia, a disposition producing evil habits. It means malignity of the mind, which leads its victim to put the worst construction on every action; ascribing to the best deeds the worst motives

(4) Result of apostasy: homosexuality; lesbianism

26 [a]For this cause God gave them up unto [b]vile [c]affections: for even their women did change the [d]natural use into that which is against nature:

27 And likewise also the men, leaving the [e]natural use of the woman, burned in their lust one toward another; men with men working that which is unseemly, and receiving in themselves that [f]recompence of their [g]error which was meet.

(5) Two sins for which God gave men up to defile their spirits

28 And even as they did not like to retain God in their knowledge, [h]God gave them over to a [i]reprobate mind, to do those things which are [m]not convenient;

(6) Result of apostasy: 23 sins that will damn the soul (Mk. 7:14; 1 Cor. 6:9; Gal. 5:19; Col. 3:5)

29 [n]Being [o]filled with all [p]unrighteousness, [q]fornication, [r]wickedness, [s]covetousness, [t]maliciousness; full of [u]envy, [v]murder, [w]debate, [x]deceit, [y]malignity; [z]whisperers,

30 [a]Backbiters, [b]haters of God, [c]despiteful, [d]proud, [e]boasters, [f]inventors of evil things, [g]disobedient to parents,

31 [h]Without understanding, [i]covenantbreakers, without natural affection, [k]implacable, [l]unmerciful:

(7) Final result of apostasy: God's judgment known but not feared by apostates

32 Who knowing the judgment of God, that they which commit such things are worthy of death, not only do the same, but have pleasure in them that do them.

CHAPTER 2 119

4 Ungodliness inexcusable

THEREFORE [m]thou art inexcusable, O man, whosoever thou art that judgest: for wherein thou judgest another, thou condemnest thyself; for thou that judgest doest the same things.

5 God's judgment just because of His revelation (1:32)

2 But we are sure that the judgment of God is according to truth against them which commit such things.

6 God's judgment just because man's impenitence deserves it

3 [n]And [o]thinkest thou this, O man, that judgest them which do such things, and doest the same, that thou shalt escape the judgment of God?

4 [p]Or despisest thou the [q]riches of his goodness and forbearance and longsuffering; not knowing that the goodness of God leadeth [r]thee to [s]repentance?

5 But after thy [t]hardness and [u]impenitent heart [v]treasurest up unto thyself wrath against [w]the day of wrath and revelation of the righteous judgment of God;

6 Who will [x]render to every man according to his deeds:

7 God's judgment just because of equality in obeying the gospel

7 To them who by [y]patient continuance in well doing [z]seek for glory and honour and immortality, eternal life:

8 But unto them that are contentious, and do not obey the truth, but obey unrighteousness, [a]indignation and wrath,

9 Tribulation and anguish, upon every soul of man that doeth evil, of the Jew first, and also of the Gĕn'tile;

10 But glory, honour, and peace, to every man that worketh good, to the Jew first, and also to the Gĕn'tile:

11 For there is [b]no respect of persons with God.

8 God's judgment just because of equal responsibility according to the light received

12 [c]For as many as have sinned without law shall [m]also perish without law: and as many as have sinned in the law shall be judged by the law;

13 [d](For not the hearers of the law are just before God, but the doers of the law shall be justified.

14 For when the Gĕn'tiles, which have not the law, [e]do by nature the things contained in the law, these, having not the law, are a law unto themselves:

15 Which [f]shew the work of the law written in their hearts, their conscience also bearing witness, and their thoughts the mean while accusing or else excusing one another;)

16 In the day when God shall judge the secrets of men by Jē'sus Christ [g]according to my gospel.

9 Case of the Jew (2:17-3:8)

(1) His tenfold state

17 Behold, [r]thou art called a Jew, and [s]restest in the law, and makest thy boast of God,

18 And knowest his will, and approvest the things that are more excellent, being instructed out of the law;

19 And art confident that thou thyself art a guide of the blind, a light of them which are in darkness, 20 An instructor of the foolish, a teacher of babes, which hast the form of knowledge and of the truth in the law.

(2) His sixfold sin and apostasy (Cp. 1:21-32; 10:21)

21 [t]Thou therefore which teachest another, teachest thou not thyself? thou that preachest a man should not steal, dost thou steal?

22 Thou that sayest a man should not commit adultery, a 3 things lead to repentance (v 4):

1 Goodness, Gr. chrestos and agathosune, the virtue and beneficence of God whereby He leads sinners to repentance (2:4; 5:6-8)
2 Forbearance, Gr. anoche, the self-restraint of God whereby He tolerates sinners and permits them to live to be saved (v 4; 3:25; Neh. 9:30)
3 Longsuffering, Gr. makrothumia, the leniency and patience of God whereby God's mercy and goodness are extended to men to bring them to eternal reconciliation to Himself (v 4; 1 Pet. 3:20; 2 Pet. 3:9, 15)
b See notes on Mt. 4:17 and Lk. 13:3
c Caused by a long course of rebellion
d Caused by the hardness of heart e Gr. thesauridzo, increase or store up (v 5; Mt. 6:19-20; Lk. 12:21; 1 Cor. 16:2; 2 Cor. 12:14; Jas. 5:3; 2 Pet. 3:7). Here it is storing up things that will call for the wrath of God. The treasure of wrath is varied to the extent one rejects the goodness of God and punishment will be according to its contents (v 6; Mt. 11:22-24; 23:14; Rev. 20:11-15)
f See Final judgment, p. 163
g Repay every man reward or punishment h A must for all (notes, Jn. 6:27; 10:28)
i See 4 things to seek, p. 163
j Note the contrasted destinies of two classes - good and evil (v 7-11)
k Eph. 6:9; Col. 3:25; Jas. 2:1-10 l Not only is it stated in v 7-11 that God will judge on the basis of character and conduct, but here (v 12-16) it is stated that He will judge character and conduct on the basis of light received m No Mosaic law will be cited against non-Jews (v 12) n Not the hearers of the law and of the gospel, but the doers will be justified (v 7-11; 10:8-21; Jas. 1:21-27; 2:14-26; 1 Jn. 1:7)
o Gentiles who are a law unto themselves will not be held accountable to any other law or be judged by any other p See Keeping law by nature, p. 163
q According to foundations I am laying down in my gospel. God will judge all men by Jesus Christ. He will be impartial and judge on the basis of deeds, not knowledge (v 7-11), and light, not laws men never possessed (v 12-16)
r Paul now openly deals with the Jew asserting that his superior knowledge, privileges, and calling only serve to condemn him more than Gentiles who obey the law of nature
s You trust in the law for salvation
t Questions 3-7. Next, v 26

h Ignorant and destitute of capacity for spiritual things; stubborn
i Gr. asunthetos, not morally bound to any agreement; not dependable; treacherous to covenants; faithless to promises; false to trusts
j Destitute of natural affection; that is, filled with desire for unnatural affection experiences with husband or wife or same sex partners in the homosexual and other sex deviation sins of v 24-28 k Gr. aspondos, without libation (which accompanied a treaty). Greeks used it to appease the angry gods and reconcile them to the contracting parties. A person who would not pour libation was at deadly enmity with the other one and showed the highest pitch of an unforgiving spirit. He could not be placated, appeased, or pacified by God person who would not pour libation
l Gr. aneleemon, pitiless; destitute of all benevolence to the needy; cruel; merciless; irreconcilable; severe; unappeasable; unforgiving; unyielding m Paul here addresses the Jews without naming them. He accurately describes them by their well known disposition to justify themselves and condemn others (Lk. 18:19). They are guilty of some of the same things God condemns in 1:21-32, so they are liable to God's just judgment on sin as much as Gentiles n Questions 1-2. Next, v 21
o Gr. logidzomai, reckoned. First of 19 times in Romans (2:3, 26; 3:28; 4:3-24; 6:11; 8:18, 36; 9:8; 14:14) p Do you Jews despise the good dealings of God and the superior advantages you have had, not knowing the fact that they were designed to lead you to repentance?
q Rom. 9:23; 11:33; Eph. 1:7, 18; 2:7; 3:8, 16; Phil. 4:19; Col. 1:27; 2:2

a Gr. bdelussomai, only here and in Rev. 21:8 where it is trans. abominable b Gr. hierosuleo, rob temples; use consecrated things for self. It is also the same as robbing God in Mal. 3:10-12 c You boast of the law, but you break it and bring reproach upon God by living in open contradiction to your own profession. The high priesthood itself was an office bought and sold like other commodities. The rapine of Eli's sons was carried on many generations by priests (1 Sam. 2:22; Mt. 23, notes). Their adultery and polygamy were scandalous. They were guilty of theft, treachery, adultery, murder, and all the sins of 1:18-32; 2:1-29; 3:10-18
d See Ezek. 36:20, 23
e Paul here shows that circumcision was only profitable if the law was kept. If they broke the law they were just as much uncircumcised as Gentiles, for this was a sign of keeping the law of Moses (v 25). If Gentiles who were not circumcised in the flesh kept the law by nature (v 12-16), then, in reality, they were the circumcised ones (v 26-27), for circumcision was a rite representing something spiritual--the purification of the heart (Jer. 4:4-10; 9:26; Ezek. 44:7-9; Rom. 2:29)
f Questions 8-9, Next, 3:1
g If a Gentile who is not circumcised keeps the law and you do not, are you not condemned as a sinner by him, even though you are circumcised?
h A true Jew is not the one who is circumcised in the flesh, neither is true circumcision in the flesh. A true Jew is one that has inward circumcision of the heart and in the spirit and has more than an outward cutting in the flesh and a profession of truth. This does not teach that every Christian is a Jew, but to be a true Jew one must be of the seed of Abraham, and have circumcision of the heart, and be a child of the promise (v 28-29; 9:6-7)
i Questions 10-11, Next, v 3
j Circumcision only profits if the law is kept (v 25) k This answers the questions of v 1, Being entrusted with the oracles of God and all the external advantages were not sufficient to save the soul (v 21-31; 4:1-25; 8:3-4; Gal. 3:10-14)
l Questions 12-13, Next, v 5
m Gr. apistia, 12 times (Mt. 13:58; 17:20; Mk. 6:6; 9:24; 16:14; Rom. 3:3; 4:20; 11:20-23; 1 Tim. 1:13; Heb. 3:12, 19) n This answers the questions of v 3. God forbid is found 15 times (v 4, 6, 31; 6:2, 15; 7:7, 13; 9:14; 11:1, 11; Lk. 20:16; 1 Cor. 6:15; Gal. 2:17; 3:21; 6:14)
o Let no man say that God has failed in keeping His word with any man. Let man examine himself and his ways to see if he has not failed to meet conditions so God can fulfil His promise.
p Quoted from Ps. 51:4
q When God is judged or when He judges man by man, He always comes out justified because He is faithful in all His ways (Ps. 119:86, 138; Dt. 7:9; 1 Cor. 1:9; 10:13) r Questions 14-20, Next, v 27. If our sins magnify the mercy and goodness of God, then the more wicked we are the more God can be glorified. If we thus glorify God, would He not be unjust in casting us off? It is only natural for me to reason this way for all my countrymen and I are involved (v 5) s This answers the questions of v 5, that sin is not necessary to magnify God. If so, then God would be unjust Himself and could not rightly be justified in judging the world t Resuming my argument (of v 5) If the truth of God is magnified through our lies, or if the faithfulness of God in showing mercy and keeping promise to our fathers is through our unfaithfulness, then why should we be condemned as sinners? Why should we be blamed for something that must redound so much to the honor and glory of God?
u Here Paul answers v 7, "And why do you not say, seeing you assume that sin is necessary to magnify God and His pardoning grace, that we will go along with the apostles and Christianity, for it has been reported that they teach the same doctrine of doing evil that good may come. If you believe this slanderous report of Christians, then why persecute them? Those who report such slander are liable to just damnation" dost thou commit adultery? thou that[a] abhorrest idols, dost thou [b]commit sacrilege?

23 Thou that makest thy boast of the law, [c]through breaking the law dishonourest thou God?

24 For the name of God is blasphemed among the Gĕn'tiles through you, [d]as it is written.

(3) How circumcision profits

25 For circumcision verily profiteth, if thou keep the law:[e] but if thou be a breaker of the law, thy circumcision is made uncircumcision.

26 Therefore if the uncircumcision keep the righteousness of the law,[f] shall not his uncircumcision be counted for circumcision?

27 And shall not uncircumcision which is by nature,[g] if it fulfil the law, judge thee, who by the letter and circumcision dost transgress the law?

(4) Definition of a real Jew (Cp. Gen. 32:28; Rom. 9:6)

28 [h]For he is not a Jew, which is one outwardly; neither is that circumcision, which is outward in the flesh:

29 But he is a Jew which is one inwardly; and circumcision is that of the heart, in the spirit, and not in the letter; whose praise is not of men, but of God.

120 CHAPTER 3

(5) Threefold objection of the Jew to the gospel (Rom. 3:1-8). A What advantage has the Jew? Answered fully in Rom. 9

1 WHAT advantage then hath the Jew? or what [i]profit is there of circumcision?

2 [j]Much every way: chiefly, because that unto them were committed the oracles of God.

B Are the covenants cancelled? Answered fully in Rom. 10-11

3 [l]For what if some did not believe? shall their [m]unbelief make the faith of God without effect?

4 [n]God forbid: yea, [o]let God be true, but every man a liar; as it is written, [p]That thou mightest be justified in thy sayings, and mightest overcome when [q]thou art judged.

C Does not God will sin in order to magnify His righteousness? Answered fully in Rom. 10

5 [r]But if our unrighteousness commend the righteousness of God, what shall we say? Is God unrighteous who taketh vengeance? (I speak as a man)

6 [s]God forbid: for then how shall God judge the world?

7 [t]For if the truth of God hath more abounded through my lie unto his glory; why yet am I also judged as a sinner?

8 [u]And not rather, (as we be slanderously reported, and as some affirm that we say,) Let us do evil, that good may come? whose damnation is just.

10 Summary of the whole world guilty before God (Rom. 3:9-20). A Both Jews and Gentiles guilty

9 [a]What then? are we better than they? No, in no wise: for we have [b]before proved both Jews and Gĕn'tiles, that they are all [c]under sin;

B Fifteen reasons why the whole world is guilty (Ps. 5:9; 10:7; 14:1-4; 36:1; Isa. 59:7; Eccl. 7:20)

10 [d]As it is written, [e]There is none [f]righteous, no, not one:

11 There is none that understandeth, there is none that seeketh after God.

12 [g]They are all gone out of the way, they are together become [h]unprofitable: there is none that doeth good, no, not one.

13 Their throat is an [i]open sepulchre; with their tongues they have used deceit; the poison of [j]asps is under their lips:

14 Whose mouth is full of cursing and bitterness:

15 Their feet are swift to shed blood:

16 Destruction and misery are in their ways:

17 And the way of peace have they not known:

18 There is [k]no fear of God before their eyes.

C Purpose of the law: make all the world guilty before God

19 Now we know that what things soever the law saith, it saith [l]to them who are under the law: that every mouth may be stopped, and all the world may become guilty before God.

20 Therefore [m]by the deeds of the law there shall no flesh be justified in his sight: for by the law is the knowledge of sin.

III Justification by faith in Christ the only remedy for sin (Rom. 3:21-5:11). 1 How men are justified (v 21-31; 4:1-25; 5:1-11; 8:1-13; 10:4-17; Acts 10:43; 13:39; 2 Cor. 5:14-21; Gal. 3:19-29; Eph. 1:7; 2:8-9; Col. 2:11-17; 1 Jn. 1:9)

21 But [n]now the [o]righteousness of God without the law is manifested, being [p]witnessed by the law and the prophets;

▶22 Even the righteousness of God which is by faith of Jĕ'sus Christ unto all and upon all them that believe: [q]for there is no difference:

23 For [r]all have sinned, and come [s]short of the glory of God;

24 Being [t]justified freely by his [u]grace through the [v]redemption that is in Christ Jĕ'sus:

▶25 Whom God hath [w]set forth to be a [x]propitiation through faith in his blood, [y]to declare his righteousness for the remission a After all, have not we Jews a better claim to the gospel than Gentiles? This is the last Jewish part of the dialogue of v 1-9. Paul answers in v 9 that they have no more claim before God than Gentiles. The Jew has asked 9 questions in this dialogue (v 1, 3, 5, 7, 9). Paul has answered them in v 2, 4, 6, 8 and 9

b In his last answer Paul comes back to the main subject of this section (1:18-3:20)

Sum of the proof of world guilt:

1 The 40 sins and the 20fold apostasy of the Gentile world (1:18-32)
2 Indictment of the self-righteous Jews who condemned the Gentiles, but were guilty of the same sins (2:1-2)
3 Impenitence of both Jews and Gentiles proved them sinners (2:3-6)
4 Refusal of both classes in obeying the gospel (2:7-11)
5 Failure of both classes in walking in the light received (v 12-16)
6 The Jews were exceedingly sinful because of failure to live up to the law and superior advantages (2:17-29)
7 The Jews were deeper sinners because of seeking excuses for their sinfulness contrary to the law and their own high profession of godliness (3:1-9)

c Sin is a real force that dominates and enslaves. See notes, Rom. 5:12-21 d This passage (v 10-18) is from several O. T. books on the same subject. V 10-12 are from Ps. 14:2-3; 53:2-4; Eccl. 7:20, V 13-18 are from Ps. 5:9-10; 10:7; 36:1-2; 140:3; Isa. 59:7-8
e Having stated (v 9) that he had already proved both Jews and Gentiles to be under sin, he now proceeds to clinch this argument by the Jewish Scriptures which they could not deny f No man is righteous in himself
g This is true of all men (Isa. 53:6; Rom. 1:21-32; 3:23; 5:12-21) h Gr. achreios, useless. The whole mass of mankind is as a slain, putrid mass thrown together in heaps k The same as in 1:32. Not one charge is listed here but what can be traced in case histories of both Jews and Gentiles

l For fear the Jews might think v 10-18 do not apply to them, Paul here says that they apply to all under the law that every mouth might be stopped and the whole world become guilty before God m Even if the Jews had not broken the law they could not be justified (v 20). The law could only condemn, not justify (v 21-31; 7:7-25) n Since the gospel has come and the N. T. has been made men can be justified and made righteous without the law (v 21-31)
o See note on Romans 10:3
p The rites and ceremonies of the law and the predictions of the prophets all testified of the great redemption in Christ that would justify men apart from both the law and the prophets (Col. 2:14-17; Heb. 8:1-10:23; Ps. 16:8-11; Isa. 53; Lk. 24:44; Jn. 5:39; etc.)
q No difference whether Jew or Gentile (1:16; 2:7-11; 1 Cor. 12:13; Gal. 3:28)
r One must know and confess he is a sinner before he can be saved (Lk. 13:3, note; Acts 2:38; 3:19; Rom. 10:9-10; 1 Jn. 1:9). See We conclude that: p. 174

w God has set forth, made, appointed, and published this sacrifice to be a propitiation, or covering for sin x This is the act of God whereby He becomes propitious or gracious to the sinner through Jesus Christ (v 25; Heb. 9:5; 1 Jn. 2:2)

2 Justification by faith, not by works and law keeping (Rom. 3:21, refs.)

27 [e]Where is [f]boasting then? It is excluded. By what law? of works? Nay: but by the law of faith.

31 Do we then make [i]void the law through faith? God forbid: yea, [j]we establish the law.

CHAPTER 4 121

4 Justification by faith stated and illustrated (Rom. 4). (1) Abraham 430 years before the law was justified by faith without the deeds of the law

WHAT shall we say then that Ā'brā-hăm [k]our father, as pertaining to the flesh, hath found?

2 For if Ā'brā-hăm were justified by works, he hath whereof to glory; but not before God.

3 For what saith the scripture? Ā'brā-hăm [l]believed God, and it was counted unto him for righteousness.

(2) All men can be justified by faith without law and works (Acts 10:43, refs.)

4 [m]Now to him that worketh is the reward not reckoned of grace, but of debt.

▶5 But to him that worketh not, but believeth on him that justifieth the ungodly, his faith is counted for righteousness.

(3) David under the law was justified by faith in Christ without the deeds of the law (Ps. 32:1; 51:1-13; 91:16; 103:3)

6 [n]Even as Dā'vid also describeth the blessedness of the man, unto whom God imputeth righteousness without works, ▶7 Saying, Blessed are they whose iniquities are forgiven, and whose sins are covered.

▶8 Blessed is the man to whom the Lord will not [o]impute sin.

(4) All men can be justified by faith without law and works (Rom. 3:21, refs.)

9 [p]Cometh this blessedness then upon the circumcision only, or upon the uncircumcision also? for we say that faith was reckoned to Ā'brā-hăm for righteousness.

(5) Abraham was justified by faith in Christ 24 years before circumcision (Gen. 12:1-3; 17:1-19)

10 How was it then reckoned? when he was in circumcision, or in uncircumcision? Not in circumcision, but in uncircumcision.

11 And he received the sign of circumcision, a seal of the righteousness of the faith which he had yet being uncircumcised: [q]that he might be the father of all them that believe, though they be not circumcised; that righteousness might be imputed unto them also:

12 [r]And the father of circumcision to them who are not of the circumcision only, but who also walk in the [s]steps of that faith of our father Ā'brā-hăm, which he had being yet uncircumcised.

(6) Justification by faith is not of law and works (Rom. 3:21, refs.)

13 For the promise, that he should be the [t]heir of the world, was not to Ā'brā-hăm, or to his seed, through the law, but through the righteousness of faith.

14 For if they which are of the law be heirs, faith [u]is made void, and the promise [v]made of none effect:

15 Because the law [w]worketh wrath: for where no law is, there is no transgression.

▶16 Therefore it is of faith, that it might be [x]by grace; to the end the promise might be sure to all the seed; not to that only which is of the law, but to that also which is of the faith of Ā'brā-hăm; who is the father of us all,

(7) Justification faith defined and illustrated (Gen. 17:1-19)

17 (As it is written, [y]I have made thee a father of many nations,) before him whom he believed, even God, [z]who quickeneth the dead, and calleth those things which be not as though they were.

18 [aa]Who against hope believed in hope, that he might become the father of many nations, according to that which was spoken, [ab]So shall thy seed be.

19 And being not weak in faith, he considered not his own body now dead, when he was about an [ac]hundred years old, neither yet the deadness of Sā'rah's womb:

20 He staggered not at the promise of God through unbelief; but was strong in faith, giving glory to God;

21 And being [ad]fully persuaded that, what he had promised, he was able also to perform.

(8) Justification to all men who have like faith in Christ (Jn. 3:16, 36; 5:24)

22 And therefore it was ima This refers to two things:

1 Forgiveness of the sins of O.T. saints (v 25; Heb. 9:15)

e Questions 21-23. Next, v 29. Here (v 27-28) we have the second dialogue between Paul and the Jew. Paul has been proving from v 9 that the Jews are as guilty and condemned as the Gentiles and that both must be saved by the redemption in Christ. The Jew, finding his boasted religion of 2:17-29 of no merit at all to save his soul, interrupts (as Paul anticipates) and asks, "Where does our boasting come in with such a program of salvation without works and the law? Have we no merit of our own? Do we not have anything accruing to us from our 1700 years of circumcision and the Mosaic covenant?" Paul, "It is completely out - your boasting" (v 27). The Jew, "By what law? of works?" Paul, "By the law of faith - you have sinned and you need forgiveness. The law of works cannot pardon. It requires obedience and only kills if transgressed. Faith alone in Christ will pardon and cancel the death penalty" (v 27-28; Eph. 2:8-9) f 10 things men boast about: bargains (Pr. 20:14); security (Pr. 27:1); religion (Rom. 2:17-29); strength (1 Sam. 17:8-10); conquest (Isa. 10:8-16); gifts (Pr. 25:14); riches (Ps. 49:6); sins (Ps. 94:4); plans (Jas. 4:13-17); and power (Lk. 10:17). The only boasting allowed is "in the Lord" (2 Cor. 10:12-18)
g We conclude that: See p. 174
h Questions 24-26. Next, 4:1. These are answered in v 29-31
i Gr. katargeo, to make useless; without effect (note g, Eph. 2:15)
j Christianity establishes the law:
1 By recognizing Christ as the subject of its rites and ceremonies (Lk. 24:44; Col. 2:14-17; Heb. 8-10)
2 By Christ fulfilling it (Mt. 5:17)
3 By Christ ending it (Rom. 10:4)
4 By fulfilling in men the righteousness that the law demanded but could not give (Rom. 8:3)
5 By including its moral and spiritual principles in the N. T. (Heb. 8:6) k Questions 27-28. Next, v 9. Paul here (v 1-3), after proving in 3:21-31 that both Jews and Gentiles could only be saved by grace through faith, shows by examples how Abraham and David were justified. Abraham, the father of the Jewish nation, was a rank heathen or an uncircumcised Gentile before God pardoned him by grace through faith. He could not have been justified by obedience to the law, which was not until 430 years later (Gal. 3:17). Paul points out that Abraham was pardoned the same way the gospel saves Jews and Gentiles. Why should the Jews condemn Christianity and oppose Gentiles when they were included in the Abrahamic covenant (Gen. 12:1-3; 17:4)? Paul also proves that this blessing did not come through circumcision, for Abraham had it many years before he was circumcised (v 9-12; Gen. 12:1-3; 15:6; 17:1-14). If Abraham was blessed before and without circumcision, then Gentiles also could be l Jews claimed Abraham as their father (9:5; Lk. 1:73; Jn. 8:39; Acts 7:2).
m Before he was circumcised (Gen. 15:6) n If Abraham worked for and merited justification, then it was not of grace because God owed it to him. But if he believed God for it instead of working for it, then faith was counted for righteousness and God gave it to him as a favor. Since he was called when he was a heathen, a Gentile idolater and he was justified freely by faith, then all other sinners can likewise be justified (3:21-28; 5:1-11)
o Now the apostle proves his point by showing how David, a man under law, was justified by faith without the law and works (v 6-7; Ps. 32:1-2) p See Imputation, p. 625 of O.T.
q Questions 29-31. Next, 6:1

a He was justified 24 years before circumcision (Gen. 12:1-4; 15:6; 17:1-14)
b He was justified before he was circumcised that he might be the father of believing uncircumcised Gentiles c He is also father of Jews who walk in his steps and who seek for justification by faith only. The covenant was made with Abraham while he was a Gentile; he became the father of Gentiles in the faith. The Jews were later made partakers of the covenant, but original justification by faith belonged to the Gentiles. When the gospel came they laid hold on it as their original right. The Jews to be saved must come under the Abrahamic covenant in which the Gentiles were originally included. This conclusion of Paul must have confounded the Jews
d Gr. ichnos, a track, footstep (v 12; 2 Cor. 12:18; 1 Pet. 2:21)
e This refers to his being a blessing to all nations of the earth. He also will literally inherit the earth along with all those blessed with him (Ps. 37:11; Mt. 5:5; 25:34; Rev. 5:10; 22:4-5)
f This promise of heirship did not come through the law, but by the Abrahamic covenant of faith (v 13-16; Gen. 12:1-3)
g Gr. kenoo, has been emptied (1 Cor. 1:17; 9:15; 2 Cor. 9:3; Phil. 2:7)
h Gr. katargeo, note i, 3:31
i No law makes provision for mercy and pardon should it be broken. It works wrath and punishment only j Because of this it can be for all men k Quoted from Gen. 17:4-5. This is a prophecy fulfilled before N. T. times l Two things of God here:
1 Resurrection (v 17; 8:11; Jn. 5:21; 6:63; 1 Cor. 15:22, 35, 45; 2 Cor. 3:6; Gal. 3:21; 1 Tim. 6:13; 1 Pet. 3:18)
2 Faith (v 17; 8:24-25; Mt. 17:20; 21:22; Mk. 9:23; 11:22-24; Heb. 11:1). True faith is counting things that be not as though they were. This is what God exercised when He called the worlds into existence (Heb. 11:3; 2 Pet. 3:5; Gen. 1:1; Job 38:4-7)
m Here Paul describes the faith of Abraham in order to explain what gospel faith is like (Heb. 11:6; Jas. 1:5-8) n Quoted from Gen. 15:5
o See Gen. 17:1; 21:1-5 p His soul was full of confidence that the Word of God bound Him to fulfill what He had promised. After 25 years it was fulfilled. Faith was imputed for righteousness (v 3-22; Heb. 11:8-12)

Final judgment (2:5)

Paul no doubt refers here to the final judgment when all rebels will receive full retribution for their sins (Rev. 20:11-15; Acts 17:31; Rom. 2:16). It is called the wrath to come (Mt. 3:7; 1 Th. 1:10). All rebels are children of wrath (Eph. 2:2; 5:6). Many days of wrath have come upon men locally and in this life because of rebellion (Num. 11:33; 16:46; Dt. 9:7-8; Lk. 21:23; 1 Th. 2:16; etc.). One more great day of wrath is coming upon men on earth (Rev. 6:16-17; 14:19; 15:1, 7; 16:1, 19; 18:3; 19:15), but the great day of wrath is that of the final judgment and eternal hell (Rev. 14:9-11; 20:11-15; 21:8)

4 things to seek (2:7)

1 Glory (v 7, 10; 8:18; 2 Pet. 1:3)
2 Honor (v 7, 10; Jn. 12:26; 1 Th. 4:4)
3 Immortality. See note, 1 Pet. 3:4
4 Eternal life. Notes, Jn. 6:27; 10:28
These are given on conditions of seeking them (v 7) and by "continuance in well doing" and "working good" (v 7, 10). Acts of obedience do not merit such blessings, which are already provided for by grace, but they demonstrate acceptance of them by man and proof to God of conformity to His will (Phil. 2:12; Jas. 1:21-27)

Keeping law by nature (2:15)

Their keeping the law by nature proves they have the law written in their hearts. The conscience bears witness of obedience or condemns for disobedience, proving God has not left men without light sufficient to justify or condemn in the judgment (v 15-16). It does not say here that keeping the law, or doing by nature what the law requires, saves the soul in either case. Men have to be born again in addition to this to be saved b The condition of the gospel is faith, not only temporary faith, but stedfast and continued faith. Note s, 10, Jn. 3:15.

j Gr. dokime. Trans. trial (2 Cor. 8:2); experiment (2 Cor. 9:13); proof (2 Cor. 2:9; 13:3; Phil. 2:22); and experience (Rom. 5:4).
k 4 reasons we can glory in tribulations:
1 Our justification and peace (v 1)
2 The grace of God in Christ (v 2)
3 The love of God in our hearts (v 5)
4 The power of the Holy Ghost (v 5)
l 4fold description of the former state:
1 Without strength - weak, dying, helpless to resist sin and do good, and powerless to deliver from misery (v 6)
2 Ungodly - sinful, depraved, Satan-ruled and enslaved (v 6)
3 Sinners - bent on finding happiness but always missing the mark (v 8)
4 Enemies - haters of God and holiness and openly at war with both (v 10) m Due time of fulness of time (Gal. 4:4) n Instead, or in place of the ungodly
o Jews divided men into 4 classes:
1 The just who said: What is mine is mine; what is thine is thine
2 The accommodating who said: What is mine is thine; what is thine is mine
3 The pious who said: What is mine is thine; what is thine let it be thine
4 The ungodly who said: What is mine is mine; what is thine shall be mine p We have many examples of men dying for friends, lovers, and great men, but it is contrary to nature to die for enemies. Yet God did (v 6-8; Jn. 3:16)
q Blessings of Christ's death, p. 174
r If Christ died for us while we were yet ungodly, sinners, and enemies, how much more will He do for us since we have become reconciled, godly, and friends. If He saved us by His death, how much more can He save us by His life (v 9-10; 8:31-34; Heb. 7:25)
s Gr. katallasso, change from enmity to friendship, reconcile (v 10; 1 Cor. 7:11; 2 Cor. 5:18-20)
t Boasting is forbidden Jews trusting in the law, because it is a false confidence (3:27). The Christian is enjoined to boast of his reconciliation to God for it is a true confidence (v 11; 1 Cor. 1:31; 2 Cor. 10:17) u Gr. katallage, reconciliation (v 11; 11:15; 2 Cor. 5:18-19). It should not have been trans. atonement here, as it refers to the removal of enmity and a change to friendship, which is the effect of atonement v In v 12-21 Paul shows that the consequences of Christ's obedience extend as far as Adam's disobedience. Gentiles are descendents of Adam and partake of his sin and its consequences, so they are free to partake of the redemption of Christ. This again puts the Gentiles on an equal basis with Jews in Adam, Abraham, and Christ. Sin is of universal effect. From Adam all men derive their beings (Acts 17:26). The whole race was in his loins when he sinned. He was its spiritual, moral, and physical fountainhead, and its sole representative. He did not act as a single person but as the whole race. When he fell he sinned for all. When God contracted with him, it was a contract for the whole race. His progeny became a part to the covenant and blessings if he obeyed, and of the curses if he sinned. See 10 facts about sin, p. 174
w Death did not come by personal sin, as it did in the case of Adam. Death passed upon all men because of Adam's sin (Gen. 2:17; Rom. 5:12-21) puted to him for righteousness.

▸23 Now [a]it was not written for his sake alone, that it was imputed to him;
▸24 But for us also, to whom it shall be imputed, [b]if we believe on him that raised up Jē'sus our Lord from the dead;
▸25 [c]Who was delivered for our offences, and was raised again for our [d]justification.

122 CHAPTER 5

5 Tenfold result of justification by faith (3:21, refs.)

[e]THEREFORE being [f]justified by faith, [g]we have peace with God through our Lord Jē'sus Christ:
2 By whom also we have access by faith into this [h]grace wherein we stand, and rejoice in hope of the glory of God.
3 And not only so, but [i]we glory in tribulations also: knowing that tribulation worketh patience;
4 And patience, [j]experience; and experience, hope:
▸5 And hope maketh not ashamed; [k]because the love of God is shed abroad in our hearts by the Hō'lȳ Ghōst which is given unto us.

6 Basis of justification by faith and all blessings (2 Cor. 5:14-21; 1 Pet. 2:24)

6 For when we [l]were yet without strength, in [m]due time Christ died [n]for the [o]ungodly.
7 For scarcely for a righteous man will one die: yet peradventure for a good man some would even [p]dare to die.
8 But God commendeth his love toward us, in that, while we were yet sinners, [q]Christ died for us.
▸9 [r]Much more then, being now justified by his blood, we shall be saved from wrath through him.
▸10 For if, when we were enemies, we were reconciled to God by the death of his Son, much more, being [s]reconciled, we shall be saved by his life.
11 And not only so, but we also [t]joy in God through our Lord Jē'sus Christ, by whom we have now received [u]the atonement.

IV Inbred sin (Rom. 5:12-21). 1 Sin and death by Adam

12 [v]Wherefore, as by one man sin entered into the world, and death by sin; and so death passed upon all men, for that all have sinned:
13 (For until the law sin was in the world: but sin is not imputed when there is no law.
14 Nevertheless death reigned from Ad'ăm to Mō'şeş, even over them that had not sinned after the [w]similitude of Ad'ăm's transgression, who is the [x]figure of him that was to come.

2 Nine contrasts between Adam and Christ (1 Cor. 15:21-22, 45-50)

▸15 But not as the offence, so also is the free gift. For if through the offence of one many be dead, [b]much more the grace of God, and the gift by grace, which is by one man, Jē'sus Christ, hath abounded unto many.
▸16 And not as it was by one that sinned, so is the gift: for the judgment was by one to condemnation, but the free gift is of many offences unto justification.
▸17 For if by one man's offence death reigned by one; much more [c]they which receive abundance of grace and of the gift of righteousness shall reign in life by one, Jē'sus Christ.)
▸18 Therefore as by the offence of one judgment came upon all men to condemnation; even so by the righteousness of one the free gift came upon all men unto justification of life.
▸19 For as [d]by one man's disobedience many were made sinners, so by the [e]obedience of one shall many be made righteous.
▸20 Moreover the law [f]entered, that the offence might abound. But where sin abounded, grace did much more abound:
▸21 That as sin hath reigned unto death, even so might grace reign through righteousness unto eternal life by Jē'sus Christ our Lord.

123 CHAPTER 6

V Salvation: divine method of deliverance from sin (Rom. 6:1-14). 1 By death through Christ and the Holy Spirit (Rom. 5:1-11; 8:1-13)

[g]WHAT shall we say then? Shall we continue in sin, that grace may abound?
2 [h]God forbid. How shall we, that are dead to sin, live any longer therein?

2 By baptism into Christ (1 Cor. 12:13; Gal. 3:27; Col. 2:12)

3 Know ye not, that so many of us as were [i]baptized into Jē'sus Christ were baptized into his death?
4 Therefore we are [j]buried with him by baptism into death: [k]that like as Christ was raised up from the dead by the [l]glory of the Father, even so we also should walk in [m]newness of life.
▸5 For if we have been [n]planted together in the likeness of his death, we shall be also in the likeness of his resurrection:

3 By death to the old man (Rom. 8:1-13; Gal. 5:16-26; Eph. 4:20-24; Col. 3:5-17)

6 Knowing this, that our [o]old man is [p]crucified with him, that the body of sin might be [q]destroyed, that henceforth we should not serve sin.
7 For he that is [r]dead is freed from sin.
▸8 Now if we be [s]dead with Christ, we believe that we shall also live with him:

a See 12 contrasts, p. 174
b The parallel does not hold true in every detail, for the free gift exceeds the consequences of sin (v 15, 17, 20) c The ones who receive the abundance of grace and the gift of righteousness will reign in life by Jesus Christ
d Through Adam's sin, a sentence of death, without a promise of resurrection, passed upon all men; so, by the obedience of Christ taking man's place, the sentence was completely cancelled and original dominion restored. One is constituted a sinner through Adam, not by his personal sins, so one is constituted righteous through Christ, not by his personal acts of righteousness (v 19)
e The obedience unto death (Phil. 2:8). This was the righteous act of v 18 f The law with its many statutes entered to condemn the many kinds of offences and make man know in detail what sin was. It was added until the seed should come (Gal. 2:19-25). Those who accept Christ receive free pardon of all offences and grace abounds and reigns in life (v 20-21; 1 Jn. 1:9; Rev. 1:5). If one sin was too great and heinous for grace to pardon, then grace would cease to reign in righteousness and sin would be more powerful than Jesus Christ and His power g Questions 32-35. Next, v 15. Having proved the sinfulness of both Jews and Gentiles and that both must be redeemed alike by Christ through faith and grace, Paul now takes up the argument of the divine method of dealing with sin and the secret of a victorious holy life (6:1-8:39). The questions come up that if salvation is free and apart from works - if the more heinous the sins the more abundant the grace to pardon, then may we not go on in sin so that the grace of God may become magnified? God forbid
h 20 reasons for not living in sin, p. 174
i Baptism into Christ, not water (v 3-5; 1 Cor. 12:13; Gal. 3:28-29; Eph. 4:5; Col. 2:11-13)
j Baptism is by burial, regardless of what kind of baptism it is (note a, Acts 8:38)
k As Christ died completely, so those who profess Christianity must be completely separated and saved from sin having no more connection with it than a dead body has with the departed spirit (v 3-5; Jas. 2:26)
l Glorious power. Just as it took the mighty power of God to raise Christ, it will take this to bring alive the dead soul of sinners and make them new creatures in a moment (2 Cor. 5:17-18; Eph. 4:22-24)
m Gr. kainotes; here and in 7:6
n Gr. sumphutos, planted together with; plainly proving a burial of His literal body and a burial in baptism. No planting or burial is possible by a sprinkling or pouring. Cp. Jn. 12:24; 1 Cor. 15:36.
o This is none other than Satan himself, the prince of the power of the air, the spirit that now worketh in the children of disobedience (Eph. 2:2; 4:22-24; Col. 3:9; Jn. 8:44; 1 Jn. 3:8; 5:18). To call this the old Adamic nature is erroneous, for nothing happened to Adam other than his submission to Satan and a moral fall. Adam had the same body, soul, and spirit after the fall as before. The only difference was a change of masters. There is no such thing as an old nature other than man's own body, soul, and spirit dominated by satanic powers, as in the above passages p Being "dead to sin" (v 2), "crucified with him" (v 6), "dead with Christ" (v 8), "dead to the law" (7:4), and like expressions are common among Hebrews, Greeks, Latins, and other people. To die to a thing or person, is to have nothing to do with and to be totally separated from it or him. To live to a person or a thing is to be wholly given up to and to have intimate connection with that person or thing. Having the old man crucified means that one has no further dealings with him. In fact, 1 Jn. 5:18 says the wicked one does not touch the born-again one q Gr. katargeo, annulled. Note i, 3:31
r Being dead to sin does not mean that the person or sin is dead. Both are still in existence the same as ever, but to each other they are as being non-existent. Note p, above s We are supposed to reckon ourselves dead with Christ (v 8, 11) a What was it about Christ that died? The body only (Jas. 2:26). Then this is what was resurrected to die no more. Death will have no more dominion over His body. This proves that Christ was resurrected bodily, not as a spirit

b Gr. kurieuo, "lord it over." Used in v 14; 7:1; 14:9; Lk. 22:25; 2 Cor. 1:24; 1 Tim. 6: 15. Sin does not "lord it over" the believer in Christ. The believer "lords it over" sin (2 Cor. 10:4–7; Rom. 6:13; Col. 3:5–10) c Lit., the death He died was on account of sin; for an explation of sin; a sacrifice for sin (1 Pet. 2:24; Heb. 10:10–14)

d Gr. ephapax, once for all. Here; 1 Cor. 15:6; Heb. 7:27; 9:12; 10:10 e As Christ died for sin once for all and dies no more, so we should die to sin once and live unto God forever (v 9–10)

f Gr. logidzomai, to count, reckon, impute (Rom. 2:26; 4:3–24; 6:11; 8:18)

g Here sin is pictured as a king or a tyrant, who has the soul passions, spirit faculties, and bodily members of man under control, dominating his life. Let him not work or reign in the mortal body; give him no place or grounds for working in your being. Sin does not rule or ruin; sin rules and ruins. Wherever sin is, it will have more or less dominion

h Obey sin in its lusts. This further proves sin to be a real spirit person ruling the life. Sin itself has lusts other than the lusts of man. The lusts of sin are in reality the lusts of Satan (v 12; Jn. 8:44; Eph. 2:2–3; 1 Jn. 2:17; 3:8). The lusts of man are his own creative powers depraved and corrupt (Jas. 1:14; 4:1, 3; 2 Tim. 4:3; 1 Pet. 4:2). They make up the basic Adamic nature. The same faculties that yield to sin can likewise yield to God and commit holy acts (Rom. 6:13, 16, 18–20, 22; 8:1–13; Col. 3:5–10)

i It is not sin to be tempted; the sin is in yielding (Jas. 1:13–15). While sin exists as satanic solicitation, it is Satan's lust and sin, not ours. When we yield, we make the Devil's sin our own. The one tempted should obey Jas. 4:7; 1 Pet. 5:8–9; Eph. 4:27. When man refuses, regardless of how strong the temptation is, no sin is possible (1 Jn. 3:4; Jas. 1:13–15)

j Yield to God your will. Satan cannot force your will, and God will not, so the safe and normal thing is to will to do God's will k Gr. hoplon, weapons. Here; 13:12; Jn. 18:3; 2 Cor. 6:7; 10:4

l God delivers from sin at the new birth (2 Cor. 5:17–18; 1 Jn. 3:9; 5:1–4, 18), so if you become subject to it again, it is because of your choice (v 13)

m You are not under the law that demands obedience, without giving power to obey. You are under grace that demands the same strict obedience to God, but gives free pardon for sin and power to obey n Questions 36–38. Next, v 21. See note g, v 1; notes r–u, 3:5–8

o Millions today have not learned these simple facts – that you cannot be a servant of sin and Satan and a servant of righteousness and Christ at the same time; that if you commit sin you are a servant of sin and Satan (Jn. 8:34; 1 Jn. 3:8) and not a Christian; that if you sin, Satan is your master and not Christ and that sin is the service of Satan and righteousness is the service of God

p What is God to be thanked for? That you are not saved from sin or that you are?

q This refers to the gospel truths Paul is here making clear by his arguments. Here Christianity is pictured under the form of a mould or die, into which men are cast, and from which they are stamped with the image of God and of Christ, and are made the holiness of God by the Holy Spirit (1 Cor. 6:11; 2 Cor. 3:18; Eph. 4:24). They are cast into the mould of doctrine and the Word of God is stamped on the heart (2 Cor. 3:1–3)

r Gr. eleutheroo, set free. Here; v 22; 8:2, 21; Jn. 8:32, 36; Gal. 5:1

s Gr. doulos, note e, Mt. 20:27

t Gr. anthropinos. Here; 1 Cor. 2:4, 13; 4:3; 10:13; Jas. 3:7; 1 Pet. 2:13. Greek writers often used it to signify what was easy to understand. It means the opposite of the loftiness of poets and the sublime obscurity of philosophers u Because of the weakness of your flesh. As you have yielded your bodily members 9 Knowing that Christ[a] being raised from the dead dieth no more; death hath [b]no more dominion over him.

10 [c]For in that he died, he died unto sin [d]once: but in that he liveth, he liveth unto God.

4 By reckoning self to be dead to sin but alive to God (Rom. 8:1–13; Eph. 4:20–24; Col. 3:5–17)

●11 [e]Likewise [f]reckon ye also yourselves to be dead indeed unto sin, but alive unto God through Jē'şus Christ our Lord.

5 By refusing the reign of sin: permitting the reign of God in the body (Eph. 4:20–24; Rom. 8:13; Col. 3:5–17; Gal. 5:16–26)

●12 [g]Let not sin therefore reign in your mortal body, that ye should obey [h]it in the lusts thereof.

●13 [i]Neither yield ye your members as instruments of unrighteousness unto sin: [j]but yield yourselves unto God, as those that are alive from the dead, and your members as [k]instruments of righteousness unto God.

▸14 For [l]sin shall not have dominion over you: [m]for ye are not under the law, but under grace.

VI Old relationship to sin: new relationship to God illustrated (Rom. 6:16–7:6). 1 By master and servant (Rom. 6:15–23). (1) Acts of obedience indicate the master served 15 [n]What then? shall we sin, because we are not under the law, but under grace? God forbid.

16 [o]Know ye not, that to whom ye yield yourselves servants to obey, his servants ye are to whom ye obey; whether of sin unto death, or of obedience unto righteousness?

(2) Change in acts of obedience indicates a change in masters

17 [p]But God be thanked, that ye were the servants of sin, but ye have obeyed from the heart that [q]form of doctrine which was delivered you.

18 Being then made [r]free from sin, ye became the [s]servants of righteousness.

(3) The master served indicates the nature of obedience

19 I speak after the [t]manner of men because of the [u]infirmity of your flesh: for as ye have yielded your members servants to uncleanness and to iniquity unto iniquity; even so now yield your members servants to righteousness unto [v]holiness.

20 [w]For when ye were the servants of sin, ye were free from righteousness.

(4) Fruit produced indicates spiritual state and destiny

21 [x]What [y]fruit had ye then in those [z]things whereof ye are now ashamed? for the end of those things is death.

▸22 But [a]now being made free from sin, and [b]become servants to God, ye have your fruit unto holiness, and the end everlasting life.

▸23 For the [c]wages of sin is death; but the [d]gift of God is eternal life through Jē'şus Christ our Lord.

CHAPTER 7 124

2 Old relationship to sin: new relationship to God illustrated by marriage

[e]KNOW ye not, brethren, (for I speak to them that know the law,) how that the law hath dominion over a man as long as he liveth?

2 For the woman which hath an husband is bound by the law to her husband so long as he liveth; but if the husband [f]be dead, she is loosed from the law of her husband.

3 So then if, while her husband liveth, she be married to another man, she shall be called an adulteress: but if her husband be dead, she is free from that law; so that she is no adulteress, though she be married to another man.

4 [g]Wherefore, my brethren, ye also are become dead to the law by the [h]body of Christ; that ye should be married to another, even to him who is raised from the dead, [i]that we should bring forth fruit unto God.

5 [j]For when we were [k]in the flesh, the [l]motions of sins, which were [m]by the law, did work in our members to bring forth fruit unto death.

6 [n]But now we are delivered from the law, [o]that being dead wherein we were held; that we should serve in newness of spirit, and not in the [p]oldness of the letter.

VII Paul's experience bound by sin under the law illustrates bondage to sin and the law (Rom. 7:7–25). 1 The law itself is not sinful but I am

7 [q]What shall we say then? Is the law sin? God forbid. Nay, I had not known sin, but by the law: for I had not known lust, except the law had said, [r]Thou shalt not covet.

2 Sin controlled me before law came but it was inactive

8 But [s]sin, taking occasion by the commandment, wrought in me all manner of [t]concupiscence. For without the law sin was dead.

3 I was alive before the law came but then sin that controlled me would not let me obey the law so I incurred its penalty

9 For I was alive without the

a Question 39, Next, 7:1

b Paul uses fruit to refer to good and evil results (v 21–22; 7:4–5; Gal. 5:22–23; Eph. 5:9; Phil. 1:11, 22; 4:17; Heb. 12:11)

c Sin has 2 main results:
1 Present shame and emptiness (v 21)
2 Future, eternal death and hell, the end of a life of sowing to the flesh (v 21–23; 8:13; Gal. 6:7–8; Rev. 20:6, 10–15)

d Now, in the present life men are free from sin in Christ (2 Cor. 5:17–18)

e A change in masters means a change in service (Mt. 6:24)

f Righteousness has 2 main results:
1 Present holiness of life (v 22)
2 Future and eternal life, the end of a life of sowing to the Spirit (v 22–23; 8:13; Gal. 6:7–8; note, Jn. 6:27)

g Gr. opsonion, recompense, wages. Here; Lk. 3:14; 1 Cor. 9:7; 2 Cor. 11:8. Divine justice is under obligation to give sinners their wages or be in debt to them forever (Lk. 12:5; Rev. 20:11–15)

h Eternal life is a free gift (v 23; 5:15–18; Eph. 2:8–9; Jn. 10:28). Men merit hell, but not eternal life. Jesus Christ alone procured it and gives it freely to all who believe (Jn. 3:16; 6:27; Rom. 3:24)

i Question 40. Next, v 7. Paul in Rom. 6 sets forth the obligations of all men to live a holy life. In Rom. 7 he proves that the Jew is freed from all obligation to law keeping and shows why the law is helpless to deliver any man from sin and hell

j Death breaks all marriage bonds

k Here Paul states that Jews are dead to the law because Christ has fulfilled its types and prophecies and abolished it, so they can be married to Him and produce fruit

l The body of Christ in sacrifice, not the church (Eph. 1:23; Col. 1:18, 24)

m Referring to the fruit of Jn. 15:16

n When we were in the flesh and carnal program of the law (Heb. 9:10), the passions of sin worked in our members by the law and produced sins that the law had to condemn to death. This is explained fully in v 7–25

o Meaning living in sin (8:8–9) p Gr. pathema, Trans. suffering (Rom. 8:18; 2 Cor. 1:5–7; Phil. 3:10; Col. 1:24; Heb. 2:9–10; 1 Pet. 1:11; 4:13; 5:1); affliction (2 Tim. 3:11; Heb. 10:32; 1 Pet. 5:9); affections (Gal. 5:24); and motions (Rom. 7:5)

q The motions of sins acted contrary to the law and were made exceedingly sinful by the law that condemned them (7:13). The law was the means of disclosing how sinful we were

r In Christ we are delivered from the law which condemned us for sins, but made no provision for pardon and gave no power to obey it s We were dead in sins while under law and held helpless to free ourselves from its bondage and death

t We see that the law merely typifies the gospel, and can only be fulfilled by the gospel. We serve God now, not in the old literal sense of forms and rituals, but in the true spiritual meaning u Questions 41–42, Next, v 13. The law itself is not sinful in demanding me to live right. The law only makes known what sin really is (3:20; 4:15; 7:7; 1 Jn. 3:4)

v Quoted here and in 13:9 from Ex. 20:17

w Sin is here pictured as a self-acting spirit which at one time controlled Paul and worked in him all manner of concupiscence or sinful lusts. It used the coming of the commandment as an occasion to assert its control over his life not letting him obey the law. Sin was not active before the law came for it had no reason to assert its power until then. But as soon as the commandment came forbidding certain things, sin came to life and by its lusts made him break the law so that he would have to pay the death penalty (v 8–9)

bers to sin and uncleanness, you must now do likewise to righteousness and holiness (v 19–20)

v Gr. hagiasmos. Here; v 22; 1 Cor. 1:30; 1 Th. 4:3, 4, 7; 2 Th. 2:13; 1 Tim. 2:15; Heb. 12:14; 1 Pet. 1:2

w Again Paul emphasizes the fact that a man cannot be a saint and a sinner; holy and sinful; and cannot serve God and Satan, or be a servant of sin and righteousness at the same time (Mt. 6:24) law once: but when the commandment came, sin [a]revived, and I died.

10 And the [b]commandment, which was ordained to life, I found to be unto death.

11 [c]For sin, taking occasion by the commandment, deceived me, and by it slew me.

4 The law was just in its demands but it could not deliver me from sin so I had to pay the penalty

12 [d]Wherefore the law is holy, and the commandment holy, and just, and good.

13 [e]Was then that which is good made death unto me? God forbid. But sin, that it might appear sin, working death in me by that which is good; that sin by the commandment might become exceeding sinful.

14 [f]For we know that the law is [g]spiritual: but I am [h]carnal, sold under sin.

5 I consented to the law but I could not obey it because sin was my slave-master

15 [i]For that which I do [j]I allow not: for [k]what I would, that do I not; but what I hate, that do I.

16 [l]If then I do that which I would not, I consent unto the law that it is good.

17 Now then it is no more I that do it, but sin that [m]dwelleth in me.

18 For I know that in me (that is, in my flesh,) dwelleth no good thing: for to[n] will is present with me; but how to perform that which is good I find not.

19 For the good that I would I do not: but the evil which I would not, that I do.

20 Now if I do that I would not, it is no more I that do it, but sin that dwelleth in me.

6 I was not a willing slave

21 I find then a[o] law, that, when I would do good, evil is present with me.

22 For I delight in the[p] law of God after the[q] inward man:

23 But I see[r] another law in my members, warring against the law of my mind, and bringing me into captivity to the law of sin which is in my members.

7 I was a wretched slave until I found a new slave-master

24 [s]O wretched man that I am! [t]who shall deliver me from[u] the body of this death?

25 [v]I thank God through Jē'sus Christ our Lord. [w]So then with the mind I myself serve the law of God; but with the flesh the law of sin.

125 CHAPTER 8

VIII Paul's experience,fully delivered from sin and the law,illustrates the divine method of deliverance from both (Rom. 8). 1 No condemnation - why [x]THERE is therefore[a] now no condemnation to them which are [b]in Christ Jē'sus, who walk not after the flesh, but after the Spirit.

2 For the[c] law of the Spirit of life in Christ Jē'sus hath made me free from the law of sin and death.

3 For[d] what the law could not do, in that it was[e] weak through the flesh,[f] God sending his own Son in the [g]likeness of sinful flesh, and for sin, condemned sin in the flesh:

▸4 That the righteousness of the law might be fulfilled in us, who [h]walk not after the flesh, but after the Spirit.

5 For they that are after the flesh[i] do mind the things of the flesh; but they that are after the Spirit the things of the Spirit.

2 Twentyfold contrast between fleshly and spiritual lives

▸6 For to be [j]carnally minded is death; but to be[k] spiritually minded is life and peace.

7 Because the[l] carnal mind is enmity against God: for it is not subject to the law of God, neither indeed can be.

8 So then they that are in the flesh cannot please God.

9 [m]But ye are not in the flesh, but in the Spirit, if so be that the Spirit of God dwell in you. Now if any man have not the Spirit of Christ, he is none of his.

▸10 And if Christ be in you, the body is dead because of sin; but the Spirit is life because of righteousness.

▸11 But if the Spirit of him that raised up Jē'sus from the dead dwell in you, he that raised up Christ from the dead shall also [n]quicken your mortal bodies by his Spirit that dwelleth in you.

12 [o]Therefore, brethren, we are debtors, not to the flesh, to live after the flesh.

▸13 For if ye live after the flesh, ye shall die: but if ye through the Spirit do mortify the deeds of the body, ye shall live.

3 Five immediate results of deliverance from sin

▸14 For as many as are led by the Spirit of God, they are the sons of God.

15 For ye have not received the [p]spirit of bondage again to fear; but ye have received [q]the Spirit of[r] adoption, whereby we cry, [s]Ab'bà, Father.

▸16 The Spirit [t]itself beareth witness with[u] our spirit, that we are the children of God:

4 Seven eternal results of deliverance from sin

★17 [v]And if children, then heirs; heirs of God, and joint-heirs with Christ; [w]if so be that we suffer with him, that we may be also [x]glorified together.◂

▸18 For I reckon that the [y]sufferings of this present time are not worthy to be compared with the glory which shall be revealed in us.

a This proves that the experience of 7:7-24 was not Paul's at the time of the writing of Romans, for several reasons:
1 He had no condemnation (v 1)
2 Was free from the law of sin (v 2)
3 Was free from eternal death (v 2)
4 Sin condemned in his flesh (v 3)
5 He fulfilled righteousness (v 4)
6 He had life and peace (v 6)
7 He was Spirit-filled (v 9-11)
8 His body was dead to sin (v 10)
9 His flesh was crucified (v 12-13)
10 He was walking in the Spirit and not after the flesh (v 1-4; Gal. 5:16-26)

b 34 blessings IN Christ: p. 174

c 8 laws in Romans: See p. 174

d 15 things the law could not do: p.174

e Gr. astheneo, weak, impotent. The law was powerless to control the flesh, for sin already had control of it before the law came (5:20; Gal. 3:19). Sin would not permit the flesh to obey the law (7:7-23, notes)

f God had to undertake man's deliverance from sin so that the flesh could be liberated to fulfill the righteousness that the law demanded (v 3-4)

g See Reasons Christ had sinless flesh, p. 175

h By the walk of Christ in real flesh and yet without sin, He condemned sin in all flesh and made a way whereby no flesh had to continue in sin (Rom. 6:1-23; 8:1-13; 2 Cor. 5:17-18; 10:4-6; Gal. 5:16-26)

i Gr. phroneo, set affections on. Here; 12:3, 16; 14:6; 15:5; Col. 3:2. Those who set their affections on the sins of the flesh of Gal. 5:19-21; 1 Cor. 6:9-11; Col. 3:5-10; Rom. 1:29-32; Mk. 7:19-21 will naturally fulfill them (Jas. 1:13-15). Those who set their affections on the things of the Spirit of Gal. 5:21-22; 1 Cor. 12:4-11; Col. 3:12-14 will naturally fulfill them and such will not commit sin (note h, 6:2)

j Same as "mind the things of the flesh" (v 5; note i, above)

k Same as "mind the things of the Spirit" (v 5; note i, above)

l Minding the sins of the flesh is enmity with God (v 5; note i, above). Such a mind will not obey the law of God, nor can it because it submits to sin. When it ceases to rebel then it ceases to sin. As long as it lives in rebellion it cannot please God (v 7-8)

m You Christians are not minding the things of the flesh, but of the Spirit, if the Spirit dwells in you. If you do not have the Spirit you do not belong to Christ (v 9). If Christ is in you (2 Cor. 5:17-18), the body is dead to all sin, and the Spirit dominates your life as you live to all righteousness (v 10). If this be true, you can expect quickening for your mortal bodies by the Spirit that dwells in you (v 11)

n Gr. zoopoieo, Trans. make alive (1 Cor. 15:22); give life (2 Cor. 3:6; Gal. 3:21); and quicken (Jn. 5:21; 6:63; Rom. 4:17; 8:11; 1 Cor. 15:36, 45; 1 Tim. 6:13; 1 Pet. 3:18)

o So then, we owe the flesh nothing. It has no more control of our lives. We must not live in the sins of the flesh or we shall die. But if we will put to death the practices of the flesh by the Spirit, we shall live (v 12-13; Gal. 5:16-26; Col. 3:5-10). See Flesh and Spirit life contrasted, p. 175

p Spirit and nature of Satan (Eph. 2:2; Jn. 8:44; 1 Jn. 3:8; Heb. 2:14-15). You have not received a spirit of slavery to relapse again into fear and terror, but you have received the Spirit of freedom and sonship to break every bondage

Here it refers to the whole creation waiting for the removal of the curse
c Gr. apekdechomai, wait for (v 19, 23, 25; 1 Cor. 1:7; Gal. 5:5) and look for (Phil. 3:20; Heb. 9:28; 1 Pet. 3:20)
d Gr. mataiotes, disappointing misery. Only here; Eph. 4:17; 2 Pet. 2:18, but used in the Sept. in Eccl. 1:14; 2:11, 17; 9:9; etc. Men became vain willingly, but became subject to misery unwillingly

19 For the [a]earnest expectation of the [b]creature [c]waiteth for the manifestation of the sons of God.

20 For the creature was made subject to [d]vanity, not willingly, but by reason of him who hath subjected the same in hope, ▶21 Because the creature itself also shall be [e]delivered from the bondage of [f]corruption into [g]the glorious liberty of the children of God.

22 For we know that the whole creation [h]groaneth and travaileth in pain together until now.

▶23 And [i]not only they, but ourselves also, which have [j]the firstfruits of the Spirit, even we ourselves [k]groan within ourselves, waiting for the [l]adoption, to wit, the redemption of our body.

▶24 [m]For we are saved by hope: but hope that is seen is not hope: [n]for what a man seeth, why doth he yet hope for?

▶25 But if we hope for that we see not, then do we with patience wait for it.

5 The work of the Divine Trinity in believers: (1) The Holy Spirit's work (Jn. 3:5; 14:16-17, 26; 15:7-13, 25-26; 1 Cor. 12)

▶26 Likewise the [o]Spirit also helpeth our [p]infirmities: [r]for we know not what we should pray for as we ought: but the Spirit [s]itself maketh [t]intercession for us with [u]groanings which cannot be uttered.

▶27 And [v]he that searcheth the hearts knoweth what is the mind of the Spirit, because he maketh [w]intercession for the saints according to the will of God.

(2) God's work in lives delivered from sin (Jn. 12:26; 14:26; 15:26; 16:23-26; 2 Cor. 3:3-6; Phil. 2:13; Tit. 2:11-12)

▶28 And we know that all things [x]work together for good to them that love God, to them who are the called according to his purpose.

▶29 For whom he did [y]foreknow, he also did [z]predestinate to be [a]conformed to the image of his Son, that he might be [b]the firstborn among many brethren.

▶30 Moreover [c]whom he did predestinate, them he also called: and whom he called, them he also justified: and whom he justified, them he also glorified.

31 [d]What shall we then say to these things? If God be for us, who can be against us?

▶32 He that spared not his own Son, but delivered him up for us all, how shall he not with him also freely give us all things?

▶33 Who shall [e]lay any thing to the charge of God's [f]elect? It is God that justifieth.

(3) Christ's work in lives delivered from sin (Mt. 3:11; 16:18; Jn. 1:33; 7:37-39; Acts 1:4-8; Eph. 1:22; 4:11; Heb. 2:14-18; 4:14-16)

▶34 Who is he that condemneth? [g]It is Christ that died, yea rather, that is risen again, who is even at the right hand of God, [h]who also maketh intercession for us.

35 [i]Who shall separate us from the love of Christ? shall tribulation, or distress, or persecution, or famine, or nakedness, or peril, or sword?

★36 As it is written, [j]For thy sake we are killed all the day long; we are accounted as sheep for the slaughter.

▶37 Nay, in all these things we are more than conquerors through him that loved us.

38 [k]For I am persuaded, that neither death, nor life, nor angels, nor [l]principalities, nor powers, nor things present, nor things to come,

39 Nor height, nor depth, nor any other [m]creature, shall be able to [n]separate us from the love of God, which is in Christ Je'sus our Lord.

IX Dispensational (Rom. 9-11). 1 Israel and God's sovereignty (Rom. 9:1-24). (1) Paul's love for Israel

d 1st O. T. prophecy fulfilled in Romans (8:36; Ps. 44:22). Next, 9:7

f Satanic powers of Eph. 2:2; 6:12
g Any thing in creation (note b, v 19)
h One who lives and walks in the Spirit, will not be separated by any of the 17 things of v 35-39 any more than he will be moved to commit the 17 things of Gal. 5:19-21. The secret of victory and absolute assurance for the believer is to walk as taught in Rom. 6:14-23; 8:1-13; Gal. 5:16-26
i Paul, in chaps. 1-8, proves that God's grace extends to both Jews and Gentiles who believe. In chaps. 9-11 he deals with the Jews and shows why they were rejected and cut off by God and why and how the Gentiles were called and elected to partake of gospel benefits call (Jn. 3:16; 1 Tim. 2:4; 2 Pet. 3:9; Rev. 22:17). All who do accept, He has foreknown and predestinated to be conformed to the image of His Son that His Son might be the first-born among many brethren (v 29). Those who reject the plan, He has foreknown and predestinated to be consigned to eternal hell as an everlasting monument of His wrath on rebels (Isa. 66:22-24; Rev. 14:9-11; Mt. 25:41, 46). This is the sum of foreknowledge and predestination a Gr. summorphos. Only here and in Phil. 3:21 where the resurrected body will be made like His glorious body. This is what God has foreknown and predestinated for all who conform to the gospel

b Gr. prototokos, (note d, 2, Lk. 8:19; note q, Col. 1:15) c God has foreordained, determined, and predestinated that all men be called to salvation, but that only the ones who accept become genuine called ones to be justified and glorified. None are glorified, but those who, according to His purpose, meet the terms of the gospel, who they will be is left up to the individual (Jn. 3:16; 1 Tim. 2:4; 2 Pet. 3:9; Rev. 22:17; Mk. 16:16; Acts 2:38; 3:19). All things depend upon meeting the conditions of the gospel (Rom. 8:1-13, 28)
d Questions 46-52. Next, 9:14. We must conclude from these doctrines that God is for us and will freely give us all things; that God alone is our judge; that Christ and the Holy Spirit are our helpers; that nothing can separate us from the love of Christ; and that we are more than conquerors over all enemies through Jesus Christ our Lord

c Questions 53-54. Next, v 19. These questions are answered with another "God forbid." There is no unrighteousness with God if He sees the dispositions of two boys and chooses on the basis of what He can foresee in each one. So with God's present dealings with Israel and the Gentiles. If He sees that Jews will be continually rebelling against Him and the Gentiles will not, can He not act accordingly without unrighteousness? God is not responsible for the acts of Esau or Jacob; Jews or Gentiles. He had to make the choice of Jacob over Esau due to the dispositions and lives of the boys. So now, He has to set aside Israel, due to her ever increasing rebellion of over 1,800 years. The only thing left for Him to do is to use the Gentiles if they will carry out His program (Mt. 21:33-45)
d See Ex. 33:19. Here Paul shows that God is sovereign over His mercy. He has laid down His terms of mercy and compassion and will not dispense with either until men meet His terms. He will not save one soul without repentance and continued conformity to His will, nor will He damn one soul that will meet His terms e Quoted from Ex. 9:16. Here we have an instance of a wicked king resisting God's will to the point of destruction. At many points in God's dealings with Pharaoh the king could have submitted and escaped judgment. But he was too stubborn to do so and therefore God could not do otherwise than punish him for his sins and resistance f This is the fourth time Paul concludes that God has been fair in His dealings

God was righteous in choosing:
1 Isaac over Ishmael (v 7-8; Gen. 17)
2 Jacob over Esau (v 9-13; Gen. 25)
3 The righteous over the sinners in Israel (v 14-16; Ex. 32:32-33; 33:19)
4 Israel over Pharaoh and the Egyptians (v 17-18; Ex. 7:1-14:31)

Paul next applies all these instances to God's present dealings with Jews and Gentiles. He concludes that, since it was the only just and righteous thing to do in the above 4 cases, it is only just and righteous of God to cut off Israel and choose the Gentiles to carry on His program (9:19-11:36)
g God hardens on the same grounds of showing mercy. If men will accept mercy He will give it to them. If they will not, thus hardening themselves He is only just and righteous in judging them. Men are privileged to humble themselves and seek mercy or exalt themselves and refuse mercy. Mercy is the effect of a right attitude, and hardening is the effect of stubbornness or the wrong attitude toward God. It is like the clay and the wax in the sun. The same sunshine hardens one and softens the other. The responsibility is with the materials, not with the sun. Men are more responsible than these materials, for they have wills to make proper choices. The only sense in which God hardened Pharaoh was in giving him the occasion to harden his own heart or obey. Such is the choice all men have to make daily (2 Cor. 2:15-17)
h Questions 55-60. Next, v 30. Here the Jews argue again, as they did in 3:7. Paul answers by questions (v 20-24). Who are you to reply against God? Who are you to blame God for your sinfulness? Cannot God deal with you as is necessary (Jer. 18:1-17)? If God still wants to save men who will obey Him, Jews or Gentiles, is that not His right? If He has to damn those who harden themselves may He not do so without our criticism?

i Vessels of wrath are Jews who were:

Proud (9:31)	Rebellious (9:32)
Blind (11:7)	Cast away (11:15)

14 [c]What shall we say then? Is there unrighteousness with God? God forbid.
15 For he saith to Mō'ses, [d]I will have mercy on whom I will have mercy, and I will have compassion on whom I will have compassion.
16 So then it is not of him that willeth, nor of him that runneth, but of God that sheweth mercy.
17 For the scripture saith unto Phā'raōh, [e]Even for this same purpose have I raised thee up, that I might shew my power in thee, and that my name might be declared throughout all the earth.
18 [f]Therefore hath he mercy on whom he will have mercy, and whom he will he [g]hardeneth.

(6) God's sovereignty stated

19 [h]Thou wilt say then unto me, Why doth he yet find fault? For who hath resisted his will?
20 Nay but, O man, who art thou that repliest against God? Shall the thing formed say to him that formed it, Why hast thou made me thus?
21 Hath not the potter power over the clay, of the same lump to make one vessel unto honour, and another unto dishonour?
22 What if God, willing to shew his wrath, and to make his power known, endured with much longsuffering the [i]vessels of wrath fitted to destruction:
▸23 And that he might make known the riches of his glory on the [i]vessels of mercy, which he had afore prepared unto glory,

2 Israel's failure and unbelief (Rom. 9:25-10:21. Cp. Rom. 3:1-8). (1) Failure foretold

★25 As he saith also in [k]Ō'see, I will call them my people, which were not my people; and her beloved, which was not beloved. ◂
★26 [l]And it shall come to pass, that in the place where it was said unto them, Ye are not my people; there shall they be called the children of the living God. ◂
★27 Ē-sā'ĭas also crieth concerning Iş'ra-el, [m]Though the number of the children of Iş'ra-el be as the sand of the sea, a remnant shall be saved: ◂
28 For he will finish the work, and cut it short in righteousness: because a short work will the Lord make upon the earth.
★29 And as Ē-sā'ĭas said before, [n]Except the Lord of [b]Sā*b'a-ōth had left us a seed, we had been as [c]Sŏd'o-má, and been made like unto Gō-mōr'rhá.

(2) Reason for failure (10:3)

30 [d]What shall we say then? That the Gĕn'tīleş, which followed not after righteousness, have attained to righteousness, even the righteousness which is of faith.
31 But Iş'ra-el, which followed after the law of righteousness, hath not attained to the law of righteousness.
32 [e]Wherefore? [f]Because they sought it not by faith, but as it were by the works of the law. For they stumbled at that stumblingstone;
★33 As it is written, [g]Behold, I lay in Si'ŏn a[h]stumblingstone and rock of offence: and whosoever believeth on him shall not be ashamed. ◂

(3) Ignorance and rebellion

BRETHREN, my heart's desire and prayer to God for Iş'ra-el is, [i]that they might be saved.
2 For I bear them record that they have a[j]zeal of God, but not according to knowledge.
3 For they being ignorant of God's righteousness, and going about to establish their own righteousness, [k]have not submitted themselves unto the righteousness of God.

(4) Christ the end of the law

▸4 [l]For Christ is the end of the law for righteousness to every one that believeth.

(5) Righteousness of the law and of God contrasted

5 For Mō'ses describeth the righteousness which is of the law, [m]That the man which doeth those things shall live by them.
6 [n]But the righteousness which is of faith speaketh on this wise, Say not in thine heart, [o]Who shall ascend into heaven? (that is, to bring Christ down from above:)
7 Or, Who shall descend into the [p]deep? (that is, to bring up Christ again from the dead.)
▸8 But what saith it? [q]The word is nigh thee, even in thy mouth, and in thy heart: that is, the word of faith, which we preach;

(6) How to receive God's righteousness (Jn. 3:14, refs.)

▸9 [r]That if thou shalt confess with thy mouth the Lord Jē'sus, and shalt believe in thine heart that God hath raised him from the dead, thou shalt be saved.

e Question 62. Next, 10:6. Why has Israel not attained to the righteousness she sought so long? Because she sought it not by faith, but by works of the law, and because she stumbled over the way her Messiah came (v 32-33)
f The Jews were ignorant of God's way of righteousness by faith in Christ (Rom. 3:25-31; Gal. 2:16; 3:10-28). They went about to establish their own righteousness by works. They attained not to the Abrahamic covenant, which stands alone on the principle of grace through faith (Rom. 4:1-25; Gen. 15:6). They set all their efforts upon the law of works and imagined they were justified by outward observance of a few rituals. When the gospel came along offering free salvation to Gentiles as well as Jews on the basis of grace and faith without law works, they were offended and rejected it

j Zealous but stubbornly ignorant (v 2-3) k This shows their rebellion to the end
l The law ends in Christ who fulfilled it by being the real sacrifice of which the law sacrifices were merely typical (Eph. 2:14-15; Col. 2:14-17; Heb. 8:5; 10:1). The law was our schoolmaster to lead us to Christ and was added because of transgression until Christ should come (Gal. 3:19-25; Rom. 5:20; Heb. 9:10). It cannot save, but condemns, making the sinner realize his need of salvation. Christ is the end of the law of sacrifices, types, rituals, and outward religion which foreshadowed Him and the spiritual realities of the N. T.
m Quoted from Lev. 18:5. Perfect obedience was required by the law. Since no man could accomplish this, all men were condemned by the law and cursed by it (Dt. 27:26; Gal. 3:10-13; Rom. 3:19-20). This shows the impossibility of being saved by the law, and the fact that all can be saved by the gospel (v 6-13) n Law righteousness demanded perfect obedience; faith righteousness asks only confession of sins and surrender to God who, by the Holy Spirit, sets free from the law of sin and death (8:2), transforms the nature and life (2 Cor. 5:17-18; 1 Cor. 6:11), fulfills in man the righteousness of the law (8:3), and makes man righteous in Christ (1 Cor. 1:30; 2 Cor. 5:21; Rom. 4:1-25; 10:6-13)
o Questions 63-65. Next, v 14. Quoted from Dt. 30:12-14. Paul here simply shows that men do not have to search for Christ or the Word of the gospel, for it is nigh them and only needs to be acted upon. It is like the law in Dt. 30:12-14; they did not have to search for it; they already had it if they would recognize it. So men have the gospel that will save their souls if they will accept it p Gr. abussos, bottomless, unbounded by any definite known limits. See Rev. 20:3, note. Christ did descend into the lower parts of the earth to liberate the righteous dead and take them to heaven with Him when He ascended on high (Mt. 12:40; Eph. 4:8-10; Heb. 2:14-15)
q The gospel is now plain and easy to obey. The doctrine of the death and resurrection of Christ is fully effective to save. It is nigh you. It is easy to be confessed with your mouth and believed in your heart if you want to be saved (v 8-13). It is the word of faith, and if acted upon (as in v 9-10) you shall be saved
r A simple guarantee of salvation made unto salvation.

▸11 For the scripture saith, [c]Whosoever believeth on him shall not be ashamed.
▸12 For there is [b]no difference between the Jew and the Greek: for the same Lord over all is rich unto all that call upon him.
▸13 For [c]whosoever shall call upon the name of the [d]Lord shall be saved.

(7) How faith is received

14 [e]How then shall they call on him in whom they have not believed? and how shall they believe in him of whom they have not heard? and how shall they hear without a preacher?
★15 And how shall they preach, except they be sent? as it is written, [f]How beautiful are the feet of them that preach the gospel of peace, and bring glad tidings of good things!
★16 But they have not all obeyed the gospel. For Ē-sā'ias saith, [g]Lord, who hath believed our report?
17 So then faith cometh by hearing, and hearing by the word of God.

(8) Israel inexcusable: reason

18 But I say, [h]Have they not heard? Yes verily, their sound went into all the earth, and their words unto the ends of the world.
★19 [i]But I say, Did not Iṣ'ra-el know? First Mō'ses saith, [j]I will provoke you to jealousy by them that are no people, and by a foolish nation I will anger you.
★20 But Ē-sā'ias is very bold, and saith, [k]I was found of them that sought me not; I was made manifest unto them that asked not after me.
21 But to Iṣ'ra-el he saith, [l]All day long I have stretched forth my hands unto a disobedient and gainsaying people.

CHAPTER 11 128

3 Israel's present state and future restoration (Rom. 11). (1) Israel not set aside by the gospel (Cp. Rom. 3: 3-4)

I SAY then, [m]Hath God cast away his people? God forbid. For I also am an Iṣ'ra-elite, of the seed of Ā'brā-hăm, of the tribe of Bĕn'ja-min.
2 God hath not cast away his people which he foreknew. Wot ye not what the scripture saith of Ē-li'as? how he maketh intercession to God against Iṣ'ra-el, saying,
3 [n]Lord, they have killed thy prophets, and digged down thine altars; and I am left alone, and they seek my life.
4 But what saith the answer of God unto him? [o]I have reserved to myself seven thousand men, who have not bowed the knee to the image of [p]Bā'al.

(2) A remnant saved by grace, not by law (Jer. 15:11; 23:3; 39:10; Isa. 1:9, refs.)

5 Even so then at this present time also there is a [q]remnant according to the [r]election of grace.
6 [s]And if by grace, then is it no more of works: otherwise grace is no more grace. But if it be of works, then is it no more grace: otherwise work is no more work.

(3) Israel blinded through rebellion and unbelief (v 25)

7 [t]What then? Iṣ'ra-el hath not obtained that which he seeketh for; but the election hath obtained it, and the rest were blinded
★8 (According as it is written, [u]God hath given them the spirit of slumber, eyes that they should not see, and ears that they should not hear;) unto this day.
★9 And Dā'vid saith, [v]Let their table be made a snare, and a trap, and a stumblingblock, and a recompence unto them:
10 Let their eyes be darkened, that they may not see, and bow down their back alway.

(4) Israel provoked to jealousy

▸11 I say then, [w]Have they [x]stumbled that they should [y]fall? God forbid: but rather through their [y]fall salvation is come unto the Gĕn'tīles, [z]for to provoke them to jealousy.
▸12 Now if the fall of them be the [y]riches of the world, and the diminishing of them the riches of the Gĕn'tīles; how much more their fulness?
13 For I speak to you Gĕn'tīles, inasmuch as I am the apostle of the Gĕn'tīles, I magnify mine office:
14 If by any means I may provoke to [aa]emulation them which are my flesh, and might save some of them.
15 [ab]For if the casting away of them be the reconciling of the world, what shall the receiving of them be, but life from the dead?
16 For if the [ac]firstfruit be holy, the lump is also holy: and if the root be holy, so are the branches.

(5) Warning to the Gentiles

17 [ad]And if some of the branches be broken off, and thou, being a wild olive tree, wert graffed in among them, and with them partakest of the root and fatness of the olive tree;
18 [ae]Boast not against the branches. But if thou boast, thou bearest not the root, but the root thee.
19 Thou wilt say then, The branches were broken off, that I might be graffed in.
20 Well; because of unbelief they were broken off, and thou standest by faith. Be not high-minded, but fear;
21 For if God spared not the natural branches, take heed lest he also spare not thee.
▸22 Behold therefore the goodness and severity of God: on a Quoted from Isa. 28:16; 49:23

b All men are equal in Christ (v 12; 1 Cor. 12:13; Gal. 3:28; Col. 3:11) c Quoted from Joel 2:32; Acts 2:21. Believing on Christ and calling upon Him are in effect the same thing (v 9-13). Calling upon God pre-supposes faith in Him, and if one has faith he will call upon God in all times of need d Paul uses the Gr. Kurios, for the Heb. Jehovah of Joel 2:32, proving that Jesus of Rom. 10:9 is called Jehovah. Thus there was more than one Jehovah in the O. T. (Gen. 19:24). Compare Ps. 110:1 with Mt. 22:44; Acts 2:34 where the same Gr. word is used of both God and Christ in the Sept. and the N. T. It is trans. Lord 667 times as the equivalent of the O. T. Jehovah
e Questions 65-69. Next, v 18
7 steps in gospel faith:
1 The gospel given by Christ (v 14)
2 The gospel must be preached (v 14)
3 A preacher is necessary (v 14)
4 The preacher must be sent (v 15)
5 The gospel must be heard (v 14-15)
6 The gospel must be believed (v 16)
7 The gospel must be obeyed (v 9-17)
f 8th O. T. prophecy fulfilled in Romans (10:15; Isa. 52:7). Next, v 16. This prophecy is only partially fulfilled in N. T. ministers. They cannot now say of Zion, "Thy God reigneth." In the Millennium they will say this, so the passage will then be fully fulfilled g 9th O. T. prophecy fulfilled in Romans (10:16; Isa. 53:1). Next, v 19. Paul here answers a question in the Jewish mind thus: "But they have not all obeyed the gospel," that is, if the gospel was of God it should have divine success, and so, since many do not believe it, then it must not be of God. Paul proves by prophecy that many would not believe and obey the gospel (Isa. 53:1). God sends the message, but He does not obligate men to accept and obey it (Mk. 16:16; Jn. 3:16-20; Rom. 1:16)
h Questions 70-71. Next, 11:1. In this verse Paul answers another Jewish question, "Have they not heard," that is, have all the Jews of the world heard the gospel? "Yes," for like the heavenly bodies of Ps. 19:4 that send forth their testimony of a living God to all the world, so the gospel of Christ has borne testimony to all the Jews of the known world (v 18) i Paul here answers a third question in the Jewish mind: "Why did not Israel know about these things?" He proves by Moses and Isaiah that they were made clear to Israel centuries ago (v 19-21)
j 10th O. T. prophecy fulfilled in Rom. (10:19; Dt. 32:21). Next, v 20. Just as Israel made God jealous and angry over their worship of gods which are not real, so God was to provoke Israel to jealousy and anger by choosing a people who were not His chosen ones k 11th O. T. prophecy fulfilled in Rom. (10:20-21; Isa. 65:1-2). Next, 11:8. I have put My salvation in reach of the Gentiles who were not seeking for it and who knew nothing about it and they have received it (Rom. 9:30). As to Israel, I have done my best to save them, but they refuse to listen after many centuries l 5 purposes for using O. T. Scripture:
1 To show similarity of ideas (10:6-8)
2 To show parallel cases (2:24; 8:36; 9:27-29; 11:2-10; 15:21)
3 To explain a doctrinal point (1:17; 4:6-8, 18-21; 9:20-21; 10:15; 15:3)
4 To prove a doctrinal point (3:4, 10-19; 4:3-17; 5:12-14; 9:7-17; 10:5, 11, 13; 12:19-20; 13:9; 14:11)
5 To prove the fulfillment of prophecy (9:25-26, 33; 10:16, 19, 20-21; 11:26-27; 15:9-13)
m Questions 72-74. Next, v 7. What shall we conclude? Has God cast off Israel completely and permanently? God forbid. I am an Israelite myself and proof that God is not through with Jews, but willing to save all that will believe n Quoted from 1 Ki. 19:10-18. This proves the doctrine of the remnant, according to the election of grace (v 5-6; Isa. 1:9; refs.)
o This illustrates how God can reserve 144,000 Jews to Himself after the rapture and during the first 3 1/2 years of Daniel's 70th week (Dan. 9:27; Rev. 7:1-8; 14:1-5) p Baal-worship was the state religion of Israel under Ahab and Jezebel. It was with this god that Elijah had his great contest (1 Ki. 18) a See Isa. 1:9, note
b Grace elects to save all that will believe (See 4 elect's, p. 201)
c The Jews were saved by grace and not because of any connection with a covenant of works. If it were of works, then it would cease to be a free and unmerited gift d Question 75. Next, v 11. What then is the real case under discussion? It is this, Israel has not obtained that which she has so earnestly desired. The election or chosen ones only have obtained it. The rest have been blinded (v 7)
e 12th O. T. prophecy fulfilled in Rom. (11:8; Isa. 29:10). Next, v 9. The very Word of God that should have awakened them has blinded them. God is not to blame, Israel is (note c, d, e, and g, Rom. 9:12-18)
f 13th O. T. prophecy fulfilled in Rom. (11:9-10; Ps. 69:22-23). Next, 15:3. Their table - their providential blessings become a snare, a trap, a stumbling block, and a means of punishment g Questions 76-78. Next, v 24. Have the Jews stumbled to complete and eternal ruin? God forbid. Their ruin is only temporary. In the meantime the Gentiles will take their place to provoke them to jealousy (v 11; 10:19; Dt. 32:21). The fall of the Jews was not in itself the reason for the salvation of the Gentiles. They were to be saved whether the Jews accepted or rejected the gospel (Gen. 12:1-3; Rom. 4; Gal. 6:8-10). The unbelief of Israel could never give faith to Gentiles. The rejection of Christ by the Jews only accelerated the salvation of the Gentiles (Acts 13:46-48; 28:28) h Gr. ptaio, to make a false step or mistake: to fall. Trans. stumble (Rom. 11:11); fall (2 Pet. 1:10); and offend (Jas. 2:10; 3:2) i Gr. pipto, to fall down or out, meaning to be slain, or to lose one's favor or grace. This proves that Israel, by offending or by failing lost the grace or favor of God. The word fall is used in this sense in many scriptures (Lk. 8:13; Acts 1:25; Rom. 11:11-12, 22; 1 Cor. 10:12; Gal. 5:4; 1 Tim. 3:7; 6:9; Heb. 4:11; 6:4-6; 2 Pet. 1:10; 3:17; Jude 24; Rev. 2:5) j Gr. paraptoma, a falling aside, when one should have stood upright; a moral fall; a fall from truth and grace. Trans. fall (v 11-12); fault (Gal. 6:1; Jas. 5:16); offence (Rom. 4:25; 5:15-20); trespass (Mt. 6:14-15; 18:35; Mk. 11:25-26; 2 Cor. 5:19; Eph. 2:1; Col. 2:13); and sin (Eph. 1:7; 2:5; Col. 2:13)
k The salvation and blessing of Gentiles will be the means of provoking Jews to seek and claim again their blessings
l If, in consequence of their rebellion, the riches of God's grace have come to the Gentile world, how much more will the world be blessed when Israel comes to her fulness of blessing again m Same word trans. jealousy in v 11. If I might by some means provoke some Jews to seek their share of the gospel n If the rejection of Israel and the turning to Gentiles caused all the world to have immediate opportunity of being saved, how much more will many in the world be blessed when the whole nation of Israel is saved in a day (v 15, 25-29; Isa. 66:7-8; Zech. 12:10-13:1; 14:1-5, 14, 16-21)
o The firstfruit refers to the first Jews blessed in the gospel and the lump to the whole nation that will be blessed and become holy in the end (v 16, 25-29; Isa. 66:7-8; Zech. 12:10-13:1; 14:1-21). The words, root and fatness of the olive tree, refer to Christ and God's blessings of the Abrahamic and New Covenant. The branches are the Israelites, like true Christians are the branches in the vine of Jn. 15:1-8 p Israel is here pictured under figure of branches of an olive tree and the Gentiles of a wild olive tree, or the oleaster which bears no fruit. Some are broken off because of unbelief and Gentiles take their place to partake of Israel's blessings (v 17)
q The Gentiles here are warned not to boast of their being accepted of God in the place of the Jews (v 18-19), but to fear lest they also fall and not be spared (v 20-22)

a This is always the condition of eternal life (note d, Jn. 6:27). If God promises here to cut off those who do not remain in His goodness, then He is obligated to do so (Rom. 2:11) b This is always the condition of renewal in God and in His faith and grace c See the word Again, p. 175
d A fruitless branch grafted to a good tree is contrary to custom e Question 79, Next, v 34. It being contrary to custom to graft unfruitful branches into a good and fruitful tree, how much more will it be natural to graft good branches into their own fruitful tree?
f See note w, Rom. 1:13
g See the word Mystery, p. 175 h 2nd N. T. prophecy in Romans (11:25-27, unfulfilled). Next, 14:10. The revealed secret here is of the blindness of Israel until Christ comes when she will be restored (v 25-29; Isa. 66:7-8; Zech. 12:10-13:1; 14:1-21)
i The same as the times of the Gentiles (note h, Lk. 21:24). This could not mean: that Gentiles will no longer be saved, because God will continue to save Jews and Gentiles even through the tribulation period (Acts 2:16-21; Rev. 7:1-17; 15:2-4; 20:4-6)
The fulness of the Gentiles will end at the second advent and the national conversion of Israel (v 25-29; Isa. 66:7-8; Zech. 12:10-13:1; 14:1-21). The times of the Gentiles end then also (Lk. 21:24; Rev. 11:1-2; Zech. 14; Mt. 25:31-46)
j This refers to the whole nation that will be alive in Palestine when Christ comes (Zech. 12:10-13:1; 14:1-15; Mt. 24:39; Isa. 66:7-8). It is at that time that all the rest of Israel will be gathered (Isa. 11:1-12; 66:19-21; Mt. 24:31)
k Quoted from Isa. 27:9; 59:20-21
l They are enemies of the gospel, but beloved for the fathers' sakes. They have been chosen of God to fulfill His plan and they will yet do so. The gifts and callings of God to Israelites still hold good, but they must first come to repentance and fulfill righteousness before being blessed m This not only applies to the gifts and callings of Israel, but to any individual whom God calls or gives a gift to. God does not change His mind as if He made a mistake. Men may fall Him so that He cannot fulfill such callings with them, but when, if ever, they come back to repentance God holds them to the original obligation to obey Him n These 2 verses (30-31) say that as surely as the Jews were once in the kingdom and the Gentiles were not; as surely as the Gentiles are now in the kingdom and the Jews are not; so surely the Jews will be brought back to God and into the kingdom again (Zech. 12:10-13:1)
o This verse concludes the same as 3:19-20, 23; Gal. 3:22-23
p Questions 80-82, Next, 13:3
q Gr. antapodidomi, repay. Here; 12:17; Lk. 14:14; 1 Th. 3:9; 2 Th. 1:6; Heb. 10:30. God pays His debts to His creatures r Gr. parakaleo, to call aside; make an appeal in view of certain facts. Here it is an appeal in view of the wonderful doctrines of chs. 1-8 and of God's dispensational dealings with Jews and Gentiles in chs. 9-11. Paul comes now to the practical application of the gospel to men (12:1-15:7) s Gr. oiktirmos, tender compassions. Here; 2 Cor. 1:3; Phil. 2:1; Col. 3:12; Heb. 10:28. Note j, Mt. 9:36 t Men are now to bring themselves to God instead of sacrifices to the altar as of old. They are now to be wholly the Lord's as were the former sacrifices u See 15 commands about body, p. 175
v Rational worship, because performed with the heart, mind, and soul of intelligent beings, and is in contrast to the worship of idols of Rom. 1:25
w Note the two commands of this verse x Gr. suschematizo, to conform to another's example. Used only here and in 1 Pet. 1:14 y Gr. aion, age. Do not pattern after this age or to the times (note j, Heb. 1:2) z Gr. metamorphoo, transformed or transfigured by a supernatural change, as in Mt. 17:2; Mk. 9:2; Rom. 12:2; 2 Cor. 3:18. This change is by a renewing of the mind or spirit (v 2; Tit. 3:5. Cp. 2 Cor. 4:16; Col. 3:10; Heb. 6:6; Eph. 4:23) them which fell, severity; but toward thee, goodness, [q]if thou continue in his goodness: otherwise thou also shalt be cut off, ▸23 And they also, [r]if they abide not still in unbelief, shall be graffed in: for God is able to graff them in[s]again.

▸24 For if thou wert cut out of the olive tree which is wild by nature, and wert graffed[t] contrary to nature into a good olive tree: [u]how much more shall these, which be the natural branches, be graffed into their own olive tree?

(6) Future salvation of Israel (Isa. 66:7-8; Zech. 12:10-13:1)

★25 For I would not, brethren, that ye should be [v]ignorant of this [w]mystery, lest ye should be wise in your own conceits; that [x]blindness in part is happened to Is'ra-el, until [y]the fulness of the Gĕn'tiles be come in.
▸26 And so [z]all Is'ra-el shall be saved: as it is written, [a]There shall come out of Si'ŏn the Deliverer, and shall turn away ungodliness from Ja'cob:
▸27 For this is my covenant unto them, when I shall take away their sins.
28 [b]As concerning the gospel, they are enemies for your sakes: but as touching the election, they are beloved for the fathers' sakes.
▸29 [c]For the gifts and calling of God are without repentance.
30 [d]For as ye in times past have not believed God, yet have now obtained mercy through their unbelief:
31 Even so have these also now not believed, that through your mercy they also may obtain mercy.
▸32 [e]For God hath concluded them all in unbelief, that he might have mercy upon all.

(7) The greatness of God

33 O the depth of the riches both of the wisdom and knowledge of God! how unsearchable are his judgments, and his ways past finding out!
34 [f]For who hath known the mind of the Lord? or who hath been his counsellor?
▸35 Or who hath first given to him, and it shall be [g]recompensed unto him again?
36 For of him, and through him, and to him, are all things: to whom be glory for ever. Ā-mĕn'.

129 CHAPTER 12

X Practical doctrines: the gospel applied (Rom. 12:1-15:12). 1 Consecration the foundation of practical Christianity (6:1-23; 8:1-13; Eph. 4:20-24; Col. 3:5-10)

I [h]BESEECH you therefore, brethren, by the [i]mercies of God, that ye [j]present [k]your bodies a living sacrifice, holy, acceptable unto God, which is your [l]reasonable service.
●2 And [m]be not [n]conformed to this [o]world: but be ye [p]transformed by the renewing of your mind, [q]that ye may prove what is that good, and acceptable, and [r]perfect will of God.

2 Body of Christ and spiritual gifts (1 Cor. 12:1, refs.)

●3 For I say through the grace given [s]to me, to every man that is among you, [t]not to think of himself more highly than he ought to think; but to think soberly, according as God hath dealt to every man the measure of faith.
4 For as we have many members in one body, and all members have not the same office:
5 [u]So we, being many, are one body in Christ, and every one members one of another.
6 Having then [v]gifts differing according to the grace that is given to us, [w]whether prophecy, let us prophesy according to the proportion of faith;
7 Or [x]ministry, let us wait on our ministering: or he [y]that teacheth, on teaching;
8 Or he that [z]exhorteth, on exhortation: he that [a]giveth, let him do it with [b]simplicity; he that [c]ruleth, with [d]diligence; [e]he that sheweth mercy, with cheerfulness.

3 Twenty commands regulating Christian brotherhood

●9 Let love be without [f]dissimulation. [g]Abhor that which is evil; [h]cleave to that which is good.
●10 Be kindly [i]affectioned one to another with brotherly love; in [j]honour preferring one another;
●11 Not [k]slothful in business; [l]fervent in spirit; [m]serving the Lord;
●12 [n]Rejoicing in hope; [o]patient in tribulation; [p]continuing instant in prayer;
●13 [q]Distributing to the necessity of saints; [r]given to hospitality.
●14 [s]Bless them which persecute you: bless, and curse not.
●15 [t]Rejoice with them that do rejoice, and [u]weep with them that weep.
●16 [v]Be of the same mind one toward another. [w]Mind not high things, but [x]condescend to men of low estate. [y]Be not wise in your own conceits.

4 Seven commands regulating Christian conduct to the world (v 2; Jn. 15:18; 1 Jn. 2:15; Jas. 4:4)

●17 [z]Recompense to no man evil for evil. [a]Provide things honest in the sight of all men.
●18 [b]If it be possible, as much as lieth in you, live peaceably with all men.
●19 [c]Dearly beloved, avenge not yourselves, [d]but rather give place unto wrath: for it is written, Vengeance is mine; I will repay, saith the Lord.◂
●20 Therefore if thine enemy hunger, feed him; if he thirst, give him drink: for in so doing thou shalt heap coals of fire on his head.
●21 [e]Be not overcome of evil, but overcome evil with good.

a 6 things that constitute the acceptable and perfect will of God (12:1-2):
1 Present your bodies a living sacrifice to God (v 1; 1 Cor. 3:16-17; 6:20)
2 Make the body holy (v 1; 2 Cor. 7:1)
3 Make self acceptable to God (v 1)
4 Render reasonable service (v 1)
5 Be not conformed to the world (v 2)
6 Be transformed from the world (v 2) b Gr. teleios, that which has reached its end; nothing more to complete it c This refers to Paul's apostleship by the grace of God (Rom. 1:5; Eph. 3:8) d Not to be conceited and self-important, but to take a sane view of himself e Paul here compares the body of Christ to a human body (1 Cor. 12:12-28)
f This refers to the spiritual gifts of 1 Cor. 12:4-11, 27-31. They are given and to be exercised according to grace and the measures of faith (v 3, 6)
g This gift is that of speaking to men to edify and exhort them (1 Cor. 14:3-6) h Gr. diakonia, service rendered by a diakonos, a deacon. See notes on 1 Tim. 3:8-13; note d, Mt. 20:26 i The teacher (Gr. didaskolos) was an instructor of others (Acts 13:1, note)
j Gr. parakaleo, to call aside; make an appeal to by way of exhortation, entreaty, comfort, or instruction (Acts 4:36; Heb. 10:25)
k This refers to the rich that give help to others (2 Cor. 8:2; 9:11-13)
l Gr. haplotes (v 8; 2 Cor. 1:12; 8:2; 9:11, 13; 11:3; Eph. 6:5; Col. 3:22). Do not give with outward show or pride m Gr. proistemi, the leader; pastor; superintendent; the one over any business of the church (v 8; 1 Th. 5:12; 1 Tim. 3:4, 5, 12; 5:17; Tit. 3:8, 14)
n Gr. spoude, haste (Mk. 6:25); diligent (Rom. 12:8; Heb. 6:11; 2 Pet. 1:5; Jude 3); earnest (2 Cor. 8:16); carefulness (2 Cor. 7:11)
o The sick-visitor and charity-worker must be cheerful and sympathetic k Do not live beyond your means l As far as it depends on you, live at peace with all men n Give room for the civil laws to be enforced and officers to do their duty. If they are unfaithful and oppressive, let the righteous judge take care of them o In view of the fact that God was good to you when you were His enemy (Rom. 5:7-8), you should likewise treat your enemies with goodness. You will thus make them feel a burning sense of shame. Quoted from Pr. 25:21-22 p Never let evil get the better of you; get the better of evil by doing good 7 duties to enemies:

1 Love them (Mt. 5:44; Lk. 6:27)
2 Bless them (Mt. 5:44; Lk. 6:28)
3 Do good to them (Mt. 5:44)

7 examples of loving enemies:
1 God (Mt. 5:44; Lk. 6:35; Rom. 5:8)
2 Abraham (Gen. 20:14-18)
3 David (1 Sam. 24:17; Ps. 35:12-14)

CHAPTER 13 — 130

5 The Christian, human governments, and civil rules (Mt. 22:21; 1 Pet. 2:13-17)

LET every soul be subject unto the higher powers. For there is no power but of God: the powers that be are ordained of God.

2 Whosoever therefore resisteth the power, resisteth the ordinance of God: and they that resist shall receive to themselves damnation.

3 For rulers are not a terror to good works, but to the evil. Wilt thou then not be afraid of the power? do that which is good, and thou shalt have praise of the same:

4 For he is the minister of God to thee for good. But if thou do that which is evil, be afraid; for he beareth not the sword in vain: for he is the minister of God, a revenger to execute wrath upon him that doeth evil.

5 Wherefore ye must needs be subject, not only for wrath, but also for conscience sake.

6 For for this cause pay ye tribute also: for they are God's ministers, attending continually upon this very thing.

7 Render therefore to all their dues: tribute to whom tribute is due; custom to whom custom; fear to whom fear; honour to whom honour.

6 Eight commands regulating Christian conduct to neighbors (Mt. 5:38-48; 1 Pet. 2:11-12)

8 Owe no man any thing, but to love one another: for he that loveth another hath fulfilled the law.

9 For this, Thou shalt not commit adultery, Thou shalt not kill, Thou shalt not steal, Thou shalt not bear false witness, Thou shalt not covet; and if there be any other commandment, it is briefly comprehended in this saying, namely, Thou shalt love thy neighbour as thyself.

10 Love worketh no ill to his neighbour: therefore love is the fulfilling of the law.

7 Twelve commands regulating Christian conduct before God (1 Pet. 2:9; 2 Pet. 1:5-11)

11 And that, knowing the time, that now it is high time to awake out of sleep: for now is our salvation nearer than when we believed.

12 The night is far spent, the day is at hand: let us therefore cast off the works of darkness, and let us put on the armour of light.

13 Let us walk honestly, as in the day; not in rioting and drunkenness, not in chambering and wantonness, not in strife and envying.

14 But put ye on the Lord Jesus Christ, and make not provision for the flesh, to fulfil the lusts thereof.

CHAPTER 14 — 131

8 The Christian and doubtful things (Rom. 14:1-15:7; 1 Cor. 8:1-10:33). (1) Reception of the weak brother

HIM that is weak in the faith receive ye, but not to doubtful disputations.

(2) Doubtful practices not to be judged (1 Cor. 8:1-8)

2 For one believeth that he may eat all things: another, who is weak, eateth herbs.

3 Let not him that eateth despise him that eateth not; and let not him which eateth not judge him that eateth: for God hath received him.

4 Who art thou that judgest another man's servant? to his own master he standeth or falleth. Yea, he shall be holden up: for God is able to make him stand.

5 One man esteemeth one day above another: another esteemeth every day alike. Let every man be fully persuaded in his own mind.

6 He that regardeth the day, regardeth it unto the Lord; and he that regardeth not the day, to the Lord he doth not regard it. He that eateth, eateth to the Lord, for he giveth God thanks; and he that eateth not, to the Lord he eateth not, and giveth God thanks.

7 For none of us liveth to himself, and no man dieth to himself.

8 For whether we live, we live unto the Lord; and whether we die, we die unto the Lord: whether we live therefore, or die, we are the Lord's.

9 For to this end Christ both died, and rose, and revived, that he might be Lord both of the dead and living.

(3) All Christians to be judged at the judgment seat of Christ (Mt. 16:27; 1 Cor. 3:11-15; 2 Cor. 5:10)

10 But why dost thou judge thy brother? or why dost thou set at nought thy brother? for we shall all stand before the judgment seat of Christ.

11 For it is written, As I live, saith the Lord, every knee shall bow to me, and every tongue shall confess to God.

12 So then every one of us shall give account of himself to God.

(4) Christian responsibility (1 Cor. 8:9-13; 9:19-23; 10:23-33)

13 Let us not therefore judge one another any more: but judge this rather, that no man put a stumblingblock or an occasion to fall in his brother's way.

14 I know, and am persuaded by the Lord Jesus, that there is nothing unclean of itself: but to him that esteemeth any thing to be unclean, to him it is unclean.

15 But if thy brother be grieved with thy meat, now walkest thou not charitably. Destroy a 10 duties of citizens:

1 Be subject to civil government (13:1; Tit. 3:1; 1 Pet. 2:13-17)
2 Be afraid to disobey civil rulers (13:3; Pr. 24:21)
3 Do the good (13:4; Tit. 3:1)
4 Pay taxes (13:1-7; Mt. 22:17-21)
5 Render dues to all men (13:7)
6 Honor civil rulers (13:1-7; Ex. 22:28; Acts 23:5; 1 Pet. 2:13-17)
7 Pray for civil rulers (1 Tim. 2:1-2)
8 Obey civil laws (13:1-7; Ezra 7:26)
9 Do not curse rulers (Eccl. 10:20) 10 Work for peace (Rom. 12:18)

b Gr. huperecho, supreme power. Here: Phil. 2:3; 3:8; 4:7; 1 Pet. 2:13 c See Human Governments, p. 175

d Whoever sets himself against the plan of God in human government, resists God. They who resist will be punished

e Here Paul shows the duty of civil rulers. It is not to terrorize men of good deeds, but to punish evil men for sins against society

f Question 83. Next, 14:4. Obey the laws of civil government and you will have nothing to fear, providing you have rulers that properly enforce the law

g Gr. diakonos, deacon or servant of the law (note d, Mt. 20:26)

h God has delegated authority to defend the good and punish evil – even with capital punishment if required (v 4)

i Obey civil laws, not only to escape punishment, but to preserve a clear conscience

j Because civil government and law enforcement officers who execute the laws and defend the community are of God and must be supported, pay your share of taxes (v 6-7)

k Gr. leitourgos, public servant (v 6; 15:16; Phil. 2:25; Heb. 1:7; 8:2). They are God's servants to carry on civil government for Him. Even if they are ungodly men and yet faithfully carry out civil responsibility they are to be respected, supported and obeyed on duty

l Withhold nothing from civil government or its lawful officers that is required of you to pay. Pay taxes, customs, fear, and honor to all men over you in public life

m This has nothing to do with owing just debts of money and other material things. It simply expresses the idea that Christians owe to each other mutual love. You are not bound to your brethren to obey them as you are civil rulers, but you are bound to them by love
When you really love you will not:
1 Transgress the moral law (v 8, 10)
2 Deprive any man of his wife (v 9)
3 Rob any woman of her virtue (v 9)
4 Take the life of anyone (v 9)
5 Hate anyone (v 9 with 1 Jn. 3:15)
6 Take the property of anyone (v 9)
7 Rob a man of his good name (v 9)
8 Covet one thing of another (v 9)
9 Love only yourself (v 9)
10 Work ill toward anyone (v 10)

n Any other commandment necessary for a Christian to obey is covered in proper love to one's neighbor (v 9-10)

o 8 commands for Christians (v 11-14)
1 Cast off the works of darkness (v 12)
2 Put on the armour of light (v 12)
3 Walk decently and well behaved (v 13)
4 Stop revelling and drinking (v 13)
5 Quit all immoral living (v 13)
6 Refrain from quarrelling, contention, and jealousies (v 13)
7 Clothe selves with the character of Jesus Christ (v 14)
8 Make no provision for lust (v 14)

p Gr. euschemonos, decently (v 13; 1 Cor. 14:40; 1 Th. 4:12)

q Gr. komos, revelling (v 13; Gal. 5:21; 1 Pet. 4:3)

r Gr. methe, drunken festivals, generally accompanied with all kinds of unclean singing and abominable sexual acts

s Gr. koite, whoredoms, prostitutions, and all kinds of uncleanness t Gr. aselyeia, licentiousness, all manner of uncleanness and sex perversion. Trans. lasciviousness (Mk. 7:22; 2 Cor. 12:21; Gal. 5:19; Eph. 4:19; 1 Pet. 4:3; Jude 4); wantonness (Rom. 13:13; 2 Pet. 2:18); and filthy (2 Pet. 2:7)

u To be clothed with a person is a Greek phrase signifying to take upon one the interests of another; to enter into his views and be wholly on his side, imitating him in all things

v The flesh works of Gal. 5:19-21; Rom. 1:21-32; 1 Cor. 6:9-11; Col. 3:5-10 a Gr. astheneo, weak or strengthless in faith. See note f, Phil. 2:26. Welcome such into your fellowship, but let all controversies concerning doubtful practices be avoided

b One believeth. . . . another believeth:
8 great sources of controversy:
1 What to eat and drink (v 2-6, 14-23; Col. 2:14-17; 1 Tim. 4:1-6)
2 With whom to eat (Acts 11:3; 1 Cor. 5:9-12; 2 Th. 3:7-13; Jude 12)
3 Where to eat (1 Cor. 8:4-13; 10:15-23; 11:17-22)
4 Where to buy meat (1 Cor. 10:25)
5 What day to keep as the sabbath (v 5-6; Gal. 4:9-11; Col. 2:14-17)
6 Whether to be circumcised or not (Acts 15:1-24; Rom. 4:11; 1 Cor. 7:19)
7 Whether to keep the law of Moses or not (note o, Acts 15:1)
8 What to wear and what customs to observe (1 Cor. 11:4-16; 1 Tim. 2:9-11; 1 Pet. 3:3-4) c 20 duties of Christians in view of non-essential scruples among believers:

1 Fellowship each other in spite of personal differences of opinion (v 1)
2 Do not despise each other (v 3)
3 Do not judge each other (v 3-13)
4 Recognize that each man is God's servant and personally responsible to God for what he allows himself to do, aside from what is forbidden to all (v 4)
5 Recognize that no man will fail who conscientiously follows God and the light he has received (v 4; 1 Jn. 1:7)
6 Judge no man as to the sabbath he keeps (v 5-6; Gal. 4:9-11; Col. 2:14-17)
7 Judge none about allowable eats and drinks (v 2-6, 13-23; Col. 2:14-17; 1 Tim. 4:1-6; 1 Cor. 8:8-13; 10:23-31)
8 Let all live in peace, for the Lord, and for each other (v 8-9, 13-23; 1 Cor. 8:8-13; 10:23-31; 1 Pet. 5:1-9)
9 Do not set each other at nought (v 3-4, 10; Gal. 5:14-15; Eph. 4:31-32)
10 Recognize that each man shall give account of himself to God (v 10-12; 2 Cor. 5:10; Mt. 12:37; 16:27)
11 Do not cause anyone to stumble (v 13)
12 Recognize that there is no animal classed as unclean for food in the N. T. (v 14; 1 Cor. 8:7-13; 10:23-31; Col. 2:14-17; 1 Tim. 4:1-6)
13 Demonstrate love by giving up those things that destroy others (v 15; 1 Cor. 8:8-13; 10:23-31)
14 Do not bring reproach upon Christ by your Christian liberty (v 16-18; 1 Cor. 8:8-13; 10:23-31)
15 Follow the things that make peace and edify others instead of making a hobby of meats, drinks, sabbaths, circumcision, law keeping, rituals, dress, styles, ornaments, customs, and outward religion – things, which in themselves do not destroy the work of God, and concerning which all men will never perfectly agree (v 19-20; 1 Cor. 8:4-13; 10:13-31)
16 Do not use any of the non-essentials to stumble, offend, or make any man weak either by argument or practice (v 21; 1 Cor. 8:7-13; 10:23-31)
17 Practice your faith before God and do not parade it before others (v 22; 1 Cor. 8:9-13; 10:31)
18 Do not condemn yourself over anything not specifically forbidden in Scripture by plain command. Do not permit your conscience to be swayed by wrong religious background or constant religious turmoil over doubtful things (v 22)
19 Do not do anything that is doubtful. If you are not clear on a matter, proceed no further (v 23; 1 Cor. 8:7) 20 Bear the weaknesses of others. Tolerate their peculiar and sometimes ridiculous scruples until they become strong (15:1-3; 1 Cor. 8:7-13; 10:23-31)

d Question 84. Next, v 10

e No particular sabbath is commanded in the N. T. The law of Moses has been abolished, including the Jewish sabbath (notes, Acts 15:1, 24 and p. 191)

f Another proof that Christ died and arose bodily (1 Cor. 15:1-23)

g Questions 85-86. Next, v 22

h 3rd N. T. prophecy in Romans (14:10-12, unfulfilled). Next, 16:20. This refers to the judgment seat of Christ where all the saints will be judged after the rapture for the deeds done in the body, whether they be good or bad (v 10-12; 2:12-16; 1 Cor. 3:11-15; 2 Cor. 5:10; Gal. 6:8; Eph. 6:8; Col. 3:24; Lk. 14:14; 2 Tim. 4:14; Rev. 2:23; 22:12)

i Quoted from Isa. 45:23. Cp. Phil. 2:10 a This proves that a brother can be destroyed by another Christian. If not, this is all very needless language

b The kingdom of God does not consist of meat, drink, and outward religion
It consists of three things here:
1 righteousness (3:21-31; 4:1-25; 8:4)
2 Peace (2:10; 5:1; 8:6; 10:15)
3 Joy (5:11; Gal. 5:22; 1 Pet. 1:8)

c Any man who has these three things: righteousness, peace, and joy in the Holy Ghost has 3 other great blessings:
1 He is a servant of Christ (v 18)
2 He is acceptable with God (v 18)
3 He is approved of men (v 18)

d In order to have the blessings of notes b and c, above, we must follow whatever brings them about. All bickering over meats, drinks, sabbaths, and non-essential things must be stopped and that which edifies others must be taught (v 19)

e What could be clearer than this – that meat itself does not destroy God's work? (Col. 2:14-17; 1 Tim. 4:1-6; 1 Cor. 8:8-13; 10:23-31). It is the bickering over meats and doubtful things which destroys the soul and liberty in using them may also cause an ignorant man to apostatize (v 13-15, 20-21; 1 Cor. 8:7-13; 10:23-31)

f All edible things are pure and lawful, but they become sinful to the man who eats with offence and with a defiled conscience. When erroneous, the conscience should be instructed, won over by proper knowledge and truth and not forced to do something contrary to its own knowledge and feelings regarding doubtful things (1 Cor. 8:7-13; 10:23-31; 1 Jn. 1:7; 2 Pet. 1:4-10; 3:18)

g It is better to deny self of personal pleasures than to cause brethren to apostatize (v 21; Mt. 18:6-10; 1 Cor. 8:7-13; 10:23-31)

h All meat is now permitted to be eaten (v 2, 14-17; Col. 2:14-17; 1 Tim. 4:1-6)

i The word wine is used of all kinds of drinks – even the grape juice when it is yet in the cluster (Isa. 65:8). Hence, it does not always refer to intoxicating drinks. They should be left alone in view of the law against drunkenness (1 Cor. 6:9-11; Gal. 5:19-21; etc.)

j Not only the doubtful things that are mentioned, but any thing not listed which causes another to apostatize and be lost must be laid aside k Gr. proskopto, to strike the foot against; to err from the truth (Jas. 5:19-20). It is trans. beat upon until the thing is destroyed (Mt. 7:27); dash against (Mt. 4:6; Lk. 4:11); stumble (Jn. 11:9-10; Rom. 9:32; 14:21; 1 Pet. 2:8)

l Gr. skandalizo, to offend. It is used generally in the N. T. of total apostasy from Christ (Mt. 5:29-30; 11:6; 13:21, 57; 15:12; 17:27; 18:6-9; 24:10; 26:31-33; Mk. 4:17; 6:3; 9:42-47; 14:27-29; Lk. 7:23; 17:2; Jn. 6:61; 16:1; Rom. 14:21; 1 Cor. 8:13; 2 Cor. 11:29)

m Gr. asthenos, weak; strengthless; without power to distinguish sufficiently between right and wrong, good and evil, or lawful and unlawful. See note f, Phil. 2:26 n Question 87. The last question in Romans. The word faith here means the full persuasion that one is right, lawful, and sanctioned by God in his act

o See note b, 18, v 3 p Any thing done to violate the faith-principle by which one is saved, and by which he lives (1:17; Heb. 10:38), is sin. One must know beyond all doubt or hesitation in his mind that what he allows is in perfect accord with the Word of God before he acts

q The strong and enlightened ones must tolerate and bear with the weaker and less enlightened brethren until they too, become strong in faith and knowledge (v 1-3) r 14th O. T. prophecy fulfilled in Romans (15:3; Ps. 69:9). Next, v 9

s This refers to the whole O. T. Scriptures (1 Cor. 10:1-11; 2 Tim. 2:15; 3:15-16; Jn. 5:39; Lk. 24:44; etc.)

t It is only by accepting and agreeing with what is written that men can be like-minded (v 4-7). If saints would learn to leave off all doubtful disputations (14:1), become unified on the not him with thy meat, [a]for whom Christ died.

●16 Let not then your good be evil spoken of:

▸17 [b]For the kingdom of God is not meat and drink; but righteousness, and peace, and joy in the Hō'lў Ghōst.

▸18 [c]For he that in these things serveth Christ is acceptable to God, and approved of men.

●19 [d]Let us therefore follow after the things which make for peace, and things wherewith one may edify another.

20 [e]For meat destroy not the work of God. [f]All things indeed are pure; but it is evil for that man who eateth with offence.

21 [g]It is good neither to [h]eat flesh, nor to drink [i]wine, nor any thing whereby thy brother [k]stumbleth, or is [l]offended, or is made [m]weak.

(5) Law of faith concerning doubtful things (1 Cor. 10:23)

●22 [n]Hast thou faith? have it to thyself before God. [o]Happy is he that condemneth not himself in that thing which he alloweth.

23 And he that doubteth is damned if he eat, because he eateth not of faith: [p]for whatsoever is not of faith is sin.

132 CHAPTER 15

(6) Doubtful practices to be tolerated (1 Cor. 8:9-13; 10:23-24)

●WE [q]then that are strong ought to bear the infirmities of the weak, and not to please ourselves.

●2 Let every one of us please his neighbour for his good to edification.

★3 For even Christ pleased not himself; but, as it is written, The [r]reproaches of them that reproached thee fell on me.

(7) Christians are to study Scriptures and live in unity (2 Tim. 2:15; 3:16-17; Eph. 4:1-3)

4 [s]For whatsoever things were written aforetime were written for our learning, that we through patience and comfort of the scriptures might have hope.

5 Now the God of patience and consolation grant you to be likeminded one toward another according to Christ Jē'şus:

6 That ye may with one mind and one mouth glorify God, even the Father of our Lord Jē'şus Christ.

●7 Wherefore receive ye one another, [t]as Christ also received us to the glory of God.

(8) Christian Jews and Gentiles are one in Christ (1 Cor. 12:13; Eph. 2:14-22; Gal. 3:28)

8 [u]Now I say that Jē'şus Christ was a minister of the circumcision for the truth of God, to confirm the promises made unto the fathers:

★9 And that the Gĕn'tīleş might glorify God for his mercy; as it is written, [v]For this cause I will confess to thee among the Gĕn'tileş, and sing unto thy name.

★10 And again he saith, [b]Rejoice, ye Gĕn'tīleş, with his people.●

★11 And again, Praise the Lord, all ye Gĕn'tīleş; and [d]laud him, all ye people.●

★12 And again, Ē-şā'ias saith, [e]There shall be a root of Jēs'se, and he that shall rise to [f]reign over the Gĕn'tileş; in him shall the Gĕn'tileş trust.◂

XI Parting testimony and admonitions (Rom. 15:13-16:27). 1 Paul's desire for and confidence in the Roman church

▸13 Now [g]the God of hope fill you with all joy and peace in believing, that ye may abound in hope, through the power of the Hō'lў Ghōst.

14 And I myself also am [h]persuaded of you, my brethren, that ye also are full of goodness, filled with all knowledge, able also to admonish one another.

2 Paul's testimony of his ministry among Gentiles (11:13)

15 Nevertheless, brethren, I have written the more [i]boldly unto you in some sort, as putting you in mind, because of the grace that is given to me of God,

16 That I should be the minister of Jē'şus Christ to the Gĕn'tīleş, ministering the gospel of God, that the offering up of the Gĕn'tīleş might be acceptable, being [j]sanctified by the Hō'lў Ghōst.

3 Paul's policy and power: secret of success (v 29; 1:11; Acts 19:11)

17 I have therefore whereof I may glory [k]through Jē'şus Christ in those things which pertain to God.

18 For I will not dare to speak of any of those things which Christ hath not wrought by me, to make the Gĕn'tīleş obedient, by word and deed, 19 Through mighty signs and wonders, by the power of the Spirit of God; so that from Jē-rų'şā-lĕm, and round about unto [l]Īl-lўr'ĭ-cŭm, I [m]have fully preached the gospel of Christ.

20 Yea, so have I strived to preach the gospel, not where Christ was named, lest I should build upon another man's foundation:

★21 But as it is written, [n]To whom he was not spoken of, they shall see: and they that have not heard shall understand.◂

4 Paul's desire to visit Rome (Rom. 1:8-13)

f Gr. archo, rule. Here: Mk. 10:42. All these prophecies (v 9-12) prove that both the Jews and the Gentiles were to become one in the worship of God, being equal in His mercies and grace (1 Cor. 12:13; Gal. 3:28; Col. 3:11). The Jews could not deny such arguments from their own prophets

g Gr. the God of the hope of both Jews and Gentiles, who made the promises of eternal salvation to both; and, who has fulfilled them most punctually, fill you with joy and peace in believing you may abound in that same hope, through the power of the Holy Ghost

h Paul persuaded of 7 things (v 13-14):
1 That God would fill them with joy
2 That God would fill with peace
3 That faith would abound in hope
4 That they had Spiritual power
5 That they were filled with goodness
6 They were filled with knowledge
7 They were capable of ministering
This persuasion is no more a definite law or a guarantee that such is true of every Christian than that of Rom. 8:38-39. Both passages reveal possibilities for all Christians which should be normal in every life, but some are not so persuaded as Paul was i I have written freely to you in view of my apostolic office to the Gentiles. I am commissioned by Jesus Christ to minister to you Gentiles the gospel of God, that your consecration may be acceptable to God, being sanctified by the Holy Ghost (v 15-16)

3 Eternal life (Rom. 6:23)
4 Thanks for salvation (Rom. 7:25)
5 Boasting (Rom. 15:17)
6 Victory (1 Cor. 15:57)
7 Heirship (Gal. 4:7)
8 Keeping (Phil. 4:7)
9 God glorified (1 Pet. 4:11)
10 Salvation (2 Pet. 2:20)

m Paul here sums up the N. T. program:
1 Preaching the gospel (v 18-21; note t, 1, Mk. 16:15)
2 Confirming the gospel (v 18-21; note t, 2, Mk. 16:15)

n 19th and last O. T. prophecy in Romans (15:21; Isa. 52:15)

o Because of my policy to preach the gospel where it has not been preached, I have been hindered for a long time in coming to you who have already had the gospel (v 20, 22)

p Having evangelized all these parts, and having a desire for many years to see you, I plan to come to you when I take my journey into Spain (v 23-24) point of not judging each other regarding things not written and agree on the things that are written, there would be perfect unity in doctrine. Then v 4-7 would be literally fulfilled

u Christians are to receive each other in spite of their faults and scruples, as Christ has received them

v Christ confined His ministry to the Jews to confirm the Scriptures, so the Gentiles should be able to bear with a few Jewish scruples and glorify God for mercy through Christ (v 8-9) journey into [a]Spain, I will come to you: [b]for I trust to see you in my journey, and to be brought on my way thitherward by you, if first I be somewhat filled with your company.

5 Paul's ministry to the poor Jewish saints at Jerusalem (2 Cor. 9:1; Gal. 2:10)

25 [c]But now I go unto Jĕ-rȳ-sā-lĕm to [d]minister unto the saints.

26 For it hath pleased them of Măç-e-dō'nĭ-ā and Ā-chā'ĭā to make a certain contribution for the poor saints which are at Jĕ-rȳ'sā-lĕm.

27 It hath pleased them verily; and their [e]debtors they are. For if the Gĕn'tīles have been made partakers of their spiritual things, their duty is also to minister unto them in carnal things.

28 [f]When therefore I have performed this, and have sealed to them this fruit, I will come by you into Spain.

6 Paul's confidence in the power of the gospel (1:11, 16; 15:17-21; 12:3-8; 1 Cor. 12)

29 [g]And I am sure that, when I come unto you, I shall come in the fulness of the blessing of the gospel of Christ.

7 Prayer concerning his visit to Jerusalem and Rome

30 Now I beseech you, brethren, for the Lord Jĕ'sus Christ's sake, and for the love of the Spirit, [h]that ye strive together with me in your prayers to God for me;

31 [i]That I may be delivered from them that do not believe in Jū-dæ'ā; and that my service which I have for Jĕ-rȳ-sā-lĕm may be accepted of the saints;

32 That I may come unto you with joy by the will of God, and may with you be refreshed.

33 Now the [j]God of peace be with you all. Ā-mĕn'.

CHAPTER 16 133

8 Commendation of Phebe

I COMMEND unto you [k]Phē'bē our sister, which is [l]a servant of the church which is at [m]Cĕn'chrē-ā;

2 That ye receive her in the Lord, as becometh saints, and that ye assist her in whatsoever business she hath need of you: for she hath been a [n]succourer of many, and of myself also.

9 Christian greetings and salutations

3 Greet [o]Prĭs-cĭl'lā and Ăq'ŭ-lā my helpers in Christ Jĕ'sus:

4 Who have for my life laid down their own necks: unto whom not only I give thanks, but also all the churches of the Gĕn'tīles.

5 Likewise greet the church that is in their house. Salute my wellbeloved [p]Ē-pæn'e-tŭs, who is the firstfruits of Ā-chā'ĭā unto Christ.

6 Greet [q]Mā'rȳ, who bestowed much labour on us.

7 Salute [b]Ăn-drō-nī'cus and Jū'nĭā, my kinsmen, and my fellowprisoners, who are of note among the apostles, who also were in Christ before me.

8 Greet [r]Ăm'plĭ-as my beloved in the Lord.

9 Salute Ûr'băne, our helper in Christ, and Stā'chys my beloved.

10 Salute Ā-pĕl'lēs approved in Christ. Salute them which are of Ar-ĭs-to-bū'lus' household.

11 Salute [d]Hē-rō'dĭ-ŏn my kinsman. Greet them that be of the household of När-çĭs'sus, which are in the Lord.

12 Salute Trȳ-phē'nā and Trȳ-phō'sā, who labour in the Lord. Salute the beloved Pēr'sis, which laboured much in the Lord.

13 Salute [e]Rȳ'fus chosen in the Lord, and his mother and mine.

14 Salute [f]Ā-sȳn'cri-tŭs, Phlē'gon, Hēr'mas, Pāt'ro-bās, Hēr'mēs, and the brethren which are with them.

15 Salute Phĭ-lŏl'o-gŭs, and [g]Jū'lĭā, [h]Nē're-ŭs, and his sister, and Ō-lȳm'pas, and all the saints which are with them.

16 [i]Salute one another with [j]an holy kiss. The [k]churches of Christ salute you.

10 Admonition to unity and sound doctrine (1 Cor. 1:10)

●17 Now I beseech you, brethren, [l]mark them which cause divisions and offences contrary to the doctrine which ye have learned; and avoid them.

18 For they that are such serve not our Lord Jĕ'sus Christ, but their own belly; and by good words and fair speeches deceive the hearts of the simple.

11 Obedience of the Roman Christians commended

19 [m]For your obedience is come abroad unto all men. I am glad therefore on your behalf: [n]but yet I would have you wise unto that which is good, and simple concerning evil.

★20 [o]And the God of peace shall [p]bruise Sā'tan under your feet shortly. The grace of our Lord Jĕ'sus Christ be with you. Ā-mĕn'.◂

12 Greetings from others

21 [q]Tĭ-mō'the-ŭs my workfellow, and [r]Lū'çĭus, and [s]Jā'son, and [t]Sō-sĭp'a-tēr, my kinsmen, salute you.

22 I [u]Tēr'tĭus, who wrote this epistle, salute you in the Lord.

23 [v]Gā'jus mine host, and of the whole church, saluteth you. [w]Ē-răs'tus the chamberlain of the city saluteth you, [x]and Quär'tus a brother.

24 The grace of our Lord Jĕ'sus Christ be with you all. Ā-mĕn'.

a There is no record in Scripture or history that Paul ever fulfilled this proposed journey into Spain. It is on record that he went back to Jerusalem and was taken to Rome as a prisoner (Acts 21:1-28:31)

b I trust to see you and be blessed with your company as I go to Spain.

c This shows that Paul was headed for his last trip to Jerusalem. After that he planned to visit Rome and Spain (v 22-28)

d This ministering mainly included the large collections for the poor saints at Jerusalem (v 25-28; 1 Cor. 16:1-4; 2 Cor. 8-9). These Gentile contributions for the poor Jewish saints demonstrated brotherly love for the Christian Jews

e Here Paul again states that Gentile Christians were debtors to the Jews who had been used of God to receive the Scriptures and through whom Christ came according to the flesh. Now he points out that it is only right to help the Jews in carnal things

f When I take the collections for the poor saints to Jerusalem, I plan to go to Spain and I will come by Rome to see you

g Here we have Paul's confidence stated that when he visited them, he would come to them with all the gifts and graces of the Spirit of God and of the gospel of Christ. This confirms the fact that one man may be filled with all the fulness of God and have all the gifts and fruit of the Spirit of 1 Cor. 12:4-11; Gal. 5:22-23. He had already told them that he planned to impart to them some spiritual gift to the end that they would be established (1:11)

h It is noticeable that Paul never got so full of the fulness of God that he felt he did not need the prayers of the saints and continued blessings of God (v 30)

i Paul seems to anticipate the trouble he was to have in Judea (Acts 21:27-26:32)

j What God is in Romans:
1 A witness (1:9)
2 Uncorruptible (1:23)
3 Impartial (2:11)
4 Judge (2:16; 3:6)
5 God of all men (3:29) (15:5)
6 God of patience and consolation
7 God of hope (15:13)
8 God of peace (16:33; 16:20) 9 Only wise One (16:27)

k She was a deaconess of the church at Cenchrea, her duties being to attend to female converts, helping them get ready for baptism; to visit the sick and those in prison; and attend to all parts of the church work among women which could not be performed by men. She was probably the bearer of the epistle to Rome n Gr. prostatis, protectress. Athenian writers use the word of those that take in strangers. Cp. 12:8; 1 Tim. 5:9-10. She no doubt entertained the apostles and ministers who came to Cenchrea

o They perhaps had gone back to Rome and had a church in their house (v 3-4). They are always mentioned together as man and wife (Acts 18:2, 18, 26; Rom. 16:3; 1 Cor. 16:19; 2 Tim. 4:19)

p Mentioned only here, but he was perhaps of the house of Stephenas, which is also called the firstfruits of Achaia (1 Cor. 16:15) p Gr. suntribo, crush in pieces, utterly defeat and bring to helplessness (Mt. 12:20; Mk. 5:4; 14:3; Lk. 4:18; 9:39; Jn. 19:36; Rev. 2:27). Satan will be finally defeated at the second advent and the end of the Millennium (Rev. 20:1-10)

r Probably the one in Acts 13:1, or it could be Luke the evangelist and writer of Luke and Acts

s Unknown, unless it is the same as in Acts 17:5, 7

t May be the same as in Acts 20:4. The 3rd time Paul refers to kinsmen (v 7, 11)

u Some unknown scribe who wrote the epistle at Paul's dictation

v May be the same as the one in Acts 19:29, or of Derbe in Acts 20:4, but almost certainly the one in 1 Cor. 1:14

w Perhaps the same as the one in 2 Tim. 4:20; Acts 19:22. He was chamberlain, or treasurer at Corinth x Only mentioned here a Gr. Miriam. Who she was or what works she bestowed upon Paul we do not know b These two were relatives of Paul and his fellowprisoners. They were noted disciples among the apostles and were Christians before Paul (v 7). Just when they were fellowprisoners with Paul is not known.

c The next 10 disciples are mentioned only here (v 8-12)

d This is the third relative of Paul mentioned in this list (v 7, 11)

e This is perhaps the one mentioned in Mark 15:21. His mother acted as a mother to Paul so they were very close f The 10 persons in v 14-15 are mentioned only here. The Hermas here is not the one who wrote "The Shepherd of Hermas," 120 A. D.

g At least 7 women are named in this chapter: Phebe (v 1), Priscilla (v 3), Mary (v 6), Tryphena, Tryphosa, Persis (v 12), Julia (v 15); and mention is made of an unnamed sister of Nereus (v 15). All of them were Christian workers, deaconesses and prophetesses who "labor in the Lord" (v 12). This indicates that they labored in the ministry of the Word. There were a number of prophetesses in the early church (note e, Acts 21:9)

h This man, named Nereus after the sea-god of the Aegean, retained his heathen name

i One thing is very clear in this list of greetings to the saints in Rome. Peter is not once mentioned. According to the papal catalogue of bishops of Rome, Peter was in Rome at this time. Since he is not once mentioned by Paul, it is certain that he was not there; and this makes the very foundation of apostolic succession by the Roman bishops fall to the ground. If he had been at Rome as the bishop, he would have been the first one Paul would have referred to. It is, therefore, a waste of time to consider further such a groundless theory. It is very likely that Peter never saw the city of Rome in all his life

j It was customary to greet each other with a holy kiss, as a token of peace, friendship and brotherly love. This was the custom of all oriental people, not only Christians. Shaking of hands is our custom of greeting. The holy-kiss custom is referred to in v 16; 1 Cor. 16:20; 2 Cor. 13:12; 1 Th. 5:26; and 1 Pet. 5:14. People who seek to continue it are simply carrying on an oriental custom which is still being practiced among Eastern peoples k There is much controversy among different denominations, as to what the name of the church really is. Some have chosen one name and some another, all contending they have the Bible name of the church. The tendency among such people is to think they are the original church and that they are the people referred to in Scripture because of having a Bible name. There are over 100 Bible names describing the believers, in the New Testament. Any one or all these names for a human organization on earth today does not make it the N. T. church or body of Christ. See note a, Acts 7:38

l Gr. skopeo, look out for, Be alert for those who cause divisions and have no religious fellowship with them that the flock may be protected (v 17; Phil. 3:17). It is also trans. look at (2 Cor. 4:18); look on (Phil. 2:4); take heed (Lk. 11:35); and consider (Gal. 6:1) 10 marks of false teachers. They:
1 Cause divisions among Christians
2 Cause offences against truth (v 18)
3 Do not serve God (v 17-18)
4 Serve their belly (v 18; Phil. 3:19)
5 Use slick tongues to deceive (v 18)
6 Are enemies of the cross (Phil. 3:18)
7 Walk contrary to the gospel (Phil. 3:17)
8 Glory in their shame (Phil. 3:19)
9 Mind earthly things (Phil. 3:19)
10 Bring in heresies (2 Pet. 2:1. See note j, Mt. 7:15)

m You can always detect true leaders from the false by their godliness, unselfishness, and faithfulness (v 19)

n I desire you to show your wisdom by discerning and choosing good from evil

o 4th and last N. T. prophecy in Romans (16:20, unfulfilled, Rev. 20:1-10) a This is certainly a second postscript. Some think that Paul added it when he got to Rome and after he had written Ephesians concerning the mystery that had been kept secret from ages past (Eph. 3). It is in all the MSS but two or three. Some have it after 14:23 and others have it here. Some have it in both places, but there is no question of its genuineness and authenticity. Note g. 11:25

b The writings of the prophets are part of the Scriptures

Salvation (Rom. 1:16)

Salvation is the all inclusive word of the gospel, gathering into itself all the redemptive acts and processes. Used 119 times in the O. T. There are 7 Gr. and Heb. words for salvation. They are used 388 times and are trans. by 23 English words, some with various endings, which mean salvation, deliverance, save, health, help, welfare, safety, victory, Saviour, defend, avenge, rescue, and preserve

"Salvation" is used of:
1 Deliverance from danger (Ex. 14)
2 Victory over enemies (1 Sam. 14)
3 Healing of the body (Acts 3:6; 4:12)
4 Forgiveness of sin (Lk. 19:9; Rom. 10:9-10; Ps. 38:18-22; 51:1-13; 79:9)
5 Freedom from prison (Phil. 1:19)
6 Deliverance from captivity (Ps. 14)
7 Deliverance from wrath (1 Th. 5:9)

Salvation from sin comes through:
1 Confession (Rom. 10:9; 1 Jn. 1:9)
2 Grace through faith (Eph. 2:8-9)
3 Sanctification of the Spirit and 4 Belief of the truth (2 Th. 2:13)
5 Godly sorrow (2 Cor. 7:10)
6 Faith in His blood (Rom. 3:25)
7 Faith in His name (Acts 4:12)

20 stages of world apostasy (Rom. 1):
1 They did not glorify God (v 21)
2 Became unthankful (v 21)
3 Vain in imaginations (v 21)
4 Became dark in heart (v 21)
5 Professed to be wise (v 22)
6 Became fools (v 22)
7 Changed God's glory (v 23)
8 Dishonored their bodies (v 24)
9 Changed the truth to a lie (v 25)
10 Worshipped creation as God (v 25)
11 Served creatures, not God (v 25)
12 Submitted to vile passions (v 26)
13 Women became lesbians (v 26)
14 Men went into sodomy (v 27)
15 Rejected knowledge of God (v 28)
16 Became reprobate in mind (v 28)
17 Fully perverted sexually (v 28)
18 Filled with iniquities (v 29-31)
19 Despised coming judgment (v 32)
20 Gloried in wickedness (v 32)

14 facts about right-doing: (Rom. 3:26)
1 Revealed in the gospel (1:17)
2 Not commended by unrighteousness (3:5)
3 Manifested apart from law (3:21)
4 Witnessed by the law and prophets
5 Freely given to all alike (3:22-25)
6 Imputed by faith without works or law (3:22; 4:3, 5, 13, 22)
7 It is God's right-doing in remitting sins through Christ (3:25; 1 Jn. 1:9)
8 It is Christ's right-doing because He did all that was required of God to redeem men (5:18; 1 Cor. 1:30)
9 The medium of grace reign (5:21)
10 A requirement of saints (6:13-20)
11 It produces life (8:10)
12 The law required it, but could not give it (8:4; 9:31-32; 10:4-6)
13 Produced by Holy Spirit (14:17)
14 Conditions of receiving it (3:22; 4:1-5:11; 6:13-19; 8:1-10; 10:9-10)

We conclude that: (Rom. 3:23)
1 All have sinned (1:18-3:18, 23)
2 All are guilty before God (3:19-20)
3 The law cannot justify anyone (3:20)
4 The law only condemns (3:20)
5 God has provided redemption by faith in Jesus Christ (3:21-26)
6 All boasting is excluded and man is helpless to save himself (3:27)
7 Men are justified only by accepting God's plan of redemption (3:28)

7 facts about justification: (Rom. 4:25)
1 Gr. dikaiosis, the act of God declaring men free from guilt and acceptable to Him and counting them righteous (3:25; 5:18). Dikaioma is only other word rendered justification (Rom. 5:16)
2 Justification is by faith (3:24-25; 4:1-25; 5:1; Gal. 2:16; 3:24)
3 Justification is the universal remedy for sin (3:24-31; 4:1-25)
4 Justification a fulfillment of the Abrahamic covenant (4:1-25)
5 Justification by faith illustrated: Abraham before the law (4:1-4, 9-25); David under law (4:5-8) 6 Justification of believers is by:
(1) God (Rom. 3:26)
(2) Christ's resurrection (Rom. 4:25)
(3) Holy Spirit (1 Cor. 6:11)
(4) Blood (Rom. 3:24-28)
(5) Grace (Rom. 3:24; Tit. 3:7)
(6) Faith (Acts 13:39; Rom. 5:1)
(7) Prayer (Lk. 18:14)
(8) Obedience (Rom. 5:18)
7 8 results of justification by faith:
(1) Peace with God (Rom. 5:1)
(2) Access by faith into grace (5:2)
(3) Standing in grace (5:2)
(4) Joy and hope (5:2)
(5) Joy in tribulations (5:3-5)
(6) Love of God in the heart (5:5-8)
(7) Holy Ghost given to us (5:5; 8:9)
(8) Saved from wrath (5:9-10)

7 ways "justification" is used:
1 Declare what one is (1 Tim. 3:16)
2 Esteem a thing properly (Mt. 11:19)
3 Commend or praise (Lk. 7:29)
4 Clear from all sin (1 Cor. 4:4)
5 To declare righteous (Mt. 12:37)
6 Set free or escape from (Acts 13:39)
7 To pardon sin (Lk. 18:14; Rom. 3:20-28; 4:2; 5:1, 9; 8:30; 1 Cor. 6:11; Gal. 2:16-17; 3:11, 24; 5:4; Tit. 3:7)

10 blessings of Romans 5:
1 Justification (v 1, 9)
2 Peace with God (v 1)
3 Access by faith into grace (v 2)
4 Standing in grace (v 2)
5 Joy in God (v 2-3, 11)
6 Grace in tribulations (v 3-5)
7 Love of God in the heart (v 5)
8 The Holy Ghost (v 5)
9 Salvation from wrath (v 9-10)
10 Reconciliation by blood (v 10-11)

Blessings of Christ's death (Rom. 5:8)
1 All blessings of note above
2 Propitiation through faith (3:25)
3 Demonstration of God's love (5:8)
4 Redemption (3:24; Eph. 1:7; Tit. 2:14; 1 Pet. 1:18-23; Rev. 5:9)
5 A proper offering of God (Eph. 5:2)
6 A substitute for us (5:6; Gal. 1:4)
7 Peace with God (Col. 1:20)
8 The ransom paid (1 Tim. 2:6)
9 Sanctification (Heb. 10:10-14)
10 Man made nigh to God (Eph. 2:13)
11 The old law abolished (Eph. 2:14-17; Col. 2:14-17; 2 Cor. 3:6-16)
12 Healing (Mt. 8:17; 1 Pet. 2:24)

10 facts about sin: (Rom. 5:12-21)
1 Sin came to the world by one man
2 It was not in the world at creation
3 Sin came from outside the world
4 Sin caused death to enter the race
5 Sin is universal in effects (v 12)
6 Here 2500 years before Moses
7 Is not imputed without a law
8 Did not come by Moses' law
9 Penalty came before Moses' law
10 Both sin and death came by Adam's transgression of Gen. 2:17

12 contrasts: Adam-Christ (Rom. 5)
1 Adam was head of the old creation (Gen. 1:26); Christ is head of the new creation (2 Cor. 5:17-18; Eph. 2:10)
2 Adam sinned (Gen. 2:17; 3:6; Rom. 5:12-21); Christ did not (1 Pet. 2:22)
3 Adam by one sin made many sinners (v 15); Christ by the act of obedience made many righteous (v 19; 2 Cor. 5:21; Heb. 10:10-14; 1 Pet. 2:24)
4 Adam was made a living soul; Christ was made a quickening Spirit (1 Cor. 15:45)
5 Adam was of the earth; Christ was the Lord from heaven (1 Cor. 15:47)

Summary of Romans

Date and place: the 6th of Paul's letters, written from Corinth, about 58-60 A. D. and sent to Rome by Phebe (Rom. 16:1)

Author: Paul, the apostle to the Gentiles, called Saul (Acts 8:1; 9:1; 13:9), a Benjamite born in Tarsus, Asia Minor (Rom. 11:1; Phil. 3:5; Acts 9:11; 21:39; 22:3). A Pharisee educated at Jerusalem (Acts 22:3; 23:6; 26:4-5). A Roman citizen (Acts 16:37; 22:25-28). Persecutor of Christians (Acts 7:58; 8:1; 9:1; 22:4; Gal. 1:13; Phil. 3:6; 1 Tim. 1:13). Converted to Christ (Acts 9:1-17), becoming a preacher and writer of the gospel and giving us our clearest concept of Christianity (Acts 9:19, 29; Gal. 1:11-2:1; 2 Pet. 3:15). For his history see Acts 8-28 and his epistles. He wrote 14 epistles (Romans-Hebrews)

Theme: Romans is first in order of the epistles, doctrinally and in canonical order; and rightly so, for it contains the A B C's of Christian education. Until its lessons are learned we are ignorant of true Christian principles. It is the very foundation of church teaching, and if we are wrong in understanding here we shall be wrong elsewhere. The great theme is the revelation of God's wrath against sin, and the righteousness through faith as the grounds of justification. Romans makes the whole world guilty before God and in need of salvation through Jesus Christ. The prominent feature is the long doctrinal section (1:16-8:39). God's method of dealing with Jews and Gentiles individually is pictured in this doctrinal section, and their relationship dispensationally is given in 9:1-11:36. The rest (12:1-16:27) is practical, showing the result of salvation

Statistics: 45th book of the Bible; 16 chapters; 433 verses; 9,447 words; 87 questions; 19 O. T. prophecies; 4 new prophecies; 388 verses of history; 29 verses of fulfilled and 16 verses of unfulfilled prophecy

Reasons Christ had sinless flesh (8:3)

1 Christ had no fall - was therefore sinless
2 Christ did not submit to Satan and to his spirit and sinful nature (Eph. 2:2; Jn. 8:44; 1 Jn. 3:8)
3 He came from the woman but was not the seed of man (Gen. 3:15; Isa. 7:14; 9:6-7; Mt. 1:18-23; Lk. 1:32-35; Rom. 8:3; Gal. 4:4; Phil. 2:5-11; Jn. 1:14; 1 Tim. 3:16; Heb. 2:9-18)

Man is recognized as the head of the race in all Scripture (Gen. 2:20-22; 1 Cor. 11:3; Rom. 5:12-21). The iniquity of man, not woman, was passed as a curse upon children (Ex. 20:5; Num. 14:18; Dt. 5:9; Jer. 31:29-30; Ezek. 18:2-4)

4 Mary was merely the means of God in bringing His own Son into a human body. He was conceived by the Holy Ghost, not by man who could not produce sinless offspring. God is holy and cannot produce sinful offspring. This is according to the law of reproduction in Gen. 1:22-28

Thus by means of a woman God could send Christ in the likeness of the flesh controlled by sin, and yet not of sinful flesh controlled by sin and Satan (1 Pet. 2:22)

15 Put off its sins (Col. 2:11)

Human Governments (Rom. 13:1)

Gr. exousia, delegated authority. All authorities are ordained (Gr. tasso, appointed or determined) of God. That is, in God's plan He has determined that human governments shall exist to help Him carry on moral government and enforce moral laws. They are appointed by God, but He is not responsible for their acts. If they get out of line He will judge them, as He will gospel ministers. See note h, Acts 13:48

7 facts about human governments:
1 They were instituted by God (Gen. 9:1-7; Rom. 13:1-6; 1 Pet. 2:13-17)
2 Their purpose was to execute criminals and enforce law and order among men (Rom. 13:1-6; 1 Pet. 2:13-17; Gen. 9:6; Isa. 11:4-9; 65:20; Dan. 2:21; 4:17-25; 5:21)
3 It is the duty of Christians and others to help establish and support human government for the preservation of society and promotion of the highest good of man (Rom. 13:1; 1 Pet. 2:13-17)
4 Governments were instituted to govern by force and to punish, not only local and individual criminals, but also universal and national criminals. This includes execution of war to put down criminal nations as well as criminal individuals (Rom. 13:1-5; 1 Pet. 2:13-17; Dan. 2:21; 4:17-25; 5:21)
5 Christians are not to leave popular government up to the ungodly. To neglect good government is to neglect the salvation of souls. Promotion of public and private good is one of the greatest means of saving souls (Rom. 13:1-6; 1 Tim. 1:8-10). Christians should vote and enter public life to promote good government so that the gospel will not be hindered and stamped out. Both reason and experience, as well as the Bible make this obligatory upon all. Since government is necessary for the best good of all, it is the duty of every Christian to help bring about the best government to secure this end
6 Human governments, therefore, are not founded upon the arbitrary will of God, but upon the needs of humanity in securing their highest good. If in a small family, law and penalties are needed, how much more are they needed in communities, states, and nations. If government needs reforming, then let the Christians bring about such reforms. If they require nothing contrary to God, moral obligation, and the conscience, and if they meet the needs of those governed, they should be perpetuated (Rom. 13:1-6)
7 Upon the grounds of the best public interests, it becomes the duty of human governments to use all necessary means to attain this end. It is absurd to believe that rulers have the right to govern, and not the right to use the necessary means to carry on good government. Such error or belief causes many Christians to object to the right of capital punishment, the right to deal with mobs, to suppress rebellions, and to make wars on criminal nations

When a person sells himself to destroy the best good of others, it becomes necessary to take him from the society he seeks to destroy. In such cases it becomes necessary to deal with individuals, and nations to enforce law and order for the best good of all. It must be both the right and the duty of government and all its subjects to use every necessary and possible means to suppress rebellion and enforce respect for law and order. Rulers are God's ministers to execute God's wrath upon the ungodly and preserve moral law and government for the good of all (Rom. 13:1-6; 1 Pet. 2:13-17)

NOTES ON I CORINTHIANS CONTINUED

Classification and definition of gifts (1 Cor. 12:8)

Gifts fall into 3 natural divisions:

1 Gifts of revelation - the mind gifts:
(1) The word of wisdom. This is supernatural revelation, or insight into the divine will and purpose, showing how to solve any problem that may arise (1 Kl. 3:16-28; Mt. 2:20; Lk. 22:10-12; Jn. 2:22-24; 4:16-19; Acts 26:16; 27:21-25; 1 Cor. 5)
(2) The word of knowledge. This is supernatural revelation of divine knowledge, or insight in the divine mind, will, or plan; and also the plans of others that man could not know of himself (Gen. 1:1-2:25; 1 Sam. 3:7-15; 2 Kl. 6:8-12; Acts 9:11-12; Mt. 16:16; Jn. 1:1-3; Acts 5:3-4; 21:11; Eph. 3)
(3) Discerning of spirits. This is supernatural revelation, or insight into the realm of spirits to detect them and their plans and to read the minds of men (Mt. 9:4; Lk. 13:16; Jn. 2:25; Acts 13:9-10; 16:16; 1 Tim. 4:1-4; 1 Jn. 4:1-6)

2 Gifts of inspiration - vocal gifts:
(1) Prophecy. This is supernatural utterance in the native tongue (1 Cor. 14:3). It is a miracle of divine utterance, not conceived by human thought or reasoning (Acts 3:21; 11:28; 21:11; 2 Pet. 1:21; 1 Cor. 14:23-32). It includes speaking unto men to edification, and exhortation and comfort (1 Cor. 14:3)
(2) Divers kinds of tongues. This is supernatural utterance in other languages which are not known to the speaker (Isa. 28:11; Mk. 16:17; Acts 2:4; 10:44-48; 19:1-7; 1 Cor. 12:10, 28-31; 13:1-3; 14:2, 4-22, 26, 27-32)
(3) The interpretation of tongues. This is simply supernatural ability to interpret in the native tongue what is uttered in other languages not known by the one who interprets by the Spirit (15:10; 14:5, 13-15, 27-28)

3 Gifts of power - working gifts:
(1) Faith. This is supernatural ability to believe God without human doubt, unbelief, and reasonings (Rom. 4:17; Jas. 1:5-8; Mt. 17:20; 21:22; Mk. 9:23; 11:22-24; Heb. 11:6; 12:1-3)
(2) The gifts of healing. This is supernatural power to heal all manner of sickness without human aid or medicine (Mk. 16:18; Jn. 14:12; 1 Cor. 12:9)
(3) The working of miracles. This is supernatural power to intervene in the ordinary course of nature and to counteract natural laws if necessary (15:10, 27-31; Heb. 2:3-4; Ps. 107; Ex. 7:10-14:21; 2 Kl. 4:1-44; 6:1-7; Mt. 17:20; Mk. 9:23; 11:22-24; Jn. 14:12)

13 main arguments of Paul (8:1)

1 Knowledge is fundamental (v 1-3)
2 Idols are not real gods (v 4-5)
3 There is but one God (v 4-6)
4 Men, not idols, are of God (v 6)
5 All men do not have knowledge (v 7)
6 Problems arise from ignorance and a weak conscience (v 7)
7 Meats being offered to idols does not defile the meats themselves (v 8)
8 Meats do not make any difference in our relationship to God (v 8)
9 Knowledge and liberty can become stumblingblocks to the weak (v 9)
10 The example of the strong could cause the weak to commit sin (v 10)
11 Persons thus emboldened to commit sin will perish regardless of Christ's death for them (v 11)
12 By causing weak brothers to perish the strong also commit sin (v 12)
13 The strong must set the proper example for the weak to save themselves as well as the weak (v 13)

5 raptures in the 1st resurrection (15:23)

1 Christ and the many saints that were resurrected after His resurrection (1 Th. 4:13-17; Mt. 27:52-53; Eph. 4:8-10)

2 "Afterward they that are Christ's at His coming" (15:23, 51-54; Jn. 14:1-3; Lk. 21:34-36; 2 Cor. 5:1-8; Eph. 5:27; Phil. 3:11, 20-21; 1 Th. 2:19; 3:13; 4:13-17; 5:9, 23; 2 Th. 2:1, 7, note; Col. 3:4; Jas. 5:7-8; 1 Jn. 2:28; 3:2; 1 Pet. 5:4). Everyone in Christ, dead or alive, will be translated at this time. Not one person will be left on earth who is in Christ (1 Th. 4:16-17)

3 The 144,000 Jews saved in the first 3 1/2 years of Daniel's 70th week (Rev. 7:1-8). They will be caught up as the manchild in the middle of this week or 3 1/2 years before the second advent (Rev. 12:5; 14:1-5; Isa. 66:7-8; Dan. 12:1). See notes on these scriptures

4 The great multitude of tribulation saints who are saved after rapture 2, above, and during the whole of Daniel's 70th week (Rev. 6:1-19:21). The first martyrs of this period are told to rest until the rest of them are killed (Rev. 6:9-11) when vengeance will be taken and all raptured in time for the marriage supper (Rev. 7:9-17; 15:2-4; 20:4-6). Even those killed by the beast in the last 3 1/2 years of this week have part in the first resurrection (Rev. 20:4-6). This proves their rapture in time for the marriage supper (Rev. 19:1-10) and in time to come back with Christ (Rev. 19:11-21; Jude 14; Zech. 14:5)

5 The rapture of the two witnesses, ending the first resurrection which began with the resurrection of Christ (Rev. 11:7-11)

Baptism for the dead (1 Cor. 15:29)

7 reasons why baptism for the dead is unscriptural and an erroneous practice:

1 It is a law of Scripture that every doctrine must be proved by two or more scriptures (2 Cor. 13:1; Mt. 18:16; Dt. 19:15-18), but this verse is the only one casually mentioning the subject

2 The Corinthians were in many errors and heresies (11:19). Baptism for the dead was only one of them

3 Baptism in water does not save a living man who repents and meets the gospel conditions of salvation (note a, Mt. 3:11). Therefore, it could not save a dead man who did not meet conditions while he was alive (Lk. 13:1-5; Rom. 10:9-10; Eph. 2:8-9; 1 Jn. 1:9)

4 Salvation is a personal matter and cannot be obtained by proxy (Mk. 16:16; Lk. 13:1-5; Jn. 3:16-20; Acts 3:19; Rom. 1:16; 10:9-10; Eph. 2:8-9; Rev. 22:17)

5 There is no command or example of baptism for the dead in Scripture

6 The simple truth is that Paul is here showing the inconsistency of false teachers at Corinth in denying the doctrine of the resurrection and yet accepting the fallacy of baptism for the dead. He does not sanction such a doctrine or practice just because he makes one passing reference to this error

7 One might as well believe there is no resurrection of the dead on the basis of false teachers saying there is none (v 12), as to believe in their practice of baptism for the dead (v 29)

134 CHAPTER 1

I The introduction (1:1-9).
1 Authorship and salutation

PAUL, called to be an[a]apostle of Jē'şus Christ[b]through the will of God, and[c]Sŏs'thenēs our brother.

2 Unto the[d]church of God which is at[e]Cŏr'inth, to them that are [f]sanctified in Christ Jē'şus, called to be[g]saints,[h]with all that in every place call upon the name of Jē'şus Christ our Lord,[i]both theirs and ours:

3 [j]Grace be unto you, and peace, from God our Father, and from the Lord Jē'şus Christ.

2 Thanks to God: reason

4 I thank my God always on your behalf, for the grace of God which is given you[k]by Jē'şus Christ;

5 That in every thing ye are [l]enriched by him, in all utterance, and in all knowledge;

6 Even as the[m]testimony of Christ was confirmed in you:

3 Paul's desire for them

★7[n]So that ye come behind in no gift; [o]waiting for the[p]coming of our Lord Jē'şus Christ:

4 His confidence in the future (1 Th. 2:19; 3:13; 5:23)

▸8 Who shall also[q]confirm you unto the end, that ye may[r]be blameless in the [s]day of our Lord Jē'şus Christ.

▸9[t]God is faithful, by whom ye were called unto the[u]fellowship of his Son Jē'şus Christ our Lord.

II Reproof for divisions over ministers (1 Cor. 1:10-4:21).
1 Admonition to be in unity

●10 Now I beseech you, brethren,[v]by the name of our Lord Jē'şus Christ, that ye all speak the same thing, and that there be no[w]divisions among you; but that ye be perfectly joined together in the same mind and in the same judgment.

2 Contentions over human leadership rebuked (3:1-9)

11 For it hath been[x]declared unto me of you, my brethren, by[y]them which are of the house of Chlō'ē, that there are[z]contentions among you.

12 Now this I say, that[a]every one of you saith, I am of Paul; and I of Ă-pŏl'los; and I of Çē'phas; and I of Christ.

13[b]Is Christ divided? was Paul crucified for you? or were ye baptized in the name of Paul?

3 Paul's estimate of baptism in water (1 Pet. 3:21)

14 I thank God that I baptized none of you, but[a]Cris'pus and [b]Gā'ius;

15 Lest any should say that I had baptized in mine own name.

16 And I baptized also the household of[c]Stĕph'a-nās: besides, I know not whether I baptized any other.

17 For[d]Christ sent me not to baptize, but to preach the gospel: [e]not with wisdom of words, lest the cross of Christ should be made of none effect.

4 Human wisdom and preaching of the cross are opposites

18 For the [f]preaching of the cross is to them that [g]perish [h]foolishness; but unto [i]us which are saved[j]it is the power of God.

★19 For it is written,[k]I will destroy the wisdom of the wise, and will bring to nothing the understanding of the prudent.

★20 [l]Where is the wise? where is the scribe? where is the disputer of this[m]world? hath not God made foolish the wisdom of this world?

21 For after that in the wisdom of God the world by wisdom knew not God,[n]it pleased God by the foolishness of preaching to save them that believe.

22 For the Jews require a sign, and the Greeks seek after wisdom:

23 But we preach Christ crucified, unto the Jews a stumblingblock, and unto the Greeks foolishness;

24 But unto them which are called, both Jews and Greeks, Christ the power of God, and the wisdom of God.

25 Because the foolishness of God is wiser than men; and the weakness of God is stronger than men.

5 God's choice of Christian followers and why chosen

26 For ye see your calling, brethren, how that not many wise men after the flesh, not many mighty, not many noble, are called:

27 But God hath[o]chosen the foolish things of the world to confound the wise; and God hath chosen the weak things of the world to confound the things which are mighty;

28 And base things of the world, and things which are despised, hath God chosen, yea, and things which are not, to bring to nought things that are:

29 That no flesh should glory in his presence.

6 Christ our wisdom, righteousness, sanctification and redemption

▸30 But of him are ye in Christ Jē'şus, who of God is [p]made unto us wisdom, and righteousness, and [q]sanctification, and b Note v, Rom. 16:23. He may be the Diotrephes whom John refers to in his third epistle (3 Jn. 9), when he says that he wrote unto the church. If this be true then we could suppose that 3 John could be called John's epistle to the Corinthian church

c See 16:15-17 and note y, v 11
d 7 important facts on water baptism:
1 Paul was thankful that he had not emphasized or practiced baptism (v 14)
2 Christ sent him not to baptize, but to preach the gospel (v 17)
3 Baptism is not essential to salvation from sin (v 17-24). It is merely a symbol of that salvation (1 Pet. 3:21)
4 Christ saves men before and without water baptism (v 17-21)
5 The gospel can be preached without the preacher being a baptizer (v 17; Jn. 4:2; Mt. 4:17-24)
6 The preaching of the cross, not baptism, is God's power to save (v 18-21; Rom. 1:16; 10:9-10; Eph. 2:8-9)
7 Faith, not baptism, saves the soul (v 21; Jn. 3:15-20, 36; 5:24). It is important only after one is saved (notes, Mt. 3:11; Acts 8:38)
e Human eloquence is no substitute for Holy Spirit anointing and power (v 17; 2:1-5)
f Gr. logos, word (note b, Acts 1:1)
g Gr. apollumi, note 1, Mt. 10:28
h Gr. moria, silly, absurd, foolish. Only in v 18, 21, 23; 2:14; 3:19 i For us who are being saved, salvation has a present and future aspect (Rom. 13:11; Phil. 2:12; 1 Th. 5:8-9; 2 Tim. 1:9; 3:15; 4:18; 1 Pet. 1:5) m Gr. aion, age. The age was one of speculation (Acts 17:21). The word for disputer in Heb. is darshan, and in Gr. sugetetes, propounder of questions the seeker of allegorical, mystical, metaphysical, and cabalistical interpretations of the Scriptures by Jewish rabbis and Greek philosophers n It pleased God to confound the wise men of that day by the preaching of a crucified Christ. The Jews would not have Him because they expected the Messiah to come as a mighty conqueror. When He came to be crucified they stumbled at Him. The Gentiles could see no reason for salvation by a crucified malefactor of Judea. To those of both classes who would believe, Christ was the power and the wisdom of God

o 5 things God has chosen and the reasons:
1 Foolish things to confound the wise
2 Weak things to confound mighty
3 Base things to humble the exalted
4 Despised things to humble noble
5 Powerless things to bring to defeat the things that are powerful

2 The wisdom of God (v 24, 30)
3 The righteousness of God (v 30)

2 Made of a woman (Gal. 4:4)
3 Made of seed of David (Rom. 1:3)
4 Made in likeness of man (Phil. 2:7)
5 Made of no reputation (Phil. 2:7)
6 Made lower than angels (Heb. 2:7)
7 Made under the law (Gal. 4:4)
8 Made a curse for us (Gal. 3:13)

d I determined not to cultivate any other knowledge, or esteem any other doctrine as worthy of notice, save Jesus Christ and the benefits of the cross e This weakness could be physical, or an expression of utter dependence on God. If physical, it was no doubt the result of Paul's stonings, beatings, and other sufferings of 2 Cor. 11:24-27; Gal. 4:13. The fear and trembling could be a state of mind, dreading lest he should grieve God and bring reproach upon truth (1 Cor. 9:27. Cp. 2 Cor. 7:15; Eph. 6:6)
f Persuasive doctrines of human wisdom. I used none of the means of great orators to sway men. I preached under the anointing and power of the Spirit and confirmed what I preached with signs following (Rom. 15:18-19, 29; Acts 19:11). I used this method so that your faith might be in the power of God, not in human wisdom (v 4-6)
g Gr. teleios, note v, Phil. 3:15
h The wisdom of God - the gospel of Jesus Christ, which was hidden up to the time of its revelation and which God ordained before this age for us. None of the rulers of this world knew this revelation. If they had known it they would not have crucified the Lord. Prophets searched diligently to understand what they prophesied about it, and even angels themselves desired to comprehend it (1 Pet. 1:10-13). Such mystery is now made clear through the preaching of the apostles and the revelation of the Scriptures of the N. T. (Rom. 1:1-5; 16:25-26; 1 Cor. 2:9-16; Gal. 1:12, 16; Eph. 3:1-8; Heb. 8:6; 2 Pet. 3:16). See note g, Rom. 11:25

4 The things of God (v 11)
5 Things freely given by God (v 12)
6 Spiritual things (v 13)
7 The things of the Spirit of God (v 14)
l Question 8, Next, v 16. This defines the human spirit as that part of man which knows - the intellect, mind, and will m 3 different spirits (v 11-12):
1 The spirit of man (v 11)
2 The Spirit of God (v 11)
3 The spirit of the world (v 12) n 2 kinds of words of wisdom (v 13):
1 Words of man's wisdom
2 Words of Holy Ghost wisdom
o Gr. sugkrino, to compound; put together; to compare (v 13; 2 Cor. 10:12). It is used in the Sept. of interpreting dreams (Gen. 40:8, 16, 22; 41:12-15) p 2 kinds of men (v 14-15):
1 The natural man. Gr. psuchikos, sensual (v 14; 15:44-46; Jas. 3:15; Jude 19). This is man living under the control of the fleshly passions, the sensual and depraved part of man in contrast with the rational part (Gal. 5:19-21; Rom. 1:28-32; 1 Cor. 6:9-11; Col. 3:5-10). He is the animal man as opposed to the spiritual man. He has no sense of spiritual values and no relish for them. He counts it the highest wisdom to live for this world and carnal pleasures. Spiritual things are foolishness to him. He cannot see their supreme excellence due to animal appetites and being spiritually dead (Eph. 2:1-9)
2 The spiritual man. Gr. pneumatikos, spiritual (v 15; 3:1; 9:11; 14:37; 15:44-46; Gal. 6:1). This man is living under the control of the Holy Spirit and minds the things of the Spirit (Rom. 8:1-13; Gal. 5:16-26). He has the mind of Christ and discerns and esteems spiritual things above the sensual (v 15-16). He is a new creature and resurrected from death in trespasses and sins (2 Cor. 5:17-18; Eph. 2:1-9; 4:22-24). The lower animal passions have been crucified (Rom. 8:12-13; Gal. 2:20; 5:24) and put off (Eph. 2:22-24; Col. 3:5-10). See l2 spiritual things, p. 174
q The spiritual man examines, convinces, and reproves the natural man of his evil ways, yet no one is able to find fault with the godly man (v 15) redemption:

★31 That, according as it is written, He that glorieth, let him glory in the Lord.

CHAPTER 2 135

7 True gospel preaching and its divine purpose (Rom. 15:18-19, 29)

AND I, brethren, when I came to you, came not with [a]excellency of speech or of wisdom, declaring unto you the [b]testimony of God.
2 For I [c]determined not to know any thing among you, save Jē'sus Christ, and him crucified.
3 And I was with you in [e]weakness, and in fear, and in much trembling.
4 And my speech and my preaching was not with [f]enticing words of man's wisdom, but in demonstration of the Spirit and of power:
5 That your faith should not stand in the wisdom of men, but in the power of God.

8 Christian revelation is divine wisdom (Jas. 3:13-18)

6 Howbeit we speak wisdom among them that are [g]perfect: yet not the wisdom of this world, nor of the princes of this world, that come to nought:
7 But we speak the [h]wisdom of God in a mystery, even the hidden wisdom, which God [i]ordained before the world unto our glory:
8 Which none of the princes of this world knew: for had they known it, they would not have crucified the Lord of glory.

9 Spiritual things are Spirit revealed and taught (1 Jn. 2:27)

★9 But as it is written, [j]Eye hath not seen, nor ear heard, neither have entered into the heart of man, [k]the things which God hath prepared for them that love him.
10 But God hath revealed them unto us by his Spirit: for the Spirit searcheth all things, yea, the deep things of God.
11 [l]For what man knoweth the things of a man, save [m]the spirit of man which is in him? even so the things of God knoweth no man, but the Spirit of God.
12 Now we have received, not the spirit of the world, but the spirit which is of God; that we might know the things that are freely given to us of God.
13 Which things also we speak, not in the [n]words which man's wisdom teacheth, but which the Hō'lȳ Ghōst teacheth; [o]comparing spiritual things with spiritual.
14 But [p]the natural man receiveth not the things of the Spirit of God: for they are foolishness unto him: neither can he know them, because they are spiritually discerned.
15 But he that is [q]spiritual judgeth all things, yet he himself is judged of no man.
16 [r]For who hath known the mind of the Lord, that he may instruct him? [s]But we have the mind of Christ.

CHAPTER 3 136

10 Carnal state of the Corinthian believers (1:10-13)

AND I, brethren, could not speak unto you as unto spiritual, but as unto [c]carnal, even as unto [d]babes in Christ.
2 I have fed you with [f]milk, and not with meat: for hitherto ye were not able to bear it, neither yet now are ye able.
3 For ye are yet carnal: [g]for whereas there is among you envying, and strife, and divisions, are ye not carnal, and walk as men?
4 For while one saith, [h]I am of Paul; and another, I am of Ă-pŏl'los; are ye not carnal?

11 God is the only source of blessing in true ministers

5 Who then is Paul, and who is Ă-pŏl'los, but ministers by whom ye believed, even as the Lord gave to every man?
6 I have planted, Ă-pŏl'los watered; but God gave the increase.
7 So then neither is he that planteth any thing, neither he that watereth; but [i]God that giveth the increase.

12 Ministers are merely laborers together with God (1 Cor. 12:28-30; 2 Cor. 3; 6:1-10; Eph. 4:7-13)

▸8 Now he that planteth and he that watereth are [k]one: and every man shall receive his own reward [l]according to his own labour.
9 For [m]we are labourers together with God: ye are God's husbandry, ye are God's building.
●10 According to the grace of God which is given unto me, as a wise masterbuilder, I have laid the foundation, and another buildeth thereon. [o]But let every man take heed how he buildeth thereupon.

13 The only foundation (Mt. 16:18; Eph. 2:19-22; 1 Pet. 2:6-8)

11 [p]For other foundation can no man lay than that is laid, which is Jē'sus Christ.

14 Two kinds of building: two different results (Mt. 7:24-29)

★12 Now if any man build upon this foundation [q]gold, silver, precious stones, wood, hay, stubble;
13 Every man's work shall be made manifest: for the day shall declare it, because it shall be revealed by fire; and the fire shall try every man's work of what sort it is.
▸14 If any man's work abide which he hath built thereupon, he shall receive a reward.

a Question 9, Next, 3:3. Who of the natural men that live in the carnal passions can know the mind of the Lord that he may instruct the spiritual man? Quoted from Isa. 40:14 b We mind the same things that Christ did. We have the same Spirit c Gr. sarkikos, note h, Rom. 7:14. Here it is the natural man acting in contrast to the spiritual man - living in the babyhood of Christian faith. Paul classes envying, strife, and divisions over preachers as carnality (v 3-4). It is perfectly natural and sinless carnality to have preference in preachers; but when it gets to the point of envying, strife, and division it becomes sinful carnality. All carnality is not sinful. It is only natural to have preferences, to eat food, to sleep, and do many other normal things which in their moderation do not break the law of God. They become sinful carnality when carried to the point of breaking the law of God (1 Jn. 3:4) d This term is used to describe the beginning stage of Christian living and that of living more in the natural than in the spiritual life (v 16)
e A figurative statement of teaching the first principles of Christianity and the more simple truths of the faith (v 2; Heb. 5:11-14; 6:1)
f This is figurative of stronger gospel truths and doctrines for those who advance as Christians (v 2; Heb. 5:11-14; 6:1)
g Questions 10-12, Next, v 16
h 3 sources of sin (v 3)
1 Thoughts: envying, state of the soul
2 Words: strife, contention in words
3 Deeds: divisions, sin in conduct
The envying led to strife and evil speaking, and that led to divisions and fixed parties
i See note a, 1:12
j Regardless of our talents and labors they will not be fruitful unless God gives the increase by His blessing. Three times here it is stated that God gives the increase (v 5, 6, 7) k Both Paul and Apollos were the same in doctrine, labor, design, spirit, and service. Both were consecrated to the same end in life and had no part in fostering party spirits in Corinth l All will be rewarded according to their works (v 8-15; Mt. 16:27; Rom. 14:10-11; 2 Cor. 5:10). Rewards are not given according to success of labor, but according to motive and faithfulness in service (Mt. 6:2, 5, 16)
m Ministers are fellowlaborers of God. Believers are God's husbandry or farm. They are His building (Eph. 2:19-22) n Gr. architekton, architect. The plan belonged to God, but the execution of the plan was entrusted to Paul o Let every man be careful to preach the same doctrines that I have preached and ask no practice contrary to them
p Christ, not Peter, is the only foundation of the church upon which men must build (v 11; Eph. 2:19-22)
q 2nd N. T. prophecy in 1 Cor. (3:12-15, unfulfilled). Next, v 17. Works are compared to these materials - some become more pure in the fire and others are completely burned up by fire. Fire will try every man's works. If his are gold, silver, and precious stones they will abide the fire and he will receive a reward for his works. If they are wood, hay, and stubble his works will be burned up, yet he himself will be saved from loss of his soul (v 12-15)
Judgment of believers' works
1 Subjects: Believers (Gal. 6:8; Eph. 6:8; Col. 3:24; Rom. 14; 2 Cor. 5:10)
2 Time: Between the rapture and the second advent (Luke 14:14)
3 Place: In heaven (1 Cor. 9:24-27; Rom. 14:10; 2 Cor. 5:10)
4 Basis: Works, both good and bad (1 Cor. 3:11-15; 2 Cor. 5:10; Rom. 14; Col. 3; Matt. 16:27; Rom. 2:6; 2 Tim. 4:14)
5 Result: Reward or loss of reward, but never the loss of one's soul for any wrong-doings properly confessed and forgiven (1 Cor. 3:11-15). This judgment deals with the believer as a servant (Rom. 14; 2 Cor. 5:10, 11)
Believers will be judged concerning:
1 Doctrines (Rom. 2:14-16; Rom. 14)
2 Conduct to others (Mt. 18; Rom. 14)
3 Carnal traits (Col. 3; Rom. 1-2; 8:1-13; 14:1-23)

b A man will suffer loss if his works are burned (v 15), or not suffer loss if they are not burned (v 14). He himself will be saved, if he is in Christ, regardless of what happens to his works (v 13-15) c Question 13, Next, 4:7. This contains a gentle reproof and is used 13 times (v 16; 5:6; 6:2, 3, 9, 15, 16, 19; 9:13, 24; Rom. 6:16; 11:2; Jas. 4:4) d Believers are the temple of God for the indwelling of the Holy Spirit. See note n, Lk. 22:3 for the manner in which the Spirit dwells in believers e Gr. phtheiro, to corrupt, spoil, ruin, waste, destroy. Trans. destroy in this same verse; and to corrupt (1 Cor. 15:33; 2 Cor. 7:2; 11:3; Rev. 19:2; Jude 10; Eph. 4:22). This (v 17) is a solemn warning against sex sin, alcoholic drinks, tobacco, narcotics, etc. which destroy the body. See note n, 2 Cor. 7:1

f 3rd N. T. prophecy in 1 Cor. (3:17, unfulfilled until the judgment). Next, 4:5

g This refers to the body of man (6:19-20; Rom. 12:1; 2 Cor. 7:1)

h This perhaps refers to some man in the church who wished to have the pre-eminence (note b, 1 Cor. 1:14)

i Quoted from Job 5:13. The wisdom of the world is a craft, or subtle trade, which men carry on with others to benefit themselves

j Quoted from Ps. 94:11. The wise of the world are always full of schemes and plans for earthly gain, all of which are empty and vain k Let no Christian join any human party or take up the cause of any man who divides the body of Christ (Rom. 16:17)

l The idea is that God will cause all things to work together for good to them who love Him, whether they be the world system, life or death, providence now and hereafter, or any other things (Rom. 8:28)

m Administrators of gospel truths of God (note g, Rom. 11:25) n 4th N. T. prophecy in 1 Cor. (4:5, unfulfilled). Next, v 8. The Lord is judge of all things and will render to every man according to his deeds (v 4-5)

o This is the time of the judgment of believers. The coming here refers to the rapture, not the second advent (Jn. 14:1-3; 1 Cor. 15:23, 51-58; 1 Th. 4:13-16; Phil. 3:20-21; 2 Th. 2:7, note)

p 3 things God will do:
1 Bring hidden things to light (3:13)
2 Reveal secrets of men (Rom. 2:16)
3 Reward each man (3:11-15; 2 Cor. 5:10; Mt. 16:27; Rev. 22:12)

q I have used my own and Apollos' name in my arguments against your divisions, because I would spare the name of those who are guilty of making division

r Gr. phusioo (v 6, 18-19; 5:2; 8:1; 13:4)

s Questions 14-16. Next, v 21

4 Words (Mt. 12:32-37; Rom. 14)
5 Things that affect others: slander, quarrels, idle words, foolishness (folly), dishonesty, broken promises, wrong dealings, etc., (Rom. 1:29-32; 1 Cor. 6:9-11; Gal. 5:19-21; Col. 3; Eph. 4:1-32; 5:1-33; Rom. 12:1-21; 14:1-23)
6 Things that affect themselves: neglected opportunities, talents wasted, loose living, lack of spirituality, etc. (Rom. 2:14-16; Heb. 2:1-4; Gal. 5:1-26; 6:1-10; Col. 3)
7 Things that affect God: refusal to walk in the light, disobedience, rejection, failure to co-operate and yield to the Spirit, etc. (1 Cor. 12; Rom. 12; Eph. 4:1-32; 6:1-33)

▶15 If any man's work shall be burned, [b]he shall suffer loss: but he himself shall be saved; yet so as by fire.

15 The body must be holy as the temple of God (6:13-20; Rom. 8:1-13; 12:1-2; 2 Cor. 7:1; Gal. 5:24)

16 [c]Know ye not that [d]ye are the temple of God, and that the Spirit of God dwelleth in you?
★17 If any man [e]defile the temple of God, [f]him shall God destroy; for the [g]temple of God is holy, which temple ye are.◀

16 Warning against conceit and confidence in the flesh (Phil. 3:3-6; 2 Cor. 11 21-33)

●18 Let no man deceive himself. [h]If any man among you seemeth to be wise in this world, let him become a fool, that he may be wise.
19 For the wisdom of this world is foolishness with God. For it is written, [i]He taketh the wise in their own craftiness.
20 And again, [j]The Lord knoweth the thoughts of the wise, that they are vain.
●21 Therefore [k]let no man glory in men. For all things are yours;◀
▶22 Whether Paul, or A-pŏl'los, or Çē'phas, or the world, or life, or death, or things present, or things to come; [l]all are yours;
▶23 And ye are Christ's; and Christ is God's.

137 CHAPTER 4

17 Judgment of ministers not committed to men (Mt. 7:1-5)

●LET a man so account of us, as of the ministers of Christ, and [m]stewards of the mysteries of God.
2 Moreover it is required in stewards, that a man be found faithful.
3 But with me it is a very small thing that I should be judged of you, or of man's judgment: yea, I judge not mine own self.
4 For I know nothing by myself; yet am I not hereby justified: but he that judgeth me is the Lord.
★5 [n]Therefore judge nothing before the time, [o]until the Lord come, [p]who both will bring to light the hidden things of darkness, and will make manifest the counsels of the hearts: and then shall every man have praise of God.◀

18 Admonition to humility (Phil. 2:1-3; Eph. 4:1-3; 1 Pet. 5:5)

●6 And these things, brethren, I have in a figure transferred to myself and to A-pŏl'los for your sakes; [q]that ye might learn in us not to think of men above that which is written, that no one of you be [r]puffed up for one against another.
7 For [s]who maketh thee to differ from another? and what hast thou that thou didst not receive? now if thou didst receive it, why dost thou glory, as if thou hadst not received it?
★8 [t]Now ye are full, now ye are rich, ye have reigned as kings without us: and I would to God ye did reign, that we also might reign with you.

19 Apostolic example of humility and suffering (2 Cor. 11:23)

9 For I think that God [u]hath set forth us the apostles last, as it were appointed to death: for we are made [v]a spectacle unto the world, and to angels, and to men.
10 We are [w]fools for Christ's sake, but ye are wise in Christ; we are weak, but ye are strong; ye are [x]honourable, but we are despised.
11 Even unto this present hour we both hunger, and thirst, and are [y]naked, and are [z]buffeted, and have no [a]certain dwelling-place;
12 And labour, working with our own hands: [b]being reviled, we bless; being persecuted, we suffer it:
13 Being [c]defamed, we intreat: we are made as the [d]filth of the world, and are the offscouring of all things unto this day.

20 After all Paul was their father in the gospel (1 Th. 2:11; 1 Tim. 1:2; 2 Tim. 1:2)

14 [e]I write not these things to shame you, but as my beloved sons I warn you.
15 For [f]though ye have ten thousand instructors in Christ, yet have ye not many fathers: for in Christ Jē'sus I have begotten you through the gospel.
16 Wherefore I beseech you, be ye [g]followers of me.
17 For this cause have I sent unto you [h]Tī-mŏ'the-ŭs, who is my beloved [i]son, and faithful in the Lord, who shall bring you into remembrance of my ways which be in Christ, as I teach every where in every church.

21 Power to get results is genuine proof of a true minister's call and work (Mt. 10:1-8; 18:18, refs.; Mk. 6:7-13; 16:17-20; Lk. 4:18; 10:1-20; 24:49; Acts 1:8; 2:43; 4:4; 5:12-16; Rom. 15:18-29; 1 Cor. 12; 2 Cor. 3:6-18; 6:1-10; 2 Tim. 2:15; 3:16-17)

18 Now some are [j]puffed up as though I would not come to you.
19 But I will come to you shortly, if the Lord will, and will know, not the speech of them which are puffed up, but the [k]power.
20 For the [l]kingdom of God is not in word, but in power.
21 [m]What will ye? shall I come unto you with a [n]rod, or in love, and in the spirit of meekness?

138 CHAPTER 5

a 6th N. T. prophecy in 1 Cor. (4:8, unfulfilled). Next, 6:2. Paul in this verse uses irony. You are full - you are rich - you have reigned as kings without us or without any want or need of us. I would to God you did reign as kings, then we also would be reigning with you. This last statement refers to the Millennial and eternal reign when all saints will have some part in reigning with Jesus Christ (2 Tim. 2:12; Rev. 1:6; 5:10; 20:4-6; 22:4-5; Dan. 7:18, 27)

b The reference here seems to be that of gladiators in the arena. In the morning those that fought with beasts were given armour with which to protect themselves from wild beasts; but in the afternoon spectacles the gladiators were brought in naked and without anything to defend themselves from the sword of the assailant. If any escaped from this they were kept for slaughter on another day. These were really called men appointed to death. They were the last to make appearance in the theatre for that day, so were called "the last." Paul compares the sufferings of the apostles to these "last" gladiators. He may also refer to the apostles succeeding the prophets in sufferings

c Gr. theatron, theatre (Acts 19:29, 31). We are exhibited as a spectacle to the world of men and to angels. We demonstrate to men and angels the sufferings of Christ

d Gr. moros, as in 1:25, 27. This refers to the hisses, hooting, mockery, and other insults of the spectators in the arena

e Gr. endoxos, glorious (Lk. 13:17; Eph. 5:27); gorgeously (Lk. 7:25); and honourable (1 Cor. 4:10)

f V 10 is irony, for the apostles were neither fools, nor weak, nor contemptible.

g Gr. gumneteuo, scantily clothed h Gr. kolaphizo (v 11; Mt. 26:67; Mk. 14:65; 2 Cor. 12:7; 1 Pet. 2:20)

i Gr. agateo, to be a wanderer. Only here. We are mere itinerant preachers, not knowing where we shall live

j Acts 18:3; 20:34; 1 Th. 2:9; 2 Th. 3:8

k Only the grace of God can enable men to volunteer to suffer like this (v 12-13). The natural man avenges and repays all indignities against him, but Christians are not to retaliate (Rom. 12:17-21; Mt. 5:38-48)

l Gr. blaspheneo, blasphemed

m Gr. perikatharma, sweepings. The allusion here is to the wretched victims who were judged to be fit for nothing but to be offered as expiatory victims to infernal gods, for the safety of others

n I do not write these things to find fault with you for not providing me the necessities of life, but to warn you not to be carried away by every pretender to apostleship and not to neglect those who are God-trusted and who have brought you the message of salvation (v 14-17)

o Though you have many who offer their services as your instructors, you have only one by whom you were converted and who has a parental feeling for you (v 15) p Gr. mimetes, imitators. Follow or imitate me as I imitate Christ (v 16; 11:1; Eph. 5:1; 1 Th. 1:6; 2:14; Heb. 6:12; 1 Pet. 3:13)

r He was a son in the faith (Acts 16:1)

s See note r, v 6. Some of your teachers are puffed up and haughty supposing that I will not visit Corinth. I will come to you shortly, not knowing the speech of him that is puffed up, but the power, for the kingdom of God that I demonstrate is not in word only, but in power. All called and empowered ministers have power to demonstrate what they teach. This is how you can tell whether your teachers are genuine or not. I will prove my calling by a manifestation of power when I get there. Shall I come with a rod to correct you, or in love, and in a spirit of meekness?

t Gr. dunamis, inherent power; the power of reproducing itself, like a dynamo

u See notes on Mt. 4:17 and 19:24

v Questions 17-18, Next, 5:6

w Gr. rabdos, rod (v 21; Heb. 9:4; Rev. 2:27; 11:1; 12:5; 19:15); staff (Mt. 10:10; Mk. 6:8; Lk. 9:3; Heb. 11:21); and sceptre (Heb. 1:8)

x Gr. praotes, meekness (v 21; 2 Cor. 10:1; Gal. 5:23; 6:1; Eph. 4:2; Col. 3:12; 1 Tim. 6:11; 2 Tim. 2:25; Tit. 3:2)

a Gr. porneia, all kinds of impurity; perversion and immorality b It seems from 2 Cor. 7:12 that the father was alive for it refers to the one "that suffered wrong" as well as the one who had "done the wrong."
c See note r, 4:6. You are puffed up over your gifts and powers and so full of strife and contention related to your parties and favorite teachers, you have neglected the discipline of the church. Had you considered the greatness of the crime you would have mourned and acted to put away the fornicator d Gr. airo, same word for take up serpents in Mk. 16:18. Here it means to put away or excommunicate the fornicator from the church (v 2, 13)
e 5 points in judging the fornicator:
1 By the authority of Jesus Christ
2 Gather in church conference
3 Agree with my spirit
4 Use the power of Jesus Christ
5 Deliver him to Satan (v 4-5)
f The purpose of delivering him to Satan was to destroy the flesh. This required members to withdraw all fellowship and spiritual influence from him, and to quit praying for him, so as to permit Satan to afflict his body thus perhaps bringing him to repentance, that his spirit might be saved in the end. This was effective, for in the second letter Paul wrote the church to forgive him lest he should be swallowed up in overmuch sorrow (2 Cor. 2:6-7)
g Gr. olethros, ruin, destruction, plague, pest (v 5; 1 Th. 5:3; 2 Th. 1:9; 1 Tim. 6:9). This destruction did not kill the man. Whatever it was it was capable of bringing him to repentance (2 Cor. 2:7) h All the physical affliction that could be brought on a man could not save his spirit unless it brought him to repentance. It was not, therefore, physical trouble which saved the soul, but repentance brought about by affliction.
i See note s, 1:8
j Your boasting over gifts, privileges, and powers is not good. You are so busy commending over your teachers that you have let the church fall under scandalous corruptions that threaten its very existence 6 things that are not good:
1 Boasting in the face of unconfessed sin (1 Cor. 5:6)
2 To punish the just (Pr. 17:26)
3 To be without knowledge (Pr. 19:2)
4 Accept the wicked and overthrow the righteous in judgment (Pr. 18:5)
5 To have respect of persons in judgment (Pr. 24:23)
6 For man to be alone (Gen. 2:18)
7 things that are good:
1 To draw near to God (Ps. 73:28)
2 To give thanks to God (Ps. 92:1)
3 To be afflicted (Ps. 119:71)
4 To give praise (Ps. 147:1)
5 To hope and wait for salvation (Lam. 3:26)
6 To bear yoke in youth (Lam. 3:27)
7 To be zealous for good (Gal. 4:18)
k Question 19, Next, v 12. If you permit this incestuous person to continue in your midst without judgment, the whole church will become ruined by moral impurities.
l As was the custom of the Jews before the passover to cleanse their homes from all leaven, so the church is here admonished to clean out the immoral practices from its midst m You are yet unleavened: the filth of moral sin has not yet become spread among you. If you will purge this immorality out then you will be a new lump and completely free from sin n Christ has become our passover lamb and by His blood all sin can be purged (Eph. 1:7; Heb. 9:22; Rev. 1:5)
o Paul means that the passover being past, we are now living in the days of the unleavened bread of sincerity and truth p Either this present epistle or one that he had already written and not sent. Now, with a report of conditions in the church (16:17), he perhaps combined the first one with this epistle, enlarging upon the subject (v 9-11).
q Christians are not to leave the world. They must remain in it doing business with all kinds of sinners, but they are not to eat with a man claiming to be a Christian when he is a fornicator, a covetous man, an idolater, a railer, a drunkard, or an extortioner (v 9; 16:33)
r Questions 20-21, Next, 6:1

III Immorality and lawsuits rebuked: discipline enjoined (5:1-6:20). 1 Sin commonly known

IT is reported commonly that there is [a]fornication among you, and such fornication as is not so much as named among the Gĕn'tiles, that one should have his [b]father's wife.

2 Indifference to sin the result of divisions

2 And ye are [c]puffed up, and have not rather mourned, that he that hath done this deed might be [d]taken away from among you.

3 Method of judgment for sin in a local church (Mt. 18:15)

3 For I verily, as absent in body, but present in spirit, have judged already, as though I were present, concerning him that hath so done this deed,

4 [e]In the name of our Lord Jĕ'sus Christ, when ye are gathered together, and my spirit, with the power of our Lord Jĕ'sus Christ,

5 To deliver such an one unto Sā'tan [f]for the [g]destruction of the flesh, [h]that the spirit may be saved in the [i]day of the Lord Jĕ'sus.

4 Command to purge the least leaven of sin in the church

6 Your [j]glorying is not good. [k]Know ye not that a little leaven leaveneth the whole lump?

●7 [l]Purge out therefore the old leaven, that ye may be a new lump, [m]as ye are unleavened. For even [n]Christ our passover is sacrificed for us:

●8 Therefore [o]let us keep the feast, not with old leaven, neither with the leaven of malice and wickedness; but with the unleavened bread of sincerity and truth.

5 Distinction made between world sinners and church sinners

●9 [p]I wrote unto you in an epistle not to company with fornicators;

●10 [q]Yet not altogether with the fornicators of this world, or with the covetous, or extortioners, or with idolaters; for then must ye needs go out of the world.

●11 But now I have written unto you not to keep company, if any man that is called a brother be a fornicator, or covetous, or an idolater, or a railer, or a drunkard, or an extortioner; with such an one no not to eat.

6 A local church has the right to excommunicate sinners (Mt. 18:15-18)

12 [r]For what have I to do to judge them also that are without? do not ye judge them that are within?

●13 But them that are without God judgeth. [d]Therefore put away from among yourselves that wicked person.

CHAPTER 6 139

7 Saints are forbidden to go to law before unbelievers

[s]DARE any of you, having a matter against another, go to law before the unjust, and not before the saints?

8 Saints are to settle differences among themselves

★2 Do ye not know that the saints shall judge the world? [a]and if the world shall be judged by you, are ye unworthy to judge the smallest matters? ◄

►3 [b]Know ye not that we shall judge angels? [c]how much more things that pertain to this life?

9 Saints are to suffer wrong and not bring reproach upon the church before sinners

●4 [d]If then ye have judgments of things pertaining to this life, set them to judge who are least esteemed in the church.

5 I speak to your shame. [e]Is it so, that there is not a wise man among you? no, not one that shall be able to judge between his brethren?

6 But brother goeth to law with brother, and that before the unbelievers.

7 Now therefore there is utterly a [f]fault among you, because ye go to law one with another. [f]Why do ye not rather take wrong? why do ye not rather suffer yourselves to be defrauded?

8 Nay, ye do wrong, and defraud, and that your brethren.

10 Sins that damn the soul: ten classes that will be lost (Rom. 1:29; Gal. 5:19; Col. 3:5)

★9 [g]Know ye not that [f]the unrighteous shall not inherit the kingdom of God? Be not deceived: neither fornicators, nor idolaters, nor adulterers, [h]nor effeminate, nor [i]abusers of themselves with mankind, ●◄

10 Nor thieves, nor covetous, nor drunkards, nor revilers, nor extortioners, [j]shall inherit the kingdom of God.

11 Secret of victory over sin (2 Cor. 5:17; Rom. 8:1-13)

11 And [k]such were some of you: [l]but ye are washed, but ye are sanctified, but ye are justified in the name of the Lord Jĕ'sus, and by the Spirit of our God.

12 All things are lawful unto me, but all things are not expedient: all things are lawful for me, but [m]I will not be brought under the power of any.

12 The body is for the Lord, not for fornication and sin

★13 Meats for the belly, and a 16 Bible reasons for excommunication:

1 Refusing to make peace (Mt. 18:15)
2 Causing divisions (Rom. 16:17)
3 Fornication (1 Cor. 5:11-13)
4 Covetousness (1 Cor. 5:11-13)
5 Idolatry (1 Cor. 5:11-13)
6 Trouble making (1 Cor. 5:11-13)
7 Drunkenness (1 Cor. 5:11-13)
8 Extortion (1 Cor. 5:11-13)
9 Refusal to love God (1 Cor. 16:22)
10 Unbelief, infidelity (2 Cor. 6:14)
11 Backsliding (2 Cor. 13:1-2, 10)
12 Disorderly conduct (2 Th. 3:6)
13 Defying the truth (2 Th. 3:14)
14 Denying faith (1 Tim. 1:19-20)
15 False teaching (1 Tim. 6:3-5; 2 Jn.
16 Being a heretic (Tit. 3:10-11) 10)
b Questions 22-26, Next, v 5
c 6th N. T. prophecy in 1 Cor. (6:2-3, unfulfilled). Next, v 9. This refers to the Millennial and eternal reign of Jesus Christ and His saints. They will reign over all nations on earth and help administer the affairs of the universe forever (Isa. 9:6-7; Dan. 2:44-45; 7:13-14, 27; Zech. 14; Mt. 19:28; Lk. 2:31-32; Rev. 1:6; 5:10; 11:15; 20:4; 22:5)
d If the saints are to judge the world, then they should be able to settle small matters among themselves on earth
e Gr. krino, means to judge; make a legal decision. It does not refer to passing sentence on angels, or sending them to punishment. It does mean that saints will be exalted higher than angels and will rule them, making decisions for the administration of the universe. Saints, not angels, become heirs of God and joint-heirs with Jesus Christ to inherit all things (Rom. 8:17-18; Gal. 5:21; Heb. 6:12; Rev. 21:7). Even now saints are being examples to angels (Eph. 3:8-11; 1 Cor. 4:9; 11:10). Angels are eager to learn about the plan of God for the redeemed (1 Pet. 1:10-13)
f If saints are to judge angels, how much more should they be capable of judging things that pertain to this life
g If you have judgments and they are so complicated that the great men of the church cannot give justice, then set them to judge that are the least esteemed in the church. This seems to be irony to shame them for not being willing to take the responsibility for decisions which should be made (v 4-6)
h Questions 27-28, Next, v 7

9 Revilers (abusers of others, v 10)
10 Extortioners (these who obtain by violence or threats, v 10)
Note, Effeminate: Men who have womanlike traits to an inappropriate degree; wanting in manly strength or aggressiveness; especially marked with weakness, softness, and love of ease; over-emotional, or over-delicate m Gr. malakos, a catamite; a male who submits his body to unnatural lewdness (v 9, Cp. Joel 3:3). Used elsewhere of that which is soft to the touch (Mt. 11:8; Lk. 7:25) n Gr. arsenokoites, one guilty of unnatural offences; a sodomite; homosexual; sex pervert (v 9; 1 Tim. 1:10. Cp. Rom. 1:27)
o Repeated to confirm the truth that these classes shall not be saved or inherit the kingdom of God (v 9, 10; 2 Cor. 13:1; Gal. 5:21)
p The first 5 classes of v 9-10 have to do with the worst immoralities imaginable and yet it is declared that some of their kind are now saved (v 11)
q 3 things that save the soul. See p. 190
r Gr. sumphero, profitable (v 12; Jn. 11:50; 18:14; Acts 20:20) s I will not tolerate anything to control me or have authority over me that is not profitable (1 Cor. 9:27) a 8th N. T. prophecy in 1 Cor. (6:13-14, unfulfilled). Next, 7:29. The thought of this verse is that God has made appetite for food and food for appetite, yet He has not made the body for immoral acts, "but for the Lord."

b God has resurrected Jesus as a guarantee that He will also raise us up by His own power, so that we may enjoy Him and serve Him forever

c Questions 32-35. Next, v 19

d Quoted from Gen. 2:24. Cp. Mt. 19:5

e This is the true doctrine of interpenetration (note n, Lk. 22:3)

f All sins destroy, but he who commits fornication sins against his entire constitution, even his body, soul and spirit.

g Questions 36-37. Next, 7:16

h 1 Cor. 3:16-17; Rom. 12:1-2; 2 Cor. 7:1

i As the slave is the sole property of his master, so we, having been bought by the precious blood of Christ are not our own (v 19-20; 7:23; 1 Pet. 1:18-23)

j The Corinthians had written a letter asking questions about certain doctrines, sending it by the men mentioned in 16:17. They had not asked about the divisions, the fornication, or other wrong conditions in the church. These things were reported to Paul by the men (1:11-12; 16:17)

12 things the letter asked about:
1 The unmarried (7:1-9)
2 Married and unmarried (7:10-17)
3 Circumcision-servitude (7:18-24)
4 Virgins (7:25-40)
5 Things offered to idols (8:1-13)
6 His apostleship-ministry (9:1-27)
7 Mosaic and Christian dispensations (10:1-11:1)
8 Customs for women (11:2-16)
9 Lord's Supper (11:17-34)
10 Spiritual gifts (12:1-14:40)
11 The Resurrections (15:1-58)
12 Collections for the poor and his coming visit (16:1-9)

k Not that every man or woman is required to be married, but those who choose to be are permitted by Christianity to get married. The gospel does not interpose any hindrance to marriage and normal creative relationship l Gr. eumoia, good will; kindnesses. Only here and Eph. 6:7. It means that the wife and husband must respect each other regarding lawful sexual needs; pay the matrimonial debt and render the conjugal duty to each other, mutually satisfying each other. If they do not obey this injunction one may be responsible for the infidelity of the other

m The husband and wife belong to each other. Neither of them has any authority to refuse what the other needs or demands in normal temperate, relationship. All acts of perversion or unnatural affection must absolutely be rejected n What you thus owe to each other, do not refuse to pay, unless by mutual consent for a time agreed upon for fasting and prayer. Then, regardless of the spiritual blessing either one has received, come together again to defeat Satan

o This was Paul's personal desire, but he was sensible enough to recognize that every man did not have his gift of continence (v 7). Where it does not exist naturally, or by a miraculous interference or by an operation (Mt. 19:12), marriage is the answer p It is best to have the gift of continence, but for those who cannot accomplish self-control it is best to marry. It is better to marry than to burn

q Gr. engkrateuomai, have self control; have command of the passions and appetites. Only here and in 9:25, but in the Sept. in Gen. 43:31; 1 Sam. 13:12

for his own soul's salvation

m Gr. apeleutheros, absolutely free. A much stronger word than in v 21

n This verse means that if you do become free from slavery, you should never sell yourself again as the slave of man o Gr. parthenos, a pure, unmarried young woman. This was another subject that the Corinthians had asked Paul about.

p Paul's advice here was for the present distress or persecutions of Christians. They were at the mercy of their enemies with no state protection as we have today. On this account it would be better for unmarried persons to remain single

the belly for meats: but [a]God shall destroy both it and them. Now the body is not for fornication, but for the Lord; and the Lord for the body.◂

▸14 [b]And God hath both raised up the Lord, and will also raise up us by his own power.

15 [c]Know ye not that your bodies are the members of Christ? shall I then take the members of Christ, and make them the members of an harlot? God forbid.

16 What? know ye not that he which is joined to an harlot is one body? [d]for two, saith he, shall be one flesh.

17 [e]But he that is joined unto the Lord is one spirit.

●18 Flee fornication. [f]Every sin that a man doeth is without the body; but he that committeth fornication sinneth against his own body.

13 The body must be free from sin as the temple of God (1 Cor. 3:16, refs.)

19 [g]What? know ye not that your [h]body is the temple of the Hō'lȳ Ghōst which is in you, which ye have of God, and ye are not your own?

●20 [i]For ye are bought with a price: therefore glorify God in your body, and in your spirit, which are God's.

140 CHAPTER 7

IV Christians and marriage (7:1-40). 1 Advice to unmarried Christians

NOW concerning the things whereof [j]ye wrote unto me: It is good for a man not to touch a woman.

●2 Nevertheless, to avoid fornication, let [k]every man have his own wife, and let every woman have her own husband.

2 Advice to married Christians

●3 Let the husband render unto the wife due [l]benevolence: and likewise also the wife unto the husband.

4 [m]The wife hath not power of her own body, but the husband: and likewise also the husband hath not power of his own body, but the wife.

●5 [n]Defraud ye not one the other, except it be with consent for a time, that ye may give yourselves to fasting and prayer; and come together again, that Sā'tan tempt you not for your incontinency.

6 But I speak this by permission, and not of commandment.

3 Advice to the unmarried

7 [o]For I would that all men were even as I myself. But every man hath his proper gift of God, one after this manner, and another after that.

8 I say therefore to the unmarried and widows, It is good for them if they abide even as I.

●9 [p]But if they cannot [q]contain, let them marry: for it is better to marry than to [o]burn.

4 Advice and regulations concerning married Christians (Cp. Rom. 7:1-3)

●10 And unto the married [b]I command, yet not I, but the Lord, Let not the wife depart from her husband:

●11 But and if she [c]depart, let her remain unmarried, or be reconciled to her husband: and let not the husband put away his wife.

●12 But to the rest speak I, not the Lord: If any brother hath a wife that believeth not, and she be pleased to dwell with him, let him not put her away.

●13 And the woman which hath an husband that believeth not, and if he be pleased to dwell with her, [d]let her not leave him.

14 For the unbelieving husband is [e]sanctified by the wife, and the unbelieving wife is sanctified by the husband: else were your children [f]unclean; but now are they holy.

●15 But [g]if the unbelieving depart, let him depart. A brother or a sister is not under bondage in such cases: but God hath called us to peace.

16 [h]For what knowest thou, O wife, whether thou shalt save thy husband? or how knowest thou, O man, whether thou shalt save thy wife?

5 Christian calling does not change the position in life

●17 But as God hath distributed to every man, as the Lord hath called every one, so let him walk. And so ordain I in all churches.

●18 Is any man called being circumcised? [i]let him not become uncircumcised. Is any called in uncircumcision? [j]let him not be circumcised.

19 Circumcision is nothing, and uncircumcision is nothing, but the keeping of the commandments of God.

●20 Let every man abide in the same calling wherein he was called.

●21 [k]Art thou called being a servant? [l]care not for it: but if thou mayest be made free, use it rather.

22 For he that is called in the Lord, being a servant, is the Lord's [m]freeman: likewise also he that is called, being free, is Christ's servant.

●23 [n]Ye are bought with a price; be not ye the servants of men.

●24 Brethren, let every man, wherein he is called, therein abide with God.

6 Advice concerning virgins and unmarried men

25 Now concerning [o]virgins I have no commandment of the Lord: yet I give my judgment, as one that hath obtained mercy of the Lord to be faithful.

26 I suppose therefore [p]that this is good for the present distress, I say, that it is good for a man so to be.

27 [q]Art thou bound unto a wife? seek not to be loosed.

a Gr. purooomai, to burn; be a flame (v 9; 2 Cor. 11:29; Eph. 6:16; 2 Pet. 3:12; Rev. 1:15; 3:18). Here it means to have difficulty controlling the passions. In such a case, it would be better to marry

b For 20 commands concerning marriage, see p. 191

c This means to get a divorce, else Paul would not have restricted her to remain single, not remarrying unless it was to her former husband (v 11). Among Jews a woman had just as much right to put away a husband as the husband had to put away a wife. A woman could say to the elders that her parents or brethren had deceived her, betrothing her to the husband when she was young, and state, "I now reveal to you that I will not have him as my husband." Some parted with mutual consent and this was considered legal, as was also their remarriage to others. All divorces were considered the complete dissolving of the marriage bond; and, in consequence of this, they were free to remarry. Any woman or man who got a divorce on grounds other than those allowed was to remain single or remarry the former companion. Divorce on scriptural grounds meant that a person was free to remarry, providing it was to another Christian (v 15, 27-28; Mt. 5:32; 19:6; 20 commands, p. 191). The innocent was not to be held responsible for the sins of the guilty (Ezek. 18:2-4, 13, 17-32)

d That men and women have complete equal rights is clear in all Scripture (v 2-5, 10-16, 27-40; Gal. 3:28; Col. 3:11)

e Gr. hagiazo, note h, Jn. 17:17. Here it simply means that the unbeliever, by virtue of being one flesh with a Christian, is not considered living in unlawful relationship. It also refers to the spiritual influence and power the Christian holds over the unbelieving companion. It could not mean that the Christian could save the soul of the unbeliever. Should the sanctification referred to here not be allowed, the children would be considered ceremonially unclean, not to be received by Christians or given any rights and privileges of Christians

f Jews considered any child born out of holiness if born of parents who were not proselytes at the time of his birth, even though afterwards they became proselytes. On the other hand, they considered children of heathen born in holiness, provided the parents became proselytes before the birth of their children. All heathen children were considered unclean by Jews and all their own children holy. Heathen mothers went through certain ceremonies to idols and children were consecrated to the goddess Statina. Children of Christians came into the world without these impure and unhallowed heathen rites and were consecrated to God. This is what the apostle alludes to in v 14

g Here we have another legal and scriptural reason for divorce and remarriage. If the unbeliever refuses to live with a wife or husband because of Christianity and if he or she is determined to leave on this account, the Christian is not under further marriage bonds and is not held responsible or punished by requirement to remain single the rest of his or her life because of the rebellion of another. The Christian is to submit to the breaking of the marriage covenant under such circumstances

h Questions 38-41. Next, v 21.

i Let no one try to abolish the sign of the old covenant he bears in his flesh. The Corinthians had also asked Paul about circumcision, so here he answers their questions on this subject (v 18-20)

j Let no man submit to circumcision as something necessary to salvation k Question 42. Next, 27. Here Paul answers their questions as to the responsibility of Christian slaves l Being a slave will not hinder your being a Christian, but if you can become free prefer freedom to slavery and use your freedom to serve Christ. A slave could be freed by the consent of his master; by purchasing his own freedom; or by someone else paying for his freedom. In some ages masters thought that by freeing a slave one would gain merit a This means divorced from a wife or husband on legal and scriptural grounds. Because of the "present distress" of that day the advice was: Seek not a wife; but if you do marry you have not sinned (v 27-28)

b 9th N. T. prophecy in 1 Cor. (7:29-31). Next, 11:28. This predicts the immediate persecution of Christians which Nero was then preparing.

Because of impending persecution:
1 Let all men be without anxiety concerning families, property, and the world in general (v 32-33)
2 Let the married live as though not married (v 29)
3 Let those who weep act as though they wept not (v 30)
4 Let those who rejoice act as though they did not rejoice (v 30)
5 Let those who buy live as though they did not possess (v 30)
6 Let those who use this world make proper use of it, for the very fashion of it will soon pass away (v 31; 1 Jn. 2:17)

c The single man or woman can attend to the things of the Lord without distraction (v 32, 34)

d The married man or woman has many responsibilities in caring for the family (v 33-34)

e Gr. agios, devoted; holy; pure. Here it means that she may be devoted to God and pure in both body and spirit so that she may attend to the things of God without distraction (v 34-35)

f In the early times among both Jews and Christians the daughters were wholly in the power of the father, so that he might give them in marriage or bind them to perpetual virginity. If the father had devoted his daughter to perpetual virginity, and afterwards found that she had her affection centered upon a man, being strongly inclined to marry, he could change his plans regarding her virginity and give her in marriage at any time, even after the flower of her age. He would not be committing sin by changing his plans for her

g His virgin daughter, not a sweetheart

h If she is of full age to marry, wants to marry and the father decides that it ought to be, let him give her in marriage to her suitor

i If she wants to get married instead of being a perpetual virgin. Sometimes the conditions of v 8-9 enter into the picture

j Let the father of the virgin do what he will and what he knows is best for his daughter under the circumstances, regardless of how he has already planned her life. He is free from all former plans and vows

k If the father finds it unnecessary to change his plans it being unnecessary to betroth his virgin daughter, because of her being inclined not to marry and wanting to consecrate both body and spirit, as in v 34, then let him keep his daughter from marriage (v 37)

l This explains v 36-37 and proves that it is a father who gives or does not give his virgin daughter in marriage

m Evidently this verse is in answer to a question of the Corinthians about a woman whose husband was dead. Should she remarry? Paul gave the Christian law on this and laid down a restriction that she remarry only a Christian man, not a heathen. He then gave the advice that she would be happier if she remained single in view of the present conditions in the world for Christians (v 40. Cp. note q, v 27 and note b, v 29). Paul by no means contended for celibacy, but gave sound advice for the present distress will cause his edifice to come tumbling down and he will perish (v 11)

o Gr. apollumi, to destroy, perish, or be lost, as in Mt. 10:28, notes; Jn. 3:16; 6:12; 17:12; 2 Cor. 4:3; Mk. 8:35 p By causing a brother to be lost you sin against Christ and defeat the purpose of His sacrificial death

q Gr. upto, to strike or smite the heart (v 12); to beat (Lk. 12:45; 22:64; Acts 16:17; 21:32); and to smite (Mt. 24:49; 27:30; Mk. 15:19; Lk. 6:29; 18:13; 23:48; Acts 23:2-3)

r Gr. skandalizo, to cast a snare before one so as to destroy him (v 13; Rom. 14:21; 2 Cor. 11:29; Mt. 5:29-30; 18:6-9)

Art thou [a]loosed from a wife? seek not a wife.

28 But and if thou marry, thou hast not sinned; and if a virgin marry, she hath not sinned. Nevertheless such shall have trouble in the flesh: but I spare you.

7 Advice to married Christians

★29 But this I say, brethren, the [b]time is short: it remaineth, that both they that have wives be as though they had none;●

●30 And they that weep, as though they wept not; and they that rejoice, as though they rejoiced not; and they that buy, as though they possessed not;

●31 And they that use this world, as not abusing it: for the fashion of this world passeth away.

8 Contrasting responsibilities of the married and unmarried

32 But I would have you without carefulness. [c]He that is unmarried careth for the things that belong to the Lord, how he may please the Lord:

33 But [d]he that is married careth for the things that are of the world, how he may please his wife.

34 There is difference also between a wife and a virgin. The unmarried woman careth for the things of the Lord, that she may be [e]holy both in body and in spirit: but she that is married careth for the things of the world, how she may please her husband.

35 And this I speak for your own profit; not that I may cast a snare upon you, but for that which is comely, and that ye may attend upon the Lord without distraction.

9 Advice to parents concerning virgins of marriageable age

●36 But if any man think that he behaveth himself [f]uncomely toward [g]his virgin, [h]if she pass the flower of her age, [i]and need so require, [j]let him do what he will, he sinneth not: let them marry.

37 [k]Nevertheless he that standeth stedfast in his heart, having no necessity, but hath power over his own will, and hath so decreed in his heart that he will keep his virgin, doeth well.

38 [l]So then he that giveth her in marriage doeth well; but he that giveth her not in marriage doeth better.

10 Advice to Christian widows

●39 The [m]wife is bound by the law as long as her husband liveth; but if her husband be dead, she is at liberty to be married to whom she will; only in the Lord.

40 But she is happier if she so abide, after my judgment: and I think also that I have the Spirit of God.

CHAPTER 8 141

V Christian liberties (10:23-33; Rom. 14:1-15:7). 1 Effects of knowledge and love

NOW as touching things offered unto idols, [b]we know that we all have knowledge. [c]Knowledge [d]puffeth up, but charity edifieth.

2 [e]And if any man think that he knoweth any thing, he knoweth nothing yet as he ought to know.

3 But if any man love God, the same is known of him.

2 Many idol gods but only one true God (Eph. 4:4-6)

4 [f]As concerning therefore the eating of those things that are offered in sacrifice unto idols, we know that an idol is nothing in the world, and that there is none other God but one.

5 For though there be that are called gods, [h]whether in heaven or in earth, (as there be gods many, and lords many,)

3 God the Father and Jesus Christ two separate persons (11:3; 1 Jn. 5:7; Gen. 1:26, note)

6 But to us there is but [i]one God, the Father, of whom are all things, and we in him; and one Lord Je'sus Christ, by whom are all things, and we by him.

4 Ignorance creates bondage and lack of Christian liberty (Rom. 14:1-23)

7 Howbeit there is not in every man that knowledge: for some with [j]conscience of the idol unto this hour eat it as a thing offered unto an idol; and their conscience being weak is defiled.

8 But meat commendeth us not to God: for neither, if we eat, are we the better; neither, if we eat not, are we the worse.

5 Wrong use of Christian liberty and its result (10:23)

●9 But [l]take heed lest by any means this liberty of yours become a stumblingblock to them that are weak.

10 [m]For if any man see thee which hast knowledge sit at meat in the idol's temple, shall not the conscience of him which is weak be [n]emboldened to eat those things which are offered to idols;

11 And through thy knowledge shall the weak brother [o]perish, for whom Christ died?

12 [p]But when ye sin so against the brethren, and [q]wound their weak conscience, ye sin against Christ.

13 Wherefore, if meat make my brother to [r]offend, I will eat no flesh while the world standeth, lest I make my brother to offend.

CHAPTER 9 142

a Idolatry was the next question the Corinthians asked advice about from Paul. See 13 main arguments of Paul, p. 175

b The idea here is that we who are converted to Christianity have sufficient knowledge concerning idols and idol worship. We also know that we are not bound by Jewish rites and ceremonies, but some may carry their knowledge and liberty too far and do that which is not best for the cause of Christ

c The Corinthians were puffed up by their knowledge and liberty in Christ and condemned others. It made them bold, rash, and careless regarding the consciences of others not enlightened

d See note r, 4:6

e Love builds up. It has no quality to puff up or tear down as does knowledge. It can only be constructive since it is of God (1 Cor. 13)

f The person who acts in a rash, proud way knows nothing as he ought to know. If he torments his brother's weak and tender conscience with his food and conduct he does not love God or his brother as he should (Mt. 22:36-40).

g Two schools, the Karaites and Traditionists, caused controversy in the early church. The Karaites held to the letter of the Jewish law, teaching that it was unlawful to receive any benefit from heathen worship or from anything that had been offered to an idol. It was unlawful to buy or sell an idol or meats offered to idols. The Traditionists maintained that they could use such meat provided that the sign of the idol was not stamped upon it. A sign could be placed upon the animal before it was sacrificed to the idol, such as guilded horns and hoofs, garlands, etc. When it was killed and sold in the shop such marks could not be seen so the Karaites had scruples about all meat not knowing what had been sacrificed to idols or killed for common use. Those who had knowledge that idols and meats offered to them meant nothing, had no scruple against buying and using such meat

h Not only images, but the sun, moon, planets, stars, oceans, rivers, trees, and all other things in creation were used as gods by the heathen

i Here is another indisputable reference to the fact that God the Father is one person and Jesus Christ the Son of the Father is another person. This no more excludes Jesus from the Godhead than it excludes the Father from Lordship. Both are God and Lord (Jn. 1:1; 1 Jn. 5:7)

j Some Jews held to certain rites of the law and some Gentiles held to certain heathen rites when they accepted Christianity. All these differences had to be dealt with and true knowledge gained before perfect harmony between converts could be maintained. Hence, the sound advice in 1 Cor. 8:1-13; 10:16-33; Col. 2:14-17; Rom. 14:1-15:3

k Gr. suneideseis, conviction or being conscious of a custom. Some had done this all their lives and still regarded sacrifices to idols as real acts of worship, not having true knowledge that idols were nothing. For such to take part in eating meat offered to an idol was to defile the conscience

l Take heed that you do not attend such feasts to idols even though convinced that an idol is nothing. This liberty may cause another to stumble who still believes that idols are something and very real. He does not have your knowledge so he will commit sin if he follows your example (v 9-13)

m Question 45. Next, 9:1. The Gr. word for weak is asthenes. Trans. without strength (Rom. 5:6) weak (Mt. 26:41; Mk. 14:38; 1 Cor. 1:27; 4:10; 8:7, 10; 9:22; 11:30; 2 Cor. 10:10; Gal. 4:9; 1 Th. 5:14; 1 Pet. 3:7); weakness (1 Cor. 1:25; Heb. 7:18); feeble (1 Cor. 12:22); impotent (Acts 4:9); and sick (Mt. 25:39, 43, 44; Lk. 10:9; Acts 5:15-16). Here it means weak in the faith, not diseased, as in many other places n Gr. oikodomeo, to build up, as in v 1. Such an example will build up the weak brother to follow the practice of the strong, whereas the act of liberty

a Questions 46-49. Next, v 4. There were some in Corinth who questioned Paul's apostleship (v 1-3)

b 9 arguments proving Paul's apostleship:
1 His claim of being an apostle (v 1)
2 His claim to freedom from all secular and religious bondage, enabling him to be completely devoted to the apostleship (v 1)
3 His claim of seeing Jesus (v 1; 15:8)
4 The very existence of the Corinthian church and their conversion from heathenism proved his apostleship (v 1-2; Acts 18)
5 His consecration to abnormal human living so as to preach (v 3-6)
6 His unselfish devotion to the apostleship without pay (v 7-15)
7 His divine obligation to fulfill his call to the apostleship (v 16-18)
8 His devoted service to all men to win them to the gospel (v 19-23)
9 His qualifications for the apostleship and the Christian race (v 24-27)

c Gr. sphragis, seal. It was a figure cut in stone and set in a ring by which letters of authority were stamped. Greeks excelled in this kind of engraving. Paul used this figure to express the fact that their own conversion was proof of his apostolic authority

d Questions 50-57. Next, v 9. Have we not power to eat and drink at the expense of the church we have founded? If others receive your support, are we not worthy also of support? We have not used this right as others (v 12-15)

e Have we not the same right to be married as Peter, the Lord's brethren, and the other apostles? We have consecrated to live continent for your sakes and yet we are criticized by you (v 3-6). This is decisive proof against celibacy of the clergy and the papal doctrine of having holy women minister to the needs of celibate ministers. Had the apostles permitted young women or wives of others to accompany them as personal servants instead of their own wives it would have produced continuous scandal

f Are we the only apostles that have no right to be supported by the church?
4 things are clear here:
1 Barnabas adopted Paul's method of supporting himself. Cp. Acts 4:36-37
2 Apostles in general were supported by the churches, not by secular labor
3 Paul and Barnabas had a trade by which they could support themselves
4 They chose to support themselves in certain places so as not to hinder the founding of a church (v 12-15)

g Gr. opsonion, soldier's rations. Trans. wages (Lk. 3:14; Rom. 6:23; 2 Cor. 11:8) The answer to all these questions of v 7-8 are self-evident

h Quoted from Dt. 25:4. Cp. 1 Tim. 5:18

i Questions 58-63. Next, v 18

j That everyone should be a partaker of his own labours (v 7-11)

k Gr. pneumatikos, 12:1; Rom. 7:14, note

l Gr. sarkikos, note h, Rom. 7:14

m This is Paul's explanation why he supported himself at Corinth n The officers of the temple had a right to support when they gave their time in the temple service. They were of two classes: those who ministered in holy things and those who waited on the altar (v 13). This was ordained of God, and so it is ordained of God that gospel ministers should be supported by those who receive the gospel (v 11-15; Gal. 6:6; Heb. 7:1-11; Lk. 10:7; Mt. 10:10)

q Gr. hupo, denotes the under side of anything and is in contrast with huper, above or over anything. Israelites were completely overwhelmed by the cloud and the Divine Presence. This is called a baptism in the cloud (v 2)

r Gr. dia, a passing through. Israel's experience is called a baptism in the sea (v 2). The baptism was in the cloud and in the sea in the same sense of baptism in water and in the Holy Ghost (Mt. 3:11). See 7 baptisms, Mt. 3:6

s Gr. pneumatikos, note g, Rom. 7:14

t Ps. 78:24-25; Jn. 6:31, 33, 48; Ex. 16

u This refers to the waters from the smitten rock (Ex. 17:6; Num. 20:11; Ps. 78:15). This was typical of Christ (v 4)

v There is no word in the Gr. for them here. The meaning is that the miracle of the smitten rock followed the miracle of manna from heaven (Ex. 16-17)

VI Criticism of Paul answered (9:1-27). 1 Defends his apostleship (2 Cor. 11)

AM I not an[b] apostle? am I not free? have I not seen Je'sus Christ our Lord? are not ye my work in the Lord?

2 If I be not an apostle unto others, yet doubtless I am to you: for the [c]seal of mine apostleship are ye in the Lord.

2 Paul claims the right to live a normal life like others

3 Mine answer to them that do examine me is this,

4 [d]Have we not power to eat and to drink?

5 [e]Have we not power to lead about a sister, a wife, as well as other apostles, and as the brethren of the Lord, and Çe'phas?

6 Or I only and /Bär'na-bas, have not we power to forbear working?

7 Who goeth a warfare any time at his own[g] charges? who planteth a vineyard, and eateth not of the fruit thereof? or who feedeth a flock, and eateth not of the milk of the flock?

8 Say I these things as a man? or saith not the law the same also?

3 Paul claims the right to live of the gospel like others

●9 For it is written in the law of -Mō'ses, [h]Thou shalt not muzzle the mouth of the ox that treadeth out the corn. [i]Doth God take care for oxen?

10 Or saith he it altogether for our sakes? For our sakes, no doubt, this is written: /that he that ploweth should plow in hope; and that he that thresheth in hope should be partaker of his hope.

11 If we have sown unto you [k]spiritual things, is it a great thing if we shall reap your [l]carnal things?

4 Paul claims the divine right of support from the gospel but he did not exercise this right

12 If others be partakers of this power over you, are not we rather? [m]Nevertheless we have not used this power; but suffer all things lest we should hinder the gospel of Christ.

13 Do ye not know that [n]they which minister about holy things live of the things of the temple? and they which wait at the altar are partakers with the altar?

14 Even so hath the Lord ordained that they which preach the gospel should live of the gospel.

15 But I have used none of these things: neither have I written these things, that it should be so done unto me: for it were better for me to die, than that any man should make my glorying void.

5 Paul was under divine obligation to preach the gospel

16 For though I preach the gospel,[o] I have nothing to glory of: for necessity is laid upon me; yea, woe is unto me, if I preach not the gospel!

17 [p]For if I do this thing willingly, I have a reward: but if against my will, [q]a dispensation of the gospel is committed unto me.

18 [d]What is my reward then? Verily that, when I preach the gospel, I may make the gospel of Christ without charge, that I abuse not my power in the gospel.

6 Paul's policy in service

19 [r]For though I be free from all men, yet have I made myself servant unto all, that I might gain the more.

20 And unto the Jews [f]I became as a Jew, that I might gain the Jews; to them that are under the law, as under the law, that I might gain them that are under the law;

21 [g]To them that are without law, as without law, (being not without law to God, but under the law to Christ,) that I might gain them that are without law;

22 [h]To the weak became I as weak, that I might gain the weak: [i]I am made all things to all men, that I might by all means save some.

23 And this I do for the gospel's sake, that I might be partaker thereof with you.

7 Conditions of final reward

●24 /Know ye not that they which run in a race run all, but one receiveth the prize? [k]So run, that ye may obtain.

25 And every man that striveth for the mastery is temperate in all things. Now they do it to obtain a/corruptible crown; but we an incorruptible.

26 [m]I therefore so run, not as uncertainly; so fight I, not as one that beateth the air:

27 But I[n] keep under my body, and bring it into subjection: lest that by any means, when I have preached to others, I myself should be a[o]castaway.

143 CHAPTER 10

VII Two dispensations contrasted (10:1-33). 1 The Dispensation of Law: (1) Five blessings of Israel typical

MOREOVER, brethren, I would not that ye should be[p] ignorant, how that all our fathers were [q]under the cloud, and all passed [r]through the sea;

2 And were all baptized unto Mō'ses in the cloud and in the sea;

3 And did all eat the same [s]spiritual meat;

4 And did all drink the same spiritual drink: [t]for they drank of that spiritual Rock that followed [u]them: and that Rock was Christ.

(2) Five curses of Israel exemplary to Christians

5 But with many of them God a I have cause for glorying since I preach the gospel without charge (v 15)

b If I willingly co-operate with God I have a reward (v 25). If I fulfill my office by doing only my required duty, I have nothing to glory about. If I fulfill the office beyond the requirement of duty, I can claim special reward (v 17)

c Gr. oikonomia, an administration; stewardship; the work of an oikonomos or steward (v 17; Lk. 16:2-4; Eph. 1:10; 3:2; Col. 1:25; note a, Eph. 1:10)

d Question 64. Next, v 24

e I live free from all obligations to men, yet I serve every man as if I were his personal slave (v 19). I do this to gain him

f Acts 16:3; 21:26

g I do not hold myself aloof from them, but live like them in order to gain them (Gal. 1:16; 2:2-21)

h Those who had scruples and were weak in the faith I did not cause to stumble by doing things which would violate their weak conscience (Rom. 14:1-15:3; 1 Cor. 8:1-13; 10:16-33)

i I did everything in my power to be like those I tried to win, except to enter into sin with them (v 22-23)

j Question 65. Next, 10:16

k 4 things one must do to be saved:
1 Be as earnest to make heaven as men are to win a race (v 24; Heb. 12:1-3; Gal. 2:2; 5:7; Phil. 2:16; 3:14)
2 Be temperate in all things (v 25; 2 Pet. 1:4-10). This refers to the months of severe training before a contest of wrestling or fighting with an opponent
3 Fight with absolute confidence in victory (v 26; 4:9; 15:32; 1 Tim. 6:12; 2 Tim. 4:7). Fighting was done by leather bands on the hands studded with pieces of metal
4 Keep the body under and bring it into subjection (v 27; Rom. 6:14-23; 8:12-13; 12:1-2; 1 Cor. 3:16-17)

l Crowns were made of wild olive branches for the Olympic games; laurel for the Pythian games; parsley for the Nemean games; and pine for the Ishmian games. All were so corruptible that they began to wither the moment they were made. What a contrast to the incorruptible crown to be given to Christians (v 25)

m Paul here claims to be running the race to win, and fighting the fight for the knockout blow n Gr. hupopiazo, to strike one under the eye; to beat black and blue (v 27; Lk. 18:5). This is Paul's explanation of how he was boxing. Figuratively speaking, he was not shadow boxing, but beating his body black and blue to bring it into slavery lest he should become a castaway (v 26-27). He considered his body an enemy with which he must contend in mortal combat to keep it under control by self-denial, abstinence, and severe mortification (Rom. 8:12-13; Col. 3:5-10). He acted to keep the body as a slave to the soul, not permitting the soul to be the slave of the body. He did this constantly lest after he had preached to others he would become a castaway

o Gr. adokimos. It is trans. reprobate (Rom. 1:28; 2 Cor. 13:5, 6, 7; 2 Tim. 3:8; Tit. 1:16); rejected (Heb. 6:8); and castaway (1 Cor. 9:27). It does not mean a "cracked pot," fit to keep, as some teach, but to become Christless and literally rejected p It seems that many Corinthians supposed they were secure in their salvation because they had repented, were baptized, and had partaken of Christian ordinances. According to them nothing they did could cut them off from Christ - they could partake of idolatrous feasts and still be saved (1 Cor. 8:4-13; 10:16-33). This is why Paul made the plain statement of note o, above. He now shows them that Israel also had sacramental ordinances in the wilderness similar to those of Christians; and that, regardless of their typical baptism (v 2), their typical eucharist (v 3), their eating of manna and drinking of that spiritual Rock - Christ (v 4), when they joined with idolaters and partook of idolatrous feasts, going into sin, that God cut them off and destroyed them (v 5-11). He then warns Christians that God will also cut them off from Christ if they sin (v 11-14; 6:9-11; Gal. 5:19-21; Rom. 8:12-13; Heb. 3:

b 6 "bad" examples in Scripture:
1 Canaanites (Lev. 18:2–3; 20:23)
2 Backslidden Israel (2 Chr. 30:7; Isa. 5:11; Jer. 16:12; 17:1–2; Ezek. 20:18; Hos. 4:9; Zech. 1:4)
3 An angry man (Pr. 22:24–25)
4 Pharisees (Mt. 23:1–3)
5 Gentiles (Eph. 4:17)
6 Israel in the wilderness (v 6–11)
c Gr. tupos, types. Same word as examples (v 11). See note c, Phil. 3:17. The punishments inflicted upon Israel will be inflicted upon Christians if they backslide and sin after the example of Israel (Rom. 2:11–16; Heb. 4:1–11; 10:26–29) 5 major sins of Israel:
1 Lust for evil things (v 6; Num. 11:4–15; Ps. 106:14. Cp. Gal. 5:19–21; 1 Cor. 6:9–11; Rom. 1:29–32; Col. 3:5–10; Mk. 7:19–21)
2 Idolatry (v 7; Ex. 32:6–25. Cp. Gal. 5:19–21; Eph. 5:5; Col. 3:5; 1 Cor. 6:9)
3 Fornication (v 8; Num. 25:1–9. Cp. Gal. 5:19–21; 1 Cor. 6:9–11; Col. 3:5)
4 Tempting God and Christ (v 9; Ex. 17:2, 7; Num. 14:22; 21:4–10; Dt. 6:16; Ps. 78:17–18, 41, 56; 95:8–9; 106:14)
5 Murmuring (v 10; Ex. 15:24; 16:2–12; 17:3; Num. 14:2, 27–29, 36; 16:11, 41; 17:5, 10; Dt. 1:27. Cp. Phil. 2:14)

e Quoted from Ex. 32:6
f 24,000, including the many leaders whose heads were hung up before the Lord and 23,000 who died in the plague (Num. 25:1–9)
g Some texts read, Lord. Even if Christ is to be understood it would be in harmony with the fact that He is also called Jehovah in the O. T. (Gen. 19:24). The Divine Trinity was working together to lead Israel out of Egypt, so the person we now know as Jesus Christ existed then (Mic. 5:2; Jn. 1:1–2; Heb. 1:8; Rev. 1:8–11)
h 8 of the many ways to tempt God:
1 Murmuring (Ex. 17:2; note c, 5, above)
2 Unbelief (Ex. 17:7; Heb. 4:1–11)
3 Rebellion (Num. 14:22; 21:1–9)
4 Provoking God (Ps. 78:17–18, 56)
5 Backsliding (Ps. 78:41, 56)
6 Hardening the heart (Ps. 95:8–9)
7 Lust and sin (Ps. 106:14; Ex. 32)
8 Idolatry (v 18–22; note c, 2, above)
i See Num. 21:5–9; Jn. 3:14
j See note c, 5, above
k The plagues in the wilderness were no doubt caused by a destroying angel as in Ex. 12; 2 Sam. 24:16; Isa. 37:36
l There is no need of these things being written for our warning if we cannot be cut off from God and be lost like the Israelites in these examples. They could not be referring to sinning sinners only and not to sinning saints
m Gr. nouthesia, warning (v 11; Eph. 6:4; Tit. 3:10) n The examples of Israel at the beginning of the Mosaic ages are for you upon whom the end of those ages has come. Or, they are for you that have come to the closing ages
o This verse concludes the warning against backsliding and following the examples of Israel of v 1–12 p This verse gives assurance of the eternal keeping of God in all temptations and His help in every one of them, providing we obey the warnings of v 1–12. No man can be kept from a fall if he persistently refuses to meet conditions. Our standing depends upon our faith and union with God and steadfastness in prayer. The greatest saint can stand only as long as he depends upon God and continues in obedience to the gospel (Gen. 2:17; 3:1–19; Dt. 8:11–18; Pr. 1:10–17; 2:10–16; 4:14–15; 5:6–21; 6:27–28; 7:7–23; 9:16–17; 12:26; 14:27; 16:29; 19:27; 28:10; Isa. 33:15–16; Mt. 13:22; Lk. 8:13; Rom. 6:12–23; 8:12–13; 12:21; 14:13–21; 1 Cor. 7:5; 8:9–13; 10:1–12; 2 Cor. 2:11; 11:3; Gal. 5:16–26; Eph. 4:27; 6:10–18; 1 Tim. 5:15; 6:9–17; Heb. 3:6, 12–14; 6:4–11; 10:26–38; Jas. 1:2–16; 4:7; 2 Pet. 2:9, 20–22; 3:17; 1 Jn. 2:15–17). Any man who rejects these conditions of living right will someday see that he cannot escape death and eternal punishment
q Gal. 5:20; Col. 3:5; 1 Pet. 4:3
r Since you are wise, you can see the necessity of refraining from idolatry.

was not well pleased: for they were [e]overthrown in the wilderness.

●6 Now these things were [a]our [c]examples, to the intent we should not lust after evil things, [d]as they also lusted.

●7 Neither be ye idolaters, as were some of them; as it is written, [e]The people sat down to eat and drink, and rose up to play.

●8 Neither let us commit fornication, as some of them committed, and [f]fell in one day three and twenty thousand.

●9 Neither let us tempt [g]Christ, as some of them also [h]tempted, [f]and were destroyed of serpents.

●10 Neither murmur ye, [f]as some of them also murmured, and were destroyed of [k]the destroyer.

11 Now all these things happened unto them for ensamples: and they are written [l]for [m]our admonition, [n]upon whom the ends of the world are come.

2 The Dispensation of Grace:
(1) Warning to Christians against pride and idolatry

●12 [o]Wherefore let him that thinketh he standeth take heed lest he fall.

▸13 [p]There hath no temptation taken you but such as is common to man: but God is faithful, who will not suffer you to be tempted above that ye are able; but will with the temptation also make a way to escape, that ye may be able to bear it.

●14 Wherefore, my dearly beloved, [q]flee from idolatry.

(2) The three fellowships:
A Fellowship of the church

15 I speak as to [r]wise men; judge ye what I say.

16 [r]The cup of blessing which we bless, is it not the communion of the blood of Christ? The bread which we break, is it not the communion of the body of Christ?

17 [r]For we being many are one bread, and one body: for we are all partakers of that one bread.

B Fellowship of Israel

18 Behold Is'ra-el after the flesh: [u]are not they which eat of the sacrifices partakers of the altar?

19 What say I then? that the idol is any thing, or that which is offered in sacrifice to idols is any thing?

C Fellowship of the Gentiles

20 But I say, that [v]the things which the Gen'tiles sacrifice, they sacrifice to devils, and not to God: and I would not that ye should have fellowship with devils.

(3) Warning to Christians not to provoke God to jealousy

21 Ye cannot drink the cup of the Lord, and the cup of devils: ye [e]cannot be partakers of the Lord's table, and of the table of devils.

22 [b]Do we provoke the Lord to jealously? are we stronger than he?

(4) Christian liberties not always wise or edifying (Rom. 14:1–23; 1 Cor. 8)

23 [e]All things are lawful for me, but all things are not expedient: all things are lawful for me, but all things edify not.

●24 [d]Let no man seek his own, but every man another's wealth.

(5) Christian and pagan meats sold in butcher shops

●25 Whatsoever is sold in the [e]shambles, that eat, [f]asking no question for [e]conscience sake:

26 [h]For the earth is the Lord's, and the fulness thereof.

(6) The Christian, pagan feasts, and the pagan conscience

●27 [f]If any of them that believe not bid you to a feast, and ye be disposed to go; whatsoever is set before you, eat, asking no question for conscience sake.

●28 [f]But if any man say unto you, This is offered in sacrifice unto idols, eat not for his sake that shewed it, and for conscience sake: for the earth is the Lord's, and the fulness thereof:

29 Conscience, I say, not thine own, but of the other: [k]for why is my liberty judged of another man's conscience?

30 [f]For if I by grace be a partaker, why am I evil spoken of for that for which I give thanks?

(7) Chief end of Christian liberties before others (Rom. 14:13–15:3; 1 Cor. 8:9–13)

●31 [m]Whether therefore ye eat, or drink, or whatsoever ye do, do all to the glory of God.

●32 Give none offence, neither to the Jews, nor to the Gen'tiles, nor to the church of God:

33 Even as I please all men in all things, not seeking mine own profit, but the profit of many, that they may be saved.

CHAPTER 11 144

VIII Christian ordinances (1 Cor. 11:1–34). 1 Admonition to follow Paul and keep the ordinances

BE ye [e]followers of me, even as I also am of Christ.

2 Now [l]I praise you, brethren, that ye remember me in all things, and [p]keep the [q]ordinances, as I delivered them to you.

2 The divine order in the moral government of the universe

3 But I would have you know, that [r]the head of every man is a 2 things we must not do:

1 Drink of the two cups (v 21)
2 Eat at the two tables (v 21)
b Questions 71–72. Next, v 29. God is provoked to jealousy by the sins of note h, v 9. When His people, whom He commands to have no other gods, insist on mixing idolatry and demon worship with true worship, as some of the Corinthians did, then God is under obligation to judge them (8:4–13; 10:1–22)
c All foods are lawful, but all are not profitable and edifying to others, so I will not partake of them lest others stumble and be lost (v 23–33; 8:4–13; Rom. 14–15; Col. 2:14–17; 1 Tim. 4) d Let no man seek to gratify his own appetites at the expense of another soul e Gr. makellon, slaughter-house; market f Do not ask questions as to whether anything was offered in sacrifice to idols (v 25–28; 8:7–13). Do not act as Jews do, torturing themselves and others with questions. Was it offered to idols? Who killed it? Was it strangled or was it properly bled? Is it beef or pork?
g See note k, 8:7
h All creatures on earth are the Lord's and nothing is impure or unholy in itself. All are fit for food and were created to be received with thanksgiving of them that believe and know the truth (1 Tim. 4:1–8; Rom. 14:14, 17, 20; Tit. 1:15). The only problem is that of causing others to stumble (Rom. 14:1–15:3; 1 Cor. 8:4–13; 10:23–33)
i If any man invites you to a common meal, you are free to go. If it is an idol festival you cannot go (v 18–28; 8:4–13)
j You are free to eat any meat at any man's table unless he informs you that it is a sacrifice to idols. In this case, you have to refrain for the sake of the one who invited you (v 28–29). You are to let it be known that you have no part as a Christian with any traffic with idols and demons (v 20–22)
k Questions 73–74. Next, 11:13
l It would still be lawful for you to eat of meat sacrificed to idols, as an idol is nothing, but if it is so sacrificed then it must be recognized that it is in honor of devils and for this reason you have to refuse to partake (v 20–22). You would be a stumblingblock to a weak brother or a heathen who perhaps knows the stand of Christianity on the question. If you are not true to your own religion and convictions, how can you win the other man to Christ?
m 10 rules of Christian diplomacy:
1 Eat for the glory of God (v 31)
2 Drink for the glory of God (v 31)
3 Do all things for God's glory (v 31)
4 Give no offence to Jews (v 32)
5 Give no offence to Gentiles (v 32)
6 Give no offence to brethren (v 32)
7 Seek to please all men (v 33)
8 Seek to please men in all things
9 Do not seek personal profit, but seek the profit of others (v 33; 9:19–23)
10 Above all, do all things with the view of saving the souls of men (v 33)
n Gr. mimetes, imitators, note p, 4:16
o Gr. epaineo, commend (Lk. 16:8); laud (Rom. 15:11), and praise (v 2, 17, 22)
p Gr. katecho, hold fast (1 Th. 5:21; Heb. 3:6, 14; 10:23) q Gr. paradosis, a handing down; doctrines; traditions (Mt. 15:2–6; Mk. 7:3–13; Gal. 1:14; Col. 2:8; 2 Th. 2:15; 3:6). Trans. ordinances only here. What ordinances he refers to are not listed, but they no doubt include the whole body of truth of the gospel and not only the Lord's Supper and water baptism r 3 headships in v 3:
1 God is head of Christ
2 Christ is head of man
3 Man is head of woman – husband is the head of the wife s Questions 66–67. Next, v 18. This refers to the Lord's Supper (11:23–29)

t All believers who partake of Christ and the holy communion are one religious body in Christ and form the church, the body of Christ (1 Cor. 12:13; Col. 1:18, 24; Eph. 1:20–23; 2:19–22; 4:1–8)
u Questions 68–70. Next, v 22
v The fact that sacrifices to idols are really sacrifices to devils is sufficient to condemn all traffic with idols even though they are nothing in themselves (v 18–20). Those who partake of idol worship have fellowship with devils, and those who partake of Christ cannot fellowship idols or devils (v 21)

a God and Christ are two separate and distinct persons (v 3; 1 Tim. 2:5) b Every man praying or prophesying with a cap or turban on his head, dishonoreth his head, Christ (v 3). This was in direct contrast to the canons of the Jews which did not permit a man to pray or prophesy unless veiled. Their idea was that man is unworthy to have an open face before God c Gr. kataischuno. Trans. shame (Lk. 13:17; Rom. 5:5; 9:33; 10:11; 1 Cor. 11:22; 2 Cor. 7:14; 9:4; 1 Pet. 3:16); confound (1 Cor. 1:27; 1 Pet. 2:6); and dishonor (1 Cor. 11:4-5). Christianity is an open-faced religion and nothing is to be done in secret or under a cover
d Women were to remain under their customary veils when praying or prophesying

10 reasons women were to be veiled:
1 It had been a custom for ages for women to be veiled (Gen. 24:65; 38:14, 19; Ruth 3:15; Isa. 3:23; Cant. 5:7)
2 It was a Jewish law that no woman be seen in public unveiled
3 Among Greeks, Romans, and other nations it was also a custom
4 Only public prostitutes in the East went without veils, hence to pray or prophesy without a veil would be identifying Christianity with harlotry
5 If a woman appeared in public without a veil she would disgrace her head - the husband (v 3). It would be the same as women who had hair shorn off as punishment for whoredom and adultery (v 5-6; Num. 5:18)
6 The man was not to wear a veil because he was the image and glory of God. The woman needed one because she was the glory of the man being created for him (v 7-9)
7 The woman needed to wear her veil on her head as a sign of the husband's power over her, thus setting an example of humility and submission to her head - the husband. She would thus be a lesson to angels to submit to God (v 10; 4:9; Eph. 3:10-11; Eccl. 5:6; 1 Tim. 5:21)
8 The woman needed to co-operate fully with the husband and keep the customs as being equally blessed of God (v 11-12; 1 Tim. 2:9; 1 Pet. 3:1-7)
9 It was becoming to a woman in that day to be veiled and not common for a Christian woman to pray or prophesy unveiled. That would make her like the heathen priestesses who prayed and delivered the oracles bareheaded or with dishevelled hair
10 It was natural for women to have long hair thus indicating they should be veiled

e This is proof that women did pray and preach in the church (v 5; 14:3, 23-25, 31; Acts 2:16-21; 21:9; Joel 2:28-32)
f Gr. akatakaluptos, unveiled (v 5, 13)
g Gr. katakalupto, veiled (v 6, 7)
h Questions 75-76. Next, v 22
i Gr. peribolaion, something thrown around anyone (Heb. 1:12). The long hair of a woman is given her for a mantle, veil, or covering. That is, long hair can be used as a veil if she insists on her new freedom of deliverance from old customs of always wearing a veil j It appears that some Corinthian women claimed for their sex equality with the men on the basis that there is no difference in benefits in Christ (Gal. 3:28; Col. 3:11). They overstepped their authority in coming forward to pray and prophesy unveiled. This is what the apostle disapproves in v 1-16. He sums up his argument here by stating that if any man sets himself up as a wrangler or a defender of such new freedom for the women, then a woman may pray or prophesy with uncovered head and a man may have long hair if each one wants to bear the reproach and shame of such action. Paul makes it plain that there is no set law or custom governing such in the churches of God (v 16) k 7 disorders in the church (v 17-34):
1 Divisions (v 18)
2 Heresies (v 19; note e, Acts 5:17)
3 Selfishness (v 21)
4 Misuse of the church (v 22)
5 Shaming the poor (v 22)
6 Partaking unworthily of the Lord's Supper with its benefits (v 27-30) 7 Failure to judge selves (v 31-34)
l See note e, Acts 5:17

Christ; and the head of the woman is the man; and [c]the head of Christ is God.

3 Regulations for men and women in public services (14:1-40)

4 [d]Every man praying or prophesying, having his head covered, [e]dishonoureth his head.
5 [d]But every woman that prayeth or [e]prophesieth with her head [f]uncovered dishonoureth her head: for that is even all one as if she were shaven.
6 For if the woman be not [g]covered, let her also be shorn: but if it be a shame for a woman to be shorn or shaven, let her be covered.
7 For a man indeed ought not to cover his head, forasmuch as he is the image and glory of God: but the woman is the glory of the man.
8 For the man is not of the woman; but the woman of the man.
9 Neither was the man created for the woman; but the woman for the man.
10 For this cause ought the woman to have power on her head because of the angels.
11 Nevertheless neither is the man without the woman, neither the woman without the man, in the Lord.
12 For as the woman is of the man, even so is the man also by the woman; but all things of God.

4 Nature's teaching stated

13 Judge in yourselves: [h]is it comely that a woman pray unto God uncovered?
14 Doth not even nature itself teach you, that, if a man have long hair, it is a shame unto him?
15 But if a woman have long hair, it is a glory to her: for her hair is given her for a [i]covering.

5 If such regulations cause division and strife they are null and void (14:12, 26, 40)

16 [j]But if any man seem to be contentious, we have no such custom, neither the churches of God.

6 Divisions and heresies commonly known in Corinth

17 Now in [k]this that I declare unto you I praise you not, that ye come together not for the better, but for the worse.
18 For first of all, when ye come together in the church, I hear that there be divisions among you; and I partly believe it.
19 For there must be also [l]heresies among you, that they which are approved may be made manifest among you.

7 Sins at the love feast rebuked (2 Pet. 2:13; Jude 12)

20 When ye come together therefore into one place, this is [m]not to eat the Lord's supper.
21 For in eating every one taketh before other his own supper: and one is hungry, and another is [b]drunken.
22 [c]What? have ye not houses to eat and to drink in? [d]or despise ye the church of God, and shame them that have not? What shall I say to you? shall I praise you in this? I praise you not.

8 The Lord's Supper received by revelation (Gal. 1:12; Eph. 3:3)

23 For [n]I have received of the Lord that which also I delivered unto you, That the Lord Je'sus the same night in which he was [o]betrayed took bread:
●24 And when he had given thanks, he brake it, and said, Take, eat: [p]this is my body, which is broken for you: [q]this do in remembrance of me.
●25 After the same manner also he took the cup, when he had supped, saying, [r]This cup is the new testament in my blood: this do ye, [s]as oft as ye drink it, in remembrance of me.
★26 [t]For as often as ye eat this bread, and drink this cup, ye do shew the Lord's death till he come.

9 Warning against taking the Lord's Supper unworthily

27 Wherefore whosoever shall eat this bread, and drink this cup of the Lord, [u]unworthily, shall be guilty of the body and blood of the Lord.
●28 [m]But let a man examine himself, and so let him eat of that bread, and drink of that cup.

10 Results of partaking of the Lord's Supper unworthily

29 For he that eateth and drinketh unworthily, eateth and drinketh damnation to himself, not [n]discerning the Lord's body.
30 [o]For this cause many are weak and sickly among you, and many sleep.

11 How to avoid chastening

▸31 [p]For if we would judge ourselves, we should not be judged.
32 But when we are judged, we are chastened of the Lord, that we should not be condemned with the world.

12 Final admonition concerning disorders at Corinth

●33 [q]Wherefore, my brethren, when ye come together to eat, tarry one for another.
●34 And if any man hunger, let him eat at home; that ye come not together unto condemnation. And the rest will I set in order when I come.

145 CHAPTER 12

IX Spiritual gifts (1 Cor. 1:7; 12:1-14:40; Rom. 1:11; 12:3-8; 15:18-29; Eph. 4:7-a This refers to the social meals of the early church, the love feasts (2 Pet. 2:13; Jude 12), followed by the Lord's Supper. According to the Greek custom each brought his own provisions. The rich would fare sumptuously while the poor had very little to eat (v 21)

b Gr. methuo, to be drunken; intoxicated (Mt. 24:49; Acts 2:15; 1 Cor. 11:21; 1 Th. 5:7; Rev. 17:2, 6; Jn. 2:10). That it means to be only full of food is not proved by any of these references
c Questions 77-81. Next, 12:15 d You make the church a place to be despised and shame the poor by your conduct. Instead of putting the food on a common table so all could partake as needed, the rich ate by themselves and the poor by themselves. The rich despised the poor and this led to the divisions and strife of v 18-19, and to the drunkenness and shame of v 21-22. These things disqualified them for the Lord's Supper and brought on the sickness and death (v 27-30) e This was by direct revelation from Jesus Christ to Paul (v 23-34; Gal. 2:2)
f Gr. paradidomi, delivered (v 2, 23; Jn. 18:30; Acts 3:13; Rom. 8:32)
g This is a symbol of My body. As this bread is broken, so My body will be marred and striped for you (Isa. 52:14; 53:4-5; 1 Pet. 2:24) h This is a memorial of Me until I come (v 24-26). After He comes it will be observed in the kingdom (Lk. 22:16, 18-20, 30; Mt. 26:29)
i This is a symbol of My blood, which is shed for many for the remission of sins (Mt. 26:28; Eph. 1:7; Col. 1:20; Acts 20:28; Rev. 1:5; 5:10; 1 Jn. 1:7). It symbolizes His blood that seals the new covenant which is based upon better promises (Heb. 8:6; 9:15-22)
j As oft - daily (Acts 2:46), weekly (Acts 20:7), or any time you do this you show forth the Lord's death till He comes again (v 25; Lk. 22:19) k 10th N. T. prophecy in 1 Cor. (11:26) Next, 13:8. This again emphasizes that the Lord's Supper can be taken at any time. Set laws in churches that it has to be taken every Sunday or only once a year are man-made and without scriptural authority l Gr. anaxios, irreverently; unworthy; unfit (v 27, 29). See 8 ways to partake unworthily, p. 190
m Each person should examine himself to see if he is in the faith and decide his fitness to partake of the Lord's Supper before he does so (v 28). It is better not to partake if one is not fit, and yet one should not feel that he is unfit if he knows he is born again and is walking as he should be in the gospel (1 Jn. 1:7; Col. 2:6-7; 3:5-10; Rom. 6:14-23; 8:1-13; Gal. 5:16-26) n Gr. diakrino, distinguish; come to decision; separate to holy purposes. Trans. make to differ (Acts 15:9; 1 Cor. 4:7; Jude 22); judge (1 Cor. 6:5; 11:31; 14:29); contend (Acts 11:2; Jude 9); be partial (Jas. 2:4); doubt (Mt. 21:21; Mk. 11:23; Acts 10:20; 11:12; Rom. 14:23); waver (Jas. 1:6); stagger (Rom. 4:20); and discern (Mt. 16:3; 1 Cor. 11:29). The idea here is really to decide one has faith in the death of Christ and lay hold of the benefits provided by it not turning to one side or the other o Note: It is the Lord's body one must discern. It is by His stripes we were and are healed (Isa. 53:4-5; Mt. 8:17; 1 Pet. 2:24). If one does not want to be sickly and die prematurely, then let him have faith in the healing which was provided by Christ as well as forgiveness and other blessings. Nothing will be impossible with such faith (Mt. 17:20; 21:22; Mk. 9:23; 11:22-24; Jn. 14:12-15; 15:7, 16; 16:23-26) p If we will thus judge ourselves and have faith in the work of Christ on the cross, we shall not have to suffer or go without the benefits provided for us. If we will not do this, then we shall have to reap what we sow. If we judge any sin committed, ask forgiveness, and put it away, then we are not chastened by God. If we refuse to judge ourselves, then He judges by chastening (v 31-32) q Let us have order at the Lord's Supper and in the house of God. Satisfy hunger at home, and do not come together in disorder and condemnation (v 33-34) a Gr. pneumatikos, note g, Rom. 7:14. Literally, things of the Spirit

b See note w, Rom. 1:13 c Previous to conversion you were carried away with passions into senseless worship of dumb idols designed to excite and gratify your animal appetites d It was a practice among Jews to call Jesus anathema, accursed - one so abominable as not fit to live on earth. It was an early practice among heathen persecutors to force believers to call Jesus accursed. No man speaking by the Holy Spirit will ever do so, and no man can call Jesus Lord but by the Spirit e Work of the Divine Trinity (v 4-6):
1 Spiritual gifts by the Holy Spirit
2 Administrations by Jesus Christ
3 Operations by God the Father
f 10 ministries of the Holy Spirit:
1 Glorifies Jesus (v 3; Jn. 16:13-14)
2 Inspires manifestations (v 7, 11)
3 Forms the body of Christ (v 13)
4 Energizes believers (v 13)
5 Imparts love (13:1-13; Rom. 5:5)
6 Speaks mysteries in tongues (12:10; 14:2, 13-19, 21-23, 26-28)
7 Interprets mysteries of tongues (12:10; 15:5, 13, 26-28)
8 Edifies by prophecy (14:3-31)
9 Edifies believers in tongues (v 4)
10 Gives gifts to believers (v 8-10; Rom. 12:6). See note s, 1 Tim. 4:14
g Gr. diakonion, services: ministries: offices. They are all by the same Lord Jesus Christ (v 5; Eph. 1:22; 4:11) h Gr. energema, workings or operations. Only used in v 6, 10. All of these are under the control of the same God who is head of all (v 5; 11:3; 15:28; Heb. 1:1)
i Gr. phanerosis, making visible. The visible manifestations would be the visible healings, miracles, manifest prophecies, tongues, interpretations, and even the giving forth of wisdom, knowledge, and discernments of various kinds j 21 facts and questions about the gifts:
1 Their names and number (v 8-10)
2 By whom imparted (v 4, 8-11)
3 Who operates them? (v 4-6, 11)

8 Were they manifest in O. T. days? Yes (note o, Acts 1:5; note p, Acts 2:4)
9 Can gifts be misused? Yes (Eccl. 2:9; Num. 20:7-13 with Dt. 32:48-52; 1 Cor. 13:1-3; 14:1-40)
10 Can gifts be exercised in a backslidden condition? Yes (Eccl. 2:9; 1 Cor. 13:1-3)

15 When should gifts be used? When needed (v 7; 14:3-6, 12, 17, 26; Rom. 12:3-8)
16 Where should gifts be used? Where needed (v 7, 12-31; 14:1-40)
17 How can they be received? By faith and prayer (v 31; 14:1; Mt. 7:7-11)
18 Do we need gifts today? Yes, for the same reason others of old needed them (Mk. 16:15-20; Jn. 10:10; Acts 1:8; 10:38; Rom. 1:11; 1 Cor. 1:7; 12:1-31)
19 Can we choose which gifts we need today? Yes (1 Cor. 12:31; 14:1, 12)
20 How can we know when we have received them? When the Spirit operates them through us to accomplish their intended purpose (v 4-11, 28-31; 14:1-40)
21 Are gifts to continue throughout this age? Yes (Mt. 3:11; 28:20; Mk. 9:23; 11:22-24; 16:15-20; Jn. 7:37-39; 14:12-17, 26; 15:26; 16:13-16; Acts 1:4-8; 2:38-39; 5:32; 1 Cor. 1:7; etc.)

16; 1 Tim. 4:14; 2 Tim. 1:6; Heb. 2:4; 1 Pet. 4:10-11)
l They glorify Jesus (Jn. 16:1-4)

NOW concerning [a]spiritual gifts, brethren, [b]I would not have you ignorant.

2 [c]Ye know that ye were Gĕn'tiles, carried away unto these dumb idols, even as ye were led.

3 Wherefore I give you to understand, that no man speaking by the Spirit of God calleth Jē'sus [d]accursed: and that no man can say that Jē'sus is the Lord, but by the Hō'lȳ Ghōst.

2 Diversities of the gifts (Rom. 12:3-8; Heb. 2:4; 1 Pet. 4:10)

4 [e]Now there are diversities of gifts, but the [f]same Spirit.

5 And there are differences of administrations, but the same Lord.

6 And there are diversities of [g]operations, but it is the same God which worketh all in all.

3 Purpose of the gifts (14:4-6, 12, 17, 24, 26, 31; Rom. 12:3)

7 But the [f]manifestation of the Spirit is given to every man to profit withal.

4 Number and kind of gifts (Rom. 12:3-8; Heb. 2:4; 1 Pet. 4:10-11)

▸8 For to one is [f]given by the Spirit [h]the word of wisdom; to another the word of knowledge by the same Spirit;

▸9 To another faith by the same Spirit; to another the gifts of healing by the same Spirit;

▸10 To another the working of miracles; to another prophecy; to another discerning of spirits; to another divers kinds of tongues; to another the interpretation of tongues:

5 How gifts are distributed (Rom. 1:11; 1 Tim. 4:14; 2 Tim. 1:6)

▸11 But all these worketh that one and the selfsame Spirit, dividing to every man severally as he will.

6 Many members but one body (10:17; Rom. 12:4-5; Eph. 4:4-6)

12 For as the body is one, and hath many members, and all the members of that one body, being many, are one body: [i]so also is Christ.

7 How the body is constituted (Jn. 3:5; Rom. 6:3-5; Gal. 3:26-27; Col. 2:11-17; 2 Cor. 5:14-21; 1 Jn. 1:9; 5:1-4)

▸13 For [m]by one Spirit are we all baptized into one body, whether we be [n]Jews or Gĕn'tiles, whether we be bond or free; and have been all made to [k]drink into one Spirit.

14 For the body is not one member, but many.

8 Members of the body are organically related (Eph. 2:19-22; 4:16; 5:30-33)

15 [b]If the foot shall say, Because I am not the hand, I am not of the body; is it therefore not of the body?

16 And if the ear shall say, Because I am not the eye, I am not of the body; is it therefore not of the body?

17 If the whole body were an eye, where were the hearing? If the whole were hearing, where were the smelling?

18 [c]But now hath God set the members every one of them in the body, as it hath [d]pleased him.

19 And if they were all one member, where were the body?

20 But now are they many members, yet but one body.

9 Members of the body are cooperatively related (1:10; 3:8-10; 2 Cor. 6:1-10; Eph. 4:3)

21 And the eye cannot say unto the hand, I have no need of thee: nor again the head to the feet, I have no need of you.

22 Nay, much more [e]those members of the body, which seem to be more feeble, are necessary:

23 And those members of the body, which [l]we think to be less honourable, upon these we bestow more abundant honour; and our [l]uncomely parts have more abundant comeliness.

10 Members of the body are sympathetically related (13:1-13; Eph. 4:31-32; 5:2; Phil. 2:1-4; 1 Pet. 3:8-13)

24 For our [k]comely parts have no need: [l]but God hath tempered the body together, having given more abundant honour to that part which lacked:

25 That there should be no schism in the body; but that the members should have the same care one for another.

26 And whether one member suffer, all the members suffer with it; or one member be honoured, all the members rejoice with it.

11 All Christians make the body of Christ but differ in function (Rom. 12:3-8; Eph. 4:7-16)

27 Now [i]ye are the body of Christ, and members in particular.

28 And God hath set some in the church, first [k]apostles, secondarily [l]prophets, thirdly [m]teachers, after that [n]miracles, then [o]gifts of healings, [p]helps, [q]governments, [r]diversities of tongues.

29 [s]Are all apostles? are all prophets? are all teachers? are a Drinking of the Spirit is the same as partaking of His power. One can partake of Him in sonship without being baptized in the Spirit (Rom. 8:15 with notes on Jn. 3:34; 7:37)

b Questions 82-86. Next, v 29. All these questions are self-answered. All of v 14-26 illustrates the fact that as the human body is one and has many members, so the body of Christ is one and has many members who have been born again and who live godly consecrated lives (v 27-28; Rom. 12:3-5; Gal. 3:28; Eph. 1:22-23; 2:19-22; 3:1-6; 4:1-13; Col. 1:18, 24). See note a, Acts 7:38
c The first of two times here (v 18, 28)
d If Christians would seek to please God in whatever part they are to have in the church or body of Christ there would be no confusion or strife about any office
e The apostle no doubt refers to the inward parts, as the heart, lungs, liver, kidneys, stomach, and other ungraceful parts of the body, which seem to us to be more delicate and feeble. Hence, these parts are not only covered, but are surrounded and protected by the outward parts upon which we openly bestow much honor. Upon the proper performance of these inward parts life itself depends (v 22)
f Those members of the body which we think are not so honorable, we bestow special care upon, and those members of the body that are unpresentable we treat with greater care and attention than we do our features which do not require as much attention (v 23)
g Gr. aschemon, shapeless; unseemly; shameful. Upon these parts of the body we bestow more abundant elegance and grace h Gr. euschemon, members of good bearing; the graceful ones; the beautiful parts that have no special need of honor or attention i God has mingled and compounded the body together, giving more special dignity to the inferior parts; that there should be no independent and unnecessary part to the body, and that every part should function perfectly for the good of the whole (v 24-26)
j You and all in Christ like you make the true church or the body of Christ (v 13; Eph. 2:19-22; 4:1-6; Col. 1:18, 24)

m See note n, Acts 13:1
n Note y, Jn. 2:11; note k, 3, (3), v 8 p Gr. antilepsis, a support; help; succourer; an aid. Only in v 28 and refers to every kind of help God sets in the church. It cannot be limited to the work of deacons and deaconesses, as some teach, for there were other helps beside these (Rom. 16:3, 9; 1 Cor. 16:16; 2 Cor. 1:11, 24). It does not refer to persons only, but to the various spiritual gifts which endue men with power to help. It is mentioned in the midst of references to certain gifts q Gr. kubernesis, a steering; pilotage; a guiding. Used only here and refers to all the means of guidance God has set in the church. It has no reference to power to rule, but to men of extraordinary wisdom, knowledge, and discernment to guide the church in all its problems. The gifts of wisdom, knowledge, and discernment of spirits are all involved in this ability of guidance s Questions 87-93. Next, 14:6

k Classification and definition of gifts: See p. 175
l Here the church is called "Christ" and is compared to a human body with its many members (v 12-28)
m This shows how the body of Christ is constituted. The Spirit is the agent that brings one into the body of Christ by the new birth. This is not a baptism into the Spirit, but into the body of Christ. The body here is the element one is baptized into. The Spirit is the agent that does the baptizing into the body. The believer is the candidate. If it were the Spirit baptism, Christ would be the agent and the Holy Spirit would be the element baptized into. See note n, Mt. 3:6; Q. T. experiences p. 158 n Jews and Gentiles are in the same body, the church (v 13; Eph. 2:11-18; 3:1-6; Col. 1:18, 24)

UNKNOWN TOUNGES!

a These questions reveal that all believers are not apostles, prophets, teachers, and all do not have all the gifts of v 8–10. This does not mean that believers cannot attain to any and all these b Here is a command for all believers to covet earnestly the gifts (v 31; 14:1) c Gr. zelos, eager rivalry; strong passion for a thing. Note f, Acts 5:17 d Gr. kreisson, stronger; better; greater; superior. Trans. best (v 31) and better 18 times (1 Cor. 7:9,38; 11:17; PHIL 1:23; Heb. 1:4; 6:9; 7:7,19,22; 8:6,9–23; 10:34; 11:35,40; 12:24; 1 Pet. 3:17; 2 Pet. 2:21). All the gifts are necessary for the proper and complete operation of the body of Christ (12:12–28)
e Paul here shows the possibility of exercising gifts in a backslidden condition (v 1–3), as Solomon did (Eccl. 2:9)
f This suggests that those who speak with tongues could be using earthly and angelic languages (v 1) g Gr. agape, spontaneous and divine love. It is more eternal than gifts

9 Ingredients of divine love:
1 Patience – love passive; no hurry; suffers long; bears, believes, hopes, and endures all things (v 4, 7)
2 Kindness – love in action; never acts rashly or insolently; not inconsistent, puffed up, or proud (v 4)
3 Generosity – love in competition; not envious or jealous (v 4)
4 Humility – love in hiding; no parade; no airs; works then retires (v 4)
5 Courtesy – love in society; does not behave unseemly; always polite; at home with all classes; never rude or discourteous (v 5)
6 Unselfishness – love in essence; never selfish, sour, or bitter; seeks only good of others; does not retaliate or seek revenge (v 5)
7 Good temper – love in disposition; never irritated; never resentful (v 5)
8 Righteousness – love in conduct; hates sin; never glad when others go wrong; always gladdened by goodness to others; always slow to expose; always eager to believe the best; always hopeful, always enduring (v 6–7)
9 Sincerity – love in profession; never boastful and conceited; not a hypocrite; always honest; leaves no impression but what is strictly true; never self-assertive; does not blaze out in passionate anger, nor brood over wrongs; always just, joyful, and truthful; knows how to be silent; full of trust; always present i 3 things that will fail or be superseded: prophecies, tongues, and knowledge

j Gr. katargeo, to make useless or void; abolish; leave unemployed (Rom. 3:3; 4:14; Gal. 3:17; 5:4) It is trans. fail, vanish away, done away, and put away (1 Cor. 13:8, 10, 11). Here it literally means that when the completeness of communication and knowledge comes, tongues will be no barrier and partial knowledge will be superseded by the perfect or complete (v 9–10). Men in eternity will be able to speak all the languages of all others in the universe, thus doing away with present-day language barriers. The partial knowledge will be superseded by perfect knowledge. It is only that which is in part that will be done away or come to an end (v 9–10)

In v 11–12 Paul further makes clear his meaning, when he compares the next life to something as far advanced over this one as adulthood over childhood; and when he declares that we now see darkly into the future, knowing only a few things, whereas then, face to face with God, we shall know other persons and things as now known by God k Gr. teleios, that which has reached an end. Prophecies that have been fulfilled have reached an end. Tongues and knowledge will be superseded by a more complete knowledge and means of communication l 3 things that a man puts away (v 11):
1 Speaking like a child
2 Understanding like a child
3 Thinking like a child
The Gr. for put away is katargeo (note j, above) and means the things that cease are to be superseded by a more complete life along the same lines, in all workers of miracles?

30 Have all the gifts of healing? do all speak with tongues? do all interpret?

12 The duty of every Christian concerning spiritual gifts (1 Cor. 1:7; 14:1, 12, 20, 37–40)

●31 [b]But covet earnestly the [d]best gifts: and yet shew I unto you a more excellent way.

146 CHAPTER 13

13 Gifts are valueless unless exercised in love (Gal. 5:22)

THOUGH I speak with the [f]tongues of men and of angels, and have not charity, I am become as sounding brass, or a tinkling cymbal.
2 And though I have the gift of prophecy, and understand all mysteries, and all knowledge; and though I have all faith, so that I could remove mountains, and have not charity, I am nothing.
3 And though I bestow all my goods to feed the poor, and though I give my body to be burned, and have not charity, it profiteth me nothing.

14 Characteristics of love (Jn. 3:16; Rom. 5:8; 2 Cor. 5:14–21; Gal. 5:22–23; 1 Jn. 3:1–18; 4:7–21)

4 [g]Charity suffereth long, and is kind; charity envieth not; charity vaunteth not itself, is not puffed up,
5 Doth not behave itself unseemly, seeketh not her own, is not easily provoked, thinketh no evil;
6 Rejoiceth not in iniquity, but rejoiceth in the truth;
7 Beareth all things, believeth all things, hopeth all things, endureth all things.

15 Gifts are temporary but love and other graces are eternal

★8 [h]Charity never faileth: [i]but whether there be prophecies, they shall fail; whether there be tongues, they shall cease; whether there be knowledge, it shall vanish away. ◂
9 For we know in part, and we prophesy in part.
▸10 But when that which [k]is perfect is come, then that which is in part shall be done away.
11 When I was a child, I spake as a child, I understood as a child, I thought as a child: but when I became a man, [l]I put away childish things.
▸12 For now we see through [m]a glass, [n]darkly; but then face to face: now I know in part; but [o]then shall I know even as also I am known.
13 And now [p]abideth faith, hope, charity, these three; but the greatest of these is charity.

147 CHAPTER 14

16 All gifts to be desired, especially prophecy (12:30)

[a]FOLLOW after charity, and desire spiritual gifts, but rather that ye may prophesy.

17 Benefits of prophecy and tongues contrasted

2 For [b]he that speaketh in an unknown tongue speaketh not unto men, but unto God; for no man understandeth him; howbeit in the spirit he speaketh mysteries.
3 But he that prophesieth speaketh unto men to edification, and exhortation, and comfort.
4 He that speaketh in an unknown tongue edifieth himself; but he that prophesieth edifieth the church.

18 Tongues are equal to prophecy and edifying to the church if interpreted

5 I would that ye all spake with tongues, but rather that ye prophesied: for greater is he that prophesieth than he that speaketh with tongues, except he interpret, that the church may receive edifying.

19 Tongues are useless in public meetings unless interpreted

6 [c]Now, brethren, if I come unto you speaking with tongues, what shall I profit you, except I shall speak to you either by revelation, or by knowledge, or by prophesying, or by doctrine?
7 And even things without life giving sound, whether pipe or harp, except they give a distinction in the sounds, how shall it be known what is piped or harped?
8 For if the trumpet give an uncertain sound, who shall prepare himself to the battle?
9 So likewise ye, except ye utter by the tongue words [d]easy to be understood, how shall it be known what is spoken? for ye shall speak into the air.
10 There are, it may be, so many [e]kinds of voices in the world, and none of them is without signification.
11 Therefore if I know not the meaning of the voice, I shall be unto him that speaketh a barbarian, and he that speaketh shall be a barbarian unto me.

20 The chief end of all gifts (14:4–5, 17, 26, 40)

●12 Even so ye, forasmuch as ye are zealous of spiritual gifts, seek that ye may excel to the edifying of the church.

21 Pray for interpretation of tongues spoken in public

●13 Wherefore [f]let him that speaketh in an unknown tongue pray that he may interpret.
14 [g]For if I pray in an unknown tongue, my spirit prayeth, but my understanding is unfruitful.
15 [h]What is it then? [i]I will pray with the spirit, and I will pray with the understanding also:

a 3 things we are to do here (v 1):
1 Follow after divine love. Note g, 13:4
2 Covet earnestly the gifts (12:31)
3 Covet prophecy more than tongues
16 contrasts of tongues and prophecy:
1 Tongues are spoken to God; prophecy is spoken to teach men (v 2–3)
2 Mysteries or things not understood are spoken in tongues; all things spoken in prophecy are clear (v 3–4)
3 Tongues edify the speaker; prophecy edifies the speaker and others (v 3–4)
4 Tongues enable one to commune with God; prophecy speaks to men to edification, exhortation, and comfort (v 2–4)
5 The prophet is greater than the one who speaks in tongues, unless the tongues are interpreted and understood (v 5)
6 Tongues are no profit to the public unless interpreted; all prophecy is profitable to the public (v 5–13, 27–28)
7 The speaker in tongues must pray for the interpretation; the prophet need not, for his message is in his own tongue (v 3–13)
8 Tongues make one a barbarian to others; prophecy does not (v 3, 11)
9 In all gifts the main purpose is to excel in edifying the church (v 12). In this, prophecy is greater than tongues (v 1–6, 27–28)
10 The human spirit of the speaker is the thing edified by tongues; prophecy benefits all men (v 1–5, 14–15, 24–25)
11 Tongues are a great personal blessing, but 5 words of prophecy are more important in public services than 10,000 words in tongues (v 17–19)
12 Tongues are a sign to unbelievers; prophecy to believers (v 21–22)
13 All speaking in tongues at once causes mockery by the unsaved whereas, with prophesying the unsaved are convicted of sin (v 23–25)
14 Every gift must be used to edify the church (v 26). Prophecies do this better (v 1–5, 23–25)
15 Only one message is allowed in a church service if not interpreted; three messages in prophecy are allowed (v 3, 27–31)
16 Three messages in tongues are allowed in any church service if they are interpreted. This many messages in prophecy are always allowed (v 27–32)
b It is clear in Scripture that men have spoken in tongues by the Holy Spirit. It was predicted by Isaiah (28:11–12; 1 Cor. 14:21); Joel (2:28–32 with Acts 2:16); and Jesus (Mk. 16:17; Jn. 15:26; 16:13–15). It was fulfilled in Acts 2:4; 10:44–48; 19:1–7; 1 Cor. 12:8–10, 28–31; 13:1–3; 14:1–40)
c Questions 94–97. Next, v 15
d Gr. eusemos, intelligible. Only here e Kinds of languages. All of them are intelligible to those who speak them f A command to those who speak in tongues g This is Paul's reason for praying for the interpretation. The understanding is unfruitful unless the tongues are interpreted
h Questions 98–99. Next, v 23
i I will pray in tongues or by the Spirit (as in v 14) and I will pray with the interpretation of my prayer also (v 14–16)

the same way that adulthood is so far advanced beyond childhood as to be on another plane entirely. There will be no need of prophecies when we shall know as we are known (v 12). There will be no need of the gift of tongues when we shall know all languages of the universe. There will be no need of stumbling around in ignorance with our partial knowledge when we shall have super-knowledge and complete and perfect insight into eternal things
m Gr. esoptron, mirror (v 12; Jas. 1:23)
n Gr. ainigma, a dark saying, riddle. It is the same as our Eng. enigma. Life is like a riddle. The future state, although somewhat clear from the many revelations about it, is still like a dream. It is hard to realize how wonderful it will be, due to our present lack of experience
o We shall know each other in heaven and on earth forever (1 Cor. 15:35–58) p 3 things that eternally abide: faith, hope, and divine love (v 13)

a I will sing in tongues (as in v 14) and I will sing with the interpretation of tongues also b When you say the blessing in tongues or in the Spirit, how can it be understood? You give thanks in tongues well, but your host is not edified. He does not know whether you curse or bless the food. You must learn to use your gifts rightly and in the proper place
c Paul boasts of his ability to talk in tongues more than all others of the church, yet says there is a time and place for tongues 6 times not to speak in tongues:
1 When not impelled by love (13:1-3)
2 When in regular church meetings and no interpreter present (v 5, 27-28)
3 When it is time to give truth to the public (v 6-13, 19, 23-25)
4 When invited to say grace at the table (v 16-17)
5 When the whole church would like to speak in tongues and people are present who would stumble over such action (v 23-25)
6 After 2 or 3 messages in tongues have been given and interpreted (v 27)
d This does not belittle tongues or make them unimportant in their place, but it shows that the public will not get as much truth in 10,000 words in a language they cannot understand as they would get from 5 words they could understand e This emphasizes the purposes of all gifts and public Christian services. At least 20 out of 40 verses in this chapter emphasize the importance of public good, not the personal showing of one's gifts (v 1, 3-9, 11-13, 15-17, 19, 23-25, 26-28, 31, 40)
f 3 stages of human growth mentioned:
1 Gr. nepiazo, infants who cannot yet speak and who know nothing of sin
2 Gr. paidia, children beginning in school to receive their first instructions
3 Gr. teleioi, men of mature age and thought; men of growth and understanding The verse means, "Be not paidia (little school children) in understanding. In malice be ye infants (nepiazo, infants who cannot speak and who know nothing of sin), but in understanding be men" of maturity and growth g The law was a term used by Jews to express the whole Scriptures of the law, the prophets, and the psalms (Lk. 24:44; Jn. 10:34; 15:25)
h 8th and last O. T. prophecy fulfilled in I Cor. (14:21; Isa. 28:11-12). This prophecy reveals that God intended over 700 years before Christ to speak to men with stammering lips and other languages i This is Paul's explanation of the main purpose of tongues. They are designed as a sign to unbelievers that through their miraculous exercise sinners might see the manifestation of the supernatural (Isa. 28:11-12). Examples of this are found in Acts 2:1-11; 10:44-48; 19:1-7; 1 Cor. 14
j Question 100. Next, v 26. This will naturally be the result of such misuse of tongues. When the mockery began at Pentecost, Peter stopped the 120 from talking in tongues and preached a sermon in his own native tongue which all could understand (Acts 2:11-14) k The chief end of all gifts and worship services is to bring men to repentance and surrender to God. This is the chief purpose of the death of Christ (Jn. 3:16)
l Question 101. Next, v 36
m 20 New Testament church activities:
1 Singing of psalms (Eph. 5; Col. 3)
2 Teaching doctrines (2 Tim. 4:2-4; Acts 2:42)
3 Tongues and interpretations (v 27)
4 Prophecies (v 3, 24-25, 29-30)
5 Exhortations by laymen (Heb. 10:25)
6 The Lord's Supper and a love feast (1 Cor. 10:16-17; 11:17-34; Jude 12)
7 Scripture reading (Lk. 4:16; Col. 4:16; 1 Th. 5:27; 1 Tim. 4:13)
8 Prayers (Acts 2:42; 4:24-31; etc.)
9 Exercise of other gifts - healing, faith, and miracles (Acts 3:6; 5:12-16; 8:5-8; 15:12; 19:11)
10 Exercise of discernment and judgment (Acts 5:1-11; 13:6-11; 1 Cor. 5)
11 Reports and business (Acts 4:23; 6:1-7; 11:1-18; 15:1-35)
12 Baptism (Acts 2:41; 8:12; 16:33)

I will sing with the[a] spirit, and I will sing with the understanding also.

16 [b]Else when thou shalt bless with the spirit, how shall he that occupieth the room of the unlearned say Ă-mĕn' at thy giving of thanks, seeing he understandeth not what thou sayest?

17 For thou verily givest thanks well, but the other is not edified.

22 Paul thanks God for the gift of tongues for his own edification (14:2-4), but recognizes it as useless in church unless interpreted

18 [c]I thank my God, I speak with tongues more than ye all:

19 [d]Yet in the church I had rather speak five words with my understanding, that by my voice I might [e]teach others also, than ten thousand words in an unknown tongue.

23 Gifts are not playthings for inexperienced children

●20 Brethren, [f]be not children in understanding: howbeit in malice be ye children, but in understanding be men.

24 Tongues are a sign to unbelievers in this dispensation and their exercise is a fulfillment of prophecy (Isa. 28:9-11)

★21 In the [g]law it is [h]written, With men of other tongues and other lips will I speak unto this people; and yet for all that will they not hear me, saith the Lord.

22 [i]Wherefore tongues are for a sign, not to them that believe, but to them that believe not: but prophesying serveth not for them that believe not, but for them which believe.

25 The whole church is not to speak in tongues in unison. One message at a time may be given with its interpretation (14:27-28)

23 If therefore the whole church be come together into one place, and all speak with tongues, and there come in those that are unlearned, or unbelievers, I will they not say that ye are mad?

26 Even prophecies are to be given one at a time

24 But if all prophesy, and there come in one that believeth not, or one unlearned, he is convinced of all, he is judged of all:

25 And thus are the secrets of his heart made manifest; [k]and so falling down on his face he will worship God, and report that God is in you of a truth.

27 The true order of an apostolic meeting

●26 [l]How is it then, brethren? [m]when ye come together, every one of you hath a psalm, hath a doctrine, hath a tongue, hath a revelation, hath an interpretation. Let all things be done unto edifying.

28 The true order of the gifts of tongues and interpretation in the church

●27 If any man speak in an [a]unknown tongue, [b]let it be by two, or at the most by three, and that by course; and let one interpret.

●28 But if there be no interpreter, let him keep silence in the church; and let him speak to himself, and to God.

29 The true order of the gifts of prophecy and revelation

●29 [c]Let the prophets speak two or three, and let the other judge.

●30 [d]If any thing be revealed to another that sitteth by, let the first hold his peace.

31 For ye may [e]all prophesy one by one, that all may learn, and all may be comforted.

30 All Holy Spirit manifestations are subject to the individual; uncontrolled and confusing acts are not of God

32 And [f]the spirits of the prophets are subject to the prophets.

33 For God is not the author of confusion, but of peace, as in all churches of the saints.

31 Women are not to be lawless or cause confusion in church

●34 [g]Let your women keep silence in the churches: for it is not permitted unto them to speak; [h]but they are commanded to be under obedience, as also saith the law.

●35 And [i]if they will learn any thing let them ask their husbands at home: for it is a shame for women to speak in the church.

32 All saints must acknowledge these laws as from God

36 [j]What? came the word of God out from you? or came it unto you only?

●37 If any man think himself to be a prophet, or spiritual, let him acknowledge that the things that I write unto you are the commandments of the Lord.

38 But if any man be ignorant, let him be ignorant.

33 Last warning and admonition concerning spiritual gifts

●39 [k]Wherefore, brethren, covet to prophesy, and forbid not to speak with tongues.

●40 Let all things be done decently and in order.

CHAPTER 15 148

X The resurrections (1 Cor. 15:1-58). 1 Paul's fourfold gospel and the fact of Christ's resurrection (Mt.

a There is no word in the Greek for unknown here. No language spoken any place in the universe is actually unknown to the people who speak it. The only sense in which tongues or languages spoken by the ability of the gift of tongues are unknown is that the speaker himself does not know the language or languages which he speaks (14:2) b In public meetings the command is that no more than 3 messages in tongues should be allowed in any one service, and that, provided they are truly interpreted. The order should be by course with the first message being interpreted before a second, if any, is given. One who thus speaks should pray for the interpretation himself (v 13). Otherwise, his words may be interpreted by another gifted to do so. Even if more than one person speaks the rule is no more than a total of 3 messages in a single service. After that they must remain silent regardless of how much they seem to be inspired. If there is no interpretation to the first message, they likewise must remain silent (v 27-28, 32). These laws concerning the gifts of tongues are to be obeyed as the commandments of God (v 32-33, 37-38)
c Prophets are also to speak 2 or 3 messages in turn letting others judge whether or not they have spoken truth (v 29). Both kinds of messages (tongues and prophecy) are to be judged as to their truth. The basis of judgment is the written revelation of God (Dt. 18:10-12, 20; Isa. 8:19-20; Rev. 22:18-19). If any message in tongues or prophecy does not harmonize with the Bible, or does not come to pass, then it is to be judged false and the person said to be speaking by his own spirit (13:1-3; Dt. 13:1-9; 18:20-23; Jer. 23:25-29, 32; Ezek. 13:2-3) d Everything revealed to a person is not a divine revelation. This is why everything must be judged, as in point c e Men and women were permitted to prophesy (11:1-16; Acts 2:16-21)
f Among people who have inspirational experiences of prophecy, tongues, and interpretation of tongues, it is very easy for one to claim that the Holy Spirit is moving upon him and that he should not quench the Spirit (1 Th. 5:19). This attitude of being determined to obey the Spirit leads to abuse of such gifts many times, causing much confusion in the church. Let no man claim to be moved by the Holy Spirit who acts disorderly and causes confusion, for God is not the author of such (v 32-33)
g This does not contradict the fact that women were free to pray and prophesy in the church (11:5, 13; Acts 2:16-21; 21:9; Joel 2:28-32). See note i, below.
h A reference to Gen. 3:16
i If they will learn any thing, not preach, pray, testify, or prophesy anything. Let them ask their husbands at home and not in the church (v 35)
j Questions 102-104. Next, 15:12. Did the Word of God come from you or did it come only to you, that you should have rules and customs different from all other churches? If you have gifts and are spiritual, you will acknowledge these teachings to be true commandments of the Lord and good for you. If you continue in ignorance after receiving these teachings, then remain ignorant (v 36-38)
k In conclusion, 3 things I command you:
1 Covet to prophesy (note a, 14:1)
2 Forbid not to speak with tongues
3 Let all gifts be exercised lawfully and in order as I have taught you

2 Must be received (v 1; Jn. 1:12)
3 Must be obeyed (v1; Rom. 1:5; 6:17)
4 Must be kept in memory - held fast (v 2; Heb. 3:6; 12-14; 10:23)
5 Must be believed from the heart (v 2; Rom. 1:16; 10:9-10; Jn. 3:16-20)

b 4 main parts to the gospel of salvation:
1 Death of Christ (v 3; Rom. 5:6-10; 2 Cor. 4:14-21; Col. 1:20; Heb. 9:15)
2 Burial of Christ (v 4; Mt. 26:12; Jn. 12:7; Rom. 6:4; Col. 2:12)
3 Resurrection of Christ (v 4, 12; Rom. 14:9; 2 Cor. 5:15; 1 Th. 4:14)
4 Manifestation of Christ after the resurrection (v 5-8; note k, Jn. 21:14)

i Peter (Lk. 24:34; Mk. 16:14)

j The term is used here officially, including Matthias (Acts 1:26) and excluding Paul (1 Cor. 15:7-8)

k This could be the same as in Mt. 28:16

l This is James, the half-brother of Jesus (v 7; Gal. 1:19; note d, Lk. 8:19)

m This is proof that Paul did not class himself as one of the 12 apostles (v 5-8). They were chosen because they had been eyewitnesses from the beginning n Gr. ektroma, a child untimely born; an abortion. Only here but found in the Sept. in Job 3:16; Eccl. 6:3. Paul referred to being born out of the season when the 12 apostles were chosen, and not to the birth of Israel as a nation at the second advent (Isa. 66:6-7; Rom. 11:25-29; Zech. 12:10-13:1)

o This is true in reference to his being chosen last and after the 12 apostles. It confirms note n, above, about being born out of due season. As a preacher he was greater than any of the other apostles. In reigning over Israel in the eternal kingdom he will not be equal with the twelve (Mt. 19:28; Lk. 22:30; Rev. 21:14). Paul always considered himself the least and not worthy to be an apostle because of his past persecution of the church (v 9; 1 Tim. 1:11-16)

q Question 105. Next, v 29. Some false apostles at Corinth denied the resurrection of the dead (2 Cor. 11:13-15) Proofs of the resurrection:
1 Proved from Scripture (v 1-4; Job 19:25; Ps. 16:10; Dan. 12:2; Mt. 28; Mk. 16; Lk. 24; Jn. 20-21; Acts 2:27)
2 Proved from fact (v 5-8; note k, Jn. 21:14; Eph. 1:20; Rev. 1:12-18)
3 Proved by the absurdity of unbelief in the resurrection (v 12-19)
4 Proved by declaration of fact (v 20-22)
5 Proved by prediction (v 23-56)
6 Proved by the inconsistency of those who deny it (v 29)
7 Proved by faith and consecration in sacrificing all for it (v 30-34)
8 Proved by nature (v 33-49)
9 Proved by absolute necessity of immortality of body in order to inherit the kingdom and other promises (v 50-54)
10 Proved by fulfillment of prophecy in final victory over death (v 54-57)

r 12 calamities if Christ be not risen:
1 We have no guarantee of resurrection (v 12-13, 20-23)
2 Our preaching is in vain (v 14)
3 Our faith is in vain (v 14, 17)
4 We are liars; because we have preached such a doctrine (v 15)
5 We are yet in our sins (v 17)
6 All the dead are perished (v 18)
7 We have no hope (v 19)
8 We are most miserable (v 19)
9 We are plain fools (v 30-32)
10 Nature is a farce (v 35-49)
11 Promises are lies (v 50-54)
12 Prophecies are false (v 55-56)

s Christ's resurrection is a fact and the guarantee of the resurrection of all other men (v 20-22)

28; Mk. 16; Lk. 24; Jn. 20-21; Acts 1:1-11)

MOREOVER, brethren, I declare unto you [a]the gospel which I preached unto you, which also ye have received, and wherein ye stand;

▸2 [b]By which also ye are saved, if ye [c]keep in memory [d]what I preached unto you, unless ye have [e]believed in vain.

3 For I delivered unto you first of all that which I also received, how that Christ died for our sins [f]according to the scriptures;

4 And that he was buried, and that he rose again the third day [g]according to the scriptures:

5 And that he was [h]seen of [i]Cē'phas, then of [j]the twelve:

6 After that, [k]he was seen of above five hundred brethren at once; of whom the greater part remain unto this present, but some are fallen asleep.

7 After that, [l]he was seen of James; then of all the apostles.

8 [m]And last of all he was seen of me also, as of [n]one born out of due time.

2 Paul's humility in service (4:8-12; 6:3-10)

9 [o]For I am the least of the apostles, that am not meet to be called an apostle, because I persecuted the church of God.

10 But by the grace of God I am what I am: and his grace which was bestowed upon me was not in vain; [p]but I laboured more abundantly than they all: yet not I, but the grace of God which was with me.

11 Therefore whether it were I or they, so we preach, and so ye believed.

3 Importance of the resurrection of Christ (v 3-8; Rom. 5:10; 6:5-10; 8:11)

12 [q]Now if Christ be preached that he rose from the dead, how say some among you that there is no resurrection of the dead?

13 But if there be no resurrection of the dead, then is Christ not risen:

14 [r]And if Christ be not risen, then is our preaching vain, and your faith is also vain.

15 Yea, and we are found false witnesses of God; because we have testified of God that he raised up Christ: whom he raised not up, if so be that the dead rise not.

16 For if the dead rise not, then is not Christ raised:

17 And if Christ be not raised, your faith is vain; ye are yet in your sins.

18 Then they also which are fallen asleep in Christ are perished.

19 If in this life only we have hope in Christ, we are of all men most miserable.

4 Certainty of the resurrection of Christ and all men (Dan. 12:2; Jn. 5:28-29; 1 Thess. 4:13-18; Rev. 20:4-6, 11-15)

20 But [s]now is Christ risen from the dead, and become the [t]firstfruits of them that [u]slept.

*21 For since [v]by man came death, [w]by man came also the resurrection of the dead.

▸22 For as in Ad'ăm all die, even so in Christ shall [x]all be made alive.

5 Time-order of resurrections (Rev. 20:4-15; Jn. 5:28-29; Phil. 3:11-21; 1 Thess. 4:13)

▸23 But every man in his own [y]order: Christ the firstfruits; afterward they that are Christ's at his coming.

6 End of earth's 2nd sinful career (Acts 3:21; 2 Pet. 3:10-13; Rev. 21-22; Isa. 66:22-24)

▸24 [z]Then cometh the [a]end, when he shall have delivered up the kingdom to God, even the Father; when he shall have put down all rule and all authority and power.

▸25 For he must reign, till he hath put all enemies under his feet.

26 The last enemy that shall be destroyed is death.

▸27 For he hath put all things under his feet. But when he saith all things are put under him, it is manifest that [b]he is excepted, which did put all things under him.

▸28 And when all things shall be subdued unto him, then shall the [c]Son also himself be subject unto him that put all things under him, [d]that God may be all in all.

7 Inconsistency of critics baptizing for the dead - not believing in resurrection

29 [e]Else what shall they do which are baptized for the dead, if the dead rise not at all? [f]why are they then baptized for the dead?

8 Present conflict to no purpose if no resurrection

30 And why stand we in jeopardy every hour?

31 I protest by your rejoicing which I have in Christ Jē'sus our Lord, [g]I die daily.

32 If after the manner of men I have [h]fought with beasts at Ĕph'e-sŭs, what advantageth it me, if the dead rise not? [i]let us eat and drink; for to morrow we die.

9 Exhortation to righteousness in view of resurrection

●33 Be not deceived: [j]evil communications corrupt good manners.

●34 [k]Awake to righteousness, and sin not; for some have not the knowledge of God: I speak this to your shame.

10 Method of the resurrection illustrated (Jn. 5:28-29; 12:24; Dan. 12:2)

★35 [l]But some man will say, How are the dead raised up? and with what body do they come?

36 Thou fool, that which thou sowest is not quickened, except it die:

37 And that which thou sowa Gr. aparche, firstfruits; the beginning of a thing (note j, Rom. 8:23). Here it simply means that Christ is the first to be resurrected from the dead to enter into immortality of body (v 51-54)

b A term used of death (v 6, 18, 51; 11:30; Jn. 11:11; 1 Th. 4:13-17; 2 Pet. 3:4). It is not soul-sleep, but body-sleep. The body only dies at physical death, going back to dust (Jas. 2:26; Gen. 3:19). The soul and spirit are immortal (1 Pet. 3:4) c By Adam came physical death, which is a result of the eternal-death penalty of sin (v 22). This death passed upon all men (Rom. 5:12-21). The body only will be resurrected in the future resurrection of the dead (v 35-54; Dan. 12:2; Jn. 5:28-29). The only time spiritual and eternal death can be cancelled, resurrecting one from death in trespasses and sins is in this life (Eph. 2:1-9; 1 Jn. 1:9). After death comes the judgment without any chance to be saved, if one dies unsaved (Heb. 9:27)

d 12th N. T. prophecy in 1 Cor. (15:21-28). Next, v 35. By Jesus Christ will come the bodily resurrection of all men (v 22; Jn. 5:25-29; 11:22-26; Rev. 1:18)

e All will be made alive physically but not spiritually (Dan. 12:2; Jn. 5:28-29; Rev. 20:4-6, 11-15). One must choose to repent and be made alive spiritually (Jn. 3:16-20; 1 Tim. 2:4; 2 Pet. 3:9; Rev. 22:17), but all will be made alive physically regardless of repentance and surrender to God (Jn. 5:28-29)

f Gr. tagma, rank or company. It is used only here, but it is used in the Sept. of a company of soldiers (Num. 2:2; 2 Sam. 23:13). See 5 raptures p. 175

g At the end of the Millennium. This is proved by the fact Christ must reign 1,000 years to put down all rebellion and then deliver the kingdom to God that He may be all and all as before rebellion started (v 24-28; Rev. 20:1-10; 21:1-22:5)

h Gr. telos, not the same end as in 1:8. Christ's coming brings that end, but this end will not be until 1,000 years later when all rebellion has been put down and the earth made new (Rev. 20:1-10; 21:1-22:5). See 5 things happen before this end, p. 190

i The Father is the excepted one j The Son and His millennial earthly kingdom do not cease to exist for both are eternal. The Son will continue to reign under the Father forever after the earth is rid of all rebellion (Isa. 9:6-7; Dan. 2:44-45; 7:13-14, 18, 27; Zech. 14:1, Lk. 1:32-33; Rev. 5:10; 11:15; 22:5) k The Father, the Son, and the Holy Spirit will reign together throughout all eternity, as before the rebellion which made it necessary for them to take separate parts in the creation and redemption of all things (v 28)

l Questions 106-109. Next, v 35. These questions should follow after v 19

m 7 reasons why baptism for the dead is unscriptural and an erroneous practice: See note Baptism for the dead, p. 175

n This refers to the outward man perishing day by day, as in 2 Cor. 4:16, and not to dying to sin daily. That he did not teach. He argued that we should become dead to sin once and then stay dead to sin always (Rom. 6:6-11; Gal. 2:20). It could also refer to Paul's being in constant danger of death daily for the gospel - even every hour (v 30, 32). At least it refers to the body, for the whole chapter is on the death and resurrection of the body

o Perhaps referring to his fight with the beastly men at Ephesus (Acts 19:28-31). Such men are called beasts (Tit. 1:12; 2 Pet. 2:12; Jude 10). In his list of sufferings in 2 Cor. 11:23-28 Paul does not refer to having been in combat with wild beasts in an arena, when naming all his hardships

p Quoted from Isa. 22:13

q Gr. homilia, associations. Evil ones will corrupt good morals. A quotation from the Thais of Menander, an Athenian poet

r Return to sobriety and righteousness and quit sin in view of the resurrection

s 13th and last N. T. prophecy in 1 Cor. (15:35-56, fulfilled at the rapture)

t Questions 110-111. Next, v 55. What kind of bodies will men have in the resurrection?

a The resurrection illustrated and proved by a grain of wheat and other grains: See Resurrection, p. 190

b Every man will have his own body, not that of another. He will have his own color, appearance, size, shape, features, and characteristics, and be exactly like himself in the resurrection (v 38). Men will be men and women will be women. Such bodies will be like Christ only in the sense of immortality (v 39–54; Phil. 3:21). God gives every person his own body

c No two kinds of animals have the same flesh or flavor. This is also true of vegetables, grain, and other things in nature d Gr. epouranios (note k, Eph. 1:3). There are heavenly bodies and earthly bodies which have different glories even as the sun, moon, and stars differ in glory (v 40–41)

e Gr. epigelios, that which pertains to the earth. Trans. earthly except here; Phil. 2:10

f All resurrected bodies will be immortal, but they will possess different degrees of glory. Our bodies are sown in corruption (v 21–22); raised in incorruption (v 51–54); sown in dishonor (Gen. 3:19); raised in glory (Phil. 3:21; Col. 3:4); sown in weakness (Jas. 1:10-11); raised in power (v 53–56; 2 Cor. 5:4); and sown as natural bodies (Jn. 5:28-29; Dan. 12:2); raised as spiritual bodies (v 44; Phil. 3:21)

g Gr. phthora, note f, Rom. 8:21

h Gr. aphtharsia, immortal. It is trans. incorruption, referring to resurrected bodies (1 Cor. 15:42, 50, 53, 54); immortality, referring to the life men get through the gospel (Rom. 2:7; 2 Tim. 1:10); uncorruptness to the life of saints (Tit. 2:7); and sincerity to the uncorruptness of love (Eph. 6:24)

i Gr. pneumatikos, note g, Rom. 7:14. By this is meant the body will become of immortal substance. It has no reference to becoming immaterial, intangible, and without flesh and bones, for our resurrected bodies will still be flesh and bone, though not flesh and blood. See Lk. 24:39; Phil. 3:21. Spirit bodies are as real as can be, but of a higher substance than natural bodies. God and angels have spirit bodies, and yet they are real tangible and materialized bodies, as proved by hundreds of passages describing them and many personal acts. Note r, Jn. 4:24

j Gr. psuchikos, note p, 1 Cor. 2:14

k Quoted from Gen. 2:7

l 7 contrasts between Adam and Christ:
1 First Adam – second Adam (v 45)
2 Living soul-quickening spirit (v 45)
3 Natural – spiritual (v 46)
4 Earthly – heavenly (v 47)
5 Of earth – of heaven (v 47)
6 Only man – both man and God (v 47)
7 First man – second man (v 47)

m The earthly body will be like the earthly; the resurrected body will be like other heavenly bodies (v 48–49)

n Gr. eikon, likeness, profile; statue, or bodily resemblance (v 49; 11:7; Mt. 22:20; Acts 19:35; Rom. 1:23; 8:29; 11:4; 2 Cor. 4:4; Col. 1:15; Heb. 10:1; Rev. 13:14–15; 14:9–11; 15:2; 16:2; 19:20; 20:4). This further proves that spiritual and heavenly bodies are real and tangible. If moral and spiritual image and likeness only are referred to, then interpreting all the above passages and those below with this idea alone would be very difficult (Gen. 5:3; 9:6; Ex. 20:4; Lev. 26:1; Ps. 73:20; 106:19; Isa. 40:19–20; 44:9–17; 45:20; Jer. 10:14; 51:17). Shall we do away with outward forms of idols and men in these passages and claim that they have only moral and spiritual image? With idols only outward image could be understood. With men outward image is also the main idea. So, when the same word is used of heavenly beings it proves that they also have outward form and bodily image

o Natural men cannot inherit the kingdom of God, but they can and will enter it. They will inherit the earthly sphere of the universal kingdom of God (Mt. 5:5; 25:34; Ps. 37:11), but they will never inherit the whole realm of God over all the universe, as glorified saints will (Rom. 8:17)

p Corruption must be laid aside and incorruption take its place in the bodies

est, thou sowest not that body that shall be, but bare grain, it may chance of wheat, or of some other grain:

38 [m]But God giveth it a body as it hath pleased him, and to every seed [n]his own body.

11 Nature of resurrected bodies (Lk. 24:39; Acts 1:11; Phil. 3:21)

39 [o]All flesh is not the same flesh: but there is one kind of flesh of men, another flesh of beasts, another of fishes, and another of birds.

40 There are also [d]celestial bodies, and bodies [e]terrestrial: but the glory of the celestial is one, and the glory of the terrestrial is another.

41 There is one glory of the sun, and another glory of the moon, and another glory of the stars: for one star differeth from another star in glory.

▸42 [f]So also is the resurrection of the dead. It is sown in [g]corruption; it is raised in [h]incorruption:

▸43 It is sown in dishonour; it is raised in glory: it is sown in weakness; it is raised in power:

▸44 It is sown a natural body; it is raised a [i]spiritual body. There is a [j]natural body, and there is a spiritual body.

12 Necessity of a resurrection

45 And so it is written, [k]The first man Ad'am was made a living soul; [l]the last Ad'am was made a quickening spirit.

46 Howbeit that was not first which is spiritual, but that which is natural; and afterward that which is spiritual.

47 The first man is of the earth, earthy: the second man is the Lord from heaven.

48 [m]As is the earthy, such are they also that are earthy: and as is the heavenly, such are they also that are heavenly.

▸49 And as we have borne the image of the earthy, we shall also bear the [n]image of the heavenly.

50 Now this I say, brethren, that [o]flesh and blood cannot inherit the kingdom of God; neither doth [p]corruption inherit incorruption.

13 Time and manner of the resurrection (Rev. 20:4-15; Jn. 14:1-3; 1 Thess. 4:16; Phil. 3:21; Col. 3:4)

▸51 Behold, [q]I shew you a mystery; We shall not all sleep, but we shall all be changed, ▸52 In a moment, in the twinkling of an eye, at the last trump: for the trumpet shall sound, and the dead shall be raised [r]incorruptible, and we shall be changed.

▸53 For this corruptible must put on incorruption, and this [s]mortal must put on immortality.

▸54 So when this corruptible shall have put on incorruption, and this mortal shall have put on immortality, [t]then shall be brought to pass the saying that is written, [a]Death is [b]swallowed up in [c]victory.

55 [d]O death, [e]where is thy [f]sting? O [g]grave, where is thy victory?

56 The sting of death is [h]sin; and the strength of sin is the law.

57 But thanks be to God, which giveth us the [i]victory through our Lord Je'sus Christ.

14 Ultimate victory a motive for Christian service

●58 Therefore, my beloved brethren, [j]be ye stedfast, unmoveable, always abounding in the work of the Lord, forasmuch as ye know that your labour is not in vain in the Lord.

CHAPTER 16 149

XI Closing instructions and greetings (1 Cor. 16:1-24).

1 Collection for the saints

NOW [k]concerning the collection for the saints, as I have given order to the [l]churches of Ga-la'tia, even so do ye.

●2 [m]Upon the first day of the week let every one of you [n]lay by him in store, [o]as God hath prospered him, that there be no gatherings when I come.

3 And when I come, whomsoever ye shall [p]approve by your letters, them will I send to bring your liberality unto Je-ru'sa-lem.

4 And if it be meet that I go also, they shall go with me.

2 His proposed visit (2 Cor. 1:15)

5 Now I will come unto you, when I shall pass through Mac-e-do'ni-a: [q]for I do pass through Mac-e-do'ni-a.

6 And it may be that I will abide, yea, and winter with you, that ye may bring me on my journey whithersoever I go.

7 For I will not see you now by the way; but I trust to tarry a while with you, if the Lord permit.

8 But I will tarry at Eph'e-sus until Pen'te-cost.

9 For a great door and effectual is opened unto me, and there are many adversaries.

3 Concerning Timothy and Apollos

10 Now if Ti-mo'the-us come, see that he may be with you without fear: [r]for he worketh the work of the Lord, as I also do.

11 Let no man therefore despise him: but conduct him forth in peace, that he may come unto me: for [s]I look for him with the brethren.

12 As touching our brother A-pol'los, [t]I greatly desired him to come unto you with the brethren: but his will was not at all to come at this time; but he will come when he shall have convenient time.

a Quoted from Isa. 25:8

b Gr. katapino, swallow (v 54; Mt. 23:24; 2 Cor. 2:7; 5:4; Heb. 11:29; 1 Pet. 5:8; Rev. 12:16)

c Gr. nikos, here; v 55, 57; Mt. 12:20

d Quoted from Hos. 13:14

e Questions 112–113. The last in 1 Cor.

f Gr. kentron, a goad or sting (v 55–56; Acts 9:5; 26:14; Rev. 9:10). Death is here personified as having sin as a sting or a goad (v 56), driving men like an ox driver does until life ends by the final dagger thrust, and until sin causes one to pay the death penalty (Rom. 6:23)

g See Hades, p. 190, 620 of O. T.

h Sin is the sting that death uses to goad its victims to death (Gen. 2:17; Ezek. 18:4; Rom. 6:23; 8:12–13). See notes on Rom. 7:7–25

i What the law could not do in giving us power over sin and the eternal death penalty, Jesus Christ has done for the one who wants victory (Rom. 8:2–4; Mt. 1:21; Eph. 1:7; 2:8–9; 2 Cor. 5:17–18; Heb. 7:25; 1 Jn. 1:7–9; 3:5–10; 5:18)

j 3 commands that will bring victory:
1 Gr. hedraios, be seated, settled, and firm in the truth of the resurrection and of victory in Christ (v 58; 7:37)
2 Gr. ametakinetos, unmoveable. Let nothing shake your faith or move you away from the hope of the gospel (v 58)
3 Always abound in the work of the Lord, knowing that what you do will be rewarded (v 58; Mt. 10:42; 1 Cor. 3:11)

k This was the last of 12 subjects inquired about of Paul. Note j, 1 Cor. 7:1. Christians in Judea were suffering want due to the spoiling of their goods

l He used the Galatians as an example of giving to the Corinthians, the Corinthians to the Macedonians (2 Cor. 9:2), and these last two to the Romans (Rom. 15:26). See notes on 2 Cor. 8–9 m Collections were to be taken up on the first day of the week (Sunday), the day all early Christians observed as their day of rest and worship (v 2; Jn. 20:1, 19, 26; Acts 20:7). See Sunday, p. 191

n They were to lay up week by week a certain amount for the poor and have the whole ready to send to Jerusalem when he came (v 2–3)

o The basis of giving was as God prospered each week. This policy among Christians followed that of the Jews who brought their alms to the synagogue on the sabbath day p This proves that saints recommended by churches were approved by letters to other churches q Paul was at Ephesus when he wrote the epistle and planned to stay there until Pentecost, which would be in June. He would then spend time in Macedonia and perhaps winter with them (v 5–9)

r Timothy had apostolic power like Paul (1 Tim. 4:14; 2 Tim. 1:6)

s Timothy evidently was to meet Paul in Corinth later

t This shows Paul was not jealous of the popularity of Apollos (1:12; 3:5) of the resurrected (v 51–54). Flesh and blood cannot inherit glory or the spiritual body (v 42–49), but flesh and bones can (Lk. 24:39; Phil. 3:21)

q This is one of Paul's revelations – all will not die physically, but some will be changed to the likeness of those who do die (v 51; 1 Th. 4:13–17). The living will be changed from mortality to immortality as quickly as the dead will be raised to immortality. The time needed for this is but a moment, in the twinkling of an eye. The Gr. says en atomo, in an atom of time. It will happen at the last of two trumpets which will sound at this time. At the first trumpet the dead will be raised to immortality. At the second or last trumpet the living will be changed to immortality and be caught up with the dead to meet the Lord in the air (v 52; 1 Th. 4:16–17)

r Gr. aphthartos, immortal. Trans. only once of God's immortality (1 Tim. 1:17); not corruptible of man's spirit (1 Pet. 3:4, note) s Gr. thnetos, mortal, human (v 53–54; Rom. 6:12; 8:11; 2 Cor. 4:11; 5:4)

t THEN: when this rapture has taken place a 6 final commands to Christians

16 Watch - be continually on your guard:
(1) For Christ's coming (Mt. 24:42)
(2) That you enter not into temptation (Mt. 26:41)
(3) That you may be worthy to escape all these things (tribulations, Lk. 21:36)
(4) For grievous wolves (Acts 20:29)
(5) In prayer (Col. 4:3; 1 Pet. 4:7)
(6) In soberness (1 Th. 5:6)
(7) In all things (2 Tim. 4:5)
2 Stand fast in the faith (Gal. 5:1; Phil. 1:27; 4:1; 1 Th. 3:8; 2 Th. 2:15) Keep rank. Do not be disorderly or retreat. Keep unity. Let nothing divide you so that Satan can defeat you
3 Quit you like men (14:20; Eph. 4:14) Do not flinch in the fight. Maintain your ground at all costs. Resist, press forward. Strike deadly blows
4 Be strong (Lk. 1:80; 2:40; Eph. 3:16) Keep yourself fit. Learn how to conquer. Die in the contest or win
5 Do all things in love (note g, 13:4)
6 Submit to all true workers (v 15-16)

b See 1 Cor. 1:16

c First converts in Greece (note a, 15:20)

d Gr. tasso, determined to minister to the saints (note h, Acts 13:48). This is a great ministry in itself, for when one does anything for a saint he does it for Christ (Mt. 25:34-46)

e When anyone can make a true minister glad, he is doing a good work

13 Salvation (1 Th. 5:9)
14 Spiritual sacrifices (1 Pet. 2:5)
15 A good conscience (1 Pet. 3:21)
16 Calling to glory (1 Pet. 5:10)

Revelation (1:7)

Gr. apokalupsis, When used of a revelation it always denotes that which has had the covering taken off and the mystery removed, so that all can see all he what is revealed (note a, Rev. 1:1; Rom. 2:5; 16:25; 1 Cor. 14:6, 26; 2 Cor. 12:1, 7; Gal. 1:12; 2:2; Eph. 1:17; 3:3). When used of a person it means his visible appearance and manifestation to others (Lk. 2:13; Rom. 8:19; 1 Pet. 1:7)

4 Gr. words used of Christ's coming:
1 Apokalupsis, above (1 Pet. 1:7, 13)
2 Epiphaneia, appearing (1 Tim. 6:14; 2 Tim. 4:1, 8; Tit. 2:13; 2 Th. 2:8). Used also of 1st advent (2 Tim. 1:10)
3 Phaneros, to shine, be manifest, be seen (1 Jn. 2:28; 3:2; 1 Pet. 5:4; Col. 3:4)
4 Parousia, personal appearance, presence. The word is generally trans. coming, hence it is used of both the rapture (coming in the air for the saints), and the second advent (coming from heaven with the saints to earth). The word is used of the rapture in 1 Cor. 15:20-23; 1 Th. 2:19; 3:13; 4:15; 5:23; 2 Th. 2:1; Jas. 5:7-8; 1 Jn. 2:28. It is used of the second advent in Mt. 24:3, 27, 37, 39; 2 Th. 2:8; 2 Pet. 1:16; 3:4

3 things that save the soul (1 Cor. 6:11)
1 Washed, Gr. apolouo, from apo, away from, and louo, to wash the whole being, not a part of it. It is used in Acts 22:16 of complete washing from sins; not by baptism, but by calling upon the name of the Lord, as in Joel 2:32; Acts 2:21; Rom. 10:9-14. Here it is used of complete washing from the sins of 6:9-10 by calling on the name of Jesus Christ and by the Holy Spirit (6:11). The Gr. louo without the preposition apo, is used of washing from all sins (Rev. 1:5); the whole feet (Jn. 13:10); the whole body (Acts 9:37; Heb. 10:22); the whole sow (2 Pet. 2:22); and all the stripes of Paul and Silas (Acts 16:33)
2 Sanctified, Gr. hagiazo, to hallow, consecrate, separate from sin unto God (note h, Jn. 17:17). Note how this is put before justification (6:11)
3 Justified, Gr. dikaioo, to declare righteous or not guilty; justify. It is trans. freed from sin (Rom. 6:7); justifier (Rom. 3:26); be righteous (Rev. 22:11); and justify 33 times. See p. 174. One is justified the moment he repents and is forgiven (Lk. 18:14; Acts 13:39; Rom. 3:24, 28, 30; 4:5; 5:1, 9; 1 Cor. 6:11; Gal. 2:16-17; 3:8, 24; Tit. 3:5-7)

4 Five commands (Gal. 5:1; Phil. 4:1; 1 Th. 3:8; 2 Th. 2:15)

●13 [a]Watch ye, stand fast in the faith, quit you like men, be strong.
●14 Let all your things be done with charity.

15 I beseech you, brethren, (ye know the house [b]of Stĕph'a-năs, that it is the [c]firstfruits of Ă-chā'ĭa, and that they have [d]addicted themselves to the ministry of the saints,) 16 That ye submit yourselves unto such, and to every one that helpeth with us, and laboureth.

6 The visiting brethren who reported to Paul regarding church conditions at Corinth

17 [e]I am glad of the coming of [a]Stĕph'a-năs and [b]Fôr-tū-nā'tus and [c]Ă-chā'ĭ-cŭs: for that which was [d]lacking on your part they have supplied.
18 For they have refreshed my spirit and yours: therefore acknowledge ye them that are such.

7 Salutation and greetings

19 [e]The churches of Ă'sĭa salute you. /Ăq'ŭi-lă and Prĭs-cĭl'lă salute you much in the Lord, with the [g]church that is in their house.
20 All the brethren greet you. Greet ye one another with an holy kiss.
21 [h]The salutation of me Paul with mine own hand.
●22 If any man love not the Lord Jĕ'sus Chrīst, [i]let him be Ă-năth'e-mă Mär'an-ă'thă.
23 The grace of our Lord Jĕ'sus Christ be with you.
24 My love be with you all in Christ Jĕ'sus. Ă-mĕn'.

a It was by these that the Corinthians had sent a letter asking Paul the many questions listed in note j, 7:1

b This man is supposed to have survived Paul and to have been mentioned by Clement in his epistle to the Corinthians, Sec. 59

c Only mentioned here

d Gr. husterema. Elsewhere (Lk. 21:4; 2 Cor. 8:14; 9:12; 11:9; Phil. 2:30; Col. 1:24; 1 Th. 3:10). This either refers to information Paul got from these brethren from Corinth or to material help from the church. It could refer to both. Whatever it was it refreshed Paul's spirit and gave him courage as well as the church (v 18)

e The churches of Asia Minor. He was at Ephesus in this Asia, proving further that he was not at Philippi, as some teach (v 8)

g The company of believers who worshipped in their house at Corinth

h Cp. Col. 4:18; 2 Th. 3:17; Rom. 16:22

i Let him be accursed; our Lord cometh. This is directed against the Jews and heathen who delighted to call Jesus accursed (note, 1 Cor. 12:3)

The resurrection (15:38)
The resurrection illustrated and proved by a grain of wheat and other grain:
1 New bodies of grain are not reproduced without death (v 36; Jn. 12:24)
2 Bodies of grain that die are not the same bodies as those produced, but like them (v 37; Jn. 12:24)
3 Grain must see corruption before reproducing new bodies (Jn. 12:24)
4 Grain that does not die remains the same as long as it exists
5 Marred and wrinkled grains reproduce perfect bodies in normal reproduction
6 Parts of grain could be cut off and not sown, and yet perfect bodies produced
7 There is no difference in appearance of original and reproduced grain
8 All grains reproduce their own size, shape, and individual characteristics
9 Small and undeveloped grain, providing the life germ is there, will reproduce normal sized grain
10 Reproduced grains are just as real, tangible, and material as those sown

The end (1 Cor. 15:24-28):
5 things happen before this end:
1 The millennial kingdom must be delivered to God (v 24; Rev. 21:1-22:5)
2 All rebellious rule, authority, and power must be put down (v 24; Eph. 1:23; Heb. 2:6-9; Rev. 20:7-10)
3 Death must be destroyed (v 26; Rev. 20:7-15; 21:3-5)
4 Christ's work of ridding the earth of rebellion must be accomplished and accepted by the Father (v 27-28; Rev. 20:1-15; Eph. 1:10)
This is the purpose of the 1,000 years reign of Christ on earth. When it is completed the kingdom of heaven will be received by the Father as part of the universal kingdom of God, as before rebellion started Rebellion by Lucifer and Adam made it necessary to send Christ to re-establish the kingdom of God over all again. The Father and the Son will come to earth with an army large enough to take the kingdoms of this world in one day (Zech. 14; Rev. 19:11-21). The Son is authorized to reign the first 1,000 years of the eternal reign to rid earth of all rebellion. Afterward the Father will move His capital city, the New Jerusalem, from heaven to earth to be among men forever, then accepting the work of the Son and receiving the earth again as part of the universal kingdom of God (Rev. 21:1-22:5)
5 God becomes all and all again, as before a rebellion came by Lucifer in the pre-Adamite world, and by Adam in the Adamite world (v 28; Rev. 21:1-22:5)

Summary of 1 Corinthians

Date and place: Written about 59 A. D. at the close of the apostle's 3 years' residence at Ephesus (Acts 20:31; 1 Cor. 16:5-8)
Author: Paul (v 1. See Summary of Romans)
Theme: Christian life and conduct. Even all the doctrinal sections are built around this theme. The occasion for writing was a letter of inquiry about certain doctrines (7:1; 8:1-13), and the visit of some brethren from Corinth, reporting on the condition and different problems of the church (1:11; 5:1; 11:18; 15:12). Paul had many matters to deal with, as seen in the notes Statistics: 46th book of the Bible; 16 chapters; 437 verses; 9,489 words; 113 questions; 5 O. T. prophecies; 13 new prophecies; 377 verses of history; 55 verses of unfulfilled and 5 verses of fulfilled prophecy

Hades (15:55)
Gr. hades, hell or the unseen world of departed spirits of men where the wicked are kept in a conscious state of torment until the resurrection of the bodies at the end of the Millennium (Rev. 20:11-15). Hades was also the place of confinement of the righteous souls before the resurrection of Christ. At that time Christ reclaimed all these captive souls from the paradise or comfort compartment of hades and took them to heaven when He ascended on high (Eph. 4:8-10; Heb. 2:14-15). Hell was robbed of its victory then, as far as saints are concerned. Death still stings the Christian and will do so until the end of the first resurrection. It will sting sinners until it is destroyed at the end of the Millennium (15:24-28; Rev. 20:11-15; 21:1-7). Hell is personified here as being a victor holding his victims in defeat. He will loose his victims at the end of the Millennium when they will be judged and death and hell themselves will be cast into the lake of fire in utter defeat (Rev. 20:11-15). See notes on Lk. 16:19-31; Ps. 9:17

8 ways to partake unworthily (11:27)
1 Take the Lord's Supper in envying and strife (v 18)
2 Take it to commemorate a mere historical fact, as the Jews celebrated the passover (v 19)
3 Take it in surfeiting and drunkenness (v 21-22)
4 Take it in irreverence to God and His church (v 22)
5 Take it in disrespect to the poor and needy (v 22)
6 Take it in unbelief, not realizing its true significance, and not discerning the Lord's body and blood to receive the benefits by faith (v 27-30)
7 Take it as an unsaved man with sin in the life and without making proper confession and acknowledgement of personal needs (v 27-30)
8 Take it without judging self so as to escape chastening from God (v 31-32)

Justification is used of the final settlement between men (Job 11:2; 13:18; 27:5; 32:2; 33:32; Pr. 17:15; Lk. 10:29; 16:15); of men clearing God of all wrong (Ps. 51:4; Lk. 7:29; Rom. 3:26); and of people justifying themselves of all guilt (Jer. 3:11; Ezek. 16:51-52; Job 9:20; 13:18; 32:2; Lk. 16:15). Thus the meaning is clear - to declare not guilty. The justification of man by God simply means that God washes, sanctifies the believer, and declares him no longer guilty (1 Cor. 6:9-11; 2 Cor. 5:17-18; Acts 13:38-39). God cannot declare one not guilty before he is cleansed from all sin and made holy by the blood of Christ. Sanctification makes the sinner not guilty; justification declares him not guilty

20 commands concerning marriage: (I Cor. 7:10)

1 Let every man have his own wife (v 2)

2 Let every woman have her own husband

3 Let the husband meet the sexual needs of the wife (v 3-4)

4 Let the wife meet the sexual needs of her husband (v 3-4)

5 Defraud not each other in sexual matters - pay your conjugal vows (v 5)

6 Come together again after you have consented to live continent for a period so as to pray and fast (v 5)

7 Let both men and women marry if they have battles of self-control (v 9)

8 Let not the wife depart from her husband (v 10)

9 If she does depart, let her remain unmarried or be reconciled to her husband (v 11)

10 Let not the husband divorce his wife (v 11)

11 Let not the Christian man divorce the non-Christian if she be pleased to dwell with him: reasons (v 12-16)

12 Let not the Christian wife divorce her husband if he be pleased to dwell with her (v 13-16)

13 If the unbeliever departs and refuses to live with the Christian, let him depart, Do not force continuance of the marriage. The Christian is freed from the marriage bonds in such cases (v 15)

14 Let every man or woman remain as he or she was when each became a Christian (v 17-24). That is, do not use Christianity as an excuse to break up your own home and perhaps another, seeking a new companion

15 If you are bound to a wife, seek not to be loosed (v 27). That is, do not get a divorce, regardless of the past. Stay in the same calling and state in which you were saved (v 17-24)

16 If you are loosed from a wife, seek not another wife (v 27). If you do marry, however, you have not sinned (v 28)

17 You that have wives, live as though you did not have them (v 29-31). That is, live free from anxiety (v 32-35)

18 Let the father who has a daughter of marriageable age be free to give her in marriage. It is no sin for him to do so or for the virgin to marry (v 36-38)

19 The wife is bound by law to be married as long as the husband lives (v 39). Marriage is for the lifetime of the husband or wife.

20 Christians must remarry only Christians when companions die (v 39)

Sunday the Christian sabbath (I Cor. 16:2)

The disciples of Moses teach that the sabbath was changed from Saturday to Sunday by Constantine, 321 A. D., and by the Catholic Church, 364 A. D. The following facts from history prove that they are historically wrong:

1 The Encyclopedia Britannica under "Sabbath" and "Sunday" says, "In the early Christian Church JEWISH CHRISTIANS continued to keep the sabbath, like other points of the law.... On the other hand, Paul from the first days of GENTILE CHRISTIANITY, laid it down definitely that the Jewish sabbath was not binding on Christians. Controversy with Judaizers led in process of time to direct condemnation of those who still kept the Jewish day.... In 321 A. D. Constantine made the Christian sabbath, Sunday, the rest day for the Roman Empire, but it was observed by Christians for nearly 300 years before it became a law by Constantine."

2 The New International Encyclopedia on "Sunday" says, "For some time after the foundation of the Christian Church the converts FROM JUDAISM still observed the Jewish sabbath to a greater or lesser extent, at first, it would seem, concurrently with the celebration of the first day; but before the end of the apostolic period, Sunday, known as the Lord's day, had thoroughly established itself as the special day to be sanctified (set apart) by rest from secular labor and by public worship. The hallowing of Sunday appears inconsistably as a definite law in the Church by the beginning of the fourth century; and the Emperor Constantine confirmed the custom by a law of the state."

3 The Catholic Encyclopedia on "Sunday" says, "Sunday was the first day of the week according to the Jewish method of reckoning, but for Christians it began to take the place of the Jewish sabbath in apostolic times as the day set apart for public and solemn worship of God." This volume quotes a number of early Christian writings of the first, second, and third centuries to prove that Sunday was kept by Christians from the earliest times

4 The International Standard Bible Encyclopedia on "The Lord's Day" says, "The Lord's day in the New Testament occurs only in Rev. 1:10, but in post-apostolic literature we have the following references: the Epistle of Ignatius to the Magnesians, IX, 1, 'No longer keeping the sabbath but living according to the Lord's day, on which also our light arose. . . Acts 2:46 represents the special worship as DAILY. But this could not continue long. . A choice of a special day must have become necessary, and this day would, of course, have been Sunday.... Uncircumcised Gentiles, however, were free from any obligation of sabbath observance". . No observance of a special day of rest is contained among the 'NECESSARY THINGS' of Acts 15:28, 29. . . A given day as a matter of divine obligation is denounced by Paul as forsaking Christ (Gal. 4:10), and sabbath-keeping is condemned explicitly in Col. 2:16. As a matter of individual devotion to be sure, a man might do as he pleased (Rom. 14:5, 6), but no general rule as necessary for salvation could be compatible with liberty wherewith Christ has made us free (Gal. 2:1-21; 3:1-14; 5:1-4, 13)."

5 We next quote from the ten volumes called, "The Ante-Nicene Fathers," the writings of the early church fathers down to 325 A. D. and before Constantine and the Catholic Church are supposed to have changed the sabbath from Saturday to Sunday:

(1) Ignatius, Bishop of Antioch, who lived at the time of the apostles, 30-107 A. D. He, like Polycarp, was a disciple of St. John and one who should know Christian practice among the early Christians as to the sabbath. He wrote, "And after the observance of the sabbath (that the Jews kept), let every friend of Christ keep the Lord's day as a festival, the resurrection day, the queen and chief of all days of the week. . on which our life sprang up again, and victory over death was obtained in Christ. . . it is absurd to speak of Jesus Christ with the tongue, and to cherish in the mind a Judaism which has come to an end.... If any man preach the Jewish law unto you, listen not to him. For it is better to hearken to Christian doctrine from a man who is circumcised, than to a Judaism from one uncircumcised" (Vol. I, pages 63-82)

(2) In the Epistle of Barnabas, ascribed to Paul's companion by Clement, Origen, and others, we read, "He says to them, 'Your new moons and your sabbaths I cannot endure' (Isa. 1:13). Ye perceive how He speaks: Your present sabbaths are not acceptable to me,... I will make a beginning of the eighth day, that is, a beginning of another world. Wherefore, also we keep the eighth day with joyfulness, the day on which Jesus rose again from the dead" (Vol. 1, Page 147)

(3) Justin Martyr, a Gentile born near Jacob's well about 110 A. D. writes, "And on the day called Sunday, all who live in cities or in the country gather together to one place, and the memoirs of the apostles or the writings of the prophets are read.... But Sunday is the day on which we hold our common assembly, because it is the first day on which God, having wrought a change in the darkness and matter, made the world; and Jesus Christ our Saviour on the same day rose from the dead" (Vol. 1, Page 186)

In his dialogue with Trypho, a Jew, Justin Martyr says, "Is there any other matter, my friends, in which we are blamed, than this, that we live not according to the law, and are not circumcised in the flesh as your forefathers were, and do not observe the sabbaths as you do?. . Christians would observe the law, if they did not know why it was instituted. . For we too would observe the fleshly circumcision, and the sabbaths, and in short all feasts, if we did not know for what reason they were enjoined you.... How is it, Trypho, that we would not observe those rites which do not harm us - I speak of fleshly circumcision, and sabbaths, and feasts?. . The Gentiles, who have believed in Him, and who have repented of their sins. . . shall receive the inheritance along with the patriarchs. . . even although they neither keep the sabbath, nor are circumcised, nor observe the feasts.... Christ is useless to those who observe the law.... The sabbath and sacrifices and offerings and feasts. . . have come to an end in Him who was born of a virgin.... But if some, through weak-mindedness, wish to observe such institutions as were given to Moses.... along with their hope in Christ. . . they shall probably be saved" (Vol. 1, Pages 199-218)

(4) Tertullian, presbyter of the North-African Church, who was born about 145 A. D., writes, "The Holy Spirit upbraids the Jews for their holydays. 'Your sabbaths, and new moons, and ceremonies my soul hateth. . . By us (Christians), to whom sabbaths are strange. . . to the heathen each festive day occurs but once annually: you (Christians) have a festive day every eighth day.... Others suppose that the sun is the god of the Christians, because it is a well-known fact that we pray towards the east, or because we make Sunday a day of festivity.... you who reproach us with the sun and Sunday should consider your own proximity to us. We are not far off from your Saturn and your days of rest.... It follows, accordingly, that, in so far as the abolition of carnal circumcision and of the old law is demonstrated as having been consummated at its specific times, so also the observance of the sabbath is demonstrated to have been temporary" (Vol. III, Pages 70, 123, 155, 313-14).

(5) In "The Teachings of the Twelve Apostles," written about 80 A. D.: we read, "But every Lord's day (Sunday) do ye gather yourselves together, and break bread and give thanksgiving" (Vol. VII, Page 381)

(6) In the Constitutions of the Holy Apostles (2nd century) we read, "Break your fast. . . the first day of the week, which is the Lord's day.... After eight days let there be another feast observed with honor, the eighth day itself" (Vol. VII, Page 447)

(7) In "The Teachings of the Apostles," written 105 A. D., we read, "The apostles therefore appointed. . . on the first day of the week let there be service and reading of the Holy Scriptures, and the oblation (Lord's Supper): because on the first day of the week our Lord arose upon the world, and ascended to heaven" (Vol. VIII, Page 668)

(8) Irenaeus, 178 A. D., in arguing that the Jewish sabbaths were signs and types and were not to be kept since the reality of which they were shadows had come, says, "The mystery of the Lord's resurrection may not be celebrated on any other day than the Lord's day and on this alone should we observe the breaking of the Paschal Feast. . . Pentecost fell on the first day of the week, and was therefore associated with the Lord's day."

(9) Clement of Alexandria, 174 A. D., says, "The old seventh day has become nothing more than a working day."

(10) Theophilus, pastor of Antioch, 162 A. D., says, "Both custom and reason challenge us that we should honor the Lord's day, seeing on that day it was that our Lord completed His resurrection from the dead."

(11) Origen, about 200 A. D., says, "John the Baptist was born to make ready a people for the Lord, a people for Him at the end of the covenant now grown old, which is the end of the sabbath.... It is one of the marks of a perfect Christian to keep the Lord's day."

(12) Victorianus, 300 A. D., says, "On the Lord's day we go forth to our bread and giving of thanks. Lest we should appear to observe any sabbath with the Jews, which Christ Himself the Lord of the sabbath in His body abolished" (Section 4, "On the Creation")

6 Eusebius, the Father of Church History, who made a history of the time between the birth of Christ and Constantine, and who lived 265-340 A. D., says, "From the beginning Christians assembled on the first day of the week, called by them the Lord's Day, for the purpose of religious worship, to read the Scriptures, to preach and to celebrate the Lord's Supper. . . the first day of the week on which the Saviour obtained the victory over death. Therefore, it has the pre-eminence, first in rank, and is more honorable than the Jewish Sabbath."

WHAT THE BIBLE DOES NOT SAY ABOUT THE SABBATH

20 MODERN FALLACIES NOT STATED IN THE OLD OR NEW TESTAMENT:

1 That Sunday-keeping is a human institution

2 That Christians must keep the old Jewish sabbath

3 That Christians are obligated to keep any certain day

4 That all who keep Sunday have the mark of the beast

5 That all who keep Sunday are lost

6 That Sunday-keeping is a Roman Catholic institution

7 That Christians never held a religious service on the 1st day of the week (Sunday)

8 That the 10 commandments were not done away when the old covenant was "abolished" and "done away" in Christ on the cross

9 That the Lord's day is the 7th day or the old Jewish sabbath

10 That the 4th commandment is part of the new covenant

11 That Christians are not to work on Saturday

12 That the 4th commandment sabbath is not included in the "sabbaths" that were abolished on the cross as taught in Col. 2:14-17; Gal. 4:9-11; Rom. 14:1-5; Eph. 2:15

13 That the law of Moses and the 4th commandment sabbath were for Gentiles as well as Jews

14 That the 4th commandment sabbath was a sign between God and Gentiles as is stated of God and Israel in Ex. 31:13-17; Deut. 5:12-15; Ezek. 20:12-13

15 That Saturday is a holy day, the sabbath, a day of rest, a day of worship, or a day sanctified in the new covenant

16 That Saturday was the only day the apostles recognized as a day of rest and worship

17 That Jesus instituted the old Jewish sabbath. (The Bible says that God the Father gave the law and spoke in times past to men, Heb. 1:1, 2; Rom. 1:1-3; Acts 3:21-26; etc.)

18 That all men observed the sabbath for about 2,500 years from creation to Ex. 16, at which time God first commanded men to keep a certain day

19 That Sunday cannot be as holy as any other day sanctified or set apart for the worship of God

20 That Christians are obligated to observe a particular day of the week as men were bound to do under the old covenant. See Rom. 14:5-6; Gal. 4:9-10; Col. 2:14-17; Heb. 4

The idea here is, "We have given the fullest proof of our conduct to you Christians in particular."

150 CHAPTER 1

I The introduction: authorship and salutation

PAUL, an[a] apostle of Jē'şus Christ by the will of God, and[b] Tim'o-thy our brother, unto the church of God which is at Cŏr'inth, with all the saints which are in all[c] Ă-chā'ĭă:

2[d] Grace be to you and peace from God our Father, and from the Lord Jē'şus Christ.

II Paul's personal testimony (2 Cor. 1:3-2:13). 1 Thanksgiving for deliverances and blessings

3[e] Blessed be God, even the Father of our Lord Jē'şus Christ, the Father of mercies, and the God of all[f] comfort;

▸4 Who[g] comforteth us in all our[h] tribulation, that we may be able to comfort them which are in any trouble, by the comfort wherewith we ourselves are comforted of God.

5 For as the [i]sufferings of Christ abound in us, [j]so our consolation also aboundeth by Christ.

6 And whether we be[k] afflicted, it is for your consolation and salvation, which is effectual in the enduring of the same sufferings which we also suffer: or whether we be comforted, [l]it is for your consolation and salvation.

▸7 And our hope of you is stedfast, knowing, that as ye[m] are partakers of the sufferings, [n]so shall ye be also of the consolation.

8[o] For we would not, brethren, have you ignorant of[p] our trouble which came to us in Ă'şĭa, that we were pressed out of measure, above strength, insomuch that we despaired even of life:

9 But we had the sentence of death in ourselves, that we should not trust in ourselves, but in God which[q] raiseth the dead:

10 Who delivered us from so great a death, and doth deliver: in whom we trust that he will yet deliver us;

11 [r]Ye also helping together by prayer for us, that for the [s]gift bestowed upon us by the means of many persons thanks may be given by many on our behalf.

2 Character of Paul's ministry

12 For our[t] rejoicing is this, the [u]testimony of our conscience, that in[v] simplicity [w]and godly [x]sincerity, not with[y] fleshly wisdom, but by the grace of God, we have had our[z] conversation in the[a] world, and[b] more abundantly to you-ward.

3 Purpose of the epistle

13 For we write none other things unto you, [c]than what ye read or acknowledge; and I trust ye shall acknowledge even to the end;

✱14[d] As also ye have acknowledged us in part, that[e] we are your rejoicing, even as ye also are ours in the[f] day of the Lord Jē'şus.

4 His proposed visit (1 Cor. 16:5; 2 Cor. 12:14-16; 13:1-4)

15 And [g]in this confidence I was minded to come unto you before, that ye might have a second[h] benefit;

16 And to pass by you into Măc-e-dō'nĭ-ă, and to [i]come again out of Măc-e-dō'nĭ-ă unto you, and of you to be brought on my way toward Jū-dæ'ă.

5 Paul vindicates his action

17[j] When I therefore was thus minded, did I use[k] lightness? or the things that I purpose, [l]do I purpose according to the flesh, that with me there should be yea yea, and nay nay?

18 But as God is true, our word toward you was not yea and nay.

19 For the Son of God, Jē'şus Christ, who was [m]preached among you by us, even by me and Sĭl-vā'nus and Tĭ-mō'the-ŭs, was not yea and nay, but in him was yea.

▸20 For all the promises of God in him are[n] yea, and in him Ă-mĕn,[o] unto the glory of God by us.

21 Now[p] he which stablisheth us with you in Christ, and hath anointed us, is God;

22 Who hath also sealed us, and given the earnest of the Spirit in our hearts.

23 Moreover[q] I call God for a record upon my soul, that to spare you I came not as yet unto Cŏr'inth.

24[r] Not for that we have dominion over your faith, but are helpers of your joy: for by faith ye stand.

151 CHAPTER 2

BUT[s] I determined this with myself, that I would not come again to you in heaviness.

2 For if I make you sorry, who is he then that maketh me glad, but the same which is made sorry by me?

6 Reference to his former epistle (1 Cor. 5. Cp. 2 Cor. 7:8-16)

3 [t]And I wrote this same unto you, lest, when I came, I should have sorrow from them of whom I ought to rejoice; having confidence in you all, that my joy is the joy of you all.

4 [u]For out of much affliction and anguish of heart I wrote unto you with many tears; not that ye should be grieved, but that ye might know the love which I have more abundantly unto you.

5 [v]But if any have caused grief, he hath not grieved me, but in part: that I may not overcharge a We hope that you will always acknowledge the truths in the first epistle to you. Some of you acknowledge us, even as we acknowledge that you are ours (v 13-14)

b We are the cause of your rejoicing because we have won you to Christ and you believe we are His ministers. You also will be our rejoicing in the day of Christ when we present you as our converts before Him (1 Th. 2:18-20; 3:13) c 1st N.T. prophecy in 2 Cor. (1:14). Next, 3:16. See note s, 1 Cor. 1:8
d Under the conviction that you rejoice in us as ministers of Christ, and we rejoice in you as our converts e Gr. charis, grace or favor. It refers to the benefits of grace which Paul's ministry would naturally bring to them on his second visit. It does not and could not refer to a second work of grace to sanctify them or take out the old man, as taught by some. They were already sanctified (1 Cor. 1:2, 30; 6:11)
f It appears that Paul fulfilled this second ministry before he finished writing this epistle, for in 12:14; 13:1 he speaks of coming to them a third time

g Questions 1-2, Next, 2:1
h Gr. elaphria, fickleness. Only here i Do I act as carnal men, who change their minds from day to day and falsify their engagements to suit their own secular interests? They say yea, yea, and nay, nay, or say one thing one day and change it the next day if it is to their advantage (v 17). All our promises have been true and God has confirmed them to you (v 20-22)
j Gr. kerusso, to announce, or proclaim as a herald, without reference to the matter proclaimed, and without including the idea of teaching. It is trans. proclaim (Lk. 12:3; Rev. 5:2); publish (Mk. 1:45; 5:20; 7:36; 13:10; Lk. 8:39); and preach 52 times (v 19; 4:5; 11:4) k All God's promises are yes and so be it, or yes and truth. In Him they are always yes, and in Him they are always truthful. Not one promise of God is no to the one who will believe and meet the conditions l This word means truly or truth. See note g, Jn. 1:51
m The promises of God were confirmed by us to His own glory. God backed us up in our preaching n 4 great blessings of God (v 21-22): He 1 Confirms men in the faith (Rom. 15:8)
2 Anoints or endues with power (Lk. 4:18; Acts 10:38; Heb. 1:9; 1 Jn. 2:27)
3 Seals with the stamp of ownership (Rom. 4:11; 2 Tim. 2:19; Eph. 1:13; 4:30)
4 Gives His Spirit of sonship (Rom. 8:14-16; Gal. 4:4-7)
o Here Paul returns to his subject of v 16. I call God to be witness that it was because I was afraid that I would have to use my power to judge you if I came, so I thought it best not to come at the time proposed (v 23-24) p Not that we want to come to lord it over your faith, but to help you q Question 3, Next, 2:16. I decided that it would be best not to see you at all until you have acted by my first letter, putting the evils away from you. I do not want to come to you in sorrow and grief. If I make you sorry enough to cause you to put away sin, then you will make me glad (v 1-2)
r I wrote the first epistle to you so you could correct the evils in your midst, lest when I came I would have to take action and make you sorry by having to deal with those who should make me rejoice. I know that you wish my joy and I wish yours, so if writing will accomplish my present purpose we shall be happier with one another when I do come (v 3) s It is the hardest part of my ministry to have to bring judgment, so this is another reason why I wrote to you before I came. My purpose was not to cause you grief, but to let you know my love and concern for you (v 4) t If anyone has caused grief he has not grieved me as much as he has caused pain to you. It would not be fair for me to charge all of you with the blame of the few who have gone astray (v 5) you all.

6 [a]Sufficient to such a man is this [b]punishment, which was inflicted of [c]many.

7 So that contrariwise ye ought rather to forgive him, and comfort him, [d]lest perhaps such a one should be swallowed up with overmuch sorrow.

8 Wherefore [e]I beseech you that ye would confirm your love toward him.

9 For [f]to this end also did I write, that I might know the proof of you, whether ye be obedient in all things.

10 To whom ye forgive any thing, [g]I forgive also: for if I forgave any thing, to whom I forgave it, for your sakes forgave I it in the person of Christ;

11 Lest Sā'tan should get an advantage of us: for we are not ignorant of his [h]devices.

7 Distress over Titus (7:5-6)

12 Furthermore, when I came to [i]Trō'as to preach Christ's gospel, and a door was opened unto me of the Lord, 13 I had no rest in my spirit, because I found not Tī'tus my brother; but taking my leave of them, I went from thence into Măç-e-dō'nĭ-ā.

III New Testament ministry (2 Cor. 2:14-7:16). 1 Always triumphant in Christ (Col. 2:10; 1 Jn. 5:4-5; Rom. 8:28-39)

▸14 Now thanks be unto God, which always causeth us [j]to triumph in Christ, and maketh manifest the [k]savour of his knowledge by us in every place.

2 A soul-saving and soul-damning ministry (Mk. 16:15-16; Rom. 2:7-16; 1 Cor. 1:18-25)

15 For we are unto God a [l]sweet savour of Christ, in them that are saved, and in them that perish:

16 To the one we are the savour of death unto death; and to the other the savour of life unto life. [m]And who is sufficient for these things?

3 A sincere and truthful ministry (Mt. 7:15-20; 22:16; Phil. 1:10-18)

17 For we are not as many, which [n]corrupt the word of God: but as of [o]sincerity, but as of God, in the sight of God speak we in Christ.

CHAPTER 3 152

4 A ministry commended by God (Jn. 14:12; Mk. 16:17-20; Acts 1:4-8; 10:38; Heb. 2:1-4)

[p]DO we begin [q]again to commend ourselves? or [r]need we, as some others, epistles of commendation to you, or letters of commendation from you?

2 Ye are our epistle written in our hearts, known and read of all men:

3 Forasmuch as ye are manifestly declared to be [a]the epistle of Christ ministered by us, written not with ink, but with the Spirit of the living God; not in tables of stone, but in fleshy tables of the heart.

4 [b]And such trust have we through Christ to God-ward:

5 Not that we are sufficient of ourselves to think any thing as of ourselves; but our sufficiency is of God;

5 A ministry of the New Testament, not of the Old (Gal. 4:21, refs.)

6 Who also hath made us able ministers of the [c]new testament; not of the letter, but of the spirit: for the letter killeth, but the spirit giveth life.

7 But if the ministration of death, [d]written and engraven in stones, was [e]glorious, so that the children of Iş ra-el could not stedfastly behold the face of Mō'şeş for the glory of his countenance; which glory was to be done away:

8 [f]How shall not the ministration of the spirit be rather glorious?

6 A ministry of glory and righteousness (Rom. 2:7-10; 14:17; Mt. 18:18, refs.)

9 For if the ministration of condemnation be glory, much more doth the ministration of righteousness exceed in glory.

10 For even that which was made glorious had no glory in this respect, [g]by reason of the glory that excelleth.

11 For if that which is done away was glorious, much more that which remaineth is glorious.

7 A ministry of hope, light and liberty (Gal. 5:1; Heb. 7:19; 8:6)

12 Seeing then that we have such hope, we use great plainness of speech:

13 And not as Mō'şeş, which put a [h]veil over his face, that the children of Iş'ra-el could not stedfastly look to the end of that which is [i]abolished:

14 But their minds were [j]blinded: for until this day remaineth the same veil untaken away in the reading of the old testament; which veil is done away in Christ.

15 But even unto this day, when Mō'şeş is read, the veil is upon their heart.

★16 Nevertheless when [k]it shall [l]turn to the Lord, the veil shall be taken away.◂

▸17 Now the Lord is that Spirit: and where the Spirit of the Lord is, there is liberty.

8 A ministry of constant transformation (2 Cor. 5:17; Rom. 8:1-23; 8:1-3; Eph. 4:20-24; Col. 3:5-10)

▸18 But we all, [m]with open face beholding as in a glass the glory of the Lord, are [n]changed into the same image from glory to glory, even as by the Spirit of the Lord.

a This refers to the fornicator of 1 Cor. 5 who had his punishment inflicted by the church. This had brought him to repentance, and the people, like those of most churches, were not so willing to forgive him and receive him back. Paul now writes the second letter instructing them to forgive him and to confirm their love to him, lest he should be overwhelmed by too much sorrow (v 6-8)

b Gr. epitimia, censure. The word really means full rights and privileges. The punishment consisted of taking away these rights and privileges which he had in the church (1 Cor. 5) c The majority. This suggests that some in the church, perhaps relatives, did not take part in such punishment

d The man had already suffered sufficiently. The purpose of the punishment was to bring him to repentance. This had been accomplished and now there was danger of him destroying his life if the church would not forgive him (v 7)

e Paul pleads for the church to forgive him and confirm their love to him, regardless of the reproach he had brought upon the gospel (v 8)

f I wrote to know whether you have obeyed in all things (v 9)

g I forgive whom you forgive. We must all forgive for the sake of all concerned and do so because Christ has forgiven (v 10; Eph. 4:32; Mt. 18:21-35). We must also do this lest Satan take the advantage (v 11; Jas. 4:7; 1 Pet. 5:8-9)

h Gr. noema, thoughts; purposes; designs. Trans. thought (2 Cor. 10:5); devices (2 Cor. 2:11); and minds (2 Cor. 3:14; 4:4; 11:3; Phil. 4:7). The devil will take advantage of every failure of the Christian using it to get into his life and cause his downfall (1 Cor. 10:13; 1 Pet. 5:8-9; Eph. 6:10-18)
In this case, Satan could lead the despairing one into apostasy and hell, or the church into undue severity and hardness of heart toward guilty members, working untold harm to the cause of Christ i Paul visited Troas on his second missionary journey (Acts 16:6-8) and perhaps during his third missionary journey (Acts 18:23), which trip he refers to is not known. Cp. 2 Cor. 8:6-7

j The triumph here is like that of the Romans in which a public and solemn honor was conferred upon a victorious general, by allowing him a magnificent procession through the city of Rome. This was not granted by the senate unless he had gained a very signal and decisive victory or conquered a province. On such occasions the general was clad in purple and gold woven in figures setting forth his achievements. He wore a crown and in one hand held a branch of laurel, the emblem of victory. In the other he carried his staff. He rode a magnificent chariot, adorned with ivory and plates of gold, and drawn by white horses. To keep him humble in the midst of all this a slave rode at his back, casting railings and reproaches and enumerating his vices and failures. Musicians led the procession; young men led sacrifices to be offered; then came loads of spoil, followed by the kings, princes, and generals taken captive. After these came the triumphal chariot before which people strewed flowers and shouted triumphant cries. Following this came the senate, priests, and the rest of the parade Triumph in Christ means complete mastery over satanic powers (v 14; Col. 2:14-17; Eph. 2:14-15)

k Gr. osme, odour (v 14, 16; Jn. 12:3; Eph. 5:2; Phil. 4:18). Such a triumph in Christ as described here makes manifest the odour of His saving knowledge by triumphant ministers wherever they serve (v 14)

l Gr. euodia, sweet perfume (v 15; Eph. 5:2; Phil. 4:18). Not the same word in note k, above. Ministers are a sweet perfume unto God through Christ in all that are saved and unsaved. To the a You are not only our epistle (v 2), but the epistle of Christ ministered by us through the Holy Spirit (v 3)

b We have faith in you through Christ that you are the work of God and that our ability to win you to Christ is of God (v 4-5)

c See 85 old and new covenant contrasts, p. 201

d The 10 commandments in particular were abolished along with the whole law of Moses. See note o, Acts 15:1. The only ones of the law of Moses that were brought into and made a part of the new covenant are for Christians to obey. See note i, Acts 15:24. The 10 commandments were the only part of the law of Moses written on the tables of stone (Ex. 24:12; 31:18; 34:1-4; Dt. 4:13; 5:22; 9:9-11; 10:1-3)

e Ex. 19:16; 34:33-35

f Question 7, Next, 6:14

g The reason the new covenant excels the old is that the old was only for a time (v 7; Gal. 3:19, 25; 4:30; Heb. 9:9-10), a place - Palestine (Dt. 5:16; 11:9; 28:6; 31:13), and a people - the Jews (Dt. 5:3; Rom. 2:12-16). The new covenant is for all time, all lands, and all people (Mt. 26:28; Mk. 16:15-16; Lk. 24:47; Jn. 3:16; Acts 1:8; Rom. 10:9-14; 1 Cor. 12:13)

h Gr. kalumma. Only in v 13, 14, 15, 16

i Being done away as in v 7, 11, 14. See 85 contrasts, 201; note o, Acts 15:1

j By resting in the letter and shutting their eyes to the light, they became blind to the fact that the old covenant was abolished and done away. Many Christians are just as blind to the same simple fact because of the universal belief that the 10 commandments, including the sabbath, are still in force. Notes o and i, Acts 15:1, 24

k When the heart shall turn to God this blindness will be taken away

l 2nd N. T. prophecy in 2 Cor. (3:16). Next, 4:14. Gr. epistrepho. Trans. turn to and return 22 times; converted (Mt. 13:15; Mk. 4:12; Lk. 22:32; Jn. 12:40; Acts 3:19; 28:27; Jas. 5:19-20); and turn again (Mk. 13:16; Lk. 17:4; Gal. 4:9; 2 Pet. 2:22). Conversion is turning again to God, and if it is needful to turn to Him more than once it can be done, as is clear in these passages

m The law was veiled in types and shadows of good things to come (Heb. 10:1). The gospel has practically no ceremonies in comparison. Baptism and the Lord's Supper are the only two outward rituals. The gospel is in such simplicity that there can be no confusion as to its terms and blessings

n See note j, Mt. 17:2

saved they are an odour (Gr. osme, odour; not euodia, perfume) of life unto life. [a]To the unsaved they are an odour (osme) of death unto death. This is another way of saying, whoever receives the gospel will be saved and whoever rejects it will be lost. The preached gospel saves saints and damns sinners

m Question 4, Next, 3:1. Are the false apostles that lead you astray able to do these things?

n Gr. kapeleuo, adulterate. Only here, but the word kapelos occurs in the Sept. in Isa. 1:22 of tavern-keepers who mix wine with water. The idea here is that the false apostles who were disturbing the Corinthians (11:13-15) were mixing the Word of God with their own inventions and were explaining it away to accomodate their hearers to get gain. Much of the Word of God is being adulterated today in many parts of Christendom (2 Tim. 4:1-4)

o Sincerity here refers to keeping the Word of God pure, and to delivering it in its purity to mankind

p Questions 5-6, Next, v 8

q He had done so in 1 Cor. 9

r Are we so destitute of divine abilities as to need letters of commendation from other churches to you or from you to other churches? You are our epistle written on our hearts so that we speak of your gifts and graces in all places (v 2)

a This ministry of:
1 Triumph in Christ in every place (2:14)
2 Life unto life in the saved (2:16)
3 Death unto death unto the unsaved (2:16)
4 Preaching the pure gospel (2:17)
5 Making men epistles of Christ (3:3)
6 Divine ability of the New Testament (3:6)
7 Giving life (3:6)
8 The Holy Spirit (3:8, 17-18)
9 Righteousness (3:9)
10 Excellent glory (3:10-11)
11 Liberty and freedom (3:17) (3:18)
12 Transformation from glory to glory

b Gr. diakonia, service rendered by a diakonos (servant: note d, Mt. 20:26) c 6 duties in view of mercy and ministry:

1 To faint not (v 1)
2 Renounce the shameful secret things
3 Not walking in craftiness (v 2)
4 Not handling the Word of God deceitfully (v 2)
5 Manifesting the truth to all men (v 2)
6 Maintaining a clear conscience before God and man (v 2) d Gr. ekkakeo, to be faint-hearted (v 1, 16; Lk. 18:1; Gal. 6:9; Eph. 3:13)

e Lit., the secret things of shame; the things that wicked men do and which they are ashamed to have known

f Gr. aischune, always trans. shame except here (Lk. 14:9; Phil. 3:19; Heb. 12:2; Jude 13; Rev. 3:18)

g Gr. panourgia, to play the knave, or villain: act like a rogue: to do holy deeds in an unholy way. Trans. craftiness (v 2; Lk. 20:23; 1 Cor. 3:19); cunning craftiness (Eph. 4:14); and subtilty (2 Cor. 11:3). The false teachers at Corinth were clever, cunning, and capable of anything harmful to a foe

h Gr. doloo, to beguile, ensnare; to counterfeit; adulterate; disguise. Only here i Gr. phanerosis, making visible. Used here and in 1 Cor. 12:7 where it speaks of the use of the spiritual gifts. These gifts are the means God has chosen to make visible the truth of the gospel. Paul confirmed and made visible his preaching by a demonstration of it in signs, wonders, different miracles, and gifts of the Holy Ghost (Acts 19:11; Rom. 15:18-19, 29; Heb. 2:3-4)

j Gr. kalupto, to cover or veil (Mt. 8:24; 10:26; Lk. 8:16; 23:30; 1 Pet. 4:8) and hide (2 Cor. 4:3; Jas. 5:20). The gospel is hidden from some men because they have wilfully closed their eyes to it, as in 3:13-16; Mt. 13:14-16. If the heart of any man who hears the gospel is veiled it is definite that he is lost and fully under the power of sin and Satan. Those who refuse to hear the gospel are proper subjects for Satan's work to increase the darkness and hardness of heart (4:3-4)

k Satan (Jn. 8:44; 12:31; 14:30; 16:11; Eph. 2:2; 1 Jn. 3:9; 5:18)

p A reference to Gen. 1:3. The light of the gospel shining into our darkened hearts is like the bursting forth of the sun in the darkness of Gen. 1:2

q In the personal presence of Jesus Christ

r Gr. ostrakinos, here and in 2 Tim. 2:20. Often in the East treasures are hidden in earthen vessels to protect them from the damp. Cp. Jer. 32:14. Here it refers to the power of the Holy Ghost through the light of the gospel in our bodies. The emphasis is on the contrast between a frail vessel of earth and the priceless treasure of power that dwells in it s 4 pairs of expressions of sufferings:

1 Hard pressed, but not suffocated
2 Puzzled, but not utterly baffled
3 Pursued, but not caught or outrun
4 Struck down, but not out of the fight
The first two refer to wrestling; the 3rd to a race; and the 4th to a boxing match (v 8-9)

t Gr. periphero, to carry about with one; to whirl (v 10; Mk. 6:55; Eph. 4:14; Heb. 13:9; Jude 12). I am under a sentence of death for Jesus and am likely to die at any time for His cause (v 11). There is also an allusion to the marks of battle already fought for Christ (Gal. 6:17) u Gr. nekrosis, making dead; a dead condition (v 10; Rom. 4:19). The idea is

153 CHAPTER 4

9 An honest ministry (8:21; Acts 6:3; Rom. 12:17; 13:13; Phil. 4:8; 1 Tim. 2:2)

THEREFORE seeing we have a this b ministry, as we have received mercy, c we d faint not;

2 But have renounced the e hidden things of f dishonesty, not walking in g craftiness, nor handling the word of God h deceitfully; but by f manifestation of the truth commending ourselves to every man's conscience in the sight of God.

10 An unselfish ministry (Jn. 16:13-15; Phil. 1:12-19)

3 But if our gospel be j hid, it is hid to them that are lost:

4 In whom the k god of this world hath blinded the minds of them which believe not, l lest the light of the m glorious gospel of Christ, who is the n image of God, should shine unto them.

5 For we o preach not ourselves, but Christ Jē'sus the Lord; and ourselves your servants for Jē'sus' sake.

6 For God, p who commanded the light to shine out of darkness, hath shined in our hearts, to give the light of the knowledge of the glory of God in the q face of Jē'sus Christ.

11 A ministry of power (Mt. 18:18, refs.)

7 But we have this treasure in r earthen vessels, that the excellency of the power may be of God, and not of us.

12 A ministry of suffering (11:23; 1 Cor. 4:9; Phil. 3:10; Rom. 8:18; 2 Tim. 2:12; 3:12; 1 Pet. 4:1)

8 s We are troubled on every side, yet not distressed; we are perplexed, but not in despair;

9 Persecuted, but not forsaken; cast down, but not destroyed;

10 Always t bearing about in the body the u dying of the Lord Jē'sus, that the life also of Jē'sus might be made manifest in our body.

11 For we which live are alway delivered unto death for Jē'sus' sake, that the life also of Jē'sus might be made manifest in our v mortal flesh.

12 So then w death worketh in us, but life in you.

13 A bold and faithful ministry (Acts 4:13, 20; Rom. 9:1; 1 Tim. 1:11-12)

13 We having the same spirit of faith, according as it is written, x I believed, and therefore have I spoken; we also believe, and therefore speak;

*14 y Knowing that he which raised up the Lord Jē'sus shall raise up us also by Jē'sus, and shall present us with you. ◂

15 z For all things are for your sakes, that the abundant grace might through the thanksgiving of many redound to the glory of God.

14 A ministry of eternal things (Rom. 2:7-16; 8:17-25)

▸16 For which a cause we faint not; but though our b outward man c perish, yet the d inward man is e renewed day by day.

▸17 For our f light affliction, which is but for a a moment, worketh for us a far more exceeding and eternal weight of glory;

18 While we h look not at the things which are seen, but at the things which are not seen: for the things which are seen are temporal; but the things which are not seen are eternal.

154 CHAPTER 5

15 A confident ministry of the future (Jn. 14:1-3; 1 Th. 4:13-18; Phil. 1:21-24; 3:10-21; Tit. 2:13-14)

▸FOR we know that if our i earthly house of this i tabernacle were j dissolved, we have k a building of God, an house not made with hands, eternal in the heavens.

2 For in this we groan, earnestly desiring to be clothed upon with our house which is from heaven:

3 If so be that being clothed we shall not be found naked.

4 For we that are in this tabernacle do groan, being burdened: not for that we would be unclothed, l but clothed upon, that mortality might be swallowed up of life.

5 Now he that hath wrought us for the selfsame thing is God, who also hath given unto us the m earnest of the Spirit.

6 Therefore we are always confident, knowing that, n whilst we are at home in the body, we are absent from the Lord:

7 (For we walk by faith, not by sight:)

8 We are confident, I say, and willing rather o to be absent from the body, and to be present with the Lord.

16 A hard working ministry to please God (1 Cor. 3:11-15; 9:27; Eph. 4:11-16; 6:10-18; Phil. 2:12-16)

9 p Wherefore we labour, that, whether present or absent, we may be accepted of him.

*10 q For we must all appear before the judgment seat of Christ; that every one may receive the things done in his body, according to that he hath done, whether it be good or bad.

11 Knowing therefore the r terror of the Lord, we persuade men; but we are made manifest unto God; and I trust also are made manifest in your consciences.

12 For we commend not ourselves again unto you, but give you occasion to glory on our behalf, that ye may have somewhat to answer them which glory in appearance, and not in heart.

13 For whether we be beside ourselves, it is to God: or whether we be s sober, it is for your cause.

a For the sake of winning souls to glorify God (v 15), we suffer all things without fainting. The outward man is slowly dying through trials and sufferings, but the inward man is being renewed daily (v 16)

b Found only here and refers to the body

c Gr. diaphtheiro, corrupted; destroyed (Lk. 12:33; 1 Tim. 6:5; Rev. 8:9; 11:18)

d Refers to the soul and spirit - the real person in the body (Jas. 2:26; Heb. 4:12; 12:23; 1 Th. 5:23; Rev. 6:9; 2 Cor. 5:8)

e Gr. anakainoo. Only here and Col. 3:10

f Gr. elaphros. Only here and Mt. 11:30

g Such is considered momentary lightness compared with the eternal weight of glory one receives for sufferings (Rom. 8:17-18)

h We do not strive for things we see, for they are not worthy of the pursuit of an immortal soul. The things not seen are the eternal and important things of life i Gr. skenos, tent. Only here and v 4. This refers to our body which is compared to a tent in which we dwell

j Gr. kataluo. Trans. dissolve (v 1); throw down (Mt. 24:2; Mk. 13:2; Lk. 21:6); overthrow (Acts 5:39); destroy (Mt. 5:17; 26:61; 27:40; Mk. 14:58; 15:29; Acts 6:14; Rom. 14:20; Gal. 2:18); come to nought (Acts 5:38); lodge (Lk. 9:12); and be guest (Lk. 19:7). When the body dies and goes back to dust again (Gen. 3:19), we have a resurrected house to live in forever (v 1). This body must be dissolved before we can get the other body. It is mortal and we, in our present house (v 5) in which we groan, are burdened, greatly desiring the immortal body (v 2-5) k This building is our future and eternal immortal house which we get after this body is dissolved (v 1-5; 1 Cor. 15:35-54)

l This refers to putting on immortality, as explained in 1 Cor. 15:35-54. It will take place at the rapture (1 Th. 4:13-16; 1 Cor. 15:35-54; Phil. 3:21)

m God has given us the earnest or the first-fruit of the Spirit as a guarantee that we will be resurrected and put on immortality

n While we live in the body we are in our temporary home and absent from the eternal home with the Lord (v 6)

o To die and be absent from the body means we go to heaven to be with the Lord (v 8; Phil. 1:21-24; Heb. 12:23; Jas. 2:26; Rev. 6:9-11). This is proof that the inner man does not go to the grave at death, but to heaven if one is righteous. If one is wicked he goes to hell awaiting the resurrection of his body (Lk. 16:19-31, notes; Rev. 20:11-15) p In view of the fact we leave the body at physical death and go with the Lord, let us labor to be accepted of Him whether we live in the body or die and be absent from the body to be with the Lord (v 8-9)

q 4th and last N.T. prophecy in 2 Cor. (5:10). This refers to the judgment seat of Christ where, after the resurrection of the saints, we shall be judged of the things done in the body whether they be good or bad. See notes on Rom. 14:10 and 1 Cor. 3:11-15

r Gr. phobos. Trans. fear 39 times and terror (v 11; Rom. 13:3; 1 Pet. 3:14). In view of this we persuade men to turn to God. We do not preach ourselves neither are we "beside ourselves" as some say. If we are it is for God, and if we are sober it is for your good s Gr. sophroneo, be of sound mind (v 13; Mk. 5:15; Lk. 8:35; Rom. 12:3; Tit. 2:6; 1 Pet. 4:7)

that of being in a state of crucifixion for Jesus (Gal. 2:20), so that the resurrection life of Jesus might be made manifest or visible in our body and so that the miracles we do might prove the resurrection of Jesus Christ (v 10-12)

v See note s, 1 Cor. 15:53-54

w We live a dying life that you might live. Our readiness to die for Christ makes you want to live for Him

x Quoted from Ps. 116:10

y 3rd N.T. prophecy in 2 Cor. (4:14). Next, 5:10

z All our sufferings we count as nothing if we can win you and others to Christ, see the abounding grace save many souls and cause them to give more praise to the glory of God (v 15) a Gr. sunecho. Also trans. press (Acts 18: 5) and thronged (Lk. 8:45). Here it means to urge men to accept the gospel

b He concludes that since Christ died for all, then all were dead and all should live unto Him who died and rose again for them (v 14–15) c We trust no man's flesh. We do not even recognize Christ after the flesh (v 16)

d Therefore, in view of the fact that we do not know any man after the flesh, not even Christ, it is vain for any man to profess relationship with Christ according to the flesh, while he is unchanged in heart and life and dead in trespasses and sins

e See 10 personal gospel blessings, p. 196, col. 1

f 2 kinds of old things pass away:
1 The spirit, nature, and power of sin – the old man, which is nothing more nor less than the spirit, nature, and power of the devil working in men of disobedience (Jn. 8:44; Eph. 2:2; 2 Cor. 4:4; 1 Jn. 3:8; 5:18)
This is what the Bible calls:
(1) The old man (Rom. 6:6; Eph. 4:22; Col. 3:9)
(2) Sin (Jn. 1:29; 8:34; Rom. 6:4–8:2)
(3) The body of sin (Rom. 6:6)
(4) The power of Satan (Acts 26:18)
(5) The body of this death (Rom. 7:24)
(6) The lusts of the flesh (Eph. 2:3)
(7) The lust of the eyes (1 Jn. 2:15–17)
(8) The pride of life (1 Jn. 2:15–17)
(9) The works of the flesh (Gal. 5:19)
(10) The world (1 Jn. 2:15–17; Jas. 4:4)
(11) Vile affections (Rom. 1:26, 29)
(12) The lusts of the mind (Eph. 2:3)
(13) The lusts of sin (Rom. 6:11–12)
(14) The motions of sins (Rom. 7:5)
(15) The law of sin and death (Rom. 7:7–8:2)
(16) The carnal mind (Rom. 8:1–13)
(17) The god of this world (2 Cor. 4:4)
(18) Spiritual wickedness in high places ... rulers of darkness (Eph. 6:12)
(19) The lusts of your father (Jn. 8:44)
(20) Sin that dwelleth in me (Rom. 7:17)
(21) The course of this world (Eph. 2:2)
(22) The body of the sins of the flesh (Col. 2:11; Gal. 5:24; Rom. 6)
2 Outward sin or transgression of the law (1 Jn. 3:4; Rom. 4:15; Jas. 1:13–15). The outward acts are listed in Mk. 7: 19–21; Rom. 1:18–32; 1 Cor. 6:9–11; Gal. 5:19–21; Col. 3:5–10
Both outward and inward sin must pass away or one cannot claim to be in Christ. The theory that only outward transgressions are forgiven and one is still under control of the old man, the devil, is one of the most erroneous doctrines in Christendom (2 Cor. 5:17–18; Eph. 4:24; 1 Jn. 5:18; Rom. 6:6–23; 8:1–13). See notes m and y, 1 Th. 4:3; 2 Th. 2:13

g Meaning, that is to say:
1 God was in Christ, reconciling men to Himself (v 19)
2 God does not impute sin to those who have confessed and are reconciled to Him (v 19; Rom. 4:7–8)
3 God has committed to the reconciled the word of reconciliation (v 19)
4 God has made the reconciled ambassadors for Christ to reconcile others (v 20; Rom. 5:10)
5 God made Christ a sin-offering, that man might become righteous (v 21)

h Sin-offering (Eph. 5:2. Cp. Ex. 29:14; Lev. 4:3; 6:25; Num. 8:8; Ps. 40:6)

13 Knowledge	28 Preservation
14 Longsuffering	29 Joyfulness (v 10)
15 Kindness	30 Benevolence
31 Possession of God's wealth

k Gr. hoplon, arms and armour (Eph. 6:11)

17 A ministry of reconciliation (Mt. 28:18-20; Mk. 16: 15-20; Acts 1:8)

14 For the love of Christ [a]constraineth us; because we thus judge, [b]that if one died for all, then were all dead:

15 And that he died for all, that they which live should not henceforth live unto themselves, but unto him which died for them, and rose again.

16 [c]Wherefore henceforth know we no man after the flesh: yea, though we have known Christ after the flesh, yet now henceforth know we him no more.

▸17 [d]Therefore if any man be in Christ, he is a new creature: old things are passed away; behold, all things are become new.

▸18 And all things are of God, who hath reconciled us to himself by Jē'sus Christ, and hath given to us the ministry of reconciliation;

19 [e]To wit, that God was in Christ, reconciling the world unto himself, not imputing their trespasses unto them; and hath committed unto us the word of reconciliation.

18 An entreating ministry (Acts 26:3; Rom. 12:1; 1 Cor. 1:10; Eph. 4:1; 1 Pet. 2:11)

20 Now then we are ambassadors for Christ, as though God did beseech you by us: we pray you in Christ's stead, be ye reconciled to God.

▸21 For he hath made him to be sin for us, who knew no sin; that we might be made the righteousness of God in him.

CHAPTER 6 155

●WE then, as workers together with him, beseech you also that ye receive not the grace of God in vain.

★2 (For he saith, [f]I have heard thee in a time accepted, and in the day of salvation have I succoured thee: behold, now is the accepted time; behold, now is the day of salvation.)◂

19 A blameless and approved ministry (1 Cor. 1:8; Phil. 2:15; 1 Tim. 3:2; Tit. 1:6-7)

●3 Giving no [g]offence in any thing, that the ministry be not blamed:

●4 But in all things approving ourselves as the ministers of God, in much patience, in afflictions, in necessities, in distresses,

5 In stripes, in imprisonments, in tumults, in labours, in watchings, in fastings;

6 By pureness, by knowledge, by longsuffering, by kindness, by the Hō'lȳ Ghŏst, by love unfeigned,

7 By the word of truth, by the power of God, by the [h]armour of righteousness on the right hand and on the left,

8 By honour and dishonour, by evil report and good report: as deceivers, and yet true;

9 As unknown, and yet well known; as dying, and, behold, we live; as chastened, and not killed;

10 As sorrowful, yet alway rejoicing; as poor, yet making many rich; as having nothing, and yet possessing all things.

20 A human and compassionate ministry (Mt. 18: 27-35; Heb. 5:2; 1 Pet. 3:8; 1 Jn. 3:17)

11 O ye Cō-rĭnth'ĭ-ans, [i]our mouth is open unto you, [j]our heart is enlarged.

12 [k]Ye are not straitened in us, but ye are straitened in your own [l]bowels.

13 Now for a recompence in the same, (I speak as unto my children,) be ye also enlarged.

21 A separated ministry (Acts 13:2; Rom. 1:1; 12: 1-2; Jn. 15:18; Jas. 4:4; 1 Jn. 2:15; Heb. 7:26)

●14 [m]Be ye not unequally yoked together with unbelievers: [n]for what fellowship hath righteousness with unrighteousness? and what communion hath light with darkness?

15 And what concord hath Christ with [o]Bē'lĭ-al? or what part hath he that believeth with an infidel?

★16 And what agreement hath the temple of God with idols? for [p]ye are the temple of the living God; as God hath [q]said, I will dwell in them, and walk in them; and I will be their God, and they shall be my people.◂

★17 [r]Wherefore come out from among them, and be ye separate, saith the Lord, and touch not the [s]unclean thing: and I will receive you,●◂

▸18 [t]And will be a Father unto you, and ye shall be my sons and daughters, saith the Lord Almighty.

CHAPTER 7 156

22 A clean ministry (Jn. 15: 3; 17:16; 1 Cor. 3:16-17; 6: 9-20; Eph. 4:17-32; 5:1-7; Gal. 5:16-26; Col. 3:5-17; Heb. 12:14)

●HAVING therefore [u]these promises, dearly beloved, let us cleanse ourselves from all filthiness of the flesh and spirit, perfecting holiness in the fear of God.

23 A human ministry longing for fellowship (Acts 2: 42; Gal. 2:9; Phil. 1:5; 2:1; 3:10; 1 Jn. 1:3-7)

2 [v]Receive us; we have wronged no man, we have corrupted no man, we have defrauded no man.

3 I speak not this to condemn you: for I have said before, that ye are in our hearts to die and live with you.

4 [w]Great is my boldness of speech toward you, great is my glorying of you: I am filled with comfort, I am exceeding joyful in all our tribulation.

24 A human ministry subject to human fears and discouragements (1 Cor. 2:3; 2 Cor. 11:3; Phil. 2:12; 2 Tim.

a A Hebraism for speaking with liberty. Cp. Judg. 11:35; Ps. 78:2; 109:2; Pr. 8:6; 31:26; Ezek. 24:27; 29:21; Mt. 5:2; Acts 8:35

b Our heart is expanded to take you and all your interests into it and keep you in highest Christian affection

c You do not have a narrow place in my affections. The narrow affections are in your own bowels. I want you to repay me for my affections toward you, as children should a parent. Love me as I love you (v 12–13)

d Gr. splagchna, inward parts. Used figuratively of the seat of affections (v 12; 7:15; Lk. 1:78; Phil. 1:8; 2:1; Col. 3: 12; Ph'm. 7, 12, 20; 1 Jn. 3:17). Used in Acts 1:18, but not figuratively

e This is a military term – keep your own ranks; do not leave Christians and join with unbelievers. It indicates that some Corinthians were joining with the heathen in idolatrous feasts and other practices that would lead to apostasy (1 Cor. 8:3–13; 10:16–33)

f Questions 8–12. Next, 10:7. The answer to these questions is clear. Righteousness cannot mix with lawlessness; light can have no communion with darkness; Christ and Belial cannot be of one accord; a believer cannot have part with an infidel; and there can be no agreement of the temple of God with idols

g Gr. Belial, worthlessness; a name of Satan. Only here, but is the equivalent of the Heb. beleyahal, without profit, worthlessness, wickedness (Dt. 13:13; Judg. 19:22; 20:13; 1 Sam. 1:16; 2:12; 10:27; 25:17, 25; 30:22; 2 Sam. 16:7; 20:1; 23:6; 1 Ki. 21:10, 13; 2 Chr. 13: 7). In every reference in the O. T. it is used of evil men being sons of Belial in the same sense the N. T. speaks of them being children of the wicked one and of the devil (Mt. 13:38; Acts 13:10; 1 Jn. 3:10)

k Gr. akathartos. Trans. unclean and foul:
1 Of unclean and foul spirits 24 times out of 30 (note l, Lk. 4:33)
2 Of unclean food that God had made clean (Acts 10:14, 28; 11:8)
3 Of children (1 Cor. 7:14, note)
4 Of the homosexual (Eph. 5:5)
5 Of the unclean thing (2 Cor. 6:17)
All demon, moral, and physical uncleanness must be cleansed from body and spirit if one wants the fulfillment of the promises of v 16–18

l The same kind of promise as 2 Sam. 7: 14. This means that God will assume all responsibility of parental concern and give Himself to the eternal care of His family (Eph. 3:14; Mt. 7:11). Earthly parents may lack the power and the means to supply all things for their families, but this is not true of God who owns all and rules all

m The promises of v 16–18 n 6 conditions of the promises (6:14–7:1):

1 Be not unequally yoked with unbelievers (6:14–16)
2 Come out from among them (6:17)
3 Be separate from them (6:17)
4 Touch not the unclean thing (6:17)
5 Cleanse self of all filthiness of the flesh and spirit (7:1; Mk. 7:19–21; Rom. 1:18–32; 1 Cor. 6:9–11; Gal. 5:19–21; Col. 3:5–10)
6 Perfect holiness in the fear of God (7:1; Eph. 1:4; 4:24; Gal. 5:24; Rom. 6:14–23; 8:1–13; Heb. 12:12–15)

o Gr. choreo, make room. Open your hearts to us (note c, above). Three reasons:
1 We have wronged no man in judgment
2 We have corrupted no man in doctrine
3 We have defrauded no man of property
Your false teachers have beguiled you from the simple truth and corrupted your minds (11:3). They have brought you into bondage and exalted themselves and you suffer it (11:12–15, 20). I say this to open your eyes (v 2–3)

b Opposition of pagans, Jews, and false brethren (11:26) c He was anxious to know the effects of his first epistle and of their obedience to it. God settled his fears by the coming of Titus who brought good news of their love for him and of their obedience to him (v 5-7)
d Paul first regretted having written such a severe letter, but when he saw its effect he was glad (v 8)
e I do not rejoice because you were made sorry, but I am glad because you sorrowed to repentance. You were made sorry after a godly manner so that no harm has been done, for godly sorrow always works to the salvation of those who exercise it (v 9-10)
f Your repentance prevented me from using my power to destruction so that you received no damage in anything (v 9)
g 3 kinds of sorrow here (v 8-10):
1 Paul's regret for the moment as he wondered whether he had made a mistake by being too severe in his letter (v 8)
2 Godly sorrow that works repentance to salvation, changes the life and cleanses it from sin (v 8-10)
3 Sorrow of the world that works death (v 10). This is unrepentant sorrow or pain over lost goods, lost friends, lack of pleasure and partial reaping of what has been sowed
Examples of sorrow:
1 Cain: punishment (Gen. 4:13-14)
2 Hagar: homelessness (Gen. 21:17)
3 Israel: bondage (Ex. 3:7-10)
4 Jacob for Joseph (Gen. 37:34-35)
5 Jacob for Benjamin (Gen. 43:14)
6 Hannah: barrenness (1 Sam. 1:15)
7 Saul: rejected (1 Sam. 15:24, 30)
8 David for Absalom (2 Sam. 18:33-19:8)
9 Mary and Martha (Jn. 11:19-40)
10 Jesus (Isa. 53:3; Mt. 26:37-44)
11 Judas: betrayal (Mt. 27:3-5)
12 The Corinthians (2 Cor. 7:8-12)
h 7 blessings of godly sorrow: It promotes 1 Working of carefulness and obedience
2 Clearing of selves from guilt
3 Indignation and hatred of sin
4 Fear of God and of the result of sin
5 Desire to make things right
6 Zeal to do the right thing
7 Revenge in punishing the guilty
i This is a reference to the fornicator of I Cor. 5 j I boasted to Titus of you and you have confirmed my boasts to him yourself. For this reason I am exceedingly happy (v 13-14). Titus was moved with great affection for you when he saw your obedience and how you received him with fear and trembling (v 15) k I rejoice now since I have learned of you that you have judged the guilty and have broken up the factions that were among you. If the false prophet who seduced you from truth and righteousness had succeeded I would have had to act by my power to correct things (1 Cor. 4:19-21). As it is now, I have confidence in you in all things that you will obey (v 16)
l Paul now brags on the churches of Macedonia about their giving to the poor saints at Jerusalem (8:1-5)

10 personal gospel blessings (5:17):

1 It brings one into Christ (v 17). See doctrine of interpenetration (Lk. 22:3)
2 One is a new creature (v 17)
3 Old things are passed away (v 17). Gr. for old is archaios, ancient, original, old. Such things are no more in one
4 All things are new (v 17). The life is just the opposite of the old life
5 All things are of God (v 18). The true Christian does not permit anything in his life which is ungodly and unChristlike (Rom. 6:14-23; 8:1-13; Gal. 5:16-26)
6 One is reconciled to God (v 18; Rom. 5:10; Eph. 2:14-18; Col. 1:20-21)
7 He has part in the ministry of reconciliation (v 18-20; 1 Cor. 1:18-24)
8 He has been trusted with the Word of reconciliation (v 19; Mk. 16:15-20)
9 He is an ambassador of God in Christ's stead (v 20; Pr. 13:17)
10 He is the righteousness of God in Christ (v 21; Rom. 3:21-31; 8:4)

1:15; 4:10, 16)

5 For, when we [a]were come into Măç-e-dō'nĭ-á, our flesh had no rest, but we were troubled on every side; [b]without, were fightings, [c]within were fears.

▶6 Nevertheless God, that comforteth those that are cast down, comforted us by the coming of Tĭ'tus:

7 And not by his coming only, but by the consolation wherewith he was comforted in you, when he told us your earnest desire, your mourning, your fervent mind toward me; so that I rejoiced the more.

25 A human ministry with ordinary emotions and feelings (2:3-11; Heb. 5:2; 2 Tim. 1:15; 4:10, 16)

8 [d]For though I made you sorry with a letter, I do not repent, though I did repent: for I perceive that the same epistle hath made you sorry, though it were but for a season.

9 [e]Now I rejoice, not that ye were made sorry, but that ye sorrowed to repentance: for ye were made sorry after a godly manner, [f]that ye might receive damage by us in nothing.

▶10 For [g]godly sorrow worketh repentance to salvation not to be repented of: but the sorrow of the world worketh death.

11 For behold this selfsame thing, that ye sorrowed after a godly sort, [h]what carefulness it wrought in you, yea, what clearing of yourselves, yea, what indignation, yea, what fear, yea, what vehement desire, yea, what zeal, yea, what revenge! In all things ye have approved yourselves to be clear in this matter.

12 Wherefore, though I wrote unto you, [i]I did it not for his cause that had done the wrong, nor for his cause that suffered wrong, but that our care for you in the sight of God might appear unto you.

13 Therefore we were comforted in your comfort: yea, and exceedingly the more joyed we for the joy of Tĭ'tus, because his spirit was refreshed by you all.

14 [j]For if I have boasted any thing to him of you, I am not ashamed; but as we spake all things to you in truth, even so our boasting, which I made before Tĭ'tus, is found a truth.

15 And his inward affection is more abundant toward you, whilst he remembereth the obedience of you all, how with fear and trembling ye received him.

16 [k]I rejoice therefore that I have confidence in you in all things.

157 CHAPTER 8

IV Collections for the poor saints at Jerusalem (2 Cor. 8:1-9:15; Acts 11:27-30; 1 Cor. 16:1). 1 The example of Macedonia

MOREOVER, brethren, [l]we do you to wit of the grace of God bestowed on the churches of Măç-e-dō'nĭ-á;

2 [a]How that in a great trial of affliction the abundance of their joy and their deep poverty abounded unto the riches of their [b]liberality.

3 For to their power, I bear record, yea, and [c]beyond their power they were willing of themselves;

4 Praying us with much intreaty that we would receive the gift, and take upon us the fellowship of the ministering to the saints.

5 And this they did, not as we hoped, [d]but first gave their own selves to the Lord, and unto us by the will of God.

2 Mission of Titus: exhortation

6 Insomuch that we desired Tĭ'tus, that as he had begun, so he would also finish in you the same [e]grace also.

7 Therefore, [f]as ye abound in every thing, in faith, and utterance, and knowledge, and in all diligence, and in your love to us, see that ye abound in this grace also.

3 Reasons for Paul's appeal

8 [g]I speak not by commandment, but by occasion of the forwardness of others, and to prove the sincerity of your love.

▶9 [h]For ye know the grace of our Lord Jĕ'sus Christ, that, though he was rich, yet for your sakes he became poor, that ye through his poverty might be rich.

10 And herein I give my advice: for this is expedient for you, who have begun before, not only to do, but also to be forward [i]a year ago.

11 Now therefore perform the doing of it; that as there was a readiness to will, so there may be a performance also out of that which ye have.

12 For if there be first a willing mind, it is accepted according to that a man hath, and not according to that he hath not.

4 Equality in giving enjoined

13 [k]For I mean not that other men be eased, and ye burdened:

14 But by an equality, that now at this time your abundance may be a supply for their want, that their abundance also may be a supply for your want: that there may be equality:

15 As it is written, [l]He that had gathered much had nothing over; and he that had gathered little had no lack.

5 Titus sent to Corinth for the collections (12:17)

16 But thanks be to God, which [m]put the same earnest care into the heart of Tĭ'tus for you.

17 For indeed he accepted the exhortation; but being more forward, of his own accord he went unto you.

18 And we have sent with him the [n]brother, whose praise is in the gospel throughout all the churches;

a The Macedonians though poor and persecuted, rejoiced at the opportunity of doing good to their more impoverished and persecuted brethren in Judea (v 2) b Gr. haplotes. Trans. simplicity (Rom. 12:8; 2 Cor. 1:12; 11:3); singleness (Eph. 6:5; Col. 3:22); liberality (2 Cor. 8:2; 9:13); and bountifulness (2 Cor. 9:11)
Liberality commanded regarding:
1 God (Ex. 22:29-30; 25:1-8; 35:4-29; 36:3-6; 38:8; Lev. 19:5; Num. 35:8)
2 Israel's feasts (Dt. 12:11-19)
3 Ministers (Dt. 12:19; 14:27-29; 18:1-8; Pr. 3:9; 1 Cor. 9; Gal. 6:6; Mal. 3)
4 The poor (Dt. 24:19-22; Ps. 41:1-3; 112:5, 9; Pr. 11:24; 13:7; 14:21; 19:17; 22:9; 28:27; Mt. 6:1-4; 19:21; 25:34-46; Lk. 3:10-11; 6:38; 11:41; 12:33-34; Acts 20:35; Rom. 12:8-13; 1 Cor. 16:1-3; 2 Cor. 8-9; Eph. 4:28; 1 Tim. 6:18; Heb. 6:10; 13:16; 1 Jn. 3:17)
Examples of liberality:
1 Pharaoh (Gen. 45:18-20)
2 Israelites (Ex. 35:21-29; 36:3-7)
3 David (2 Sam. 8:11; 1 Ki. 7:51)
4 Barzillai (2 Sam. 17:27-29; 19:32)
5 Araunah (2 Sam. 24:22-23)
6 Israelites (1 Chr. 29:6-9, 16-17)
7 Solomon (1 Ki. 4:29; 6:1-38)
8 Queen of Sheba (1 Ki. 10:10)
9 The Magi (Mt. 2:11)
10 The centurian (Lk. 7:4-5)
11 The good Samaritan (Lk. 10:33)
12 The poor widow (Lk. 21:2-4) c The Macedonian churches gave beyond their ability, and did so willingly, even praying that we would receive the gift (v 3-5) d This is the secret of all giving of material things. When one gives himself to the Lord, he is willing to do all other things the gospel teaches (v 5).
e This compassion on the poor, Christian charity, is called a grace in v 1, 6, 7, 19; 9:14
f 7 blessings of the Corinthian church:
1 Enriched in everything (v 7)
2 Abounding faith (v 7; 1 Cor. 12:9)
3 Utterance: tongues, interpretation of tongues, and prophecy (v 7; 1 Cor. 12:10; 14:1-40)
4 Knowledge (v 7; 1 Cor. 12:8)
5 All diligence (v 7; 7:11)
6 Love (v 7; 1 Cor. 13:1-13)
7 Grace of giving (v 7; note e, above)
g I do not order you to do this, I have no authority over your property. What you give to charity must be a willing work on your part. I take the occasion of the forwardness of other churches to help the poor (v 2-5), to prove the sincerity of your love (v 8)
h The grace of giving was not by commandment (v 8), but by example of other churches (v 2-5), and especially by the supreme example of the Lord Jesus Christ. He became poor for all the churches, that by this poverty they might be rich (v 9)
i If Jesus Christ was a mere man, as some contend, in what sense was He rich and how could He make many others rich by His poverty? His family was poor. He Himself possessed no property from the manger to the cross. He died a poor man and was buried in a borrowed grave. The answer to these questions would have to be that He was and still is more than a mere man. He was God from all eternity (Mic. 5:1-2; Jn. 1:1-2). He created and owned the vast universes (Eph. 3:9; Jn. 1:3; Col. 1:15-18). He laid aside His God form and riches and took human form to redeem. He became poor and died as man's substitute. He now saves all who believe (Jn. 3:16). They become heirs of God and joint-heirs with Christ of all God owns (Phil. 2:5-11; Jn. 3:16; Rom. 8:17-18; Col. 3:1-4; Rev. 1:5-6; 5:10; 11:15; 22:4-5) j About a year ago you started the growth of this grace. Now it is time to finish it (v 10-12) k I do not mean that some be burdened and others eased, but that there be equality. At this time you can share your abundance and supply their want. It may be that circumstances will change and they may by their abundance supply your want (v 13-14)
l Quoted from Ex. 16:18
m To the end that you will be blessed by supplying the poor saints at Jerusalem, I have sent Titus and another brother who is well known among the churches (v 16-18) n Who this brother was is not known a With this clue it is still impossible to tell who this brother was, as Paul had different companions - Timothy, Silas, Titus, Luke, and others. It is noticeable that Paul did not go around collecting money by himself, nor did he send only one brother to do so (v 16-20). This was a way to provide things honest in the sight of both God and man (v 20-23). Regardless of how honest one is and how much confidence the people have in a man, it is always right to have every part of the work of God carried on in a business manner and fully above reproach

b Gr. apostolol, apostles. See note a, Acts 16:33

c I have been boasting of your giving, to the churches of Macedonia, and of Greece which was ready to contribute a year ago (v 2; 8:10). Your zeal for charity has provoked many to do their best in giving to the poor (v 2) d I have sent the brethren, lest our boasting of you be in vain, and so you may be ready with your charity when the time comes (v 3). I would not want the brethren from Macedonia to come with me and find you unprepared. In that case I would be ashamed that I had boasted about you (v 4). In view of this, I thought it necessary to exhort the brethren that they would go before to you and make up beforehand your gift. We want this to be a matter of the fruit of blessings poured out from willing and beneficent hearts, not from a grudging and covetous spirit (v 5)

e An unfailing law taught by Jesus (Lk. 6:38); Solomon (Eccl. 11:1; Pr. 11:24-25; 19:17; 22:9); and David (Ps. 18:25; 41:1-2)

f 4 things a man must do in giving:
1 He must give willingly from the heart
2 He must not give grudgingly
3 He must not give of compulsion
4 He must give cheerfully (v 7)

g Gr. hilaros, cheerful, joyful, gay. Our Eng. HILARious means the same, and is the opposite of grudging and of feeling one is forced to give

7 things God loves:
1 The stranger (Dt. 10:18)
2 Righteousness (Ps. 11:7)
3 Judgment (Ps. 37:28)
4 The gates of Zion (Ps. 87:2)
5 The righteous (Ps. 146:8)
6 A cheerful giver (2 Cor. 9:7)
7 Whom He chastens (Heb. 12:6)

h God is able to:
1 Give you much more than this (2 Chr. 25:9)
2 Deliver you (Dan. 3:17)
3 Raise up children from stones (Mt. 3:9)
4 Destroy body and soul in hell (Mt. 10:28)
5 Graft them in again (Rom. 11:23)
6 Make him to stand (Rom. 14:4)
7 Make all grace abound (2 Cor. 9:8)
8 Subdue all things (Phil. 3:21)
9 Keep all committed to Him (2 Tim. 1:12)
10 Succour the tempted (Heb. 2:18)
11 Save from death (Heb. 5:7)
12 Save to the uttermost (Heb. 7:25)

into captivity to obey Christ (v 5). Lascivious, vain and evil thoughts of all kinds are brought down and made obedient to His laws. That includes any thinking which is contrary to virtue, purity and righteousness. See Mt. 15:19; Mk. 7:21-22; 1 Cor. 13:5; Gal. 5:19; Phil. 4:8; Gen. 6:5; Prov. 15:26; Isa. 55:7; 59:7; Jer. 4:14

4 Having in readiness to avenge all disobedience - We stand at all times ready, so to speak, to court-martial any opposing the Gospel of Christ, after separating ourselves from them (v 6). The whole picture here is that of a strong fortified city where the enemy makes his last stand; entrenching himself about the walls; raising towers and preparing engines of defence and offense upon the walls to insure victory. The fortifications, walls, towers, and castles are taken by the Gospel and the whole opposition is destroyed and taken captive

p Question 13, Next, 11:7. Regardless of outward appearance, let my enemies know that if they are Christ's, even so are we Christ's (v 7)

19 And not that only, but who was also chosen of the churches to [a]travel with us with this grace, which is administered by us to the glory of the same Lord, and declaration of your ready mind:

20 Avoiding this, that no man should blame us in this abundance which is administered by us:

21 Providing for honest things, not only in the sight of the Lord, but also in the sight of men.

22 And we have sent with them our brother, whom we have oftentimes proved diligent in many things, but now much more diligent, upon the great confidence which I have in you.

23 Whether any do enquire of Ti'tus, he is my partner and fellowhelper concerning you: or our brethren be enquired of, they are the [b]messengers of the churches, and the glory of Christ.

6 An appeal to faithfulness

24 Wherefore shew ye to them, and before the churches, the proof of your love, and of our boasting on your behalf.

CHAPTER 9 158

7 Commendation for zeal

FOR as touching the ministering to the saints, it is superfluous for me to write to you:

2 For I know the forwardness of your mind, for which [c]I boast of you to them of Măç-e-dŏ'-nĭ-á, that Â-chā'ĭá was ready a year ago; and your zeal hath provoked very many.

8 An appeal to live up to his boasting of them to others

3 Yet have [d]I sent the brethren, lest our boasting of you should be in vain in this behalf; that, as I said, ye may be ready:

4 Lest haply if they of Măç-e-dŏ'nĭ-á come with me, and find you unprepared, we (that we say not, ye) should be ashamed in this same confident boasting.

5 Therefore I thought it necessary to exhort the brethren, that they would go before unto you, and make up beforehand your bounty, whereof ye had notice before, that the same might be ready, as a matter of bounty, and not as of covetousness.

9 Divine blessings for liberality to the giver

▸6 [e]But this I say, He which soweth sparingly shall reap also sparingly; and he which soweth bountifully shall reap also bountifully.

●7 Every man according as he purposeth in his heart, so let him give; not grudgingly, or of necessity: for God loveth [f]a cheerful giver.

▸8 And [g]God is able to make all grace abound toward you; that ye [h]always having all sufficiency in all things, may abound [i]to every good work:

★9 (As it is written, [j]He hath dispersed abroad; he hath given to the poor: his righteousness remaineth for ever.◂

10 Blessings to liberal souls from the recipients

▸10 Now he that [k]ministereth seed to the sower both [l]minister bread for your food, and multiply your seed sown, and increase the fruits of your righteousness;)

▸11 [m]Being enriched in every thing to all bountifulness, which causeth through us thanksgiving to God.

12 For the [n]administration of this service not only [o]supplieth the want of the saints, but is abundant also by many thanksgivings unto God;

13 Whiles by the [p]experiment of this ministration they glorify God for your [q]professed subjection unto the gospel of Christ, and for your liberal distribution unto them, and unto all men;

14 And by their prayer for you, which long after you for the [r]exceeding grace of God in you.

15 Thanks be unto God for his [s]unspeakable gift.

CHAPTER 10 159

V Paul vindicates his apostleship (2 Cor. 10:1 - 13:14; 1 Cor. 9; Gal. 1:1-2). 1 Weapons of his warfare

[t]NOW I Paul myself beseech you by the meekness and gentleness of Christ, who in presence am base among you, but being absent am bold toward you:

2 But I beseech you, that I may not be bold when I am present with that confidence, wherewith I think to be bold against some, which think of us as if we walked according to the flesh.

3 [u]For though we walk in the flesh, we do not war after the flesh:

▸4 (For the weapons of our warfare are not carnal, [v]but mighty through God to the pulling down of strong holds;)

▸5 Casting down imaginations, and every high thing that exalteth itself against the knowledge of God, and bringing into captivity every thought to the obedience of Christ;

2 Promises deeds, not words when he comes (12:19; 1 Cor. 4:18-21)

6 And having in a readiness to revenge all disobedience, when your obedience is fulfilled.

7 [w]Do ye look on things after the outward appearance? If any man trust to himself that he is Christ's, let him of himself think this again, that, as he is Christ's, even so are we a If this is not true of any believer he is coming short of gospel provision. Such grace is measured out according to the sowing (v 6). This is the law and there is no exception to the rule. That this is the cause of failure to reap is further proved in v 9-10. If we give to the poor it shall be given to us again (v 6; Lk. 6:38). If we sow seed we shall reap a harvest (v 10)

b This does not refer only to good works to the poor, but also to miraculous works of the gospel, for it is every good work, not certain ones (1 Cor. 15:58)

c 4th and last O.T. prophecy in 2 Cor. (9:9 fulfilled; Ps. 112:9) d Gr. epichoregeo, to supply; to aid. Only in v 10; Gal. 3:5; 2 Pet. 1:11. God is the one who ministers seed to the sower and bread to the eater. As all this comes from God and since we can not exist without Him, He has the right to regulate how it is to be disbursed. It is also God who increases the fruit of righteousness and blesses all sowing and increase of the gospel (v 10)

e Gr. choregeo, same as the word in point d, above without the prefix epi. It is used only here and in 1 Pet. 4:11. The choregos was the leader of a chorus. It was used of one who defrayed the expenses of the chorus at the public festivals. Here God is represented by providence as leading the grand chorus of all causes and effects - keeping everything in its proper place with all things working in harmony and according to His laws, each dependent on another, and all things dependent on Himself

f God increases riches to be used for His glory and the good of men (v 11). V 9-10 should be read in parenthesis and this verse connected with v 8

g The ministering, as in v 1

h 4 benefits of ministering to saints:
1 Supplies the needs of saints (v 12)
2 Causes them to glorify God (v 12)
3 Gives proof that the givers are true Christians (v 13; 1 Jn. 3:17)
4 Causes prayers of those supplied to go up for their benefactors (v 14)

i Gr. dokime, proof, as in 2:9

j Glorify God for your subjection or submission to what you profess. You profess to be Christians and that you love your brethren. Your bountifulness is proof of it (1 Jn. 3:17)

k The Corinthians had the means with which to promote charity and the heart to do it, but God's grace was the author of it (v 14)

l Gr. anekdiegetos, that which cannot be fully declared. Only here. This gift is no doubt God's gift of His Son (Jn. 4:10; 2 Cor. 8:9. Cp. Rom. 9:5; 11:33, 36; 1 Cor. 15:57; Gal. 1:4; Eph. 3:20; 1 Tim. 1:17)

m Having completed instructions for collections for the poor (chs. 8-9), Paul now returns to dealing with the false apostle who had gained considerable ground in discrediting him at Corinth, as being base, contemptible, and a boaster living in the flesh (v 1-10)

n Here Paul denies the charges of v 1-2. Though he lived in the flesh he did not war after the flesh (v 3-5). His weapons were not carnal (v 4-5; Eph. 6:10-18; 1 Tim. 1:18; 2 Tim. 2:3-5; Rom. 13:12)

o 4 great conquests of spiritual weapons:
1 Destruction of strong holds - We destroy reasonings of pagan philosophers and Jewish rabbis and their dogmas that nullify the Word of God and the facts of the Gospel. These fortifications we pull down and demolish. We put to flight the demon powers and alien armies, raising the banner of the cross high on the field of battle (v 4)
2 Casting down imaginations - We demolish all theories, reasonings, and any high system of ethics, religion, mythology, metaphysics, sublime doctrines, or philosophy set forth to defy the knowledge of God (v 5). All the boasted gods, lords, sacrificial and mediatorial systems fell before the Gospel. The high-sounding phrases of Plato, Aristotle, the Stoics, and even Judaism fell before the preaching of the crucified and risen Christ. Heathenism shrank before the Gospel and called on secular powers to defend it
3 Bringing into captivity every thought to the obedience of Christ - We take every thought prisoner and lead it a Gr. aischumonal (v 8; Lk. 16:3; Phil. 1:20; 1 Pet. 4:16; 1 Jn. 2:28). I am not ashamed to boast a little of the power that God has given me, when I come I will prove to you that I am just as powerful as I state in my letters (v 8–11)

b I may boast a little of my authority in God, but one thing I will not do and that is join those who brag on themselves, measuring themselves among themselves (v 12) c Here Paul seems to be using the figure of a stadium or race course in the Olympic and Ishmian games. The metron (measure) was the length of the dromos (course), and the kanon (rule, 13, 15–16) was the same as the white line which marked the boundaries of the stadium. The verbs reach unto, stretch out, etc. are references to the exertions in winning the race d This verse simply means that Paul had not gone beyond them, further west in preaching the gospel, but had turned southward from Macedonia into Greece to establish their church (v 14)

e We boast only of things which God has done by us, we have not attempted to go where other men have labored, we stay within the bounds of the guidance of the Holy Spirit and work according to this rule (v 15), My hope is that when you have grown in faith and grace enough for me to leave you that I can take the gospel to other places where it has not been preached (v 15–16)

f Quoted from Jer. 9:24. The man who boasts, let him do so in the Lord, for not the self-praiser, bragging on himself, is approved, but the one whom the Lord recommends (v 17–18)

g I wish you could bear with me a little in my folly. Since you glory in the brags of those who oppose me, let me state some facts for you (v 1). If you think me to be a fool in boasting, I am doing so because it is necessary to answer you properly and the false apostle who is disturbing you (v 16; 12:6)

h Gr. aphrosune. Only in v 1, 17, 21; Mk. 7:22. Cp. v 16

i The apostle here alludes to the custom of special care of virgins to see that they are educated and kept pure for marriage

j Many errors in doctrine have been based upon this such as, the church is compared to a virgin; the church is the bride of Christ; one must meet certain super-qualifications to be in the bride of Christ; etc. This verse is no proof that a virgin is a symbol of the church. It only states that Paul was jealous over his own converts that he might present them to Christ just like a chaste virgin is presented to her husband. It was not Paul's job to present the whole church to Jesus Christ. Each man will have rejoicing in his own converts (1 Th. 2:19). For these various false ideas of the church, and the bride, see notes on Eph. 2:14–15; 4:13; 5:25–31; 2 Th. 2:7; Rev. 21:9–10

k Here Paul fears for his own converts that they may be turned away from Christ, as Eve was beguiled by Satan to turn away from God (v 3) enemies to vindicate my apostleship, my present glorying would be inconsistent with my profession of humility and of knowing no man after the flesh (5:12–16; 10:7–18; 11:1–33; 12:1–21). Paul did not want the Lord to be accused of being a partner to his self-boasting (v 17)

k Since you are so wise to discern me as a fool, you will gladly tolerate me in my foolishness, for wise men do not fall out with fools (v 19)

l You tolerate others (v 20):
1 Who assume control of your souls
2 Who spend your money
3 Who dupe and rob you
4 Who parade themselves
5 Who fly in your face and strike you

m Gr. katadouloo, enslave. Here: Gal. 2:4

n Gr. katesthio, take away property and destroy, as in Mt. 23:14; Mk. 12:40; Lk. 20:47; Gal. 5:15; Rev. 11:5

o I refer to these Judaizers reproaching you because you are uncircumcised, and as if we were weak or inferior to them (v 21)

Christ's.

6 For though I should boast somewhat more of our authority, which the Lord hath given us for edification, and not for your destruction, I should not be [a]ashamed:

9 That I may not seem as if I would terrify you by letters.

10 For his letters, say they, are weighty and powerful; but his bodily presence is weak, and his speech contemptible.

11 Let such an one think this, that, such as we are in word by letters when we are absent, such will we be also in deed when we are present.

3 Paul's authority and commendation were from God, not man (3:1–5; Rom. 15:18–19, 29; Acts 19:11–12)

12 [b]For we dare not make ourselves of the number, or compare ourselves with some that commend themselves; but they measuring themselves by themselves, and comparing themselves among themselves, are not wise.

13 But we will not boast of things without our [c]measure, but according to the measure of the rule which God hath distributed to us, a measure to reach even unto you.

14 [d]For we stretch not ourselves beyond our measure, as though we reached not unto you: for we are come as far as to you also in preaching the gospel of Christ:

15 [e]Not boasting of things without our measure, that is, of other men's labours; but having hope, when your faith is increased, that we shall be enlarged by you according to our rule abundantly,

16 To preach the gospel in the regions beyond you, and not to boast in another man's line of things made ready to our hand.

17 [f]But he that glorieth, let him glory in the Lord.

18 For not he that commendeth himself is approved, but whom the Lord commendeth.

160 CHAPTER 11

4 Apology for boasting: declares his jealousy for them

[g]WOULD to God ye could bear with me a little in my [h]folly: and indeed bear with me.

2 [i]For I am jealous over you with godly jealousy: for I have espoused you to one husband, that I may present you as a chaste [j]virgin to Christ.

3 But I fear, lest by any means, as the serpent beguiled Eve through his subtilty, [k]so your minds should be corrupted from the simplicity that is in Christ.

4 [l]For if he that cometh preacheth another Jesus, whom we have not preached, or if ye receive another spirit, which ye have not received, or another gospel, which ye have not accepted, ye might well bear with him.

5 Equality with other apostles

5 For [m]I suppose I was not a whit behind the very chiefest apostles.

6 But though I be rude in speech, yet not in knowledge; but we have been throughly made manifest among you in all things.

6 His gratuitous preaching

7 [n]Have I committed an offence in abasing myself that ye might be exalted, because I have preached to you the gospel of God freely?

8 I [o]robbed other churches, taking wages of them, to do you service.

9 And when I was present with you, and wanted, I was chargeable to no man: for that which was lacking to me the brethren which came from Mac-e-do'-ni-a supplied: and in all things I have kept myself from being burdensome unto you, and so will I keep myself.

10 As the truth of Christ is in me, [p]no man shall stop me of this boasting in the regions of A-cha'ia.

11 [q]Wherefore? because I love you not? God knoweth.

7 Warning against false apostles and ministers (Mt. 7:15–23; 24:24; 1 Tim. 4:1–8; 2 Tim. 3:5; 4:1–4; 2 Th. 2:8–12)

12 But what I do, that I will do, that I may cut off occasion from them which desire occasion; that wherein they glory, they may be found even as we.

13 [r]For such are false apostles, deceitful workers, transforming themselves into the apostles of Christ.

14 And no marvel; [s]for Sa'tan himself is transformed into [t]an angel of light.

15 Therefore it is no great thing if his ministers also be transformed as the ministers of righteousness; whose end shall be according to their works.

8 Apology for enforced boasting

16 I say again, Let no man think me a [u]fool; if otherwise, yet as a fool receive me, that I may boast myself a little.

17 That which I speak, [v]I speak it not after the Lord, but as it were foolishly, in this confidence of boasting.

18 Seeing that many glory after the flesh, I will glory also.

19 [w]For ye suffer fools gladly, seeing ye yourselves are wise.

20 For [x]ye suffer, if a man bring you into [y]bondage, if a man [z]devour you, if a man take of you, if a man exalt himself, if a man smite you on the face.

9 Equality in the flesh (Cp. Gal. 1:13–14; Phil. 3:4–6)

21 [aa]I speak as concerning reproach, as though we had been weak. Howbeit whereinso-a You can judge whether I was behind the very chiefest apostles. I may be rude, as I am accused (10:1–2, 10), yet not in knowledge, as you well know (v 5–6) b Question 14. Next, v 11. Have I sinned in labouring with my hands and in taking help from other churches while I laboured to save your souls?

c Gr. sulao, to take from: to take away. Only here. It simply means that he took wages or material help from other churches as their missionary so that his needs might be supplied (v 8)

d From this it appears that he had not taken money from any of the churches in this region of Greece (v 10)

e Question 15–16. Next, v 22. Why do I act thus? Why do I intend to continue to refuse to take money from you? Is it because I do not love you? God knows to the contrary. I love you very much (v 11). I do it simply to cut off the occasion of my enemies who want grounds to slander me to you g Satan inspires his ministers to imitate Christianity and even do miracles (Mt. 24:24; 2 Th. 2:8–12; Rev. 13; 16:13–16; 19:20). Where are his ministers who are transformed as ministers of righteousness? Would they be in the churches or outside of them?

22 [b]Are they Hē'brews? so am I. Are they Is'ra-el-ites? so am I. Are they the seed of Ā'brā-hām? so am I.

10 Equality in ministry and sufferings (Acts 9:16; Phil. 3:10)

23 Are they ministers of Christ? (I speak as [a c]fool) I am more; in [d]labours more abundant, in stripes above measure, [e]in prisons more frequent, in [f]deaths oft.

24 Of the Jews five times received I [g]forty stripes save one.

27 In weariness and painfulness, in watchings often, in hunger and thirst, in fastings often, in cold and nakedness.

11 Equality in position and responsibility (11:5; 1 Cor. 9)

28 Besides those things that are [l]without, that which cometh upon me daily, the care of all the churches.

29 [m]Who is weak, and I am not weak? [n]who is offended, and I burn not?

12 God is witness that his enforced boastings were true

30 [o]If I must needs glory, I will glory of the things which concern mine [p]infirmities.

31 The God and Father of our Lord Jē'sus Christ, which is blessed for evermore, knoweth that I lie not.

32 [q]In Dā-más'cus the governor under Ar'e-tās the king kept the city of the Dăm'as-çēnes with a garrison, desirous to apprehend me:

33 And through a window in a basket was I let down by the wall, and escaped his hands.

CHAPTER 12 — 161

13 Equality in visions and revelations from God

IT is not expedient for me doubtless to glory. I will come to visions and [a]revelations of the Lord.

2 I knew a man in Christ above [b]fourteen years ago, (whether [c]in the body, I cannot tell; or whether out of the body, I cannot tell: God knoweth;) such an one [d]caught up to the [e]third heaven.

3 And I know such a man, (whether in the body, or out of the body, I cannot tell: God knoweth;)

4 How that he was caught up into [a]paradise, and heard [b]unspeakable words, which [c]it is not lawful for a man to utter.

5 [d]Of such an one will I glory: yet of myself I will not glory, but in mine [e]infirmities.

6 [f]For though I would desire to glory, I shall not be a fool; for I will say the truth: but now I forbear, lest any man should think of me above that which he seeth me to be, or that he heareth of me.

14 Equality in patience and power (Acts 19:11-12; Rom. 1:11; 15:18-29; 1 Cor. 4:18-21)

7 And lest I should be [g]exalted above measure through the abundance of the revelations, there was given to me a thorn in the flesh, [h]the messenger of Sā'tan to [i]buffet me, lest I should be exalted above measure.

8 For this thing I besought the Lord thrice, that it might depart from me.

9 And he said unto me, [j]My grace is sufficient for thee: for my strength is made perfect in weakness. [k]Most gladly therefore will I rather glory in my infirmities, that the power of Christ may rest upon me.

10 Therefore I take [l]pleasure in infirmities, in reproaches, in necessities, in persecutions, in distresses for Christ's sake: for when I am weak, [m]then am I strong.

11 [n]I am become a fool in glorying; ye have compelled me: for I ought to have been commended of you: for in nothing am I behind the very chiefest apostles, though I be nothing.

12 Truly the signs of an [o]apostle were wrought among you in all patience, in signs, and wonders, and mighty deeds.

15 Apology for being independent of them in support

13 [p]For what is it wherein ye were inferior to other churches, except it be that I myself was not burdensome to you? [q]forgive me this wrong.

16 The proposed visit (1:15)

14 Behold, the [r]third time I am ready to come to you; and I will not be burdensome to you: for I seek not yours, [s]but you: for the children ought not to lay up for the parents, but the parents for the children.

15 And I will very gladly spend and be spent for you; though the more abundantly I love you, the less I be loved.

16 But be it so, I did not burden you: nevertheless, [t]being crafty, I caught you with guile.

17 Boasting of Titus (8:6, 16)

17 [u]Did I make a gain of you by any of them whom I sent unto you?

18 I desired Tī'tus, and with him I sent a brother. Did Tī'tus make a gain of you?

b Questions 17-20. Next, v 29

c Gr. paraphroneo, madness; beside self. Cp. 2 Pet. 2:16

d Instead of taking it easy in an established church I labour to start others

e Acts 16:23; 21:33-28:31

f See 1 Cor. 15:31; 2 Cor. 4:11

g See Dt. 25:3. Jews did not repeat scourgings except for great crimes, but to Christians they showed no mercy

h Romans used rods. Only once is this recorded (Acts 16:22)

i At Lystra (Acts 14:19)

j Only one is recorded (Acts 27:41-28:1)

k At least 3 great missionary journeys are recorded (notes on Acts 13:1-3; 15:41; 18:23). Most of the other events of v 23-27 are not recorded

l Besides the outward sufferings of v 23-27, there are many inward struggles because of conditions in the many churches that are under my care (v 28)

m Questions 21-22. Next, 12:13

n The idea here is that no man is offended, but what "I burn with indignation" and zeal to restore him

o If I must boast, I will not brag on my natural and acquired powers or what God has done for me, but rather in what I have suffered for Him (v 30) p See note 1, 1, 12:10

q See note a, Acts 9:23

r The father-in-law of Herod Antipas. See note g, Mt. 14:3

s It is not profitable for me to boast, but since it is necessary to answer my enemies at Corinth, I will continue my boasting about visions and revelations t Gr. apokalupsis, unveiling of things not known before and which God alone could make known. See p. 190, 207 u This takes us back to about 46 A.D., some 14 years after Christ died. Just where he saw the vision is not known v It could have been in the body, as in the case of Enoch, Elijah, and John (Gen. 5:24; 2 Ki. 2; Rev. 4:1). The fact he did not know proves the possibility of a natural body going to heaven. It also proves that he believed in the consciousness of souls after leaving the body (2 Cor. 5:8; Phil. 1:21-24; Heb. 12:23)

w Caught up, like in 1 Th. 4:16-17, Paul was not doubtful about being caught up to the third heaven. He was certain about that (v 2, 4). It was whether in the body or out of it that he was doubtful (v 2-3)

x There are 3 heavens:
1 The clouds or atmospheric heavens (Gen. 1:8; Ps. 77:17-18; 104:2-3)
2 The starry space (Gen. 15:5; 22:17; 26:4; Dt. 1:10; Isa. 13:10; 14:13)
3 The planet heaven (Gen. 1:1; Isa. 14:12-14; Isa. 66:1; Rev. 21:2, 10)

1:4; 2 Tim. 3:11)
5 Gr. stenochoria, distresses (v 10; 6:4; Rom. 8:35) and anguish (Rom. 2:9)
These 5 classes of sufferings constitute the buffeting of Paul by the angel of Satan which was his thorn (v 7-10) m When I get an attack by the angel of Satan, then I look for the grace promised of God (v 9). I get it and am strong in the power of God (v 10). The power of Christ rests upon me like a tent or tabernacle, affording me shelter and rest (v 9)

n I am become senseless in boasting (note 1, 11:16), but you have compelled me. You should have vindicated both me and my ministry before my enemies among you, for you know my apostolic power which I used among you (v 11-12)

o No man is an apostle without these signs

p Question 23. Next, v 17

q If refusing to take support from you is the only thing I have failed you in, forgive me and clear the record

r This is a third time I am resolved to come to you. I planned twice before, but could not make it (1 Cor. 16:5; 2 Cor. 1:15-16; 13:1, 2) s I seek your salvation, not your property. I will continue this policy (v 14-16)

t The true sense here is that his enemies accused him of using tricks to get from them by means of others what he was pretending that he would not take from them. He answers this charge by the questions of v 17-18

u Questions 24-28. Next, 13:5

a This paradise is in the third heaven (v 2, 4). See note c, Lk. 16:22

b This simply means that human lips and tongue could not express them. They were too sacred to undertake repeating them (v 4) c Paul may have been forbidden to utter these words, like John was commanded to seal up and write not what the seven thunders uttered (Rev. 10:4) d Again he repeats that he will not glory in himself and his attainments, but in his infirmities and other experiences suffered for Christ (v 1, 5; 11:30)

e See note 1, 1, v 10

f Even if I desired to glory I would not be senseless (note 1, 11:16), for God knows that what I say is truth. I will stop less any man think that I am more than what I am and what I can actually demonstrate (v 6)

g Gr. huperairomai. Used only here and of Antichrist exalting himself above all that is called God (2 Th. 2:4). This is what caused Lucifer to fall (Isa. 14:12-14; Ezek. 28:11-17; 1 Tim. 3:6). God did not want Paul to exalt himself through the abundance of revelations given him, so He permitted him to have the thorn in the flesh to keep him humble (v 7)

h This is the most simple explanation of the thorn in the flesh that is possible for God or man to give. It was "the messenger (Gr. aggelos, pronounced anggelos meaning angel of Satan." Aggelos is translated angel 179 times and messenger 7 times. It is never trans. disease or physical infirmity and never means any such thing. An angel of Satan, one of the spirit beings which fell with him, followed Paul and buffeted him when he was tempted to become exalted. Paul lists in 11:23-27 some of the things that this angel caused him to go through to keep him humble. There is not a disease in the whole list

Paul's thorn must be understood in the same sense as Num. 33:55; Ezek. 28:24; Hos. 2:6 where the same Gr. skolop, thorn, is found in the Sept. Were those giants and enemies of Israel diseases in their sides or the cause of their wars and other kinds of sufferings?

i Gr. kolaphizo, to cuff; give one a box on the ear (Mt. 26:67; Mk. 14:65; 1 Cor. 4:11; 2 Cor. 12:7; 1 Pet. 2:20)

j God assured Paul that this angel of Satan was in His will; that grace would be provided to suffer all things; and that he should learn to depend wholly upon the power of God (v 8-9)

k Paul learned to glory in his infirmities so that the power of Christ could rest upon him (v 9-10; Acts 9:16)

l 5 phases of Paul's thorn in the flesh:
1 Gr. astheneia, want of strength; weakness; infirmity, which means a moral, mental, or physical weakness or flaw. Used of utter helplessness of the body in death (1 Cor. 15:43; 2 Cor. 13:4); infirmity of body (Mt. 8:17; Lk. 5:15; 8:2; 13:11-12; Jn. 5:5; 11:4; Acts 28:9; 1 Tim. 5:23); weakness of ability as a nation to cope with more powerful forces in war (Heb. 11:34); weakness of human nature (Rom. 6:19; 8:26; Gal. 4:13; Heb. 4:15; 5:2; 7:28); weakness of human ability (1 Cor. 2:3); Paul's weakness and helplessness before Satan's angel (2 Cor. 11:30; 12:5, 9-10). The fact that Paul's thorn in the flesh consisted of reproaches, necessities, persecutions, distresses, and infirmities proves that the infirmities had to do with his trials, troubles, and sufferings of body and soul which he lists in 11:23-33, and not a physical disease. The fact that he still had power to do apostolic signs, wonders, and mighty deeds while he had this thorn in the flesh (v 12), proves that it was not a bodily disease (Mt. 8:17 with Isa. 53:4-5; 1 Pet. 2:24). Paul had special power to heal diseases even up to the last days we read of him (Acts 19:11; 28:1-9). See notes e, f, and g, Mt. 8:17

2 Gr. hubris, insults; reproaches (v 10); hurt (Acts 27:10); and harm (Acts 27:21)

3 Gr. anagke, necessities (v 10; 6:4; 9:7; 1 Cor. 7:37; 9:16; Phlm 14; Heb. 7:12; 9:16, 23); distress (Lk. 21:23; 1 Cor. 7:26)

4 Gr. diogmos, persecutions (v 10; Mt. 13:21; Mk. 4:17; 10:30; Acts 8:1; 13:50; Rom. 8:35; 2 Cor. 12:10; 2 Th.

a Characteristic of all true ministers b Do you think that I make apology for my conduct and that I sent the brethren to you because I was ashamed to come myself? God is my judge that this was not my motive, what I have done has been for your edification (v 19)

c I have been fearful of 3 things:
1 Lest we not find each other as we should (v 20)
2 Lest I find you full of: (v 20)
(1) Debates: wranglings (Rom. 1:29)
(2) Envyings: jealousies (Acts 5:17)
(3) Wraths: indignation (Rom. 2:8)
(4) Strifes: contentions (Rom. 2:8)
(5) Backbitings: slanders (1 Pet. 2:1)
(6) Whisperings: murmurs (1 Cor. 10:10)
(7) Swellings: puffed up feelings (1 Cor. 4:6)
(8) Tumults: uproars (Lk. 21:9)
3 Lest God shall humble me among you because of some that have sinned and have not repented, and lest I have to use my power to judge all such (v 21; 10:8-11; 13:10; 1 Cor. 4:18-20)

d 3 kinds of moral sins (v 21):
1 Homosexuality, known in the lists of sins under the term uncleanness (v 21; Rom. 1:24; 6:19; Gal. 5:19; Eph. 4:19; 5:3; Col. 3:5; 2 Pet. 2:10)
2 Fornication (note g, Mt. 5:32)
3 Lasciviousness (note, Gal. 5:19)

e See note r, 12:14

f This again states the law of interpretation of Scripture. Every doctrine must be proved by at least 2 or 3 scriptures to be accepted as truth and binding upon Christians (v 1; Dt. 19:15; Mt. 18:16)

g This indicates that he had been to Corinth a second time. The sense here is, "I foretell to you as I did when I was present with you the second time. Being absent now I write what I said on my second visit" (v 2). This is why he speaks of being ready to come to them a third time (note r, 12:14). The theory that his first visit was when he founded the church and second and third visits were his two epistles to them is not reasonable. He could not call his letters visits to them. Because there is no record of his second visit is no proof that he did not make it, any more than no mention in history of all his sufferings of 11:23-28 is proof he did not go through them. Since he repeatedly mentions coming to them a third time that should be sufficient to prove there was a second visit (note r, 12:14)

h This is further proof that his letters were not real visits to Corinth

i Since you seek proof of Christ speaking in me, your very conversion and the gifts you have are sufficient proofs (v 3; 1 Cor. 12)

j Gr. astheneia, same word trans. infirmities (note 1, 1, 12:10). It does not mean disease, but weakness. To men the crucifixion appeared to be Christ's weakness and defeat. To them He seemed powerless to help it, but this very seeming defeat demonstrated His power (Col. 2:14-17; 1 Pet. 2:24; 1 Cor. 1:18-24). We are also weak in Him and that very weakness brings us life and power (12:9-10). Because we are on Christ's side we may appear to be weak and on the losing side, but as His seeming weakness was His strength, so it is with us (v 4; 12:9-10) walked we not in the [e]same spirit? walked we not in the same steps?

18 Again warns them of his power that could bring judgment (1 Cor. 4:18-21; 2 Cor. 10:6-11)

19 Again, [b]think ye that we excuse ourselves unto you? we speak before God in Christ: but we do all things, dearly beloved, for your edifying.

20 For [c]I fear, lest, when I come, I shall not find you such as I would, and that I shall be found unto you such as ye would not: lest there be debates, envyings, wraths, strifes, backbitings, whisperings, swellings, tumults:

21 And lest, when I come again, my God will humble me among you, and that I shall bewail many which have sinned already, and have not repented of the [d]uncleanness and fornication and lasciviousness which they have committed.

162 CHAPTER 13

19 The proposed visit (1:15)

THIS is the [e]third time I am coming to you. [f]In the mouth of two or three witnesses shall every word be established.

2 I told you before, and foretell you, [g]as if I were present, the second time; and being absent now I write to them which heretofore have sinned, and to all other, that, [h]if I come again, I will not spare:

3 [i]Since ye seek a proof of Christ speaking in me, which to you-ward is not weak, but is mighty in you.

▸4 For though he was crucified through [j]weakness, yet he liveth by the power of God. For we also are weak in him, but we shall live with him by the power of God toward you.

20 Admonition to soberness

●5 [c]Examine yourselves, whether ye be in the faith; prove your own selves. [b]Know ye not your own selves, how that Jē'gus Christ is in you, except ye be [c]reprobates?

6 But I trust' that ye shall know that we are not reprobates.

7 [d]Now I pray to God that ye do no evil; not that we should appear approved, but that ye should do that which is honest, though we be as reprobates.

8 For we can do nothing against the truth, but for the truth.

9 [c]For we are glad, when we are weak, and ye are strong: and this also we wish, even your perfection.

10 Therefore [f]I write these things being absent, lest being present I should use sharpness, according to the power which the Lord hath given me to edification, and not to destruction.

21 Sixfold parting admonition

●11 Finally, brethren, farewell. Be perfect, be of good comfort, be of one mind, live in peace; and the God of love and peace shall be with you.

12 Greet one another with an holy kiss.

22 Salutation and benediction

13 All the saints salute you.

14 [g]The grace of the Lord Jē'sus Christ, and the love of God, and the [h]communion of the Hō'lȳ Ghōst, be with you all. Ā-mĕn'.

1 The Father of our Lord Jesus Christ (v 3; 11:31; Eph. 1:3; 3:14; Col. 1:3)
2 The Father of Mercies (v 3)
3 The God of all Comfort (v 3)
4 The Father of Glory (Eph. 1:17)
5 The Father of All (Eph. 4:6)
6 The Father of Spirits (Heb. 12:9)
7 The Father of Lights (Jas. 1:17)
8 The God of Peace (Phil. 4:9)

a 7 final commands to the Corinthians:
1 Examine yourselves to see if you are in the true faith (v 5). Gr. peiraza, make proof or trial of one; make a test. Trans. try (Heb. 11:17; Rev. 2:2, 10; 3:10); prove (Jn. 6:6); examine (2 Cor. 13:5); tempter (Mt. 4:3; 1 Th. 3:5); assay (Acts 16:7); go about (Acts 24:6); and tempt 27 times (Mt. 4:1; etc.)
2 Prove your own selves (v 5). Gr. dokimazo, to assay metals; to prove or test. Trans. try (1 Cor. 3:13; 1 Th. 2:4; 1 Pet. 1:7; 1 Jn. 4:1); prove (Lk. 14:19; Rom. 12:2; 2 Cor. 8:8, 22; 13:5; Gal. 6:4; Eph. 5:10; 1 Th. 5:21; 1 Tim. 3:10; Heb. 3:9); examine (1 Cor. 11:28); discern (Lk. 12:56); approve (Rom. 2:18; 1 Cor. 16:3; Phil. 1:10); allow (Rom. 14:22; 1 Th. 2:4); and like (Rom. 1:28)
3 Be perfect (v 11). Gr. katartizo, to adjust; put in order again; restore; repair; set by mediation. Trans. mend (Mt. 4:21; Mk. 1:19); restore (Gal. 6:1); fit (Rom. 9:22); prepare (Heb. 10:5); frame (Heb. 9:3); be perfectly joined together (1 Cor. 1:10); be and make perfect (Mt. 21:16; Lk. 6:40; 1 Th. 3:10; 2 Cor. 13:11; Heb. 13:21; 1 Pet. 5:10)
4 Be of good comfort (v 11). Gr. parakaleo, (note g, 1:4)
5 Be of one mind (v 11). Gr. phroneo, the same thing. Think and teach the same things; have no disputes (Rom. 12:16; 15:5; Phil. 2:2; 3:16; 1 Cor. 1:10)
6 Live in peace (v 11). Gr. eireneuo, as in Rom. 12:18; Heb. 12:14. Cultivate a disposition of peace and harmony
7 Greet one another (v 12). Be friendly; be glad to see each other; encourage every friendly act by a show of affection. Your party spirit cannot live in such an atmosphere as genuine love and friendship (1 Cor. 13)

b Question 29. Last question in 2 Cor. If you will put the acid test to your faith it will be as easy to find out a false faith as a counterfeit coin (v 5). If Jesus Christ be in you then you are a new creature (5:17-18). You have His nature and power unless you are reprobates

c See note o, 1 Cor. 9:27

d We do not want you to do evil that we may be approved by the exercise of power to punish you; we want you to do right though we appear to be as reprobates, persons not approved of God. Your doing right will prevent our using our power of judgment; otherwise we will have to give proof that we are approved of God (v 7-10)

e I am glad to be weak if you are strong and in no need of correction (v 9)

f I only write to you to threaten you by a letter, to put you on your guard, and to lead you to putting away sin, so that when I come I will not have to use my power to your destruction (v 10)

g Another clear reference to the Trinity of 3 separate persons in the Godhead:
1 The grace of Jesus Christ, the Son of the Father (Jn. 1:17; 1 Jn. 5:7)
2 The love of God the Father (Jn. 3:16; 1 Cor. 13:1-13; Rom. 5:8)
3 The communion (fellowship) of the Holy Ghost (Phil. 2:1; Rom. 8:14-16)

h Gr. koinonia. Trans. communion (1 Cor. 10:16; 2 Cor. 6:14; 13:14); communicate (Phᵉm. 6; Heb. 13:16); fellowship (Acts 2:42; 1 Cor. 1:9; 2 Cor. 8:4; Gal. 2:9; Eph. 3:9; Phil. 1:5; 2:1; 3:10; 1 Jn. 1:3, 6-7); contribution (Rom. 15:26); and distribution (2 Cor. 9:13)

Godly sincerity (1:12):

1 Does not exempt from guilt (Gen. 20)
2 Must accompany forgiveness (Mt. 18:35)
3 Command (Josh. 24:14; 1 Cor. 5:8)
4 Must characterize service (Eph. 6:5-7; 1 Cor. 10:31; Tit. 2:7); our love to God (2 Cor. 8:8, 24); our love to Jesus (Eph. 6:24); our faith (1 Tim. 1:5); our love to others (Rom. 12:9); our preaching (2 Cor. 2:17; 1 Th. 2:3-5); and our whole conduct (2 Cor. 1:12).
5 A characteristic of truth (1 Pet. 2:2)

(2) Hezekiah (Isa. 38:3)

12 conditions of Noah and Lot's days: (Lk. 17:26)

1 Tendency to reject God (Gen. 4:1-7; Rom. 1:17-32)
2 Undue prominence of sex in unlawful relation with angels (Gen. 6:1-4; 2 Pet. 2:4; Jude 6-7)
3 Homosexuality prominent (Gen. 19; Lk. 17:28; Rom. 1:17-32)
4 Marriages and divorces (Gen. 6:1-4; Mt. 24:38; Lk. 17:27)
5 Inventions (Gen. 4:17-24; Rom. 1:30; Dan. 12:4; Lk. 17:28)
6 Apostasy (2 Pet. 2:4-8; Mt. 24:38; Lk. 17:27-28; 2 Th. 2:3)
7 Rejection of preaching (2 Pet. 2:5; 2 Tim. 4:1-4; Mt. 24:38)
8 Violence and bloodshed (Gen. 6:1-13; Rom. 1:17-32; 2 Tim. 3)

The eagles here are not (Lk. 17:37):

1 The saints that are raptured to meet the carcase (Mt. 24:28) or the dead body of Christ (Lk. 17:37) in the air, for Christ is not dead and saints are not eagles
2 The eagles of the Roman standards, for instead of being fulfilled by the legions of Rome, this will be fulfilled in the dead bodies of the armies of all nations under Antichrist (Zech. 14:1-5; Rev. 19:11-21; Joel 3)
3 The American eagle. We do not definitely know whether America will cooperate with Antichrist against Jesus Christ in this battle. America is not mentioned in particular in prophecy
4 The eagles and birds of all the earth - only those of Palestine in the vicinity of the battle of Armageddon (Ezek. 39:17-21; Mt. 24:28; Lk. 17:37; Rev. 19:17-21). That eagles of Palestine eat dead bodies is clear from Job 39:27-30

Fire used figuratively of (Lk. 12:49):

1 Jealousy (Dt. 4:24; Ezek. 36:5)
2 Man's anger (Pr. 16:27; Ps. 39:3)
3 God's Word (Jer. 5:14; 23:29)
4 Sin (Pr. 6:27; Isa. 9:18)
5 The tongue (Jas. 3:5-6)
6 Ministers (Ps. 104:4; Heb. 1:7)
7 Christ (Mal. 3:2)
8 Holy Spirit (Mt. 3:11; Rev. 4:5)
9 Tribulation (Ps. 66:12; 1 Pet. 1:7)
10 God's anger (Isa. 12:1; 31:9; 47:14; Jer. 4:4; 21:12)
11 Judgment (Zech. 13:9; Isa. 10:16-17; Jer. 17:27; 50:32)
12 Persecution and division because of the gospel (Lk. 12:49)

It is no doubt in this last sense that Jesus used the word "fire" here, as is clear in v 51-53 and Mt. 10:34-36

Widows (Lk. 18:3)

Mentioned 84 times in Scripture; 15 times with the fatherless. Both were especially cared for under the law (Ex. 22:22-24; Dt. 10:18; 14:28-29; 16:11-14; 24:17-21; 27:19). God's providence is special over them (Ps. 68:5; 94:6; 146:9; Pr. 15:25). Prophets rebuked Israel for oppressing them (Isa. 1:17, 23; 10:1-2; Jer. 7:6-7; 22:3; Zech. 7:10; Mal. 3:5). Christ denounced Pharisees for oppressing them (Mt. 23:14; Mk. 12:40; Lk. 20:47). Instructions to churches about them (1 Cor. 7:8-9; 1 Tim. 5:3-16; Jas. 1:27). Vows of, binding (Num. 30:9). Daughters of priests, to be supported by father (Lev. 22:13). Priests forbidden to marry widows (Lev. 21:14). A brother to marry brother's widow to continue inheritances (Dt. 25:5-10; Mt. 22:23-33). Cause of the first trouble in the early church (Acts 6:1-7)

Widows mentioned in Scripture:

1 Tamar (Gen. 38:1-30)
2 Naomi, Orpah, and Ruth (Ruth 1)
3 Tekoah (2 Sam. 14:5)
4 Hiram's mother (1 Ki. 7:14)
5 Zeruah (1 Ki. 11:26)
6 Widow of Zarephath (1 Ki. 17)
7 Wife of a prophet (2 Ki. 4)
8 Anna (Lk. 2:36-37)
9 Poor widow (Mk. 12:41; Lk. 21:2)
10 Widow of Nain (Lk. 7:11-15)
11 Importunate widow (Lk. 18:1-8)
12 Tabitha or Dorcas (Acts 9:36-42)

4 elect's of God (Lk. 18:7):

1 Christ (Isa. 42:1; 1 Pet. 2:6)
2 All Christians (Rom. 8:33; Col. 3:12; Tit. 1:1; Jn. 15:16; Eph. 1:4; 2:10; 2 Th. 2:13; 2 Jn. 1, 13)
3 Israel (Isa. 45:4; 65:9, 22; Mt. 24:21-31; Mk. 13:22, 27; 1 Pet. 1:2)
4 Angels (1 Tim. 5:21)

Anyone chosen of God at any time, Jew or Gentile, is the elect of God (Rom. 9:11; 11:5, 7, 28; 1 Th. 1:4; 1 Pet. 5:13; 2 Pet. 1:10). All men are called to become God's elect or chosen ones and can be if they will choose God (Mt. 11:28-30; 20:16; Jn. 1:12; 3:16-20; 6:37; Eph. 1:4; 2 Th. 2:13; Jas. 2:5; 1 Tim. 2:4; 2 Pet. 3:9; Rev. 17:14; 22:17)

7 "except's" (Jn. 3:3):

1 Except ye repent, ye shall all likewise perish (Lk. 13:1-5)
2 Except ye become converted, and become as little children, ye shall not enter the kingdom of heaven (Mt. 18:3)
3 Except a man be born again, he cannot see the kingdom of God (Jn. 3:3; 1 Jn. 2:29; 3:8; 5:1-14, 18)
4 Except a man be born of water and of the Spirit, he cannot enter the kingdom of God (Jn. 3:5)
5 Except ye eat the flesh of the Son of man, and drink His blood, ye have no life in you (Jn. 6:53)
6 Except your righteousness shall exceed the righteousness of the scribes and Pharisees, ye shall in no case enter into the kingdom of heaven (Mt. 5:20)
7 Except ye abide in me . . . he is cast forth as a branch, and is withered; and men gather them, and cast them into the fire, and they are burned (Jn. 15:4-6)

Faith (Jn. 3:15):

Gr. pisteuo, 248 times, and means:
1 To be persuaded of (Rom. 4:17-22; 8:38-39; 2 Tim. 1:12)
2 Place confidence in (Eph. 3:12; Phil. 1:6; Heb. 3:6, 12-14; 10:35; 1 Jn. 3:21; 5:14)
3 The substance or conviction of things hoped for, the assurance of things not seen (Heb. 10:19-38; 11:1, 6; Rom. 4:17; 8:24)
4 Absolute dependence upon and reliance in the Word of God and of Christ (Mt. 8:8-10; 15:28; Rom. 10:17; Heb. 11:1-12:3)
5 Full surrender, yieldedness, and obedience to all known truth (Rom. 1:5; 16:26; 6:11-23; Jas. 2:14-26; 2 Cor. 10:4-7; Heb. 11:6)
6 Trust wholly and unreservedly in the faithfulness of God (Mt. 6:25-34; 12:21; Lk. 12:28-31; Eph. 1:13; 1 Tim. 4:11; 6:17; 1 Cor. 10:13)
7 Give one's self over to a new way of life (Rom. 1:17; 6:11-23; 8:1-16; 2 Cor. 10:4-7; Gal. 5:16-26; Col. 3:5-10; Heb. 12:1-15; Tit. 2:11-14; 1 Jn. 1:7; 2:6; 3:8-10; 4:17; 5:1-5, 18)
8 The attribute of God and restored faculty of man whereby both can bring into existence things that are unseen (Rom. 4:17; Gal. 5:22; Mt. 17:20; 21:22; Mk. 9:23; 11:22-24; Lk. 17:6; Heb. 11)
9 The whole body of revealed truth (Lk. 18:8; Jude 3; Rom. 10:17; 1 Tim. 4:1, 6; 6:10; 2 Tim. 3:16-17)
10 Joyful faith in, and acceptance of Christ as the substitute for sin and our Saviour whereby one receives salvation (Mk. 16:16; Acts 4:12; 10:43; Rom. 1:16; 3:24-31; Eph. 2:8-9); access into grace (Rom. 5:2); fulfillment of the promises (Heb. 6:12); the Holy Spirit (Gal. 3:14); righteousness (Rom. 4; 9:30, 32; 10:6; Phil. 3:9); sonship (Gal. 3:26); healing (Jas. 5:14-16; 1 Pet. 2:24); eternal life (Jn. 3:15-18, 36; 5:24; 6:47); and answers to every prayer (Mt. 7:7-11; 21:21; Mk. 11:22-24; Lk. 18:1-8; Jn. 14:12-15; 15:7, 16)

The word "believeth" denotes the act and process of faith and is the present tense of "pistis," faith, and must be continued in to get its benefits (Acts 14:22; Eph. 6:16; Col. 1:23; 2:5-7; 1 Th. 3:8; 1 Tim. 2:15; 3:9; 6:12; 2 Tim. 3:8; 4:7; Tit. 1:13; Heb. 10:23-38; 2 Pet. 1:5-10). It can be lost (Lk. 8:13; 1 Tim. 1:19; 4:1; 5:8, 12; 6:10, 21; 2 Tim. 2:18; 3:8; Jude 3; Rev. 2:13).

GALATIANS

Paul's Gospel a Revelation - Justification by Faith without the Law - Law Abolished - Spiritual Experiences

a See note a, Acts 15:33
b Note the two separate persons of the Godhead (v 1; Jn. 1:1-2; 1 Jn. 5:7) c This letter was addressed to all the churches of Galatia, a province of Asia Minor. There was no city by this name. How many churches were in Galatia at this time is not known. It seems they all had the same troubles, as seen in point e, below
d 5 reasons Christ gave Himself, p. 207
e 20 things wrong with the Galatians:
1 Being so soon removed from Christ (v 6)
2 Permitting false teachers to pervert the gospel (v 7; 5:8-12)
3 Were bewitched from obedience to the gospel of Christ (3:1; 5:7)
4 Were crucifying Christ anew (3:1)
5 Attributing their gospel blessings to the law of Moses (3:2)
6 Beginning in the Spirit and seeking perfection in the flesh (3:3)
7 Were suffering for the gospel in vain by losing gospel benefits (3:4)
8 Going back to the law of works to be justified (3:10-12; 5:4)
9 Turning back to the weak and beggarly elements of the world (4:9)
10 Desiring to be in bondage (4:9, 21)
11 Going back to observance of sabbaths and other festivals of the law (4:9-10)
12 Considered Paul an enemy for telling them the truth (4:16)
13 Were zealous for wrong things (4:17-18)
14 Backslidden and in need of a rebirth again (4:19)
15 Were back in law bondage (5:1)
16 Being convinced of circumcision (5:2)
17 Were fallen from grace (1:6; 5:4)
18 Using liberty as an occasion to the flesh to commit sin (5:13)
19 Biting and devouring one another (5:15, 26)
20 Seeking to escape persecution of the cross of Christ (6:12)
f The other gospel was the law which:
1 Cannot justify (2:16; 3:11; 5:4)
2 Brings only the curse (3:10)
3 Is not of faith (3:12)
4 Cannot give an inheritance (3:18)
5 Was added only to make sin sinful (3:19; Rom. 3:19-20; 7:13; 1 Jn. 3:4)
6 Was given only until Christ came (3:19, 23-25; Heb. 7:28; 9:9-10; Lk. 16:16)
7 Could not give life (3:21)
8 Could not give righteousness (3:21)
9 Was a schoolmaster to lead to Christ (3:24-26; Mt. 11:11; Lk. 16:16)
10 Is not in force for Christians (3:19-25; notes o, i, Acts 15:1, 24; 95 old and new covenant contrasts, p. 201)
11 Makes servants, not sons (4:1-3)
12 Brings bondage (4:9, 24; 5:1)
13 Was a religion of days, etc. (4:10)
14 Could not give the new birth (4:28-30)
15 Was cast out (4:21-31)
16 Demanded circumcision (5:2-3)
17 If observed, cancels grace (5:4)
g Going back under the law and substituting it for the gospel is perverting the gospel of Christ (v 7; 5:4)
h See The Gospel is referred to: p. 207
i The gospel had not only been preached to them, but they had received it and the benefits listed under point h, above (v 9). Therefore, any removal from grace (v 6) or fall from grace (5:4) was a backsliding from the gospel
j See note m, Acts 23:14
k Questions 1-2. Next, 2:14
l See Revelation, p. 190, 207
m Gr. anastrophe, manner of life (note z, 2 Cor. 1:12) n Paul never gets away from this awful past of murdering Christians and of fighting against Jesus Christ. He refers to it several times (Acts 22:5; 26:9-11; Gal. 1:13, 23; Phil. 3:6; 1 Tim. 1:13)

163 CHAPTER 1

I The introduction: 1 Authorship and salutation

PAUL, an[a] apostle, (not of men, neither by man, but[b] by Jē'sus Christ, and God the Father, who raised him from the dead;)
2 And all the brethren which are with me, unto the[c] churches of Gā-lā'tiă:
3 Grace be to you and peace from God the Father, and from our Lord Jē'şus Christ,
4 [d]Who gave himself for our sins, that he might deliver us from this present evil world, according to the will of God and our Father:
5 To whom be glory for ever and ever. Ā-mĕn'.

2 Theme and occasion for writing the epistle

6 I marvel that ye are so soon [e]removed from him that called you into the grace of Christ[f] unto another gospel:
7 Which is not another; but there be some that trouble you, and would[g] pervert the[h] gospel of Christ.
8 But though we, or an angel from heaven, [i]preach any other gospel unto you than that which we have preached unto you, let him be accursed.
9 As we said before, so say I now again, If any man preach any other gospel unto you than that ye have received, let him be[j] accursed.
10 [k]For do I now persuade men, or God? or do I seek to please men? for if I yet pleased men, I should not be the servant of Christ.

II Paul's gospel (Gal. 1:11-2:14; Eph. 3). 1 A direct revelation from Jesus Christ

11 But I certify you, brethren, that the gospel which was preached of me is not after man.
12 For I neither received it of man, neither was I taught it, but by the [l]revelation of Jē'sus Christ.

2 His former life (Acts 9:1-21; 22:1-21; 26:1-20; Phil. 3:4-6)

13 For ye have heard of [m]my conversation in time past in the Jews' religion, [n]how that beyond measure I persecuted the church of God, and wasted it:
14 And [o]profited in the Jews' religion above many my equals in mine own nation, being more exceedingly zealous of the traditions of my fathers.

3 His gospel and ministry from God, not from other apostles

15 But when it pleased God, who [p]separated me from my mother's womb, and [q]called me by his grace, 16 [r]To reveal his Son in me, that I might preach him among the heathen; immediately I conferred not with[b] flesh and blood:
17 [c]Neither went I up to Jē-rų'sā-lĕm to them which were apostles before me; [d]but I went into Ā-rā'bi-ā, and returned again unto Dā-mās'cus.
18 Then after three years I went up to Jē-rų'să-lĕm to see Pē'tēr, and abode with him fifteen days.
19 But other of the apostles saw I none, save [e]Jāmeş the Lord's brother.
20 Now the things which I write unto you, behold, before God, I lie not.
21 [f]Afterwards I came into the regions of Sўr'ī-ā and Çi-lī'çiă;
22 And was unknown by face unto the churches of Jū-dæ'ā which were in Christ:
23 But they had heard only, That he which persecuted us in times past now preacheth the faith which once he destroyed.
24 And they glorified God in me.

164 CHAPTER 2

4 Fourteen years later he compared his gospel with that of other apostles and it was true

THEN fourteen years after I went up again to Jē-rų'să-lĕm with Bär'na-bās, and took Tī'tus with me also.
2 And I went up by [g]revelation, and [h]communicated unto them that gospel which I preach among the Gĕn'tīles, but [i]privately to them which were of reputation, lest by any means I should run, or had run, in vain.

5 His Gentile workers were not required to obey Jewish law

3 But neither Tī'tus, who was with me, being a Greek, was compelled to be circumcised:
4 And that because of [j]false brethren [k]unawares brought in, who came in privily to spy out our liberty which we have in Christ Jē'şus, that they might bring us into bondage:
5 To whom we gave place by subjection, no, not for an hour; that the truth of the gospel might continue with you.

6 His gospel was perfect and complete for Gentile Christians

6 But of these who seemed to be somewhat, (whatsoever they were, it maketh no matter to me; God accepteth no man's person:) [m]for they who seemed to be somewhat in conference added nothing to me:

7 Two different kinds of gospel programs: one for Jews and one for Gentiles

7 [n]But contrariwise, when they saw that the [o]gospel of the uncircumcision was committed unto me, as the gospel of the circumcision was unto Pē'tēr;

a Gr. ethnos, nations. Trans. Gentiles 93 times; nations 64 times; heathen 5 times and people 2 times. It simply means any non-Israelite, pagan or Christian (1 Cor. 10:32; 12:13).
b Meaning man, any man, any human being (Mt. 16:17; 1 Cor. 15:50) c He had his call and revelation of the gospel direct from Jesus Christ, as did the other apostles (Acts 1:1-3, 21-22; Gal. 1:12, 15; 2:2; Eph. 3:1-8; 2 Tim. 3:16-17)
d Arabia then included all the kingdom of Aretas from Damascus and east of the Jordan down to Edom in the south. Petra was the capital (2 Cor. 11:32-33; note g, Mt. 14:3). It was perhaps into the north part that Paul fled which included Bashan, and which, at that time, was densely populated. Christianity took hold in this part very early, perhaps due largely to Paul himself. How long Paul stayed in Arabia before returning to Damascus is not known. All together he was in Arabia and Damascus 3 years (v 17-18). Why he speaks of Arabia and Damascus as being different is to emphasize that he did not stay in Damascus the whole three years. He also went into the rural sections of Arabia. Some think that here is where he received his revelation. This perhaps is true since he associates the 3 years in Arabia with the receiving of it (v 15-18). He had the revelation before going to see any of the apostles, so it had to be received during these 3 years before going up to see Peter (v 16-18). Since he would naturally discuss doctrines with Peter (v 18), and since he did not receive his revelation from man (v 16), then it had to be received before he saw Peter e The half-brother of Jesus Christ. See James, p. 264
f Paul left Jerusalem to arrest the saints (Acts 9). Later he escaped Damascus and went into the rural regions of Arabia and back to Damascus (v 17; 2 Cor. 11:32-33; Acts 9:23-25). Then he went up to Jerusalem completing the 3 years (v 18; Acts 9:26-27). After this, he went into Syria and Cilicia and to Tarsus his home (v 21-23; Acts 9:28-30; 22:17-21)
g Paul's next trip to Jerusalem was 14 years after his visit of v 16-18. Whether this refers to the visit of Acts 11:30 or 15:4 is not clear. Cp. the 14 years of 2 Cor. 12:2
h See Revelation, p. 190, 207
i Gr. anatithemi, declared. This suggests that it was at the general conference in Acts 15 when Paul, Barnabas, and others went up to settle doctrinal disputes in the early church, and not to take collections to the poor saints, as in Acts 20-21. When taking collections to Jerusalem he did not stay any length of time or discuss doctrines, as far as we know j This suggests that Paul had some private conferences with the apostles previous to going before the public with his declaration of the gospel to the Gentiles (Acts 15:4, 12). He did this lest he find himself labouring in vain (v 2), and also to keep spies from knowing about his Gentile program so as to keep down trouble (v 4-5). After these conferences not even circumcision was demanded of Titus (v 3) k Gr. pseudadelphos. Here: 2 Cor. 11:26
l Gr. pareisaktos, brought in stealthily
m The apostles are the ones referred to. They had nothing to add to my gospel. This itself proves that Peter was not the first pope and did not have charge of the universal church n The apostles did not wish to alter my plans, or to introduce any new doctrine for the Gentiles, or any new method of reaching them. They saw plainly that my doctrine was the same as their own and came from the same source. They gave me their blessing (v 7-10)
o The gospel is called this because of its special adaptation to Gentiles in that day. The same gospel is called the gospel of circumcision because of its particular adaptation to Jews. Jews were then allowed certain old Mosaic practices not imposed upon Gentiles (Acts 15) a This simply means that the signs of an apostle were evident in both Peter and Paul (2 Cor. 12:12). One worked miracles among the Jews and the other among the Gentiles (Acts 15:12) b The half brother of Jesus Christ (1:19. See James, p. 264

c Peter (Jn. 1:42; 1 Cor. 1:12)
d John the beloved apostle (note o, Mt. 4: 21 and Summary of John). This is the only mention of John in Paul's epistles e They were prominent among the apostles. This is proof that Peter was not the pope and head of the whole church f Gr. ethnos. Here: 1 Tim. 3:16; Rev. 3: 12; 10:1. It was a word used by Jews of teachers of the law and persons of great importance and achievement g This was a mark of confidence, friendship, and fellowship among Jews h Gentiles (note a, 1:16)
i The Jews (v 7; Phil. 3:2)
j This refers to the poor of Judea who were forsaken by friends, cast out by relatives, refused privileges of trade, and thrown upon the world as outcasts (2 Cor. 8-9) k Gr. apoudazo, zealous. Here: Eph. 4:3; 1 Th. 2:17; 2 Tim. 2:15; 4:9, 21; Tit. 3:12; Heb. 4:11; 2 Pet. 1:10, 15; 3:14
l A few versions have Cephas and for 1500 years a controversy has raged whether it refers to Peter or some other man; but this need not cause any trouble in view of v 9, 14; Jn. 1:42; 1 Cor. 1:12. There is no other Cephas known in Scripture
m Peter had already eaten with the Gentiles and had taught that the middle wall of partition was broken down between Jews and Gentiles, but when certain Jews came from James he became fearful, withdrawing all fellowship with Gentiles (v 12).
n Gr. hupokrisis, playing or acting a part; hypocrisy. Trans. hypocrisy elsewhere (Mt. 23:28; Mk. 12:15; Lk. 12:1; 1 Tim. 4:2; 1 Pet. 2:1). Here they acted what they really were not, and practiced something that they really did not believe (v 14).
o They acted in hypocrisy which is called here walking not uprightly according to the gospel (v 14) p Question 3, Next, v 17. This was a cutting rebuke in public, but appropriate for Peter who had gone back again on his master (Acts 10:10-15, 28-34; 11: 1-18; 15:7-13). This was like the man Peter before Pentecost, living in fear and torment (Mt. 26:69-75). He had lost some of the boldness for truth that he had at Pentecost (Acts 2:14, 40; 3: 12; 4:8-13; 5:29-32). No man is infallible (1 Cor. 10:13)
q Descendents of the Jewish nation, and of Jewish parents r Not Gentile sinners brought up without the knowledge of God and of the law s Many modern religionists do not know this yet (v 16; Rom. 1:16-17; 3:24-31; 5:1-11; 8:1-4; 10:9-10; Acts 13:38-39; Gal. 3:11-28; 2 Cor. 5:14-21; Eph. 2:8-9; 1 Jn. 1:9) t Question 4, Next, 3:1. If while we acknowledge that we must be justified by faith in Christ, we find ourselves to be sinners through such justification, and we are compelled to go back to the law for that justification, then Christ, instead of being a minister of righteousness and salvation, is really the minister of sin and condemnation. God forbid (v 17).
u If I act like a Jew, and enjoin the observance of the law upon Gentiles, which I have repeatedly asserted and proved to be abolished by the death of Christ (Eph. 2:14-15; Col. 2:14-17; 2 Cor. 3:6-15; Heb. 7:11-10:18), then I build again the things I destroyed and thus make myself a transgressor, undoing my justification by faith in Christ (v 18)
v For I through paying the penalty of the broken law died to the law. It has no claim upon me. That is, when the law executed Christ in my place, I died in Christ to the law. When Christ arose I arose with Him that I might live unto God (v 19-20)
w The death of Christ on the cross showed me that there was no salvation by the law. I was crucified with Him and I live with Him. It is not really my life. It is His life that I am a partaker of. The life I now live in the flesh is one of faith in Christ, who loved me, and made it possible for me to live by faith (v 20)

8 (For he that wrought effectually in Pē'tēr to the apostleship of the circumcision, the same was mighty in me toward the Gĕn'tīles:)

9 And when [b]Jā'mēs, [c]Çē'phas, and [d]John, who [e]seemed to be [f]pillars, perceived the grace that was given unto me, they gave to me and Bär'na-bās the [g]right hands of fellowship; that we should go unto the [h]heathen, and they unto the [i]circumcision.

10 Only they would that we should remember the [j]poor; the same which I also was [k]forward to do.

8 Peter and others rebuked by Paul for hypocrisy and false doctrine

11 But when [l]Pē'tēr was come to An'tĭ-ŏch, I withstood him to the face, because he was to be blamed.

12 [m]For before that certain came from Jā'mēs he did eat with the Gĕn'tīles: but when they were come, he withdrew and separated himself, fearing them which were of the circumcision.

13 And the other Jews dissembled likewise with him; insomuch that Bär'na-bās also was carried away with [n]their dissimulation.

14 But when I saw that they walked [o]not uprightly according to the truth of the gospel, I said unto Pē'tēr before them all, If thou, being a Jew, livest after the manner of Gĕn'tīles, and not as do the Jews, [p]why compellest thou the Gĕn'tīles to live as do the Jews?

III Justification by faith without the law (Gal. 2:15-3:12; Rom. 3:21-5:11; Eph. 2:1-10). 1 Even Jews must be justified by faith

15 We who are [q]Jews by nature, and [r]not sinners of the Gĕn'tīles, ▸16 [s]Knowing that a man is not justified by the works of the law, but by the faith of Jĕ'sus Christ, even we have believed in Jĕ'sus Christ, that we might be justified by the faith of Christ, and not by the works of the law: for by the works of the law shall no flesh be justified.

2 Jewish inconsistencies

17 [t]But if, while we seek to be justified by Christ, we ourselves also are found sinners, is therefore Christ the minister of sin? God forbid.

18 [u]For if I build again the things which I destroyed, I make myself a transgressor.

3 Believers died with Christ to the law and it has no further claim on them

19 [v]For I through the law am dead to the law, that I might live unto God.

20 [w]I am crucified with Christ: nevertheless I live; yet not I, but Christ liveth in me: and the life which I now live in the flesh [x]I live by the faith of the Son of God, who loved me, and gave himself for me.

4 Christ has died in vain if men are justified by the law (5:1-6; Rom. 4:13-16)

21 I do not [y]frustrate the grace of God: for if righteousness come by the law, then Christ is dead in vain.

CHAPTER 3 165

5 The Holy Spirit is received by faith and not by law-works (Jn. 7:37-39; Gal. 3:13-14)

O [a]FOOLISH Gā-lā'tians, [b]who hath [c]bewitched you, that ye should not [d]obey the truth, before whose eyes Jĕ'sus Christ hath been evidently [e]set forth, crucified among you?

2 This only would I learn of you, [f]Received ye the Spirit by the works of the law, or by the hearing of faith?

3 Are ye so foolish? having begun in the Spirit, are ye now made perfect by the flesh?

4 [g]Have ye suffered so many things in vain? if it be yet in vain.

6 Gifts are exercised by faith, not by law-works (1 Cor. 12:1-31; 14:1-40; Rom. 12:3-8)

5 [h]He therefore that ministereth to you the Spirit, and worketh miracles among you, doeth he it by the works of the law, or by the hearing of faith?

7 Abraham was justified by faith 430 years before the law (Rom. 4:1-25; Gal. 3: 15-18; Gen. 12)

6 Even as Ā'brā-hām believed God, [i]and it was accounted to him for righteousness.

8 All other men are likewise justified (Rom. 3:21-31; 4:4-5, 17-25; 5:1-11)

▸7 [j]Know ye therefore that they which are of faith, the same are the children of Ā'brā-hām.

★8 And the scripture, foreseeing that God would justify the heathen through faith, preached before the gospel unto Ā'brā-hām, saying, [k]In thee shall all nations be blessed.◂

▸9 So then they which be of faith are blessed with faithful Ā'brā-hām.

9 All under law-works are under the curse of the law (5:3)

10 [l]For as many as are of the works of the law are under the curse: for it is written, [m]Cursed is every one that continueth not in [n]all things which are written in the book of the law to do them.

★11 [o]But that [p]no man is justified by the law in the sight of God, it is evident: for, The just shall live by faith.

12 And the law is not of faith: but, [q]The man that doeth them a Gal. 3:11; Rom. 1:17; Heb. 10:23-38

b Gr. atheteo, set aside; disregard; I do not render useless the grace of God (see note o, 1 Tim. 5:12). If righteousness, justification, or salvation come by law observance, then the death of Christ was useless, since they do not come by the law at all, but by the death of Christ, then His death was a necessity and the law is useless as a means of salvation (v 21) c Gr. anoetos, senseless. Trans. unwise (Rom. 1:14); fool (Lk. 24:25); and foolish (Gal. 3:1, 3; 1 Tim. 6:9; Tit. 3:3). You make as little use of reason as those who had none (v 1)
d Questions 5-10, Next, v 19
e Gr. baskaino, to use ill words of another; slander; bewitch by spells or by means of an evil eye, like a blackmake bewitches a bird and draws it helpless into its mouth. Only here, but in Dt. 28: 54-56, and the noun baskanos in Pr. 23:6; 28:22 of the Sept.
f Gr. peitho, used 55 times and is trans. persuade, assure, trust, obey, etc. (Acts 5:36-37; Rom. 2:8; Gal. 3:1; 5:7; Heb. 13:17; Jas. 3:3)
g Gr. prographo, to write in public; to give public notice of. Trans. write afore (Rom. 15:4; Eph. 3:3); and ordain before (Jude 4). The prophecies of Jesus Christ crucified had been set forth and they portrayed the event to them as vividly as a real scene h 3 things the law could not do (v 3-5):
1 Could not impart the Holy Spirit
2 Could not bring perfection
3 Could not work miracles
i This could refer to their sufferings for Christ which were now in vain if they left Christ to go back to the law of works, as is clear in 1:6; 3:1-5; 5:1-4.
j The apostle here refers to himself as ministering the Spirit to them and as working miracles among them by faith and through the gospel and not by the works of the law
k Quoted from Gen. 15:6; Rom. 4:3-5 l They which are of faith are blessed with Abraham. He was justified by faith before he was circumcised and 430 years before the law (v 7-18). This being true, then the law is not necessary to salvation. It is remarkable that the Jews maintained Abraham was saved by faith, for righteousness was imputed to him before both circumcision and the law (Gen. 15:6). They recognized that it had to be by faith. Paul's argument here is very strong and backed by this fact concerning Abraham m 1st O. T. prophecy fulfilled in Gal. (3: 8; Gen. 12:3). Next, v 11. This is here called the gospel or glad tidings for all nations. All who are to partake of this promise must likewise be justified by faith apart from circumcision and keeping the law (v 7-18; Rom. 4) n All who seek salvation by the works of the law are under the curse, because it is impossible for them to keep the law and come up to its standards. The law pronounced all cursed who would not continue "in all things that are written in the book of the law to do them" (v 1-12; Jas. 2:10)
o Quoted from Dt. 27:26. The word curse is from the Gr. katara used here; v 13; Heb. 6:8; Jas. 3:10; 2 Pet. 2:14 p All things of the law must be practiced, if one is under law (v 10-12; Jas. 2:10). This not only means the 10 commandments but all the rituals, feasts, sacrifices, and ALL THINGS that are written in the book of the law. If one can prove that the 10 commandments only make the book of the law, then he can prove that they are the only part of the law he is to keep. If one finds the feasts, rituals, sacrifices, and other things in the book of the law, then he is still under obligation to keep all of them if he insists on being under the old covenant which was abolished (notes o and i, Acts 15:1, 24; 2 Cor. 3:6-15)
q 2nd O. T. prophecy fulfilled in Gal. (3: 11; Hab. 2:4. See Rom. 1:17; Heb. 10:38). Next, v 13 r Again it is repeated that no man can be justified by the law in the sight of God. The just shall live by faith and the law is not of faith: but, the man who keeps it shall be required to do and live in all things that are written in the law (v 10-12; Jas. 2:10) s Quoted from Lev. 18:5

a Gr. exagorazo, to buy from: redeem (v 13; 4:5; Eph. 5:16; Col. 4:5). Christ has bought us back from the curse of the law (1 Cor. 6:19-20; 1 Pet. 1:18-23). We are no longer in bondage to it, sold as a slave to the law, and its death penalty. Christ has freed us from all these things, being made a curse for us (v 13). He was made an atonement for us. Whatever was offered as the atonement for sin was considered as bearing the punishment due to sin. If sin, sickness, pain, sufferings, death, and all the effects of sin were a part of the curse and the result of it, then they are all atoned for and removed from us in God's plan.

b 3rd O. T. prophecy fulfilled in Gal. (3:13; Dt. 21:23). Next, v 16. The same day a criminal was executed he was removed from the earth (Dt. 21:22-23)

c 2 things Christ died for here (v 14):
1 That Abraham's blessing of justification by faith might come to Gentiles (Gen. 15:6; Rom. 4; Gal. 3:6-14)
2 That we might receive the promised Spirit through faith. This is called the Spirit baptism in Mt. 3:11; Jn. 1:31-34; Acts 1:4-8; 2:33-39; 11:14-18; 15:7-13. It is referred to as a promise (Lk. 24:49; Acts 1:4-8; 2:33-39; Gal. 3:14)

d These 2 blessings come through Jesus Christ and through faith (Rom. 3:24-31; 5:1-11; Acts 13:38-39). Christ is the direct agent to baptize His followers in the Holy Ghost (Mt. 3:11; Mk. 1:8; Lk. 3:16; 24:49; Jn. 1:31-34; Acts 1:4-5; 2:33; 11:15-18), Cp. 2 things, Col. 2:14

e All blessings, even the Spirit baptism come through redemption and atonement (v 13-14). How could God give to fallen, rebellious men on any other basis? This confirms beyond doubt the fact of healing in the atonement as well as all the other phases of redemption from the fall. If all results of the curse are removed by the atonement, then this certainly includes healing of sickness, which is one of the major effects of the fall. In this connection there are specific scriptures which state that by His stripes we were and are healed (Isa. 53:4-5; Mt. 8:17; 1 Pet. 2:24). This healing of the body is mentioned in particular as a blessing from the sufferings of Christ. Being wounded for our transgressions and striped for our healing are stated in the same verses (Isa. 53:5; 1 Pet. 2:24)

f I speak of civil transactions or contracts. If one is signed, sealed, witnessed, and duly recorded it stands under the protection of the civil law, and nothing can be legally added to or taken from it (v 15). So it is with the Abrahamic covenant and promises, made 430 years before the law. The law of Moses cannot disannul them or make them of no effect. Inheritance is not of the law, but of the promise of the Abrahamic covenant (v 15-18)

g 4th and last O. T. prophecy fulfilled in Gal. (3:16; Gen. 3:15; 21:12). The phrase in Christ is best understood as because of Christ. The Gr. eis is used in the sense of for, because of, or on account of, 84 times (note a, Mt. 3:11)

h See Ex. 12:40-41

i Question 11, Next, v 21

j See 85 contrasts of the two covenants p. 201

k The law was to be in force only until Christ came (v 19; Mt. 11:13; Lk. 16:16; 2 Cor. 3:6-14; Heb. 7:28; 9:9-10; p. 207)

m Gr. mesites, mediator, Moses (Jn. 1:17; Dt. 5). Christ is the mediator of the new covenant (1 Tim. 2:5; Heb. 8:6; 9:15; 12:24). This again is proof that Christ and God are separate persons, for a mediator is the middle person mediating between two other persons who are at enmity with each other n God is one, the same God for both Jews and Gentiles (Eph. 4:5-6; 1 Tim. 2:5; Rom. 3:30). Moses was mediator of the Jews only. They were only one party to the Abrahamic covenant. Christ is mediator of Gentiles also, or of all parties to the Abrahamic contract o Question 12, Next, 4:8. If law could bring righteousness and life, then justification would be by the law (v 21). Scriptures of the prophets as well as the law declare all to be sinners (Rom. 11:32), and imprisoned under sentence of death until the sentence should be executed upon them; that the promise of shall live in them.

10 Christ bore our law-curse to give us two faith-blessings

★13 Christ hath[a] redeemed us from the curse of the law, being made a curse for us: for it is written, [b]Cursed is every one that hangeth on a tree:

▸14[c] That the blessing of Ă'bră-hăm might come on the Gĕn'-tiles, [d]through Jē'sus Christ; that we might receive the promise of the Spirit through faith.

11 The law does not disannul the Abrahamic faith-covenant

15 Brethren, I speak after the manner of men; Though it be but a man's covenant, yet if it be confirmed, no man disannulleth, or addeth thereto.

★16 Now to Ă'bră-hăm and his seed were the promises made. He saith not, And to seeds, as of many; but as of one, [e]And to thy seed, which is Christ.

17 And this I say, that the covenant, that was confirmed before of God in Christ, the law, which was [f]four hundred and thirty years after, cannot disannul, that it should make the promise of none effect.

18 For if the inheritance be of the law, it is no more of promise: but God gave it to Ă'bră-hăm by promise.

12 The true intent of the law

19[i] Wherefore then serveth the law? [j] It was added because of transgressions, [k]till the seed should come to whom the promise was made; and it was ordained by angels in the hand of a mediator.

20 Now a [m]mediator is not a mediator of one; [n]but God is one.

13 The law not against the promises. It killed so that life could be given through faith

21 [o]Is the law then against the promises of God? God forbid: for if there had been a law given which could have given life, verily righteousness should have been by the law.

▸22 But the scripture hath concluded all under sin, that the promise by faith of Jē'sus Christ might be given to them that believe.

23 But before faith came, we were kept under the law, shut up unto the faith which should afterwards be revealed.

▸24 Wherefore the law was our [p]schoolmaster to bring us unto Christ, that we might be justified by faith.

14 Faith liberates from law

25 But after that faith is come, we are no longer under a schoolmaster.

15 Faith makes men sons and heirs in God's family, not mere servants as under the law

▸26 For ye are all the children of God by faith in Christ Jē'sus.

27 For as many of you as have been [q]baptized into Christ have put on Christ.

28[c] There is neither Jew nor Greek, there is neither bond nor free, there is neither male nor female: for ye are all [d]one in Christ Jē'sus.

▸29 And if ye be Christ's, then are ye Ă'bră-hăm's seed, [e]and heirs according to the promise.

166 CHAPTER 4

16 Heirship illustrated

NOW I say, [f]That the heir, as long as he is a child, differeth nothing from a servant, though he be lord of all;

2 But is under tutors and governors until the time appointed of the father.

3 Even so we, when we were children, were in bondage under the [g]elements of the world:

17 Christ redeemed law-servants and made them sons of God

4 But when the [h]fulness of the time was come, God sent forth his Son, made of a woman, made under the law,

▸5[i] To redeem them that were under the law, that we might receive the adoption of sons.

18 Proof of sonship and heirship (Rom. 8:14-18)

▸6 And [j]because ye are sons, God hath sent forth the Spirit of his Son into your hearts, crying, Ăb'bă, Father.

▸7 Wherefore thou art no more a servant, but a son; and if a son, then an heir of God through Christ.

19 To lapse into legality is to go back to elementary religion and bondage to sin

8 Howbeit then [k]when ye knew not God, ye did service unto them which by nature are no gods.

9 But now, after that ye have known God, or rather are known of God, how turn ye again to the weak and [l]beggarly elements, whereunto ye desire again to be in bondage?

10 Ye observe days, and months, and times, and years.

11 [m]I am afraid of you, lest I have bestowed upon you labour in vain.

20 An appeal to the Galatians to original consecration

●12 Brethren, I beseech you, be as I am; for I am as ye are: ye have not injured me at all.

13 Ye know how through [n]infirmity of the flesh I preached the gospel unto you at the first.

14 And my [o]temptation which was in my flesh ye despised not, nor rejected; but received me as an angel of God, even as Christ Jē'sus.

15 [p]Where is then the blessedness ye spake of? for I bear you record, that, if it had been possible, ye would have [q]plucked a The element one is baptized into determines what kind of baptism is referred to in the various scriptures. This is baptism into Christ (v 27; Rom. 6:2-8; Col. 2:12) and into His body (1 Cor. 12:13), not a baptism into water. Is Christ water? If not, then this is not baptism into water, for it is into Christ. See 7 baptisms, note n, Mt. 3:6

b To put on Christ means to be clothed with Him; to assume His person and character; and to act the part and sustain the character of Christ in daily life (5:24; 2 Cor. 5:17-18; Rom. 6:1-14; 8:1-13). To profess Christianity is to take on the life and works of Christ, follow in His steps, and do His works (Jn. 14:12-15; 1 Pet. 2:21; 4:1-2; Rom. 13:14)

c All races, classes, and sexes are one in Christ and equal in rights and privileges regarding gospel benefits. They make one body with Christ as the head (1 Cor. 12:13, 28-31; Eph. 1:20-23; 2:19-22; Col. 3:11). The gulf between Jews and Gentiles, masters and slaves, and male and female has been bridged by Christ and the gospel

d All Christians are one in unity, in rights, and in privileges as the Father, the Son, and the Holy Ghost are one in unity and not one in person (Jn. 17:11, 21-22; 1 Jn. 5:7)

e 7 equal blessings for Christians:
1 All are children of God (v 26)
2 All are baptized into Christ (v 27)
3 All have put on Christ (v 27)
4 All are equal and one in Christ (v 5 All belong to Christ (v 29; 5:24) 28)
6 All are Abraham's spiritual seed (v 7 All are heirs by promise (v 29) 29)

f An heir is no more than a servant until legally of age (4:1-2). Even so, we were children under bondage to the law until Christ came to redeem us from the law, that we might become adopted sons of God and free from the law (v 3-7)

g Gr. stoicheion, elementary rules, principles of the world system, and rudiments of the Jewish religion (v 3, 9; Col. 2:8, 20; Heb. 5:12; 2 Pet. 3:10-12)

h The crisis of the ages at which time God saw fit to send His Son to redeem men (v 4-5), and the time for the prophets to be fulfilled (Gen. 3:15; 12:1-3; Isa. 7:14; 9:6-7; etc.). See 15 time statements regarding law, p. 207

i To pay the full payment for all men who were slaves to sin and Satan and held under the death penalty of the law they had broken (note a, 3:13; note o, 3:21). See 7 steps of redemption, p. 207

j Because of sonship we receive the fullest evidence of it by the Spirit (v 6-7; Rom. 8:14-16)

k Question 13, Next, v 15. This is proof that they not only were one time idolaters (v 8), but were proselytes to Judaism (v 9-12). They ran well for a while (5:7), but later left Christ and the gospel to go back under the law (1:6-7; 3:1-5; 4:9-10; 5:4-9)

l See The beggarly elements, p. 207

m All observances of days, months, times, seasons, years, etc. tend to make men feel religious and justified because they are doing religion and not necessarily living godly. Such is a substitute for the gospel and in vain (v 11)

n This refers to some of Paul's sufferings for the gospel, recorded in 2 Cor. 11:23-28. See notes on 2 Cor. 12:7-10

o Gr. peirasmos, any kind of temptation or trial (Mt. 6:13; 26:41; Mk. 14:38; Lk. 4:13; 8:13; 11:4; 22:28,40,46; Acts 20:19; 1 Cor. 10:13; Gal. 4:14; 1 Tim. 6:9; Heb. 3:8; Jas. 1:2, 12; 1 Pet. 1:6; 4:12; 2 Pet. 2:9; Rev. 3:10) life by faith, might be given to them that believe when Christ paid their penalty (v 22-23)

p Gr. paidagogos, a servant to care for the children who was their guardian until they became old enough to become legal sons. So with us, after faith is come we are no longer under a schoolmaster or the law (v 25). We become children and legally free from the schoolmaster or law by faith in Jesus Christ (v 26)

a Question 15. Next, v 21. Is it because I tell you the truth that your affections have so changed toward me?
b Your false teachers are zealous to work themselves into your good graces and to win your love. They would turn you against me that you might love and abide by their decisions only. It is always good to be zealous for good things (v 17-18)
c Gr. odino, birth pangs; travail (v 19, 27; Rev. 12:2). Paul had laboured in preaching, prayer, and tears to win them to Christ, so he considered them his children. They were very dear to him. Now he had to travail in birth again until they would come back to God and Christ be formed in them again. They had fallen from grace (1:6-8; 3:1-5; 4:19; 5:4) and had to be renewed in Christ again (v 19). This is not a physical birth, but the soul travail in prayer causing physcial and spiritual sufferings which are very real d Gr. palin, again; restore once more; anew. It refers to something which could not be done again if it had not been done once before. See The New Birth, p. 207 e I would like to be present with you to know the extent of your backslidings, to alter my tone and soften my rebukes, for I stand in doubt of you (v 20)
f Question 16. Next, v 30
g Recorded in Gen. 16:15; 21:1-8
h That is, nothing supernatural in his birth for both parents were normal
i Both parents were passed age and it was impossible in the natural to have Isaac, so by promise and by supernatural renewal of youth he was born j An extended simile: a symbolic representation; natural or religious story, of which the lesson is the substance and the details are but accessories to the main point. The main idea is that Sarah and Hagar symbolize the old and new covenants. Hagar represents the Mosaic law that gendereth to bondage and which has been cast out and abolished (v 24-25, 30). Sarah represents the new covenant that gives freedom from bondage and brings men to God, making them children of His by the new birth (v 26-31). The teaching is that the old covenant has been cast out and is no longer in force (v 30; notes o and i, Acts 15:1, 24; p. 201) k Brings children into slavery to rites and ceremonies that never justify (2:16; 4:9; 5:1; Acts 15:10). This illustrates earthly Jerusalem which is in bondage with her children (v 25)
l The New Jerusalem in heaven is a free city and the mother of us all (Heb. 11:10-16; 12:22-23; 13:14; Rev. 3:12; 21:1-22:5). In other words, Jerusalem is the place where God lives who adopts us into His family (v 26-27)
m Quoted from Isa. 54:1
n We who are Christians are the children of the promise and of the new covenant like Isaac and are being persecuted as he was (v 28-29)
o See Gen. 21:9
p Men were born again in O.T. days (v 29; Dt. 32:18; Ps. 19:7; 32:1-2; 51:10-13; 103:3; Isa. 1:16-18). This was experienced by having faith in the coming redemption on the cross, whereas we look back to the cross
q Question 17. Next, 5:7
r Quoted from Gen. 21:10. This represents the old covenant being cast out as having no part in the Christian program. Christians are not under one detail of the law of Moses, including the 10 commandments (notes o and i, Acts 15:1, 24; p. 201) s Just as Hagar and Ishmael were cast out of Abraham's home and received no inheritance with Isaac, so the law of Moses and the gospel cannot mix. They are two different contracts. One is abolished and the other is still in force (v 30-31)

Com. from column 4

grace of God and permit again the working of the Spirit in their lives, as they used to do (in 5:1-6) and if they would renounce the law again, they would not be under its bondage. If they would do this they would not have the struggle of v 17. The flesh with its affections and lusts would be crucified again and they could live the Christian life again (v 16, 22-24) out your own eyes, and have given them to me.

16 [a]Am I therefore become your enemy, because I tell you the truth?

21 Legalizers would bring into bondage and sin again

17 [b]They zealously affect you, but not well; yea, they would exclude you, that ye might affect them.
18 But it is good to be zealously affected always in a good thing, and not only when I am present with you.

22 Paul travails in birth a second time to reclaim them for Christ and grace (1:6; 5:4)

19 My little children, of whom I [c]travail in birth [d]again until Christ be formed in you, 20 [e]I desire to be present with you now, and to change my voice; for I stand in doubt of you.

23 An allegory of law and grace: they cannot co-exist (2 Cor. 3:6-15; Eph. 2:15; Col. 2:14-17; Mt. 11:11; Acts 15:5-29; Gal. 1:6; 3:19-25; 5:1-5; Heb. 7:11-28; 8:6-18; 9:1-22; 10:1-18)

21 [f]Tell me, ye that desire to be under the law, do ye not hear the law?
22 For it is written, [g]that Ā'brā-hăm had two sons, the one by a bondmaid, the other by a freewoman.
23 But he who was of the bondwoman was born [h]after the flesh; but he of the freewoman was [i]by promise.
24 Which things are an [j]allegory: for these are the two covenants; the one from the mount Sī'nāi, which [k]gendereth to bondage, which is Ā'gär.
25 For this Ā'gär is mount Sī'nāi in Ā-rā'bĭ-ā, and answereth to Jĕ-rụ'sā-lĕm which now is, and is in bondage with her children.
26 But [l]Jĕ-rụ'sā-lĕm which is above is free, which is the mother of us all.
27 For it is written, [m]Rejoice, thou barren that bearest not; break forth and cry, thou that travailest not: for the desolate hath many more children than she which hath an husband.
28 [n]Now we, brethren, as Ī'saac was, are the children of promise.
29 But as then he that was born after the flesh [o]persecuted him that was [p]born after the Spirit, even so it is now.
30 [q]Nevertheless what saith the scripture? [r]Cast out the bondwoman and her son: [s]for the son of the bondwoman shall not be heir with the son of the freewoman.
31 So then, brethren, we are not children of the bondwoman, but of the free.

CHAPTER 5 — 167

24 Warning against going into law bondage again (Acts 15:24; Gal. 3:10-15; 5:1; Heb. 7:11-10:18)

[a]STAND [e]fast therefore in the [b]liberty wherewith [c]Christ hath made us free, and [d]be not [e]entangled again with the [f]yoke of bondage.

25 Justification by law makes Christ and grace of no effect (2:21; Rom. 4:13-16)

2 Behold, I Paul say unto you, that if ye be circumcised, [g]Christ shall profit you nothing.
3 For I testify again to [h]every man that is circumcised, that he is a debtor to do the whole law.
4 Christ is become of no effect unto you, whosoever of you are justified by the law; [i]ye are fallen from grace.
5 [j]For we through the Spirit wait for the hope of righteousness by faith.
6 For in Jē'sus Christ neither circumcision availeth any thing, nor uncircumcision; but faith which worketh by love.

26 An appeal to forget law keeping and come back to Christ and grace (Gal. 1:6; 4:19; 5:4)

7 [k]Ye did run well; [l]who did hinder you that ye should not obey the truth?
8 This persuasion cometh not of him that calleth you.
9 [m]A little leaven leaveneth the whole lump.
10 [n]I have confidence in you through the Lord, that ye will be none otherwise minded: but he that troubleth you shall bear his judgment, whosoever he be.
11 And I, brethren, [o]if I yet preach circumcision, why do I yet suffer persecution? then is the offence of the cross ceased.
12 I would they were even cut off which trouble you.

27 Last warning against going back to the law keeping and fleshly living

13 For, brethren, [p]ye have been called unto liberty; only use not liberty for an occasion to the flesh, but by love serve one another.
14 For all the law is fulfilled in one word, even in this; Thou shalt love thy neighbour as thyself.
15 [q]But if ye bite and devour one another, take heed that ye be not consumed one of another.

IV Practical doctrines (5:16-6:18). 1 Secret of victory over sin (Rom. 8:1-13)

16 [r]This I say then, Walk in the Spirit, and ye shall not fulfil the lust of the flesh.
17 [s]For the flesh lusteth against the Spirit, and the Spirit against the flesh: and these are contrary the one to the other: so that ye cannot do the things that ye would.
18 But if [t]ye be led of the Spirit, ye are not under the law.

2 Manifestations of a fleshly

a See note a, 2, 1 Cor. 16:13
b This refers to the freedom of the gospel of the new covenant (4:21-31; Jas. 1:25; 2:12). The old covenant was one of bondage, sin, and death; the new is one of freedom, righteousness, and life (85 contrasts, 201). The Messiah was to bring liberty from the curse and all its effects (Isa. 61:1; Lk. 4:18). All Christians enjoy liberty (Rom. 8:21; 1 Cor. 8:9; 10:29; Gal. 2:4; 5:1, 13; 1 Pet. 2:16). The Spirit brings it (2 Cor. 3:17). Liberty is not to be abused or used for an occasion to sin (1 Cor. 8:9; Gal. 5:13; 1 Pet. 2:16) c Christ Himself is the one who sets free from the law of Moses (Rom. 10:4; Eph. 2:14-15; Col. 2:14-17; p. 201)
d 2 things commanded here:
1 Stand fast in liberty from all bondage to the law (v 1; 3:10-12; Col. 2:14-17)
2 Be not entangled again with the yoke of bondage to the law (v 1; Acts 15:10)
e See Entangled again, p. 207 f See Yoke of bondage, p. 207
g If you insist on circumcision you take on the whole obligation of the law. You then testify that you seek justification by the law instead of by faith so Christ will profit you nothing (v 3-4). It is either the old or new covenant which you must observe so take your choice (v 2-3). In case you choose the law you are fallen from grace (v 4; 1:6-8; 3:1-5; 4:9-31)
h Every man that is circumcised as a token of obedience to the old covenant is a debtor to do the whole law, including sacrifices, offerings, and commandments. Every man that is not so circumcised is free from all such law observance, including the 10 commandments. He is only under obligation to obey the laws and commandments of the new covenant (v 3). See note i, Acts 15:24; 85 contrasts, 201
i That falling from grace is possible is clear here (v 4; 1:6-8; 2:21; 3:1-5; 4:9-10, 19; Acts 13:43; 2 Cor. 6:1; Heb. 12:15; Jude 4)
j See 4 secrets continued grace, p. 207 k Proving they were true Christians for a time (1:6-8; 3:1-5; 4:9-19; 5:1-4). Here again the Christian life is compared to a race (1 Cor. 9:24; Heb. 12:1) l Question 18. Next, v 11. They quit obeying the truth (1:6-8; 3:1) m A little sin or false doctrine can corrupt the whole life and conduct (1 Cor. 5:6; Jas. 2:10)
n I have faith that you will recover yourself and regain the grace you have lost and that your troubler will be cut off (v 10-12)
o Question 19. Last one. It has been reported I preach circumcision (perhaps because Timothy was circumcised, Acts 16:3), but if so, why do Jews still persecute me? If I did this the offence of the cross would cease p You have been called to total freedom from all the law, but do not let this cause you to think that you have no responsibility to live right. The new covenant also demands righteousness of all men and the love of neighbors as yourself (v 13-14; Mt. 19:19; Rom. 13:9)
q If you become cannibal Christians you will destroy one another, confirming your total backslidings and fall from grace (v 15; 1:6-8; 3:1-5; 5:4) r To keep you from devouring each other, you must live the Christian life. See 7 secrets victorious living, p. 207 s This verse is much misunderstood as referring to constant warfare between the flesh and spirit, making one a victim of the flesh and helpless to live right. This is not the thought at all. It does describe the condition of Galatians or anyone else fallen from grace and seeking perfection through the flesh and self efforts (1:6-8; 3:1-5; 5:1-9, 13-15, 26). That it does not refer to the normal life of a Christian in grace, living and walking in the Spirit is clear from v 16, 18, 22-24; Rom. 6:14-23; 8:1-13; 2 Cor. 10:5-7; Eph. 6:10-18; Col. 3:5-10; 1 Jn. 1:7-9; 3:8-10; 5:1-4, 18
t This verse also refers to the Galatians who had left grace to go back under the law (1:6-8; 3:1-5; 4:9-11, 21-31; 5:1-4). Paul simply told them that if they would receive again the gospel of the life: sins that will damn the soul (Mk. 7:14; Rom. 1:29; 1 Cor. 6:9)

19 Now the[c] works of the flesh are manifest, which are these: Adultery, fornication, uncleanness, lasciviousness,

20 Idolatry, witchcraft, hatred, variance, emulations, wrath, strife, seditions, heresies,

★21 Envyings, murders, drunkenness, revellings, and such like: of the which I tell you before, as I have also told you in time past, that[b] they which do such things shall not inherit the kingdom of God. ◂

3 Manifestations of a spiritual life: fruit of the Spirit (1 Cor. 13; Eph. 5:9; Phil. 4:8)

22 But the[c] fruit of the Spirit is love, joy, peace, longsuffering, gentleness, goodness, faith, 23 Meekness, temperance: against such there is no law.

4 Ten proofs of a spiritual life (2 Cor. 5:17; Rom. 6:16-23; 8:1-13; 1 Jn. 2:29; 3:5-10; 5:1-5, 18)

24 And[e] they that are Christ's have crucified the flesh with the affections and lusts.

●25 If we live in the Spirit, let us also walk in the Spirit.

●26 Let us not be [f]desirous of vain glory, provoking one another, envying one another.

168 CHAPTER 6

●BRETHREN, if a man be [g]overtaken in a [h]fault, ye which are [i]spiritual, [j]restore such an one in the [k]spirit of meekness; [l]considering thyself, lest thou also be tempted.

●2[m] Bear ye one another's burdens, and so fulfil the law of Christ.

3 For, if a man[n] think himself to be something, when he is nothing, he deceiveth himself.

●4 But let every man[o] prove his own work, and then shall he have rejoicing in himself alone, and not in another.

5 For every man shall bear his own burden.

●6 Let him that is taught in the word [q]communicate unto him that teacheth in all good things.

5 Results of fleshly and spiritual living: two destinies (5:19-26; Rom. 8:1-13)

★7 Be not deceived; God is not[r] mocked: [b]for whatsoever a man soweth, that shall he also reap. ◂◂

▸8 [c]For he that soweth to his flesh shall of the flesh reap corruption; but he that soweth to the Spirit shall of the Spirit reap life everlasting.

6 Two commands to glorify God by doing good (Mt. 5:16)

●9 And let us not be[d] weary in well doing: for in[c] due season we shall reap, if we faint not. ◂

●10 As we have therefore opportunity, [s]let us do good unto all men, especially unto them who are of the household of faith.

11 Ye see how large a [t]letter I have written unto you with mine own hand.

7 Three reasons why Jews wanted Gentiles to keep the law

12 [i]As many as desire to make a fair shew in the flesh, they constrain you to be circumcised; only lest they should suffer persecution for the cross of Christ.

13 For neither they themselves who are circumcised keep the law; but desire to have you circumcised, that they may glory in your flesh.

8 Three reasons why neither Jews nor Gentiles should keep the law

14 [j]But God forbid that I should glory, [k]save in the cross of our Lord Jē'sus Christ, by whom the world is crucified unto me, and I unto the world.

15 For in Christ Jē'sus neither circumcision availeth any thing, nor uncircumcision, but a new creature.

16 And as many as walk according to this [l]rule, peace be on them, and mercy, [m]and upon the Iṣ'ra-el of God.

9 Conclusion and benediction

17 From henceforth let no man trouble me: for I bear in my body the [n]marks of the Lord Jē'sus.

18 Brethren, the grace of our Lord Jē'sus Christ be with your spirit. Ā-mĕn'.

Summary of Galatians

Date and place: Written from Rome about 60 A. D. along with Hebrews

Author: Paul (v 1. See Summary of Romans)

Theme: To correct the fickle Galatians from further backsliding and following the legalizing, Judaizing teachers from Judea; and to set them straight regarding the relation of Christians of the new covenant with the Jews of the old covenant.

8 outstanding doctrines:

1 Christians can fall from grace and be removed from Christ (1:6-8; 2:21; 3:1-5; 4:8-11, 19; 5:4, 19-21; 6:1-8. See p. 284, 285)
2 Paul's gospel was a revelation from God (1:11-2:14)
3 Justification is by faith alone without law works (2:15-3:29; 5:7-29)
4 Christians can live victorious over sin (2:20-3:5; 5:16-26; 6:1-8)
5 The spirit baptism is for all believers (3:1-5, 13-14)
6 The law of Moses is completely abolished (3:10-29; 4:21-31; 5:1)
7 Backsliders must be reborn and return to grace (1:6-8; 2:17-21; 3:1-5, 10-12; 4:19; 5:1, 4, 7, 16-26; 6:1-8)
8 All who go back to law-keeping are under obligation to observe the whole law or be cursed (3:1-5, 10-12; 4:21-31; 5:1-4)

Statistics: 48th book of the Bible; 6 chapters; 149 verses; 144 verses of history; 3,098 words; 4 unfulfilled and 1 fulfilled prophecy; 19 questions

b 1st N. T. prophecy in Gal. (5:21). Next, 6:7. No man who commits these sins will ever inherit the kingdom of God unless he confesses and puts them out of his life (v 21; 1 Cor. 6:9-11, notes). Let any man claim that he can be saved and yet live in these sins and the judgment will decide whether he or Paul is right c The 9fold fruit of the Spirit (v 22-23):
1 Love. Gr. agape, divine love. A strong, ardent, tender, compassionate, devotion to the well-being of someone (note g, 1 Cor. 13:4)
2 Joy. Gr. chara, the emotional excitement, gladness, delight over blessings received or expected for self and for others (see Instances of, p. 62)
3 Peace. Gr. eirene, the state of quietness, rest, repose, harmony, order, and security in the midst of turmoil, strife, and temptations (note, Isa. 45:7)
4 Longsuffering. Gr. makrothumia, patient endurance: to bear long with the frailties, offences, injuries, and provocations of others, without murmuring, repining, or resentment (1 Cor. 13:4-7; 2 Cor. 6:4-6; Eph. 4:1-2; Col. 1:11; 3:12-13; 1 Tim. 1:16; 2 Tim. 3:10; 4:2)
5 Gentleness. Gr. chrestotes, a disposition to be gentle, soft-spoken, kind, even-tempered, cultured, and refined in character and conduct (2 Tim. 2:24-26; Tit. 3:1-2; Jas. 3:17)
6 Goodness. Gr. agathosune, the state of being good, kind, virtuous, benevolent, generous, and God-like in life and conduct (Ex. 33:19; 34:6; Ps. 23:6; 31:19; 33:5; 107:9; Rom. 2:4; Eph. 5:9; Mt. 5:44-48; Lk. 6:27-32)
7 Faith. Gr. pistis, the living, divinely implanted, acquired, and created principle of inward and wholehearted confidence, assurance, trust, and reliance in God and all that He says (See Faith, p. 201)
8 Meekness. Gr. praotes, the disposition to be gentle, kind, indulgent, even balanced in tempers and passions, and patient in suffering injuries without feeling a spirit of revenge (note, Ps. 25:9)
9 Temperance. Gr. enkrateia, self-control; a moderation in the indulgence of the appetites and passions (Pr. 23:1-3; 25:16; Dan. 1:8-16; Rom. 13:14; 1 Cor. 9:25-27; Phil. 4:5; 1 Th. 5:6-8; Tit. 2:2-3, 11-12; 2 Pet. 1:5-10) d No law can condemn one with the fruit of the Spirit. Law only condemns sin, not righteousness (Rom. 3:19-20; 7:13; Gal. 3:19; 1 Tim. 1:9-10)
e All true Christians have done this (2 Cor. 5:17-18; Rom. 6:6-23; 8:1-13)
f 3 common temptations of saints:
1 Desirous of vain glory (v 26; 5:13; 6:12-13; Phil. 2:1-3; Col. 2:18)
2 Provoking one another (v 26; Phil. 2:1-3; Eph. 4:31-32; Col. 3:8-10)
3 Envying one another (v 26; Rom. 13:13; 1 Cor. 3:3; 2 Cor. 12:20; 1 Tim. 6:4; Tit. 3:3; Jas. 3:14-16; 1 Pet. 2:1)
g Gr. prolambano, found out or detected. Here; Mk. 14:8; 1 Cor. 11:21
h Gr. paraptoma (note j, Rom. 11:11)
i Gr. pneumatikos (note g, Rom. 7:14)
j Gr. katartizo (note a, 3, 2 Cor. 13:5; note d, Gal. 4:19). It means to bring back to his place in Christ and in grace k See point c, 8, above
l Do not exalt yourself as being above the same fall (1 Cor. 10:13; 13:1-13)
m Sympathize, show mercy and love, and do not brow-beat a fallen brother, and so fulfill the law of Christ (v 1-2; Jn. 13:34; 15:12)
n Bigotry, intolerance, and self-conceit rebuked (v 3-4; Isa. 65:5; Mk. 2:16; Lk. 18:9-14; Acts 10:28, 45; Rom. 3:1-23)
Examples of bigotry:
1 Joshua (Num. 11:27-29)
2 Jews (Jn. 4:9, 27; 9:28-34)
3 Samaritans (Lk. 9:52-53)
4 Disciples (Mt. 19:13; Lk. 9:49-56)

a Gr. mukterizomai, to turn up the nose at. Only here. Cp. Lk. 16:14; 23:35
b 2nd and last N. T. prophecy in Gal. (5:7-9). This is an unfailing and unchangeable law (Gen. 1:11-12, 21, 24-25, 29)
c Just as surely as everything in nature reproduces after its kind, harvests being as sure as the sowings, so every man will reap what he sows and be responsible for his own destiny (v 7-8). It is folly to talk about reaping eternal life when one sows to the flesh (v 8; 5:19-21; 1 Cor. 6:9-11; Rom. 1:28-32). It is equal folly to talk about being lost if one sows to the Spirit (v 8) d Gr. ekkakeo, lose heart. Trans. faint (Lk. 18:1; 2 Cor. 4:1, 16; Eph. 3:13) and weary (Gal. 6:9; 2 Th. 3:13)
e In the proper season. Cp. Eccl. 3:1 Tim. 2:6; 6:15; Tit. 1:3. Harvests are sure (v 7-8)

2 Let us not desire vain glory (5:26)
3 Let us not provoke one another (5:26)
4 Let us not envy one another (5:26)
5 Restore a sinning brother (6:1)
6 Consider self not above falling (6:1)
7 Bear burdens of others (6:2)
8 Test own work (6:4)
9 Bear own responsibility (6:5)
10 Support the ministry (6:6)
11 Be not deceived (6:7)
12 Be not weary in well doing (6:9)
13 Do good to all men (6:10)
h Gr. gramma, that which is written; letters of the alphabet (Lk. 23:38; Jn. 7:15; Rom. 2:27, 29; 6:6; 2 Cor. 3:6); letters or epistles (Acts 28:21); books (Jn. 5:47; 2 Cor. 3:7); bill or receipt (Lk. 16:6-7); and Scriptures (2 Tim. 3:15). This verse (Gal. 6:11) refers to the fact that Paul had written this whole epistle by himself. He had written larger epistles but had dictated them to others. That he was nearly blind and this verse refers to the large characters of the alphabet he used in the epistle is not supported by any Mss. or any fact in Scripture. In Paul's day all writing was in uncial or like the capital letters we use, only they were about an inch high. If he needed to write bigger letters he could not see to write at all. See Summary of Hebrews for further explanation.
i Making a shew in the flesh refers to circumcision and to the outward rituals of Judaism which any unsaved man could keep without being restricted otherwise. Weak Christians were tempted to go back to Judaism because they could escape persecution and more easily conform to the requirements (v 12-13)
j 15th and last occurrence of this phrase (note o, Rom. 3:4) k Others may glory in circumcision, rituals, and a great show of converts to an easy religion, but I will glory only in the cross of Jesus Christ. Those things are empty, worthless and crucified to me and I am crucified to them by the cross (v 14). Nothing avails any thing, but a new creation in Christ (v 15; 2 Cor. 5:17-18; Eph. 2:10; 4:23-24; Col. 3:10) l Gr. kanon, canon, rule of Christianity. This rule is that redemption is through Jesus Christ apart from circumcision, sabbath keeping, and all the law of Moses (1:6-8; 2:15-21; 3:13-14, 19-29; 4:1-10; 5:1-7, 11; 6:12-15) m This Israel of God is made up of the true Jews who accept this rule along with the Gentiles (v 16; Rom. 2:29; 9:6) n Gr. stigma, only here. Slaves were branded. So Paul, as a slave, bore the marks of his slave service. You glory in your circumcision mark (v 12-13), but I will glory in my marks of suffering for Jesus Christ (2 Cor. 11:23-28) will find out just what he has in himself to boast about (v 2-4) p Gr. phortion, load, responsibility (Mt. 11:30; 23:4; Lk. 11:46). Every man must do this for himself, but one can help share the burden, grief, misery, and pressure of another, as in v 2 q Gr. koinoneo, share with. Trans. be partaker of (Rom. 15:27; 1 Tim. 5:22; Heb. 2:14; 1 Pet. 4:13; 2 Jn. 11); communicate and distribute (Rom. 12:13; Gal. 6:6; Phil. 4:15). It refers to the material support of the ministry

17 works of the flesh (Gal. 5:19-21)

1 Adultery. Gr. moichela, unlawful sexual relations between men and women, single or married (note h, Mt. 5:32). Trans. adultery (Mt. 15:19; Mk. 7:21; Jn. 8:3; Gal. 5:19). The Gr. moichao, commit adultery (Mt. 5:32; 19:9; Mk. 10:11-12), and moicheuo, commit adultery (Mt. 5:27-28; 19:18; Mk. 10:19; Lk. 16:18; 18:20; Jn. 8:4; Rom. 2:22; 13:9; Jas. 2:11; Rev. 2:22)

2 Fornication. Gr. porneia, same as adultery above besides all manner of other unlawful relations (note g, Mt. 5:32)

3 Uncleanness. Gr. akatharsia, whatever is opposite of purity; including sodomy, homosexuality, lesbianism, pederasty, bestiality, and all other forms of sexual perversion (v 19; Mt. 23:27; Rom. 1:21-32; 6:19; 2 Cor. 12:21; Eph. 4:19; 5:3; Col. 3:5; 1 Th. 2:3; 4:7; 2 Pet. 2; Jude)

4 Lasciviousness. Gr. aselgeia, licentiousness, lustfulness, unchastity, and lewdness. Trans. lasciviousness (Mk. 7:22; 2 Cor. 12:21; Gal. 5:19; Eph. 4:19; 1 Pet. 4:3; Jude 4); wantonness (Rom. 13:13; 2 Pet. 2:18); and filthy (2 Pet. 2:7). Lasciviousness is the promoting or partaking of that which tends to produce lewd emotions, anything tending to foster sex sin and lust. That is why many worldly pleasures have to be avoided by the Christian - so that lasciviousness may not be committed

5 Idolatry. Gr. eidololatreia, image-worship (1 Cor. 10:14; Gal. 5:20; Col. 3:5; 1 Pet. 4:3). Idolatry includes anything on which affections are passionately set; extravagant admiration of the heart (Eph. 5:5; Col. 3:5)

6 Witchcraft. Gr. pharmakeia, sorcery, practice of dealing with evil spirits; magical incantations and casting spells and charms upon one by means of drugs and potions of various kinds (v 20; Rev. 9:21; 18:23. Cp. Rev. 21:8; 22:15. See note b, Lk. 12:29). Enchantments were used to inflict evil, pains, hatred, sufferings, and death, or to bring good, health, love, and other blessings.

7 Hatred. Gr. echthra, enmity (Lk. 23:12; Rom. 8:7; Eph. 2:15-16; Jas. 4:4); hatred (Gal. 5:20). Bitter dislike, abhorrance, malice, and ill-will against anyone; tendency to hold grudges against or be angry at someone

8 Variance. Gr. eris, note w, Rom. 1:29. Dissensions, discord, quarreling, debating; and disputes

9 Emulations. Gr. zelos, envies, jealousies; striving to excel at the expense of another; seeking to surpass and outdo others; uncurbed rivalry spirit in religion, business, society, and other fields of endeavor. Trans. zeal (Jn. 2:17; Rom. 10:2; 2 Cor. 7:11; 9:2; Phil. 3:6; Col. 4:13); fervent mind (2 Cor. 7:7); envy (Acts 13:45; Rom. 13:13) 1 Cor. 3:3; 2 Cor. 12:20; Jas. 3:14-15); jealousy (2 Cor. 11:2); indignation (Acts 5:17; Heb. 10:27); and emulation (Gal. 5:20)

10 Wrath. Gr. thumos, wrath (v 20; Lk. 4:28; Acts 19:28; 2 Cor. 12:20; Eph. 4:31; Col. 3:8; Heb. 11:27; Rev. 12:12; 14:8, 10, 19; 15:1, 7; 16:1; 18:3); indignation (Rom. 2:8); and fierceness (Rev. 16:19; 19:15). Turbulent passions; domestic and civil turmoils; rage; determined and lasting anger

11 Strife. Gr. eritheia, strife (v 20; 2 Cor. 12:20; Phil. 2:3; Jas. 3:14, 16); contention (Phil. 1:16; Rom. 2:8). Disputations; janglings; strife about words; angry contentions; content for superiority or advantage; strenuous endeavor to equal or pay back in kind the wrongs done to one

12 Seditions. Gr. dichostasia, divisions (Rom. 16:17; 1 Cor. 3:3); seditions, parties, and factions (Gal. 5:20). Popular disorder; stirring up strife in religion, government, home, or any other place

13 Heresies (note e, Acts 5:17)

14 Envyings. Gr. phthonoi (v 21; Mt. 27:18; Mk. 15:10; Rom. 1:29; Phil. 1:15; 1 Tim. 6:4; Tit. 3:3; Jas. 4:5; 1 Pet. 2:1) Pain, ill-will, and jealousy at the good fortune or blessing of another; the most base of all degrading and disgraceful passions

15 Murders. Gr. phonoi (note w, Mt. 15:19) to kill; to spoil or mar the happiness of another; hatred (1 Jn. 3:15)

16 Drunkenness. Gr. methai (v 21; Lk. 21:34; Rom. 13:13). Living intoxicated; a slave to drink; drinking bouts

17 Revellings. Gr. komoi (v 21; 1 Per. 4:3); rioting (Rom. 13:13). Lascivious and boisterous feastings, with obscene music, and other sinful activities; pleasures; carousings

4 divisions of these sins:
1 4 sins of lust, nos. 1-4 (v 19)
2 2 sins of impiety and superstition, nos. 5-6 (v 20)
3 9 sins of temper, nos. 7-15 (v 20-21)
4 2 sins of appetite - eating and drinking, nos. 16-17 (v 21)

The New Birth (Gal. 4:19)

10 facts about the new birth:

1 A moral and spiritual change, not a physical one (v 29; Jn. 3:1-8)

2 A change of heart, will, motives, desires, life, and conduct, and not organism (2 Cor. 5:17-18)

3 A change of masters not of constitutional makeup of body, soul, or spirit (Rom. 6:11-23; 8:1-4)

4 An adoption of one from the satanic family into the family of God (Rom. 8:14-16; Gal. 4:5; Eph. 1:5)

5 Not a coming into existence of the body, soul, or spirit, as in the natural birth, but a consecration of them to serve God and holiness instead of Satan and sin (Rom. 6:16-22; 8:1-13; Col. 3:5-10; Gal. 5:16-26)

6 Not a begetting by the Holy Spirit in the sense Jesus became and is the only begotten Son of God (Jn. 1:14, 18; 3:16), but a renewal in righteousness and true holiness of one who is already in existence (Eph. 4:23-24; Col. 3:10; Ps. 51:10)

7 A change of nature, but not the coming into existence of that nature (Rom. 3:24-25; 2 Cor. 5:17; Tit. 3:5)

8 A change of favor, a new standing before God (Rom. 5:1-2; Eph. 2:1-9; Tit. 2:11-14; 2 Pet. 3:18; 1 Jn. 3:8-10)

9 A change of character, state, and service (Gal. 5:21-22; 1 Cor. 13; Rom. 3:24-31; 5:1-11; 2 Tim. 2:21; Tit. 2:11-14)

10 There is no comparison between the natural and spiritual birth as to choice in the matter, conception, embryo, process, and actual birth. The very moment one is grown enough to recognize he is a sinner and when he repents and believes the gospel a moral and spiritual change takes place (Mk. 1:15; 2 Cor. 5:17-18; Rom. 1:16; 10:9-10; Eph. 2:8-9; 1 Jn. 1:9). The very moment he decides to sin again he has a moral fall, incurs the penalty of the broken law again and comes under the sentence of death again (Jas. 1:13-15; 5:19-20; Rom. 6:11-23; 8:1-13; Jn. 8:34; 2 Pet. 2:19-22; Heb. 6:4-9; 10:26-29; Gal. 5:4, 19-21; 1 Cor. 6:9-11; 1 Jn. 3:8-10; Ezek. 18:4; etc.). If man sins he must be forgiven and restored or pay the death penalty as in Gal. 6:7-8 and in the above scriptures

Can one be "born again" more than once?

Can a man be lost and found more than once? Can a man be saved from drowning more than once? Can a man be saved from any other kind of death more than once?

15 proofs men can be "born again" more than once:

1 All men had eternal life in Adam until he sinned. If he had not sinned all men would have lived forever (Gen. 2:17; Rom. 5:12-21). The new birth of Jn. 3:1-8 is really a re-birth or a restoration to original life by cancellation of the death penalty (Isa. 59:2; Mt. 1:21; Jn. 3:16; Eph. 2:1-9). If this can thus happen once it can happen again and again if necessary

2 The gospel teaches forgiveness more than once - even 490 times (Mt. 18:21-22). Would God command men to do this if He would not do it Himself?

3 If any man (Christian) sins he has an advocate with the Father (1 Jn. 2:1-2). What is this advocate for if not to restore backsliders to God?

4 If we confess our sins He is faithful and just to forgive us (1 Jn. 1:9)

5 Peter was once converted, confessing Jesus as the Son of God and the Christ, which brings the new birth (1 Jn. 5:1; Mt. 16:16). He even had power to preach and heal and had the Spirit in him (Mt. 10:1-20). Jesus predicted his backsliding and re-conversion (Lk. 22:31-34), proving that a converted man can and must be re-converted if he sins as Peter did in Mt. 26:69-75

6 James taught a re-conversion after one sins and incurs the death penalty again (Jas. 5:19-20)

7 Paul taught that God is able to graft men in again (Rom. 11:18-24)

8 Paul taught that men who have erred from the truth, and who have even overthrown the faith of others, can come to repentance again (2 Tim. 2:17-26)

9 Paul taught a rebirth again of backsliders (Gal. 4:19), those who had fallen from grace (Gal. 1:6-8; 3:1-5; 4:19; 5:4)

10 Paul taught us to restore a sinning brother (Gal. 6:1). How could this be if it is impossible or unnecessary?

11 In Heb. 6:1 Paul teaches the laying again of the foundation of repentance if necessary. Only apostates cannot be renewed to repentance (Heb. 6:4-9; 10:26-29). The reason is that they have thrown away all faith in the only sacrifice that can renew them. Backsliders who still have faith in Christ can he renewed regardless of how low in sin they are

12 Jesus taught a re-conversion (Rev. 2:4-5, 16, 21-26; 3:3, 15, 16)

13 In Lk. 15, Jesus taught us that a sheep, coin, or boy could become lost and found again. It would be illogical to argue they could be lost and found but once, or that once being found they could never be lost again. It would be still more unreasonable to argue that if any one of them was lost and never found again that it was never found. What would be the process and result of finding them any number of times should they be lost? The same thing is possible of men who go back into sin any number of times

14 David was renewed again after he committed sin (Ps. 51:1-14)

15 God taught Israel time and again that He would restore them again if they would meet conditions (Isa. 1:16-18; Jer. 3:13-15; 4:1-4; 18:1-10; Hos. 6:1-3; 10:12-13; 2 Chr. 7:14)

There is nothing made but what can be revived, restored, recast, refinished, rebuilt, reanimated, refashioned, and remade by proper and skilled workmen. Shall we say the Almighty God is the only one who cannot do His work over and over again if it needs to be done? Shall we say man alone cannot be forgiven, restored to favor, and recreated more than once?

15 time-statements regarding law: (Gal. 3:19; 4:4)

1 Till the seed should come (v 19)
2 Unto the revelation of faith (v 23)
3 Unto Christ (v 24)
4 No longer under a schoolmaster (v 25)
5 Until the time appointed (4:2-5)
6 Till all be fulfilled (Mt. 5:17-18)
7 Until John (Mt. 11:13; Lk. 16:16)
8 Christ, the end of the law (Rom. 10:4)
9 To be done away (2 Cor. 3:7-14)
10 Even so it is now (Gal. 4:21-31)
11 Since the law (Heb. 7:28)
12 Until the reformation (Heb. 9:10)
13 Nailed to the cross (Col. 2:14-17)
14 But now (Eph. 2:13-16)
15 After that (Christ's sacrifice, Heb. 9-16; 8:13)

With such statements of time as to when the law of Moses was to be done away and abolished there should be no further question regarding our not being under it now (notes o and l, Acts 15:1, 24; 85 contrasts, p. 201)

7 steps of gospel redemption (Gal. 4:5)

1 Plan of God to redeem the world by the incarnation of God's Son (v 4; Gen. 3:15; Isa. 7:14; 9:6-7; Mt. 1:18-25)

2 Manifestation of God's Son in the fulness of time (v 4; Dan. 9:24-26; Mt. 1:18-25)

3 Circumstances of His appearing: made of a woman; made under the law; to be a perfect sacrifice (v 4-5; Jn. 3:16; Heb. 10:1-18)

4 Redemption by His death (v 5; Rom. 3:24; 1 Pet. 2:24; Eph. 1:7; Heb. 9:15)

5 Sonship by adoption of all who believe (v 6; Rom. 8:14-16; Eph. 1:5)

6 Impartation of the Holy Spirit (v 6; Rom. 8:9-16; Gal. 3:14)

7 Heirship of all sons (v 7; Rom. 8:14-18; Eph. 1:11; 1 Pet. 1:4)

Entangled again (Gal. 5:1)

Gr. enecho, to be held or caught; entangled in. Make a definite break from all law keeping and let your freedom from it be settled once and forever. Recognize that you are under a new covenant and that you are our from all observance of Jewish rites, ceremonies, commandments, days, sabbaths, seasons, times, years, and whatever else is in the Jewish law (Col. 2:14-17; Eph. 2:17-15; 85 contrasts, p. 201; notes o and l, Acts 15:1, 24)

7 secrets of victorious living (Gal. 5)

1 Stand fast in the liberty of the gospel and renounce all law keeping (v 1-3)
2 Maintain justification in grace and obey the truth (v 4-15)
3 Walk in the Spirit (v 16-17)
4 Be led by the Spirit (v 18)
5 Crucify the flesh with the affections and lusts (v 19-21, 24)
6 Demonstrate the fruit of the Spirit in daily life (v 22-23)
7 Live in the Spirit (v 25-26)

4 secrets of continued grace (Gal. 5:5)

1 Live and walk in the Spirit (v 5; 5:16-26; Rom. 8:1-13; Col. 3:5-10)
2 Be patient in hope (v 5; Rom. 8:24; Heb. 3:6, 12-14; 6:19)
3 Continue in Christ (v 6; Jn. 15:1-8; Col. 2:6-7; Heb. 3:14)
4 Continue in faith (v 6; Col. 1:23)

5 reasons why Christ gave Himself (1:4):

1 For our sins (1:4; Mt. 1:21; 26:28; 1 Cor. 15:3; 1 Pet. 2:24)
2 That He might deliver us from this present evil world (1:4; Tit. 2:14)
3 For the church; that He might sanctify it by the Word (Eph. 5:25-26)
4 A ransom for all (1 Tim. 2:6)
5 For us, that He might redeem us from all iniquity (Tit. 2:14)

The gospel is refered to in Gal. as:

1 The grace of Christ (1:8)
2 A revelation (1:11-12)
3 Being not of or from man (1:11)
4 That which justifies (2:16)
5 Giving the Spirit (3:2)
6 Working miracles (3:5)
7 Redeeming from the curse of the law (3:13)
8 Being of faith (3:22-25)
9 Redeeming those under law (3:13)
10 Making us sons, not servants (4:6)
11 Bringing liberty (4:26; 5:1, 13)
12 Giving the new birth (4:21-31)
13 Abolishing circumcision (5:2)
14 Cancelling the law (5:18)
15 The law of Christ (6:2. See 85 contrasts, p. 201)

Revelation (Gal. 2:2)

From the Gr. apokalupsis, unveil; reveal; uncover. Used of:

1 The gospel light (Lk. 2:32)
2 The coming judgment (Rom. 2:5)
3 Unveiling of truths previously hidden but now revealed (Rom. 16:25; 2 Cor. 12:1, 7; Gal. 1:12; 2:2; Eph. 1:17; 3:3; Rev. 1:1)
4 The coming glory (1 Pet. 4:13)
5 The second advent of Christ (1 Cor. 1:7; 2 Th. 1:7; 1 Pet. 1:7, 13)
6 Manifestation of the sons of God (Rom. 8:19)

The beggarly elements (Gal. 4:9)

1 Observance of sabbaths and special days of the law (v 10; Col. 2:14-17; Rom. 14:5-6)
2 Observance of months - new moons of the law (v 10; Col. 2:14-17)
3 Observance of times or certain seasons of the year, as the feasts of Israel (v 10; Lev. 23; Col. 2:14-17)
4 Observance of years - annual atonements, sabbatical years, and jubilees of Israel (v 10; Lev. 23 and 25)

Yoke of bondage (Gal. 5:1)

Observing any or all the Mosaic laws, commandments, rituals, or any jot or tittle of the law is considered a yoke of bondage (v 1; 4:24; Acts 15:10). If one goes back to keeping the law he is under obligation to keep the whole contract (Gal. 3:10-12; 5:3; Jas. 2:10). If one wants to know whether he is allowed to steal, murder, commit adultery, or keep any sabbath, then let him go to the new contract

169 CHAPTER 1

I The introduction: authorship and salutation

PAUL, an [c]apostle of Jē'şus Christ by the will of God, to the [b]saints which are [c]at Ĕph'e-sŭs, and to the faithful in Christ Jē'şus:

2 [d]Grace be to you, and peace, from God our Father, and from the Lord Jē'şus Christ.

II The believer's position in grace (Eph. 1:3-2:13. Cp. Rom. 5:1-11). 1 Nine blessings in Christ: (1) BLESSED US with all spiritual blessings (1 Cor. 12-14; 2 Pet. 1:5-11)

3 [e]Blessed be the God and Father of our Lord Jē'şus Christ, who hath [f]blessed us with [h]all [i]spiritual [j]blessings [k]in heavenly places in Christ:

(2) CHOSEN US to be Holy (Rom. 11:16; 12:1; 1 Cor. 3:17; 2 Tim. 1:9)

▸4 According as he hath [l]chosen us in him before the [m]foundation of the world, that we should be holy and [n]without blame before him in love:

(3) PREDESTINATED US to be sons (Gal. 4:4; Rom. 8:28-29; 1 Pet. 1:2-5)

5 Having [q]predestinated us unto the [r]adoption of children by Jē'şus Christ to himself, according to the good pleasure of his will,

(4) MADE US ACCEPTED in God (2:14-22; 2 Cor. 5:14-21; Col. 2:11-17)

6 To the praise of the glory of his grace, wherein he [s]hath made us accepted in [t]the beloved.

(5) REDEEMED US by His blood (Mt. 26:28; Col. 1:14; Rom. 3:21, refs.)

▸7 In whom we have [u]redemption through his blood, the forgiveness of sins, according to the [v]riches of his grace;

(6) ABOUNDED TOWARD US in all wisdom and prudence (1 Cor. 1:30)

8 Wherein he hath abounded toward us in [w]all wisdom [x]and prudence;

(7) MADE KNOWN TO US His will (3:1-12; Mt. 11:25; 1 Cor. 2:9-10)

9 Having made known unto us the [y]mystery of his will, according to his good pleasure which he hath purposed in himself:

★10 [z]That in the [a]dispensation of the fulness of times he might gather together in one all things in Christ, both which are in heaven, and which are on earth; even in him:◂

(8) GAVE US AN INHERITANCE (Rom. 8:17; 1 Pet. 1:2-5)

▸11 In whom [c]also we have obtained an inheritance, [b]being predestinated according to the purpose of him who worketh [d]all things after the counsel of his own will:

▸12 That [e]we should be to the praise of his glory, who first trusted in Christ.

(9) SEALED US with the Spirit (4:30; Jn. 3:5; Tit. 3:5)

13 In whom ye [f]also trusted, after that ye heard the word of truth, the gospel of your salvation: in whom also [g]after that ye believed, ye were [h]sealed with that Holy Spirit of promise,

★14 Which is the [i]earnest of our inheritance until the redemption of the [j]purchased possession, unto the praise of his glory.◂

2 Fivefold prayer for blessing

15 Wherefore I also, [k]after I heard of your faith in the Lord Jē'şus, and love unto all the saints,

16 [l]Cease not to give [m]thanks for you, making mention of you in my prayers;

17 [n]That the [o]God of our Lord Jē'şus Christ, [p]the Father of glory, may give unto you the [q]spirit of wisdom and revelation in the knowledge of him:

18 The [r]eyes of your understanding being enlightened; that ye may know what is the hope of his calling, and what the riches of the glory of his inheritance in the saints,

19 And what is the exceeding greatness of his power [s]to us-ward who believe, according to the working of his mighty power,

3 Tenfold greatness of power (Mt. 28:18; Jn. 14:12-15; 1 Pet. 3:22)

20 Which he [t]wrought in Christ, when he raised him from the dead, and set him at his own right hand in the heavenly places,

★21 Far above all principality, and power, and might, and dominion, and every name that is named, not only in [u]this world, but also in that which is to come:

22 And hath put all things under his feet, and gave him to be the [v]head over all things to the church,

23 [w]Which is his body, [x]the fulness of him that filleth all in all.

4 Sevenfold position in sin and Satan by nature (Ps. 51:5; Rom. 5:12-21; 1 Jn. 3:8;

a We also have obtained an inheritance along with all the other blessings of v 3-9. We now possess it in Christ by promise but it will not be ours in reality until the end of a life of sowing to the Spirit (Mt. 5:5; 19:29; 25:34; 1 Cor. 6:9-10; 15:50; Gal. 5:21; Eph. 1:14, 18; 5:5; Col. 1:12; 3:24; Heb. 6:12; 9:15; 1 Pet. 1:4; Rev. 21:7). We only get the earnest or first-fruit of it now by the Spirit (Eph. 1:13-14)

r The faculty of receiving knowledge - the spirit of man (1 Cor. 2:11). What the eye is to the body the spirit is to the inner man. Some MSS. read, "the eyes of your heart." It is through these eyes that we get to know:
  1 The hope of His calling (v 18)
  2 The riches of the glory (v 18)
  3 The greatness of His power (v 19)

2 Wherein in time past[d] ye walked according to the course of this[e] world, according to[f] the prince of the power of the air, the[g] spirit that now worketh in the[h] children of disobedience:

3 Among whom also we all had our [i]conversation in times past in the [j]lusts of our flesh, fulfilling the desires of the flesh and of the mind; and were by[k] nature the children of wrath, even as others.

5 Source and purpose of eternal redemption (Rom. 3:21, refs.)

4 But God, who is [l]rich in mercy, for his great love wherewith he loved us,

5 Even when we were[m] dead in sins, hath [n]quickened us together with Christ, (by grace ye are saved;)

6 And hath raised us up together, and made us sit together in heavenly places in Christ Jē'sus:

★7[o] That in the ages to come he might shew the exceeding riches of his grace in his kindness toward us through Christ Jē'sus. ◂

6 How men are saved (Rom. 10:9-10; 1 Jn. 1:9; 1 Cor. 6:11; Jn. 3:16)

▸8[p] For by grace are ye saved through faith; and that not of yourselves: it is the gift of God:

▸9 Not of works, lest any man should boast.

10 For we are his[q] workmanship, created in Christ Jē'sus unto good works, which God hath before[r] ordained that we should walk in them.

7 Sevenfold position of the Gentiles by nature

●11 Wherefore remember, that ye being in time past[s] Gĕn'tiles in the flesh, who are called Uncircumcision by that which is called the Circumcision in the flesh[t] made by hands;

12 That at that time ye were without Christ, being [u]aliens from the [v]commonwealth[w] of Is'ra-el, and [x]strangers from [y]the covenants of promise, having no hope, and without God in the world:

8 New Gentile position in Christ by His blood

▸13 But [z]now in Christ Jē'sus ye who[a] sometimes were far off are made nigh[b] by the blood of Christ.

III The Church (Mt. 16:18; 18:15; Rom. 12:4; 1 Cor. 10:17; 12:12; Eph. 1:22; 2:14-3:21; 4:12; 5:21; Col. 1:18, 24; 1 Tim. 3:15; Heb. 12:23). 1 Both Jews and Gentiles make the New Testament Church

14 For he is our[c] peace, who hath made[d] both one, and[b] hath broken down the middle wall of[c] partition between us;

15 Having [d]abolished in[e] his flesh the enmity, even the law of commandments contained in ordinances; for [f]to make in himself of twain[g] one new man, so making peace;

16 And that he might reconcile both unto God in one body by the cross, having[h] slain the enmity thereby:

17 And came and preached peace to[i] you which were afar off, and to them that were nigh.

▸18 For[k] through[l] him we both have[m] access by one Spirit unto the Father.

▸19[n] Now therefore ye are[o] no more strangers and foreigners, but fellow-citizens with the saints, and of the[p] household of God;

▸20 And are built upon [q]the foundation of the apostles and prophets, Jē'sus Christ himself being the[r] chief corner stone;

▸21 In whom all the building fitly framed together [s]groweth unto an holy temple in the Lord:

▸22 In whom ye also are builded together for an[t] habitation of God through the Spirit.

CHAPTER 3 — 171

2 The Church a special revelation to Paul (Mt. 16:18)

FOR[u] this cause I Paul, the prisoner of Jē'sus Christ for you Gĕn'tiles,

2 If ye have heard of the[v] dispensation of the grace of God which is given me to you-ward:

3 How that by[z] revelation he made known unto me the[a] mystery; (as I wrote afore in few words,

4 Whereby, when ye read, ye may understand my knowledge in the mystery of Christ)

3 The Church a mystery hid in ages past but now revealed

5 Which in other [z]ages was not made known unto the sons of men, as it is now revealed unto his holy apostles and prophets by the Spirit;

6[w] That the Gĕn'tiles should be [b]fellowheirs, and [c]of the same body, and [d]partakers of his promise in Christ by the gospel:

7 Whereof I was made a[e] minister, according to the gift of the grace of God given unto me by the effectual working of his power.

8 Unto me, [f]who am less than the least of all saints, is this grace given, that I should preach among the Gĕn'tiles [g]the unsearchable riches of Christ;

9 And to make all men see what is the[h] fellowship of the mystery, which from the beginning of the[i] world hath been hid in God, [j]who created all things by Jē'sus Christ:

4 The Church a teacher of angels

e This means by His death the law was abolished (v 14-15; Col. 2:14-17; 2 Cor. 3:6-15).
f This was the purpose of doing away with the law that brought enmity and made the middle wall of partition between Jews and Gentiles. God planned to make of both classes one new man, the church, so making peace between all men (v 15; 3:6; 1 Cor. 12:13; Gal. 3:28; Col. 3:11). The word for reconcile means to bring together again and is used only here: Col. 1:20-21
g Here the church is called a man, not a woman, because it is the body of Christ who is a man. It is also called a man in Eph. 4:13. He got these captives in the lower parts of the earth (v 8–10; Mt. 12:40). They were still alive in soul and spirit since their physical death, but held captive, which proves the immortality of the soul. He could not have led captive extinct souls. Now when a Christian dies he does not go into the lower parts of the earth to be held captive, but goes to heaven to live and await the resurrection of the body (2 Cor. 5:8; Phil. 1:21–24; Heb. 12:22–23; Rev. 6:9–11)

*11 According to [c]the eternal purpose which he purposed in Christ Jē'sus our Lord:

5 Tenfold prayer for the full blessings of God

13 [e]Wherefore I desire that ye faint not at my tribulations for you, which is your glory.

15 Of whom the whole [g]family in heaven and earth is named,
16 [h]That he would grant you, according to the riches of his glory, to be strengthened with might by his Spirit in the inner man;
17 That Christ may dwell in your hearts by faith; that ye, being /rooted and /grounded in love, 18 May be able to comprehend with all saints what is [k]the breadth, and length, and depth, and height;
19 And to know the love of Christ, which passeth knowledge, that ye might [l]be filled with all the fulness of God.
▸20 Now unto him that is able to do [m]exceeding abundantly above all that we ask or think, according to the power that worketh in us,
*21 Unto him be glory [n]in the church by Christ Jē'sus throughout all ages, world without end. Ā-mĕn'.

172 CHAPTER 4

IV Walk of believers (Eph. 4:1–5:21; Rom. 8, 12, 13, 14; Gal. 5; Col. 3; 1 Th. 5; 1 Pet. 2; 1 Jn. 2, 3, 4, 5).

1 Walk worthy in love and unity

I THEREFORE, the prisoner of the Lord, beseech [o]you that ye walk worthy of the vocation wherewith ye are called,
●2 With all lowliness and meekness, with longsuffering, forbearing one another in love;
●3 [p]Endeavouring to keep the unity of the Spirit in the bond of peace.

2 Sevenfold unity of God and man (1 Cor. 12; Rom. 21; Jn. 17)

4 There is [q]one body, and one Spirit, even as ye are called in one hope of your calling;
5 One Lord, one faith, [r]one baptism,
6 One God and Father of all, who is above all, and through all, and in you all.

3 The gifts of Christ for His body (1 Cor. 12:1, refs.)

7 But unto [s]every one of us is given grace according to the measure of the gift of Christ.
*8 Wherefore he saith, When he ascended up on [t]high, he led [u]captivity captive, [v]and [d]gave [e]gifts unto men.
9 /(Now that he ascended, [f]what is it but that he also descended [h]first into the /lower parts of the earth?
10 He that descended is the same also that ascended up far above all heavens, /that he might fill all things.)
11 [i]And he gave some, apostles; and some, prophets; and some, evangelists; and some, pastors and teachers;

4 Ninefold purpose of the gifts (1 Cor. 12:7, refs.)

*12 /For the perfecting of the saints, for the work of the ministry, for the edifying of the body of Christ:
13 Till we all come in the unity of the faith, and of the knowledge of the Son of God, unto a [w]perfect man, unto the measure of the stature of [x]the fulness of Christ:
14 [y]That we henceforth be no more children, tossed to and fro, and carried about with every [z]wind of doctrine, by [a]the sleight of men, and /cunning craftiness, whereby they /lie in wait to deceive;
15 /But speaking the truth in love, may grow up into him in all things, which is the head, even Christ:
16 From whom the whole body fitly joined together and compacted by that which every joint supplieth, according to the effectual working in the measure of every part, maketh increase of the body unto the edifying of itself in love.

5 Sevenfold walk of Gentiles

●17 This I say therefore, and testify in the Lord, that ye henceforth walk not as [b]other Gĕn'tiles walk, in the vanity of their mind, 18 Having the understanding darkened, being alienated from the life of God through the ignorance that is in them, because of the blindness of their heart:
19 Who being past feeling have given themselves over unto lasciviousness, to work all uncleanness with greediness.

6 What to "Put off" (Col. 3:8)

20 [c]But ye have not so learned Christ;
21 If so be that ye have heard him, and have been taught by him, as the truth is in Jē'sus:
●22 That ye put off concerning the former conversation [d]the old man, which is corrupt according to the deceitful lusts;

7 What to "Put on" (Col. 3:10)

●23 And be [e]renewed in the spirit of your mind;
●24 And that ye put on [f]the new man, which after God is created in righteousness and true holiness.

8 Twenty commands for Christians a He led a body of captives to heaven, like an earthly conqueror. See note j, 2 Cor. 2:14. Some were the many that were resurrected after Christ (Mt. 27:52–53), and the rest were the immortal souls that were not resurrected, but merely liberated from captivity to Satan (Heb. 2:14–15; 12:23)

b Gr. alchmalooteuo. Only here; 2 Tim. 3:6. The word alchmalotizo is used in Lk. 21:24; Rom. 7:23; 2 Cor. 10:5
c 3 things Christ did in His ascension:
1 He liberated the righteous immortal souls from captivity in the lower parts of the earth (v 8; Ps. 68:18)
2 He took these captives captive to heaven (v 8; Ps. 68:18)
3 He gave gifts to men (v 8, 11)
d Ps. 68:18 reads, Thou hast received gifts for men. The Heb. here suggests that the gifts He gave were received in man, that is, by virtue of His incarnation He received these gifts to give to men. They are really gifts of God to men. See 8 gifts of God, p. 213 e Gr. doma. Only here; Mt. 7:11; Lk. 11:13; Phil. 4:17
f He descended, not only from deity to humanity and from humanity to infamy and death (Phil. 2:5–11), but also into the lower parts of the earth – into hell itself to conquer hell and liberate captive souls from Satan (v 8–10; Ps. 16:10; 68:18; Mt. 12:40; Heb. 2:14–15) g Question 1. The only one in Ephesians h Before He ascended to heaven He descended to hell (v 9; Ps. 16:10; Mt. 12:40)
i Proof that hell is located in the lower parts of the earth, not on the surface of the earth as the grave (v 9; Mt. 12:40; Ps. 16:10; 63:9; Job 11:8; Lk. 32:22; Isa. 14:9; 66; 22–24; Pr. 9:18; 15:24; Ezek. 31:14–18; 32:18–24). Hell here is contrasted with the highest heaven as being the lowest and deepest part of the earth. It could not possibly refer to the grave on the surface of the earth
j That He might be the fountain of all spiritual, physical, and material gifts to men, dispensing them to all men liberally according to their needs and wants (Jas. 1:5–8, 17; Mt. 7:11; 21:22; Mk. 11:22–24; Jn. 14:12–15; 15:7, 16; Ps. 34:9–10; 84:11)
k See 5 kinds of ministers, p. 214
l See 7 duties of ministers, p. 214
m 7th N. T. prophecy in Eph. (4:12–13, being fulfilled). Next, 5:5. Gr. teleios, that which has reached maturity (Mt. 5:48; 1 Cor. 2:6; Phil. 3:15)
n Gr. pleroma (1:23; 3:19)
o See 7 blessings of perfection, p. 214 p Evil teaching of the prince of the power of the air (2:2; 1 Tim. 4:1; 2 Cor. 4:4) q Gr. kubeia, cube. It refers to loaded dice against which no man can win. Those who play around with false doctrines cannot win eternal life r Gr. panourgia, cheating and subtlety and methodeia, method; signifies the art, wile, strategem, or method of the devil to destroy souls by fallacy (v 14; 4:27; 6:11; 1 Tim. 4:1; 2 Cor. 4:4; Mt. 13:19). It refers to the systematizing of error and making it such a perfect counterfeit of truth that only those who are experienced in truth can detect it s False teachers lie in wait to catch ignorant souls by their fallacies t The truth recommended by Paul is the whole gospel which centers around Christ and builds the church into a working unit to throw off all error or waste so as to sustain itself like the human body (v 15–16)
u See 9-fold state of Gentiles, p. 214
v See 32-fold life of saints, p. 214 w The old man is the spirit and nature of the devil (note f, 2 Cor. 5:17).
x Be renewed in the attitude of your mind by renouncing its vanity (v 17), its darkness and blindness (v 18) and learning of Christ (v 20–21)
y This is the Spirit and nature of God in renewed man (v 23–24; 2 Pet. 1:4; Rom. 8:9, 14–16). The Gr. word for renewed is ananeoo, meaning the whole course of life now flows in a different direction (v 23; 2 Cor. 5:17–18). The word for put on is enduo, to be clothed with, as in note f, Lk. 24:49; 1 Th. 5:8. The new nature must be put on and it must manifest righteousness and true holiness (v 23–24). The Gr. for holiness is hosiotes, and is found only here and in Lk. 1:75

a Gr. apotithemi, having put away
b Gr. to pseudos, the lie. It is the lie that is put away. This has to do with putting away Satan who is the father of the lie (Jn. 8:44; 2 Th. 2:11). It was a common thing for the heathen teachers to declare that a lie is better than the truth when it is profitable and less hurtful. Having been brought up in such loose system of morality, these converts needed this admonition. Part of this verse is quoted from Zech. 8:16 c Gr. orgizo, to make angry, provoke to anger, irritate (v 26; Mt. 5:22; 18:34; 22:7; Lk. 14:21; 15:28; Rev. 11:18; 12:17). The reference is to being provoked to sin by Satan but one must not yield to such provoking or give place to the devil (v 26-27). The words anger and angry are used 289 times in the Bible, but only 12 times in the N. T. The faculty to be angry is God-created and perfectly sinless in itself. The misuse of it and all other faculties, is what God condemns. God Himself has been angry many times because of sin (Num. 11:1, 10, 33; 12:9; 14:11; Ps. 7:11). One must have a cause if he is to be angry (Mt. 5:22; Rom. 1:18; Jas. 1:19). God never de-humanizes or uncreates one in sanctification. Anger is allowed by the gospel (Mk. 3:5), but not sin (v 26)
d Gr. sapros, useless, putrid, obscene (Mt. 7:17-18; 12:33; 13:48; Lk. 6:43)
e Grieve not by doing any of these forbidden things of 4:17-5:18
f See note h, 1:13
g Gr. pikria, bitterness, malice, venom. Here; Acts 8:23; Rom. 3:14; Heb. 12:15 h Gr. thumos, any vehement passion, anger, wrath, hatred (Gal. 5:20, note) i Gr. orge. Trans. anger (v 31; Mk. 3:5; Col. 3:8); indignation (Rev. 14:10); vengeance (Rom. 3:5); and wrath (Mt. 3:7; Lk. 3:7; 21:23; Jn. 3:36; Rom. 1:18; 2:5, 8; 4:15; 5:9; 11:22; 12:19; 13:4-5; Eph. 2:3; 5:6; Col. 3:6; 1 Th. 1:10; 2:16; 5:9; 1 Tim. 2:8; Heb. 3:11; 4:3; Jas. 1:19-20; Rev. 6:16-17; 11:18; 16:19; 19:15)
j Gr. krauge, uproar (v 31; Mt. 25:5; Acts 23:9; Heb. 5:7; Rev. 14:18; 21:4) k Gr. blasphemia (note a, Mt. 12:31)
l Gr. kakia. Trans. malice (v 31; 1 Cor. 5:8; 14:20; Col. 3:8; Tit. 3:3; 1 Pet. 2:1); evil (Mt. 6:34); naughtiness (Jas. 1:21); maliciousness (Rom. 1:29; 1 Pet. 2:1); and wickedness (Acts 8:22)
m Gr. chrestos. Trans. kind (v 32; Lk. 6:35); good (1 Cor. 15:33; Rom. 2:4); gracious (1 Pet. 2:3); and easy (Mt. 11:30) n Gr. eusplanchnos, tenderly compassionate. Only here and in 1 Pet. 3:8
o Mt. 6:14-15; 18:21-35; Col. 3:13 p Gr. mimetes, imitators; mimic the gait, speech, accent, and manner of life of another (note p, 1 Cor. 4:16). It means here to imitate God as children do their parents - imitate His acts, words, nature, ways, graces, and Spirit q 2fold sacrifice of Christ (v 2):
1 As an offering; the same as in Lev. 2:1 to show gratitude for temporal blessings received
2 As a sacrifice for sin (Mt. 26:28; 1 Pet. 2:24); the same as in Lev. 1:9; 3:16
r An odor of a sweet smell to God, That is, God was well pleased with the offering and sacrifice of Christ because it made possible the redemption of His fallen creation (Rom. 3:18-24) s 6 forbidden things to saints (v 5-6):
1 Fornication (note g, Mt. 5:32)
2 Uncleanness (pt. 3, col. 1, 207)
3 Covetousness (note e, Lk. 12:15)
4 Filthiness, Gr. aischrotes, ugliness, baseness, vileness, shame, infamy.
5 Foolish talking, Gr. morologia, speaking foolishly; idle, stupid talk 6 Jesting, Gr. eutrapelia, ribaldry; indecency sugar-coated in mirth to make it more corrupting; course jesting; obscene and offensive conversation. Only here

w The mysteries of the heathen which the initiated went through in caves and dark secret places; the initiated being obliged on pain of death, to keep secret what they had heard, seen, and done (Col. 1:21; Rom. 13:12; Heb. 6:1)
x Gr. elegcho, testify, convince, and reprove their secret vices

●25 Wherefore[a] putting away[b] lying, speak every man truth with his neighbour: for we are members one of another.
●26 Be ye[c] angry, and sin not: let not the sun go down upon your wrath:
●27 Neither give place to the devil.
●28 Let him that stole steal no more: but rather let him labour, working with his hands the thing which is good, that he may have to give to him that needeth.
●29 Let no[d] corrupt communication proceed out of your mouth, but that which is good to the use of edifying, that it may minister grace unto the hearers.
●30 And[e] grieve not the Holy Spirit of God, / whereby ye are sealed unto the day of redemption. ◂
●31 Let all [f] bitterness, and [g] wrath, and [h] anger, and [i] clamour, and [d] evil speaking, be put away from you, with all [l] malice:
●32 And be ye [m] kind one to another, [n] tenderhearted, [o] forgiving one another, even as God for Christ's sake hath forgiven you.

CHAPTER 5 173

9 Two commands to follow God

●BE ye therefore [p] followers of God, as dear children;
●2 And [q] walk in love, as Christ also hath loved us, and hath given himself for us an offering and a sacrifice to God for [r] a sweetsmelling savour.

10 Six common sins condemned

●3 [s] But fornication, and all uncleanness, or covetousness, let it not be once named among you, as becometh saints;
●4 Neither filthiness, nor foolish talking, nor jesting, which are not convenient: but rather giving of thanks.

11 Five classes that are lost

★5 For this ye know, that [t] no whoremonger, nor unclean person, nor covetous man, who is an idolater, hath any inheritance in the kingdom of Christ and of God.
●6 Let no man deceive you with vain words: for because of these things cometh the wrath of God upon the children of disobedience.
●7 [u] Be not ye therefore partakers with them.

12 Fifteen commands for Christians

●8 For ye were sometimes darkness, but now are ye light in the Lord: walk as children of light:
9 [v] (For the fruit of the Spirit is in all goodness and righteousness and truth;)
●10 Proving what is acceptable unto the Lord.
●11 And have no fellowship with the unfruitful [w] works of darkness, but rather [x] reprove them.
12 For it is a[a] shame even to speak of those things which are done of them in secret.
13 But [b] all things that are reproved are made manifest by the light: for whatsoever doth make manifest is light.
●14 Wherefore he saith, [c] Awake thou that sleepest, and arise from the dead, and Christ shall give thee light. ◂
●15 See then that ye walk [d] circumspectly, not as fools, but as wise, ●16 [e] Redeeming the time, because the days are evil.
●17 Wherefore be ye not / unwise, but understanding what the will of the Lord is.
●18 And be not [f] drunk with wine, wherein is [k] excess; but be / filled with the Spirit;
●19 Speaking to yourselves / in psalms and hymns and spiritual [j] songs, singing and making [i] melody in your heart to the Lord;
●20 Giving [m] thanks always for all things unto God and the Father [n] in the name of our Lord Jē'sus Christ;
●21 [o] Submitting yourselves one to another in the fear of God.

V Domestic life of believers. 1 Duties of wives (Col. 3:18; Tit. 2:3-5; 1 Pet. 3:1-6; 1 Tim. 2:9-15; 5:2-16; 1 Cor. 14:34-35)

●22 [p] Wives, submit yourselves unto your own husbands, as unto the Lord.
23 For the husband is the head of the wife, even as Christ is the head of the church: and he is the saviour of the body.
●24 Therefore as the church is subject unto Christ, so let the wives be to their own husbands in [q] every thing.

2 Duties of husbands (Col. 3:19; Tit. 2:2, 6; 1 Pet. 3:7)

●25 [r] Husbands, love your wives, even as Christ also loved [s] the church, and gave himself for it;
▸26 That he might / sanctify and cleanse it with the washing of water by the word, ★27 That he might present it to himself a [u] glorious church, not having [v] spot, [w] or wrinkle, or any such thing; but that it should be [x] holy and / without blemish. ◂
●28 So ought men to love their wives [s] as their own bodies. He that loveth his wife loveth himself.
29 For no man ever yet hated his own flesh; but nourisheth and cherisheth it, even as the Lord the church:
30 [a] For we are members of his body, of his flesh, and of his bones.
●31 For this cause shall a man leave his father and mother, and shall be [b] joined unto his wife, and they two shall be one flesh.
32 This is a great mystery: but I speak concerning Christ and the church.
●33 Nevertheless let every one of you in particular so love his a Whatever these secret heathen rites were they were too shameful even to speak of (note c, 1 Cor. 11:4). This no doubt refers to the Eleusinian and Bacchanalian mysteries, which were performed in the darkness of night, and were known to be so immoral and abominable that the Roman senate banished them from Italy. At these religious festivals wine and women played the most important parts. Indecent emblems were carried in procession and ceremonies of the most immoral character were performed. Plato says that he has seen the entire population of Athens drunk at these festivals

b All reprovable actions are made manifest by light (v 13) c A paraphrase of Isa. 6:1-2 d Gr. akribos. Trans. circumspectly (v 15); perfectly (Acts 18:26; 23:15, 20; 1 Th. 5:2); perfect (Lk. 1:3; Acts 24:22); and diligently (Mt. 2:8; Acts 18:25). It means to walk about watching on every hand to avoid danger and enemies - live the gospel by watching your conduct e Buying up those moments which others throw away. Improve every moment to make up for those lost in sin (v 16)
f Gr. aphron, senseless, crazed (note i, 2 Cor. 11:16). Do not become madmen. Here is an allusion to the wild orgies of Bacchus, in which men acted like they were mad; running and tossing their heads and appearing in every sense completely frantic. Be sober, chaste (v 17)
g Gr. methuskomai. Here; Lk. 12:45; 1 Th. 5:7. This again refers to the orgies of Bacchus when men and women would get drunk entering into all kinds of immoral acts h Gr. asotia, debauchery of every kind. Only here; Tit. 1:6; 1 Pet. 4:4. The adverb only in Lk. 15:13 i This is the privilege of every Christian. It is true that every born-again man receives the Spirit of sonship and has the Holy Spirit in a measure (Rom. 8:9, 14-16), but this is not the kind of filling one may yet receive if he will accept truth and seek God for the fulness of the Spirit (Mt. 3:11; Lk. 11:13; 24:49; Jn. 1:31-34; 7:37-39; 14:12; Acts 1:4-8; 2:38-39; 5:32). See note a, Jn. 3:34
j The difference between the psalms, hymns, and spiritual songs is not fully clear. The psalms no doubt refer to the book of Psalms. Hymns and spiritual songs could include any psalm in the book of Psalms and also others that were commonly known among the people of that day (Mt. 26:30; Eph. 5:19; Col. 3:16; Ex. 15:1, 2; Num. 21:17; Dt. 31:19, 21-22, 30; Judg. 5:12; Cant. 1:1; Isa. 5:1; 26:1; 42:10). The reference might also be to spontaneous singing in the Spirit, as in 1 Cor. 14:15-16 k Gr. ode, a song of thanksgiving. Here; Col. 3:16; Rev. 5:9; 14:3; 15:3
l Gr. psallo, to play a stringed instrument with the fingers; to strike a chord; sing to the music of a harp (Rom. 15:9; 1 Cor. 14:15; Eph. 5:19; Jas. 5:13)
m Because of continued blessings from God n Through Him alone we can approach God (Mk. 16:17; Jn. 14:12-15; 16:23-26; Col. 3:17; 1 Tim. 2:4; Heb. 10:19)
o Let no man be stubborn in his opinion to disturb the peace of the church (v 21)
p See 4 commands for wives, p. 214
q That is lawful and right, not in things criminal and wrong. If he is sinful and demands her to leave off the things that save the soul she is not under obligation to him. Her God and her soul must come first (Mt. 22:37; Lk. 14:26-27). Obedience to the husband in all things is based upon him loving his wife, as Christ does the church (v 25, 28, 33)
r See 8 commands for husbands, p. 214
s See 16 facts-Christ and church, p. 214
t Gr. hagiazo, set apart or consecrate, referring to the new birth (note f, Jn. 3:5) u 9th and last N. T. prophecy in Eph. (5:27, unfulfilled). See note, Glorious church, p. 214 v Gr. spilos, blemish. Here; 2 Pet. 2:13 w Gr. rhutis, wrinkle, no mark of age.
x See God's choice, p. 213
y Gr. amomos, faultless (note p, 1:4) z The woman is part of the man and one flesh with him (v 28-32; Gen. 2:21-25) wife even as himself: and the wife see that she[a]reverence her husband.

174 CHAPTER 6

3 Duties of children (Col. 3:20)

CHILDREN, [b]obey your parents in the Lord: [c]for this is right.

●2 Honour thy father and mother; which is the first commandment with promise;

▸3 That it may be well with thee, and thou mayest live long on the earth.

4 Duties of fathers (Col. 3:21)

●4 And, [d]ye fathers, provoke not your children to wrath: but bring them up in the[e]nurture and [f]admonition of the Lord.

5 Duties of servants (Col. 3:22; Tit. 2:9; 1 Tim. 6:1; 1 Cor. 7:17; 1 Pet. 2:18; Mt. 24:45-51; 25:1-30)

●5 [g]Servants, be obedient to them that are your masters according to the flesh, with fear and trembling, in singleness of your heart, as unto Christ;

6 Not with eyeservice, as menpleasers; but as the servants of Christ, doing the will of God from the heart;

7 With good will doing service, as to the Lord, and not to men:

▸8 Knowing that whatsoever good thing any man doeth, the same shall he receive of the Lord, whether he be bond or free.

6 Duties of masters (Col. 4:1; 1 Tim. 6:2)

●9 And, ye [h]masters, do the same things unto them, forbearing threatening: knowing that your Master also is in heaven; neither is there respect of persons with him.

VI Spiritual warfare of believers (Eph. 6:10-20; 2 Cor. 10:3-5; Rom. 6:1-8; Gal. 5:13-26; 1 Pet. 5:8). 1 The power of believers

●10 [i]Finally, my brethren, [j]be [k]strong in the Lord, and in the power of his might.

2 The believer's foes (Jn. 15:18; Rom. 8:1-13; Gal. 5:16-21; Jas. 4:7; 1 Pet. 5:8; Mk. 16:17)

●11 [l]Put on the whole[m]armour of God, that ye may be able to stand against the[a]wiles of the devil.◂

12 For we[b]wrestle not [c]against flesh and blood, but [d]against principalities, against powers, against the rulers of the darkness of this world, against spiritual wickedness in[e]high places.

3 The believer's armour (Rom. 13:12; 1 Th. 5:8; 2 Cor. 6:7; 10:3-5)

●13 [f]Wherefore take unto you the[g]whole armour of God, that ye may be able to withstand in the evil day, and[h]having done all, to stand.◂

●14 Stand therefore, having your loins girt about with truth, and having on the [i]breastplate of righteousness;

15 And your [j]feet shod with the[k]preparation of the gospel of peace;

●16 Above all, taking the shield of faith, wherewith ye shall be able to quench all the fiery [l]darts of [m]the wicked.◂

●17 And [n]take the [o]helmet of salvation, and the sword of the Spirit, which is the [p]word of God:

4 The believer's resource (Rom. 8:26; Mt. 7:7-11; Jn. 14:12-15)

●18 [q]Praying always [r]with all prayer and [s]supplication in the Spirit, and [t]watching thereunto with[u]all perseverance and supplication for all saints;

19 And for me, [v]that utterance may be given unto me, that I may open my mouth boldly, to make known the[w]mystery of the gospel, 20 For which I am an[x]ambassador in [y]bonds: that therein I may speak boldly, as I ought to speak.

VII Conclusion and benediction

21 But that ye also may know my affairs, and how I do, [z]Tȳch'ĭ-cŭs, a beloved brother and faithful minister in the Lord, shall make known to you all things:

22 Whom I have sent unto you for the same purpose, that ye might know our affairs, and that he might comfort your hearts.

23 Peace be with all brethren, and love with faith, from God the Father and the Lord Jē'sus Christ.

24 Grace be with all them that love our Lord Jē'sus Christ[a]in sincerity. Ā-mĕn'.

Summary of Ephesians

Date and place: Written from Rome 64 A. D. and was sent by Tychicus along with Colossians and Philemon. It is the most impersonal of Paul's epistles

Author: Paul (see Summary of Romans and Paul in the Index)

Title: The words at Ephesus are not in some of the oldest MSS. It may be they were omitted so that the names of various churches could be filled in. This may explain mention of the letter to the Laodiceans (Col. 4:16)

Theme: Romans, the first doctrinal letter, sets forth the true relation of the believer to Christ in death, burial, and resurrection. Ephesians, the second doctrinal letter, pictures the believer as sitting together with Christ in heavenly places. It contains the highest of church truth, but not church order.

Statistics: 49th book of the Bible; 6 chapters; 155 verses; 3,039 words; 1 question; 146 verses of history; 1 verse of fulfilled and 8 verses of unfulfilled prophecy a Gr. phobeo, to strike with fear; to frighten. It is trans. reverence only here; be afraid 29 times; and fear 61 times (Rev. 1:17; 2:10; etc.). She is to reverence him as her head (v 23-24; 1 Cor. 11:3)

b 2 commands for children (Cp. Col. 3:20):
1 Obey parents (v 1)
2 Honor parents (v 2)

c 4 reasons for children to obey parents:
1 This is right (v 1)
2 A commandment (v 2; Ex. 20:12)
3 A blessing of well being (v 3)
4 Long life promised (v 3) d 2 commands for fathers (Cp. Col. 3:21):

1 Provoke not your children to wrath (v 4). Avoid severity, anger, harshness, cruelty. Cruel parents generally have bad children. Correct, do not punish. Punishment is from a principle of revenge; correction is from a principle of affectionate concern

3 Recognize that you have the same Master as your servants and that there is no respecter of persons with Him (v 9; Rom. 2:11; Col. 4:1)

f In view of the fact that you have such enemies (v 12), be endued with or clothed with the armour of God. It will make you invulnerable and victorious (v 13-18)

g 2 kinds of armour:
1 Defensive armour for protection:
(1) Gr. perikephalala, the helmet - for the head and of various forms embossed with many kinds of figures
(2) Gr. zoma, the girdle - for the loins to brace the armour tight against the body, and support daggers, swords and other weapons
(3) Gr. thorax, the breastplate in two parts - one to cover the breast and the other the back to protect the vital organs of the body. It extended down to the legs p Gr. rhema, the written word (note b, Acts 1:1). See Lk. 4:32; Isa. 8:20; Mt. 4:4-7. The Spirit always acts in harmony with the written word of God. It should be quoted in times of temptation and it will cut in pieces the snares of the enemy

Dispensations: (Eph. 1:10)

5 named in Scripture:

1 Dispensation or administration of the unjust steward (Lk. 16:1-9)
2 Dispensation of the gospel (1 Cor. 9:17), which is Paul's administration of the gospel of grace
3 The dispensation of the grace of God (Eph. 3:2). This is the same as no. 2
4 The dispensation of God (Col. 1:25). This is God's own administration of grace given to Paul and is the same as no. 2
5 The dispensation of the fulness of times, in which God gathers together all things in heaven and in earth in Christ ridding the earth of all rebellion (Eph. 1:10; 1 Cor. 15:24-28; Rev. 20)

7 dispensations of man:

Besides the dispensation of angels (Gen. 1:1; Isa. 14:12-14; Ezek. 28:11-17) and the eternal dispensation of the redeemed and faithful angels (Rev. 21-22; Isa. 66:22-24; 2 Pet. 3:13), there are 7 dispensations of man between the restoration of the earth from chaos (Gen. 1:3-2:25) and the New Heavens and the New Earth:

1 Dispensation of Innocence (Gen. 3)
2 Dispensation of Conscience (Gen. 4-8)
3 Dispensation of Human Government (Gen. 9-11)
4 Dispensation of Promise (Gen. 12:1-Ex. 12:36)
5 Dispensation of Law (Ex. 12:37-Mt. 3)
6 Dispensation of Grace (Mt. 3:1-Rev. 19:21)
7 Dispensation of Divine Government or Millennium (Rev. 20:1-15)

9 things God has done for us: (Eph. 1:3)

1 Blessed us (v 3)
2 Chosen us (v 4)
3 Predestinated us (v 5, 11)
4 Made us accepted (v 6)
5 Redeemed us (v 7)
6 Abounded toward us (v 8)
7 Made known unto us (v 9)
8 Given us an inheritance (v 11, 14)
9 Sealed us (v 13)

The word IN: (Eph. 1:3)

1 In Christ Jesus (v 1, 3, 4, 6, 7, 10, 11, 13, 15, 20; 2 Cor. 5:17)
2 In heavenly places (v 3, 20; 2:6)
3 In love (v 4)
4 In all wisdom and prudence (v 8)
5 In one (v 10)
6 In heaven (v 10)
7 In my prayers (v 16)
8 In the knowledge of Him (v 17)
9 In the saints (v 18)
10 In this world (v 21)
11 In the world to come (v 21)
12 In all (v 23)

God's choice (Eph. 1:4)

This is what God chose before the overthrow of Lucifer's world - that all of the new race of Adam who accept Jesus Christ should be holy and without blame before Him in love. It is this plan that is chosen for all believers, not the individual conformity of any one person to that plan. The final choice is left up to the individual and not to God. All are called and chosen to become holy before God in love if they want to accept this plan and choice of God, but only those who meet the conditions will be so blessed (Jn. 3:16-20; Mk. 16:15-16; 1 Tim. 2:4; 2 Pet. 3:9; Rev. 22:17). This is the true meaning of election and predestination wherever found in Scripture (v 5; Rom. 8:29, note), that is, the plan is predestined and foreknown, not the individual conformity to the plan

The true riches (Eph. 1:7; Lk. 16:11)

1 Riches of His grace (1:7)
2 Riches of the glory of the inheritance in the saints (1:18)
3 Unsearchable riches of Christ (3:8)
4 Riches of glory (3:16; Rom. 9:23)
5 Riches of His goodness (Rom. 2:4)
6 Riches of wisdom, knowledge (Rom. 11:33)
7 Riches in glory (Phil. 4:19)
8 Riches of the glory of the mystery of Christ in you (Col. 1:27)
9 Riches of the full assurance of understanding of God's mystery (Col. 2:2)
10 Reproach of Christ greater riches than in Egypt (Heb. 11:26)

Sealed: (Eph. 1:13; 4:30)

1 For security (Mt. 27:66; Rev. 20:3)
2 To hide, as the contents of a letter (Rev. 10:4; 22:10. Cp. Dt. 32:34)
3 To confirm or approve by testimony (Jn. 3:33; 6:27; Rom. 15:28)
4 To confirm ownership (2 Cor. 1:22; Eph. 1:13; 4:30; Rev. 7:3-8). The Holy Spirit of adoption is given to everyone who repents (Rom. 8:9, 14-16; 2 Cor. 1:22; Eph. 1:13; 4:30) and he who has this Spirit has God's seal that he belongs to the heavenly family

6 things prayed for Ephesians (1:17)

1 The spirit of wisdom (v 17)
2 The spirit of revelation (v 17)
3 Full enlightenment of truth (v 18)

3 Gave Him authority over all powers, good and evil, under Himself (v 21; 3:10; 6:12; Rom. 8:38; Phil. 2:9-11; Col. 1:15-18; 2:10-17; 1 Pet. 3:22; Rev. 1:1, 7, 18; 11:15; 19:11-20:10)
4 Gave Him a name above every name except God the Father (v 21; 1 Cor. 11:3; Phil. 2:9-11; Heb. 1:4)
5 Put all things under His feet (v 22; Col. 1:16-18; 2:10-17; Heb. 2:5-18; 1 Cor. 15:24-28)
6 Gave Him headship of the church (v 22; Col. 1:18, 24; 1 Cor. 11:3)

14-fold headship of Christ (Eph. 1:20-23)

1 All principality (v 21; Col. 2:10)

3 All might (v 21)

6 This world (Eph. 1:21)
7 The world to come (Eph. 1:21)
8 All things (Eph. 1:22; Heb. 2:8-9)
9 The church (Eph. 1:22-23; 4:15; 5:23-31; Col. 1:18, 24; 2:19)
10 Every man (1 Cor. 11:3)
11 Of the corner (Mt. 21:42; Lk. 20:17; Acts 4:11; 1 Pet. 2:7)
12 The people (Isa. 55:4)
13 Over all (Rom. 9:5; Col. 3:11)
14 His own house (Heb. 3:6)

7 dead things in Scripture: (Eph. 2:1)

1 Dead living men (v 1, 5; Mt. 8:22; 2 Cor. 5:14; Col. 2:13; 1 Tim. 5:6)
2 Living dead men (Rom. 6:2, 7-14; Col. 2:20; 3:3; 2 Tim. 2:11)
3 Dead living bodies (Rom. 8:10)
4 Dead bodies (Jas. 2:26; Jn. 5:28-29)
5 Dead works (Heb. 6:1; 9:14)
6 Dead faith (Jas. 2:17, 20, 26)
7 Dead sin (Rom. 7:8)

5-fold state of sinners: (Eph. 2:2)
They walk

1 According to the world system (v 2). The word course refers to the evils that run like a stream through the whole world
2 According to the will of Satan (v 2)
3 In the lusts of the flesh (v 3; Gal. 5:19-21; Col. 3:5-10; Rom. 1:29-32)
4 In the lusts of the mind or spirit (v 3; 2 Cor. 7:1; 1 Jn. 2:15-17)
5 By nature as children of wrath (v 3; Ps. 51:5; Jn. 8:44; Rom. 5:12-21)

8 gifts of God: (Eph. 4:8)

1 Christ (Jn. 3:16; 4:10). Called the heavenly and unspeakable gift (2 Cor. 9:15; Heb. 6:4)
2 Holy Spirit (Acts 2:33, 38-39; 5:32; 8:20; 11:17)
3 Salvation (Rom. 5:15-18; Eph. 2:8-9)
4 Eternal life (Rom. 6:23)
5 Grace (Eph. 3:7; 4:7)
6 Spiritual gifts (Rom. 12:6; 1 Cor. 1:7; 12:4-11, 28-31; 1 Tim. 4:14; 2 Tim. 1:6; Heb. 2:4; 1 Pet. 4:10)
7 Ministers (Eph. 4:11)
8 All good things (Mt. 7:11; Lk. 11:13; Phil. 4:17; Jas. 1:17)

3 kinds of death in Scripture: (Eph. 2:5)

1 Physical death - the separation of the inner man from the body (Jas. 2:26)
2 Spiritual death - separation from God because of sin (v 1, 5; Isa. 59:2; Mt. 8:22; Col. 2:13; 1 Tim. 5:6)
3 Eternal death - eternal separation from God because man chooses to remain separated from God in sin (Mt. 10:28; 25:41, 46; Rev. 2:11; 14:9-11; 20:11-15; 21:8; 22:15; Isa. 66:22-24). This is called the second death or second separation from God (Rev. 2:11; 20:14; 21:8)

Death in all Scripture means separation from the purpose for which one was created, never annihilation or extinction of being. Physical death is separation of the inner man from the body. The body only dies at this time and goes back to dust (Gen. 3:19; Jas. 2:26). The spirit and soul are immortal and are either dead in sins or in possession of eternal life in Christ at the time of physical death. In either case, they continue in consciousness whether in heaven or hell (notes on 1 Pet. 3:4; Lk. 12:5; Lk. 16:23; 270, 421-424)

7 things God has done: (Eph. 2:1-13)

1 Resurrected us from death in sins (v 1, 5)
2 Loved us (v 4)
3 Saved us (v 5, 8-9)
4 Made us sit down with Him (v 6, 10)
5 Made a plan for us (v 7, 10)
6 Created us in Christ (v 10)
7 Made us nigh by Christ (v 13)

10-fold present state as Christians: (Eph. 2:13)

1 In Christ (v 13)
2 Made nigh to God by the blood of Christ (v 13)
3 Have peace with God (v 14)
4 One with Israel (v 14-16)
5 Part of the church (v 15-16)
6 Reconciled to God (v 16)
7 Access to God by the Spirit (v 18)
8 Fellow-citizens with saints (v 19)
9 Built upon the true foundation (v 20; 1 Cor. 3:11)
10 An habitation of God (v 22)

Law of commandments abolished: (Eph. 2:15)

Gr. katargeo. Trans. make of no effect (Rom. 3:3; 4:14; Gal. 3:17; 5:4); come and bring to naught (1 Cor. 1:28; 2:6); done away (1 Cor. 13:10; 2 Cor. 3:7, 11, 14); fail (1 Cor. 13:8); cease (Gal. 6:11); vanish away (1 Cor. 13:8); make void (Rom. 3:31); cumber (Lk. 13:7); deliver (Rom. 7:6); loose (Rom. 7:2); put away (1 Cor. 13:11); put down (1 Cor. 15:24); destroy (Rom. 6:6; 1 Cor. 6:13; 15:26; 2 Th. 2:8; Heb. 2:14); and abolish (2 Cor. 3:13; Eph. 2:15; 2 Tim. 1:10)

It is clear from all these passages that whatever is abolished is completely null and void. What is it here that is abolished? It is the law of commandments in decrees, or the law of dogmatic commandments. The word for ordinances is dogma, trans. decree (Lk. 2:1; Acts 16:4; 17:7) and ordinance (Eph. 2:15; Col. 2:14). The law was made to expose sin (Rom. 3:19-20; 7:13; Gal. 3:19-25) and to keep the Jews a distinct people until Christ came. After that it was no longer needful (see 85 contrasts, p. 201)

God's love (Eph. 3:18)

God's love is:

1 Boundless (breadth, v 18)
2 Endless (length, v 18)
3 Fathomless, exhaustless (depth, v 18)
4 Measureless (height, v 18)

All that is included in the breadth, length, depth, and height is submerged in the immensity of the love of God which comprehends all that is above, below, and past, present, and future. It encompasses the universe, and time and eternity. It reaches to the depth of sin and infamy, to the height of the infinite divinity. It passes all knowledge and wisdom. God's gift to man is the measure of His love (Jn. 3:16); the death of Christ is the measure of His love (Rom. 5:5-10); and the condescension of the Holy Spirit to transform men and work in their lives is the measure of the love of the Spirit to man (Jn. 16:7-15)

Wall of partition: (Eph. 2:14)

Gr. mesotoichon, partition-wall. Here it means that Christ broke down the wall or fence that separated Jews and Gentiles. A wall of stone about 6 ft. high separated the court of the Gentiles from that of the Jews in the temple. To cross it meant death to any Gentile. Jews always endeavored to live by themselves among the Gentiles. They either wanted a river or a wall between them and their Gentile neighbors. Wherever they went, their own laws, rites, and customs made a separation between them and the Gentiles. This latter fact is what is referred to as the middle wall of partition between Jews and Gentiles. Christ abolished the law of Moses with all of its commandments, ordinances, and rituals, and provided a new covenant entirely for both Jews and Gentiles, making them one and on the same level in all things. To emphasize this, the literal veil of the temple was rent from top to bottom, indicating that the way into the holiest had been made for all men, that the old law was at an end and a new covenant ratified (see 85 contrasts, p. 201)

7 one's in Eph. 4:4-6:

1 One body, the church
2 One Spirit, the Holy Spirit
3 One hope, the Christian calling
4 One Lord, the Lord Jesus Christ
5 One faith, the gospel form of doctrine
6 One baptism, a baptism into the body of Christ (1 Cor. 12:13; Gal. 3:27; Col. 2:12; Rom. 6:3-7)
7 One God, the Father of all

Generations (Eph. 3:5)

Gr. genesis, generations, and not the Gr. aion, age. That Gentiles were to be called and saved was made known from Abraham (Gen. 12:1-3) on through the O. T. (Rom. 9:24-33; Gal. 3:8), but that they should be saved without observing the law and that both Jews and Gentiles would be liberated from it, being made a new body under the terms of the new covenant was not made known. This was a new revelation (v 1-9; Gal. 1:12; 2:2; 3:13-14)

Dwelling place: (Eph. 2:22)

Gr. katoiketerion, a dwelling-place. Only here and Rev. 18:2. This does not mean that God has no personal body and the only bodies He ever has to manifest Himself through are those of saints. God has His own personal body (note r, Jn. 4:24). This simply refers to God's manifestations of His own nature and attributes through multiplied outlets. Each saint becomes a reflection of God and acts for Him as God would act in the world if He were visibly present. God dwells in men only as they live in union with Him (note n, Lk. 22:3)

Examples of kneeling in prayer (3:14):

1 Solomon (1 Ki. 8:54; 2 Chr. 6:13)
2 Elijah (1 Ki. 18:42)
3 Ezra (Ezra 9:5)
4 Daniel (Dan. 6:10)
5 Jesus (Lk. 22:41)
6 Stephen (Acts 7:60)
7 Peter (Acts 9:40)
8 Paul (Acts 20:36; 21:5; Eph. 3:14)

5 classes not to inherit God's kingdom: (Eph. 5:5)

1 Whoremongers. Gr. pornos, a male prostitute; a debauchee; libertine. Trans. fornicator (1 Cor. 5:9-11; 6:9; Heb. 12:16) and whoremonger (Eph. 5:5; 1 Tim. 1:10; Heb. 13:4; Rev. 21:8; 22:15)
2 Unclean persons. Gr. akathartos, homosexual, pervert (note l, Lk. 4:33; point 3, 17 works of the flesh, p. 207)
3 Covetous men (note e, Lk. 12:15)
4 Deceivers (v 6; 2 Tim. 3:13; Tit. 1:10; 3:3; Rev. 12:9; 20:3, 8)
5 Children of disobedience (v 6; Eph. 2:2; Col. 3:6). Cp. note l, 1 Cor. 6:9. According to Athenaeus, the Ephesians were addicted to luxury, effeminacy, and sexual vice. Aspasia, a beautiful woman of the Socratic sect, brought vast numbers of beautiful women into the country as prostitutes. Demosthenes says, "We have whores for our pleasure, harlots for daily use, and wives for procreation of legitimate children, and faithful preservation of our property."

16 things free agents must learn (3:11):

1 That God must be respected and obeyed in all things (Eph. 3:9-11)
2 That His laws are final and just (Ps. 119:89; Isa. 55:11; 2 Tim. 3:16-17)
3 That sin does not pay (Gal. 6:7-8)
4 That sin will never be excused (Gen. 2:17; Ezek. 18:4; Rom. 6:23)
5 That sin will be forgiven if terms are met (2 Cor. 7:10; 1 Jn. 1:9)
6 That God's form of government is the only right one (Isa. 9:6-7; Rev. 20)
7 That a loving and free submission to God is the highest and most noble principle of moral government (Mt. 22:37; Jn. 3:16; Rev. 22:17; Eph. 3:10)
8 That justice and righteousness must prevail, if any society is to be eternally preserved in the universe (Eph. 1:4-12; 2:7; 3:9-11; Rev. 11:15-18; 1 Cor. 15:24-28)
9 That consecration to the highest good of all is the nature and highest glory of the creature (Eph. 1:4-12; Rev. 4:11; 5:11-14; Col. 1:15-18)
10 That God is merciful and forgiving to rebels who will be penitent, and who learn obedience through their fall and redemption (Rom. 1:5, 16; 3:24-26; 16:26; Eph. 2:4-10; Tit. 2:11-14; 3:5-6)
11 That God is the only absolutely just and perfect Being, and the only one capable and worthy of unquestionable authority (Isa. 57:13; Rev. 4:8; 6:10; 15:4)
12 That all the accusations of present rebels against God are untrue (Ezek. 28:16; Eph. 6:16; Rev. 12:10)
13 That God does only those things which are for the best good of creation (Mt. 7:7-11; Eph. 2:7; Rev. 4:11)
14 That He should, by virtue of His own Being and position of Creator, Preserver, Governor, and Lordship, and His own history of justice and righteousness in all of His dealings, be recognized by all as the Supreme Moral Governor of the Universe (1 Cor. 11:3; 15:24-28; Eph. 2:9-11; Col. 1:15-18; Rev. 4:11)
15 That those who rebel will be punished forever as an everlasting monument of God's wrath on sin and as examples of justice to all coming generations in all eternity (Isa. 66:22-24; Rev. 14:9-11; Mt. 25:41, 46; Mk. 9:43-48)
16 That all the redeemed and obedient will become eternal heirs of God and kings and priests under Him to help administer the affairs of the universe forever (Dan. 7:18, 27; Rom. 8:17; 1 Cor. 6:2-3; Eph. 2:7; 3:9-11; 2 Tim. 2:12; Rev. 1:6; 5:10; 22:4-5)

Glorious church (Eph. 5:27)

Gr. endoxos. Here: Lk. 7:25; 13:17; 1 Cor. 4:10. The church is now glorious because of the glorious gospel (2 Cor. 4:4; 1 Tim. 1:11), the glorious covenant (2 Cor. 3:6-11), the glorious power of God working in it (Col. 1:11) to make it pure, holy, spotless, and without blemish (v 27). It will be presented to Christ a glorious church (v 27) because of the glorious liberty of all children of God (Rom. 8:21), and the glorious bodies that saints will receive (Phil. 3:21)

5 kinds of ministers: (Eph. 4:11)

1 Apostles (note a, Acts 15:33)
2 Prophets (note i, Acts 11:27)
3 Evangelists. Gr. euangelistes, a bringer of glad tidings. Used only here; Acts 21:8; 2 Tim. 4:5

The Heb. ra'ah, to tend a flock is trans. pastor 8 times (Jer. 2:8; 3:15; 10:21; 12:10; 17:16; 22:22; 23:1-2) and shepherd 63 times. God, Christ, and men are called shepherds (Ps. 23:1; 80:1; Ezek. 34:1-23; Zech. 13:7; Heb. 13:20; 1 Pet. 2:25; Eph. 4:11)

16 Witnesses (Acts 1:8; 5:32; 26:16)

4 Unify men in the faith (v 13)
5 Unify men in doctrine (v 13)
6 Perfect the church in Christ (v13)
7 Bring men to maturity in Christ (v 13)

Many seek to find out how many imperfections, failures, and carnal traits are allowable in religion, but few seek to bring Christians to the height of the gospel standard and to the unlimitations of the promises of God. The measure of the stature of the fulness is seldom mentioned much less demonstrated, while the stature of littleness, emptiness, and powerlessness of Christianity is often emphasized and demonstrated

Note: Christ is the Head, Saviour, Sanctifier, Purifier, Glorifier, Builder, Nourisher, Cherisher, Unifier, Protector, and the Receiver of the Church (v 23-30)

9 fold former state of Gentiles: (Eph. 4:17)

1 Vain in mind (v 17. Cp. 2:11)
2 Dark in understanding (v 18; 2:12)
3 Alien to God's life (v 18; 2:12)
4 Ignorant of God (v 18; 2:12)
5 Blind in heart (v 18; 2 Cor. 4:4)
6 Past feeling (v 19; 2:12)
7 Lustful (v 19; Gal. 5:19, note)
8 Unclean (homosexual, v 19; Gal. 5:19)
9 Greedy (v 19; 5:3; 1 Cor. 6:10)
The Gr. for work is ergasia, meaning regular occupation, craft for gain and shows they gave themselves to these sins

4 kinds of spirit rebels: (Eph. 6:12)

1 Gr. archas, principalities, chief rulers or beings of the highest rank and order in Satan's kingdom (v 12; 1:21; Col. 2:10)
2 Gr. exousias, authorities, those who derive their power from and execute the will of the chief rulers (v 12; 1:21; Col. 2:10)
3 Gr. kosmokratopas, world-rulers of the darkness of this age, the spirit world-rulers (Dan. 10:13-21; Eph. 1:21; 6:12; Col. 1:16-18)
4 Gr. pneumatika ponerias, spiritual wickedness, that of the wicked spirits of Satan in the heavenlies (v 12; 1:21; Col. 1:16-18)

Christ-church illustrated (Eph. 5:31)

Gr. proskollao, glue on to; cemented to. Here: Mt. 19:5; Mk. 10:7; Acts 5:36. Paul does not teach here that the church is the wife, a woman, or the bride of Christ. Nor does he teach that Christ is the husband. He simply compares the relationship of Christ and His body to that of a man and his wife. The feminine pronouns refer to wives, not to the church. The church is compared to a man, not a woman (notes, 2:15; 4:13; 2 Th. 2:7; Rev. 21:9-10)

18-fold life of saints: (Eph. 4:20)

1 Learn Christ (v 20; Mt. 11:28-30)
2 Hear and be taught by Christ (v 21)
3 Put off the old man (v 22; 2 Cor. 5:17, note f)

12 Use the tongue right (v 29)
13 Grieve not the Holy Spirit (v 30)
14 Put away bitterness, wrath, anger, clamour, evil speaking, and malice (v 31)
15 Be kind, tender-hearted, and forgiving as Christ (v 32)
16 Be followers of God (5:1)
17 Walk in love, as Christ did (5:2)
18 Let not fornication, homosexuality, covetousness, filthiness, foolish talking, and sex lust jesting be once named among you as becometh saints (5:3-4. Cp. Mk. 7:19-21; Rom. 1:18-32; 1 Cor. 6:9-11; Gal. 5:19-21; Col. 3:5-10)

Fiery darts (Eph. 6:16)

Gr. belos, dart, or any missile thrown, as the javelin, spear, arrow, or stone from a sling. The fiery darts perhaps refer to the combustible arrowheads that set fire to the fortifications, ships, houses, and even the shields of the enemy made of wood and leather. They were called falarica. To quench these fiery darts shields were covered with metal. As applied to Christian warfare they refer to evil thoughts, lusts, passions, and temptations of various kinds (1 Cor. 10:13-14; 2 Cor. 10:4-6; Jas. 1:13-15; Rom. 6:12; 1 Jn. 2:15-17)

8 Slew the enmity between Jews and Gentiles (v 15-16)
9 Preached peace to ... men (v 17)
10 Made access to God for all (v 18)

6 things prayed for Ephesians (3:16)

1 Spiritual power in the inner man (v 16)
2 Indwelling Christ (v 16; Lk. 22:3, note)
3 To be rooted in love (v 17)
4 Spiritual understanding (v 18)
5 To know the love of Christ (v 19)
6 To be filled with all the fulness of God (v 19. Cp. 6 things prayed for, 1:17)

The mystery of Christ (3:6)

That God was to save Gentiles was no mystery, for Adam's whole race was to be restored to original dominion (Gen. 3:15). Abraham (who was a Gentile) was to have a seed to bless all nations (Gen. 12:1-3; Gal. 3:8). The prophets predicted their salvation (Rom. 9:24-33; 10:19-21). The great mystery hid in God in all past ages was that of making Jews and Gentiles one new body - the church, which is His body (1:22-23; 3:1-11; 4:11-16; 5:23-33; Col. 1:18, 24), formed by the Holy Spirit (1 Cor. 12:12-13, 27-31), and in which all distinction of privilege and blessing disappears (2:14-15; 1 Cor. 12:13; Gal. 3:27-28; Col. 1:18-29; 3:10-11; Heb. 11:10-16; 13:14; Rev. 21:9-10). In Paul's writings alone do we find the doctrine, position, unity, walk, and destiny of the church (Rom. 12; 1 Cor. 12; Eph. 2, 3, 4, 5; Col. 1)

The whole family of God (3:15)

The word family applies to all the free moral off-spring of God - whether by direct creation, begetting, or adoption - past, present, and future. It includes all principalities, powers, and dominions, both earthly and heavenly, human and angelic, flesh and spirit, and unfallen and fallen redeemed (1:21-23; 3:10; 1 Pet. 3:22). To limit the family to the church, as many do, and to interpret the passage in connection with N. T. Christians is unscriptural

In the spirit world there are cherubim, seraphim, archangels, common angels, redeemed human spirits (Heb. 12:23), and living creatures of various kinds. See p. 632. In the flesh world there are Jews and Gentiles, some in heaven and some in earth who, with the spirit beings and the spirits of redeemed men in heaven, make up the whole family of God in heaven and in earth

i Gr. peitho. Trans. persuade 22 times; trust 10 times; obey 7 times; confidence 9 times; and assure, believe, agree, yield, and make one's friend each 1 time. The idea here is being confident that there will be nothing lacking on God's part in performing the work He has started in them until the final work of grace is performed in them. This confidence in God is based upon meeting conditions. See 35 conditions of assurance, p. 237 j 1st N. T. prophecy in Phil. (1:6, unfulfilled). Next, 2:16. This proves that part of this good work will be done in the day of Jesus Christ (note s, 1 Cor. 1:8). At least the redemption of the body will be accomplished in the day of the Lord Jesus Christ (3:21; Rom. 8:17-24; 1 Pet. 1:5-13) k Gr. dikaios, righteous, just l Interpenetration (note n, Lk. 22:3)

u Gr. diaphero, differ. We are to test all things and disapprove those that differ from the gospel (1 Th. 5:22) v Gr. eilikrineis, pure, uncorrupted. The word means without wax, an allusion to finishing cloth with gummy materials hiding flaws until carefully examined by looking through it in sunlight. The Gr. might be trans. sunlight. Only here; 2 Pet. 3:1. Cp. 1 Cor. 5:8
w Gr. aproskopos, not striking against; not stumbling; void of offense to God or man; neither stumbling nor causing others to stumble (v 10; Acts 24:16; 1 Cor. 10:32; 1 Pet. 1:17)

4 If any bowels and mercies. Gr. oiktirmos (note s, Rom. 12:1). The Gr. for bowels is splagchna (note d, 2 Cor. 6:12)

CHAPTER 1 175

I The introduction: 1 Authorship and salutation

PAUL and Ti-mō'the-ŭs, the [b]servants of Jē'sus Christ, to all the [c]saints in Christ Jē'sus which are at Phil-lĭp'pi, with [d]the bishops and [e]deacons:

2 Grace be unto you, and peace, [f]from God our Father, and from the Lord Jē'sus Christ.

2 Thanksgiving and prayer

3 I thank my God upon every remembrance of you,

4 Always in every [g]prayer of mine for you all making request with joy,

5 For your [h]fellowship in the gospel from the first day until now;

3 Confidence in God for them

*6 Being [i]confident of this very thing, that he which hath begun a good work in you will perform it [j]until the day of Jē'sus Christ:◂

7 Even as it is [k]meet for me to think this of you all, because [l]I have you in my heart; inasmuch as both in my bonds, and in [m]the defence and [n]confirmation of the gospel, ye all are [o]partakers of my [p]grace.

4 Fourfold prayer for blessing

8 For God is my [q]record, how greatly I long after you all in the [r]bowels of Jē'sus Christ.

9 And this I pray, [s]that your love may abound yet more and more in knowledge and in [t]all judgment;

10 That ye may approve things that are [u]excellent; that ye may be [v]sincere and [w]without offence till [x]the day of Christ;

11 Being filled with the [y]fruits of righteousness, which are by Jē'sus Christ, unto the glory and praise of God.

II Christian triumph in suffering (Phil. 1:12-30; Mt. 26:36; 1 Cor. 4:9; 2 Cor. 4:8; 6:3; 11:23; Rom. 8:35-39; Heb. 11:33-40). 1 Result of suffering for the gospel

12 But I would ye should understand, brethren, that [z]the things which happened unto me have fallen out rather unto the furtherance of the gospel;

13 So that my bonds in Christ are manifest in all the [a]palace, and in all other places;

14 And many of the brethren in the Lord, waxing confident by my bonds, are much more bold to speak the word without fear.

15 Some indeed preach Christ even of envy and strife; and some also of good will:

16 The one preach Christ of contention, not sincerely, supposing to add [b]affliction to my bonds:

17 But the other of love, knowing that I am set for the defence of the gospel.

18 [c]What then? notwithstanding, every way, whether in [d]pretence, or in truth, Christ is preached; and I therein do rejoice, yea, and will rejoice.

19 For I know that this shall turn to my [e]salvation through your prayer, and the supply of the Spirit of Jē'sus Christ,

2 Christian consecration in life or in death

20 According to my [f]earnest expectation and my hope, that in nothing I shall be ashamed, but that with all boldness, as always, so now also Christ shall be magnified in my body, whether it be by life, or by death.

21 [g]For to me to live is Christ, and to die is gain.

22 But if I live in the flesh, this is the fruit of my labour: yet what I shall choose [h]I wot not.

23 For [i]I am in a strait [j]betwixt two, having a desire [k]to depart, and to be with Christ; which is far better:

24 Nevertheless to abide in the flesh is more needful for you.

3 Confidence in his being set free to continue his ministry

25 [l]And having this confidence, I know that I shall abide and continue with you all for your furtherance and joy of faith;

26 That your rejoicing may be more abundant in Jē'sus Christ for me by my coming to you again.

4 Exhortation to stand true in suffering for Christ

•27 Only let your [m]conversation be as it becometh the gospel of Christ: that whether I come and see you, or else be absent, I may hear of your affairs, [n]that ye stand fast in one spirit, with one mind [o]striving together for the faith of the gospel;

28 And in nothing terrified by your [p]adversaries: which is to them an evident token of [q]perdition, but to you of [r]salvation, and that of God.

29 For unto you it is given in the behalf of Christ, not only to believe on him, but also to suffer for his sake;

30 Having the same [s]conflict which ye [t]saw in me, and now hear to be in me.

CHAPTER 2 176

III Christian living: four examples of the Christian life. 1 An appeal for Christian living

IF there be therefore any consolation in Christ, if any comfort of love, if any fellowship of the Spirit, if any bowels

a See note h, 2 Cor. 1:4
b Question 1. Only one in Philippians. It matters not to me how Christ is preached, provided He is preached c See note n, Jn. 15:22 d Gr. soteria, deliverance. This refers to his temporal safety and freedom from chains and imprisonment. This he expected through their prayer and the continued supply of the Holy Spirit (v 19)
e He had the utmost confidence in God that he would be upheld by grace in all his trials. Personally, he was ready for either life or death, provid.* g Christ would be magnified in the outcome (v 20)
f Here he expresses perfect resignation to whatever he had to face (v 21-24)
g Gr. gnorizo, I declare not. Trans. make known 16 times; declare 3 times; certify (Gal. 1:11); give to understand (1 Cor. 12:3); and do to wit (2 Cor. 8:1) h Gr. sunecho, am being pressed. I am under pressure between two desires, that of living and of dying i Gr. ek, of, out of, from, with. Out of 857 times used it is only trans. betwixt here; and between (Jn. 3:25) j 7 outstanding facts (v 21-24):
1 To live means gain to Christ (v 21)
2 To die is personal gain (v 21). Could there be any gain for man or God if one went into extinction of being, unconsciousness, or soul sleep? If so, what gain?
3 To live in the flesh is to continue fruit-bearing (v 22). This proves that one dwells in a body. If he leaves the body and is no longer in the flesh where is he? Does he become extinct just because he moves out of the body?
4 Having a desire to depart (v 23). This confirms the fact of the departure of one at death. Do men go into nothingness at death? If so, then why desire to depart?
5 To be with Christ (v 23). Where is Christ? Is He extinct? Dormant? Unconscious in the grave? One thing is certain wherever He is there the believer will be also at death (v 23; 2 Cor. 5:8)
6 Far better (v 23). What is far better? Would extinction of being, unconsciousness in the grave, going back to dust again, and going into nothingness be better than to live in the body and continue winning souls for Christ?
7 To abide in the flesh is more needful for the church than to die (v 24). This explains what departure from the body means - that at death the body dies and the inner man leaves the body to go to heaven, if one is a Christian, or to hell if one is unsaved. The body without the spirit is dead (Jas. 2:26); to be absent from the body is to be present with the Lord (2 Cor. 5:8); to depart is to be with Christ (Phil. 2:23) and be in heaven with the spirits of just men made perfect (Heb. 12:22-23; Eph. 4:8-10, note; 1 Pet. 3:4, note; Rev. 6:9-11, note; 270, 421)
k Here again Paul expresses confidence of his release (v 19, 25-26). He was released after 2 years (Acts 28:30) l Gr. politeuo, to exercise citizenship; behave like citizens. Trans. live in Acts 23:1. Only in these two passages, but politeuma is used of citizenship in Phil. 3:20. The gospel regulates the lives of heavenly citizens (v 27)
m Points 8-11, 35 conditions, p. 237 n Gr. sunathleo, wrestling together, not in contention with, or against one another to build up human organizations which oppose each other in the gospel, but in union against the enemies of the gospel. Only here and 4:3
o From this it appears the church was going through persecution p See Perdition, p. 218
q Gr. soteria. Here and in 2:12 it refers to salvation of the soul. In v 19 it refers to Paul's deliverance from prison r Gr. agon, a contest for a prize; a struggle; battle (note d, 3, Heb. 12:1) s See Acts 16:19-40 for his trial here t 4 questions to consider (v 1):

and mercies,
●2[d] Fulfil ye my joy, that ye be likeminded, having the [c]same love, being of one accord, of one mind.
●3[d] Let nothing be done through strife or vainglory; [e]but in lowliness of mind let each esteem other better than themselves.
●4[f] Look not every man on his own things, but every man also on the things of others.

2 Example of Christ: (1) Sevenfold self-humbling

●5[g] Let this mind be in you, which was also in Christ Je'sus:
6[h] Who, [i]being in the [j]form of God, thought it not robbery to be equal with God:
7 But [k]made himself of no reputation, and took upon him the form of a servant, and was made in the likeness of men:
8 And being found in fashion as a man, he[l] humbled himself, and became obedient unto death, even the death of the cross.

(2) Sevenfold exaltation

9 Wherefore God also [m]hath highly exalted him, and given him a name which is above every name:
★10[m] That at the name of Je'sus every knee should bow, [o]of things in heaven, and things in earth, and things under the earth;
11 And that every tongue should confess that Je'sus Christ is Lord, to the glory of God the Father.

3 Outworking of salvation

●12 Wherefore, my beloved, as ye have always [p]obeyed, not as in my presence only, but now much more in my absence, work out your own salvation with[q] fear and trembling.
13 For it is God which [r]worketh in you both to will and to do of his good pleasure.
●14 Do all things without murmurings and disputings:
15[s] That ye may be blameless and harmless, the sons of God, without rebuke, in the midst of a crooked and perverse nation, among whom ye shine as lights in the world;
●16 Holding forth the word of life; that I may rejoice in the day of Christ, that I have not run in vain, neither laboured in vain.

4 Example of Paul: consecration to death (1:20-24; 2 Tim. 4:6)

17 Yea, and if I be offered upon the sacrifice and service of your faith, I joy, and rejoice with you all.
18 For the same cause also do ye joy, and rejoice with me.

5 Example of Timothy: unselfish and obedient to the gospel

19 But I trust in the Lord Je'sus to send Ti-mō'the-ŭs shortly unto you, that I also may be of good comfort, when I know your state.
20 For I have no man likeminded, who will naturally care for your state.
21 For all seek their own, not the things which are Je'sus Christ's.
22 But ye[a] know the proof of him, that, as a son[b] with the father, he hath served with me in the gospel.
23 Him therefore I hope to send presently, so soon as I shall see [c]how it will go with me.
24 But I trust in the Lord that I also myself shall come shortly.

6 Example of Epaphroditus: self-sacrificing and overworked

25 Yet I supposed it necessary to send to you Ĕ-păph-ro-dī'tus, my brother, and companion in labour, and[d] fellowsoldier, but your messenger, and he that ministered to my wants.
26 For he longed after you all, and was [e]full of heaviness, because that ye had heard that he had been [f]sick.
27 For indeed he was sick nigh unto death: [g]but God had mercy on him; and not on him only, but on me also, lest I should have sorrow upon sorrow.
28 I sent him therefore the more carefully, that, when ye see him again, ye may rejoice, and that I may be the less sorrowful.
29 Receive him therefore in the Lord with all gladness; and hold such in reputation:
30 [h]Because for the work of Christ he was nigh unto death, not regarding his life, to supply your lack of service toward me.

177 CHAPTER 3

IV Goal of the Christian life.
1 Warning against Judaizers

●FINALLY, my brethren, [i]rejoice in the Lord. [j]To write the same things to you, to me indeed is not grievous, but for you it is safe.
●2 Beware of [k]dogs, beware of evil workers, beware of the concision.

2 Put no confidence in flesh

3 [l]For we are the circumcision, which worship God in the spirit, and rejoice in Christ Je'sus, and have no confidence in the flesh.
4 Though I might also have confidence in the flesh. If any other man thinketh that he hath whereof he might trust in the flesh, I more:

c He was confident of being liberated (v 24; 1:19, 25-26)
d 7 facts regarding Epaphroditus:
1 A brother in Christ (v 25)
2 Companion in labour (Gr. sunergos, fellowlabourer, as in 4:3)
3 Fellowsoldier (Gr. sustratiotes. Only here and Ph'm 2)
4 Your messenger (Gr. apostolos, apostle, note a, Acts 15:33)
5 Minister (Gr. leitourgos, public servant, note k, Rom. 13:6, Cp. 4:18)
6 Had a physical breakdown because of overwork (v 26-30)
7 Was healed (v 27-29)
e Gr. ademoneo, heavily burdened. Only here: Mt. 26:37; Mk. 14:33
f He had been sick. This proves that at the time of the writing of this epistle he was well again. For the work of the Lord he had been nigh unto death (v 30). How could the work of God make him sick if not by overwork and improper rest? In such case, it would be a physical breakdown rather than some disease. The Gr. word for sick is astheneo, to be weak or feeble in any sense. It is used 15 times of:
1 Weak faith (Rom. 4:19; 14:1, 2, 21; 1 Cor. 8:9-12, Cp. note l, 2 Cor. 12:10; note j, 2 Cor. 13:4)
2 Weak law (Rom. 8:3)
3 Weak (poor) people (Acts 20:35)
4 Weak in boldness and power (2 Cor. 11:21, 29; 12:10; 13:3, 4, 9)
It is used 17 times of physical sickness and 3 times of physical breakdowns because of overwork (Phil. 2:26-27; 1 Tim. 4:20, note). Thus to conclude that the cases of Epaphroditus (here) and Trophimus (2 Tim. 4:20) prove that Paul and the apostles had lost their power to heal, or that it was only occasionally that they had such power is concluding too much Paul did have power to do special miracles (Acts 19:11-12). He had the fulness of the blessing of the gospel of Christ (Rom. 15:18-19, 29). He even had power to impart gifts to others (Acts 19:1-7; Rom. 1:11; 1 Tim. 4:14; 2 Tim. 1:6)
Gifts are not given so that bodies may be abused by overwork. They are not to enable man to work beyond what is sensible and best for the body
g This proves that God did miraculously restore the man and save him from death. Prayer will do wonders even in a physical breakdown, but it will never sustain a body that is not properly taken care of by rest and nourishment.
h This was the cause of his physical trouble - overwork (v 30). In such a case as this, and no doubt that of Trophimus, it was best to let them recuperate before going back into the work i Let your happiness be in the Lord
j He writes the same doctrines that he had preached and written to others k Jews are called 3 things here:
1 Dogs, the very things they called others (Mt. 15:26-27)
2 Evil workers, Judaizing teachers
3 The circumcision, cutting-flesh party. Gr. katatome. Only here, but the verb katatemno occurs in the Sept. of heathen mutilations (Lev. 21:5; 1 Ki. 18:28). Paul regards circumcision as no better than heathen practices l 4 points about Christians here (v 3):
1 The true circumcision (Rom. 2:29)
2 Worshippers in spirit (Jn. 4:24)
3 Rejoice in Christ (3:1; 4:4; 1 Pet. 1) a Make my joy complete (accomplished by doing the 12 things of v 2-16, listed in 35 conditions of assurance, p. 237)

b Gr. phroneo, united in mind and thought. Trans. think (Acts 28:22; Rom. 12:3; 1 Cor. 4:6; 13:11; Phil. 1:7); be minded (Gal. 5:10; Phil. 3:15); likeminded and same mind (Rom. 8:5; 12:16; 15:5; 2 Cor. 13:11; Phil. 2:2, 5, 3:16, 19; 4:2); savor (Mt. 16:23; Mk. 8:33); regard (Rom. 14:6); set one's affection on (Col. 3:2); be careful and care (Phil. 4:10) c Love in the same degree and be in agreement in all things for the Master d Never oppose each other by acting for personal gain or from vanity e Have a humbling view of yourselves, knowing your own secret faults and true self f Do not be selfish glorying in your own gifts and graces. Be just as interested in the blessings of others and rejoice to see them blessed (v 4)
g Let the mind of self-emptying be in you which was in Christ (note k, 2:7)
h 7 steps in His humiliation:
1 Consecrated to humble Himself (v 5)
2 Laid aside His divine form (v 6)
3 Made Himself of no reputation (v 7)
4 Took the form of a servant (v 7)
5 Was made in likeness of men (v 7)
6 Humbled Himself (v 8)
7 Became obedient unto death (v 8)
i Gr. huparcho, though existing: subsisting. He existed as God from all eternity (Isa. 7:14; 9:6-7; Mic. 5:2; Jn. 1:1-2; Heb. 1:8; Rev. 1:8-11)
j Gr. morphe, the outward form that strikes the vision; the external appearance. Here: v 7; Mk. 16:12. The passage should read, "who, subsisting in the form of God (by which He from eternity had appeared to the inhabitants of heaven), yet not thinking that this equality with God should be clung to or retained, He emptied Himself of it, so as to assume the form of a servant and become like man" (v 6-7)
k See The "kenosis" of Christ, p. 218
l Christ humbled Himself from the divine form to human form, and from sinless humanity to sinful and corrupt infamy - even the death of the cross bearing the sins of all men (v 8; 1 Pet. 2:24)
m 7 steps in His exaltation (v 9-11):
1 God highly exalted Him (v 9; Eph. 1:21)
2 Gave Him a name above all (v 9)
3 At His name every knee must bow (v 10)
4 Every thing in heaven (v 10)
5 Every thing in earth (v 10)
6 Every thing under the earth (v 10)
7 Every tongue confess His Lordship to the glory of God the Father (v 11)

o 3 worlds that are inhabited:
1 Heaven (v 10; Job 1:6; 2:1; Dan. 4:35; Col. 1:15-18; Rev. 12:12; 13:6)
2 Earth (v 10; Col. 1:16; Rev. 12:12)
3 Underworld. Gr. katachthonios, under the earth; subterranean; infernal world (v 10; Ps. 16:10 with Mt. 12:40 and Eph. 4:8-10). This includes the angelic inhabitants in tartarus (2 Pet. 2:4; Jude 6-7; 1 Pet. 3:19); the pre-Adamites and demon inhabitants of the abyss (Lk. 8:31; Rev. 9:1-21; 20:3, 7); the giant races that have no resurrection (Gen. 2:4, note; Isa. 26:14, note); the human inhabitants of sheol-hades (Ps. 9:17; 16:10; 71:20; Pr. 9:18; 15:24; Isa. 14:9; Ezek. 31:14-18; 32:18-27; Lk. 16:19-31; Rev. 20:11-15); and all other inhabitants of the infernal world (Phil. 2:10; Rev. 5:13). This proves that hell is not the grave p This is true working out your own salvation until it is completed (Rom. 6:22; 8:23; Phil. 3:21; 1 Pet. 1:5-13)
q Why fear and trembling if there is no possibility of a fall and a failure (v 12; 1 Cor. 9:27; 10:12-14; Heb. 6:4-9; 10:26-39; 2 Pet. 2:20-22)?
r Suppose one will not obey in working out His own salvation, will God continue to work when man refuses to permit Him? Man's power to will and to do as he pleases should not be puzzling. Such power comes from God but the use of it lies with man. One who will not use this power to work out His salvation, will be held responsible. All men possess the power but all do not use it (Jn.

e Gr. zemia, loss as applied to trade, especially the voluntary loss incurred by casting wares overboard to lighten a sinking ship (here: v 8; Acts 27:10, 21)

h Gr. kerdaino, Trans. win (v 8); won (1 Pet. 3:1); and gain (Mt. 16:26; 18:15; 25:17, 20, 22; Mk. 8:36; Lk. 9:25; Acts 27:21; 1 Cor. 9:19-22)

j Man's righteousness is not enough (Isa. 64:6; Lk. 18:9-14; Rom. 10:1-13)

k God's righteousness comes through Christ (1 Cor. 1:30) and by faith (Gen. 15:6; Rom. 3:22-26; 4:1-25; 9:30-31; 10:1-13)
l This is life eternal (Jn. 17:3) m He longed for the resurrection of the body (v 11, 21; 1 Cor. 15; 2 Cor. 5) n Not fellowship with Him in His vicarious sufferings, but in the offence of the cross and martyrdom for truth (2 Cor. 1:5-7; Col. 1:24; 1 Pet. 4:13)
o Gr. summorphoo, to be formed or fashioned like. Only here. Paul wanted to know Christ and the power which was in His resurrection, and to share in His sufferings, even to die as He died (v 10) p Gr. ek nekron, out-resurrection, or the resurrection from out among the dead. 3rd N. T. prophecy in Phil. (3:11, unfulfilled). Next, v 21. This means that some of the dead will be resurrected from among the rest of the dead. It refers to the resurrection of the righteous from among the wicked dead (Lk. 20:35; 21:36; 1 Cor. 15:23, 51-54; Phil. 3:21; 1 Th. 4:13-17; Rev. 20:4-6)
q 2 things Paul had not yet attained:
1 The out-resurrection or the prize (v 11-12, 14). This is another way of saying he had not finished his course and was not yet glorified (v 20-21)
2 Perfection. Gr. teleioo, to make a full end; consummate (v 12). Trans. perfect (v 12; Lk. 13:32; Jn. 17:23; 2 Cor. 12:9; Heb. 2:10; 5:9; 7:19; 9:9; 10:1, 14; 11:40; 12:23; Jas. 2:22; 1 Jn. 2:5; 4:12, 17-18); fulfill (Lk. 2:43; Jn. 19:28); and finish (Jn. 4:34; 5:36; 17:4; Acts 20:24). This kind of perfection refers to the complete and glorified state. It does not imply that he was lacking in spiritual experience; that he was deficient in grace; that the body of sin was still cleaving to him; that he was yet struggling with an "old man" in him; that he was not yet sanctified
r Gr. dioko, to pursue. Same as persecuting in v 6 and press in v 14. Trans. elsewhere persecute 30 times (Mt. 5:10-12, 44; 10:23; etc.); follow after (v 12; Rom. 11:30-31; 14:19; 1 Cor. 14:1; 1 Tim. 6:11); ensue (1 Pet. 3:11); follow (Lk. 17:23; 1 Th. 5:15; 2 Tim. 2:22; Heb. 12:14); and given to (Rom. 12:13). The idea here is, I follow after and press toward the prize others have already gained (v 12-14)
s Gr. katalambano, to seize upon; lay hold of; take possession of; bring to an end. Trans. apprehend (v 12-13); overtake (1 Th. 5:4); take (Mk. 9:18; Jn. 8:3); attain to (Rom. 9:30); obtain (1 Cor. 9:24); come upon (Jn. 12:35); comprehend (Jn. 1:5; Eph. 3:18); perceive (Acts 4:13; 10:34); and find (Acts 25:25). (4) To attain to the out-resurrection from among the dead (Rev. 20:4-6; 1 Th. 4:16; 1 Cor. 15:23, 51-58)

★11 If by any means I might attain unto the n resurrection of the dead.
12 Not as though I had already attained, o either were already perfect: but I p follow after, if that I may q apprehend that for which also I am apprehended of Christ Jĕ'sus.

(6) To walk in unity (1 Cor. 1:10; Eph. 4:1-16; 1 Pet. 3:8-13)

●15 Let us therefore, as many as be v perfect, be thus minded: and if in any thing ye be otherwise minded, God shall reveal even this unto you.

(8) To be glorified with Christ (Col. 3:4; 1 Cor. 15:23, 51-58; Rom. 8:17)

▶20 For our a conversation is in heaven; from whence also b we look for the Saviour, the Lord Jĕ'sus Christ:

V Exhortations to believers. 1 To stand fast in the Lord (1 Cor. 16:13; Gal. 5:1; 1 Thess. 3:8)

THEREFORE, my brethren dearly beloved and longed for, g my joy and crown, so stand fast in the Lord, my dearly beloved.

2 To unity and joy in Christ (1 Cor. 1:10; Eph. 4:1-3)

2 I beseech h Eū-ō'dĭ-as, and beseech Sȳn'tȳ-chē, that they be of the same mind in the Lord.
3 And I intreat thee also, true i yokefellow, help those k women which l laboured with me in the gospel, with m Clĕm'ĕnt also, and with other my n fellowlabourers, whose names are in the o book of life.
●4 Rejoice in the Lord alway: and again I say, Rejoice.

3 To manifest temperance and freedom from anxiety (Mt. 6:25-34; Gal. 5:22-23)

●5 Let your p moderation be known unto all men. q The Lord is at hand.
●6 r Be careful for nothing; but in every thing by prayer and supplication with thanksgiving let your s requests be made known unto God.
▶7 And the peace of God, which passeth all understanding, t shall keep your hearts and minds through Christ Jĕ'sus.

4 To live in Christian virtues (Gal. 5:22-23; 2 Pet. 1:5-11)

●8 Finally, brethren, whatsoever things are true, whatsoever things are honest, whatsoever things are just, whatsoever things are pure, whatsoever things are lovely, whatsoever things are of good report; if there be any virtue, and if there be any praise, u think on these a Gr. summimetes, fellow-imitators. Only here, but the idea is the same as in note p, Eph. 5:1; note p, 1 Cor. 4:16 b Gr. skopos. Only here, but is the same in meaning as skopeo, note l, Rom. 16:17 c Gr. tupos. Trans. example (v 17; 1 Cor. 10:6, 11; 1 Th. 1:7; 2 Th. 3:9; 1 Tim. 4:12; 1 Pet. 5:3); pattern (Tit. 2:7; Heb. 8:5); manner (Acts 23:25); fashion (Acts 7:44); form (Rom. 6:17); figure (Acts 7:43; Rom. 5:14); and print (Jn. 20:25)

g 4th and last N. T. prophecy in Phil. (3:21). Gr. metaschematizo, transform; change the fashion of; re-fashion. Trans. transform (2 Cor. 11:13-15); transfer in a figure (1 Cor. 4:6); and change (Phil. 3:21)
h Gr. tapeinosis, body of humiliation. Trans. low estate (Lk. 1:48; Jas. 1:10); humiliation (Acts 8:33); and vile (Phil. 3:21). It refers to the low state of sin and shame which the body of man has degenerated into. Instead of it being deathless, immortal, glorious, and powerful as the ruler of all creation, including the sun, moon, and stars as originally planned (Gen. 1:26-31; Ps. 8:3-6), it is now vile, depraved, sinful, sickly, mortal, and subject to the lowest humiliation and eternal ruin (2 Cor. 4:16; Rom. 1:18-32; 6:19; Gen. 3:19)
i Gr. summorphos, like-shaped or conformed to. Used here and in Rom. 8:29. It has reference, not to exact outward features, but to substance of the body, which will be changed from mortality to immortality; from a natural body to a spiritual body; from corruption to incorruption; and from weakness and humiliation to glory and power (v 21; 1 Cor. 15:35-58). It will be flesh and bone like Christ's body of glory (v 21; Lk. 24:39; Zech. 13:6)
j The power that made the body and all things originally will be the power that will make the resurrection bodies in a moment (1 Cor. 15:51) and subdue all things to God again (1 Cor. 15:24-28; Heb. 2:9-18)

v Gr. meden merimnate, be anxious about nothing. Trans. be careful (v 6; Lk. 10:41); have care (1 Cor. 7:32-34; 12:25; Phil. 2:20); and take thought (Mt. 6:25-34; 10:19; Lk. 12:11, 22-26). Do not tolerate anxiety or worry, for it will injure your own souls. God alone can help you and He will do it if you will pray about everything that happens and give thanks for everything (v 6; 1 Th. 5:18) things.

5 To follow apostolic example

●9 Those things, which ye have both learned, and received, and heard, and seen in me, do: and the [b]God of peace shall be with you. ◂

VI The Philippians' care for Paul in his sufferings.

1 Their past lack of care

10 But I rejoiced in the Lord greatly, that now [c]at the last your care of me hath flourished again; wherein ye were also careful, but ye lacked opportunity.

2 Paul's content in his state

11 Not that I speak in respect of want: [d]for I have learned, in whatsoever state I am, therewith to be content.

12 I know both how to be abased, and I know how to abound: every where and in all things I am instructed both to be full and to be hungry, both to abound and to suffer need.

13 I can do all things through Christ which strengtheneth me.

3 Commendation for their care

14 Notwithstanding ye have well done, that ye did communicate with my [e]affliction.

15 Now ye Phĭ-lĭp'pĭ-ans know also, that in the [c]beginning of the gospel, when I departed from Măç-e-dō'nĭ-á, no church [b]communicated with me as concerning giving and receiving, but ye only.

16 For even in [c]Thĕs-sa-lō-nĭ'cá ye sent once and again unto my necessity.

17 [d]Not because I desire a gift: but I desire fruit that may abound to [c]your account.

18 [f]But I have all, and abound: I am full, having received of Ĕ-pāph-ro-dī'tus the things which were sent from you, [g]an odour of [d]a sweet smell, a sacrifice acceptable, well-pleasing to God.

4 Promise of God's supply

▸19 [i]But my God shall supply all your need according to his riches in glory by Christ Jē'sus.

5 Conclusion and benediction

20 Now unto God and our Father be glory for ever and ever. Ā-mĕn'.

21 Salute every saint in Christ Jē'sus. The brethren which are with me greet you.

22 All the saints salute you, chiefly they that are [j]of Cæ'sar's household.

23 The grace of our Lord Jē'sus Christ be with you all. Ā-mĕn'.

a 4 things to practice and enjoy (v 9):
1 Things learned–Christian practices
2 Things received–Christian blessings
3 Things heard–Christian doctrines
4 Things seen–Christian miracles
Thus not only are Christians to meditate on certain things (note y, v 8), but they are to do certain things. Christianity is very practical. It is not a dead, dry, formal, human religion of rituals, outward form, and show, but a divine, living, vital, dynamic, liberating religion. One without power to deliver men from sin, sickness, poverty, and want, now and hereafter, is not of God (Mt. 7:7-11; 17:20; 21:22; Mk. 9:23; 11:22-24; 16:17-18; Jn. 14:12-15; 15:7, 16; 16:23-26; Heb. 11; Jas. 1)

b See God is called, p. 200

c For a time the Philippians ceased to help the apostle but now their care for him had come to life again. He apologizes for them as lacking in opportunity to help him (v 10). Paul was always thankful for help but he never made any demands upon his converts to support him. Here he does not speak of it to get from them, but to praise them for their help (v 11-19)

d 10 great lessons to learn (v 11-13):
1 To be content under all circumstances (v 11)
2 How to be abased (v 12)
3 How to abound (v 12)
4 In all places (v 12)
5 In all things (v 12)
6 To be full (v 12)
7 To be hungry (v 12)
8 To abound (v 12)
9 To suffer need (v 12)
10 That nothing is impossible through Jesus Christ (v 13; Mt. 17:20; Mk. 9:23; 11:22-24; Jn. 14:12-15; 15:7, 16)

e Gr. thlipsis, not a disease, as usually understood, but tribulation. Trans. tribulation 20 times; affliction in the sense of tribulation 18 times; burdened (2 Cor. 8:13); anguish (Jn. 16:21); persecution (Acts 11:19); and trouble (1 Cor. 7:28; 2 Cor. 1:4, 8). Not once is it used of physical sickness or disease (note h, 2 Cor. 1:4)

The "kenosis" of Christ (2:7)

Gr. kenoo, to empty out, drain. It is trans. make void (Rom. 4:14; 1 Cor. 9:15); make of none effect (1 Cor. 1:17); be in vain (2 Cor. 9:3); and make of no reputation or emptied Himself (Phil. 2:7)

Of what did Christ empty Himself?

It could not have been His divine nature, for He was God not only from all eternity (Mic. 5:1-2; Jn. 1:1-2; Heb. 1:8; Rev. 1:8-11), but God manifest in flesh during His life on earth (Isa. 7:14; 9:6-7; Mt. 1:18-25; Jn. 1:1-2, 14; 1 Tim. 3:16)

Christ emptied Himself of:

1 Equality with God (Phil. 2:6-7; Jn. 14:28; 1 Cor. 11:3)

2 God-form or God-body, the spirit body that He lived in from eternity, to take human-form (Phil. 2:6-8; 3:21; Mt. 1:18-25; Lk. 1:35; Jn. 1:14; Lk. 24:37-40; Zech. 13:6; Gal. 4:4; Rom. 8:3)

3 Immortality of body (1 Cor. 15:3; Ps. 16:10; 1 Pet. 2:24; 3:18)

4 The glory that He had with the Father before the world was (Jn. 12:23; 17:5; Mt. 16:27; Phil. 2:5-11)

5 His authority in heaven and in earth, which was given back to Him after the resurrection (Mt. 28:18; Phil. 2:9-11; Eph. 1:20-23; 1 Pet. 3:22)

6 His divine attributes and outward powers that He had with the Father from eternity. He had no power to do miracles until He received the Holy Spirit in all fulness (Jn. 2:11; 3:34; Isa. 11:1-2; 42:1-7; 61:1-2; Lk. 3:21-22; 4:16-21; Mt. 12:28; Acts 10:38). He could do nothing of Himself in all His earthly life. He attributed all His works, doctrines, powers, etc. to the Father through the anointing of the Holy Spirit (note r, Jn. 8:28). This is proved by the following facts in Scripture:

(1) He was limited to the status of a man (Phil. 2:6-8; Heb. 2:14-18; 5:8-9)

(2) He was God's agent using God's power of attorney (note r, Jn. 8:28; Acts 10:38)

(3) He was our example that we should walk in His steps (1 Pet. 2:21)

(4) The temptations prove that He was limited as a man so that He could overcome as a man and not as God (Heb. 4:14-16; 5:7-9)

(5) Isaiah (7:14-16) speaks of the Messiah being born without knowledge enough to know to refuse the evil and choose the good

(6) Isaiah (11:2; 53:1-12) speaks of the Messiah being limited as an ordinary baby, showing that God would give Him the spirit of wisdom, understanding, counsel, might, knowledge, and fear of the Lord. If He had these attributes as God from all eternity and did not lay them aside in becoming man when was this ever true of Him?

(7) Isaiah (50:4-11) predicted that the Messiah would be born without the tongue of the learned, without knowing how to speak a word in season to help any soul, and that He would be wakened day by day to increase in knowledge and wisdom

(8) Isaiah (42:1-7; 61:1-2) speaks of the Messiah receiving His power to manifest divine acts by the anointing of the Holy Spirit and not by retaining His own former natural attributes and powers. Is it necessary for God to be anointed with the Holy Spirit to do what He is naturally capable of doing? If it became necessary to anoint Jesus during His earthly life, then it proves He did not retain His former glory and attributes which He had from all eternity when He emptied Himself to become like men in all things (Phil. 2:6-8; Heb. 2:14-18; 5:8-9)

(9) History records that Christ was limited as a baby and grew in body, soul, and spirit (mind, 1 Cor. 2:11), grace, wisdom, stature, and favor with God and man (Lk. 2:40, 52). Even after His manhood, His full anointing and gifts of the Spirit He was still limited in knowledge (Mk. 13:32). He even learned obedience by the things He suffered (Heb. 4:14-16; 5:7-9)

(10) He did not claim the attributes of God, but only the anointing of the Spirit to do His works (note r, Jn. 8:28; Mt. 12:28; Lk. 4:16-21). Others stated this was the source of His power (Jn. 3:34; Acts 10:38). Most scriptures used in doctrine books proving that Christ had divine attributes on earth are statements true of Him since His glory has been restored and do not prove anything during His life on earth. All scriptures related to His earthly life can be explained as referring to the exercise of the gifts of the Spirit and not natural attributes

(11) The fact that Christ promised all believers power to do the works He did proves that it was through the anointing of the Spirit, not by His deity and natural attributes, that He did His works (Mt. 10:1-20; 16:18; 18:18; Lk. 10; 24:49; Mk. 16:15-20; Jn. 14:12-15; Acts 1:4-8)

(12) His exaltation to original glory and the highest place under God the Father is proof of His lowest humiliation and earthly limitation short of being God by nature (Phil. 2:9-11; Eph. 1:20-23; Col. 1:15-23; 1 Pet. 3:22).

Summary of Philippians

Date and place: Written from Rome about 64 A. D. The immediate occasion for writing is disclosed in 4:10-18

Author: Paul (see Summary of Romans and Paul in the Index)

Theme: The joy of Christian grace and experience in all of life and death. Paul, himself demonstrated the greatest joy in the greatest suffering and humiliation, starting the church (Acts 16). He mentions joy 14 times in the epistle. The key word is rejoice (3:1). Christians are to rejoice in fellowship with one another (1:3-11), in afflictions of the gospel (1:12-30); in the ministry for saints (2:1-18), in faithfulness of ministers (2:19-3:1); in the Lord and not in Judaism or in the flesh (3:1-21); in unity (4:1-3), and always in all things (4:4-23)

Statistics: 50th book of the Bible; 4 chapters; 104 verses; 2,002 words; 1 question; 96 verses of history; 5 verses of unfulfilled prophecy

a See Acts 16:12-40

b Gr. koinoneo (note q, Gal. 6:6)

c Paul supported himself partly by working while starting the Thessalonian church and partly through help from Philippi (v 16; 2 Th. 3:7-9)

d I do not say this to get a further gift from you, but to state facts, wanting you to bear fruit to be put to your account and rewarded in the day of Christ (v 17)

e A clear reference to each man as having an account in heaven (v 17; Ps. 144:3; Heb. 13:17; 1 Pet. 4:5). He is either storing up wrath by his deeds on record in heaven (Rom. 2:5) or he is storing up reward (Rom. 14:1-12; 1 Cor. 3:11-15; 2 Cor. 5:10; Gal. 3:6). Even every idle (useless) word men will give an account of (Mt. 12:36). Every cup of cold water given or refused and the minutest details of life as well as the major acts will be judged (Mt. 6:1-18; 10:41-42; 16:27; Lk. 6:23, 35; 1 Cor. 3:8-15; 9:17)

f You have sent me so much by Epaphroditus that I have all I need. Your gift is an odour of a sweet smell, a sacrifice acceptable, and well-pleasing to God (v 18. Cp. note r, Eph. 5:2)

g Gr. osme, odour (note k, 2 Cor. 2:14)

h Gr. euodia, sweet perfume (note l, 2 Cor. 2:15; note r, Eph. 5:2)

i A promise that is still true to those who are in Christ and who are faithful to God as the Philippians were (v 14-18)

j Nero was at this time emperor of Rome. A more cruel and worthless man never ruled the empire; yet among his own household there were a number of true Christians, who they were is not known. Josephus says that the Empress Poppaea was a worshipper of the true God (Ant. book 20, 7)

12 great practices of Paul (3:3-20):

1 To worship God in Spirit (v 3; Jn. 4:24)
2 Rejoice in Christ (v 1, 3; 4:4)
3 Have no confidence in flesh (v 3-8)
4 Count all things loss (v 7-8)
5 Count all things but dung (v 8)
6 Have no self-righteousness (v 9)
7 I follow after knowledge (v 8, 12)
8 I forget the past (v 13)
9 I reach out for future things (v 13)
10 I press toward the prize (v 14)
11 I strive to be an example (v 15-19)
12 I look for the Saviour (v 20)

12 great desires of Paul (3:8-21)

1 That I may win Christ (v 8)
2 Be found in Him (v 9)
3 Have His righteousness (v 9)
4 Know Him (v 10)
5 Know His power (v 10)

11 Be one with all other believers (v 12)
12 Be changed in body (v 21) 15-19)

COLOSSIANS

CHAPTER 1 179

I The introduction: 1 Authorship and salutation

PAUL, an [a]apostle of Jē'şus Christ by the will of God, and [b]Ti-mō'the-ŭs our brother,

2 To the [c]saints and faithful brethren in Christ which are [d]at Cŏ-lŏs'sē: Grace be unto you, and peace, [e]from God our Father and the Lord Jē'şus Christ.

2 Thanksgiving to God for the Colossian Christians

3 We give thanks to God and the Father of our Lord Jē'şus Christ, praying always for you,

4 [f]Since [g]we heard of your faith in Christ Jē'şus, and of the love which ye have to all the saints,

5 For the hope which is [h]laid up for you in heaven, whereof ye heard before in the word of the truth of the gospel;

6 [i]Which is come unto you, as it is in all the world; and bringeth forth fruit, as it doth also in you, since the day ye heard of it, and knew the grace of God in truth:

7 As ye also learned of [j]Ĕp'a-phrās our dear fellowservant, who is for you a faithful minister of Christ;

8 Who also declared unto us your love in the Spirit.

3 Sevenfold prayer for them: continual growth in grace

9 For this cause we also, since the day we heard it, do not cease to [k]pray for you, and to desire that ye might be filled with the knowledge of his will in all wisdom and spiritual understanding;

10 That ye might walk worthy of the Lord unto all pleasing, being fruitful in every good work, and increasing in the knowledge of God;

11 Strengthened with all might, according to his glorious power, unto all patience and longsuffering with joyfulness;

4 The twofold work of God

12 Giving thanks unto the Father, which hath [l]made us meet to be partakers of the inheritance of the saints in light:

13 Who hath delivered us from the power of darkness, and hath [m]translated us into the kingdom of his dear Son:

II The doctrine of Christ:
1 His redemptive work (v 20; 2:11-17; Eph. 1:3-14; 2:14-22; Heb. 1:1-12; 5:1 Jn. 5)

▶14 [n]In whom we have redemption through his blood, even the forgiveness of sins:

2 His bodily features (Heb. 1:3; Jas. 3:9)

15 Who is the [o]image of the invisible God, the [p]firstborn of every creature:

3 His creative work (Jn. 1:3; Eph. 3:9; Heb. 1:2-3)

16 For [q]by him were all things created, [r]that are in heaven, and that are in earth, visible [s]and invisible, whether they be thrones, or dominions, or principalities, or powers: [t]all things were created by him, and for him:

4 His pre-existence and power (Mic. 5:2; Jn. 1:1-2)

17 [u]And he is before all things, and [v]by him all things consist.

5 His fourfold preeminence (v 24; Eph. 1:20-23; 1 Pet. 3:22)

18 [w]And he is the head of the body, [x]the church: [y]who is the beginning, the [z]firstborn from the dead; [a]that in all things he might have the pre-eminence.

19 For it pleased the Father that in him should all fulness dwell;

6 His mediatorial work (1 Tim. 2:4; 2 Cor. 5:14-21)

20 And, [b]having made peace through the blood of his cross, by him [c]to reconcile all things unto himself; by him, [d]I say, whether they be things in earth, or things in heaven.

21 [e]And you, that were sometime alienated and enemies in your mind by wicked works, yet now hath he reconciled

▶22 [f]In the body of his flesh through death, [g]to present you holy and unblameable and unreproveable in his sight;

III Practical doctrines (Col. 1:21-3:17). 1 Condition of final redemption in Christ (Heb. 3:6; 12-14; 4:11; 6:11-12; 1 Pet. 1:5; 2 Pet. 1:5-11)

23 [h]If ye [i]continue in the faith grounded and settled, and be not moved away from the [j]hope of the gospel, which ye have heard, and which was preached to [k]every creature which is under heaven; whereof I Paul am made a minister;

2 Paul's ministry and suffering for the Church (1 Cor. 4:9-13; 2 Cor. 4:8-18; 6:3-10; 11:23-27)

24 Who now rejoice in my sufferings for you, and [l]fill up that which is behind of the afflictions of Christ in my flesh for his body's sake, which is the church:

25 Whereof I am made a minister, [m]according to the dispensation of God which is given to me for you, [n]to fulfil the word of God;

3 The mystery of the indwelling Christ (Rom. 8:10; 2 Cor. 5:17)

26 Even [o]the mystery which hath been hid from ages and from generations, but now is

2 Love for all saints (v 4)
3 Hope of eternal life (v 5; Tit. 1:2)
4 Heard the truth of the gospel (v 5)
5 Experienced fruit-bearing (v 6)
6 Knew the grace of God in truth (v 6)

i Here the gospel is referred to as a traveller making a tour of the whole world. Beginning from Judea it had travelled through Syria and different parts of Asia, Africa, and Europe and had lately visited Colosse. It is also spoken of as a fruit-bearer in all the world (v 6). The gospel is still travelling and bringing forth fruit in the earth. Millions of Bibles in 1,100 languages go into all parts of the earth yearly and the message is being carried by men into far off lands and by radio and television daily

j Mentioned only here; 4:12; Phm 23. He was a fellow-prisoner of Paul in Rome and a minister of the gospel. He was one of the Colossian believers (4:12)

5 Walk pleasing to the Lord (v 10)
6 Be fruitful in all good works
7 Increase in the knowledge of God

10 Have all patience (v 11)
11 Have all longsuffering (v 11)
12 Have joy (v 11)

l Qualified us to be partakers of the inheritance of the saints. This refers to every promise and provision of the gospel for believers who are delivered from the power of Satan and are translated into the kingdom of God (v 12-13; Acts 26:18; 2 Cor. 1:20; Jn. 14:12-15) m Gr. metistano, to transfer, exchange, remove. Trans. translate (v 13); remove (Acts 13:22; 1 Cor. 13:2); put out of (Lk. 16:4); and turn away (Acts 19:26). Here it means to deliver from Satan and his power and kingdom of sin, sickness, and depravity to be placed under the government of the Son of God's love. This transfer is made possible by redemption through the blood of Christ (v 14)

n Cp. this v 14 with Eph. 1:7 and v 9-11 with Eph. 1:15-18; 3:13-21

o Gr. eikon, a figure; image; likeness. Here it means outward and bodily image (Mt. 22:20; Mk. 12:16; Lk. 20:24; Rom. 1:23; 1 Cor. 11:7; 15:49; 2 Cor. 4:4; Col. 1:15; Heb. 10:1; Rev. 13:14-15; 14:9-11; 15:2; 16:2; 19:20; 20:4). It is used only 3 times of moral and spiritual likeness (Rom. 8:29; 2 Cor. 3:18; Col. 3:10). That God has a body, a spirit body, like angels and other spirit beings is clear from note r, Jn. 4:24

p See Invisibility, p. 222

q See Firstborn of creation, p. 222

a The person we now know as Jesus Christ, the only begotten Son of God, existed as an equal member of the Godhead from all eternity (Isa. 7:14; 9:6-7; Mic. 5:2; Jn. 1:1-2; Heb. 1:8; Rev. 1:8-11). Before He became God's Son (sonship refers to humanity, not to deity, note f, Acts 13:33) He was a spirit being and carried out the divine plan of creation. He was the direct agent of God the Father who created all things by Him (v 16; Isa. 9:6; Jn. 1:3; Eph. 3:9; Heb. 1:3)

b This proves that the heavens and the things in them are just as material as those on earth (v 16; Gen. 1:1; Pr. 8:27)

c Invisible things are made up of material substance which is visible in its own realm. Created things, including spirit beings as angels, cherubim, seraphim, etc., are all of material substance. Some substances are of higher type than others. Though all are visible in their own realms, some may not be visible to others of lower realms. Spirit beings are of a higher substance than flesh and blood beings and ordinary material that we see. They are not limited to ordinary substance as we know it, for they can go through closed doors, walls, and other material objects, as proved by what is recorded in Scripture of angels and others. Even the material, spiritual, and immortalized body of Christ, a real flesh and bone body (Lk. 24:39), can go through material walls without an opening (Jn. 20:19; Lk. 24:31, 35-43)

If this be true of angels and resurrected human bodies, could it not be true of God and the Holy Spirit who are spirit beings? See notes on Jn. 4:24

d This is the chief end of all creation (v 16-18; Eph. 3:9-11; Rev. 4:11; 5:13-14)

e He is an eternal being (Isa. 7:14; 9:6-7; Mic. 5:1-2; Jn. 1:1-2; Heb. 1:8; Rev. 1:8-11; Ps. 90:2)

f Not only did He create all things (note a, above), but all things cohere, or are held together by Him (v 17; Heb. 1:3)

g Mt. 16:18; 1 Cor. 12:12-13, 27; Eph. 1:22; 4:15; 5:23-33; Col. 1:18, 24

h There is no difference between the church and the body of Christ, as is clear from the following in Scripture: "the church, which is His body" (Eph. 1:22-23); "He is head of the body, the church" (Col. 1:18); "His body's sake, which is the church" (Col. 1:24)

1 Continue in the faith (v 23)
2 Continue grounded in the faith
3 Continue settled in the faith (v 23)

t The hope of eternal life (Acts 23:6; Rom. 8:21-25; Col. 1:27; Tit. 1:2; 2:13; 3:7; Heb. 3:6; 1 Pet. 1:5-13)

x To preach the gospel in all fulness (Rom. 15:29)

y This mystery is that the Gentiles should be partakers with the Jews in the gospel and be in the same church (Eph. 2:14-22; 3:1-7; 1 Cor. 12:13), and be partakers of Christ (Col. 1:27)

f This is no proof that he had never been to Colosse or Laodicea. Many new converts could have come into the churches after his departure who had not seen him while there (v 1)
g 6 things Paul desired for them (v 2):
1 That their hearts may be comforted
2 They be knit together in love
3 Have full assurance and knowledge
4 Acknowledge the mystery of God
5 Acknowledge the mystery of the Father
6 Acknowledge the mystery of Christ (1:26-27; 1 Tim. 3:16; Eph. 3:1-8)

h Gr. plerophoria, used 4 times of full or complete assurance:
1 Of understanding (2:2)
2 Of the gospel (1 Th. 1:5)
3 Of hope (Heb. 6:11)
4 Of faith (Heb. 10:22)

i This refers to the mysteries of the gospel that are now revealed by God and Christ (1:26-27; 4:3; Mt. 13:11; Rom. 16:25; 1 Cor. 2:7; 4:1; Eph. 1:9; 3:1-9; 5:32; 6:19; 1 Tim. 3:9, 16)

j Not in whom, but in which, referring to the mysteries of v 2. In these mysteries of the gospel are hid all the treasures of wisdom and knowledge (Rom. 11:33)

k Gr. paralogizomai, deceive. Only here; Jas. 1:22. Deceive by subtle reasoning, in which conclusions drawn and evidences assumed may seem conclusive in themselves but are false and contrary to the gospel

l This verse does not read like Paul was a total stranger to Colosse. It shows that the church was in good shape as to order of discipline, sound doctrine, and faith in Christ (v 5) m Verses 6 and 7 express the secret of victorious living in Christ. One becomes a new creature in Christ and if he will so walk he will always be safe from falling. One must not only walk in Christ, but he must abound in and continue being rooted, grounded, and established in the faith of the gospel (v 6-7)

n 32 things Christians must do, p. 222
o Warning against being spoiled, p. 231

p Gr. philosophia. Only here. It refers to the Mosaic institutions, human traditions of the Jews, and their vain reasonings against the gospel, as well as the various heathen reasonings in religion. Both Josephus and Philo used the word of all the Mosaic institutions - the philosophy of Moses, and in particular the hundreds of human interpretations and traditions that even nullified Moses (Mt. 15:2-13; Gal. 1:14; Col. 2:8)

q World principles and ways contrary to the gospel (note g, Gal. 4:3) r That is, the Jewish and heathen philosophies and the rudiments of the world are not according to the simple gospel of Christ who died to save us (1:20-25)
s Christ, the Godhead bodily, p. 231

t Literally, in Him you have been circumcised, not by cutting the flesh, but by the circumcision of Christ in putting off the body of sins of the flesh (v 11). Christ became circumcised and fulfilled all the law to become a true mediator between God and man. Now through Him we are freed from all Mosaic law observance and have been redeemed through the work of Christ on the cross (v 11-17; 1:14, 20-25; 1 Pet. 2:24) u Baptism is by burial or immersion (note n, Mt. 3:11). This does not refer to water baptism, but to the baptism into Christ and into His body by the Holy Spirit (Rom. 6:1-10; 1 Cor. 12:13; Gal. 3:27). Water baptism is a symbol or figure of this spiritual baptism (1 Pet. 3:21)

5 Paul's suffering for the Church and its purpose

FOR I would that ye knew what great conflict I have for you, and for them at [c]Lā-ŏd-ĭ-çē'a, and for as many as have not seen my face in the flesh;
2 [e]That their hearts might be comforted, being knit together in love, and unto all riches of the [h]full assurance of understanding, to the acknowledgement of the [i]mystery of God, and of the Father, and of Christ;
3 In [j]whom are hid all the treasures of wisdom and knowledge.

6 How to continue in Christ (2 Cor. 10:4-5; Gal. 5:16-26; Eph. 6:10-18)

4 And this I say, lest any man should [k]beguile you with enticing words.
5 For though I be absent in the flesh, yet am [l]I with you in the spirit, joying and beholding your order, and the stedfastness of your faith in Christ.
●6 [m]As ye have therefore received Christ Jē'sus the Lord, so walk ye in him:
7 Rooted and built up in him, and stablished in the faith, as ye have been taught, abounding therein with thanksgiving.

7 Warning against adding human philosophy and legality to the completeness in Christ

●8 Beware lest any man [o]spoil you through [p]philosophy and vain deceit, after the tradition of men, after the [q]rudiments of the world, and [r]not after Christ.
9 [s]For in him dwelleth all the fulness of the Godhead bodily.
10 And ye are complete in him, which is the head of all principality and power:

8 Baptism into Christ, not into water: the secret of redemption (Rom. 6:3-8; 1 Cor. 12:13; Gal. 3:27)

11 [t]In whom also ye are circumcised with the circumcision made without hands, in putting off the body of the sins of the flesh by the circumcision of Christ:
12 [u]Buried with him in baptism, [v]wherein also ye are risen with him through the faith of the operation of God, who hath raised him from the dead.
13 And [b] you, being dead in your sins and the uncircumcision of your flesh, hath he quickened together with him, having forgiven you all trespasses;

9 All law observances abolished in Christ (Gal. 4:21, refs.)

14 [c]Blotting out the [d]handwriting of [e]ordinances that was against us, which was [f]contrary to us, and took it out of the way, [g]nailing it to his cross;
15 [h]And having spoiled principalities and powers, he [i]made a shew of them openly, triumphing over them in it.
●16 [j]Let no man therefore judge you in [k]meat, or in [l]drink, or in respect of an [m]holyday, or of the new moon, or of the [n]sabbath days:
17 Which are a shadow of things to come; but the body is of Christ.

10 Warning against false mysticism and demon religions

●18 [o]Let no man beguile you of your reward in a [p]voluntary humility and worshipping of angels, intruding into those things which he hath not seen, vainly puffed up by his fleshly mind, 19 And not [q]holding the Head, from which all the body by joints and bands having nourishment ministered, and knit together, increaseth with the increase of God.

11 Abstain from all religious ordinances contrary to truth

20 Wherefore [r]if ye be dead with Christ from the [s]rudiments of the world, [t]why, as though living in the world, are ye subject to ordinances, 21 Touch not; taste not; handle not;
22 Which all are to perish with the using;) [u]after the commandments and doctrines of men?
23 Which things have indeed a shew of wisdom in [v]will worship, and humility, and neglecting of the body; not in any honour to the satisfying of the flesh.

181 CHAPTER 3

12 What to seek and where to center affections: two reasons (Mt. 5:8; 6:33; 22:37)

IF [w]ye then be risen with Christ, [x]seek those things which are above, [y]where Christ sitteth on the right hand of God.
●2 [z]Set your affection on things above, not on things on the earth.
3 For [a]ye are dead, and your life is hid with Christ in God.

13 The rapture (1 Thess. 4:13, refs.)

a This baptism refers to spiritual resurrection from death in trespasses and sins (v 12; Eph. 2:1-9). It is an operation of God, not of a preacher who baptizes in water (v 12; 1 Cor. 12:13; Rom. 6:1-10; Gal. 3:27). It is made effective through the faith of the operation of God, not through the operation of the minister b This verse is the same in doctrine as Eph. 2:1, 5, 11, proving that this baptism is not the one in water by a minister. It is God here that quickens or resurrects from death in trespasses and sins (v 13). No minister can do this by water c Gr. exaleipho, to smear out. Trans. blot out (v 14; Acts 3:19; Rev. 3:5) and wipe away (Rev. 7:17; 21:4). The allusion here is to erasing ink from a parchment by a fluid as the muriatic acid, or erasing oriental inks of burnt ivory, cork, and gum water by a wet sponge. No trace of the writing can be seen afterward d Gr. cheirographon, something written by hand; written decree. Only here. It refers to the complete law of Moses, not only the ceremonial part of the law, but to the commandments also and every detail of the old contract e Gr. dogma, note k, Acts 16:4.
f The whole law of Moses was against us and contrary to us and had to be taken out of the way or redemption could never have been experienced. The law made no provision for redemption. It only cursed and killed all men because all broke the law and could not possibly keep it (notes, Rom. 8:3; Gal. 1:6; 3:5, 19; 2 Cor. 3:6).
g He took the law of Moses out of the way (out of the midst), so we do not have to remain under its curse and eternal death penalty. Since it is out of our way, let us not stumble over it again. Keep it out of our way
h See Moses' law annulled, p. 222
i See Christ's two conquests, p. 222
j Gr. apekduomai, to strip off clothes of another. Trans. spoil (v 15) and put off (Col. 3:9). Here it means Satan and his forces were stripped of their power to condemn and kill the race. The law was blotted out and they had no further claim to hold man in sin and bondage, as they did by means of the law (Rom. 7:5-25; 15 things could not do, p. 175

l See 5 things not to judge, p. 222
m This refers to clean and unclean animals of the law (Lev. 11; Dt. 14). The new covenant permits any kind of meat to be used as food (Rom. 14; 1 Cor. 8 and 10; Col. 2:14-17; 1 Tim. 4:1-8)
n See Christian law on drinks, p. 222
o Jews had many holydays, new moons, festivals, and sabbaths that were binding upon all men (Lev. 23; 1 Chr. 23; 31). None of them are commanded in the new covenant, so men are now free to do as they please in all these (v 14-17; Rom. 14:5-6; Gal. 4:9-10) p See Christian law on sabbaths, p. 222

3 The rudiments of the world (Col. 2:20) a See note T, Introduction to Col. (3:4, unfulfilled). When it is not stated, the fact of it is (Jn. 14:1-3; 1 Th. 4:16). This refers to the rapture

b Eternal life is in Jesus Christ (Jn. 17:2-3; Rom. 5:10; 1 Jn. 5:11-13) c Gr. phaneroo, to make visibly manifest. Trans. make manifest (v 4: 1:26; Jn. 1:31; 3:21; 9:3; Rom. 16:26; 1 Cor. 4:5; 2 Cor. 2:14; 4:10-11; 5:11; 11:6; Eph. 5:13; 2 Tim. 1:10; Heb. 9:8; 1 Jn. 2:19; Rev. 15:4); manifest (Mk. 4:22; Jn. 17:6; Rom. 3:21; Tit. 1:3; 1 Jn. 1:2; 3:5, 8; 4:9); manifest forth (Jn. 2:11); declare manifestly (2 Cor. 3:3); be manifest (1 Tim. 3:16; 1 Pet. 1:20); show one's self (Jn. 21:1, 14); and appear (Mk. 16:12, 14; 2 Cor. 5:10; 7:12; Col. 3:4; Heb. 9:26; 1 Pet. 5:4; 1 Jn. 2:28; 3:2; Rev. 3:18)

Here it means to make Himself visibly manifest to those whom He translates or causes to meet Him in the air (Jn. 14:1-3; 1 Th. 4:16-17; 1 Jn. 2:28; 3:2). It is in glory that we shall appear with Him (v 4). We must first appear with Him in the glory of heaven before we come back with Him in His glory to the earth to reign (Jn. 14:1-3; 1 Th. 4:16-17; Eph. 5:27; 1 Th. 2:12; Jude 24). The word glory is used of heaven in 1 Tim. 3:16; 2 Pet. 1:17

d Gr. nekroo, put to death (v 5); be dead (Rom. 4:19; Heb. 11:12). The same in meaning as thanatoo, mortify (Rom. 8:13); kill (Rom. 8:36; 2 Cor. 6:9); put to death (Mt. 26:59; 27:1; Mk. 14:55; 1 Pet. 3:18); cause to be put to death (Mt. 10:21; Mk. 13:12; Lk. 21:16); and become dead (Rom. 7:4). See 5 things to put to death, p. 231

e Compare v 6-7 with Eph. 2:2-3

f 7 things to put off:
1 Anger (v 8; note c, Eph. 4:26)

3 Malice (v 8; note l, Eph. 4:31)

6 Longsuffering (note g, 1 Cor. 13:4)
7 Forbearance (note c, 9, Gal. 5:22)

9 Divine love (note g, 1 Cor. 13:4)

i See note y, Eph. 4:24

j 2 Cor. 5:17-18; Eph. 4:23-24

k Gr. epignosis, full and true knowledge (v 10; 1:9-10; Rom. 1:28; 3:20; 10:2; Eph. 1:17; 4:13; Phil. 1:9; 1 Tim. 2:4; 2 Tim. 3:7; Heb. 10:26; 2 Pet. 1:2, 3, 8, 2:20) and acknowledge (Col. 2:2; 2 Tim. 2:25; Tit. 1:1; Ph'm 6). Ignorance is the state of the average heathen who gets to know only a little about nature. Christianity teaches man the true and full knowledge of God and nature, and of the origin and destiny of all things (Acts 15:18; Eph. 2:7; 3:9-11)
